(2) On or before the 20th day of December and of each succeeding calendar month, every manufacturer shall file with the Director General for Operations a report on Form PD-738 which shall include such manufacturer's proposed production schedules of motors and generators so far as then planned, and such other information as shall be required by said Form PD-738. The production schedule for the calendar month following the date of filing shall be deemed to be approved by the Director General for Operations upon receipt of the above mentioned report by the War Production Board unless and until the Director General for Operations shall otherwise direct. Regardless of the terms of any other order or rule or regulation of the War Production Board, or of any commitment by the manufacturer or any customer, the Director General for Operations may at any time change any schedule; direct the cancellation of any order held by any manufacturer whether or not included or reflected in any schedule; prescribe any other schedule for production; allocate any order theretofore received by the manufacturer to any other manufacturer; or direct the delivery of any motor or generator, in production or completed to any person, at the established price and terms. No manufacturer shall alter any approved or prescribed production schedule unless authorized or directed to do so by the Director General for Operations.

(h) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Records and reports. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production, and sales.

All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board, such reports and questionnaires as the Director General for Operations shall from time to time request.

(2) Other limitation orders. Nothing in this order shall be construed to permit any person to sell, deliver, or otherwise transfer, or any manufacturer to purchase, receive delivery of or otherwise acquire any raw materials, semiprocessed parts, or finished products in contravention of the terms of any L or M Order, or amendments or supplements thereto or other regulations of the War Production Board effective at the date of any such sale, delivery, or other transfer. Where the limitations imposed by any other L or M Order are applicable to the subject matter of this order, the most restrictive limitation shall apply, unless otherwise specifically provided herein.

(3) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(4) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(5) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be adressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L-221.

PART 3134—DAIRY PRODUCTS

[Conservation Order M-259[1] as Amended Dec. 9, 1942]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of milk and milk products for defense, for private account and for export, and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3134.1 Conservation Order M-259—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Producer" shall mean any person who is engaged in the business of:

(i) Pasteurizing milk or cream,

(ii) Producing dairy products, for sale, by processing milk or cream in a plant not located on a farm where the milk was produced,

(iii) Bottling raw or pasteurized cream in glass or paper containers, or

(iv) Selling cream in bulk containers to hotels, institutions, or restaurants; Provided, however, That a farmer or ranch or herd owner who delivered an average of less than one gallon of cream per day in the three calendar months next preceding November 25, 1942, shall not be deemed a producer within the meaning of this order, until his deliveries of cream exceed one gallon per day in any calendar month.

(2) "Milk" means the liquid milk of cows.

(3) "Cream" is the class of foods defined by Federal Security Agency in Title 21, Code of Federal Regulations, §§ 18.500-18.515; 5 F.R. 2443. The term "cream" includes cream by whatever name known, including light cream, coffee cream, table cream, whipping cream, and heavy cream.

(4) "Milk fat content" shall be determined as prescribed by the Federal Security Agency in Title 21, Code of Federal Regulations, § 18.500; 5 F.R. 2443.

(b) Restrictions on producers. No producer may deliver cream having a milk fat content in excess of 19% except to another producer.

(c) Exceptions. Notwithstanding paragraph (b) hereof, in any state where by law or administrative regulation in force on November 25, 1942, the milk fat content of cream of minimum milk fat content is required to exceed 18%, a producer may deliver to any person cream having a milk fat content not exceeding by more than 1% the minimum so required by such state law or administrative regulation on November 25, 1942. In addition, a producer may deliver to or for any person or medical institution cream of such milk fat content and in such quantities as may be necessary for supervised medical treatment of the person or the institution's patients, provided the producer is supplied with a written statement from the person's physician, or, in the case of a medical institution, from a responsible official thereof, specifying the milk fat content and the daily quantity of cream required and certifying as to the necessity of such cream for supervised medical treatment.

(d) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds for the appeal.

(e) Reports. Any person affected by this order shall file such reports and questionnaires as the War Production Board may request from time to time.

(f) Records. Every person to whom this order applies shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(g) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or accepting further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Food Division, Washington, D. C. Ref: M-259.

(j) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

PART 1052—KITCHEN, HOUSEHOLD AND OTHER MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES

[Amendment 1 to Supplementary Limitation Order L-30-d]

MISCELLANEOUS COOKING UTENSILS AND OTHER ARTICLES

Paragraph (b) of Limitation Order L-30-d (§ 1052.5) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof a new subparagraph as follows:

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1), a manufacturer may produce during the period from December 21, 1942, to January 6, 1943 inclusive, fire place grates from scrap iron and steel provided that no such grate exceeds 30 pounds in weight.

Issued this 17th day of December, 1942.

PART 1095—COMMUNICATIONS

[General Conservation Order L-148 as Amended Dec. 18, 1942]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain types of wire communication equipment for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 1095.4 General Conservation Order L-148—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person manufacturing wire communication equipment, parts or attachments thereto, of the kinds listed in Schedule A, to the extent that he is engaged in such manufacture, and shall include sales and distribution outlets controlled by said manufacturer.

(3) "Distributor" means any person other than a manufacturer regularly engaged in the business of leasing or selling wire communication equipment, parts or attachments thereto, to dealers.

(4) "Dealer" means any person (other than one engaged in rendering wire or radio communication service), regularly engaged in the business of offering wire communication equipment, parts or attachments thereto for sale or lease at retail to the consumer.

(5) "Wire communication equipment" shall include, but not by way of limitation, new and used wire telephone and telegraph communication equipment, parts and attachments thereto (including wire intercommunicating systems) of the kinds listed in Schedule A.

(b) General restrictions. (1) Regardless of the terms of any contract of sale, purchase, rental or other commitment, no manufacturer, distributor or dealer shall accept any purchase, rental or other order for wire communication equipment, parts or attachments thereto including, but not limited to, those included in Schedule A which is attached and made a part of this order, except a purchase, rental or other order bearing a preference rating of A-1-a or higher; and no manufacturer, distributor or dealer shall sell, lend, lease, rent, deliver or otherwise transfer any such wire communication equipment, parts or attachments thereto, nor shall any person receive or accept deliveries of any such equipment, parts or attachments thereto, from a manufacturer, distributor or dealer except to fill a purchase, rental or other order bearing a preference rating of A-1-a or higher. Provided, however, That this paragraph shall not prohibit the transfer or delivery of wire communication equipment to a manufacturer for repair or storage or the return of said equipment to the owner thereof after repair has been effected or storage terminated.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1), wire communication equipment, the order for which bears a preference rating of A-7 or higher and has been accepted by a manufacturer, distributor or dealer prior to January 2, 1943, may be manufactured and/or transferred and/or delivered.

(c) Existing contracts. Fulfillments of contracts in violation of this order is prohibited regardless of whether such contracts are entered into before or after September 28, 1942. No person shall be held liable for damages or penalties for default under any contract or order which shall result directly or indirectly from compliance with the terms of this order.

(d) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(e) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Communications Equipment Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: L-148.

(f) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the Director General for Operations, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from process or use of, material under priority contract, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(h) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file such reports as the Director General for Operations shall from time to time require.

Issued this 18th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1301—MACHINE TOOLS

[RPS 1,[2] Amendment 2]

SECOND-HAND MACHINE TOOLS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In § 1301.3 paragraphs (b), (c), (d), and (f) are amended, and in § 1301.7 paragraph 2 of "Explanatory Information" is amended, as set forth below:

§ 1301.3 Definitions. When used in Revised Price Schedule No. 1 the term:

* * * * *

(b) "Dealer" means a person engaged in the business of purchasing for resale or of selling or negotiating the sale of second-hand machine tools, or extras, whether as a principal or as an agent or broker. Purchasing for resale includes the purchase of any second-hand machine tools or extras for resale after repairing or rebuilding.

(c) "Machine tool" includes all machines for cutting, abrading, shaping, and forming of metals.

(d) "Second-hand" refers to machine tools which have previously been used.

* * * * *

(f) "Rebuilt and guaranteed" applies only to a machine tool which (1) has been rebuilt or is in equivalent condition to a rebuilt machine tool and is invoiced as such (a rebuilt machine tool is one in which worn or missing parts have been replaced or reworked and which has been tested under power so as to prove that it has a substantially equivalent performance to that of the machine tool when new); (2) has been tested under power so as to prove that it has a substantially equivalent performance to that of a machine tool when new; (3) carries a binding written guaranty of satisfactory performance for a period of not less than 30 days from date of shipment; and (4) is expressly invoiced as a rebuilt machine tool or its equivalent.

In the event of a sale by a governmental agency, such agency may substitute for the guaranty a certification by a qualified person who is not engaged in the business of selling second-hand machine tools, and who is approved by the purchaser, that all worn or missing components have been replaced or reworked, that the machine tool has been tested under power, and that such test has indicated that it has a substantially equivalent performance to that of the machine tool when new.

§ 1301.7 Appendix A: Maximum prices for second-hand machine tools. * * *

Explanatory information

* * * * *

2. For definition of the term "rebuilt and guaranteed" see § 1301.3 (f).

PART 1347—PAPER, PAPER PRODUCTS, RAW MATERIALS FOR PAPER AND PAPER PRODUCTS

[MPR 187,[2] Amendment 2]

CERTAIN PAPERBOARD PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The first sentence of the preamble is amended; paragraph (a) of § 1347.401 is amended, as set forth below:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the prices of folding cartons, corrugated fibre sheets, corrugated fibre boxes, solid fibre sheets, solid fibre boxes, set-up boxes, pads, partitions and other paperboard products partially or completely manufactured on the same converting equipment, rectangular set-up and flat Pure-Pak milk bottles, and wedge shaped pails formed on a Brightwood or similar type machine, excluding liquid-tight containers, milk bottle caps, book matches and other commodities covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 129,[3] bobbins, cans, canisters, cones, cores, ribbon blocks, roving cans, spindles, spools, tubes, cylindrical paperboard casings and cans and related hollow paperboard and paper commodities partially or completely manufactured on an open-end rotating mandrel, of whatever size, shape, grade and specifications and having one or two open ends and/or one or two plugged or closed ends, and regardless of end-use have risen to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

* * * * *

(a) Classifications. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 187 shall apply to the following described products whether partially or completely manufactured:

(1) Folding cartons, corrugated fibre sheets, corrugated fibre boxes, solid fibre sheets, solid fibre boxes, set-up boxes, pads, partitions and other paperboard products manufactured on the same converting equipment, rectangular set-up and flat Pure-Pak milk bottles, and wedge shaped pails formed on a Brightwood or similar type machine, but excluding liquid-tight containers, milk bottle caps, book matches and other commodities covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 129.

(2) Bobbins, cans, canisters, cones, cores, ribbon blocks, roving cans, spindles, spools, tubes, cylindrical paperboard casings and cans and related hollow paperboard and paper commodities partially or completely manufactured on an open-end rotating mandrel, of whatever size, shape, grade and specifications and having one or two open ends and/or one or two plugged or closed ends, and regardless of end-use.

(i) The date July 30, 1942, mentioned in § 1347.401 (b) shall be December 17, 1942, as to these commodities.

(ii) The date July 29, 1942, mentioned in § 1347.402 shall be December 17, 1942, as to these commodities.

(iii) The date July 29, 1942, mentioned in § 1347.406 (b), (c) (2) and (d) shall be December 17, 1942, as to these commodities.

(b) Amendment No. 2 (§ 1347.401 (a) (1), (2) (i), (ii) and (iii)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 182 shall become effective December 23, 1942.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Supp. Service Reg. 4, MPR 165 as Amended[1]]

BOWLING

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of Supplementary Service Regulation No. 4 has been issued simultaneously herewith, and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* For the reasons set forth in that statement and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended and Executive order No. 9250, Supplementary Service Regulation No. 4 is hereby issued.

§ 1499.654 Modification of maximum prices established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 as amended for bowling. (a) The maximum prices established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 as amended are modified for bowling as hereinafter provided:

(1) League bowling. The maximum price for each price classification of league bowling shall be the highest price charged for each such price classification in September 1941 plus a total sum of 7¢ for three games of ten pins or plus a total sum of 10¢ for three games of duck pins, candle pins, and other types of bowling.

(2) Open bowling. The maximum price for each price classification of open bowling shall be the highest price charged for each such price classification in September 1941 plus the sum of 3¢ a game of ten pins or plus the sum of 4¢ a game of duck pins, candle pins, and other types of bowling.

(b) When used in this Supplementary Service Regulation No. 4:

(1) "League bowling" means bowling done under contract between groups of bowlers and the bowling proprietors, by the terms of which the rates and conditions of bowling are set for the season.

(2) "Open bowling" mean all non-league bowling.

(3) "Each price classification of" league or open bowling means the price distinction customarily made for different persons (such as, but not limited to, members of the armed forces, men, women, children); for different times of the day (such as, but not limited to, mornings, afternoons, evenings); or for different days of the week (such as, but not limited to, week days, Saturdays, Sundays, holidays). The same relative price distinction for each price classification of bowling made in September 1941 must be retained.

(c) Lower prices than those established by this Supplementary Service Regulation No. 4 may at any time be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

(d) Every bowling alley proprietor or other person operating a bowling establishment shall keep such records as are required by § 1499.108 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 as amended, except that the base period for which such records shall be kept under paragraphs (a) and (b) of that section shall be September 1941 instead of March 1942, but he need not file with his War Price and Rationing Board the statement required by § 1499.108.

(e) Within thirty days after the effective date of this Supplementary Service Regulation No. 4, every bowling alley proprietor or other person operating a bowling establishment shall post his maximum prices for league bowling and for open bowling as established under this Supplementary Service Regulation No. 4 in a manner plainly visible to, and understandable by, the patrons of his establishment. This posting shall be in the following form:

> Prices charged for bowling are now subject to the services regulation (Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 as amended) of the Office of Price Administration. The maximum prices for each classification of bowling on and after December 23, 1942, may be no higher than the highest prices charged in September 1941 for a series of three games of league bowling plus 7¢ for ten pins or plus 10¢ for duck pins, candle pins, and other types of bowling; and may be no higher than the highest prices charged in September 1941 for one game of open bowling plus 3¢ per game for ten pins or plus 4¢ per game for duck pins, candle pins, and other types of bowling.
> Our ceiling prices determined on the above basis are ———. (Indicate prices for each type and price classification of league and open bowling.)

(f) This Supplementary Service Regulation No. 4 (§ 1499.654) shall become effective December 23, 1942.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

Issued this 17th day of December 1942.

WILLIAM GOODACRE & SONS, LTD.

Order No. 134 under § 1499.18 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation—Docket No. GF3-1339.

For the reasons set forth in the opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1035 Granting adjustment of maximum prices for sales of Numdah rugs by William Goodacre & Sons, Ltd. (a) William Goodacre & Sons, Ltd., 295 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, may sell and deliver Numdah rugs imported from India at prices no higher than those hereinafter designated:

Approximate sizes (feet)	Maximum price
4 x 6	$3.60
3 x 4	2.22

subject to the allowances, discounts and other price differentials in effect during March 1942.

(b) William Goodacre & Sons, Ltd. shall send to each customer, with each first delivery of Numdah rugs on which adjustment in maximum price has been made pursuant to this Order No. 134, a complete list of adjusted maximum prices and a notice reading as follows:

> The Office of Price Administration has granted William Goodacre & Sons, Ltd. permission, pursuant to Order No. 134 under § 1499.18 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation to increase its maximum prices to those specified in the price lists accompanying this order. Since these prices have only been increased to the level of competitive importers of this commodity, you will not be permitted to increase your maximum prices.

(c) This Order No. 134 may be revoked or amended by the Administrator at any time.

(d) This Order No. 134 (§ 1499.1035) is incorporated as a section of Supplementary Regulation No. 14 which contains modifications of maximum prices established by § 1499.2.

(e) This Order No. 134 (§ 1499.1035) under section 18 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall become effective December 18, 1942.

[Order 135 Under § 1499.18 (b) of GMPR]

H. E. WHITAKER CO.

Order No. 135 under § 1499.18 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation—Docket Number GF3-1951.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1036 Adjustment of maximum price for 6 ounce jars of "Parfait" processed and ground horse-radish, manufactured by H. E. Whitaker Co., 1025 East Montgomery Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. (a) H. E. Whitaker Co., of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, may sell and deliver and any person may buy and receive from H. E. Whitaker Co., 6 ounce jars of "Parfait" processed and ground horse-radish at prices no higher than 75 cents per dozen jars.

(b) H. E. Whitaker Co. shall not change its customary allowances, discounts or other price differentials, unless such change shall result in a lower selling price.

(c) H. E. Whitaker Co., before or at the time of making each initial sale after the effective date of this order to a purchaser of 6 ounce jars of "Parfait" processed and ground horse-radish, shall notify such purchaser in writing as follows:

> The Office of Price Administration has permitted us to raise our maximum selling price for sales to you of 6 ounce jars of "Parfait" processed and ground horse-radish from 72 cents to 75 cents per dozen jars. This amount represents only that part of cost increases which we are unable to absorb, and it was granted with the understanding that the wholesale and retail prices would not be raised.

> The Office of Price Administration has not permitted you or any other seller to raise his maximum price for sales of 6 ounce jars of "Parfait" processed and ground horse-radish purchased from us. O.P.A. requires that you keep this notice for examination.

(d) All prayers of the application not granted herein are denied.

(e) This Order No. 135 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

Chapter XIII—Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War

PART 1510—SUPPLY

To all persons engaged in the petroleum industry in Districts One, Two, and Three, and to all petroleum industry committees hereinafter referred to:

Pursuant to the President's letter of May 28, 1941, establishing the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, §§1510.27 to 1510.35 of this Chapter (Petroleum Directive No. 59, dated September 25, 1942[2]) are hereby amended to read as follows:

AUTHORITY: §§ 1510.27 to 1510.35, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in the President's letter of May 28, 1941, to the Secretary of the Interior (6 F.R. 2760).

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[2] 7 F.R. 7759.

§ 1510.27 Definitions. (a) "Principal petroleum product" means any motor fuel (other than war products as may now or hereafter be specified by the Director of Refining), kerosene (including range oil and stove oil), distillate fuel oil (including gas oils), or residual fuel oil.

(b) "Original supplier" means any person who, at the date of the issuance of this Directive and during the calendar year 1941, produced or manufactured any principal petroleum product or products in District One or imported from any point outside District One any petroleum or principal petroleum products into District One for sale or resale therein, or any person who, in 1941, regularly purchased for resale supplies of petroleum or principal petroleum products in District One by tanker and received such petroleum or principal petroleum products in ocean terminals owned or controlled by him, such terminals having adequate facilities to accommodate the berthing and unloading of tankers delivering petroleum or principal petroleum products. In the event a person is engaged in business, part of which is included in the definition of an "intermediate supplier", then he shall be considered as an original supplier only as to that portion of his business coming within this definition, and he shall be considered an intermediate supplier as to that portion of his business coming within such definition.

(c) "Intermediate supplier" means any person who regularly received principal petroleum products in District One from any original supplier or other intermediate supplier for redelivery to others: Provided, however, That the term shall not include a service station, peddler, or other retail outlet, or a transporter of petroleum or principal petroleum products to the extent that he is engaged merely in such transportation for others.

(d) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporations or agencies, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

§ 1510.28 Petroleum supply program. The Director of Petroleum Supply, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, shall prepare and forward to the General Committees of Districts One, Two, and Three, statements showing the petroleum supply forecasts for Districts One, Two, and Three, the quantities of crude petroleum required for refining within each district and for movement between districts, the quantities of the principal petroleum products to be manufactured within each district, and the specific inter-district movements. The appropriate committee or subcommittee in Districts Two and Three, as designated by the general committees for Districts Two and Three, shall prepare and submit in quadruplicate to the said Director a suggested monthly schedule for the succeeding month showing the points of origin of the supplies available for shipment from Districts Two and Three which will permit maximum efficient use of transportation facilities. These schedules shall give the name of the suppliers, the quantity available at each point of origin, a general description of the quality, including, in case of heavy fuel oil, sulphur content, of the products available for shipment, and such other information as may from time to time be specified by the Director of Petroleum Supply. Such committees or subcommittees shall, subject to the direction of the Director of Petroleum Supply of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War or such district director as he may designate, arrange for purchases, sales, exchanges, or loans of the principal petroleum products and for the common use of facilities among those engaged in the petroleum industry in the area over which such committee has jurisdiction so as to provide, so far as possible, for the concentration of supplies of principal petroleum products at points which will permit the maximum efficient use of available transportation facilities. The Director of Refining, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, shall furnish to the Director of Petroleum Supply, a monthly program for the succeeding month assigning among the several refineries in District One the crude petroleum to be shipped into District One and showing the monthly quantity and the quality of the principal petroleum products to be manufactured at each refinery in District One during such month and a copy thereof shall be forwarded to the appropriate committees or subcommittees and to the persons named therein.

§ 1510.29 Supply and distribution program for District One. The Subcommittee of Supplies and Distribution for District One, subject to the supervision of the General Committee for District One, shall prepare and submit in quadruplicate to the Director of Petroleum Supply:

(a) A suggested schedule showing the sales position of each original supplier in each of the six zones described in Exhibit "A" hereof and for all of District One for each of the principal petroleum products. The determination shall be based on sales made during the calendar year 1941, and shall be expressed as a percentage of the total sales of each of such products made by all original suppliers in the same areas and for the same period. In order to avoid duplication in the determination of the sales position of any person, sales and deliveries made by one original supplier to another original supplier shall be included as sales of the receiving supplier and deducted from the sales made by the delivering supplier. In order to reflect true zone sales positions in the preparation of such schedules, adjustments shall be made for sales made in one zone for shipment to another zone and for any discontinuance of business, in whole or in part, in any zone since January 1, 1942.

(b) A suggested schedule of terminal and storage facilities (hereinafter referred to as "Supply terminals") which are so equipped as to receive any principal petroleum product or products in the most efficient manner and so located as to permit an efficient use of transportation equipment and to permit their use for redistribution either directly to customers or to bulk plants. With respect to each such supply terminal, such schedules shall show the location, name of railroad on which located, storage capacity for each principal petroleum product, the daily loading and unloading capacity for each method of transportation, the area to be served thereby, and the original suppliers operating in such area. Upon issuance of such schedules in accordance with § 1510.34, the supply terminals specified therein shall be used for principal petroleum products imported into the area served by such supply terminal in accordance with issued schedules. Each person using such supply terminals may distribute directly therefrom to his customers or may move the products directly to his own bulk plant, unless the Director of Transportation of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War or such District Director as he may designate finds that such action interferes with the operation of the supply terminal or will result in an inefficient use of transportation equipment available for importing petroleum products into District One. For the purpose of this directive, refineries receiving crude oil shall be deemed supply terminals with respect to the principal petroleum products produced at such refineries.

(c) A suggested schedule of thruput rates for receiving, handling and delivery of principal petroleum products in or through the supply terminals. Upon issuance of such schedule in accordance with § 1510.34, the rates specified therein shall be charged for all principal petroleum products put through such supply terminals.

(d) Suggested monthly schedules showing the sources of the principal petroleum products as designated pursuant to § 1510.28, for shipment to each supply terminal in each zone, selected under § 1510.29 (b) and assigning to original suppliers of each zone the duty of importing such products from such sources to such terminals or storage facilities. The amounts so assigned to any original supplier for importation into District One shall, so far as is practicable, be approximately equivalent to the sales position of such original supplier as determined pursuant to § 1510.29 (a) hereof. Principal petroleum products to be produced from crude oil imported into District One shall be deemed, for the purposes of this directive, to be products imported into District One by the importer of such crude oil. These schedules shall be so prepared as to cause the accumulation and through routing of trainload lots (unless an exception is granted by the Director of Transportation, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, or such District Director or Directors as he may designate), the efficient use of transportation facilities, and the importation into each zone of District One of the amounts of principal petroleum products determined by the Director of Petroleum Supply of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War to be required to meet the requirements of each zone for such month. In determining such requirements the said Director shall give due consideration to current requirements of consumers in the zone as restricted by any applicable rationing or limitation order and to deliveries required to build up stocks to meet future seasonal requirements or to build up stocks at those points supplied by transportation which may be affected by weather conditions or other transportation difficulties. In specifying destinations and making assignments hereunder, arrangements shall be made so as to avoid, so far as practicable, (1) shipment by tank car of any principal petroleum product into refining areas or into areas served by pipe line, barge, and tanker terminals except where the total principal petroleum products available to such area are insufficient to meet the requirements thereof; and (2) shipments out of such areas of any principal petroleum products except to the extent that there is an excess of production and receipts of such principal petroleum products within such area over the requirements of such area. Upon the issuance of such schedules in accordance with § 1510.34, each original supplier shall immediately arrange for the placing of orders with refiners in Districts Two and Three for movement of such products in accordance with such schedules and with the terms of this directive. Notices of all orders placed under this section and all other orders contemplating the shipment of crude petroleum or principal petroleum products into District One made by any person, whether an original supplier or not, shall be filed with the Subcommittee of Supplies and Distribution and the Transportation Committee in District One. The subcommittee shall thereupon prepare a summary of such orders in relation to the obligations to be performed hereunder and forward three copies thereof to the Director in Charge, District One, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War.

(e) Subject to the supervision of the District Director of Marketing, District One, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, the subcommittee shall arrange for purchases, sales, exchanges, and loans of the principal petroleum products among the original suppliers so as to provide each such original supplier with a proportionate part of each of the principal petroleum products available for distribution in each zone on the basis of the sales position of each such original supplier as determined under § 1510.29 (a) hereof. The terms and conditions of any sale, loan, or exchange to be made pursuant to this section shall be negotiated between the individual parties to any such transaction: Provided, however, That:

(1) If delivery under the sale is made in Zones One, Two, Three, Four, or Five, District One, the price agreed upon by the parties shall not exceed the applicable maximum price regulation, as amended or supplemented, or other order of the Price Administrator, or the sum of the following items, whichever is lower:

(i) The value of the product at the normal origin as provided in section (5) (b) (ii) of Petroleum Compensatory Adjustments Regulation No. 1, issued by Defense Supplies Corporation.

(ii) The cost of transporting the product from the normal origin by the normal method of transportation which was used during the calendar year 1941 to the supply terminal as determined by Petroleum Compensatory Adjustments Regulation No. 1, except that if, at any supply terminal designated on the schedule referred to in § 1510.29 (b), such normal cost differs as between original suppliers, then the Director of Transportation, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, may establish the cost of that normal method of transportation by which the greatest volume of the particular product normally moved to the supply terminal. In such event, such cost shall be used by all original suppliers using said terminal.

(iii) Reasonable storage and handling charges incurred by the seller within District One for which no recovery may be had under Petroleum Compensatory Adjustments Regulation No. 1: Provided, however, That such charges shall not exceed the thruput rates which may be established and approved pursuant to § 1510.29 (c) for each supply terminal.

(iv) Cost of any additional transportation from the supply terminal to the point at which delivery is made by the seller to the buyer, for which no recovery may be had under Petroleum Compensatory Adjustments Regulation No. 1.

(v) The amounts or revenue resulting from any increase in the maximum price of the product sold which must be accounted for under the Plan for Equitable Sharing of Revenue and Extra Transportation Expenses approved under Recommendation No. 12, or under Petroleum Compensatory Adjustment Regulation No. 1 issued by Defense Supplies Corporation.

(vi) Any and all taxes which the seller is required to pay with respect to the transportation, sale or delivery of the principal petroleum product so sold.

(2) If delivery be made in Zone 6, District One, the price agreed upon by the parties shall allow for a reasonable margin below the prices generally prevailing for sales to other classes of resellers. Such price shall not exceed, however, the applicable maximum price regulation as amended or supplemented, or other order of the Price Administrator.

In the event the individuals are unable to agree upon a fair and reasonable price hereunder, then any such dispute shall be referred to the Director of Petroleum Supply, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, for such action as he may direct.

(3) Sales between original suppliers made in accordance with the price provisions set forth in § 1510.29 hereof and which are arranged for by the Subcommittee of Supplies and Distribution under this section, shall not be deemed to effect any discrimination against any buyer (including any original supplier) to whom any sale not arranged for under this section is made at any higher price permitted under any applicable price regulation.

§ 1510.30 Use of transportation facilities. (a) The Transportation Committee for District One shall prepare a weekly statement showing, for the preceding calendar week, the type of transportation facilities used, the names of the persons using such facilities, the volume and kind of crude oil or petroleum product delivered into each zone of District One by each person, and such other information as may be pertinent. Copies of such statement shall be filed in quadruplicate with the Director of Transportation, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, or such District Director or Directors as he may designate. The type of information to be contained in such weekly statement may be varied from time to time at the request of such Director. The Director of Transportation, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, or such District Director or Directors as he may designate shall, from time to time, direct that such adjustments be made among the original suppliers in District One of the use of transportation facilities available for transporting petroleum or petroleum products into District One as, in his opinion, are necessary to provide, in the order of statement (1) the moving of sufficient supplies for the maximum production of war products with minimum crude runs; (2) the moving of the additional crude petroleum and principal petroleum products assigned to each original supplier in accordance with issued schedules described in § 1510.29 (d); (3) the most efficient use of such equipment. In making such adjustments consideration shall first be given to the quantity of crude petroleum and principal petroleum products to be received during the subsequent calendar month by each original supplier by tanker, pipe line, barge, or any form of transportation other than tank car, and, so far as possible, any original supplier's deficit of carrying capacity shall be made up by the assignment of tank cars.

(b) The Transportation Committee shall review currently the use of all transportation and terminal facilities available to District One to determine whether maximum efficient use (including the return of empty tank cars in trainload lots) is being attained and in that connection to make recommendations to the Director of Transportation, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, for any necessary action.

(c) The Director of Transportation, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, may, from time to time, where he finds such action is necessary in the public interests, arrange for the specific use of any transportation facility without regard to the provisions of any schedule issued in accordance with § 1510.34 hereof.

§ 1510.32 Surveys and investigations. The several committees and subcommittees designated in §§ 1510.28 to 1510.30, inclusive, shall make such surveys and investigations and shall obtain and analyze such facts, figures, and other data as may be necessary or appropriate in connection with the performance of the functions and duties with which such committees and subcommittees are charged: Provided, That wherever available, such facts, figures, and other data shall be obtained from other appropriate committees or subcommittees rather than by new surveys or investigations.

§ 1510.33 Administration. All schedules or suggested schedules shall be prepared and submitted on or prior to the date or dates the Director of Supplies, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, may from time to time establish. In carrying out the duties, responsibilities, and functions under this directive, the committees and subcommittees mentioned and persons directly affected shall hold meetings and shall consult with other committees and subcomittees to the extent that proposals or activities hereunder may affect such other committees and subcommittees and to this end all such persons, committees, and subcommittees shall supply the committees or subcommittees charged with the responsibility of carrying any part of this directive into effect with such information, material, and assistance as may be necessary and desirable to accomplish the purposes and intent of this directive. Such committees and subcommittees shall maintain such staff and appoint such persons as may be necessary to carry out their responsibilities, duties, and functions under this directive. Operating expenses of such committees and subcommittees shall be met as provided in § 1500.7 (j) of this chapter.

§ 1510.34 Effectuation of schedules. All suggested schedules required to be submitted hereunder shall, after such modification or revision as the Director to whom submitted shall determine to be necessary to accomplish the objectives of this directive, be transmitted to the Chief Counsel of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War. No schedule provided for by §§ 1510.28 to 1510.30, inclusive, shall become effective until it has been approved by the Chief Counsel of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War and issued by the Petroleum Coordinator for War or the Deputy Petroleum Coordinator. Upon the approval of any such schedule by the Chief Counsel and the issuance of such schedule by the Petroleum Coordinator for War or the Deputy Petroleum Coordinator, copies thereof shall be forwarded to the appropriate committees and subcommittees and to all persons named therein and all committees, subcommittees, and persons, natural or artificial, who may be affected by such schedule, shall carry into effect such schedule according to its terms, conditions, and intent. Should any person refuse to comply with the provisions of this directive or of any issued schedule, this fact shall be immediately reported by the appropriate committee to the Director in Charge of the District Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War in whose District the refusal or failure to comply occurred.

§ 1510.35 Appeals. Any person, natural or artificial, affected by this directive or by any schedule provided for hereunder, who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, may appeal to the District Director in Charge of the District Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War for the District in which the action complained of would be performed, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why he considers himself entitled to relief, who shall act promptly upon such appeal and render a decision thereon within a period of 15 days. If dissatisfied with the decision of the District Director in Charge, such Person may appeal within 15 days after receipt of notice of the District Director's decision to the Deputy Petroleum Coordinator for War or such representative as he may designate.

RALPH K. DAVIES,
Deputy Petroleum Coordinator for War.

[Docket No. A-1742]

LUZERNE-GRAHAM MINING CORPORATION

MEMORANDUM OPINION, ETC.

In the matter of the petition of Luzerne-Graham Mining Corporation, a code member in District No. 9, to amend Rule 1 (J) of section VII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

Memorandum opinion and order denying temporary relief and notice of and order for hearing.

A petition in the above-entitled matter having been duly filed by Luzerne-Graham Mining Corporation, a code member in District No. 9, with the Division on November 16, 1942, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requesting that Rule 1 (J) of section VII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations be amended by inserting after the first sentence thereof the following:

"Reconsignment, diversion, and/or demurrage charges shall not be considered transportation charges within the meaning of this section"; and that pending final disposition of this request, a temporary order be issued granting such relief; and

No reasonable showing of necessity having been presented for the granting of temporary relief herein without a hearing; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the request for temporary relief be, and the same hereby is, denied without prejudice to the renewal of such request for temporary relief, upon further showing or upon the basis of the record to be made at the hearing to be held herein.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on January 14, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Travis Williams or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before January 9, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of the original petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to a petition filed by the Luzerne-Graham Mining Corporation, a code member in District No. 9, requesting that Rule 1 (J) of section VII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations Incidental to the Sale and Distribution of Coal by Code Members Within All Districts be amended by inserting after the first sentence thereof, the following:

Reconsignment, diversion, and/or demurrage charges shall not be considered transportation charges within the meaning of this section.

[Docket No. A-1734]

CENTRAL STATE COLLIERIES, INC.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of the petition of Central State Collieries, Inc., for the establishment of minimum prices for F. A. S. shipments to certain retail dealers in Chicago.

A petition, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on January 27, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Travis Williams or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before January 22, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matter specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of Central State Collieries, Inc., a code member, operating the Little Sister Mine, Mine Index No. 87, District No. 10, to amend the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 10 For All Shipments Except Truck by adding to "Special Cases (d)" on page 53 thereof the following provision:

Central State Collieries, Inc. [Little Sister Mine (Mine Index No. 87)] may sell coal for barge delivery free alongside at the minimum f. o. b. mine prices for free alongside delivery when shipped from the mine and reloaded into barges on the Illinois River for transshipment on the Illinois River to South Chicago Coal & Dock Company, Chicago Waterways Fuel Company, Silver Creek Coal Company, Riverdale Coal & Dock Company, Consumers Coal Company of Illinois, and Holland Coal Company, retail coal dealers, for resale at retail by such dealers located within the switching limits of the City of Chicago, Illinois.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

Wage and Hour Division.

LADIES' HANDBAG INDUSTRY, ET AL.

NOTICE OF DENIAL OF APPLICATION

Notice of denial of application by the national authority for the Ladies' Handbag Industry, and sundry other parties, to employ learners in the Luggage, Leather Goods and Women's Handbag Industry at wages lower than the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938.

Whereas applications were received from the National Authority for the Ladies' Handbag Industry, and sundry other parties, to employ learners in the Luggage, Leather Goods and Women's Handbag Industry at wages lower than the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, and

Whereas pursuant to Part 522, § 522.4, Title 29, Chapter V, Code of Federal Regulations, a public hearing was held on August 3, 1942, before Merle D. Vincent, duly authorized as presiding officer to conduct said hearing, to take testimony for the purpose of determining:

(a) What, if any, occupation, or occupations in the Luggage, Leather Goods and Women's Handbag Industry require a learning period, and if any occupation is found to require a learning period;

(b) The factors which may have a bearing upon curtailment of opportunities for employment within the Luggage, Leather Goods and Women's Handbag Industry; and

(c) Under what limitation as to wages, time, number, proportion, and length of service, special certificates may be issued for the employment of learners in the Luggage, Leather Goods and Women's Handbag Industry, and

Whereas the presiding officer has filed with me a complete record of the proceeding together with his findings of fact and recommendation thereon that it is not necessary in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment to provide for the employment of learners at subminimum wages in any occupation in any branch of the Luggage, Leather Goods and Women's Handbag Industry;

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that the applications are denied and that there is no need at this time for the issuance of regulations providing for the employment of learners at wage rates less than the applicable minimum in the Luggage, Leather Goods and Women's Handbag Industry.

As used in this notice, the term "Luggage, Leather Goods and Women's Handbag Industry" is defined as follows:

(a) The manufacture from any material of luggage including but not by way of limitation, trunks, suit cases, traveling bags, brief cases, sample cases; the manufacture of instrument cases covered with leather, imitation leather, or fabric including, but not by way of limitation, portable radio cases; the manufacture of small leather goods and like articles from any material except metal; the manufacture of women's, misses', and children's handbags, pocketbooks, purses, and mesh bags from any material except metal; but not the manufacture of bodies, panels, and frames from metal, wood, fibre, or paperboard for any of the above articles.

(b) The manufacture from leather, imitation leather, or fabric of cut stock and parts for any of the articles covered in paragraph (a).

The definition of the Luggage, Leather Goods, and Women's Handbag Industry covers all occupations in the industry which are necessary to the production of the articles within the definition, including clerical, maintenance, shipping and selling occupations: Provided, however, That this definition does not include employees of an independent wholesaler or employees of a manufacturer who are engaged exclusively in marketing and distributing products of the industry which have been purchased for resale.

Signed at New York, New York, this 16th day of December 1942.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

[Docket No. 6469]

Presque Isle Broadcasting Company

NOTICE OF HEARING

In re application of Presque Isle Broadcasting Company (WERC), dated June 29, 1942, for modification of license; class of service, broadcast; class of station, broadcast; location, Erie, Pennsylvania; operating assignment specified: Frequency, 1330 kc.; power, 100 w. night; 250 w. day; hours of operation, unlimited time.

You are hereby notified that the Commission has examined the above-described application and has designated the matter for hearing for the following reasons:

1. To determine whether the granting of this application would be consistent with the Standards of Good Engineering Practice, particularly in view of the expected nighttime interference limitation to the service of Station WERC operating as proposed.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain primary service from Station WERC operating as proposed, and what other broadcast service is available to those areas and populations.

3. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to lose primary service from Station WERC operating as proposed, and what other broadcast service is available to those areas and populations.

4. To determine whether the granting of this application would be consistent with the Standards of Good Engineering Practice and proper allocation of broadcast facilities (footnote 4, page 3, Standards of Good Engineering Practice).

5. To determine whether the granting of this application would be consistent with the policy announced by the Commission in its Memorandum Opinion of April 27, 1942, and as modified on September 22, 1942.

6. To determine whether, in view of the facts adduced under the foregoing issues, the granting of this application would serve public interest, convenience and necessity.

The application involved herein will not be granted by the Commission unless the issues listed above are determined in favor of the applicant on the basis of a record duly and properly made by means of a formal hearing.

The applicant is hereby given the opportunity to obtain a hearing on such issues by filing a written appearance in accordance with the provisions of § 1.382 (b) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

Persons other than the applicant who desire to be heard must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the provisions of § 1.102 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

The applicant's address is as follows: Presque Isle Broadcasting Company, Radio Station WERC, 121 West Tenth Street, Erie, Pennsylvania.

Dated at Washington, D. C., December 14, 1942.

INTEREST OF U. H. OKUBO IN THE OHMI COMPANY

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding that the property described as follows:

All right, title and interest of U. H. Okubo, whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Kyoto, Japan, as copartner in and to the partnership known as The Ohmi Company, under which name such partnership is doing business and maintaining an office at Los Angeles, California, which is a business enterprise within the United States, is property of, and represents a substantial interest (namely, 50%) in said business enterprise which is, a national of a designated enemy country (Japan), and determining that to the extent that any or all of such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Japan), and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby (i) vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States, and (ii) undertakes the direction, management, supervision and control to the extent deemed necessary or advisable from time to time by the undersigned of such business enterprise and of all property of any nature whatsoever situated in the United States and owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, or held on behalf of or on account of or owing to said business enterprise.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds therof or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, or to vary the extent of such direction, management, supervision or control or to terminate the same, if and when it should be determined that any of such action should be taken.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C. on November 18, 1942.

ASSETS OF MATSUYE KOIKE, DOING BUSINESS AS DIAMOND RICE CO.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding that the property described as follows:

All property of any nature whatsoever situated in the United States and owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, or held on behalf of or on account of or owing to Matsuye Koike (alien detention camp), doing business as Diamond Rice Co., Los Angeles, California, which is a business enterprise within the United States, is property of a business enterprise which is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan), and determining that to the extent that such national is a person not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Japan), and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C. on November 19, 1942.

[Vesting Order 390]

MAGARIO & COMPANY, INCORPORATED

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding:

(a) That the property described as follows:

200 shares (which constitute a substantial part, namely, 66⅔%, of all outstanding shares) of $100 par value common capital stock of Magario & Company, Incorporated, a California corporation, San Francisco, California, which is a business enterprise within the United States, which shares are owned by Hisao Magario, whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Tokyo, Japan, is property of, and represents control of a business enterprise which is, a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

(b) That the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and claim of any name or nature whatsoever of said Hisao Magario in and to all indebtedness, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, owing to him by said Magario & Company, Incorporated, including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral for any or all of such indebtedness and the right to sue for and collect such indebtedness, is an interest in the aforesaid business enterprise held by a national of an enemy country, and also is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of a designated enemy country (Japan); and determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Japan), and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby (i) vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States, and (ii) undertakes the direction, management, supervision and control of such business enterprise to the extent deemed necessary or advisable from time to time by the undersigned.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, or to vary the extent of such direction, management, supervision or control or to terminate the same, if and when it should be determined that any of such action should be taken.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

MOSHOLU REALTY CORPORATION

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that Rosa Pratos Simonelli, whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Naples, Italy, is a national of a designated enemy country (Italy);

2. Finding that said Rosa Pratos Simonelli owns 50 shares of no par value capital stock of Mosholu Realty Corporation, a New York corporation, New York, New York, which is a business enterprise within the United States, and which 50 shares constitute a substantial part (namely, 33⅓%) of all the outstanding capital stock of said corporation and represent an interest in said business enterprise, and therefore determining that such business enterprise is a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Italy);

3. Finding that the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and claim of any name or nature whatsoever of said Rosa Pratos Simonelli in and to all indebtedness, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, owing to her by said Mosholu Realty Corporation, including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral for any or all of such indebtedness and the right to sue for and collect such indebtedness, and including particularly those 6% non-accumulative registered income debenture bonds, due August 1, 1962, issued by the aforesaid business enterprise and having an aggregate par value of $26,000, which are registered in the name of and owned by said Rosa Pratos Simonelli, is an interest in such business enterprise held by a national of an enemy country (Italy), and also is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Italy);

4. Determining that to the extent that any or all of such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that each of such persons be treated as a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Italy):

5. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby (a) vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraphs 2 and 3, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States, and (b) undertakes the direction, management, supervision and control of such business enterprise to the extent deemed necessary or advisable from time to time by the undersigned.

6. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that Rosa Pratos Simonelli and Amalia de Curtis, whose last known addresses were represented to the undersigned as being Naples, Italy, are nationals of a designated enemy country (Italy);

2. Finding that said Rosa Pratos Simonelli and Amalia de Curtis each own 50 of the 100 outstanding shares of the no par value capital stock of 2380 Arthur Avenue Corporation, a New York corporation, New York, New York, which is a business enterprise within the United States, and which 100 shares represent ownership thereof, and therefore determining that such business enterprise is a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Italy);

3. Determining that to the extent that any or all of such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that each of such persons be treated as a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Italy);

4. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby (a) vests in the Alien Property Custodian the shares of stock hereinbefore described in subparagraph 2 to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States, and (b) undertakes the direction, management, supervision and control of such business enterprise to the extent deemed necessary or advisable from time to time by the undersigned.

5. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, or to vary the extent of such direction, management, supervision or control or to terminate the same, if and when it should be determined that any of such action should be taken.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. CERTAIN REAL PROPERTY IN NEW YORK AND NEW JERSEY, AND A BANK ACCOUNT, OWNED BY ROSA PRATOS SIMONELLI

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that Rosa Pratos Simonelli, whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Naples, Italy, is a national of a designated enemy country (Italy);

2. Finding that all right, title, interest and estate, both legal and equitable, of said Rosa Pratos Simonelli in and to that certain real property, together with all fixtures, improvements and appurtenances thereto, particularly described in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Italy);

3. Finding that the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and claim of any name or nature whatsoever of said Rosa Pratos Simonelli in and to all indebtedness, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, owing to her by Corn Exchange Bank Trust Company, Broadway Branch, 525 Broadway, New York, New York, including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral for any or all of such indebtedness and the right to sue for and collect such indebtedness, and including particularly the account at the aforesaid Corn Exchange Bank Trust Company, Broadway Branch, which is carried in the name of said Rosa Pratos Simonelli, is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Italy);

4. Determining that the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 3 is necessary for the maintenance or safeguarding of other property [namely that hereinbefore described in subparagraph 2] belonging to the same national of the same designated enemy country and subject to vesting (and in fact vested by this order) pursuant to Section 2 of said Executive Order;

5. Determining that to the extent that such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Italy);

6. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraphs 2 and 3, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

7. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

AETNA LIFE INSURANCE CO.

In re: Aetna Life Insurance Company v. Bruno Centoscudi, Guiseppe Cesarini, Leo T. Crowley, Alien Property Custodian, Stella Cesarini, and Stanley Jakubowski, Administrator pendente lite of the estate of Angelo Cesarini, deceased; Civil Action in Interpleader No. 2689—File D-38-286; E. T. Sec. 99.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act as amended, Executive Order 9095 as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by Clerk, District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, acting under the judicial supervision of District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, a national of a designated enemy country, Italy, namely,

National:	Last known address
Guiseppe Cesarini	Italy

And determining that—

(3) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Italy; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest, and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Guiseppe Cesarini in and to the proceeds of an insurance policy issued by the Aetna Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Connecticut, upon the life of Angelo Cesarini, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and interests and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property and interests or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Dated: December 10, 1942.

Approval of maximum prices for sales by Century Merchandising Corporation of a plastic "Victory Pup" Bank.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, It is ordered:

(a) Century Merchandising Corporation is authorized to sell and deliver a plastic "Victory Pup" bank, manufactured by it, at prices, F. O. B. New York, N. Y., no higher than those set forth below:

$1.90 per dozen to jobbers.
$2.30 per dozen to retailers.

(b) This Order No. 91 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(c) Issued and effective this 17th day of December 1942.

LEON HENDERSON, Administrator.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9283

AMENDMENT OF EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 9226 OF AUGUST 19, 1942, PRESCRIBING REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE FURNISHING OF CLOTHING IN KIND OR PAYMENT OF CASH ALLOWANCES IN LIEU THEREOF TO ENLISTED MEN OF THE NAVY, THE COAST GUARD, THE NAVAL RESERVE, AND THE COAST GUARD RESERVE

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 10 of the Pay Readjustment Act of June 16, 1942 (Public Law 607, 77th Congress), paragraph 6 of Executive Order No. 9226 of August 19, 1942,[1] prescribing regulations governing the furnishing of clothing in kind or payment of cash allowances in lieu thereof to enlisted men of the Navy, the Coast Guard, the Naval Reserve, and the Coast Guard Reserve, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"6. Members of the Insular Force shall be entitled to the cash clothing allowances prescribed herein except that when they are not required to wear blue clothing the cash clothing allowances shall be one-half the rates prescribed herein. In lieu of the cash clothing allowances prescribed herein all members of the Samoan Native Guard and Band shall be entitled to a cash clothing allowance of $20.00 upon first enlistment, or upon reenlistment subsequent to expiration of three months from date of last discharge, and, under the conditions specified in paragraph 3 hereof, to a quarterly cash maintenance allowance of $4.00."

Chapter VII—Agricultural Adjustment Agency

[MQ-603-Peanuts, Supp. 1]

PART 729—NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTA FOR PEANUTS

MARKETING EXCESS PEANUTS FOR SEED PLANTING IN 1943

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by Title III of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, public notice is hereby given of the following amendment to MQ-603, "Regulations Pertaining to Marketing Quotas for Peanuts of the Crop Planted in the Calendar Year 1942", issued August 1, 1942.[1]

§ 729.139 Marketing of excess peanuts for seed for planting in 1943. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these regulations, collection or payment of the penalty of three cents per pound will not be required in connection with the marketing of excess peanuts: Provided, That (1) the peanuts are marketed to a person who will be engaged in farming in 1943, (2) the peanuts are purchased for the sole purpose of planting during the calendar year 1943, (3) there shall be prepared and approved by the committee of the county in which his farm is located the prescribed "Certificate to Purchase Excess Peanuts," and (4) the producer is paid for such peanuts a price not in excess of the price for excess peanuts for oil approved by the Secretary for the date on which such peanuts are marketed plus the cost of handling such peanuts for seed purposes. Such peanuts shall be marketed through the county committee by the approval of the certificate for purchase by such committee and the delivery of the original copy thereof to the seller by the purchaser. Each county committee is hereby designated as an agency for the marketing of excess peanuts pursuant to this

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Administration

PART 958—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN THE STATE OF COLORADO

ORDER SUSPENDING CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF REGULATION

Pursuant to the provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. § 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act," and the order, effective August 30, 1941, pursuant to the provisions of said act, regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Colorado, it is hereby found and determined that the suspension, as hereinafter provided, of the provisions in § 958.2 (a)[1] of said order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the aforesaid act.

It is, therefore, ordered, That the provisions in § 958.2 (a) of the aforesaid order be, and the same hereby are, suspended during the period of time beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. w. t., December 22, 1942, and ending on May 31, 1943, inclusive.

It is further ordered, That the suspension of said provisions in § 958.2 (a) of the order shall not (a) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which has arisen or which, prior to the time that the suspension becomes effective, may arise under the aforesaid provisions of the order, or (b) release or extinguish any violation of said § 958.2 (a) of the order which has occurred or which, prior to the time that the suspension becomes effective, may occur, or (c) affect or impair any right or remedy of the United States, the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, or any other person with respect to any such violation which has occurred or which, prior to the time that such suspension becomes effective, may occur.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 21st day of December 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

TITLE 8—ALIENS AND NATIONALITY

Chapter I—Immigration and Naturalization Service

[5th Supp. to General Order C-21]

PART 170—REGISTRATION AND FINGERPRINTING OF ALIENS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ALIEN REGISTRATION ACT, 1940

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

DECEMBER 16, 1942.

Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 32 (c), 34 (a) and 37 (a) of Title III of the Act of June 28, 1940 (54 Stat. 674, 674, 675; 8 U.S.C. 453 (c), 455 (a), 458 (a)), and to the powers conferred by § 90.1, Title 8, Chapter I, Code of Federal Regulations (7 F.R. 6753), the following changes in Part 170 of said Title 8, Chapter I, of the Code of Federal Regulations (5 F.R. 2836, 3173, 3589, 4560, 4813; 6 F.R. 229, 2560, 3825, 6747) are hereby promulgated, effective January 1, 1943.

Section 170.3 (c) is amended by deleting the last sentence of that paragraph and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

The postmaster shall promptly forward such form, as so filled out and signed, to the nearest office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service and the registration officer at such office shall make arrangements to register and fingerprint, or register, the alien, or will request in writing that those functions be performed by a registration officer more conveniently located to accomplish them.

Section 170.3 (d) is amended to read as follows:

The postmaster in each resigstration office, if requested in writing by the Immigration and Naturalization Service so to do, will make special arrangements for the registration and fingerprinting of alien inmates confined to penal and eleemosynary institutions within his registration area.

Section 170.3 (e) is amended to read as follows:

The postmaster in each registration office, if requested in writing by the Immigration and Naturalization Service so to do, will make special arrangements for the registration and fingerprinting of aged, infirm, or otherwise incapacitated aliens within his registration area.

Section 170.4 (a) is amended to read as follows:

Any postmaster in a post office designated as a registration office, or postal employee designated by such a postmaster, or any immigration inspector, naturalization examiner, special inspector, or Border Patrol inspector of the Immigration and Naturailzation Service, or any other person heretofore or hereafter designated by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, shall be a registration officer, authorized to register and fingerprint aliens in accordance with the provisions of this part: Provided, however, That on and after January 1, 1943 no postmaster or other postal employee shall exercise or perform any of the functions or duties of a registration officer unless such postmaster or postal employee has first been requested in writing by an officer of the Immigration and Naturalization Service to perform such functions and duties in connection with the case of a particular alien, and the registration and fingerprinting of any alien by a postmaster or other postal employee in contravention of this proviso shall be invalid as a compliance with the provisions of Title III of the Alien Registration Act, 1940.

Section 170.5 (a) is amended by deleting the last sentence of that paragraph and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

If the registration occurred in a post office on or after January 1, 1943, and the registration officer was a postmaster or other postal employee who performed the functions of a registration officer in the case of a particular alien at the written request of an officer of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, the forms and fingerprints shall be forwarded to the office of that Service which requested the registration and fingerprinting of the alien.

Section 170.9 (e) is amended to read as follows:

If a duplicate receipt card on Form AR-3a is issued, it shall be sent direct to the applicant by the Alien Registration Division.

Section 81.205 is amended; § 81.205a is added; and paragraphs (e) and (f) of § 81.205 are redesignated §§ 81.205b and 81.205c as follows:

NEGOTIATED PURCHASES

§ 81.205 Special instructions. * * *

(c) Considerations relative to procurement as set forth in War Production Board directive. Under date of October 10, 1942, the Chairman of the War Production Board issued Directive No. 2, amended (7 F.R. 8179), which, in part, provides as follows:

> (b) (1) In negotiating contracts relating to war procurement the following considerations shall govern:
> (i) Primary emphasis shall be upon securing deliveries or performance at the times required by the war program.
> (ii) Subject to the considerations stated in subdivision (i) contracts shall be placed with concerns needing to acquire the least amounts of additional new machinery, equipment, or facilities for performance of the contracts.
> (iii) Subject to the considerations stated in subdivisions (i) and (ii), it shall be the policy of all war procurement departments and agencies to avoid contracting for the production of items or materials in communities or areas in which acute labor shortages are known to exist whenever it is practical to procure the needed items or materials elsewhere. The War Manpower Commission shall be relied upon to certify to the war procurement agencies communities and areas in which acute labor shortages exist to such a degree that the policy stated in this subdivision is applicable.
> (iv) Subject to the considerations stated in subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii), such contracts shall be placed so as to conserve, for the more difficult war production problems, the resources of concerns best able, by reason of engineering, managerial, and physical resources, to handle them. Accordingly, contracts for items which involve relatively simple production problems shall be placed with concerns normally the smaller ones, which are less able to handle the more difficult war production problems.
> (v) Subject to the considerations stated in subdivisions (i), (ii), (iii), and (iv), and also subject to the provisions of the Production Concentration Programs, which have been or may in the future be instituted by the War Production Board, such contracts shall be placed so as to spread production among as many firms as is reasonable and feasible.
> (c) War procurement departments and agencies are hereby authorized and directed to pay higher prices than would otherwise be required if such action is necessary to put into effect the policies stated in subdivisions (i) through (v), inclusive. If all the considerations set forth in subdivisions (i) through (v) have been met and there is still need for selection among contractors, contracts shall be so placed as to obtain the lowest price for the Government.
> (d) Authority to depart from these policies may, upon specific request, be granted by the Director of the Procurement Policy Division of the War Production Board, or by such person or persons as he may designate for this purpose.

In addition to the foregoing, regard should be paid to the following considerations in negotiating contracts:

(1) An effort should be made to have, for each item of supplies and equipment, a minimum of two producers so located as not to be subject to the same hazard.

(2) Whenever land-grant railroads or water routes can be utilized for the transportation of military supplies, requests for quotations should specify delivery f. o. b. point of origin in preference to f. o. b. point of destination, in the case of both carload and less-than-carload shipments.

(d) Revision of existing supply contracts. (1) In connection with adjustments of supply contracts growing out of changes in the Army Supply Program, in each instance consideration will be given to the factors comprehended by the broad headings below:

(i) Minimum use of material.
(ii) Minimum man-hours.
(iii) Status of facilities.
(iv) Labor supply area.
(v) Flexibility for revisions—shift operations one form of flexibility.
(vi) Extent of subcontracting.
(vii) Strategic considerations.
(viii) Comparative costs.
(ix) Engineering background.
(x) Horizontal adjustment.
(xi) Effect on manufacturer and subcontractors involved.
(xii) Use of facility for other war work.
(xiii) Effect on transportation—minimum of cross-haul.

(2) Where adjustments in any program are indicated, particular weight should be given to continuing in operation those facilities employing the minimum amount of material and the minimum number of man-hours to complete like components and like end-products. These considerations alone should not control; each of the other items enumerated should be taken into account, so that the final result reflects evaluation of all factors enumerated.

(3) Where existing facilities are adequate to care for the program projected, consideration should be given to immediate cancellation of incomplete facilities, including machine tools, jigs and fixtures. In individual cases it may be sound procedure to plan on completing specific facilities even though existing facilities are in balance with current estimates of requirements.

(4) In cutting back facilities, with the background of changing requirements growing out of demands of war, and in the interest of flexibility, consideration should be given in each instance to the desirability of partial multiple shift operations in all or certain plants, in contrast with full shift operations in some plants, to avoid possible resultant abandonment of facilities which would not be otherwise used to good advantage in the war effort.

(e) Labor supply policy. In accordance with designations by the War Manpower Commission, the supply services will be advised monthly, or more often if conditions warrant, by the Civilian Personnel Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, of the existence of areas (1) in which a labor shortage exists currently (designated Group I areas); (2) in which a labor shortage is expected to develop within six months (designated Group II areas); and (3) in which a surplus of labor exists and will exist in the predictable future (designated Group III areas). Subject to the considerations stated in paragraph (c) of this section:

(1) Group I: Every effort will be made to avoid placing contracts in Group I areas when it is practicable to secure production in Group III or unclassified areas. Only contracts for which established facilities exist and for which labor has been trained or on which the required speed of delivery cannot otherwise be met may be placed in Group I areas. It is the intent that new business will not be placed in Group I areas unless it is impracticable to have the work completed on schedule elsewhere, and it is also intended that continuation orders will not be placed in Group I areas where facilities and trained labor are currently established elsewhere.

(2) Group II: In general the same limitations as in Group I areas will apply to Group II areas, except that contracts may be placed in Group II areas which can be completed within six months or which will not require the employment of labor in addition to that normally or currently employed by the contractor.

(3) Group III: Every effort will be made to place contracts in Group III areas.

Contractors will be advised by contracting officers of the considerations described in this paragraph and will be strongly urged to apply them in placing subcontracts and to urge their subcontractors to do likewise. To this end prime contractors and, through them, subcontractors will also be advised by contracting officers of changes in the classification of labor market areas occurring during the performance of a prime contract, but will not be expected to give effect to any interim changes in classification where to do so would increase the cost or decrease the efficiency of subcontracting under contracts previously executed.

(f) Smaller war plants. Neither paragraphs (c), (d), nor (e) of this section shall apply to prevent the award of contracts to firms which currently employ less than 100 employees, or which are recommended as prime contractors or subcontractors by the Smaller War Plants Division of the War Production Board, providing that such firms require no substantial additional facilities and no labor in addition to that currently employed. If, however, several such firms are available, or are so recommended in the alternative, preference shall be given to firms located in Group III, II, I areas (as defined in paragraph (e) of this section), in that order.

§ 81.205a Smaller war plants, distribution of additional work—(a) Creation of the Smaller War Plants Corporation. Public Law 603—77th Congress, approved June 11, 1942, creates the Smaller War Plants Corporation, authorizes a Deputy Chairman of the War Production Board on Smaller War Plants and gives the Chairman of the War Production Board certain new powers incident to placement of Government contracts with smaller plants.

(b) Certification of small business concerns. Section 3 of the Act authorizes the Chairman of the War Production Board to certify small business concerns or groups of such concerns to the Secretary of War with respect to capacity and credit as to a specific Government procurement contract. The War Department is directed to accept such certification as conclusive and is authorized to place the contract with the concern or group of concerns without requiring the meeting of any other requirements with respect to capacity and credit. The Act recognizes that small plants are frequently unable to produce at as low unit costs as larger plants and that, as a consequence, in order to mobilize the Nation's full productive capacity, it may be necessary for the Government to pay a higher unit for articles when obtaining them from small plants than it pays to business concerns operating large plants.

(c) Authority to enter into prime contracts. The Act also gives the Smaller War Plants Corporation power to enter into prime contracts with the War Department for articles, equipment, supplies or materials, or parts thereof, or work in connection therewith and to subcontract the production of these items to small business concerns. If the Chairman of the War Production Board certifies that the Smaller War Plants Corporation is competent to perform any specific government procurement contract, the contract must be let to it on such terms as the Chairman may specify. The corporation is also given broad powers of financing.

(d) Placement of prime contracts and subcontracts. It is established policy of the War Department that every effort will be made to place prime contracts and subcontracts with small business concerns or groups of such concerns without the necessity for certification by the War Production Board or for the making of contracts by the Smaller War Plants Corporation. To implement this policy, the following procedure has been established, for the purpose of bringing about to the greatest possible extent the participation of smaller plants in the war effort.

(e) Development of a production load for direct placement with plants recommended by War Production Board. A representative of the War Production Board has been assigned to each of the supply services. With the active assistance of the liaison officer designated for this purpose by the chief of the supply service, this War Production Board representative will:

(1) Review with the proper personnel of the supply service the related parts of the Army Supply Program and select from it products suitable for manufacture by plants recommended by the War Production Board.

(2) Ascertain the total quantities of these selected products to be purchased.

(3) Discuss with the proper personnel of the supply service existing plans for the procurement of the selected products.

(4) Seek to reach agreement with the supply service on definite quanities of the selected products for placement with plants recommended by the War Production Board.

(f) Examination of existing prime contracts. The procedure worked out for this purpose is as follows:

(1) Examination of existing prime contracts will be made by headquarters of the supply services in cooperation with representatives of the War Production Board to determine the possible extent of additional subcontracting thereunder of products suitable for placement with plants recommended by the War Production Board.

(2) All procurement agencies in the field, in cooperation with War Production Board field representatives, will expeditiously examine contracts with a view to the possibility of further subcontracting. All prime contractors will be advised of the necessity for cooperating in placing all work practicable under existing and proposed contracts with small plants on a subcontracting basis. The cancelation of orders for new machine tools and equipment will be made in all cases where the corresponding operations can be handled by subcontracting, providing production schedules can be maintained, even though it is necessary as a result of such subcontracting to amend the contract to provide for increased costs because of less efficient methods of production. Where necessary, provision may be made by supplemental agreement for modification of such existing contract for the payment of an increased price to the prime contractor sufficient to meet his increased cost resulting from increased subcontracting. As indicated by Public Law 603, 77th Congress, such amendment or modification of any existing contract to bring about spreading of work to smaller plants by subcontracting or to avoid the manufacture or procurement of new machine tools or the construction of new plants and facilities, will facilitate the prosecution of the war. The Chiefs of Supply Services are severally authorized to enter into and to approve supplemental agreements amending or modifying existing contracts in any case where it is determined by the chief of the supply service concerned, or by his duly authorized representative, that these purposes will be thereby accomplished. Any such supplemental agreement will be made pursuant to the First War Powers Act, 1941. Such authority may be exercised notwithstanding the fact that the supplemental agreement may be without consideration to the Government other than that the policy described in Public Law 603, 77th Congress and in § 81.206(d) thereby will be carried out (see §§ 81.315 (a) and 81.317).

(3) The procedure described in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above will also be applied to subcontracts where it appears to be practicable to get a subcontractor to spread his load among more sub-subcontractors.

(4) The initial discussion with prime contractors and subcontractors relative to subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) above will be arranged through the War Department contracting agency in the field.

(g) Additional subcontracting under future prime contracts. The chiefs of supply services will facilitate discussion as to subcontractors under future prime contracts with War Production Board representatives. Such discussions can be undertaken either in the offices of the supply services in Washington or with the contracting officers in the field.

(h) Replacement parts. While every assistance will be afforded to War Production Board representatives for the further spreading of work to the smaller plants, consistent with the maintenance of required delivery schedules and quality of production, standardization programs on items where a flow of replacement parts is a factor will also be taken into account.

(i) Policy questions and procedure in cases of disagreement between the War Production Board and the supply services. All matters of policy relating to increased subcontracting and to increased prime contracting with smaller plants will be dealt with for the War Production Board by the Deputy Chairman on Smaller War Plants, and for the War Department by the Small War Plants Branch, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply. On such matters, contact will be between these offices. Any disagreement between the representatives of the War Production Board and of the supply services on any of the matters described in paragraph (e), (f), and (g) of this section will be referred by both parties to these offices for discussion and settlement.

[3] Changes dated November 28, 1942.

§ 81.205b Applicability of labor statutes to negotiated contracts. The Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act, as amended, the Davis-Bacon Act, as amended, the Copeland "Kick-back" Act, as amended, and the Eight Hour Law, as amended, are applicable to contracts made and performed under the authority of Executive Order No. 9001 to the same extent as if said contracts had been made and performed under the provisions of section 3709, Revised Statutes.

§ 81.205c Commanders in theaters of operation. Nothing contained in these regulations will be construed to abridge the powers of commanders in theaters of operations to make necessary purchases in such manner as is deemed advisable.

§ 81.205d Debarred bidders. Contracts will not be placed with contractors who are on any of the following lists of debarred bidders:

List of bidders, debarred from bidding on War Department contracts by reason of violations of the Walsh-Healey Act (See § 81.916 et seq.);

List of bidders who are debarred from bidding on War Department contracts by reason of violations of the Davis-Bacon Act. (See § 81.910 et seq.);

War Department confidential list of bidders to whom awards will not be made.

The Proclaimed List of Certain Blocked Nationals. (See § 81.1103 (b).)

(a) The Adjutant General will distribute to the supply services lists of bidders debarred by the Comptroller General by reason of violations of the Walsh-Healey Act or the Davis-Bacon Act. (See Act of June 30, 1936, Sec. 3, 49 Stat. 2037; 41 U.S.C. 37; Act of August 30, 1935, 49 Stat. 1012, 40 U.S.C. 276a–2.)

(b) Confidential list of bidders. A bidder will be placed by The Adjutant General upon the confidential list of bidders to whom awards will not be made where the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, determines any such bidder to be guilty of fraud or attempted fraud against the United States, and, for the duration of the present war, in any instance where it is determined by the Director, Purchases Division, that the best interests of the United States require that contracts be not awarded to such bidder. In recommending that a bidder's name be placed on this list, a full report of the specific instances of the bidder's alleged dereliction will be submitted by the chief of the supply service concerned to the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, together with any available evidence relating to the contract concerned and the complaint against the bidder.

(c) Procedure for placing bidders on confidential list. The Director, Purchases Division, (if such action has not been taken previously) will notify the bidder by registered mail that a recommendation has been made that the bidder's name be placed upon the War Department's confidential list of bidders to whom awards will not be made. The notice will state specifically the contract, bid or action of the bidder as to which complaint is made and will specify in reasonable detail the nature of the complaint. The notice will inform the bidder that he may make a statement in writing with reference to the complaint on or before a date to be stipulated in the notice. The Director, Purchases Division, may make such other investigation and study of the complaint, either directly or through The Judge Advocate General, or The Inspector General, as he may deem proper. If he is of the opinion that the bidder's name should be placed upon the confidential list, he will transmit the complete file, including any statement filed by the bidder, to The Adjutant General with a direction that the bidder's name be placed on this list. The bidder will not be given access to any evidence in the hands of the War Department but will be furnished only with a statement of the alleged dereliction in the manner previously set forth.

(d) The Director, Purchases Division, when he determines that a bidder's name should be placed upon the confidential list, will prepare and transmit to The Adjutant General, for transmission to the bidder, the supply services, and the Comptroller General, drafts of notices from The Adjutant General of the action taken.

MANDATORY AND OPTIONAL CONTRACT PROVISIONS

Paragraph (c) of the rate of wages clause contained in § 81.343 is amended and a new paragraph (a) is added to this section containing material previously included in § 81.360, as follows:

§ 81.343 Rate of wages clause. * * *

(c) The regulations of the Secretary of Labor, referred to in article — hereof, allow certain "permissible deductions" from the wages required by this article to be paid.

The Article to which cross reference is made in paragraph (c) of the above clause is that contained in § 81.344.

(a) Minimum wages. There will be contained in each contract subject to the Davis-Bacon Act (or in the specifications accompanying the contract) a clause substantially as follows:

The minimum wages to be paid laborers and mechanics on this project, as determined by the Secretary of Labor to be prevailing for the corresponding classes of laborers and mechanics employed on projects of a character similar to the contract work in the pertinent locality, are as follows:

Classification of laborers and mechanics	Minimum rates of wages per hour

Any class of laborers and mechanics not listed in the preceding paragraph, which will be employed on this contract, shall be classified or reclassified conformably to the foregoing schedule. In the event the interested parties cannot agree on the proper classification or reclassification of a particular class of laborers and mechanics to be used, the question, accompanied by the recommendation of the contracting officer, shall be referred to the Secretary of Labor for final determination.

§ 81.360 [Rescinded. See § 81.343 (a)]

FOREIGN PURCHASES

§ 81.509 Purchases from Canadian suppliers—(a) No contracts to be made directly. The supply services shall not directly enter into contracts with contractors domiciled in the Dominion of Canada for the delivery of supplies to be produced in Canada. All such contracts will be entered into with War Supplies Limited through its Washington representatives. That corporation will then arrange with the Canadian Department of Munitions and Supply for the purchase by that Department from Canadian contractors of the supplies covered by the contracts between the War Department and War Supplies Limited.

(b) War Supplies Limited. War Supplies Limited is a corporation wholly owned and controlled by the Government of Canada and created under the laws of the Dominion of Canada with its principal office in the city of Ottawa, Province of Ontario. A Washington Office is maintained at 1205 Fifteenth Street, N.W., (Marshall Building), telephone Republic 7860, Extension 120. The representatives of the Corporation in Washington are Mr. V. W. Scully, President and Treasurer and Mr. R. G. Peers, General Manager.

(c) Purpose of organization of War Supplies Limited. At the time that War Supplies Limited was organized it was recognized that if the various agencies of this government were to purchase directly from Canadian manufacturers competition for supplies produced in Canada would arise between this government and the Canadian government. The result would, in all probability be that both governments would be obliged to pay more for the supplies so obtained than would otherwise be necessary. Such competition likewise would give rise to complications with respect to the precedence of the two governments with regard to the production of Canadian plants. It was also recognized that unless orders for the account of the United States government were placed through some agency of the Canadian government, the control over costs and profits which the Canadian Government exercises would not be effective with regard to orders so placed by this government. Accordingly War Supplies Limited was organized to centralize purchases by this government from Canadian manufacturers.

(d) Procedure for negotiating contract. If practicable, arrangements should be made through War Supplies Limited to have a representative of the subcontractor, who, it is contemplated, will actually produce the item desired, present in Washington to participate in the negotiation of the contract. In this way the prime contract and the contract with the producer can be prepared simultaneously.

(e) Administration of contract. On matters pertaining to contracts with War Supplies Limited, contact should be had with said corporation and not with the Canadian subcontractor. The only exception to this would be in those cases where the supply service is represented at the plant through inspectors or other officers, in such instances communication with the subcontractor through the resident representative is in order on inspection and technical matters. Payment checks should be issued to War Supplies Limited and addressed to that corporation at its Washington office.

(f) Contract form. The contract form set forth in paragraph ------ should be used for executing supply contracts with War Supplies Limited, subject to such additions and deletions as may be necessary in any particular case. It will be noted that no provision relative to progress or advance payment is made in the form. This matter will be considered individually in each case. In accordance with § 81.505 no duty will be paid and accordingly no duty should be included in the purchase price. If it is necessary in a particular case, there may be added to the contract form a statement to the effect that the United States Government will pay any duties necessarily imposed for the entrance of articles into the United States.

(g) Guarantee by Canadian Government. The Canadian Government, through its Secretary of State for External Affairs, has guaranteed to the United States Government all commitments, obligations and covenants which War Supplies Limited may give to any department or agency of the United States Government in connection with any contracts or orders which may be given to said corporation by any department or agency of the United States Government. The Canadian Government has likewise waived notice of any change or modification which may be made from time to time in these commitments, obligations or covenants.

DISPOSITION OF SERVICEABLE PROPERTY NOT DECLARED SURPLUS

§ 81.711 Gifts and loans of drawings and similar property. The chiefs of the supply services are authorized, without further approval, to give or lend to contractors and private firms which are or may likely be manufacturers or furnishers of supplies and equipment for the use of the War Department under approved production plans, drawings, manufacturing and other information and samples of supplies and equipment to be manufactured or furnished, provided that if in the case of a gift the estimated value of the property in question exceeds $1,000.00 or in the case of a loan, $50,000, the approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, will be first obtained.

§ 81.961a Aviation textile products manufacturing industry. The aviation textile products manufacturing industry is defined for the purposes of this determination as that industry which is engaged in the manufacture of articles (other than apparel) primarily of fabric for use in connection with the aviation industry, including, but without limitation, parachutes of all types, parachute packs, parachute harnesses, safety belts, aerial delivery containers made primarily from fabrics, tow targets, and wind direction indicators of the wind-stock type; Provided, however, That the manufacture of canvas and duck articles for ground use, such as signaling panels, is not included.

Date effective: December 11, 1942.

Wage: 55 cents an hour or $22.00 a week of 40 hours, arrived at either on a time or piecework basis, for the States of California, Oregon, and Washington, 47½ cents an hour or $19.00 a week of 40 hours, arrived at either on a time or piecework basis, for the remaining 45 states and the District of Columbia. Workers who are in fact learners may be employed at the rate of 40 cents an hour or $16.00 a week of 40 hours during the first two weeks of their employment and at the rate of 45 cents an hour or $18.00 a week during the third and fourth weeks of their employment.

WAGE AND SALARY STABILIZATION

§ 81.975 Executive Order No. 9250, dated October 3, 1942, establishes a national wage and salary stabilization policy pursuant to the Act of October 2, 1942 entitled "An Act to Amend Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, to Aid in Preventing Inflation and for Other Purposes". Titles II, III, and VI of that order deal with wage and salary stabilization, and, in general, provide that the administration and enforcement of the stabilization policy will be under the direction of the National War Labor Board and of the Economic Stabilization Director.

(a) Title II of Executive Order No. 9250, provides:

1. No increases in wage rates, granted as a result of voluntary agreement, collective bargaining, conciliation, arbitration, or otherwise, and no decreases in wage rates, shall be authorized unless notice of such increases or decreases shall have been filed with the National War Labor Board and unless the National War Labor Board has approved such increases or decreases.

2. The National War Labor Board shall not approve any increase in the wage prevailing on Sept. 15, 1942, unless such increase is necessary to correct maladjustments or inequalities, to eliminate substandards of living, to correct gross inequities, or to aid in the effective prosecution of the war.

Provided, however, That where the National War Labor Board of the Price Administrator shall have reason to believe that a proposed wage increase will require a change in the price ceiling of the commodity or service involved, such proposed increase, if approved by the National War Labor Board, shall become effective only if also approved by the Director.

3. The National War Labor Board shall not approve a decrease in the wages for any particular work below the highest wages paid therefor between Jan. 1, 1942, and Sept. 15, 1942, unless to correct gross inequities and to aid in the effective prosecution of the war.

4. The National War Labor Board shall, by general regulation, make such exemptions from the provisions of this title in the case of small total wage increases or decreases as it deems necessary for the effective administration of this order.

5. No increases in salaries now in excess of $5,000 per year (except in instances in which an individual has been assigned to more difficult or responsible work), shall be granted until otherwise determined by the Director.

6. No decreases shall be made in the salary for any particular work below the highest salary paid therefor between Jan. 1, 1942 and Sept. 15, 1942, unless to correct gross inequities and to aid in the effective prosecution of the war.

7. In order to correct gross inequities and to provide for greater equality in contributing to the war effort, the Director is authorized to take the necessary action, and to issue the appropriate regulations, so that, insofar as practicable, no salary shall be authorized under Title III, Section 4 to the extent that it exceeds $25,000 after the payment of taxes allocable to the sum in excess of $25,000: Provided, however, That such regulations shall make due allowance for the payment of life insurance premiums on policies heretofore issued, and required payments on fixed obligations heretofore incurred, and shall make provision to prevent undue hardship. provision to prevent undue hardship.

8. The policy of the Federal Government, as established in Executive Order No. 9017 of January 12, 1942, to encourage free collective bargaining between employers and employees is reaffirmed and continued.

9. Insofar as the provisions of Clause (1) of section 302 (c) of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 are inconsistent with this Order, they are hereby suspended.

(b) Title III of Executive Order No. 9250 provides:

1. Except as modified by this Order, the National War Labor Board shall continue to perform the powers, functions, and duties conferred upon it by Executive Order No. 9017, and the functions of said Board are hereby extended to cover all industries and all employees. The National War Labor Board shall continue to follow the procedure specified in said Executive Order.

2. The National War Labor Board shall constitute the agency of the Federal Government authorized to carry out the wage policies stated in this Order, or the directives on policy issued by the Director under this Order. The National War Labor Board is further authorized to issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the speedy determination of the propriety of any wage increases or decreases in accordance with this Order, and to avail itself of the services and facilities of such state and Federal departments and agencies as, in the discretion of the National War Labor Board, may be of assistance to the Board.

3. No provision with respect to wages contained in any labor agreement between employers and employes (including the shipbuilding stabilization agreements as amended on May 16, 1942, and the wage stabilization agreement of the building construction industry arrived at May 22, 1942) which is inconsistent with the policy herein enunciated or hereafter formulated by the Director shall be enforced except with the approval of the National War Labor Board within the provisions of this order. The National War Labor Board shall permit the shipbuilding stabilization committee and the wage adjustment board for the building construction industry, both of which are provided for in the foregoing agreements, to continue to perform their functions therein set forth, except in so far as any of them is inconsistent with the terms of this order.

4. In order to effectuate the purposes and provisions of this order and the act of October 2, 1942, any wage or salary payment made in contravention thereof shall be disregarded by the executive departments and other governmental agencies in determining the costs or expenses of any employer for the purpose of any law or regulation, including the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 or any maximum price regulation thereof, or for the purpose of calculating deductions under the revenue laws of the United States or for the purpose of determining costs or expenses under any contract made by or on behalf of the government of the United States.

(c) Title IV, paragraph 1 provides:

1. The prices of agricultural commodities and of commodities manufactured or processed in whole or in substantial part from any agricultural commodity shall be stabilized, so far as practicable, on the basis of levels which existed on Sept. 15, 1942, and in compliance with the act of Oct. 2, 1942.

(d) Title VI paragraphs 1, 2 and 4 provide as follows:

1. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as affecting the present operation of the Fair Labor Standards Act, the National Labor Relations Act, the Walsh-Healey Act, the Davis-Bacon Act, or the adjustment procedure of the Railway Labor Act.

2. Salaries and wages under this Order shall include all forms of direct or indirect remuneration to an employee or officer for work or personal services performed for an employer or corporation, including but not limited to, bonuses, additional compensation, gifts, commissions, fees, and any other remuneration in any form or medium whatsoever (excluding insurance and pension benefits in a reasonable amount as determined by the Director); but for the purpose of determining wages or salaries for any period prior to September 16, 1942, such additional compensation shall be taken into account only in cases where it has been customarily paid by employers to their employees. 'Salaries' as used in this Order means remuneration for personal services regularly paid on a weekly, monthly or annual basis.

* * * * *

4. The Director shall be the agency to receive notice of any increase in the rates or charges of common carriers or other public utilities as provided in the aforesaid Act of October 2, 1942.

§ 81.976 Regulations of Economic Stabilization Director approved by the President. On October 27, 1942, Economic Stabilization Director Byrnes issued regulations (Part 4001) pursuant to authority vested in, and with the approval of, the President relative to wages and salaries. These regulations are set forth in paragraphs (a) to (p) of this section.

(a) Definitions (Section 4001.1). When used in these regulations, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof—

(a) The term "Act" means the Act of October 2, 1942, entitled "An Act to amend the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, to aid in preventing inflation, and for other purposes."

(b) The term "Board" means the National War Labor Board created by Executive Order No. 9017, dated January 12, 1942.

(c) The term "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

(d) The term "Code" means the Internal Revenue Code, as amended and supplemented.

(e) The term "salary" or "salary payments" means all forms of direct or indirect compensation which is computed on a weekly, monthly, annual or other comparable basis, except a wage basis, for personal services of an employee irrespective of when rendered, including bonuses, additional compensation, gifts, loans, commissions, fees, and any other remuneration in any form or medium whatsoever (excluding insurance and pension benefits in a reasonable amount).

(f) The term "salary rate" means the rate or other basis at which the salary for any particular work or service is computed either under the terms of a contract or agreement or in conformity with an established custom or usage.

(g) The term "wages" or "wage payments" means all forms of direct or indirect compensation which is computed on an hourly or daily basis, a piece-work basis, or other comparable basis, for personal services of an employee irrespective of when rendered, including bonuses, additional compensation, gifts, commissions, loans, fees, and any other remuneration in any form or medium whatsoever (but excluding insurance and pension benefits in a reasonable amount).

(h) The term "insurance and pension benefits in a reasonable amount" means

(1) Contributions by an employer to an employees' trust or under an annuity plan which meets the requirements of section 165 (a) of the Code (for text of this section of the Code see subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, and

(2) Amounts paid by an employer on account of premiums on insurance on the life of the employee which amounts are deductible by the employer under section 23 (a) of the Code (for text of this section of the Code, see subparagraph (2) of this paragraph), except that if such amounts are includible in the gross income of the employee under the Code, the amount in respect of each employee may not exceed five percent of the employee's annual salary or wages determined without the inclusion of insurance and pension benefits.

(i) The terms "approval by the Board" and "determination by the Board" shall, except as may be otherwise provided in the regulations or orders of the Board, include an approval or determination by an agent of the Board duly authorized to perform such act; and such approval or determination, if subsequently modified or reversed by the Board, shall nevertheless for the purpose of these regulations, be deemed to have been continuously in effect from its original date until the first day of the payroll period immediately following the reversal or modification or until such later date as the Board may direct.

(j) The terms "approval by the Commissioner" and "determination by the Commissioner" shall, except as may be otherwise provided in regulations prescribed by the Commissioner, include an approval or determination by an agent of the Commissioner duly authorized to perform such act; and such approval or determination, if subsequently modified or reversed by the Commissioner, shall nevertheless for the purpose of these regulations, be deemed to have been continuously in effect from its original date until the first day of the payroll period immediately following reversal or modification or until such later date as the Commissioner may direct.

(1) Text of section 165 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(a) Exemption from tax. A trust forming part of a stock bonus, pension, or profit-sharing plan of an employer for the exclusive benefit of his employees or their beneficiaries shall not be taxable under this supplement and no other provision of this supplement shall apply with respect to such trust or to its beneficiary—

(1) If contributions are made to the trust by such employer, or employees, or both, for the purpose of distributing to such employees or their beneficiaries the corpus and income of the fund accumulated by the trust in accordance with such plan;

(2) If under the trust instrument it is impossible, at any time prior to the satisfaction of all liabilities with respect to employees and their beneficiaries under the trust, for any part of the corpus or income to be (within the taxable year or thereafter) used for, or diverted to, purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of his employees or their beneficiaries;

(3) If the trust, or two or more trusts, or the trust or trusts and an annuity plan or plans are designated by the employer as constituting parts of a plan intended to qualify under this subsection which benefits either—

(A) 70 per centum or more of all the employees, or 80 per centum or more of all the employees who are eligible to benefit under the plan if 70 per centum or more of all the employees are eligible to benefit under the plan, excluding in each case employees who have been employed not more than a minimum period prescribed by the plan, not exceeding five years, employees whose customary employment is for not more than twenty hours in any one week, and employees whose customary employment is for not more than five months in any calendar year, or

(B) Such employees as qualify under a classification set up by the employer and found by the Commissioner not to be discriminatory in favor of employees who are officers, shareholders, persons whose principal duties consist of supervising the work of other employees, or highly compensated employees; and

(4) If the contributions or benefits provided under the plan do not discriminate in favor of employees who are officers, shareholders, persons whose principal duties consist in supervising the work of other employees, or highly compensated employees.

(5) A classification shall not be considered discriminatory within the meaning of paragraphs (3) (B) or (4) of this subsection merely because it excludes employees the whole of whose remuneration constitutes "wages" under section 1426 (a) (1) (relating to the Federal Insurance Contributions Act) or merely because it is limited to salaried or clerical employees. Neither shall a plan be considered discriminatory within the meaning of such provisions merely because the contributions or benefits of or on behalf of the employees under the plan bear a uniform relationship to the total compensation, or the basic or regular rate of compensation, of such employees, or merely because the contributions or benefits based on that part of an employee's remuneration which is excluded from "wages" by section 1426 (a) (1) differ from the contributions or benefits based on employee's remuneration not so excluded, or differ because of any retirement benefits created under State or Federal law.

(6) A plan shall be considered as meeting the requirements of paragraph (3) of this subsection during the whole of any taxable year of the plan if on one day in each quarter it satisfied such requirements.

(2) Extract from section 23 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Deductions from gross income. In computing net income there shall be allowed as deductions:

(a) Expenses—(1) In general. All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on any trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered;

* * * * *

(o) Charitable and other contributions. In the case of an individual, contributions or gifts payment of which is made within the taxable year to or for the use of:

(1) The United States, any State, Territory or any political subdivision thereof or the District of Columbia, or any possession of the United States, for exclusively public purposes;

(2) A corporation, trust, or community chest, fund or foundation, created or organized in the United States or in any possession thereof or under the law of the United States or of any State or Territory or of any possession of the United States, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation;

(3) The special fund for vocational rehabilitation authorized by section 12 of the World War Veterans' Act, 1924, 43 Stat. 611 (U.S.C., Title 38, Sec. 440);

(4) Posts or organizations of war veterans, or auxiliary units or societies of any such posts or organizations, if such posts, organizations, units, or societies are organized in the United States or any of its possessions, and if no part of their net earnings inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual; or

(5) A domestic fraternal society, order, or association, operating under the lodge system, but only if such contributions or gifts are to be used exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals; to an amount which in all the above cases combined does not exceed 15 per centum of the taxpayer's net income as computed without the benefit of this subsection. Such contributions or gifts shall be allowable as deductions only if verified under rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary.

(3) Section 5 (b) of Act to amend the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, to aid in preventing inflation and for other purposes. Section 5 (b) of Public Law 729 (77th Cong. 2d Session) provides as follows:

Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the reduction by any private employer of the salary of any of his employees which is at the rate of $5,000 or more per annum.

(h) Decreases in salaries of over $5,000 (Section 4001.8). In the case of a salary rate existing as of the close of October 3, 1942, under which an employee is paid a salary of $5,000 or more per annum, no decrease in such rate made by the employer shall be considered in contravention of the Act and the regulations promulgated thereunder (see section 5 (b) of the Act set forth in paragraph (a) (3) of this section: Provided, however, That if by virtue of such decrease the new salary paid to the employee is less than $5,000 per annum, then the validity of such decrease below $5,000 shall be determined under the provisions of section 4001.7 of these regulations.

(i) Limitation on certain salaries (Section 4001.9). (a) No amount of salary (exclusive of any amounts allowable under paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section) shall be paid or authorized to be paid to or accrued to the account of any employee or received by him during the taxable year which, after reduction by the Federal income taxes on the amount of such salary, would exceed $25,000. The amount of such Federal income taxes shall be determined (1) by applying to the total amount of salary (exclusive of any amounts allowable under paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section) paid or accrued during the taxable year, undiminished by any deductions, the rates of taxes imposed by Chapter I of the Code (not including section 466) as if such amount of salary were the net income (after the allowance of credits applicable thereto), the surtax net income, and the Victory tax net income, respectively, and (2) without allowance of any credits against any of such taxes.

(b) In any case in which an employee establishes that his income from all sources is insufficient to meet payments customarily made to charitable, educational or other organizations described in section 23 (o) of the Code (for text of this section of the Code see paragraph (a) (2) of this section), without resulting in undue hardship, then an additional amount sufficient to meet such payments may be paid or authorized to be paid to or accrued to the account of any employee or received by him during the taxable year even though it exceeds the amount otherwise computed under paragraph (a).

(c) In any case in which an employee establishes that, after resorting to his income from all sources, he is unable, without disposing of assets at a substantial financial loss resulting in undue hardship, to meet payments for the following:

(1) Required payments (excluding accelerated payments) by the employee during the taxable year on any life insurance policies on his life which were in force on October 3, 1942,

(2) Required payments (excluding accelerated payments) made by the employee during the taxable year on any fixed obligations for which he was obligated on October 3, 1942,

(3) Federal income taxes of the employee for prior taxable years which are paid during the taxable year, not including Federal income taxes on the allowance under paragraph (a) for any prior year, an additional amount sufficient to meet such payments may be paid or authorized to be paid to or accrued to the account of any employee or received by him during the taxable year, even though it exceeds the amount otherwise computed under paragraph (a).

(d) In the case of an individual who is an employee of more than one person, the aggregate of the salaries received by such individual shall, under such circumstances as may be set forth in regulations promulgated under the authority of these regulations, be treated as if paid by a single employer.

(e) Unless payment thereof is required under a bona fide contract in effect on October 3, 1942, no amount of salary shall be paid or authorized to be paid to or accrued to the account of any employee or received by him after October 27, 1942, and before January 1, 1943, if the total salary paid, authorized, accrued or received for the calendar year 1942 exceeds the amount of salary which would otherwise be allowable under paragraph (a) of this section and also exceeds the total salary paid, authorized, accrued or received for the calendar year 1941.

(f) Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, the provisions of this section shall be applicable to salary paid or accrued after December 31, 1942, regardless of when authorized and regardless of any contract or agreement made before or after such date.

* * * * *

(l) Salary allowances under Internal Revenue Code (Section 4001.12). No provision of these regulations shall preclude the Commissioner from disallowing as a deduction in computing Federal income tax any compensation paid by an employer (regardless of the number of employees and of the amount paid to any employee) in excess of a "reasonable allowance" in accordance with the provisions of section 23 (a) of the Code (for text of this section of the Code see paragraph (a) (2) of this section).

§ 81.978 Wage stabilization policy of the National War Labor Board. The policy directive given the National War Labor Board by Congress and by the President is clear. Under that directive, the Board will act on the presumption that wage rates prevailing on September 15, 1942 are proper. The Board will grant wage increases over the level prevailing on September 15, 1942 only in exceptional cases and in accordance with the following paragraph of Executive Order No. 9250 of October 3, 1942:

> The National War Labor Board shall not approve any increases in the wage rates prevailing on September 15, 1942, unless such increase is necessary to correct maladjustments or inequalities, to eliminate substandards of living, to correct gross inequities, or to aid in the effective prosecution of the war.

The National War Labor Board will examine carefully each claim for such exceptional treatment before approving any increase. In considering specific cases, the Board will be guided by the following general principles. The application of these principles by regional directors will be subject to all general orders of the Board and to its announced rules of procedure.

(a) Maladjustments. If a group of employees has received increases amounting to 15% in their average straight-time rates over the level prevailing on January 1, 1941, the Board will not grant further increases as a correction for maladjustments.

Beginning about January 1, 1941 a race between wages and prices began. Between that date and May, 1942, when the President's seven point program to stabilize the cost of living was announced, the cost of living had risen 15% as measured by the general index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

In the same period, very considerable but varying increases in wage rates were made. The irregularity of wage increases caused many maladjustments in the wage relationships between different plants and industries. A substantial majority of industrial workers had received more than 15% increase; some had received less.

To correct these maladjustments, the Board will consider requests for general increases in straight-time rates up to 15% above the level prevailing on January 1, 1941. This policy sets a terminal point for general wage increases. It is not applicable to individual workers or to employees in particular job classifications. It will be applied only to groups composed of all the employees in a bargaining unit in a plant, a company, or an industry, depending upon the circumstances of each case.

Adjustment of wage rates to correct maladjustments may be made by regional directors: Provided, however, That their authority in this regard will be limited to cases arising in those industries which have been specifically designated by the Board, and if in the judgment of a regional director a wage adjustment for the correction of a maladjustment would act to unstabilize wages, the case shall be referred by him to a tri-partite regional panel.

A list of designated industries is attached hereto and may be enlarged or modified by the Board from time to time. Any proposed wage adjustments in industries not listed must be referred to the National War Labor Board at Washington for action.

(b) Inequalities and gross inequities. The wage rate inequalities and the gross inequities which may require adjustment under the stabilization program are those which represent manifest injustices that arise from unusual and unreasonable differences in wage rates.

Wage differentials which are established and stabilized are normal to American industry and will not be disturbed by the Board.

The Board itself will review cases where evidence is submitted to show that existing differences in wage rates are so discriminatory as to make their continuance a manifest injustice. Such evidence may be submitted to the regional director. If the regional director is satisfied that the evidence submitted so justifies, the claim may then be transmitted to the National War Labor Board in Washington for consideration.

(c) Substandards of living. In the President's Message of April 27, 1942 and again in the Executive Order of October 3, 1942, the word "substandard" is used with reference to the need for eliminating substandards of living. The National War Labor Board has dealt with but a very few cases in which the substandard issue has been a factor. Therefore, the Board is not in a position at this time to enunciate a general policy to govern the adjustment of wages to eliminate substandards of living. The Board will not undertake to measure substandards of living by any fixed wage rate.

Such cases involving substandards of living as may arise will be considered by the Board on their individual merits until sufficient experience has accumulated to permit the statement of a more general policy.

(d) Effective prosecution of the war. Under Executive Order 9250, the National War Labor Board may approve any increase of the wage rates prevailing on September 15, 1942 if such an increase is necessary "to aid in the effective prosecution of the war." Every adjustment in September 15, 1942 wage levels that the Board may make will be, in its judgment, for a more effective prosecution of the war.

The National War Labor Board will not approve wage increases for the purpose of influencing or directing the flow of manpower.

When in a particular case management and labor, in cooperation with the War Manpower Commission and other government agencies, have taken concerted action to solve a manpower need, the Board will consider a request in that case to correct whatever inequalities or gross inequities may then need correction.

§ 81.979 Procedure in cases of voluntary applications for wage adjustments by private employers; coverage of this statement. The term "wages," wherever used in this statement, shall be deemed to include salaries insofar as approval of the adjustment thereof has been made a function of the National War Labor Board.

(a) The set-up in the regions. (1) There are established 10 regional offices of the National War Labor Board, to be located in the 10 regional offices of the Office for Emergency Management, the list of which is appended hereto.

(2) Each regional office of the Board will be headed by a full-time representative of the National War Labor Board, to be appointed by the Board, and to be known as "Regional Director for the National War Labor Board." Each office will be supplied with an appropriate staff.

(3) Each Regional Director will have an advisory board composed of representatives of labor employers, and the public, to be appointed by the National War Labor Board.

(4) Attached to each regional office will be tripartite panels composed of representatives of labor, employers, and the public, to be appointed by the National War Labor Board. If the pressure of work in any region necessitates, tripartite panels may sit simultaneously, under the general administrative direction of the Regional Director. The primary responsibility of the Regional Director and the tripartite panels shall be to handle voluntary applications for wage adjustments with the utmost expedition consistent with the proper carrying out of the Board's wage policies.

(5) In the handling of all wage cases the Regional Directors, and the tripartite panels, are charged with the obligation of executing the Board's wage policies, and they shall have no policy-making powers.

(6) Pursuant to the policy of interdepartmental cooperation laid down in section 2 of Title III of Executive Order No. 9250, the facilities of the offices of the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor as hereinafter more fully described, are available to the Board as information centers and as headquarters for the filling out of application forms, for use of the National War Labor Board's Regional Directors and panels, in voluntary wage adjustment cases. In such capacities the offices of the Wage and Hour Division will be acting as the Board's agents.

(7) The general procedure in cases of voluntary wage adjustments by private employers will be as follows (subject to certain exceptions which will hereinafter be noted):

(i) The application form shall be filed in an office of the Wage and Hour Division, and shall be transmitted by said office to the Regional Director of the National War Labor Board for that region.

(ii) The initial ruling on the application will then be made by said Regional Director.

(iii) If any party to the application disagrees with said ruling, the application will be referred to and passed on by a tripartite panel.

(8) The detailed procedure in such cases, including the appellate and the reviewing functions of the National War Labor Board, are set forth below.

(b) The handling of preliminary inquiries about jurisdiction. (1) An employer or a union (or an employee or a group of employees not represented by a union with respect thereto) directly concerned in a proposed wage adjustment, if uncertain whether under the applicable regulations and orders the proposed adjustment can be made without Board approval, may ask the nearest office of the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor in the region for an informal ruling. Said office shall then issue a written ruling, as agent of the National War Labor Board, and send copies thereof to the person or persons who made the inquiry and to the Regional Director of said Board for his information.

(2) If said ruling is that the proposed wage adjustment is of a sort which may be made without the approval of the National War Labor Board then:

(i) The ruling shall be deemed to be an authoritative act of the Board through its agent for that purpose, and shall remain in effect unless reversed as provided below.

(ii) If the Board's Regional Director, on receipt of the ruling from the office of the Wage and Hour Division, reverses it, he shall promptly notify the person or persons who made the inquiry that the adjustment is of a sort which requires approval. If in the meantime the employer has made the adjustment, relying upon the ruling by the office of the Wage and Hour Division that it did not need Board approval, then:

(a) The adjustment may be continued in effect for a period of ten days following the issuance of the Regional Director's ruling, within which period the employer may file with the office of the Wage and Hour Division (jointly with a duly recognized collective bargaining agency, or by himself, as previously provided), an application for approval of the adjustment;

(b) If such an application is so filed, the adjustment may be further continued in effect until and unless it is finally disapproved under the Board's procedure. Such disapproval shall take effect only from the date of the issuance of the order of disapproval.

(3) If the Office of the Wage and Hour Division to which an inquiry has been addressed, as aforesaid, rules that the proposed adjustment is of a sort which cannot properly be made without the approval of the National War Labor Board, the ruling shall be deemed to be an authoritative act of the Board through said office as the Board's agent for that purpose. The person or persons who made the inquiry may seek from the Board's Regional Director a reversal of the ruling by the Wage and Hour Division office. The Regional Director's ruling on the question so submitted shall be final.

(c) The filing of applications for approval of wage adjustments. (1) Each application, when made, shall be filed with the nearest office of the Wage and Hour Division in the region as the agent of the National War Labor Board for that purpose. All applications shall be made upon appropriate forms prepared by the National War Labor Board.

(2) Applications may be of two sorts. The first sort is where approval is sought of an adjustment which has been agreed upon by the parties or has been awarded in an arbitration proceeding. In such cases the application for approval may be signed by any party (or jointly by any or all the parties) to the contract or arbitration proceeding. The application shall state whether all the parties to the contract or arbitration proceeding have signed the application, and shall state the name and address of each party who has not signed the application. If there be any such party who has not signed, the Wage and Hour Division office with which the application was filed shall, as agent of the Board, before acting on the application, send said party a notice of the application. The notice shall request the party to state whether he contests the fact of the contract or arbitration award having been made. If, within seven days of the sending of the notice, he has not filed a statement contesting such fact, or if he files a statement admitting it, the application will then be acted on. If he contests the fact of the contract or award having been made, the matter will be treated as a dispute case and referred to the Conciliation Service of the Department of Labor, unless (i) the contract or award was in writing, (ii) the writing or a certified or otherwise authenticated copy thereof has been produced, and (iii) the office of the Wage and Hour Division is satisfied that no substantial question exists as to the party being a party thereto. Where the Wage and Hour Division is so satisfied, it shall rule accordingly and proceed with the handling of the application. The ruling may be reviewed (on petition of the protesting party) by the Regional Director of the National War Labor Board when the application is transmitted to him. His ruling shall be final.

(3) The second sort of application is where an employer on his own initiative wishes to make a wage adjustment. In such cases the application shall be signed either (i) jointly by the employer and a duly recognized collective bargaining agency for any or all of the employees who are to be affected by the proposed wage adjustment, or (ii) by the employer alone. In either case the application shall state whether or not there is a duly recognized collective bargaining agency (for any or all of the affected employees) which has not joined with the employer in the application. If it appears that there is such an organization which has not so joined, the office of the Wage and Hour Division, to which the application has been submitted, shall, as agent of the Board, before acting on the application, send to the appropriate local officials of such organization a notice of the application, requesting the organization, if it has any objections to the application being acted upon, so to inform the office. If no such objections are filed within seven days of the sending of the notice, or if the organization in question states that it has no objections, the application will then be acted upon. If objections are made within said period, the matter will be treated as a dispute case and referred to the Conciliation Service of the Department of Labor.

(4) In cases where the employer has signed, or joined in signing, an application for approval of a wage increase, he shall state in the application whether he intends to make the proposed wage increases, if it is approved, the basis of an application to the Office of Price Administration for an adjustment of his maximum prices or for an amendment of the regulations establishing those prices.

(5) In cases where the employer has not signed, or joined in signing, an application for approval of a wage increase, he shall be requested, in the notice of the filing of the application which the Wage and Hour Division office is required to send him under subparagraph (2) above, to state whether he intends to make the proposed wage increase, if it is approved, the basis of an application to the Office of Price Administration for an adjustment of his maximum prices or for an amendment of the regulations establishing those prices. He shall be asked to make this statement (i) within seven days of the sending of said notice, or (ii) if (as described in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) he contests the fact of the agreement or arbitration award having been made, within seven days of any ruling by the Wage and Hour Division finding him to be a party to said agreement or arbitration award.

(6) If the employer states that he intends to make the proposed wage increase (if it is approved) the basis of an application to the Office of Price Administration for an adjustment of his maximum prices or for an amendment of the regulations establishing those prices, (i) his statement shall be entered in an appropriate place on the application for a wage increase before the application is acted on by the Regional Director as provided below, and (ii) the employer will be required to furnish further information, the nature and effect of which will be set forth hereinafter under (e).

(7) When an application has been submitted to an office of the Wage and Hour Division, and no preliminary inquiry about jurisdiction has been made under (b) above, the office shall first make certain that the application is of a sort which needs the approval of the National War Labor Board. If the office believes that approval is not or may not be required by the applicable regulations and orders, the office shall proceed under (b) above exactly as if the applicant had asked for a preliminary ruling on jurisdiction. If no jurisdictional question is involved, or if there is such a question but it has been cleared up under (b) above, the office of the Wage and Hour Division shall then proceed with the application. In so doing, its function shall be as agent of the National War Labor Board for that purpose, to see to it that the appropriate forms prepared by the Board are fully and accurately filled out. When this has been done, the application shall be transmitted by said office to the nearest Regional Director of the National War Labor Board.

(8) Upon receipt of the application, the Regional Director shall consider it. Before acting on it, he shall first make certain that it is the kind of application which requires Board approval (unless this question has already been ruled upon and determined under (b) above). If he concludes that the application does not require Board approval, he shall make a written ruling to that effect and send copies to the applicant or applicants. If he concludes that the application is of a sort which does require Board approval, he shall proceed to act upon it as provided in (d) below. In any case the Regional Director, before acting, may obtain further needed information informally from the applicant or applicants or from the Wage and Hour Division, or refer the application back to the Wage and Hour Division office for such further information as he may specify. In each case the Regional Director shall send a copy of the application to the Office of Price Administration for its information.

(d) Disposition of applications for approval of wage increases in which the application indicates that no price relief will be sought if approval is granted. (1) The Regional Director shall rule upon the application subject to the rights of review hereinafter set forth, and subject to his right to refer any case for decision, with his recommendation, to a tripartite panel in the region or to the National War Labor Board, if he believes that the case is sufficiently important from a stabilization point of view, or presents sufficiently serious and doubtful questions of interpretation of Board policy, to justify such action. In any case, whether the ruling be made by the Regional Director or by a panel, the Board shall have power, as set forth more fully hereinafter, to reopen the matter on its own initiative and to set aside any ruling.

(2) If the Regional Director approves an application his ruling shall be final, subject to the Board's ultimate power of review just referred to.

(3) If a panel to whom the Regional Director has referred an application approves it, the ruling shall be final, subject to the Board's ultimate power of review just referred to.

(4) If the Regional Director disapproves the application (or approves a lesser increase than that requested) the applicant, or any applicant if there be more than one, may within ten days after the date of the issuance of the ruling file with the Regional Director a petition for a review. The Regional Director shall refer the petition to a tripartite panel.

(5) Any ruling by the panel upon review, approving the application, shall be final, subject to the Board's ultimate power of review referred to above.

(6) If a panel, in ruling upon an application which the Regional Director has referred to it for decision, or which the panel has received for review upon petition, disapproves the application (or approves a lesser increase than that requested), the ruling shall be final, subject (i) to the Board's ultimate power to review rulings on its own initiative, as set forth above, and (ii) to the right of any member of the panel to refer the ruling to the Board for review if he believes the case of sufficient importance to justify action by the Board.

(7) Copies of all rulings made by Regional Directors and by panels shall be promptly transmitted to the Executive Secretary of the National War Labor Board for analysis by a review division, whose duty it will be to lay before the Board, for such action as the Board may care to take, all rulings which involve serious questions of policy or which may affect price ceilings as provided below.

(8) Any ruling by a Regional Director or by a panel shall be deemed to be the act of the Board unless and until reversed by the Board; and any such reversal shall take effect only from the date of its issuance, Provided, however, That if a ruling denying an application for permission to make a wage adjustment is overruled, the final ruling shall incorporate as the effective date of the increase that which was specified in the application as the effective date.

(e) Disposition of applications for approval of wage increases in which the applicant states that he intends to make the proposed wage increase, if it is approved, the basis of an application to the Office of Price Administration for an adjustment of his maximum prices or for an amendment of the regulations establishing those prices. (1) The procedure shall be the same as in the cases described under (d) above, except that:

(i) The employer, at the time of the filing of the application for approval of a wage increase, or (if the application was not signed by him) at the time of filing his statement that he intends to seek price relief if the wage increase is approved, shall state fully, upon a form approved by the National War Labor Board, the relationship between the proposed wage increase and the employer's price situation, and what the effect would be on the employer's business if wages were increased without price relief. A copy of said form shall be sent with the application to the Office of Price Administration. Copies of any forms which the Office of Price Administration may require the employer to fill out, and which have been supplied for that purpose by said Office to the Wage and Hour Division offices, shall also be sent with a copy of the application to the Office of Price Administration.

(ii) Copies of all rulings of Regional Directors, panels or the Board, approving or disapproving such applications shall be sent to the Office of Price Administration as well as to the applicant or applicants.

(iii) If the application for a wage increase is approved, the ruling shall state that it will become effective only on final approval by the Board and, when required by the provisions of Executive Order No. 9250, by the Economic Stabilization Director.

§ 81.980 General Orders of National War Labor Board. * * *

(a) General Order No. 1. * * *

(1) General Order No. 1–A. General Order No. 1 issued by the National War Labor Board on October 7, 1942, shall apply also to the salaries subject to the jurisdiction of the Board. (For definition of such salaries, see General Order No. 9, October 30, 1942, at paragraph (i) of this section).

* * * * *

(f) General Order No. 6. * * *

(1) General Order No. 6–A. General Order No. 6, issued by the National War Labor Board on October 20, 1942, shall apply also to salaries subject to the jurisdiction of the Board. (For definition of such salaries, see General Order No. 9, October 30, 1942, at paragraph (i) of this section).

* * * * *

(j) General Order No. 10. The payment to employees, whose wage or salary increases are subject to the jurisdiction of the National War Labor Board, of a bonus, fee, gift, commission or other form of compensation customarily paid to such employees in the past may be continued without the approval of the National War Labor Board: Provided, That

(a) if in a fixed amount, the total amount so paid to an employee during the current bonus year does not exceed the total so paid to an employee for like work during the preceding bonus year, or

(b) if computed on a percentage, incentive or other similar basis, the rate and the method of computation are not changed in the current bonus year so as to yield a greater amount than that in the preceding bonus year, but a greater amount when resulting from the same rate and method of computation may be paid.

(k) General Order No. 11. To prevent hardships resulting from innocent action in the period of transition following the issuance of Executive Order No. 9250, dated October 3, 1942, and pursuant to the authority vested in the National War Labor Board by that Executive Order: It is hereby ordered, That:

An employer who, on or prior to November 7, 1942, has in good faith given an increase in wages subject to the jurisdiction of the National War Labor Board without the prior approval of the National War Labor Board or exemption under its regulations may apply for approval of such increase on or before December 1, 1942. If satisfied that the employer made the increase in good faith and that the increase is consistent with Executive Order No. 9250, October 3, 1942, and should be approved, the National War Labor Board will make its approval retroactive to the date of the wage increase.

Except as herein provided, an increase which requires approval of the National War Labor Board must receive such approval before it is put into effect.

(l) General Order No. 12. A state or its political subdivision, or any agency or instrumentality thereof, which proposes to make an adjustment in salaries or wages not fixed by State statute which would otherwise require the prior approval of the National War Labor Board may make such adjustment on certification to the Board that the adjustment is necessary to correct maladjustments, or to correct inequalities or gross inequities, as defined in the Board's Statement of Wage Policy of November 6, 1942. A certificate by the official or agency authorizing the adjustment stating the nature and amount of such adjustment, and briefly setting forth the facts meeting the foregoing requirement, will be accepted by the Board as sufficient evidence of the propriety of the adjustment, subject to review by the Board. Modification by the Board of adjustments made by a governmental official or agency acting pursuant hereto shall not be retroactive. The certificate prescribed herein, together with four copies thereof, shall be filed promptly with the committee established by joint action of the National War Labor Board and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, namely, the Joint Committee on Salaries and Wages, Room 5406, Department of Labor Building, Washington, D. C., which will forward the same to the Board or the Commissioner, as the case may require.

The certification procedure shall not apply to any adjustent which would raise salaries or wages beyond the prevailing level of compensation for similar services in the area or community. In exceptional cases where such an adjustment is sought, and in all cases where the agency seeks an adjustment other than by the certification procedure, application for approval shall be filed with the appropriate Regional Office of the National War Labor Board.

(m) General Order No. 13. Wage Stabilization in Building (A). As provided in Title III, Section 3, of Executive Order 9250 the Wage Adjustment Board of the Building Construction Industry established by the Secretary of Labor's Administrative Order No. 101 shall continue to perform the duty ascribed to it by that Order as amended by Supplement No. 1 and by the Wage Stabilization Agreement of May 22, 1942, between the Building and Construction Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor and several Government agencies. As provided in the agreement rates are to be revised above the July 1, 1942, levels only where those rates are inadequate because:

(1) They were fixed at a time so long before July 1, 1942, as to be out of line with the general wage then prevailing;

(2) They were applicable in a locality where changing conditions in the building construction industry require a revision of wage rates; or

(3) They do not sufficiently take into account any abnormal changes in conditions.

(B) In the performance of this duty the Wage Adjustment Board shall take no action which is inconsistent with the terms of Executive Order No. 9250.

(C) Any recommendation of the Wage Adjustment Board directed to the parties for a change in wage rates shall be transmitted to the National War Labor Board and shall become a final order of the National War Labor Board seven days after filing unless in the interim the National War Labor Board determines that the recommendation should be stayed for the purpose of review or should be put into operation subject to review. If the National War Labor Board assumes review, it shall enter its order confirming the recommendation of the Wage Adjustment Board or remanding the case to the Wage Adjustment Board for further consideration. The Wage Adjustment Board may refer to the National War Labor Board or the National War Labor Board may bring up on its own motion, any recommendation of the Wage Adjustment Board directed to the parties in order to determine whether the action is inconsistent with the terms of Executive Order No. 9250.

(D) Unless and until otherwise ordered, this order shall apply only to wage adjustments in contracts which were entered into prior to November 5, 1942, or which are otherwise excluded from the operation of Maximum Price Regulation 251 of the Office of Price Administration.

MISCELLANEOUS PURCHASE INSTRUCTIONS

§ 81.1109 Interchange of patent rights and industrial information. (a) Under the Lend-Lease Act (55 Stat. 31) and the International Reciprocal Aid Agreements under the Act (see § 81.1111); it is established as the policy of the United States that full and complete dissemination be made of inventions, manufacturers' processes, technical information, designs and patent rights between the United States and our Allies with proper safeguards for security and the protection of the industrial property rights of citizens of the United States. Any such exchange shall be for war purposes and for the duration of the war.

(b) Under the Agreements each Government will bear the cost of procurement from its own nationals. Accordingly, insofar as practicable, the procurement of the information and rights referred to in paragraph (a) of this section for use by our Allies should be on the same basis as procurement for such use by the United States.

(c) Contractors who would be interested should be advised of the fact that under the Agreements referred to in § 81.1111, licenses under United States patents and applications for patents owned by nationals of the signatories to the said Agreements can be secured.

(d) Requests by our Allies forwarded to the War Department for military items other than those pertaining to aeronautics will be received by the Director, International Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, who will refer such requests to the appropriate Service to effect such procurement. Military items pertaining to aeronautics will be received by the Chief, International Section, Matériel Command, Army Air Forces.

§ 81.1110 Agreement with the United Kingdom for the interchange of patent rights and industrial information—(a) General. Under date of August 24, 1942, an agreement was entered into between the United States of America and the United Kingdom with relation to the interchange of patent rights, information, inventions, designs or processes. (Executive Agreement Series 268)

(b) Terms of agreement. The following is a summary of the terms of the agreement. (1) Each government, insofar as it may lawfully do so, will, upon request, procure and make available to the other government, patent rights, information, inventions, designs or processes requested by the other government.

(2) Each government will bear the cost of the procurement from its own nationals.

(3) All patent rights so acquired will be for the purposes of and until the termination of the war only.

(4) Information, inventions, designs, or processes will be acquired upon such terms as may most expeditiously make such information available for the purposes of the war, with provision, to the extent practicable, for the limitation of the use thereof, for the purpose of and until the termination of the war.

(5) The agreement is deemed to have been in effect and operation as from January 1, 1942.

(6) The obligations of the United Kingdom pursuant to section 7 of the Lend-Lease Act (Public 11, 77th Congress) as such obligations may be interpreted by the President or by the courts are to be performed by the United Kingdom.

(7) Each government agrees to take such steps as it deems practicable to ensure the appropriate degree of military secrecy in manufacture and use.

(8) License agreements or other contractual obligations existing on January 1, 1942 are not deemed to be within the scope of the agreement.

(9) The Agreement provides that under certain conditions the United Kingdom will indemnify the United States on any claim brought by British nationals arising out of the use of items obtained under the Agreement. Prompt notice of any such claim of infringement will be given to the appropriate representative of the United Kingdom as provided in paragraph (i) of this section.

(c) Handling of requests by the United Kingdom. Requests by the United Kingdom for military items other than those pertaining to aeronautics will be handled as follows:

(1) The request will be submitted to the Director, International Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, in an original and 8 copies. The information contained therein will be similar to that contained in the form set forth in (j) of this section.

(2) The International Division will refer the request to the appropriate supply service for procurement. Such procurement shall be effected pursuant to § 81.1109 hereof and otherwise, as may be directed by the chief of such supply service.

(3) In the event that the supply service is of the opinion that it is impracticable or for any reason undesirable to procure and transfer the item desired to the United Kingdom, or if in the opinion of the supply service concerned licenses under another patent or patents should also be obtained, a full report embodying the relevant circumstances and the recommendation of the supply service shall be submitted to the Director, International Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply.

(4) Financing items under the Agreement will be done in accordance with established procedure for lend-lease procurement. The extent to which such funds are used for the purposes set forth herein should be currently reported on form DDA–7 "Statement of Defense Articles procured from appropriations made to the President for Lend-Lease purposes and other appropriations and delivered to Foreign Governments" under the Lend-Lease Act (55 Stat. 31).

(5) A form of license to be used in procuring items under this agreement is in course of preparation. Pending completion thereof, licenses used for such procurement will be cleared with the Legal Branch, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply.

(6) The provisions of AGO letter AG 400.3295 (6–18–42) MS–D–M of June 24, 1942 pertaining to the transfer of technical information, shall not apply to the transfer of items under the Agreement.

(d) Handling of requests by the United States to the United Kingdom. Requests by the United States for military items other than those pertaining to aeronautics will be handled as follows:

(1) Requests will normally originate in a supply service, and will be submitted to the International Division together with a full description of the item requested, the organization originating the request, its intended use and other relevant particulars.

(2) The International Division will prepare S. O. S. I. D. Form Number 4 (Reverse Request for Patent Rights, Information, Inventions, Designs or Processes), will forward the request to the appropriate representative of the United Kingdom and will send copies thereof to the Office of Lend-Lease Administration and the supply service originating the request. A sample of such form is set forth in paragraph (j) below.

(3) The International Division will follow up the request and arrange for the delivery to the requesting supply service of the item requested.

(e) Handling of requests for aeronautical items. Requests by the United Kingdom and by the United States will be handled as provided in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section except that the duties therein assigned to the Director, International Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, will be performed by the Chief, International Section, Matériel Command, Army Air Forces and requests by the United States will be forwarded by the Chief, International Section, Matériel Command, Army Air Forces to the United Kingdom.

(f) Consultation with patent and technical officers. Officers charged with procurement should consult with the patent and technical officers of the supply service in reaching a determination as to the amount, if any, to be paid for the item requested. The patent officer will ascertain whether the United States has the right without further payment to transfer the item requested. Advice with respect to the foregoing may be obtained from the Chief, Patents Division, Office of The Judge Advocate General.

(g) Acquainting contractors of rights under Agreement. The supply services should bring to the attention of such contractors as would be interested to right, under the Agreement of August 24, 1942, to have secured for their use in war production licenses under patents of the United States or of the United Kingdom owned by British nationals.

(h) Questions of policy or procedure under Agreements. All questions of policy or procedure arising under the Agreement of August 24, 1942, as well as under the Agreements referred to in § 81.1111, shall be referred to the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply.

(i) Notice of claim of infringement. As stated in paragraph (b) (9) of this section, prompt notice of any claim of infringement should be given (a) to the Director, International Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, or to the Chief, International Section, Matériel Command, Army Air Forces, as the case may be, for the purposes specified in paragraph (b) (9) of this section, and (b) to the Chief, Patents Division, Office of The Judge Advocate General for record purposes.

(j) Form of request by the United States to the United Kingdom. The sample of the form referred to in paragraph (d) (2) of this section is as follows:

PATENT INTERCHANGE AGREEMENT

Agreement Between the United States and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland on the Interchange of Patent Rights, Information, Inventions, Designs, or Processes, August 24, 1942; Executive Agreement Series No. 268. (a) Copies of the Agreements referred to above as well as Agreements entered into with other governments are available upon request to the States Department in Washington, D. C.

§ 81.1112 Adjustment of royalties for use of inventions—(a) Basic statute. The Act of October 31, 1942 (Public Law No. 768, 77th Congress, 2d Session) makes provisions for adjusting royalties for the use of inventions for the benefit of the United States, in aid of the prosecution of the war, and for other purposes. The succeeding paragraphs contain a summary of the provisions of the Act as applied to the War Department.

(b) Applicability and notices. Whenever an invention, whether patented or unpatented, is manufactured, used, sold or otherwise disposed of for the United States (for this purpose, the War Department) under the conditions set forth in the basic statute, and the license includes provisions for the payment of royalties, the rates or amounts of which are believed to be unreasonable or excessive by the Secrtary of War, the Secretary of War shall give notice of such facts to the licensor and the licensee. By definition, the manufacture, use, sale or other disposition of an invention, whether patented or unpatented, by a contractor, subcontractor, or any person, firm, or corporation for the Government and with the authorization or consent of the Government is construed as manufacture, use, sale or other disposition for the United States.

(c) Fixing of rates and order. The Act further provides that within a reasonable time after the effective date of the notice, in no event less than ten days, the Secretary of War shall by order, fix and specify such rates or amounts of royalties, if any, as he shall determine are fair and just, taking into account the conditions of wartime production and shall authorize the payment thereof by the licensee to the licensor on account of such manufacture, use, sale or other disposition. Either the licensor or the licensee is privileged, if he so requests within ten days from the effective date of the notice, to present within 30 days from the date of his request, in writing or in person, any facts or circumstances which may in his opinion have a bearing upon the rates or amount of royalties, if any, to be determined, fixed, and specified as aforesaid. Any order fixing the rates and amounts of any royalties shall be issued within a reasonable time after such presentation.

(d) Prohibition against payment of excessive royalties. The licensee is forbidden after the effective date of the notice (upon receipt of notice, or 5 days after the mailing thereof, whichever date is earlier) to pay to the licensor, or to charge directly or indirectly to the United States a royalty in excess of that specified in the order. It is provided that, whenever a reduction in the rates or amounts of royalties is affected by order, the reduction shall inure to the benefit of the Government by way of a corresponding reduction in the contract price to be paid directly or indirectly for such manufacture, use, sale, or other disposition of such inventions, or by way of refund, if already paid to the licensee.

(e) Remedies of licensor. The Act contains certain provisions as to the remedies of the licensor, which, in general, limit him to a claim against the United States in a suit in the Court of Claims or a District Court of the United States.

(f) Settlement of claims. The Secretary of War is authorized, before suit has been instituted against the United States, to enter into an agreement with the owner or licensor of an invention in full settlement and compromise of any claim accruing under the provisions of the Act, and for compensation to be paid such owner or licensor based upon future manufacture, use, sale, or other disposition of said invention.

(g) Authority of Secretary of War to delegate powers and issue regulations under Act. The Secretary of War is authorized in his discretion and under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, to delegate any powers conferred by the Act to such qualified and responsible officers, boards, agents or persons as he may designate or appoint. He is also authorized to issue such rules and regulations and to require such information as may be necessary and proper to carry out the provisions of the Act. In accordance with such provisions of the Act, the Secretary of War has issued delegations of authority, the terms of which are set forth in the succeeding paragraphs. Likewise, he has issued these regulations which, for convenience, have been reprinted as part of the procurement regulations.

(h) Delegation. By memorandum dated November 20, 1942 the Secretary of War has delegated to the chiefs and deputy chiefs of the supply services (and, in the case of the Army Air Forces, also the Assistant Chief of Staff (C), Matériel Command) the powers, duties and authorities conferred upon him by the basic statute:

(1) To determine that the written notice, referred to in paragraph (b) of this section, should be given and to give written notice of the fact that the rates or amounts of royalties are believed to be unreasonable or excessive;

(2) To receive and hear such facts or circumstances as may be presented in writing or in person as specified in paragraph (c) of this section;

(3) To fix and specify by the order referred to in paragraph (c) fair and just rates or amounts of royalties and to authorize the payment thereof by the licensee to the licensor, subject, however, to the approval of such order by the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply; and

(4) To enter into an agreement before suit against the United States has been instituted with the owner or licensor of an invention, in full settlement and compromise of any claim against the United States accruing to such owner or licensor by reason of the manufacture, use, sale or other disposition referred to in paragraph (b) of this section and for compensation to be paid such owner or licensor based upon future manufacture, use, sale or other disposition of such invention, subject, however, to the approval of such agreement of settlement and compromise by the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply.

By said memorandum a like delegation was made to the Commanding General, Services of Supply and to the Director, Purchases Division, Services of Supply.

(i) Further delegations. The Secretary of War or the Under Secretary of War upon request will make further delegations. In the event the chief of any supply service desires that the authority referred to in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (h) be delegated to other officers, such chief shall forward to the Director, Purchases Division, a memorandum specifying the office to whom such delegation should be made and the extent of such delegation. The title of the position held and not the name of the individual officer should be specified. The powers, duties and authorities referred to in paragraph (h) shall not be redelegated by the chiefs of the supply services under the authority to redelegate conferred in § 81.107 (i).

(j) Giving of notice. The notice referred to in this and the succeeding paragraphs is the written notice, specified in section 1 of the basic statute, of the fact that the rates and amounts of royalties are believed to be unreasonable or excessive. Such notice shall not be given to the lincensor and licensee until (1) negotiations have been conducted and it appears that a prompt and satisfactory adjustment of the royalties cannot be effected, or (2) reasonable attempts have been made to conduct such negotiations and it has been determined that such negotiations are not possible.

(k) Examination by supply services of existing contracts. Subject to the foregoing, the chief of each supply service shall cause such action to be taken as may be appropriate in order that the purpose of the basic statute to prevent the inclusion in the prices paid by the War Department of unreasonable or excessive royalties as may be achieved. Such action shall be taken pursuant to such instructions as may be issued by the chief of the supply service concerned.

(l) Factors to be considered. In determining what are fair and just rates and amounts of royalties payable for an invention, there will be taken into account:

(1) The conditions of wartime production;

(2) The production and use of the intention prior to any increase due to wartime procurement, including (i) any established royalty rate; (ii) the volume on which royalty was paid; (iii) the yearly aggregate royalty paid; and (iv) the circumstances under which the licensing and the establishment of the royalty rate occurred.

(3) The character of the invention and any patent protection therefor, the value of its contribution to the art in which it is used, and the character and expense of research and development that have been devoted to the invention.

(4) The extent of use and proposed use of the invention by other departments or agencies of the Government and the amounts of royalties involved in the aggregate in such use.

(5) All other considerations which are ordinarily and properly taken into account in determining fair and just royalties or which appear to be appropriate to the particular case.

(m) Form of notice. The following form of notice is approved for use subject to such deviations as may be appropriate in any given case:

> Pursuant to the Act of October 31, 1942 (Public Law 768, 77th Congress, 2nd Session), notice is hereby given that the royalties now being paid directly or indirectly by the United States under contract No. -------- are believed to be unreasonable or excessive,
> It is understood that these payments are made by virtue of an agreement between ------------- as licensee and ------------ as licensor. This notice becomes effective upon receipt hereof or five days after the mailing hereof viz, ----------------, 194--, whichever date is the earlier.
> Under the Act the licensee or the licensor, if he so requests within ten days from and after the effective date of this notice, may within thirty days from the date of such request present in writing or in person any facts or circumstances which may, in his opinion, have a bearing upon the rates or amounts of royalty, if any, to be determined, fixed and specified, all as provided in said Act.
> Within a reasonable time after the effective date of this notice an order will be made fixing and specifying the rates or amounts of royalty, if any, which are determined to be fair and just taking into account the conditions of wartime production. Such order will authorize the payment of such rates or amounts. of royalty by the licensee to the licensor.
> The Act provides that the licensee shall not after the effective date of this notice pay to the licensor, nor charge directly or indirectly to the United States a royalty, if any, in excess of that which may be specified in the order to be hereafter made. Until the making of such order no royalties should be paid on account of the manufacture, use, sale or other disposition for the United States.

The foregoing notice shall be mailed to the last known address of the licensor and the licensee.

(n) Forwarding of copies of notice. Copies of all notices served shall be sent to (1) The chief of the supply service concerned,

(2) The chief patent officer or, if that service has no patent officer, to its chief legal officer,

(3) The Chief, Patents Division, Office of The Judge Advocate General, and

(4) Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply (in duplicate).

(o) Submission of order or settlement for approval. In transmitting to the Director of Purchases for approval the order or the agreement of settlement and compromise referred to in subparagraphs (3) and (4) respectively of paragraph (h), there shall be included, in duplicate, the following:

(1) A statement showing compliance with the requirements of paragraph (j);

(2) A copy of the notice;

(3) A complete statement of any facts or circumstances presented in writing or in person by the licensor or the licensee; and

(4) The facts upon which are based the opinions that the rates or amounts or royalty fixed in the order are fair and just, or in the case of a settlement, the facts which warrant an agreement in full settlement and compromise.

(5) A copy of the order or of the agreement of settlement and compromise as the case may be.

(p) Forwarding of copies of documents. A copy of the documents referred to in paragraph (o) of this section will be forwarded by the chief of the supply service concerned to the Chief, Patent Division, Office of The Judge Advocate General.

RENEGOTIATION AND PRICE ADJUSTMENT—CONTRACT ARTICLES FOR RENEGOTIATION

§ 81.1202 Statutory provisions. Section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act, 1942 (Public 528, 77th Congress), as amended by section 801 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public 753, 77th Congress, approved October 21, 1942), provides for renegotiation of war contracts and subcontracts. The full text of subsections (a), (b) and (i) of section 403, as amended is set forth in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c), respectively.

(a) Sec. 403 (a) For the purposes of this section:

(1) The term "Department" means the War Department, the Navy Department, the Treasury Department, and the Maritime Commission, respectively.

(2) In the case of the Maritime Commission, the term "Secretary" means the Chairman of such Commission.

(3) The terms "renegotiate" and "renegotiation" include the refixing by the Secretary of the Department of the contract price.

(4) The term "excessive profits" means any amount of a contract or subcontract price which is found as a result of renegotiation to represent excessive profits.

(5) The term "subcontract" means any purchase order or agreement to perform all or any part of the work, or to make or furnish any article required for the performance of another contract or subcontract. The term "article" includes any material, part, assembly, machinery, equipment, or other personal property.

For the purposes of subsections (d) and (e) of this section, the term "contract" includes a subcontract and the term "contractor" includes a subcontractor.

(b) Sec. 403 (b) Subject to subsection (i) the Secretary of each Department is authorized and directed to insert in any contract for an amount in excess of $100,000 hereafter made by such Department.

(1) A provision for the renegotiation of the contract price at a period or periods when, in the judgment of the Secretary, the profits can be determined with reasonable certainty.

(2) A provision for the retention by the United States from amounts otherwise due the contractor, or for the repayment by him to the United States, if paid to him, of any excessive profits not eliminated through reductions in the contract price, or otherwise, as the Secretary may direct;

(3) A provision requiring the contractor to insert in each subcontract for an amount in excess of $100,000 made by him under such contract (i) a provision for the renegotiation by such Secretary and the subcontractor of the contract price of the subcontract at a period or periods when, in the judgment of the Secretary, the profits can be determined with reasonable certainty, (ii) a provision for the retention by the contractor for the United States of the amount of any reduction in the contract price of any subcontract pursuant to its renegotiation hereunder, or for the repayment by the subcontractor to the United States of any excessive profits from such subcontract paid to him and not eliminated through reductions in the contract price or otherwise, as the Secretary may direct, and (iii) a provision for relieving the contractor from any liability to the subcontractor on account of any amount so retained by the contractor or repaid by the subcontractor to the United States, and (iv) in the discretion of the Secretary, a provision requiring any subcontractor to insert in any subcontract made by him under such subcontract, provisions corresponding to those of subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this subsection (b); and

(4) A provision for the retention by the United States from amounts otherwise due the contractor, or for repayment by him to the United States as the Secretary may direct, of the amount of any reduction in the contract price of any subcontract under such contract, which the contractor is directed, pursuant to clause (3) of this subsection, to withhold from payments otherwise due the subcontractor and actually unpaid at the time the contractor receives such direction.

The provision for the renegotiation of the contract price, in the discretion of the Secretary, (i) may fix the period or periods when or within which renegotiation shall be had; and (ii) if in the opinion of the Secretary the provisions of the contract or subcontract are otherwise adequate to prevent excessive profits, may provide that renegotiation shall apply only to a portion of the contract or subcontract or shall not apply to performance during a specified period or periods and may also provide that the contract price in effect during any such period or periods shall not be subject to renegotiation.

(c) Sec. 403 (i). (1) The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

(i) Any contract by a Department with any other department, bureau, agency, or governmental corporation of the United States or with any Territory, possession, or State or any agency thereof, or with any foreign government or any agency thereof; or

(ii) Any contract or subcontract for the product of a mine, oil or gas well, or other mineral or natural deposit, or timber which has not been processed, refined, or treated beyond the first form or state suitable for industrial use; and the Secretaries are authorized by joint regulation, to define, interpret, and apply this exemption.

(2) The Secretary of a Department is authorized, in his discretion, to exempt from some or all of the provisions of this section—

(i) Any contract or subcontract to be performed outside of the territorial limits of the continental United States or in Alaska;

(ii) Any contracts or subcontracts under which, in the opinion of the Secretary, the profits can be determined with reasonable certainty when the contract price is established, such as certain classes of agreements for personal services, for the purchase of real property, perishable goods, or commodities the minimum price for the sale of which has been fixed by a public regulatory body, of leases and license agreements, and of agreements where the period of performance under such contract or subcontract will not be in excess of thirty days; and

(iii) A portion of any contract or subcontract or performance thereunder during a specified period or periods, if in the opinion of the Secretary, the provisions of the contract are otherwise adequate to prevent excessive profits.

The Secretary may so exempt contracts and subcontracts both individually and by general classes or types.

§ 81.1204 Fixed-price contracts. Subject to § 81.1212 and following, Form I will be included in all fixed-price or lump-sum contracts hereafter made for an amount in excess of $100,000.

§ 81.1205 Fixed-fee contracts. Subject to § 81.1212, and following, Form I will be included in every fixed-fee contract, the estimated cost of which, including the fixed-fee, is an amount in excess of $100,000, unless special permission to use Form II is obtained from the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply. Requests for such permission will set forth in detail the reasons for requesting such permission. In using Form I in fixed-fee contracts, the words "fixed fee specified in Article ----" will be substituted for the term "contract price" in paragraphs (a) and (c).

§ 81.1206 Supplemental agreements. With respect to supplemental agreements (which as used herein include change orders), the following principles will be observed;

(a) Subject to § 81.1212, and following every supplemental agreement for an amount in excess of $100,000 will include either Form I or Form II, whichever is appropriate, unless the contract to which the supplemental agreement relates contains an adequate renegotiation article which will apply to the supplemental agreement.

§ 81.1212 Exemptions from renegotiation. Subsection (i) of section 403, as amended, provides for certain exemptions from renegotiation under section 403. (See § 81.1202.) Some of these exemptions are mandatory, and others are within the discretion of the Secretary of War or his duly authorized representative. The power to grant such discretionary exemption under the statute is delegated to the supply services only to the extent provided in the following paragraphs. Where these paragraphs authorize the chief of a supply service to make exemptions, he may do so either by exempting general classes or types of contracts or subcontracts within the categories specified or by exempting such contracts or subcontracts individually. The chief of a supply service will not redelegate the discretion to make such exemptions to other officers or civilian officials without prescribing standards for the exercise of such discretion, approved by the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply.

(a) Contracts with Governmental agencies. Section 403, as amended, does not apply to any contract by the War Department with any other department, bureau, agency or governmental corporation of the United States or with any Territory, possession, or state or any agency thereof or with any foreign government or any agency thereof. Accordingly no article for renegotiation under section 403, as amended, will be included in any such contract.

(b) Subcontracts with Governmental agencies. Any subcontract made by a War Department contractor with a Federal department, bureau, agency or governmental corporation or with any Territory, possession, or State or any agency thereof, or with any foreign government thereof, is exempt from the provisions of section 403, as amended. Accordingly no article for renegotiation under section 403, as amended, will be included in any such subcontract.

(c) Contracts and subcontracts for raw materials. Section 403, as amended, does not apply to any contract or subcontract for the product of a mine, oil or gas well, or other mineral or natural deposit, or timber, which has not been processed, refined, or treated beyond the first form or state suitable for industrial use. Accordingly, no article for renegotiation under section 403, as amended, will be included in any such contract or subcontract.

(d) Contracts and subcontracts outside the United States. The chief of a supply service is authorized in his discretion, to exempt from some or all of the provisions of section 403, as amended, any contract with his supply service, or any subcontract thereunder, which is to be performed outside of the territorial limits of the continental United States, or in Alaska. The article for renegotiation under section 403, as amended, will either be omitted or be appropriately modified according to the exemption granted.

(e) Patent licenses. The chief of a supply service may exempt from some or all of the provisions of section 403, as amended, any contract granting to the government a license under a patent or a patent application or transferring a patent or patent application to the Government, if the aggregate royalty payable under the contract for its duration or for any stated period is either (1) a fixed amount determinable at the time of the execution of the contract, or (2) limited by contract to a maximum amount determinable at the time of the execution of the contract, and if, in his opinion, the fixed amount or maximum amount will not yield excessive profits to the contractor. In all other cases, the renegotiation article will be included in the contract. In such cases paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (f), (1), (3) and (4) of Form I (see § 81.342 (a)) will be used.

§ 81.1214 Optional provision in subcontracts. When a contractor with the War Department who is required by his contract to insert a renegotiation article in his subcontracts, and a supplier or other person, with whom he wishes to contract in connection with the performance of his prime contract, disagree on whether the proposed contract is a "subcontract" subject to renegotiation under section 403, as amended, and whether the subcontract renegotiation article is required in the contract, they should insert the renegotiation article in the agreement, but may add the following additional provision at the end of the article:

(7) This article shall apply to this contract only if it is a "subcontract" subject to renegotiation under section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act 1942, as amended by section 801 of the Revenue Act of 1942.

PART 240—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

AMENDMENT TO RULE RELATING TO REGISTRATION OF CLOSED-END MANAGEMENT INVESTMENT COMPANIES

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 12 and 23 (a) thereof, and deeming such action necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and necessary for the execution of the functions vested in it by the said Act, hereby amends § 240.12b-9 [Rule X-12B-9] to read as follows:

§ 240.12b-9 Registration by closed-end management investment companies. (a) Notwithstanding the requirements of the form which would otherwise be appropriate for registration of securities on an exchange under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (hereinafter called the "appropriate form"), any closed-end management investment company which is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 and which has no securities listed and registered on any exchange may file an application for registration of securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 consisting of the following:

(1) The facing sheet of the appropriate form;

(2) A copy of the company's registration statement under section 8 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 [54 Stat. 804; 15 U.S.C. 80a-7], including financial statements and exhibits;

(3) A copy of each report filed by the company pursuant to section 30 (a) or 30 (b) (1) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 [54 Stat. 836; 15 U.S.C. 80a-30], including financial statements and exhibits, if any;

(4) A description of the securities being registered as required by the appropriate form and any financial statements or exhibits required by the appropriate form which are not included in the application pursuant to (2) or (3) above; and

(5) The signatures required by the appropriate form.

(b) The following statement shall appear on the facing sheet of the application or on a page immediately following the facing sheet:

> This application, filed pursuant to § 240.12b-9 [Rule X-12B-9], consists of the registration statement under the Investment Company Act of 1940 [54 Stat. 789-847; 15 U.S.C. 80a-53] filed by the registrant on ------------------, 19----, and the following additional information and documents required by § 240.12b-9. [Rule X-12B-9]

(List such additional information and documents.)

(c) If the registration statement or any report included in the application pursuant to paragraph (a) (2) or (a) (3), above, incorporates by reference any financial statements or exhibits required by the appropriate form which are on file with the Commission but are not on file with the exchange, the copies of the application filed with the exchange shall contain copies of such financial statements or exhibits.

Effective December 18, 1942.

PART 240—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

RULES RELATING TO REGISTRATION OF AND REPORTS FILED UNDER THE ACT BY REGISTRANTS UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 12, 13, 15 and 23 (a) thereof, and deeming such action necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and necessary for the execution of the functions vested in it by that Act, hereby adopts § 240.12b-10 [Rule X-12B-10]; § 240.13a-8 [Rule X-13A-8]; § 240.13a-9 [Rule X-13A-9] and § 240.15d-5 [Rule X-15D-5] to read as follows:

§ 240.12b-10 Registration by registrants under the Securities Act of 1933. (a) Notwithstanding the requirements of the form which would otherwise be appropriate for registration of securities on an exchange under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (hereinafter called the "appropriate form"), any issuer, except investment companies registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, which has filed a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 and which has no securities listed and registered on any exchange may, if the registration statement has become effective and is not subject to any proceeding under section 8 (d) of the latter Act [48 Stat. 79; 15 U.S.C. 77h] or to an order entered thereunder, file an application for registration of securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 consisting of the following:

(1) The facing sheet of the appropriate form;

(2) A copy of the company's registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, including financial statements and exhibits;

(3) A description of the securities being registered as required by the appropriate form (unless contained in the registration statement filed pursuant to subparagraph (2) above) and any financial statements or exhibits required by the appropriate form which are not included in the application pursuant to subparagraph (2) above; and

(4) The signatures required by the appropriate form.

(b) The following statement shall appear on the facing sheet of the application or on a page immediately following the facing sheet:

> This application, filed pursuant to § 240.12b-10 [Rule X-12B-10], consists of the registration statement of ------------ under the Securities Act of 1933 which became effective on ----------------, and the following additional information and documents required by § 240.12b-10 [Rule X-12B-10]

(c) Any application filed pursuant to this rule after the end of one or more fiscal years of the registrant following the last fiscal year for which certified financial statements were included in its registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 shall be accompanied by an annual report for each such fiscal year on the form appropriate for annual reports of the registrant pursuant to section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 [48 Stat. 894; 15 U.S.C. 78m], provided that if the registrant has filed for such fiscal year or years annual reports pursuant to section 15 (d) of the latter Act [48 Stat. 895; 49 Stat. 1377; 15 U.S.C. 78o], it may file with the exchange copies of the annual reports so filed with the Commission.

(d) If the registration statement included in the application incorporates by reference any financial statements or exhibits required by the appropriate form which are on file with the Commission but are not on file with the exchange, the copies of the application filed with the exchange shall include copies of such financial statements or exhibits. [Gen. Rules & Reg. Rule X-12B-10, effective December 18, 1942][1]

§ 240.13a-8 Reports in case of new registration under Securities Act of 1933. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of §§ 240.13a-1 and 240.13a-2 [Rules X-13A-1 and X-13A-2], any registrant except investment companies registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, which has filed a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, may file as its annual report pursuant to § 240.13a-1 [Rule X-13A-1], copies of its registration statement under the latter Act in lieu of an annual report on the appropriate annual report form if the statement (1) has become effective and is not subject to any proceeding under section 8 (d) of that Act [48 Stat. 79; 15 U.S.C. 77i] or to an order entered thereunder and (2) covers the period which would be covered by a report on the appropriate annual report form and contains all of the information including financial statements and exhibits required by the appropriate annual report form.

(b) The report shall be filed under cover of the facing sheet of the appropriate annual report form and shall be signed in accordance with the requirements of that form. The following statements shall appear on the facing sheet of the annual report or on the page immediately following the facing sheet:

> This annual report, filed pursuant to § 240.13a-8 [Rule X-13A-8], consists of the information and documents contained in the registration statement on Form ----------, filed by the registrant on ----------------- 19----, as amended under dates of --------.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES UNDER THE ACT

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 14 and 23 (a) thereof, and deeming such action necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and necessary for the execution of the functions vested in it by said Act, hereby amends §§ 240.14a-1 to 240.14a-8 [Regulation X-14] to read as follows:

§ 240.14a-1 Duty to furnish proxy statement. No solicitation subject to section 14 (a) [1] shall be made unless each person solicited is concurrently furnished or has previously been furnished with:

(a) A written proxy statement containing the information specified in Schedule 14A and

(b) If the solicitation is made by the management of the issuer and relates to a meeting of security holders at which the election of directors is an item of business, an annual report to security holders containing such financial statements for the last fiscal year as will, in the opinion of the management, adequately reflect the position and operations of the issuer. Such annual report to security holders, including financial statements, shall be in any form deemed suitable by the management. If such annual report is sent to security holders in advance of the proxy statement and form of proxy, it shall contain a statement in a prominent place that proxies will be requested at a later time, indicating the approximate date on which the proxy statement is expected to be sent to security holders. In such case the proxy statement shall contain a statement in a prominent place that an annual report to security holders, including financial statements, has been previously sent to security holders, indicating the date on which it was sent. Solely for the Commission's purposes in checking compliance with this rule, three copies of any such annual report to security holders which is not filed under § 240.14a-4 (b) [Rule X-14A-4(b)] because it is to be sent out in advance of the proxy statement shall be mailed to the Commission for its information not later than the date on which such report is first sent or given to security holders.

§ 240.14a-2. Duty to provide means by which desired action can be specified. Means shall be provided in the form of proxy whereby the person solicited is afforded an opportunity to specify by ballot a choice between approval or disapproval of each matter, or each group of related matters as a whole, which is intended to be acted upon pursuant to the proxy and the authority conferred as to each such matter or group of matters shall be limited to voting in accordance with the specifications so made. Nothing in Regulation X-14 shall prevent the solicitation of a proxy conferring discretionary authority with respect to matters as to which the person solicited does not make the specification provided for above if the ballot is clearly set forth in the form of proxy and the form of proxy contains a statement in bold-faced type indicating that if the ballot is not marked the shares represented by the proxy will nevertheless be voted in a specified manner. Nothing in Regulation X-14 shall prevent the solicitation of a proxy conferring discretionary authority with respect to matters which the persons making the solicitation are not aware will be presented for action pursuant to the proxy. No authority shall be sought to vote a proxy upon the election of any person to any office for which a bona fide nominee is not named in the proxy statement.

§ 240.14a-3 Presentation of information. (a) The information included in proxy soliciting material shall be clearly presented and the statements made shall be divided into groups according to subject matter and the various groups of statements shall be preceded by appropriate headings. The order of items and subitems in the schedule need not be followed provided that the information is furnished in a manner which will not tend to obscure the effective presentation of information to the persons solicited. Where practicable and appropriate, the information shall be presented in tabular form and amounts shall be stated in figures. If detachable, the proxy form shall appear at the end of the proxy statement. Information required by more than one applicable item need not be repeated. No statement need be made in response to any item or subitem which is inapplicable.

(b) Any information required to be included in the proxy statement as to terms of securities or other subject matter which from a standpoint of practical necessity must be determined in the future may be stated in terms of present knowledge and intention: Provided, however, That in such a case a brief statement of the circumstances rendering it necessary that such matters be determined in the future shall be made and, to the extent practicable, the authority to be conferred concerning each such matter shall be confined within limits reasonably related to the need for discretionary authority. Subject to the foregoing provision, information which is not known to the persons making the solicitation and which it is not reasonably within the power of such persons to ascertain or procure may be omitted, if a brief statement of the circumstances rendering such information unavailable is made.

(c) There may be omitted from the proxy statement any information contained in any other proxy soliciting material which has been furnished to each person solicited in connection with the same meeting or subject matter if a clear reference is made to the place where such information appears.

(d) All printed proxy soliciting material shall be set in type at least as legible as 10-point leaded type except that to the extent necessary for convenient presentation financial statements may be set in type at least as legible as 8-point leaded type.

§ 240.14a-4 Duty to file material. The following material shall be filed:

(a) Three preliminary copies of the proxy statement and form of proxy. such copies shall be filed with the Commission at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, not later than ten days prior to the date definitive copies of such material are first sent or given to security holders or such lesser number of days prior to such date as the Commission, upon a showing of unusual circumstances, may determine. Such copies shall be marked preliminary copies and shall be for the information of the Commission only.

NOTE: It is not advisable to print definitive copies for distribution to security holders until the comments of the Commission's staff have been received and considered.

(b) Three definitive copies of the proxy statement, form of proxy, and any additional material relating to the same meeting or subject matter furnished to security holders concurrently with or subsequent to the proxy statement in the form in which such material is furnished to security holders. Not later than the date such material is first sent or given to any security holders such copies shall be filed with or mailed to the Commission at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and three additional copies shall be filed with or mailed to each national securities exchange upon which is listed any security in respect of which the solicitation is made. Copies of replies to inquiries from security holders requesting further information need not be filed pursuant to this paragraph.

(c) The material transmitted to the Commission pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) shall be accompanied by a statement of the date upon which copies thereof are intended to be or have been released to security holders.

§ 240.14a–5 . False or misleading statements. No solicitation subject to section 14 (a) of the Act shall be made by means of any form of proxy, notice of meeting or other communication containing any statement which, at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which it is made, is false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein not false or misleading or necessary to correct any statement in any earlier communication with respect to the solicitation of a proxy for the same meeting or subject matter which has become false or misleading.

§ 240.14a–6 Duty of issuer to furnish information and mail proxies at request of security holders. No solicitation subject to section 14 (a) of the Act shall be made by or on behalf of the management of the issuer, directly or indirectly, unless the issuer performs or has performed such of the following acts as may be duly requested by any qualified owner of any security of the issuer (hereinafter called "the applicant") with respect to the same subject matter or meeting:

(a) At the written request of the applicant, the issuer shall furnish the following information:

(1) A statement of the approximate number of holders, of record or otherwise, of any class of securities, any of the holders of which have been or are to be solicited by or on behalf of the management or of any smaller group of such holders which the applicant shall designate; and

(2) An estimate of the cost of mailing a specified form of proxy or other communication to such holders. Any information requested pursuant to this paragraph shall be mailed or otherwise furnished as promptly as practicable after receipt of the written request.

(b) At the written request of the applicant, copies of any form of proxy or other communication furnished by the applicant shall be mailed by the issuer to holders, of record or otherwise, of any class of securities who have been or are to be solicited by or on behalf of the management or to any smaller group of such holders which the applicant shall designate. Such material shall be mailed with reasonable promptness after receipt of a tender of the material to be mailed, of envelopes or other containers therefor, of postage or payment for postage, and of reasonable reimbursement of all expenses incurred in connection with such mailing; except that such material need not be mailed prior to the first day on which the solicitation is made by or on behalf of the management.

§ 240.14a–7 Duty of management to set forth stockholders' proposals. In the event that a qualified security holder of the issuer has given the management reasonable notice that such security holder intends to present for action at a meeting of security holders of the issuer a proposal which is a proper subject for action by the security holders, the management shall set forth the proposal and provide means by which security holders can make a specification as provided in § 240.14a–2 [Rule X-14A–2]. Further, if the management opposes such proposal, it shall, upon the request of such security holder, include in its soliciting material the name and address of such security holder and a statement of such security holder setting forth the reasons advanced by him in support of such proposal: Provided, however, That a statement of reasons in support of a proposal shall not be longer than 100 words and Provided further, That such security holder and not the management shall be responsible for such statement. For the purposes of this rule notice given more than thirty days in advance of a day corresponding to the date on which proxy soliciting material was released to security holders in connection with the last annual meeting of security holders shall, prima facie, be deemed to be reasonable notice.

§ 240.14a–8 Solicitations to which rules are not applicable. The rules contained in this regulation shall not apply to:

(a) Any solicitation made otherwise than by or on behalf of the management of the issuer where the total number of persons solicited is less than 10.

(b) Any solicitation in respect of securities of a registered public utility holding company or a subsidiary company thereof in the event that there are no public holders of such securities.

(c) Any solicitation of a proxy by any person in respect of securities carried in his name or in the name of his nominee, or held in his custody, if (1) such person receives no commission or remuneration for such solicitation, directly or indirectly, other than reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and clerical expenses, and (2) such person furnishes to the person solicited a copy of all soliciting material which the persons on whose behalf the solicitation is made are sending to other persons: Provided, however, That this exemption shall not be applicable to any solicitation by a voting trustee in respect of securities of which he is trustee;

(d) Any solicitation of proxy by any person in respect of securities of which he is the beneficial owner;

(e) Any solicitation of a proxy evidenced by a certificate of deposit or other security which is registered under the Securities Act of 1933;

(f) Any solicitation of an acceptance of a plan of reorganization under Chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended, or of an authority to accept any such plan, if such solicitation is made after the entry of an order approving such plan pursuant to section 174 of said Act and after, or concurrently with, the transmittal of information concerning such plan as required by section 175 of said Act;

(g) Any solicitation made in connection with a reorganization of a registered holding company or any subsidiary company thereof, or in connection with any transaction which is or will be the subject of an application or declaration filed with the Commission pursuant to the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or any rule promulgated thereunder, if such solicitation is made in compliance with § 250.62 [Rule U-62] under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

(h) Any solicitation of a proxy through the medium of a newspaper advertisement if the advertisement informs security holders of a source from which they may obtain copies of a proxy statement, form of proxy and any other soliciting material and does no more than (1) name the issuer, (2) state the reason for the advertisement, (3) identify a proposal to be acted upon by security holders.

§ 240.14a–9 Definitions. For the purpose of Regulation X–14, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) The term "proxy" includes every proxy, consent or authorization within the meaning of section 14 (a) of the Act. A consent or authorization may take the form of failure to object or to dissent.

(b) The term "solicitation of a proxy" includes (1) any request for a proxy, whether or not such request is accompanied by or included in a form of proxy, (2) any request to revoke a proxy or not to execute a proxy, (3) any request to execute a proxy and (4) the furnishing of a form of proxy to security holders under circumstances reasonably calculated to result in a procurement of proxies: Provided, however, That the term does not apply to the furnishing of a form of proxy to a security holder upon the unsolicited request of such security holder, and does not apply to the performance by the issuer of acts required by § 240.14a–6 [Rule X-14A–6] or the performance by any person of ministerial acts on behalf of a person soliciting a proxy.

(c) The term "proxy statement" means the statement required by § 240.14a–1 [Rule X-14A–1], whether or not contained in a single document;

(d) The term "issuer" means the issuer of the security in respect of which the proxy is solicited;

(e) The term "associate", used to indicate a relationship with any persons, means (1) any corporation or organization (other than the issuer or a majority owned subsidiary of the issuer) of which such person is an officer or partner or is, directly or indirectly, the beneficial owner of 10% or more of any class of equity securities, (2) any trust or other estate in which such person has a substantial beneficial interest or as to which such person serves as trustee or in a similar fiduciary capacity, and (3) any relative or spouse of such person having the same home as such person;

(f) The term "affiliate," used to indicate a relationship with any person, means a person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, such person.

(g) The term "officer" means a chairman of the board of directors, president, vice president, treasurer, secretary, comptroller, and any other person performing similar functions.

(h) The phrase "the persons making the solicitation", used in relation to a solicitation by the management of the issuer, means the directors and officers of the issuer exclusive of any directors or officers who are opposed to the solicitation.

(i) The phrase "matters to be acted upon pursuant to the proxy", used in relation to a proxy to be used at a melting of security holders, means the matters which the persons making the solicitation intend to present and any matters which the persons making the the solicitation have been given reasonable notice that other persons intend to present for action at such meeting, in the event the persons making the solicitation intend that the proxy shall be used for purposes of a vote upon such matters or for purposes of a quorum supporting such a vote: Provided, however, That the phrase as so employed does not apply to elections to office. For the purposes of this rule notice given more than thirty days in advance of a day corresponding to the date on which proxy soliciting material was released to security holders in connection with the last annual meeting of security holders shall, prima facie, be deemed to be reasonable notice.

Items of information to be furnished in connection with solicitations of proxies.

Item 1. State whether or not the person giving the proxy has the power to revoke it. If it is asserted that the right of revocation before the proxy is exercised is limited, outline the limitations and state the basis for such assertion.

Item 2. Summarize briefly the rights of appraisal or similar rights of dissenters with respect to any matter to be acted upon pursuant to the proxy. Where such dissenters' rights may be exercised within a limited time after the date of the adoption of a proposal, the filing of an amendment to a charter or a similar act, state whether the person solicited will be notified of such date.

Item 3. (a) State the names of the persons by whom, directly or indirectly, the cost of solicitation has been or will be borne.

(b) If solicitations are to be made, otherwise than by use of the mails and otherwise than by directors, officers and regular employees of the issuer at an additional total cost of $100 or less, state, or describe briefly, (1) the character of such additional solicitations, (2) the cost or anticipated cost thereof and the material features of the arrangement, if any, for the payment thereof and (3) the approximate number of both regular and specially engaged employees of the issuer or any other person (naming such other person) who will solicit proxies.

Item 4. (a) If the solicitation is made by or on behalf of the management of the issuer make a statement to that effect. If the solicitation is made otherwise than by or on behalf of the management, state the names of the persons by whom or on whose behalf the solicitation is made, directly or indirectly, and the approximate amount of each class of securities of the issuer owned beneficially by each such person and his associates. If any such person is not the beneficial owner of any securities of the issuer, a statement to that effect as to such persons shall be made.

(b) Describe any interest, direct or indirect, (by security holdings or otherwise) of any director or officer of the issuer, or any associate of any director or officer, or any other person by whom or on whose behalf the solicitation is made or any associate of any such other person in any matter to be acted upon pursuant to the proxy. (No statement need be made under this paragraph as to any interest arising solely by reason of being a director or officer of the issuer.)

(c) If the solicitation is made by or on behalf of the management of the issuer state the name of any director of the issuer who has notified the management in writing that he opposes any action intended to be taken pursuant to the proxy and state that such notification has been received.

Item 5. If the solicitation is made by or on behalf of the management of the issuer and action is to be taken with respect to the election of directors or similar officials—

(A) If the persons solicited have cumulative voting rights, make a statement to that effect.

(B) State the outstanding number of each class of voting securities of the issuer.

(C) If any person holds of record or, to the knowledge of the management, owns beneficially, more than 10% of the outstanding voting securities of the issuer, name such person, state the approximate amount of securities held of record or owned beneficially by such person (whichever amount is the greater) and the percentage of the amount of outstanding voting securities represented by the amount of securities so held or owned. Record holdings may be omitted if the same shares are reported as being owned beneficially.

(D) If any director or nominee has been or is proposed to be elected pursuant to an arrangement or understanding between any of the persons making the solicitation or the director or nominee and any other person or persons except the directors and officers of the issuer acting solely in that capacity, describe briefly such arrangement or understanding.

(E) Furnish, in tabular form to the extent practicable, the following information with respect to each director of the issuer and each person nominated for election as a director:

(1) State the principal occupation or employment of such director or nominee and the name of the corporation or other organization, if any, in which such occupation or employment is carried on.

(2) State the year in which such director of the issuer first became a director.

(3) State, as of the most recent practicable date, the approximate amount of each class of securities of the issuer beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by such director or nominee. If a director or nominee is not the beneficial owner of any securities of the issuer make a statement to that effect.

(4) If more than 10% of any class of securities are beneficially owned by such director or nominee and his associates, state the approximate aggregate amount of each class of securities beneficially owned by such associates, naming each associate whose holdings are substantial.

(F) Name the persons for whom it is intended that votes will be cast pursuant to the proxy and the term of office for which they are candidates.

(G) If a nominee has not previously been elected a director by security holders of the issuer, describe briefly the business experience of such nominee during the last five years.

(H) Describe briefly any interest, direct or indirect, of each person who has acted as a director of the issuer during the past year and each person nominated for election as a director and any associates of such director or nominee in any transaction during the past year or in any proposed transaction to which the issuer or any subsidiary was or is to be a party. No reference need be made to immaterial and insignificant transactions. If the interest was or is to be in the purchase or sale, other than in the ordinary course of business, of property by the issuer or a subsidiary, include a statement of the cost of the property to the issuer or subsidiary and a statement of the cost to the purchaser or vendor.

(I) Furnish the following information, in tabular form to the extent practicable and on an accrual basis if practicable, for the last fiscal year of the issuer: with respect to (i) each person who has acted as a director during such fiscal year; (ii) each person nominated for election as director; and (iii) each person who has acted as an officer but not as a director and who has received payments of remuneration totalling more than $20,000 during such fiscal year:

(1) (a) State the aggregate amount of remuneration received from the issuer and its subsidiaries, directly or indirectly and (b) describe all transactions involving the receipt of remuneration by such director, officer or nominee from the issuer and its subsidiaries, including the receipt of securities, options and other property for services and the exercise of options previously received for services. If the transactions involve the receipt of securities or the exercise sale or extension of options to purchase securities, the market price of the securities on the date of such transaction shall be stated;

(2) If a director, officer or nominee received payments of remuneration totalling more than $20,000 and if the amount received exceeds the total amount of his remuneration during the previous fiscal year, state the amount of such excess;

(3) State the amount paid or set aside by the issuer and its subsidiaries primarily for the benefit of such director, officer or nominee, pursuant to each pension or retirement plan of the issuer and its subsidiaries or other similar arrangement, and the amount of the annual benefits estimated to be payable to such director, officer or nominee in the event of retirement;

(4) State the largest aggregate amount of indebtedness of such director, officer or nominee to the issuer and its subsidiaries outstanding at any time during such fiscal year, except indebtedness arising from transactions in the ordinary course of business, the amount thereof outstanding at the end of such fiscal year and the rate of interest paid or charged thereon.

(J) Furnish, with respect to all the directors and officers of the issuer as a group, information comparable to that required by paragraph (I) with respect to individual officers and directors.

(K) State, in tabular form, the number of employees of the issuer and its subsidiaries (other than officers and directors of the issuer) who, during the last fiscal year, received from the issuer and its subsidiaries remuneration in excess of $20,000 but not more than $50,000, the number of persons who received remuneration in excess of $50,000 but not more than $100,000 and the number of persons who received remuneration in excess of $100,000, giving the aggregate amount of remuneration paid to the persons in each group.

(L) Name each person, other than a director, officer or employee of the issuer, whose aggregate remuneration from the issuer, during the last fiscal year exceeded $20,000 and state the aggregate amount of remuneration received from the issuer during such fiscal year and the capacity in which it was received.

Item 6. If the solicitation is made otherwise than by or on behalf of the management of the issuer and action is to be taken with respect to the election of directors or similar officials—

(A) Name the persons for whom it is intended that votes will be cast pursuant to the proxy and the term of office for which they are candidates.

(B) If the persons solicited have cumulative voting rights, make a statement to that effect.

(C) If a nominee is or, during the last fiscal year, has been a director of the issuer, furnish with respect to such nominee the information called for by paragraphs (D), (E), (H) and (I) of Item 5.

(D) If a nominee has not previously been a director of the issuer, furnish the information called for by paragraph (D), (E) and (H) of Item 5 with respect to such nominee and describe briefly the business experience of such nominee during the last five years.

Item 7. If action is to be taken with respect to the election of officers, other than officers who are directors or nominees for election as directors—

(A) Name the offices to be filled and the persons for whom it is intended that the votes will be cast pursuant to the proxy and the term of office for which they are candidates.

(B) Describe briefly the business experience of each nominee during the last five years.

Item 8. If action is to be taken with respect to the election of auditors, or if it is proposed that particular auditors shall be recommended for selection by any committee to select auditors for which votes pursuant to the proxy are to be cast—

(1) Name the auditors.

(2) Describe briefly any material relationship of such auditors and any associates of such auditors to the issuer and any affiliates of the issuer.

(3) State, or describe briefly, (A) the name of each nominee for any committee to select auditors for which votes pursuant to the proxy are to be cast, (B) the office, if any, which such nominee holds with the issuer, (C) the approximate amount, as of the most recent practicable date, of each class of securities of the isuer of which such nominee is directly or indirectly the beneficial owner, and (D) any other relationship of such nominee, or any relationship of any associate of such nominee, to the issuer and any affiliates of the isuer which is of a material character. If the nominee is not the beneficial owner of any securities of the issuer, make a statement to that effect.

Item 9. If action is to be taken with respect to any plan providing for remuneration of any director, officer, or employee, or with respect to any other compensation of any director or officer—

(a) Furnish the following information as to such remuneration plan:

(1) State the name and position with the issuer of each person eligible to participate in the plan. (As to any of such persons constituting a class, an identification of the class, including the approximate number of its members, will suffice.)

(2) Describe briefly the method provided for determining (A) the persons who shall actually participate in the plan and the amount of each participation, and (B) the funds or securities to be distributed under the plan.

(3) State (A) the name of each person, or each member of any committee, authorized under the plan to make the determinations described in (2) above, (B) the position with the issuer of each such person or member, and (C) the extent to which each such person or member may share in the plan.

(4) Summarize briefly any other material provisions of the plan.

(5) Furnish an estimate of the aggregate amount which would have been allocated for distribution under the plan during the last fiscal year of the issuer if such plan had been in effect.

(6) If any person who is specified in (3) above or who will be eligible to participate in the plan also has, with respect to any other remuneration plan of the issuer or of any affiliate of the issuer, powers similar to those described in (3) above, or is a member of a committee having such powers, or is eligible to participate in any such other plan, state briefly the general nature of such other plan and the relationship of such person thereto.

(b) Furnish the following information as to each director or officer who will be eligible to receive under the plan to be acted upon one of the 3 highest amounts to be received by any director or officer under the plan, and as to each director or officer whose compensation is otherwise to be acted upon:

(1) Name and office.

(2) State the aggregate amount of remuneration paid by the issuer and any subsidiaries of the issuer (directly, or indirectly through any affiliate of the issuer or otherwise) to such director or officer in all capacities during the last fiscal year of the issuer. The information should be given on an accrual basis if practicable. Insofar as such information relates to securities, options to purchase securities, or other property given for services, or to options to purchase securities, given for services, which were exercised or sold by the grantee during the last fiscal year of the issuer, or to remuneration paid to partnerships in which such director or officer participated as a member of the partnership, it shall be stated separately.

(3) Describe briefly any substantial interest, direct or indirect, of such director or officer or any of his associates in any property acquired within 2 years or proposed to be acquired by the issuer or any of its subsidiaries, other than property acquired in the ordinary course of business or on the basis of bona fide competitive bidding. State the cost of the property to the issuer or subsidiary and the cost to the vendor if the property was acquired by the vendor within 2 years prior to the acquisition by the issuer or subsidiary.

(4) State to what extent, if any, such director or officer may share in any remuneration plan to be acted upon.

(5) If any other compensation of such director or officer is to be acted upon, state the amount of such proposed compensation.

Item 10. If action is to be taken with respect to any amendment of the charter, bylaws, or other document—

(a) State briefly the purpose and general effect of the amendment.

Item 11. If action is to be taken with respect to the authorization or issuance of any securities, otherwise than in exchange for outstanding securities of the issuer—

(a) State the title of issue and amount of securities to be authorized or issued.

(b) Furnish a brief description of such securities, in respect of the matters concerning which information would be required to be furnished under the caption "Description of Securities" in the appropriate form for registration of such securities on a national securities exchange.

(c) Describe briefly the transaction in which the securities are to be issued, sold, or exchanged, including a statement as to (1) the nature and approximate amount of consideration received or to be received by the issuer, and (2) the approximate amount devoted to each purpose, so far as determinable, for which the net proceeds have been or are to be used.

(d) If the transaction is to involve the granting by the issuer of options to purchase any of the securities, furnish the following additional information as to each such option:

(1) The amount of securities called for by the option;

(2) The price, expiration date, and other material terms and conditions on which the option may be exercised; and

(3) The consideration received or to be received for the option.

(e) Furnish financial statements such as would presently be required in an original application for registration of securities of the issuer under the Act, except that all schedules other than the schedules of supplementary profit and loss information and the surplus statements or schedules may be omitted. However, any or all of such financial statements which are not material for the exercise of prudent judgment as to the proposal may be omitted, if there are set forth the considerations relied upon to justify such omission. In either case, a statement shall be made that financial statements (or further financial statements) of the issuer are on file at the office of the Commission and at the office of the ---------- Exchange (naming each exchange).

Item 12. If action is to be taken with respect to any plan involving the modification of any class of securities of the issuer, or the issuance of securities of the issuer in exchange for outstanding securities of the issuer—

(a) State the title of issue and amount of the outstanding securities which are to be modified or exchanged.

(b) In cases of exchange, describe briefly the basis of exchange including the title of issue and aggregate amount of each class of new securities to be issued in exchange.

(c) Describe briefly any material differences between the outstanding securities and the modified or new securities, in respect of any of the matters concerning which information would be required to be furnished under the caption "Description of Securities" in the appropriate form for registration of such securities on a national securities exchange.

(d) Furnish a brief statement as to dividends in arrears or defaults in principal or interest in respect of the outstanding securities which are to be modified or exchanged, and as to the effect of the plan thereon.

(e) Summarize briefly any other material features of the plan, or, if the plan is set forth in a written document, furnish a copy thereof.

(f) Furnish financial statements such as would presently be required in an original application for registration of securities of the issuer under the Act, except that all schedules other than the schedules of supplementary profit and loss information and the surplus statements or schedules may be omitted. However, any or all of such financial statements which are not material for the exercise of prudent judgment as to the plan may be omitted, if there are set forth the considerations relied upon to justify such omission. In either case, a statement shall be made that financial statements (or further financial statements) of the issuer are on file at the office of the Commission and at the office of the ---------- Exchange (naming each exchange).

Item 13. If action is to be taken with respect to any plan of merger or consolidation, or any plan involving (i) the liquidation or dissolution of the issuer, or (ii) the acquisition by any class of security holders of the issuer of securities of another issuer, or (iii) the transfer of all or a substantial part of the assets of the issuer in exchange for securities of another issuer, or (iv) the acquisition, by the issuer, of any other business, including the acquisition of control of another person or the acquisition of securities having a book value on the books of the issuer thereof of more than one-half of the net worth of such issuer (or in the case of evidences of indebtedness, of more than one-half of the sum of the net worth of such issuer and its outstanding funded debt)—

(a) Summarize briefly the material features of the plan, or, if the plan is set forth in a written document, furnish a copy thereof.

(b) Furnish financial statements such as would presently be required in an original application or registration of securities of the issuer under the Act, except that all schedules other than the schedules of supplementary profit and loss information and the surplus statements or schedules may be omitted. However, any or all of such financial statements which are not material for the exercise of prudent judgment as to the plan may be omitted, if there are set forth the considerations relied upon to justify such omission. In either case, a statement shall be made that financial statements (or further financial statements) of the issuer are on file at the office of the Commission and at the office of the ---------- Exchange (naming each exchange).

(c) Furnish the following information as to each person which is to be merged into the issuer, or into or with which the issuer is to be merged or consolidated, or the business of which is to be acquired, or which is the issuer of securities to be acquired by the issuer in exchange for all or a substantial part of its assets or to be acquired by security holders of the issuer:

(1) Describe briefly the business of such person.

(2) Furnish financial statements such as would presently be required in an original application for registration of securities of such person under the Act, except that (A) such statements need not be certified, and (B) all schedules other than the schedules of supplementary profit and loss information and the surplus statements or schedules may be omitted. However, any or all of such financial statements which are not material for the exercise of prudent judgment as to the plan may be omitted, if there are set forth the considerations relied upon to justify such omission. In either case, if any financial statements of the person are on file with the Commission or with any national securities exchange, a statement to that effect shall be included. (This paragraph (2) shall not be applicable in the case of (i) a person which is already a totally held subsidiary of the issuer and is included in the consolidated statements of the issuer and its subsidiaries, or (ii) a person which is to succeed to the issuer or to the issuer and one or more of its totally held subsidiaries without any substantial change in capital structure, under such circumstances that form 8-B would be appropriate for registration of securities of such person issued in exchange for listed securities of the issuer.)

(3) Furnish a brief statement as to dividends in arrears or defaults in principal or interest in respect of any securities of such person, and as to the effect of the plan thereon.

(4) As to each class of securities of such person which is admitted to dealing on a national securities exchange and which will be involved in or materially affected by the plan, state the high and low sale prices (or in the absence of trading in a particular period, the range of the bid and asked prices) for each quarterly period within 2 years.

(d) As to each class of securities of the issuer which is admitted to dealing on a national securities exchange and which will be involved in or materially affected by the plan, furnish information similar to that required by paragraph (c) (4) above, unless the plan involves merely the liquidation or dissolution of the issuer.

Item 14. If action is to be taken with respect to the acquisition or disposition of any property—

(a) Describe briefly the general character and location of the property.

(b) State the nature and amount of consideration paid or to be paid, or received or to be received, by the issuer; to the extent practicable, summarize briefly the facts bearing upon the question of the fairness of the consideration.

(c) State the name and address of the transferor or transferee, as the case may be, and the relationship of such person to the issuer and to any affiliate of the issuer.

(d) Summarize briefly any other material features of the contract or transaction.

Item 15. If action is to be taken with respect to the restatement of any asset, capital, or surplus account of the issuer—

(a) State the nature of the restatement and the date as of which it is to be effective.

(b) Summarize briefly the reasons for the restatement and for the selection of the particular effective date.

(c) State the name and amount of each account (including any reserve accounts) affected by the restatement and the effect of the restatement thereon.

(d) To the extent reasonably practicable, state whether and the extent, if any, to which, by creation of additional surplus or elimination of charges against income, the restatement will as of the date thereof or in the future make available for distribution to the holders of equity securities of any class funds from the treasury of the issuer which could not otherwise be used for such purpose.

Item 16. If action is to be taken with respect to any report of the issuer or of its directors, officers, or committees, or any minutes of meetings of its directors or stockholders—

(a) State whether or not such action is to constitute approval or disapproval of any of the matters referred to in such reports or minutes.

(b) Identify each of such matters which it is intended will be approved or disapproved, and furnish the information required by the appropriate item or items of this schedule with respect to each such matter.

Item 17. If action is to be taken with respect to any matter not specifically referred to above—

(a) Describe briefly the substance of each such matter in substantially the same degree of detail as is required under items 5 to 15.

Item 18. If the persons making the solicitation are informed that any other person intends to present any matter for action at any meeting of security holders at which action pursuant to the proxy is to be taken, and if the persons making the solicitation intend that such matter shall not be acted upon pursuant to the proxy, make a statement to that effect, identifying the matter and indicating the disposition proposed to be made thereof at the meeting in the event the disposition thereof is within the control of the persons making the solicitation.

This regulation, as amended, shall become effective January 15, 1943, except as to solicitations commenced prior to that date by persons who released definitive material in connection with the last annual meeting of security holders prior to January 15, 1942.

PART 113—DOCUMENTARY STAMP TAXES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In order to conform Regulations 71 [Part 113, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1941 Sup.] to sections 502 and 506 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, 77th Congress), approved October 21, 1942, such regulations are amended to read as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted after the quotation of section 1809 (a), which precedes the quotation of sections 3480 and 3483 appearing immediately before § 113.2, the following:

SEC. 506. MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS TO STAMP TAX PROVISIONS. (Revenue Act of 1942)

* * * * *

(f) Exemption of United States, etc., from stamp tax. Section 1809 (a) (relating to persons liable for payment of stamp tax) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new sentence: "The United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof shall not be liable for the tax with respect to an instrument to which it is a party, and affixing of stamps thereby shall not be deemed payment for the tax, which may be collected by assessment from any other party liable therefor."

* * * * *

(h) Transfers, etc., with respect to which amendments applicable. * * *

(6) The amendment of section 1809 (a) made by subsection (f) of this section shall be applicable to instruments to which the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof becomes a party after the date of the enactment of this Act.

* * * * *

PAR. 2. Section 113.2 is amended by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph as follows:

On and after October 22, 1942, the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof shall not be liable for the tax with respect to an instrument to which it is a party, and affixing of stamps thereby shall not be deemed payment for the tax, which may be collected by assessment from any other party liable therefor.

PAR. 3. There is inserted immediately preceding § 113.20, the following:

* * * * *

(b) Transfers by operation of law. (1) Section 1802 (relating to the stamp tax on sales and transfers of capital stock) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new subsection:

(c) Transfers by operation of law. No delivery or transfer under subsection (b) not otherwise exempt shall be exempt because effected by operation of law. The tax under such subsection shall not be imposed upon any delivery or transfer

(1) From a decedent to his executor or administrator.

(2) From a minor to his guardian, or from a guardian to his ward upon attaining majority.

(3) From an incompetent to his committee or similar legal representative, or from a committee or similar legal representative to a former incompetent upon removal of disability.

(4) From a bank, trust company, financial institution, insurance company, or other similar entity, or nominee, custodian, or trustee therefor, to a public officer or commission, or person designated by such officer or commission or by a court, in the taking over of its assets, in whole or part, under State or Federal law regulating or supervising such institutions, nor upon redelivery or retransfer by any such transferee or successor thereto.

(5) From a bankrupt or person in receivership due to insolvency to the trustee in bankruptcy or receiver, from such receiver to such trustee, or from such trustee to such receiver, nor upon redelivery or retransfer by any such transferee or successor thereto.

(6) From a transferee under paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, to his successor acting in the same capacity, or from one such successor to another.

(7) From a foreign country or national thereof to the United States or any agency thereof, or to the government of any foreign country, directed pursuant to the authority vested in the President by section 5 (b) of the Trading with the Enemy Act (40 Stat. 415), as amended by the First War Powers Act. (55 Stat. 838)

(8) From trustees to surviving, substituted, succeeding, or additional trustees of the same trust.

(9) Upon the death of a joint tenant or tenant by the entireties, to the survivor or survivors.

No exemption shall be granted under this subsection unless the delivery or transfer is accompanied by a certificate setting forth such facts as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may by regulation prescribe.

* * * * *

(h) Transfers, etc., with respect to which amendments applicable. * * *

(2) Section 1802 (c) * * * added by subsection (b) of this section shall be applicable to deliveries and transfers on or after the thirtieth day after the date of the enactment of this Act.

* * * * *

PAR. 4. Section 113.33 is amended as follows:

(A) Paragraph (d) is amended by changing the cross reference to read "But see § 113.35½ (a) (8).)".

(B) Paragraph (f) is amended by changing the cross reference to read "(But see § 113.35½ (a) (9).)".

(C) There is inserted at the end thereof a new paragraph as follows:

(n) Transfers by operation of law. (But see § 113.35½.)

PAR. 5. Section 113.34, as amended by Treasury Decision 5156, approved June 27, 1942, is further amended as follows:

(A) The first sentence is changed to read: In addition to the various exemptions prescribed in section 1808 which apply to stamp taxes generally (as to which see Subpart J), and to the specific exemptions provided in section 1802 (b) and (c), which apply only to the stamp tax imposed under that section (as to which see §§ 113.35 and 113.35½), the following are examples of transactions not subject to the tax: * * *.

(B) Paragraph (e) is amended by adding the following at the end thereof:

The provisions of paragraph (e) apply to transfers prior to November 20, 1942; for the provisions of the regulations relating to such transfers on or after November 20, 1942, see § 113.35½.

PAR. 6. Immediately preceding § 113.36, there is inserted the following:

§ 113.35½ Miscellaneous specific exemptions provided by section 1802 (c). (a) Section 1802 (c) as added by section 506 (b) (1) of the Revenue Act of 1942, effective on and after November 20, 1942, provides for various specific exemptions from the tax. However, no exemption under section 1802 (c) may be allowed unless the delivery or transfer is accompanied by a certificate as specified in paragraph (b) of this section. The specific exemptions are as follows:

(1) Decedents. The tax does not apply to deliveries or transfers of stock from a decedent to the executor or administrator of his estate.

(2) Wards. The delivery or transfer of stock from a minor to his guardian, or from a guardian to his ward upon attaining majority is exempt from the tax.

(3) Incompetents. The tax does not apply to deliveries or transfers of stock from an incompetent to his committee or similar legal representative, or from a committee or similar legal representative to a former incompetent upon removal of disability.

(4) Banks, trust companies, etc. The tax does not apply to deliveries or transfers of stock from a bank, trust company, financial institution, insurance company, or other similar entity, or nominee, custodian, or trustee therefor, to a public officer or commission, or person designated by such officer or commission or by a court, in the taking over of its assets, in whole or part, under State or Federal law regulating or supervising such institutions, nor upon redelivery or retransfer by any such transferee or successor thereto.

(5) Trustees in bankruptcy and receivers. Deliveries or transfers of stock from a bankrupt or person in receivership due to insolvency to the trustee in bankruptcy or receiver, from such receiver to such trustee, or from such trustee to such receiver, and the redelivery or retransfer by any such transferee or successor thereto are not taxable.

(6) Successor transferees. The tax does not apply to deliveries or transfers of stock from a transferee under (1) to (5), inclusive, to his successor acting in the same capacity, or from one such successor to another.

(7) Trading with the Enemy Act. The tax does not apply to deliveries or transfers of stock from a foreign country or national thereof to the United States or any agency thereof, or to the government of any foreign country, directed pursuant to the authority vested in the President by section 5 (b) of the Trading with the Enemy Act (40 Stat. 415), as amended by the First War Powers Act. (55 Stat. 838)

(8) Trustees. Deliveries or transfers of stock from trustees to surviving, substituted, succeeding, or additional trustees of the same trust are not subject to tax.

(9) Survivors of joint tenancy, etc. The tax does not apply to deliveries or transfers of stock upon the death of a joint tenant or tenant by the entireties, to the survivor or survivors.

(b) The exemptions specified in section 1802 (c), as added by section 506 (b) (1) of the Revenue Act of 1942, shall not be granted in any case unless the delivery or transfer is accompanied by a certificate in substantially the following form:

It is hereby certified that the circumstances of the delivery or transfer of the attached shares from ------------------------------
Name
to ------------------------------------
Name
by reason of which exemption from the transfer tax is claimed under section 1802 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code are as follows:

Signature and capacity of person claiming exemption

PAR. 7. There is inserted immediately preceding § 113.50 the following:

SEC. 506. MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS TO STAMP TAX PROVISIONS. (Revenue Act of 1942.)

(a) Bonds, etc., issued by receiver. Section 1801 (relating to stamp tax on issuance of corporate obligations) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new sentence: "Obligations described in this section issued by any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, assignee, or other person, having custody of property, or charge of the affairs, of any corporation, shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be deemed to be issued by the corporation."

* * * * *

(h) Transfers, etc., with respect to which amendments applicable. (1) The amendment of section 1801 by subsection (a) of this section shall be applicable to obligations issued after the date of the enactment of this Act.

* * * * *

PAR. 8. Immediately following paragraph "(f)" of § 113.55, as amended by Treasury Decision 5128, approved March 11, 1942, there is inserted a new paragraph designated "(g)" and reading as follows:

(g) Any of the obligations described in section 1801, issued on or after October 22, 1942, by any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, assignee, or other person, having custody of property, or charge of the affairs, of any corporation.

PAR. 9. There is inserted immediately preceding § 113.60 the following:

* * * * *

(b) Transfers by operation of law. * * *

(2) Section 3481 (relating to sales and transfers of bonds) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new subsection:

(b) Transfers by operation of law. No delivery or transfer under subsection (a) not otherwise exempt shall be exempt because effected by operation of law. The tax under subsection (a) shall not be imposed upon any delivery or transfer

(1) From a decedent to his executor or administrator.

(2) From a minor to his guardian, or from a guardian to his ward upon attaining majority.

(3) From an incompetent to his committee or similar legal representative, or from a committee or similar legal representative to a former incompetent upon removal of disability.

(4) From a bank, trust company, financial institution, insurance company, or other similar entity, or nominee, custodian, or trustee therefor, to a public officer or commission, or person designated by such officer or commission or by a court, in the taking over of its assets, in whole or part, under State or Federal law regulating or supervising such institutions, nor upon redelivery or retransfer by any such transferee or successor thereto.

(5) From a bankrupt or person in receivership due to insolvency to the trustee in bankruptcy or receiver, from such receiver to such trustee, or from such trustee to such receiver, nor upon redelivery or retransfer by any such transferee or successor thereto.

(6) From a transferee under paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, to his successor acting in the same capacity, or from one such successor to another.

(7) From a foreign country or national thereof to the United States or any agency thereof, or to the government of any foreign country, directed pursuant to the authority vested in the President by section 5 (b) of the Trading with the Enemy Act (40 Stat. 415), as amended by the First War Powers Act (55 Stat. 838).

(8) From trustees to surviving, substituted, succeeding, or additional trustees of the same trust.

(9) Upon the death of a joint tenant or tenant by the entireties, to the survivor or survivors.

No exemption shall be granted under this section unless the delivery or transfer is accompanied by a certificate setting forth such facts as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may by regulation prescribe.

* * * * *

(g) Transfer of bonds on reorganization taxable. Section 3481 (a) (relating to imposition of transfer tax) is amended by striking out: "Provided further, That the tax shall not be imposed on deliveries or transfers of bonds in connection with a reorganization (as defined in section 112 of the Revenue Act of 1932, 47 Stat. 196) if any of the gain or loss from the exchange or distribution involved in the delivery or transfer is not recognized under the income tax law applicable to the year in which the delivery or transfer is made:".

(h) Transfers, etc., with respect to which amendments applicable. * * *

(2) * * * section 3481 (b) added by subsection (b) of this section shall be applicable to deliveries and transfers on or after the thirtieth day after the date of the enactment of this Act.

* * * * *

(7) The amendment of section 3481 (a) made by subsection (g) of this section shall be applicable to deliveries or transfers after the date of the enactment of this Act.

PAR. 10. Section 113.63 is amended by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph as follows:

By virtue of the amendment made by section 506 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1942 to section 1801, whereby obligations of the classes described in section 1801 issued on or after October 22, 1942, by any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, assignee, or other person, having custody of property, or charge of the affairs, of any corporation are deemed to be issued by the corporation and hence constitute corporate obligations for stamp tax purposes, the tax imposed by section 3481 also applies to sales and transfers on or after October 22, 1942, of such corporate obligations. The tax on such sale or transfer applies irrespective of whether the corporate obligation was issued prior to October 22, 1942, or on or after such date.

PAR. 11. Section 113.65 is amended as follows:

(A) The first sentence of the first paragraph is changed by inserting "(a)" immediately after "Section 3481".

(B) Immediately after the second paragraph there is inserted a new paragraphs as follows:

Section 3481 (b), as added by section 506 (b) (2) of the Revenue Act of 1942, effective as of November 20, 1942, provides for a number of additional specific exemptions from tax which correspond to the exemptions from the stock transfer tax provided for in section 1802 (c). Accordingly, the rules stated in § 113.35½ with respect to the stock transfer tax exemptions also apply with respect to the corresponding bond transfer tax exemptions.

(C) The first sentence of the next to the last paragraph is changed by inserting "(a)" immediately after "Section 3481", and by inserting ", effective with respect to the period prior to October 22, 1942," immediately after the words "includes one exemption."

PAR. 12. Section 113.83 (j) is amended by adding thereto the following: "(But see § 113.2.)"

PAR. 13. Immediately preceding the quotation of section 1821 (b) (3) which appears immediately before § 113.100, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 502. STAMP TAX ON CERTAIN INSURANCE POLICIES. (Revenue Act of 1942.)

(a) Imposition of tax. Section 1804 (relating to stamp tax on policies issued by foreign insurers) is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 1804. INSURANCE POLICIES.

(a) Insurance policies other than life, and indemnity, fidelity, or surety bonds. On each policy of insurance (other than life), indemnity, fidelity, or surety bond, or certificate, binder, covering note, receipt, memorandum, cablegram, letter, or other instrument by whatever name called whereby a contract of insurance or an obligation of the nature of an indemnity, fidelity, or surety bond is made, continued, or renewed against, or with respect to, hazards, risks, losses, or liabilities wholly or partly within the United States, if issued to or for, or in the name of, a domestic corporation or partnership, or an individual resident of the United States, or with respect to hazards, risks, or liabilities within the United States, if issued to or for, or in the name of, a foreign corporation, foreign partnership, or nonresident individual, engaged in a trade or business within the United States, and if the insurer is a nonresident alien individual, or a foreign partnership, or a foreign corporation, and if such policy or other instrument is not signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the insurer in a State, Territory, or District of the United States within which such insurer is authorized to do business, a tax of 4 cents on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged.

(b) Life insurance, sickness, and accident policies, and annuity contracts. On each policy of insurance or annuity contract, or certificate, binder, covering note, receipt, memorandum, cablegram, letter, or other instrument by whatever name called whereby a contract of insurance or an annuity contract is made, continued, or renewed with respect to the life or hazards to the person of a citizen or resident of the United States, if the insurer is a nonresident alien individual, or a foreign partnership, or a foreign corporation, unless such policy or other instrument is signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the insurer in a State, Territory, or District of the United States within which such insurer is authorized to do business, or unless the insurer is subject to tax under section 201, a tax of 1 cent on each dollar or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged.

(c) Reinsurance. On each policy of reinsurance, certificate, binder, covering note, receipt, memorandum, cablegram, letter or other instrument by whatever name called whereby a contract of reinsurance is made, continued, or renewed against, or with respect to, any of the hazards, risks, losses, or liabilities covered by contracts described in subsections (a) and (b) of this section if the reinsurer is a nonresident alien individual, or a foreign partnership, or a foreign corporation, and if such policy or other instrument is not signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the reinsurer in a State, Territory, or District of the United States within which such reinsurer is authorized to do business, a tax of 1 cent on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged.

(d) When used in this section:

(1) The term "indemnity, fidelity, or surety bond" includes any bond for indemnifying any person who shall have become bound or engaged as surety, and any bond for the due execution or performance of any contract, obligation, or requirement, or the duties of any officer or position, and to account for money received by virtue thereof, where a premium is charged for the execution of such bond.

(2) The term "insurer" includes any person who shall become bound by an obligation of the nature of an indemnity, fidelity, or surety bond, where a premium is charged for the execution of such obligation.

(b) Payments to which amendments applicable. The amendments made by this section shall apply to the making, continuing, or renewal of contracts occurring on or after the first day of the first month which begins more than 10 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

Par. 14. Sections 113.100 to 113.105 inclusive, are eliminated and the following new sections substituted in lieu thereof:

§ 113.100 Scope of tax prior to November 1, 1942. Section 1804, as amended by section 521 (a) (6) and (b) of the Revenue Act of 1941 imposes, with respect to the period prior to November 1, 1942, a tax upon each policy of insurance, or certificate, binder, covering note, memorandum, cablegram, letter, or other instrument by whatever name called, issued:

(a) By any foreign corporation or partnership or any individual not a resident of the United States, and not signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the insurer in a State, Territory, or District of the United States within which such insurer is authorized to do business;

(b) To or for or in the name of a domestic corporation or partnership or an individual resident of the United States;

whereby insurance is made or renewed:

(c) Upon property within the United States, including rents and profits;

(d) Against peril by sea, or on inland waters, or in transit on land (including transshipments and storage at termini or way points), or by fire, lightning, tornado, windstorm, bombardment, invasion, insurrection, or riot.

An insurance policy issued for a domestic corporation or partnership, or an individual resident of the United States, is subject to the tax without regard to the identity, or the nationality or residence, of the person to or in whose name the policy is issued. A policy issued to or in the name of a domestic corporation or partnership, or individual resident of the United States, is subject to the tax without regard to the identity or the nationality or residence of the person for whom the policy is issued.

The application of the tax is limited to insurance policies upon property within the United States, including rents and profits. However, there are no limitations with respect to the form of the property; the tax applies to property of all kinds whether real or personal, and whether tangible or intangible.

Movable property, such as ships, vessels, barges, rolling stock of railroads, and other similar movable property, shall be held to be property within the United States if the principal place of business of the corporation or partnership owning and controlling the same is located within the United States, or, in the case of an individual, if he resides in the United States, unless such property is permanently located without the United States for purposes of ordinary use. The nation of registry of a vessel is immaterial.

A policy of insurance upon property exported from the United States is not subject to the tax if the insurance does not become effective prior to the time that the property is in the actual course of exportation.

Where a policy is issued to cover both export and nonexport property, the tax will be computed upon the full amount of the premium charged, unless the policy clearly indicates the property for export and the premium charged for the insurance thereon.

A policy of insurance covering property shipped from a foreign country to a port in the United States, which terminates upon unloading, is not taxable where the coverage within the United States constitutes only a trifling portion of the total coverage. If the coverage within the United States, constitutes more than a trifling portion of the total coverage, the policy is taxable and the tax is measured by the total premium charged.

The application of the tax is further limited to insurance against the particular risks specified in the statute. But it is not necessary that the policy cover all such risks; the policy is subject to the tax if it provides insurance against any one of the specified risks. A policy otherwise taxable is not exempt because it may also provide insurance against a risk not named in the statute.

Policies of reinsurance are expressly exempted by the statute from the tax. (As to policies of reinsurance issued on or after November 1, 1942, see § 113.101 (c).)

§ 113.101 Scope of the tax on and after November 1, 1942—(a) Insurance (other than life) policies, and indemnity, fidelity or surety bonds. Section 1804 (a), as amended by section 502 of the Revenue Act of 1942, effective on and after November 1, 1942, imposes a tax upon each policy of insurance (other than life), indemnity, fidelity, or surety bond, or certificate, binder, covering note, receipt, memorandum, cablegram, letter, or other instrument by whatever name called, whereby a contract of insurance or an obligation of the nature of an indemnity, fidelity, or surety bond is made, continued, or renewed, if issued:

(1) By a nonresident alien individual, a foreign partnership, or a foreign corporation, as insurer, and the policy or other instrument is not signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the insurer in a State, territory, or district of the United States within which the insurer is authorized to do business;

(2) To or for, or in the name of, a domestic corporation, domestic partnership, or an individual resident of the United States, against or with respect to hazards, risks, losses, or liabilities wholly or partly within the United States; or

(3) To or for, or in the name of, a foreign corporation, foreign partnership, or nonresident individual, engaged in a trade or business within the United States with respect to hazards, risks, or liabilities wholly within the United States.

(b) Life insurance, sickness, and accident policies and annuity contracts. Section 1804 (b), as amended by section 502 of the Revenue Act of 1942, effective on and after November 1, 1942, imposes a tax upon each policy of insurance or annuity contract, or certificate, binder, covering note, receipt, memorandum, cablegram, letter, or other instrument by whatever name called whereby a contract of insurance or an annuity contract is made, continued, or renewed, if issued:

(1) By a nonresident alien individual, a foreign partnership, or a foreign corporation, as insurer, and the policy or other instrument is not signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the insurer in a State, territory, or district of the United States within which such insurer is authorized to do business, or if not so signed or countersigned, the insurer is not subject to tax under section 201;

(2) To any person with respect to the life or hazards to the person of a citizen or resident of the United States.

(c) Reinsurance. Section 1804 (c), as amended by section 502 of the Revenue Act of 1942, effective on and after November 1, 1942, imposes a tax upon each policy of reinsurance, certificate, binder, covering note, receipt, memorandum, cablegram, letter, or other instrument by whatever name called whereby a contract of reinsurance is made, continued, or renewed, if issued:

(1) By a nonresident alien individual, a foreign partnership, or a foreign corporation, as reinsurer, and the policy or other instrument is not signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the reinsurer in a State, Territory, or District of the United States within which such reinsurer is authorized to do business;

(2) To any person against or with respect to any of the hazards, risks, losses, or liabilities covered by contracts described in subsections (a) and (b) of section 1804, as amended by section 502 of the Revenue Act of 1942.

§ 113.102 Definitions. When used in this subpart:

(a) The term "indemnity, fidelity, or surety bond" includes any bond for indemnifying any person who shall have become bound or engaged as surety, and any bond for the due execution or performance of any contract, obligation, or requirement, or the duties of any office or position, and to account for money received by virtue thereof, where a premium is charged for the execution of such bond.

(b) The term "insurer" includes any person who shall become bound by an obligation of the nature of an indemnity, fidelity, or surety bond, where a premium is charged for the execution of such obligation.

(c) The terms "policy of insurance" and "other instrument" include a certificate, binder, covering note, receipt, memorandum, cablegram, letter, or any instrument by whatever name called whereby insurance is made, continued, or renewed.

(d) The term "insurance" includes, with respect to the period prior to November 1, 1942, the policies of insurance and other instruments covered by section 1804 prior to the amendment thereof by section 502 of the Revenue Act of 1942; and with respect to the period beginning with November 1, 1942, the policies of insurance and other instruments covered by section 1804, as amended by section 502 of the Revenue Act of 1942.

(e) The term "reinsurance" includes, with respect to the period beginning November 1, 1942, the policies of reinsurance and other instruments covered by section 1804 (c), as amended by section 502 of the Revenue Act of 1942.

(f) The term "premium" means the agreed price or consideration for assuming and carrying the risk or obligation, and includes any additional assessment or charge which may be assessed or charged under the contract, whether payable in one sum or in installments.

§ 113.103 Continuance of insurance. The several taxes imposed by section 1804, as amended by section 502 of the Revenue Act of 1942, apply to premium payments made to continue insurance. However, merely continuing a policy or bond in effect on November 1, 1942, the effective date of the amendments made by section 502 of the Revenue Act of 1942, does not give rise to tax liability unless there is a premium charge for continuing the insurance or obligation. For example the tax applies to an annual premium paid on or after November 1, 1942, with respect to an insurance policy kept in effect from year to year.

§ 113.104 Rate and computation of tax—(a) Prior to November 1, 1942. The tax under section 1804 prior to the amendment thereof by section 502 of the Revenue Act of 1942, and applicable with respect to the period prior to November 1, 1942, is imposed at the rate of 4 cents on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged. (As to exports, see § 113.100.)

(b) On and after November 1, 1942. The tax under section 1804 (a), as amended by section 502 of the Revenue Act of 1942, and applicable with respect to the period beginning with November 1, 1942, is imposed at the rate of 4 cents on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged.

The tax under subsections (b) and (c) of section 1804, as amended by section 502 of the Revenue Act of 1942, and applicable with respect to the period beginning with November 1, 1942, is imposed at the rate of 1 cent on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged.

(c) General. The tax is measured strictly by the amount of the premium charged. The time and method of payment of the premium are immaterial; the tax liability attaches if the insurance becomes effective, even though the premium is never paid.

The full rate of tax applies to each fractional part of a dollar of the premium charged. For example, upon a premium charge of $10.10, the tax at the rate of 4 cents amounts to 44 cents, and at the rate of 1 cent amounts to 11 cents.

§ 113.105 Affixing stamps. Ordinary documentary stamps shall be used in payment of the tax. Requisite stamps must be affixed to the first instrument whereby the taxable contractual relationship is made, continued, or renewed, whether it be a letter of acceptance, a cablegram, or other instrument by whatever name called. Where the instrument which creates or evidences the contractual relationship is confirmed by a subsequent instrument, the latter shall bear a notation designating such prior instrument (hereinafter referred to as the original instrument) and showing that the requisite stamps have been affixed thereto and cancelled.

In any case where the amount of the premium is not definitely determined at the time of entering into the taxable contractual relationship, the stamps may be affixed to the receipts for monthly or other payments if proper notation be made upon such receipts identifying the original instruments to which they apply.

The stamps shall be affixed by any person who is a party to the taxable contractual relationship, including any solicitor or broker acting for or on behalf of such person.

For provisions relative to cancellation of stamps see § 113.133.

Par. 15. Section 113.107 is amended by inserting ", or reinsurance," immediately after the words "policy of insurance".

Par. 16. Immediately preceding the caption "Bankruptcy Act", which precedes the quotation of section 735 (Act of July 1, 1898, as amended) appearing at the head of § 113.120, there is inserted the following:

* * * * *

(c) Stamp tax exemption of cooperative banks, etc. Section 1808 (c) (relating to exemption from stamp tax of stocks and bonds of building and loan associations, etc.) is amended by inserting after the words "building and loan associations" a comma and the words "savings and loan associations, cooperative banks, and homestead associations".

(d) Stamp tax exemption of railroad and corporate reorganizations in bankruptcy, etc. Section 1808 (e) and (f) (relating to exemption of railroad and corporate reorganizations) are amended to read as follows:

(e) Corporate reorganizations and reorganization of railroads. The provisions of section 1801, 1802, and 1821 (b) of this chapter and the provisions of sections 3481 and 3482 of Chapter 31 shall not apply to the issuance, transfer or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery or filing of conveyances to make effective any plan of reorganization or adjustment:

(1) Confirmed under the Act entitled "An Act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States," approved July 1, 1898, as amended,

(2) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a railroad corporation, as defined in section 77 (m) of such Act, or

(3) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a corporation, as defined in section 106 (3) of such Act, if the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery or filing of instruments of transfer or conveyances, occurs within five years from the date of such confirmation or approval.

(e) Exemptions in connection with certain orders of the Securities and Exchange Commission and in the case of common trust funds. Section 1808 (g) (cross reference) is amended by striking out "(g)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(h)" and by inserting immediately before such subsection the following new subsections:

(f) Orders of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The provisions of sections 1801, 1802, and 1821 (b) of this chapter and the provisions of sections 3481 and 3482 of Chapter 31 shall not apply to the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or making or delivery of conveyances, to make effective any order of the Securities and Exchange Commission as defined in section 373 (a) of Chapter 1: Provided, That (1) the order of the Securities and Exchange Commission in obedience to which such issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or conveyances are made recites that such issuance, transfer, or exchange, or conveyances are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, 49 Stat. 820 (U.S.C., Title 15, sec. 79k (b)), (2) such order specifies and itemizes the securities and other property which are ordered to be issued, transferred, exchanged, or conveyed, and (3) such issuance, transfer, or exchange, or conveyance is made in obedience to such order.

(g) Common trust funds. The provisions of section 1802 (a) shall not apply to the issue of shares or certificates of a common trust fund, as defined in section 169.

* * * * *

(h) Transfers, etc., with respect to which amendments applicable. * * *

(3) The amendment of section 1808 (c) made by subsection (c) of this section shall be applicable to stocks and bonds issued or transferred after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(4) The amendment of section 1808 (e) and (f) made by subsection (d) of this section shall be applicable to the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery, or filing of conveyances, after December 31, 1941, in the case of the amendment of section 1808 (e), and after the date of the enactment of this Act, in the case of the amendment of section 1808 (f). Section 267 of the National Bankruptcy Act (U.S.C., Title 11, section 667) and any other provision of Federal law insofar as it confers exemption from stamp tax with respect to the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery, or filing of conveyances, after five years from the date of confirmation or approval of the plan of reorganization or adjustment, shall be inapplicable to the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery, or filing of conveyances, after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(5) (A) Section 1808 (f) added by subsection (e) of this section shall be applicable to the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making or delivery of conveyances, after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(B) Section 1808 (g) as added by subsection (e) of this section shall be applicable to shares and certificates issued after the date of the enactment of this Act.

PAR. 17. Section 113.121 is amended to read as follows:

§ 113.121 Stocks and bonds of domestic building and loan associations; mutual ditch or irrigation companies; savings and loan associations; cooperative banks; and homestead associations. Section 1808 (c) prior to the amendment thereof by section 506 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1942, with respect to the period before October 22, 1942, exempts from the taxes imposed by sections 1801, 1802, and 3481, stocks and bonds issued by domestic building and loan associations substantially all the business of which is confined to making loans to members, and by mutual ditch or irrigation companies. Under section 1808 (c), as amended by section 506 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1942, with respect to the period beginning October 22, 1942, the exemption also applies to stocks and bonds issued by savings and loan associations, cooperative banks, and homestead associations, if in each case substantially all the business done is confined to making loans to members.

PAR. 18. Section 113.123 is amended to read as follows:

§ 113.123 Railroad reorganizations. Section 1808 (e) prior to the amendment thereof by section 506 (d) of the Revenue Act of 1942, with respect to the period before January 1, 1942, exempts from the taxes imposed by sections 1801, 1802, 3481, and 3482, the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities or the filing of conveyances to make effective any plan of reorganization confirmed under the provisions of section 77 of the Bankruptcy Act (Act of July 1, 1898, 30 Stat., 544), as amended by section 1 of the Act of March 3, 1933, 47 Stat. 1474. (11 U.S.C., 205)

Under section 1808 (e), as amended by section 506 (d) of the Revenue Act of 1942, with respect to the period beginning January 1, 1942, the exemption applies to the issuance, transfer or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery or filing of conveyances to make effective any plan of reorganization or adjustment:

(a) Confirmed under the Act entitled "An Act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States", approved July 1, 1898, as amended,

(b) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a railroad corporation, as defined in section 77 (m) of such Act, or

(c) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a corporation, as defined in section 106 (3) of such Act,

if the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery or filing of instruments of transfer or conveyance, occurs within five years from the date of such confirmation or approval.

PAR. 19. Section 113.124 is amended to read as follows:

§ 113.124 Corporate reorganizations. Section 1808 (f) prior to the amendment thereof by section 506 (d) of the Revenue Act of 1942, with respect to the period before October 22, 1942, exempts from stamp tax the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, and the delivery of deeds of conveyance, (1) to make effective any plan of reorganization confirmed under section 77B of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended by the Act of June 7, 1934, 48 Stat., 919 (11 U.S.C., 207), or (2) under any plan confirmed under Chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act as amended.

Under section 1808 (e), as amended by section 506 (d) of the Revenue Act of 1942, to correspond to section 1808 (e) and (f) prior to such amendment, with respect to the period beginning with October 22, 1942, the exemption applies to the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery or filing of conveyances to make effective any plan of reorganization or adjustment:

(a) Confirmed under the Act entitled "An Act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States", approved July 1, 1898, as amended,

(b) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a railroad corporation, as defined in section 77 (m) of such Act, or if the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery or filing of instruments of transfer or conveyances, occurs within five years from the date of such confirmation or approval.

(c) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a corporation, as defined in section 106 (3) of such Act,

Section 267 of the Bankruptcy Act, as added by the Act of June 22, 1938, 52 Stat., 903 (11 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 667), also exempts from stamp tax the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making or delivery of instruments of transfer under any plan of reorganization confirmed under Chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act as amended. However, the provisions of such section 267 of the Bankruptcy Act (and any other provisions of Federal law) insofar as they confer exemption from stamp tax with respect to the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery, or filing of conveyances, after five years from the date of confirmation or approval of the plan of reorganization or adjustment, do not apply to the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery, or filing of conveyances, after October 21, 1942.

PAR. 20. Immediately following § 113.124, there are inserted two new sections as follows:

§ 113.125 Orders of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Section 1808 (f), as added by section 506 (e) of the Revenue Act of 1942, effective on and after October 22, 1942, exempts from the taxes imposed by sections 1801, 1802, 3481 and 3482 the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or making or delivery of conveyances, to make effective any order of the Securities and Exchange Commission as defined in section 373 (a): Provided, That (1) the order of the Securities and Exchange Commisison in obedience to which such issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or conveyances are made recites that such issuance, transfer, or exchange, or conveyances are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, 49 Stat. 820 (U.S.C., Title 15, sec. 79k (b)), (2) such order specifies and itemizes the securities and other property which are ordered to be issued, transferred, exchanged, or conveyed, and (3) such issuance, transfer, or exchange, or conveyance is made in obedience to such order.

§ 113.126 Common trust funds. Under section 1808 (g), as added by section 506 (e) of the Revenue Act of 1942, effective on and after October 22, 1942, the provisions of section 1802 (a) do not apply to the issue of shares or certificates of a common trust fund, as defined in section 169.

(This Treasury decision is issued pursuant to sections 502 and 506 of the Revenue Act of 1942. (Pub. Law 753, 77th Cong.), approved October 21, 1942; and section 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 467; 26 U. S. C., 1940 ed., 3791).)

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Dockets Nos. A-1730 and A-1741]

PART 327—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 7

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order of consolidation and order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 7 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 7.

Original petitions, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 7; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matters; and

It appearing that the shipping point for the Imperial No. 2 Mine, Mine Index No. 322 of the Imperial Smokeless Coal Company is Quinwood, West Virginia, on the Nicholas, Fayette and Greenbrier Railroad; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That the above-entitled matters be, and the same hereby are, consolidated.

It is further ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matters, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 327.11 (Low volatile coals: Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, and § 327.34 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into any market area) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petitions in the above-entitled matters and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: December 7, 1942.

TITLE 31—MONEY AND FINANCE: TREASURY

Chapter I—Monetary Offices

PARTS 130 AND 131—APPENDIX [1]

RELEASE OF CERTAIN PHILIPPINE SECURITIES

Joint Memorandum—Procedure agreed upon by the Government of the Commonwealth of the Philippines and the United States Treasury Department for the release of Philippine securities deposited in banks located outside of the United States and within the generally licensed trade area, in accordance with the notice of the Philippine Government of January 14, 1942.

(1) Any Philippine security which has been deposited with a reputable bank located outside of the United States and within the generally licensed trade area may be released if clearance certificate on Form TFEL–2 has been attached to the security under the authority of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

(2) The Federal Reserve Bank of New York is authorized to prepare Form TFEL–2 and to transmit it to the bank with which the security is deposited. The bank receiving Form TFEL–2 will be authorized to attach it to the security described in the form and thereafter to release the security from custody.

(3) After any such security has been thus released, it may be freely bought, sold, traded, or otherwise dealt in, except that it may not be sold to or dealt in with any person who is an enemy national. Its importation into the United States is subject to the provisions of General Ruling No. 5, as if Form TFEL–2 were not attached to it.

(4) In the preparation and execution of Form TFEL–2 by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, the following procedure will be observed:

(a) The New York agency of the Philippine National Bank, 25 Broadway, New York, New York, will notify the Federal Reserve Bank of New York of the requests received by it from any reputable depository bank on behalf of the holders of Philippine securities who desire the release of securities deposited with any such reputable bank, located outside of the United States and within the generally licensed trade area. Such notification will be accompanied by a complete identification of the security, including the name and address of the depositor, date of deposit, a description of the security, and the circumstances surrounding its deposit abroad. The identification will also indicate whether the description conforms with the description of the security as registered with the New York agency of the Philippine National Bank. The description of the security will include the name of the issuer, the number of shares or the denomination of the security, the serial or certificate numbers, and the name of the registered owner, if any. Form TFE–2B will be used by the New York agency of the Philippine National Bank in supplying this information to the extent possible and with such additions as are necessary to conform to this memorandum.

(b) The Federal Reserve Bank of New York is authorized to prepare and execute Form TFEL–2 with respect to such security if it is satisfied on the basis of the information supplied by the New York agency of the Philippine National Bank that:

(i) The description filed with it relates to a security which has been deposited with a reputable bank located outside, and organized under the laws of a country other than, an enemy country or territory occupied or controlled by the enemy and within the generally licensed trade area; and

(ii) The security was deposited with such bank in accordance with the notice of the Government of the Commonwealth of the Philippines of January 14, 1942, and in accordance with the description thereof registered with the New York agency of the Philippine National Bank.

(c) In cases in which the deposit of a Philippine security was made after the date stated in the notice of the Philippine Government of January 14, 1942, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York is nevertheless authorized to execute and prepare Form TFEL–2 for attachment to such security if it is satisfied that such delay was justifiable in view of existing communication difficulties and that the deposit was otherwise in accord with the purposes and provisions of such notice. In these cases, the request for release of the security should be accompanied by an explanation of the circumstances believed to justify the delay and a confirmation of the circumstances by the United States consul or other appropriate diplomatic representative of the United States.

(d) In the execution and preparation of Form TFEL–2 with respect to any Philippine security, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York will add the capital letters "PI" to the serial number on each such form. In addition, and prior to the transmission of these forms, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York will exercise care to insure that all spaces on the form are properly and completely filled in and that none is left blank.

(e) The Federal Reserve Bank of New York will then transmit Form TFEL–2 to the bank holding the security in question, authorizing the bank to attach Form TFEL–2 to the security, to release such security from its custody, and to inform the person who has deposited such security that it may thereafter be dealt in as provided in paragraph (3) hereof.

(5) As used in this memorandum:

(a) The term "Philippine security" shall include securities issued by, or the obligation of, either the Government of the Commonwealth of the Philippines, including political subdivisions thereof, or any corporation or other organization organized under the laws of that government.

(b) The term "generally licensed trade area" shall have the meaning prescribed in General License No. 53. General License No. 53 defines the generally licensed trade area as including:

(i) The American Republics, i. e., Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Uruguay, and Venezuela;

(ii) The British Commonwealth of Nations, i. e., the United Kingdom (England, Wales, Scotland, and Northern Ireland), the British Dominions (Canada, Australia, New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, and Newfoundland), Eire, the Isle of Man, India, Egypt, Anglo-Egyptian Soudan, Iraq, all colonies and protectorates under the British Crown, and all mandated territories administered by the United Kingdom or by any British dominion;

(iii) The Union of Soviet Socialist Republics;

(iv) The Faroe Islands;

(v) The Netherlands West Indies;

(vi) The Belgian Congo and Ruanda-Urundi;

(vii) Greenland;

(viii) Iceland:

(ix) (1) Syria and Lebanon and (2) the New Hebrides Island;

---

[1] This joint memorandum affects Parts 130 and 131 and will be included in the appendices to those parts.

(x) French Equatorial Africa, including the Cameroons; New Caledonia; Tahiti; the French Establishments in India.

(6) The New York agency of the Philippine National Bank will take such steps as it deems necessary to communicate the contents of this memorandum to all banks holding securities registered with it and to such other persons it may deem advisable.

J. M. ELIZALDE,
Resident Commissioner of the Philippines to the United States.

Chapter VI—Selective Service System

[Amendment No. 107, 2d Ed.]

PART 623—CLASSIFICATION PROCEDURE

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

By virtue of the provisions of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 (54 Stat. 885, 50 U.S.C., Sup. 301–316; inclusive); E.O. No. 8545, 5 F.R. 3779, E.O. No. 9279, 7 F.R. 10177, and the authority vested in me by the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission in an Administrative Order dated December 5, 1942, Selective Service Regulations, Second Edition, are hereby amended in the following respect:

1. Amend § 623.72 [1] to read as follows:

§ 623.72 Steps to be taken by State Director of Selective Service before action by armed forces. The State Director of Selective Service, when he receives from a local board an original and three copies of an Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 306), shall (1) enter an acknowledgement thereof upon the receipt attached to the State Headquarters Alien Record (Form 304), (2) mail such receipt to the local board, (3) enter the date of receipt thereof on the State Headquarters Alien Record (Form 306), (4) transmit the original and all three copies thereof to the Commanding General of the Service Command (or to the representative of the Navy or Marine Corps), (5) enter the date of such transmittal upon the State Headquarters Alien Record (Form 306), and (6) file the State Headquarters Alien Record (Form 306) in an alphabetical file of pending alien cases.

2. Amend § 623.73 [1] to read as follows:

§ 623.73 Steps to be taken by armed forces. The Commanding General of the Service Command (or representative of the Navy or Marine Corps) will endorse on the original and all three copies of the Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 304) that such registrant either "is, if otherwise qualified," acceptable to the armed forces or "is not" acceptable to the armed forces. If such endorsement indicates that the registrant "is, if otherwise qualified," acceptable to the armed forces, the Commanding General of the Service Command (or representative of the Navy or Marine Corps) will retain one copy of the Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 304) and forward the original and two copies to the State Director of Selective Service from whom they were originally received. If such endorsement indicates the registrant "is not" acceptable to the armed forces, the Commanding General of the Service Command (or representative of the Navy or Marine Corps) will retain the original and one copy of the Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 304) and forward two copies thereof to the State Director of Selective Service from whom they were originally received.

3. Amend § 623.74 [1] to read as follows:

§ 623.74 Steps to be taken by State Director of Selective Service after action by armed forces. (a) The State Director of Selective Service shall carefully check the Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 304) received by him from the Commanding General of the Service Command (or representative of the Navy or Marine Corps) to make certain that the endorsement thereon shows whether the registrant "is, if otherwise qualified," or "is not" acceptable to the armed forces.

(b) The State Director of Selective Service shall then enter upon the State Headquarters Alien Record (Form 306) the date upon which the Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 304) was received from the Commanding General of the Service Command (or representative of the Navy or Marine Corps) and shall also enter thereon whether such registrant was found to be acceptable, if otherwise qualified, or not acceptable to the armed forces.

(c) When a registrant has been found to be acceptable, if otherwise qualified, the State Director of Selective Service shall forward the original and one copy of his Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 304) to the local board from which it was originally received and shall forward the other copy to the Director of Selective Service. When a registrant has been found to be not acceptable, the State Director of Selective Service shall forward one copy of the Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 304) to the local board from which it was originally received and shall forward the other copy to the Director of Selective Service. In all cases, the State Director of Selective Service shall enter on the State Headquarters Alien Record (Form 306) the date upon which the Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 304) was so forwarded.

4. Amend § 623.75 [2] to read as follows:

§ 623.75 Steps to be taken by local board after action by armed forces. (a) When the local board receives from the State Director of Selective Service the original and one copy of the Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 304) which bears the endorsement of the armed forces showing the registrant "is, if otherwise qualified," acceptable to the armed forces, or one copy of the Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 304) which bears the endorsement of the armed forces showing the registrant "is not" acceptable to the armed forces, it shall take the following action:

(1) Change the registrant's classification to Class IV–C, if the registrant "is not" acceptable to the armed forces; or

(2) Proceed in the same manner as in the case of any other registrant in the same classification, if the registrant "is, if otherwise qualified," acceptable to the armed forces.

(b) The local board shall also:

(1) If the registrant has been found to be acceptable, if otherwise qualified, forward the original of the Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 304) to the induction station at the time the registrant is forwarded for induction and file the remaining copy in the registrant's Cover Sheet (Form 53);

(2) If the registrant has been found to be not acceptable, file the copy of the Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 304) in the registrant's Cover Sheet (Form 53); and

(3) Record the action of the armed forces and the date upon which it received the Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 304) from the State Director of Selective Service with the endorsement of the armed forces thereon in the blank columns of the Classification Record C (Form 100A) and under "Minutes of Other Actions" on the back of the Selective Service Questionnaire (Form 40).

5. The foregoing amendments to the Selective Service Regulations shall be effective immediately upon the filing hereof with the Division of the Federal Register.

LEWIS B. HERSHEY,
Director.

PART 633—DELIVERY AND INDUCTION

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

By virtue of the provisions of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 (54 Stat. 885, 50 U.S.C., Sup. 301–318, inclusive); E.O. No. 8545, 5 F.R. 3779, E.O. No. 9279, 7 F.R. 10177, and the authority vested in me by the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission in an Administrative Order dated December 5, 1942, Selective Service Regulations, Second Edition, are hereby amended in the following respect:

1. Amend paragraph (b) of § 633.5[1] to read as follows:

§ 633.5 Records sent to induction station. * * *

(b) For each man selected to fill the call, the following papers shall be turned over to the leader for delivery to the commanding officer of the induction station:

(1) The original and all three copies of the Report of Physical Examination and Induction (Form 221); and

(2) For each alien whose acceptability had to be determined because of being a citizen or subject of a certain country, the original of his Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 304) shall be attached to his Report of Physical Examination and Induction (Form 221).

2. Amend paragraph (e) of § 633.11[1] to read as follows:

§ 633.11 Transferring men for delivery. * * *

(e) The man's own local board, upon receiving a request for Transfer for Delivery (Form 154) approved by another local board, shall have no discretion but must immediately transfer him by preparing a Transfer of Registrant for Delivery (Form 155), in duplicate, filing the copy and mailing the original to the local board which has approved such request, together with the following papers:

(1) Copy of Order to Report for Induction (Form 150).

(2) The original and all three copies of the Report of Physical Examination and Induction (Form 221).

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter A—General Provisions

PART 903—DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

[Supplementary Directive 1S]

§ 903.24 Further delegation of authority to the Office of Price Administration with reference to the rationing of new heating equipment. (a) In order to permit the efficient rationing of new heating equipment, the authority delegated to the Office of Price Administration by Directive No. 1 (§ 903.1)[1] is hereby extended to include the following:

(1) The exercise of rationing control over the sale, transfer, delivery or other disposition of new heating equipment by any person to any other person and over the use of such equipment by any person: Provided, That such authority shall not include the power to limit or restrict the quantity of such equipment obtainable by the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, War Shipping Administration or Maritime Commission of the United States, or by government agencies or other persons to the extent to which they acquire such equipment for export to and consumption or use in any foreign country.

(2) The requiring of the delivery of such certificate or other evidences as the Office of Price Administration may prescribe as a condition to the sale, transfer, delivery or other disposition of new heating equipment by any person to any other person.

(b) The authority of the Office of Price Administration under this supplementary directive shall include the power to regulate or prohibit the sale, transfer, delivery or other disposition of new heating equipment to, or the acquisition or use of such equipment by, any person who has acted in violation of any rationing regulation or order prescribed by the Office of Price Administration.

(c) The Office of Price Administration is authorized, in accordance with the provisions of Executive Order No. 9125, and to the extent that it may deem necessary to the enforcement of the authority delegated in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this supplementary directive:

(1) To require records and reports and to make audits of the accounts and inspections of the facilities of any person involved directly or indirectly in the sale, transfer, delivery, or other disposition of new heating equipment; and

(2) To require any person who is involved, directly or indirectly, at any stage in the distribution of new heating equipment to comply with any rule, regulation or procedure promulgated or established pursuant to the authority delegated in paragraph (a) of this supplementary directive.

PART 905—SPECIFICATIONS

[Directive No. 9, as Amended December 19, 1942]

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Orders No. 9024 of January 16, 1942, No. 9040 of January 24, 1942, and No. 9125 of April 7, 1942, and pursuant to the policy stated in the Joint Directive of the War Production Board and the War and Navy Departments dated May 20, 1942, and the Army and Navy Munitions Board "List of Prohibited Items for Construction Work," dated April 1, 1942, as revised June 29, 1942, the following policy is prescribed (1) for the War Production Board and for the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, Reconstruction Finance Corporation, National Housing Agency, and (2) for all other Departments and Agencies in respect to war construction and the financing of war construction.

§ 905.2 National emergency specifications for the design of reinforced concrete buildings. (a) National emergency specifications for the design of reinforced concrete buildings issued by the War Production Board on October 5, 1942, shall apply to and shall govern the designing of reinforced concrete buildings which are constructed by, or the construction of which is financed by, or the construction of which must be approved by any of such departments or agencies, the contracts for which are placed on and after January 1, 1943. Such departments and agencies are, however, empowered to put such emergency specifications into immediate effect wherever possible.

(b) With respect to any such contracts already placed by any of said departments or agencies or entered into prior to December 31, 1942, the department or agency concerned shall review the contract promptly and shall change to said emergency specifications unless such change will result in any substantial delay in the war effort.

(c) The department or agency undertaking or approving the construction shall obtain from the person in responsible charge of the design of each such building a certificate to the effect that such emergency specifications have been complied with. In cases where Forms PD–200 and PD–200A must be filed with the War Production Board in order to obtain authorization to begin construction of such building, such certificate shall be filed with said forms.

(d) Authority to depart from the provisions of this directive may, upon specific request, be granted by the Director General for Operations of the War Production Board, or by such person or persons as he may designate for this purpose.

Issued this 19th day of December 1942.

DONALD M. NELSON,
Chairman.

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–164]

RICHARD STIEGLER

Richard Stiegler, 230 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, acquired a parcel of land situated at Main and Wheeler Streets, Bridgeport, Connecticut. He entered into an agreement with the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company, then and still an occupant of a supermarket on Main Street within two-tenths of a mile of the above property, to build a new supermarket thereon for the use of said Company. On April 17, 1942, after Conservation Order L–41 was in effect, Stiegler signed an application on Form PD–200 for authorization to build this store, which was granted. Question 15 of Form PD–200 requests the applicant to explain in detail what consideration has been given either to temporarily using other available facilities or to reconditioning existing facilities. In answer to this question, Stiegler stated "None available". In signing the application, he also certified that there was no omission of any material fact. He omitted any reference to the existing supermarket which the Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company was then operating.

Prior to the filing of the PD–200 application, Stiegler had been informed by a representative of the War Production Board that the application would not be granted if other facilities were available, so that he knew that his answer to Question 15 was inadequate and misleading.

Construction of the new store was commenced in the summer of 1942 and was about 75% completed when halted by an order from the Director General for Operations of the War Production Board.

The inadequate and misleading statement made by Stiegler was a violation of Priorities Regulation No. 1 and resulted in the granting of an authorization for this construction which would not have been approved if there had been a full disclosure of the facts, thus causing labor, material, and construction plant, urgently needed in the war effort, to be used for nonessential purposes. In view of the foregoing facts: It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.164 Suspension Order S–164. (a) Neither Richard Stiegler nor any other person shall order, purchase, accept delivery of, withdraw from inventory, or in any other manner secure or use material or construction plant in order to continue construction on the property located at Main and Wheeler Streets, Bridgeport, Connecticut, except as specifically authorized in writing by the Regional Compliance Chief of the Boston Regional Office of the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Richard Stiegler or any other person from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on December 21, 1942, and shall expire on January 28, 1943.

Issued this 18th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 997—PRODUCTION AND DELIVERY OF MACHINE TOOLS

[General Preference Order E–1–b as Amended Dec. 19, 1942]

§ 997.2 General Preference Order E–1–b—(a) Definitions. (1) "Machine tools" include the products listed in schedule hereto attached and marked Exhibit A[1] and divided into two groups designated Group I and Group II for the purpose of this order as hereinafter specified. The term "tool" means a machine tool. Each machine tool includes not only the basic machine but also all fixtures, equipment and tooling covered by the original purchase order which are required to be delivered with the tool to make it usable in production for the purposes intended, but does not include any replacements, or spare parts or equipment, or extra tooling, ordered by the purchaser.

---

[1] Not filed as part of the original document.

(2) "Producer" means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other form of enterprise engaged in producing any products listed in Exhibit A.

(3) "Service purchasers" means those whose preference rating certificates, or whose endorsed purchase orders, show that the preference rating applied to such delivery was assigned thereto by an original Preference Rating Certificate PD–3, PD–3A, or PD–4, or by Preference Rating Order P–19–h, calling for delivery to a supply arm or bureau of the Army or Navy, or to the United States Maritime Commission, or to one of their prime contractors, or to a subcontractor of such a prime contractor.

(4) "Foreign purchasers" means those whose purchase orders show that the tool is to be delivered to or for the account of a foreign country (other than Canada), or a subdivision, agency, or instrumentality thereof: Provided, That such purchase orders have been placed by the Ordnance Department (Army) or by the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, with or without a preference rating certificate; or, in the case of purchase orders placed prior to May 1, 1942 by a purchasing or procurement agent of a foreign country, where such purchase orders have been scheduled pursuant to a preference rating certificate, a Special Allocation Order No. 1, or General Preference Order No. E–3.

(5) "Other purchasers" means all purchasers other than service purchasers and foreign purchasers, to whose purchase orders a preference rating has been assigned, including Canadian.

(6) "Class" when used herein means one of the foregoing three classes of purchasers: namely, service purchasers, foreign purchasers, or other purchasers.

(7) "Size" as used herein may include all of those dimensions or variations of a particular type of tool which can be used interchangeably for production purposes.

(b) Revocation of previous order. General Preference Order No. E–1–a Revised, including the Numerical Master Preference List, Revision No. 1, is revoked as of May 1, 1942 as to machine tools, and shall thereafter be of no further force or effect with respect to machine tools except as present schedules and urgency standings are continued by paragraph (c) of this order. Makers of gages and chucks will continue to schedule their production according to General Preference Order No. E–1–a, Revised, until further order of the Director General for Operations.

(c) Production and delivery of machine tools during November 1942 and until further notice. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this order, each producer shall schedule 75 percent of his production and delivery of each size of each type of machine tool during the balance of the calendar month of November 1942 and each month thereafter as follows, until further notice:

(1) Each producer forthwith shall divide into two types all purchase orders placed by each of the seven groups of Service purchasers (Bureau of Ships, Bureau of Ordnance, Ordnance Department, Air Services, Miscellaneous Bureaus and Branches, Maritime Commission, and Signal Corps) which specify as the required delivery date the month being scheduled or a previous month, such types being designated as Type 1 orders and Type 2 orders. The "required delivery date" is the date specified on the endorsement accompanying the purchase order, as changed by any subsequent instruction given on Form WPB–27, Form WPB–1588, or otherwise, by the War Production Board, or by any postponement thereof by the purchaser.

Type 1 orders shall include the following:

(i) Any purchase order for delivery to any Service Purchaser in the "Air Services" group (called "Air Foces" in Exhibits A and B to General Preference Order E–1–b). "Air Services" includes the Army Air Forces, the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics, their respective prime contractors and subcontractors, and the U. S. Corps of Engineers with respect to purchases made for the account of the Army Air Forces; and in addition thereto,

(ii) Any purchase order for delivery to any prime contractor listed on the preferred customers list (Exhibit C attached to this order) or any subcontractor of such a prime contractor. No purchase order from a prime contractor on the preferred customers list, or from his subcontractors, shall be classed as a Type 1 order, however, unless the endorsement required by paragraph (b) of this order to be placed by such purchaser on his purchase order, or the preference rating certificate itself if transferred to the producer, shows that the machine tool ordered is for use on the prime contract specified opposite the prime contractor's name on such Preferred Customers List.

Type 2 orders shall include all other purchase orders placed by Service purchasers which do not fall in Type 1 orders.

(2) The producer shall total all Type 1 orders from Service purchasers for the size and type of tool being scheduled, which specify as the required delivery date the month being scheduled or a previous month. Where 75 percent of the production of the size and type of tool being scheduled for delivery in any month is greater than the total Type 1 orders received from all Service purchaser groups specifying that month or a previous month as the required delivery date, all such Type 1 orders shall be scheduled for delivery in that month regardless of the effect on any Type 2 orders. The residue of such 75 percent shall be scheduled for delivery against Type 2 orders from the remaining Service purchaser groups in accordance with the percentage quotas established by Exhibit A to this order, the "Air Services" quota becoming an unabsorbed quota distributable in accordance with paragraph (e) (5) of this order.

(3) Where 75 percent of the production of the size and type of tool being scheduled for delivery in any month is less than the total Type 1 orders received from all Service purchaser groups specifying that month or a previous month as the required delivery date, no Type 2 orders shall be scheduled for delivery in that month. Where the Type 1 orders in such case are from more than one Service purchaser group, the distribution of such 75 percent of production between the Type 1 orders from such groups shall be determined as follows: The percentage which 75 percent of the production for that month constitutes of the total Type 1 orders from all such Service purchaser groups shall be determined. Such percentage shall then be applied to the number of such Type 1 orders from each Service purchaser group involved, and the resultant number of Type 1 orders shall accordingly be scheduled for delivery to such group. The particular Type 1 orders to be scheduled for each such Service purchaser group and the sequence of their delivery shall be determined by the Numerical Master Preference List, as amended by Revision No. 4 and corrections and additions thereto, the operation of which is set forth in paragraph (i) of this order.

(4) 25 percent of each producer's production for each month of each size of each type of tool shall continue to be scheduled for delivery to foreign purchasers and other purchasers in accordance with the other provisions of this order.

(5) Immediately upon scheduling machines for delivery in accordance with paragraphs (c) (2), (c) (3), and (c) (4) of this order, each producer shall notify all purchasers of the new scheduled delivery dates which fall within the period ending February 28, 1943.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph (c), the War Production Board from time to time may issue specific scheduling instructions to any producer.

(7) The four months rule established by paragraphs (d) (4) and (e) (5) of this order, and the thirty and sixty day "frozen" periods established by paragraph (l) of this order, shall not be applied to Type 1 orders. All Type 1 orders on hand on November 5, 1942 or received in the future shall immediately be scheduled for delivery on their required delivery dates or as soon thereafter as possible without retarding production. All Type 2 orders remain subject to the terms of this General Preference Order E–1–b except as the delivery dates on such orders may be extended by the rescheduling of Type 1 orders in accordance with this paragraph (c).

(8) All other provisions of this General Preference Order E–1–b not modified by this paragraph (c) shall remain in full force and effect.

(d) Allocation of production to service purchasers and to foreign and other purchasers. (1) Except as provided in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph, each producer shall schedule his production for each calendar month so as to deliver 75 per cent of his production of each size of each type of tool which he produces in that month to service purchasers.

(2) Except as provided in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph, each producer shall schedule his production for each month so as to deliver 25 per cent of his production of each size of each type of tool in the aggregate to foreign purchasers and other purchasers.

(3) A producer may schedule for delivery to service purchasers more than 75 per cent of his production of any size of a type of tool in a given month, to the extent that he has failed to receive purchase orders for foreign purchasers and rated purchase orders from other purchasers for tools of such size and type prior to the first day of the fourth month preceding the month of delivery.

(4) A producer may likewise schedule for delivery to foreign purchasers and other purchasers more than 25 per cent of such production of any size of a type of tool in a given month, to the extent that he has failed to receive rated purchase orders from service purchasers for tools of such size and type, prior to the first day of the fourth month preceding the month of delivery.

(5) In preparing his schedules as aforesaid, a producer shall fix the dates of his deliveries of tools to service purchasers, to foreign purchasers and to other purchasers within a given month so that each class will receive its percentage of tools equitably in point of time within the month.

(e) Distribution of 75 per cent of production among Service purchasers. (1) Service purchasers are hereby subdivided into seven groups consisting of the following, and their respective prime contractors and subcontractors: Bureau of Ships (Navy), Bureau of Ordnance (Navy), Ordnance Department (Army), Air Services, Miscellaneous Branches and Bureaus, the Maritime Commission, and the Signal Corps. The fourth group, designated "Air Services," includes the Army Air Forces and the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics and their respective prime contractors and subcontractors. The fifth group, designated "Miscellaneous Branches and Bureaus," includes the Quartermaster Corps, the Corps of Engineers, the Army Medical Department, the Chemical Warfare Service, the Bureau of Yards and Docks, the Marine Corps, and the Transportation Service of the Services of Supply, together with any other corps, department, bureau or service of the Army and Navy not heretofore specifically designated as a separate group, and their respective prime contractors and subcontractors.

(2) Exhibit A specifies a percentage of each type of tool which is to be delivered each month to each different group of service purchasers. The aggregate of such percentages is 75 per cent.

(3) The stated percentage for each group where applied to a producer's production of each size of a given type of tool in a specified month, establishes the "quota" for that group of that size and type during that month.

(4) During each calendar month, each producer shall deliver to each group of service purchasers the number of tools of each size of a given type which equals the quota of the group for that size and type.

(5) If a producer does not have on hand on the first day of the fourth month preceding the month of delivery, rated purchase orders from the Bureau of Ships (Navy) group equal to that group's quota of a size of a given type of tool for that month, the producer shall schedule purchase orders received from the Bureau of Ordnance (Navy) group for the balance of the Bureau of Ships (Navy) group quota of that size and type for delivery during that month. Similarly, if the producer does not have orders on hand from the Bureau of Ordnance (Navy) group equal to its quota, he shall schedule purchase orders received from the Bureau of Ships (Navy) group for the balance of the Bureau of Ordnance (Navy) group's quota.

If a producer does not have on hand on the first day of the fourth month preceding the month of delivery, rated purchase orders from the Bureau of Ships group plus the Bureau of Ordnance group equal to their combined quotas of a size of a given type of tool for that month, or if he does not have on hand on such date rated purchase orders from any other single group of service purchasers equal to that group's quota of a size of a given type of tool for that month, the producer shall schedule purchase orders received from members of other groups of service purchasers for that size and type for delivery during that month. Where members of two or more other groups have placed purchase orders aggregating more than such unordered balance of the combined quotas of the Bureau of Ships and Bureau of Ordnance, or of any other single group's quota, the producer must first schedule the purchase orders of those purchasers who are members of the group having the greatest ratio of:

(i) Unfilled purchase orders, specifying required delivery dates in said month of delivery and in preceding months, but not scheduled for delivery in said months to;

(ii) The number of tools to which said group is entitled under its quota, until that ratio has been reduced to or below the ratio of another group or groups, after which the producer shall schedule the purchase orders of members of the group or groups which then have the greatest ratio, and shall continue to schedule in this manner until the unordered balance has been entirely distributed. Where several groups have the same ratio, and there are not sufficient undistributed tools to schedule one for each group, preference shall be given to the groups having the lower percentage quotas.

(6) Likewise, if a producer does not have on hand on the first day of the fourth month preceding the month of delivery, rated purchase orders from foreign and other purchasers equal to 25 percent of his production of a size of a given type of tool for that month, the producer shall schedule purchase orders received from service purchasers for that type and size for delivery during that month, in the manner provided in paragraph (e) (5) hereof.

(7) A purchase order which has been scheduled as provided in subparagraphs (5) and (6) hereof shall represent an addition to the quota of the group of which the service purchaser in question is a member, and such purchase order shall not thereafter be affected by the receipt of a purchase order from a member of any other group, irrespective of the urgency standing of the latter.

(8) In preparing his schedules of deliveries for a given month for service purchasers, a producer shall fix the dates of his deliveries to the different groups so that each group will receive its percentage of tools equitably in point of time within the month.

(f) Distribution of 25 per cent of machine tools among foreign and other purchasers. Foreign purchasers and other purchasers shall be treated as one group, and each producer shall schedule his orders for each size of each type for delivery each month, within their aggregate 25 per cent of production for that month, in accordance with the sequence of deliveries determined as hereinafter specified in paragraph (i): Provided, however, That if the purchase orders from foreign purchasers and other purchasers with any producer with required delivery dates in any one month, aggregate more than 25 per cent of his production for any size of a given type during such month, such producer shall immediately file with the War Production Board a report stating the size and type of tool, showing all such purchase orders and designating for each order the required delivery date, the name of the purchaser, or the foreign country in the case of foreign purchasers, the purpose for which the tool is to be used in the case of other purchasers and the required delivery dates. The Director General for Operations, or such other official as may be specifically authorized by him, will thereupon examine such report and issue directions as to which purchase orders shall be eliminated in order to bring the aggregate within the 25 per cent allocation, or such other directions as he may deem necessary.

(g) Treatment of fractions. Where the number of tools which results from the use of a percentage to be applied under this order contains a fraction of more than one-half, the fraction shall be counted as a whole tool. A fraction under one-half shall be disregarded, except that where the computation results in a fraction only (less than one whole tool) for any one month, and such fraction is less than one-half it shall be counted in computing the next month's quota. Where each of the computations of two or more different quotas for the same month shows a fraction of one-half, and there is only one remaining tool to which such fractions can apply, such tool shall be allotted to the group having the highest percentage quota, and the other fractions of one-half shall be disregarded for that month, but shall be counted in computing the other quota or quotas for the next month.

(h) Necessity for preference ratings. (1) Except in the case of purchase orders of foreign purchasers, no purchase order for any machine tool shall be given priority standing in production schedules, and no machine tool shall be sold or delivered, unless a preference rating of A–10 or higher has been assigned thereto by a Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A, by a Preference Rating Certificate PD–3A, by a Preference Rating Certificate in the PD–408 series, or by a Preference Rating Order No. P–19–h.

In placing the endorsement required by Priorities Regulation No. 3 on the purchase order there must also be included therein or set forth in a separate endorsement on the purchase order:

(i) The urgency standing of the purchaser, if any;

(ii) The required delivery date of the tool;

(iii) A statement as to whether the purchaser is a "Service purchaser," a "foreign purchaser," or an "other purchaser," and

(iv) In the case of Service purchasers, the Supply Arm or Bureau of the Army or Navy, or the Maritime Commission, which placed the prime contract, the number of the prime contract, and the name of the prime contractor;

(v) In the case of foreign purchasers, the foreign country for which the tool is purchased; and

(vi) In the case of other purchasers, a statement as to the product or production program for which the tool is to be used.

In addition to making the endorsement upon his purchase order as required, any person placing such an order after December 25, 1942 shall furnish to the producer a photostatic copy (or another copy accompanied by his sworn statement that it is a true copy) of the Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A, PD–3A, PD–408, or Preference Rating Order P–19–h. Reproduction of any of the foregoing preference rating certificates or orders for the foregoing purposes is hereby permitted.

(i) Operation of Numerical Master Preference List, and preference ratings. (1) All purchase orders of foreign purchasers are hereby assigned a rating of A–1–a for the purposes of this General Preference Order E–1–b. The Numerical Master Preference List. ("Exhibit B")[1] attached to this order, herein called "the list" shall determine the sequence of deliveries as between service purchasers as hereinafter set forth, but shall have no effect upon foreign purchasers or other purchasers.

(2) Subject to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the sequence of deliveries of machine tools among each group of service purchasers within its respective percentage quota, and the sequence of deliveries among foreign purchasers and other purchasers within their 25 per cent allocation, shall be determined by required delivery dates, by preference ratings, and by the urgency standings contained in the list, as follows:

(i) Deliveries to service purchasers who are either on the list or are subcontractors of persons on the list, shall be preferred to and shall take precedence over deliveries to service purchasers who are not on the list, irrespective of the preference ratings of the service purchasers who are not on the list.

(ii) As between deliveries which have conflicting required delivery dates to be made to two or more service purchasers both on the list, deliveries shall be made according to their respective urgency standings specified on such list, whether the preference ratings of such service purchasers are the same or are different. The highest urgency standing is No. 1.

(iii) As between deliveries which have conflicting required delivery dates and which bear different preference ratings, to be made to two or more purchasers neither of whom is on the list, deliveries shall be made according to the preference ratings of the respective purchasers.

(iv) As between deliveries which have conflicting required delivery dates and which bear the same preference rating, to be made to two or more purchasers neither of whom is on the list, the sequence of deliveries shall be determined by the dates on which the producer received the applications of the preference ratings to the purchase orders for such deliveries and/or, in the case of foreign purchasers, the dates on which the purchase orders were accepted by the producer.

(v) A delivery to a subcontractor who is not specifically named on the list shall take the urgency standing of his prime contractor; and the urgency standing of the prime contractor must be endorsed in writing on the subcontractor's preference rating certificate, by an officer designated for such purpose by the supply arm or bureau concerned.

(3) Where a producer cannot schedule delivery of a tool in the month required by a purchaser because the percentage allocation or quota of such purchaser's class or group is entirely exhausted by scheduled deliveries of such tools to members of such class or group who have higher urgency standings or preference ratings, the producer shall schedule the tool for delivery in the earliest succeeding month during which it can be included in the percentage allocation or quota or such class or group in accordance with the purchaser's urgency standing or preference rating.

(j) Additions to list. Additions to, withdrawals from, and other changes may be made in the Numerical Master Preference List from time to time by the Director General for Operations or such other official as may be specifically authorized by him. Where it is desired to assign an urgency standing between existing urgency standings, the new urgency standing will consist of a number including a decimal. Such an urgency standing will take a position in the sequence of deliveries as indicated by the following example: Urgency Standing 792.1 will be scheduled after 792 and before 793.

(k) Revision of scheduled deliveries. (1) On or before June 1, 1942, with respect to machine tools designated as Group I on Exhibit A, and on or before July 1, 1942, with respect to machine tools designated as Group II on Exhibit A, each producer shall revise his schedule of deliveries for each type of tool to conform to the percentage allocations and quotas of the various classes and groups of purchasers, and in accordance with the sequences determined by urgency standings and preference ratings, to the extent that he can do so without seriously delaying his production line, and without postponing the date of completion of any particular tool which was 50 per cent or more completed on May 1, 1942, beyond the earliest date when such tool can be 100 per cent completed.

(2) After the date specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the producer shall make deliveries of tools in accordance with his revised schedules.

(l) Postponement of new purchase orders. Unless the Director General for Operations specifically orders otherwise, and notwithstanding any other provisions of this order, no higher preference rating or urgency standing shall operate to postpone or in any way affect any delivery under a purchase order already scheduled where such delivery, in the case of tools designated as Group I on Exhibit A is to be made within 30 days of receipt of such higher preference rating or urgency standing, or in the case of tools designated as Group II on Exhibit A, is to be made within 60 days of receipt of such higher preference rating or urgency standing.

(m) Specific modifications of schedules. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this order, the Director General for Operations, or such other official as may be specifically authorized by him, may allocate to another purchaser, or otherwise divert, any machine tool scheduled for production and delivery pursuant to this order. Except as expressly provided in this order, no one other than the Director General for Operations or his duly authorized representative, may give directions respecting sequences of deliveries. No interpretations, instructions, or directions respecting any of the provisions of this order shall be issued without the approval of the Director General for Operations or such other official as may be specifically authorized by him; and no producer shall accept or give effect to any interpretation, instruction, or direction, which is not issued in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

(n) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(o) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order, and all transactions affected thereby, are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(p) Reports and other communications. All reports which may be required to be filed, and all other communications concerning this order, should be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref.: E–1–b.

Issued this 19th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

INTERPRETATION 1

The term "purchase order," as used in General Preference Order E–1–b, means a firm order for a machine tool which is accompanied either by specifications or by other description of the tool in sufficient detail to enable the producer to place the tool in his production schedules. (Issued May 15, 1942)

INTERPRETATION 2

AA ratings should not be sought for the purpose of expediting deliveries of machine tools to service purchasers. General Preference Order E–1–b provides that deliveries to service purchasers, who are on the Numerical Master Preference List, Revision No. 3, shall be preferred to and shall take precedence over deliveries to service purchasers who are not on the list, irrespective of the preference ratings of the purchasers who are not on the list. It also provides that as between deliveries which have conflicting delivery dates to be made to two or more service purchasers both on the list, deliveries shall be made according to their respective urgency standings specified on such list, whether the preference ratings of such service purchasers are the same or are different. The highest urgency standing is No. 1.

Accordingly, the issuance of an AA rating to a service purchaser whose name does not appear on the list merely places him ahead of other service purchasers who likewise are not on the list; but he remains subordinate to all service purchasers who have urgency standings, irrespective of the preference ratings of the latter. The issuance of an AA rating to a service purchaser whose name appears on the list has no effect whatever. Deliveries to him are still determined solely by his urgency standing.

Where it is desired to accelerate the delivery date of a tool to a service purchaser, a specific order can be obtained from the Director General for Operations diverting a tool from another service purchaser for this purpose.

AA ratings may continue to be issued in appropriate cases for the purpose of expediting deliveries of machine tools to foreign and other purchasers, to whom urgency standings have not been assigned. (Issued June 19, 1942)

INTERPRETATION 3

The principles set forth in Interpretation No. 2 of General Preference Order No. E–1–b have not been altered by the issuance of AAA and AA–1, AA–2, AA–3, and AA–4 ratings pursuant to Priorities Regulation No. 12.

The application of such a higher rating to a delivery of a machine tool to a service purchaser who has an urgency standing does not change in any way the date of delivery of the tool. The date of delivery will still be determined solely by the urgency standing and the required delivery date.

The application of such a higher rating to a delivery of a machine tool to a service purchaser who does not have an urgency standing merely advances the delivery over those to other service purchasers who are members of the same group, and who likewise have no urgency standings; and it operates solely within the percentage quota assigned to that group. The higher rating does not affect any deliveries to service purchasers to whom urgency standings have been assigned. It likewise does not affect any deliveries scheduled to be made within the thirty or sixty-day frozen period provided by paragraph (1) of the order. (Issued July 30, 1942)

An urgency standing should not be used in connection with a Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A. General Preference Order E–1–b defines as service purchasers those whose preference rating certificates or whose endorsed purchase orders show that the preference rating was assigned by an original Preference Rating Certificate PD–3, PD–3A, or PD–4, or by Preference Rating Order P–19–h. Hence, the holder of a PD–1A Certificate cannot be a service purchaser as he is excluded from the definition.

Urgency standings govern the sequence of deliveries of machine tools as between service purchasers of the same group within their respective percentage quotas. If a person seeking to procure a machine tool is not a service purchaser he cannot be a member of one of the service purchasers groups, and the urgency standing therefore has no effect upon the delivery of the tool to him. The tool must come out of the 25 percent quota assigned to foreign and other purchasers, and the sequence of its delivery will be determined solely by its required delivery date and its preference rating, in the absence of a specific direction of the Director General for Operations. PART 1154—METAL PLUMBING AND HEATING EQUIPMENT

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of metals for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1154.1 General Limitation Order L–79—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Metal plumbing equipment" means any of the following items which are composed of metal to the extent of 50% or more by weight:

(i) Plumbing fixtures, including only bathtubs, closet hoppers, closet tanks, grease interceptors, laundry trays, lavatories, shower receptors, shower stalls, sinks, sink and laundry tray combinations, and urinals.

(ii) Plumbing fixture fittings and trim.

(iii) Water heating equipment, including only direct fired water heaters which use coal, oil or gas as fuel, indirect type water heaters, hot water storage tanks and range boilers.

(iv) Cooking and baking equipment using coal, oil or gas as fuel for cooking, baking, or heating food, or for heating dishes or kitchen utensils, except machinery the manufacture or distribution of which is restricted by General Limitation Order No. L–83, as amended from time to time.

(2) "Metal heating equipment" means any of the following items which is designed to provide heat for the interior of a building and which is composed of metal to the extent of 50% or more by weight:

(i) Steam and hot water heating boilers which use coal or oil as fuel.

(ii) Cast iron heating radiators (other than electric steam radiators) including, but not limited to, cast iron tubular radiators and cast iron convectors.

(iii) Hot water circulator pumps, vacuum pumps, and condensation pumps.

(iv) Warm air furnaces which use coal or oil as fuel.

(v) Heating stoves and space heaters which use coal, oil or gas as fuel, except gas fired floor furnaces.

(vi) Oil burners.

(vii) Metal fuel oil tanks.

[1] This document is a restatement of Amendment 3 of Limitation Order L–79 which appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER of December 18, 1942, page 10573, and reflects the order in its completed form as of December 16, 1942.

(viii) The following items of heating equipment using gas as fuel; steam and hot water heating boilers, warm air furnaces, floor furnaces, unit heaters, conversion burners, and gas steam radiators.

(3) "Ultimate consumer" means any person who purchases metal plumbing equipment or metal heating equipment other than persons who purchase metal plumbing equipment or metal heating equipment for resale without using such equipment for the purpose for which it was designed.

(4) "New metal plumbing equipment or new metal heating equipment" means any metal plumbing equipment or metal heating equipment which has never been used by an ultimate consumer.

(b) General restrictions. No person shall sell or deliver any new metal plumbing equipment or new metal heating equipment to an ultimate consumer except that, subject to the restrictions of any other order of the Director General for Operations.

(1) Any person may sell and deliver any item of new metal plumbing equipment or new metal heating equipment which item is sold by him for no more than five dollars ($5.00): Provided, That such item is sold as a part of an order the total cost of which to the purchaser is not more than ten dollars ($10.00);

(2) Any person may sell and deliver any new metal plumbing equipment or metal heating equipment pursuant to an order or contract which bears a preference rating of A-10, or better;

(3) Any person may sell and deliver any of the following listed equipment: [Paragraph (b) (3) (i) revoked August 11, 1942]

(ii) Any equipment which is specifically designed as hospital equipment, surgical equipment, dental equipment, veterinarian equipment, barbershop equipment or beauty shop equipment;

(iii) Any equipment which is sold and delivered pursuant to an order received or contractual engagement made prior to April 17, 1942, provided that delivery is made not later than June 30, 1942;

(4) Through July 31, 1942, any person may sell and deliver any new metal plumbing equipment or new metal heating equipment concerning which the purchaser has made the following signed statement to him, listing all new metal plumbing equipment or new metal heating equipment to be sold or delivered:

> The following equipment ---------------- ------ is required for the completion of the erection, construction, remodeling or rehabilitation of a building, structure or project, or additions, extensions or alterations thereof, which has been initiated (by physically incorporating therein material which is an integral part thereof) after July 31, 1941, but prior to April 10, 1942.
> Dated ------------
> Signed --------------------------

This statement shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board and to the person supplying such equipment that the stated facts are true and that the listed equipment will be used for the purpose stated;

(5) Any person may sell and deliver any new metal plumbing equipment or new metal heating equipment concerning which the purchaser has made the following signed statement to him, listing all new metal plumbing equipment or new metal heating equipment to be sold or delivered:

> The following equipment ---------------- is required for the completion of the erection, construction, remodeling or rehabilitation of a building, structure or project, or additions, extensions or alterations thereof, which has been specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations pursuant to an application for authority to "Begin Construction", in accordance with Limitation Order No. L-41.
> Dated ------------
> Signed -----------------------

This statement shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board and to the person supplying such equipment that the stated facts are true and that the listed equipment will be used for the purpose stated;

(6) [Paragraph (b) (6) revoked December 16, 1942]

(7) Any person may sell and deliver any new metal plumbing equipment or new metal heating equipment pursuant to specific authorization of the Director General for Operations on Form PD-423; and

(8) Nothing in this order shall be construed to limit the sale or delivery of any equipment which is to be used for the purpose of converting oil burning equipment or gas burning equipment to coal burning equipment.

Notwithstanding any provision of this order, no person may sell or deliver to an ultimate consumer any such equipment the transfer of which is subject to a ration order issued by the Office of Price Administration: Provided, That such sales or deliveries may be made in accordance with such ration order.

(c) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories and sales. Similarly there shall be kept and preserved the signed statements referred to in paragraphs (b) (4), (b) (5) and (b) (6) above.

(d) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(e) Reports. Each person to whom this order applies shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time require.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in the community, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may apply for relief by addressing a letter to the War Production Board setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(h) Applicability of other orders. Insofar as any other order issued by the Director General for Operations, or to be issued by him hereafter, limits the use of any material to a greater extent than the limitations imposed by this order, the restrictions of such other order shall govern, unless otherwise specified therein.

(i) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(j) Routing of correspondence. All reports to be filed, appeals, and other communications concerning this order shall be addressed to War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref: L-79.

Issued this 16th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

INTERPRETATION 1

Where new plumbing and heating equipment is used as collateral in a security transaction and title passes solely for the purpose of the security transaction, there being no physical movement of new plumbing or heating equipment other than for purposes of storage or warehousing, the transfer of title is not a violation of Limitation Order No. L-79. (Issued May 22, 1942.)

PART 1256—PLATINUM

[Interpretation 1 of General Conservation Order M-162]

The following official interpretation is hereby issued by the Director General for Operations with respect to the meaning of the term "process" as such term is defined and used in General Conservation Order M-162 (§ 1256.1):

> The sizing of already completed jewelry, other than rings, for the ultimate consumer does not constitute processing where such sizings involves only the removal and not the addition of platinum. In the case of completed rings, such sizing does not constitute processing where the sizing requires either the removal or the addition of platinum for the purpose of sizing alone.
> The repair of already completed platinum jewelry for the ultimate consumer does not constitute processing, provided no additional platinum is added. Repair means only restoration to usable condition in original form, shape, or design; it does not include any alteration or change in such original form, shape, or design.

PART 1276—PLYWOOD

[Limitation Order L-150-a]

SOFTWOOD PLYWOOD

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of softwood plywood for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1276.6 Limitation Order L-150-a—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Producer" shall mean any manufacturer of softwood plywood, but shall not include any distribution warehouse of any manufacturer.

(2) "Softwood plywood" shall mean a built-up board of laminated veneers of any species of softwood united with a bonding agent.

(3) "Distributor" shall mean any wholesaler, jobber, retailer or other person who in the regular course of his business sells softwood plywood.

(b) General restrictions. No distributor shall sell, ship or deliver or cause to be sold, shipped or delivered any softwood plywood except upon orders rated AA-5 or higher: Provided, however, That this restriction shall not apply to sales, shipments or deliveries by producers.

(c) Appeals. Any appeal from this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(d) Communications. Communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to War Production Board, Lumber and Lumber Products Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L-150-a.

(e) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, the Director General for Operations may prohibit such person from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control, may withhold from such person priorities assistance, and may take such other action as he deems appropriate.

(f) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(g) Effective date. This order shall take effect December 20, 1942.

PART 3041—WATER HEATERS

[Limitation Order L-185]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of iron and steel for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national war effort:

§ 3041.1 General Limitation Order L-185—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Fuel oil" means any liquid petroleum classified as grade No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 or 6, including Bunker "C" fuel oil, kerosene, range oil, gas oils and any other liquid petroleum product used for the same purpose as the above designated grades.

(2) "Direct fired water heater" means any device for the direct transference of heat produced by the combustion of coal, wood, fuel oil or gas, or derived from solar rays, to the water of a domestic hot water supply system, and includes, but is not limited to, coils, water backs, side-arm water heaters, service water tank heaters, automatic storage water heaters, instantaneous or continuous flow water heaters, underfired storage water heaters and solar water heaters. It does not mean any tank used in conjunction with any direct fired water heater, the manufacture of such tank being governed by Limitation Order No. L-199.

(3) "Indirect water heater" means any device to which steam or hot water is piped for the transference of heat of such steam or hot water to the water of a domestic hot water supply system, or the water of a hot water space heating system, and includes, but is not limited to, coils, side-arm water heaters, storage water heaters, submerged-type water heaters, instantaneous or continuous flow water heaters, hot water generators and pre-heaters. It does not mean any critical heat exchanger, as defined in General Limitation Order No. L-172. It does not mean any tank used in conjunction with any indirect water heater, the manufacture of such tank being governed by Limitation Order No. L-199.

(4) "Domestic hot water supply system" means any system for supplying hot water used in whole or in part for bathing, washing, cleaning, cooking or other similar purposes, but does not include any system for supplying hot water solely for specialized industrial or agricultural purposes.

(5) "Hot water space heating system" means any system which is designed for the purpose of heating the interior of a building or other structure (including ships) by utilizing the heat of hot water.

(6) "Metal jackets" means any metal coverings, linings or portions thereof (including flat metal bands or metal frames used to hold dry insulation) of direct fired or indirect water heaters, except such metal coverings, linings or portions thereof which conduct flue gases, water, or steam through and to the outsides of such direct fired or indirect water heaters, and except any ferrous metal wire netting used as a base for the wet application of insulating materials.

(7) "Copper base alloy" means any alloy metal in the composition of which the percentage of copper metal by weight equals or exceeds 40 per cent of the total weight of the alloy. It includes alloy metal produced from scrap.

(8) "Major repair" means any repair to or any replacement of any part of any direct fired or indirect water heater which requires more than two pounds of copper and/or copper base alloy.

(9) "Minor repair" means any repair to or any replacement of any part of any direct fired or indirect water heater which requires two pounds or less of copper and/or copper base alloy.

(b) Restrictions. (1) On and after January 15, 1943, no person shall produce, fabricate or assemble any direct fired water heaters using gas or fuel oil as fuel, except to fill a contract or order for delivery to or for the account of The National Housing Agency for war housing requirements in pursuance of Preference Rating Order P–19d, P–19h, P–55, or P–110.

(2) On and after January 15, 1943, no person shall produce, fabricate or assemble any solar water heaters.

(3) On and after January 1, 1943, no person shall use in any calendar quarter in the production of direct fired water heaters using coal and/or wood as fuel a greater weight of metal than was used by him in such production in the corresponding calendar quarter of 1941.

(4) On and after January 1, 1943, no person shall use in any calendar quarter in the production of indirect water heaters a greater weight of metal than 50 per cent of the weight of metal used by him in such production in the corresponding calendar quarter of 1941.

(5) No person shall produce, fabricate, or manufacture a metal jacket except to fill a specific contract, subcontract or purchase order for a metal jacket to be used as part of the equipment of any aircraft or any vessel other than a pleasure craft, but in no case shall any metal jackets be produced, fabricated or manufactured by any person who has sufficient complete metal jackets or parts in his inventory to fill such contract, subcontract or purchase order.

(6) No person shall use in the manufacture of direct fired or indirect water heaters any copper or copper base alloy except for pressure, temperature, vacuum and electrical controls or safety devices and valves (not including draw-off cocks), but in no case shall the quantity of copper and/or copper base alloy so used be in excess of the minimum amount practicable.

(7) On and after January 1, 1943, no person shall use in any calendar quarter in the production, manufacture or assembly of any replacement part (other than metal jackets) for direct fired or indirect water heaters a total weight of metal in excess of 200% of the total weight of such metal used by him in such production, manufacture or assembly in the corresponding calendar quarter of 1941; but nothing in this order except this subparagraph shall prohibit or limit the production by any person of any replacement parts (other than metal jackets) for direct fired or indirect water heaters.

(8) No person shall make a major repair unless the weight of the copper and copper base alloy used in making such repair does not exceed by more than one pound the weight of the copper and copper base alloy being replaced. Any person, however, may make a minor repair. The copper and copper base alloy being replaced in making a major repair or a minor repair, shall be delivered to a scrap dealer or to any other person to whom such delivery may be made under the provisions of Supplementary Order M–9–b or any other applicable order of the War Production Board.

(c) Exemptions. (1) The provisions of paragraph (b) (1), (2), (3) and (4) of this order do not apply to the manufacture of water heaters under contracts or orders for delivery to or for the account of the Army, the Navy, the War Shipping Administration or the Maritime Commission of the United States.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (6) of this order and Supplementary Conservation Order No. M–9–c, any person may use copper and/or copper base alloy in the manufacture of direct fired or indirect water heaters which are being produced:

(i) Under a specific contract, subcontract or purchase order for use in the laundry, bakery or hospital projects or over-seas services of the Army, the Navy, the War Shipping Administration or the Maritime Commission of the United States; or

(ii) Under a specific contract, subcontract or purchase order for use as part of the equipment of any aircraft or any vessel for delivery to, or for the account of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration of the United States.

(d) Violations and false statements. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(e) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(f) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(g) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales (including sale or delivery of scrap).

(h) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(i) Reports. (1) Each manufacturer of direct fired or indirect water heaters shall execute and file with the War Production Board a report on Form PD–726 not later than January 8, 1943.

(2) Each manufacturer of direct fired or indirect water heaters shall execute and file with the War Production Board a report on Form PD–725, not later than the fifteenth day of each month following the month for which the report is filed.

(j) Communications. Reports to be filed and all other communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Plumbing and Heating Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: L–185.

PART 3072—PLUMBING & HEATING TANKS

[Limitation Order L–199]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of iron and steel for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national war effort.

§ 3072.1 General Limitation Order L–199—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Tank" means any metal expansion tank, metal domestic hot water storage tank, metal range boiler, metal tank for underfired storage water heater and metal tank for hot water generators, if such tank or boiler is used in domestic hot water supply systems or in hot water space heating systems.

(2) "Domestic hot water supply system" means any system for supplying hot water used in whole or in part for bathing, washing, cleaning, cooking, or other similar purposes, but does not include any system for supplying hot water solely for specialized industrial or agricultural purposes.

(3) "Hot water space heating system" means any system which is designed for the purpose of heating the interior of a building or other structure (including ships) by utilizing the heat of hot water.

(4) "Metal tank jacket" means any metal covering, lining or portion thereof (including a flat metal band or metal frame used to hold dry insulation) of a tank, except such metal covering, lining or portion thereof which comes into contact with water or steam, and except any ferrous metal wire netting used as a base for the wet application of insulating materials.

(5) "Metal tank support" means any metal device (except a strap iron hanger) used for the purpose of suspending or supporting a tank (except a metal tank for underfired storage water heaters) and includes, but is not limited to, stands, pipe stands, brackets, cradles, platforms, saddles, hangers, legs, feet and angle, eye beam, channel and other structural iron or steel framework.

(6) "Copper base alloy" means any alloy metal in the composition of which the percentage of copper metal by weight equals or exceeds 40 per cent of the total weight of the alloy. It includes alloy metal produced from scrap.

(7) "Major repair" means any repair to or any replacement of any part of any tank which requires more than two pounds but less than twenty-five pounds of copper and copper base alloy.

(8) "Minor repair" means any repair to or any replacement of any part of any tank which requires two pounds or less of copper and copper base alloy.

(b) Restrictions. (1) No person shall produce, fabricate, manufacture, assemble or install any metal tank support, except under a specific contract, subcontract or purchase order for use as part of the equipment of any aircraft or any vessel other than a pleasure craft, or for use with any tank which is an integral part of a machine; but in all cases metal tank supports may be produced, fabricated or manufactured by any person only to the extent that he lacks sufficient metal tank supports in his inventory to fill such contract, subcontract or purchase order.

(2) No person shall produce, fabricate, or manufacture any metal tank jacket, except under a specific contract, subcontract or purchase order for use as part of the equipment of any aircraft or any vessel other than a pleasure craft, or for use with any tank which is an integral part of a mobile machine; but in all cases metal tank jackets may be produced, fabricated or manufactured by any person only to the extent that he lacks sufficient complete metal tank jackets or parts in his inventory to fill such contract, subcontract or purchase order.

(3) No person shall use in the manufacture of tanks any copper and/or copper base alloy, except that any person may use the amount of copper and/or copper base alloy necessary to conform to the specifications of the prime contract in the manufacture of any tank which is being produced under a specific contract, subcontract or purchase order for use as part of the equipment of any aircraft or any vessel for delivery to, or for the account of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration of the United States.

(4) No person shall use in any calendar quarter in the production, manufacture or assembly of any replacement part (other than metal tank jackets or metal tank supports) for any tank a total weight of metal in excess of the total weight of such metal used by him in such production, manufacture or assembly in the corresponding quarter of 1941; but nothing in this order except this subparagraph shall prohibit or limit the production by any person of any replacement part for tanks.

(5) No person may produce, fabricate, manufacture or assemble black iron or galvanized iron range boilers or expansion tanks except in accordance with the following specifications: Provided, however, That this restriction shall not apply to any such range boiler or tank as has, on the date of issuance of this order, been cast, machined or otherwise processed in such manner that its manufacture, in conformity with the following specifications, would be impractical.

Black Iron and Galvanized Range Boilers—Standard and Extra Heavy

60 pounds per square inch hydrostatic test pressure.
Tappings:
Maximum of three tappings on black (painted) basement horizontal type expansion tank; one ½" tapping in one head (near bottom rim); and one 1" and one ½" tapping along bottom 6" and 12" respectively from opposite head edge of sheet.
Maximum of five tappings on galvanized attic vertical type expansion tanks: one 1" tapping in each head and one 1" tapping on right side 4" up from bottom edge of sheet; and two ½" gauge glass tappings located on fromt 13½" between centers of tappings.

(6) No person shall install any copper, copper base alloy, nonferrous metal, stainless steel, or monel metal tank unless such tank is for use as part of the equipment of any aircraft or vessel other than a pleasure craft.

(7) No person shall make any repair, except a major repair or a minor repair, to any part of any tank which requires any copper or copper base alloy.

(8) No person shall make a major repair unless the weight of the copper and copper base alloy used in making such repair does not exceed by more than one pound the weight of the copper and copper base alloy being replaced. Any person, however, may make a minor repair. The copper and copper base alloy being replaced in making a major repair or a minor repair, shall be delivered to a scrap dealer or to any other person to whom such delivery may be made under the provisions of Supplementary Order M–9–b or any other applicable order of the War Production Board.

(c) Violations and false statements. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(d) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(e) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(f) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales (including sale or delivery of scrap).

(g) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(h) Reports. (1) Each manufacturer affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board a report on Form PD–726, not later than January 8, 1943.

(2) Each manufacturer affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board a report on Form PD–725, not later than the fifteenth day of each month following the month for which the report is filed.

(i) Communications. Reports to be filed and all other communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Plumbing and Heating Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–199.

PART 1022—PLUMBING AND HEATING EMERGENCY REPAIRS

[Preference Rating Order P–84 as Amended Dec. 16, 1942 [1]]

For the purpose of facilitating the acquisition of material entering into the emergency repairs of plumbing equipment and heating equipment (as hereinafter defined), a preference rating is hereby assigned to deliveries of such material upon the terms hereinafter set forth.

§ 1022.1 Preference Rating Order P–84—(a) Statement of policy. It is the purpose of this order to effectuate the policy of the War Production Board of making available materials required for plumbing and heating emergency repairs necessary to maintain minimum heating and sanitary conditions required for public health in the United States, its territories and possessions, without expansion or improvement of facilities, except where duly authorized or approved. The terms and conditions of this order are to be interpreted in conformity with this expressed policy.

(b) Definitions. (1) Plumbing equipment means any equipment, fixtures, fittings, pipes, accessories or supplies of types used in, or connected to water sewer, or gas systems, also any device using coal, oil or gas as fuel for cooking, baking, or heating food, or for heating dishes or kitchen utensils, except machinery the manufacture or distribution of which is restricted by General Limitation Order L–83 as amended from time to time: Provided, That "plumbing equipment" does not include any tools for use in installation of repairs, or any hoses, sprinklers or other devices of types commonly attached to outdoor faucets.

(2) "Heating equipment" means any heating unit used to provide building warmth and any accessory or appurtenance used in connection with such a heating unit.

(3) "Emergency repairs" means only those remedial repairs which are required by actual or imminent breakdown of plumbing equipment or heating equipment. It includes (but is not limited to) the emergency replacement of equipment which is worn out, damaged beyond repair or destroyed. It does not include the installation of superior type equipment to replace useable equipment, or a substitution more extensive than that which is necessary to replace the part or parts that are worn out, damaged or destroyed.

(4) "Installer" means any person who installs plumbing equipment or heating equipment, regardless of whether or not he is regularly engaged in installing such equipment.

(5) "Supplier" means any person:

(i) Who supplies material which he has not in whole or in part manufactured, processed, assembled or otherwise physically changed (in some way other than by cutting or threading pipe), and

(ii) With whom a contract or purchase order has been placed for delivery of such material to the installer or to another supplier.

(6) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind.

(c) Assignment of preference rating. Preference Rating A–10 is hereby assigned, subject to the restrictions and conditions of paragraphs (e) and (f) hereof:

(1) To deliveries, to an installer, of material required by him for emergency repairs.

(2) To deliveries to any supplier, who has received an order or contract to which the preference rating hereby assigned has been applied, of material which will be delivered by him or another supplier to the installer pursuant to such rated order or contract, or will be physically incorporated into material which will be so delivered; or which will be used, within the limitations of paragraph (e) (3) hereof to replace in such supplier's inventory material so delivered.

(d) Persons entitled to apply preference rating. The preference rating hereby assigned may, in the manner and to the extent hereby authorized, be applied by:

(1) The installer;

(2) Any supplier of material to the delivery of which the preference rating has been applied as provided in paragraph (f).

(e) Restrictions on use of rating—(1) Restrictions on installer and supplier. (i) No installer or supplier may apply the rating hereby assigned to obtain copper or copper base alloys which have been fabricated into sheets, wire, rods or tubes, or to obtain any scarce material the use of which could be eliminated without serious loss of efficiency by substitution of less scarce material or by change of design.

(ii) No installer or supplier may apply the rating hereby assigned to obtain any material the transfer of which is subject to a ration order of the Office of Price Administration.

(2) Restrictions on installer. The installer may not apply the rating to obtain delivery of material on earlier dates than required to enable him to make emergency repairs.

(3) Restrictions on supplier. (i) No supplier may apply the preference rating hereby assigned to obtain material in greater quantities or on earlier dates than required to enable him to make on schedule a delivery rated hereunder or required to replace in his inventory material so delivered. He shall not be deemed to require such material if he can make his rated delivery and still retain a practicable working minimum inventory thereof; and if, in making such delivery, he reduces his inventory below such minimum, he may apply the rating only to the extent necessary to restore his inventory to such minimum.

(ii) A supplier may defer application of the rating hereunder to purchase orders or contracts for material to be placed by him until he can place a purchase order or contract for the minimum quantity procurable on his customary terms: Provided, That he shall not defer the application of any rating for more than three months after he becomes entitled to apply it.

(iii) A supplier may apply the preference rating herein assigned only to obtain deliveries of material which he will resell without manufacturing, processing or otherwise changing physically (other than by cutting or threading pipe) to fill a purchase order or contract rated hereunder or which he will use within the limitations of paragraph (e) (3) (i) hereof, to replace in his inventory material so sold.

(f) Application of preference rating. (1) An installer or supplier, in order to apply the preference rating to deliveries of materials to him, must endorse the following statement on the original and all copies of the purchase order or contract for such material, manually signed by a person duly authorized for such purpose by such installer or supplier:

> Material for emergency repairs of plumbing equipment or heating equipment—Rating A–10 under Preference Rating Order No. P–84 with the terms of which I am familiar.
> ----------------------------------
> Name of installer or supplier
> By ----------------------------------

Such endorsement shall constitute a certification to the War Production Board that such material is required for the purpose stated and that the application of the rating is authorized by this order. Any such purchase order or contract for such material shall be restricted to material which is rated in accordance herewith.

(2) The provisions of this order relative to application of a preference rating by the installer shall not apply in the case of delivery to an installer of any plumbing or heating repair item, the cost of which to the installer is less than $5.00; Provided, That the order placed by that installer totals no more than $10.00. All such deliveries are deemed to be for repair purposes and, subject to the restrictions of paragraph (e) hereof, the supplier may apply the rating hereby assigned to replace the stock so delivered.

(g) Records. In addition to the records required to be kept under Priorities Regulation No. 1, the installer and each supplier placing or receiving any purchase order or contract rated hereunder shall retain, for a period of two years, for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board, endorsed copies of all such purchase orders or contracts, whether accepted or rejected, segregated from all other purchase orders or contracts or filed in such manner that they can be readily segregated for such inspection.

In the case of replacement of a unit which has been worn out, damaged beyond repair or destroyed, the cost of which unit to the installer exceeds fifty dollars ($50.00), the installer shall attach to each copy of the purchase order for a delivery rated hereunder, a statement signed by the ultimate user and by the Installer, which statement shall certify that repair of the unit is impracticable and shall specify:

(1) The unit being removed,

(2) The part or parts of such unit which failed,

(3) The age, model, make, size and serial number (where available) of such unit or parts,

(4) The replacing unit, its model, make, size and serial number (where available).

(h) Reports. The installer and each supplier, who applies the preference rating assigned hereunder, shall file such reports as may be required from time to time by the War Production Board.

(i) Exception: Parties to whom other repairs and maintenance orders are applicable. The preference rating herein assigned shall not be applied by any person to deliveries of repairs and maintenance items to which deliveries any other order has assigned a preference rating.

(j) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D C. Ref.: P–84.

(k) Violations Any person, who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(l) Revocation or amendment. This order may be revoked or amended at any time as to the installer or any supplier. In the event of revocation, deliveries already rated pursuant to this order shall be completed in accordance with said rating unless the rating has been specifically revoked with respect thereto. No additional applications of the rating to any other deliveries shall thereafter be made by the installer or supplier affected by such revocation.

(m) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(n) Effective date. This order shall take effect March 13, 1942.

Issued this 16th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

INTERPRETATION 1

Paragraph (b) (3) of Preference Rating Order P–84 reads as follows:

> (3) "Emergency repairs" means only those remedial repairs which are required by actual or imminent breakdown of plumbing equipment or heating equipment. It includes (but is not limited to) the emergency replacement of equipment which is worn out, damaged beyond repair or destroyed. It does not include the installation of superior type equipment to replace usable equipment, or a substitution more extensive than that which is necessary to replace the part or parts that are worn out, damaged or destroyed.

Within the meaning of this subparagraph, plumbing equipment or heating equipment which replaces "the part or parts that are worn out, damaged or destroyed", need not be identical with the part or parts that are replaced.

Installation of a part or parts which do not contain a greater weight of metal than the part or parts replaced is not "a substitution more extensive than that which is necessary to replace the part or parts that are worn out, damaged or destroyed," regardless of the fact that such plumbing or heating equipment is of a type or kind different from that replaced. Thus, coal burning equipment may replace oil burning equipment or gas burning equipment.

Further, where steel equipment is replaced by cast iron equipment, the substitution is not "more extensive" even though the substituted equipment be heavier than that replaced. Similarly a substitution of iron or steel equipment for copper or copper base alloy equipment is not a "more extensive" substitution even though the substituted equipment be heavier than that replaced. (Issued June 1, 1942.)

PART 1075—CONSTRUCTION

[Supplementary Conservation Order L–41–b, as Amended Dec. 21, 1942]

Supplementary Conservation Order No. L–41–b as heretofore amended is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1075.3 Supplementary Conservation Order L–41–b. (a) Conservation Order L–41, as amended, shall not apply to construction begun prior to January 1, 1944, which is necessary to the conversion or substitution of heating equipment to permit the use of fuel other than oil, electricity, natural gas, manufactured gas, or mixed natural and manufactured gas.

(b) Conservation Order L–41, as amended, shall not apply to construction begun prior to January 1, 1944, which is necessary to the installation or application in buildings, structures or projects of the following materials and equipment; insulation materials, air cell pipe coverings, weather stripping, storm windows and doors: Provided, however, That no rubber, or metal (other than fastenings), shall be used in such installation or application.

PART 1293—HAND TOOLS SIMPLIFICATION

[Schedule III to Limitation Order L–157 as Amended Dec. 21, 1942]

MANUALLY-OPERATED WOOD AND SPECIAL PURPOSE SAWS

§ 1293.4 Schedule III to Limitation Order L–157—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) "Producer" means any person who manufactures, stamps or otherwise fabricates manually-operated wood and special purpose saws.

(2) "Manually-operated wood and special purpose saws" means the following saws:

(i) Handsaws, crosscut and rip.
(ii) Mitre, cabinet, and back saws.
(iii) Compass and keyhole saws and nests of saws.
(iv) Special purpose handsaws of the kinds listed in Table 4.
(v) Pruning saws.
(vi) Butcher saws.
(vii) Buck, cordwood and pulpwood saws.
(viii) Crosscut saws, two-man.
(x) Ice saws.

(3) "Lend Lease government" means the government of any foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States," (Lend-Lease Act).

(b) Simplified practices. Pursuant to Limitation Order L-157, the production and distribution of manually operated wood and special purpose saws shall be limited to the types, grades, sizes and number of models set forth in Appendix A of this schedule, except that in any calendar year a producer may manufacture saws, which saws shall not be subject to the limitations of types, grades, sizes and number of models of this schedule and Appendix A thereto for export and shipment to Canada, or for export under a license issued by the Board of Economic Warfare or to fill an order of a Lend Lease government, in a combined dollar sales volume not to exceed the amount of his total dollar sales export production of manually operated wood and special purpose saws for the calendar year 1941, or in a combined dollar sales volume not to exceed 6% of his total production of manually operated wood and special purpose saws during the calendar year 1941, whichever dollar sales value is the greater.

The provisions of this schedule shall not restrict in any way the manufacture of saws to fill orders for export received by a producer on or before the 31st day of December 1942.

(c) No producer shall produce during any calendar year any saws listed in:

(i) Table 2 of Appendix A of this schedule in excess of 20% of the dollar sales volume of the total annual production by him of all saws so listed in said Table 2 during the twelve months period ending December 31, 1941;

(ii) Table 3 of Appendix A of this schedule in excess of 20% of the dollar sales volume of the total annual production by him of all saws so listed in said Table 3 during the twelve months period ending December 31, 1941;

(iii) Table 4 of Appendix A of this schedule in excess of 20% of the dollar sales volume of the total annual production by him of all saws so listed in said Table 4 during the twelve months period ending December 31, 1941; or

(iv) Table 5 of Appendix A of this schedule in excess of 20% of the dollar sales volume of the total annual production by him of all saws so listed in said Table 5 during the twelve months period ending December 31, 1941.

The percentage limitations on the total annual production as established in subparagraph (c) of this schedule shall not include saws produced for delivery for the account of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration of the United States.

(d) Effective date of simplified practices. On and after October 19, 1942, no producer shall put in process any steel for the purpose of manufacturing a manually-operated wood or special purpose saw other than a manually-operated wood or special purpose saw conforming to the sizes, specifications and standards as established by paragraph (b) and Appendix A of this schedule. On and after December 18, 1942, no producer shall manufacture, assemble or fabricate any manually-operated wood or special purpose saw not conforming to the sizes, specifications and standards established in paragraph (b) and Appendix A of the schedule, except with the express permission of the Director General for Operations. All saws fabricated prior to December 18, 1942, may be shipped without special permission.

(e) Records covering material, work in process, etc. Each producer of manually-operated wood and special purpose saws shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time require.

Issued this 21st day of December, 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

APPENDIX A TO SCHEDULE III—LIMITATION ORDER NO. L-157

EXPLANATIONS AND LIMITATIONS

(1) "Model" as used in the following Tables 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, and 10 shall designate one combination of saw details. Such details as are not specified may be selected by the manufacturer, provided that the different combinations of details for a given kind and grade of saw do not exceed the number of models to which such saw is limited.

(2) "Gages" as referred to in the following Tables are Birmingham or Stubs' wire gages, and are subject to commercial tolerances.

(3) "Length & Width of Blades" as referred to in the following Tables 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7a, 8, 9, and 10 are subject to commercial tolerances, except where minima and maxima are specified.

(4) Elimination of all Alloy Steel. No producer shall use any alloy steels in the manufacture of any manually operated wood or special purpose saw except (a) upon approval of the Director General for Operations of a written application for the use of such alloy steel, or (b) such alloy steels as may be in the possession of a producer on the 18th day of September 1942.

GRADES OF HANDSAWS

NOTE: Table 1—Handsaws, and the following "Grades of Handsaws" were amended Dec. 21, 1942.

A-Grade. Blades shall be of best quality selected saw steel, free from harmful dirt, segregation, and inclusions. The steel shall be cross rolled and show a fine fracture grain. The carbon content shall be not less than 0.80, or more than 0.95 percent; phosphorus and sulphur not more than 0.035 percent, and silicon not less than 0.15 percent. The blade shall be tempered to a Rockwell hardness of not less than 48 or more than 52 on the C scale.

The blade shall be true and full taper ground, i. e., uniform in thickness along the entire length of the cutting edge, tapered in thickness from the tooth edge to the back and along the back from the handle to the point. This taper is to be uniform and not less than 4 gages. The thickness of the cutting edge shall be not less than 0.032 in. or more than 0.042 in., and the thickness of the back at the handle not less than the cutting edge.

The teeth of cross cut saws shall be bevel filed, and the teeth of rip saws filed straight through. The teeth shall be set, but the set shall not extend more than one-half the depth of the tooth.

Handles shall be of suitable hardwood, properly seasoned, and free from cracks, checks, and other defects, and shall be given a protective coating to aid in preventing warping, swelling, or shrinkage. Handles shall be fastened to blades with not more than 5 steel screws.

The blade of each saw shall be permanently branded to permit its identification.

B-Grade. Blades shall be of standard quality steel free from harmful dirt and inclusions, and shall show a fine fracture grain. The carbon content shall be not less than 0.70, or more than 0.95 percent, phosphorus and sulphur not more than 0.040 percent, and silicon not less than 0.15 percent. The blade shall be tempered to a Rockwell hardness of not less than 46, or more than 48 on the C scale.

The blade shall be taper ground, uniform in thickness along the entire length of the cutting edge, tapered in thickness from the tooth edge to the back and along the back from the handle to the point. This taper is to be uniform and not less than 2 or more than 3 gages. The back at the handle shall not be thinner than the cutting edge.

The teeth of both cross cut and rip saws to be filed and set, but the set shall not extend more than one-half the depth of the tooth.

The handle shall be of seasoned hardwood, free from cracks, checks, or other defects, shall be given a protective coating to aid in preventing warping, swelling, and shrinkage, and shall be fastened to the blade with not more than 4 steel screws.

The blade of each saw shall be permanently branded to permit its identification.

C-Grade. No C-Grade handsaws shall be manufactured on and after the 28th day of December 1942 except to fill orders received by the manufacturers on or before the 21st day of December 1942, but no such C-Grade handsaws shall be manufactured on or after the 5th day of February 1943.

Private Brands. The blades of all handsaws manufactured for distribution under private brands shall have the qualities specified above, and shall be permanently branded to permit their identification. The handles of such saws may vary in design from the manufacturers' standard: Provided, That no manufacturer shall make, for any saw distributed under private brands, more than 3 different designs of handles in addition to his standard handles.

TABLE 5—PRUNING SAWS

Description[1]	Blade size
	Length	Width
		Point[2]	Butt[3]
	In.	In.	In.
1. Curved, tapered blade with hardwood lacquered handle, 7 or 8 points per in.[4] to cut on draw stroke, one model in each of two teeth types	14	¼	1½
2. Curved, tapered blade with long lacquered hardwood handle, 5½ points per in. to cut on draw stroke	14	⅝	2¼
3. Folding pattern, with curved, tapered blade and lacquered hardwood folding handle, 6 or 6½ points per in.[4] to cut on draw stroke	12	⁵⁄₁₆	1¹⁵⁄₁₆
4. Folding pattern, with curved, tapered blade and lacquered folding hardwood handle, 8 points per in. to cut on draw stroke	12	½	1⅞
5. Slightly curved and tapered blade with large hardwood lacquered handle: 8 points per in. on convex edge, 6 on concave edge, latter to cut on draw stroke	18	1⅛	3⅛
6. Straight, tapered, high tempered blade with large hardwood handle; 8 points per in. on one edge, lightning-type teeth on the other, teeth filed and set	18	¾	2¾
7. Same as No. 6, except blade to be of standard saw steel	18	¾	2¾
8. Standard type, tapered skew back blade, with hardwood handle, having a large hole for gloved hand, 7 points per in	20	1⅛	5
9. Same as No. 8, but with large tuttle or champion type teeth	24	1½	5¾
10. Same as No. 8, but with 6 points per in., bevel filed and set	26	1¼	6
11. Flat steel frame tapered to a narrow point, and arranged to hold blade taut at 4 different angles, hardwood handle, 8 points per in	14	½	½
12. Saw and shear combination, with malleable iron socket and hook, socket 1 to 1¼ in. in diameter, shear to cut up to ¾ in. in diameter, blade 8 points per in	[5] 10¾	(⁶)	(⁶)
13. Curved, tapered blade, with malleable iron socket for pole, arranged for adjustment of angle of saw blade with bolt and wing nut, 8 points per in. to cut on draw stroke	[7] 15	¾	2¼
14. Curved, tapered walnut-pruning blade, with teeth in butt to hold adjustment in sprocket of pruning saw socket, heavy stamped socket with hook and wing nut and bolt, 6 points per in	20	1⅛	3⅛

[1] Each number to be made in one grade and one model only, except No. 1, which may be made in two styles of teeth.
[2] Tolerance: Plus or minus ⅛ inch.
[3] Tolerance: Plus or minus ¼ inch.
[4] One or the other, not both.
[5] Plus or minus ¾ inch.
[6] Optional.
[7] Plus or minus 1 inch.

[1] The figures in this column designate the maximum different combinations of characteristics in which a given class and length of saw may be made by a single manufacturer, subject to the qualifications given below. The characteristics referred to are (1) grade, (2) type of teeth, (3) amount of taper (including flat ground as zero taper), (4) gage of cutting edge, (5) width, and (6) breast.

In other words, any variation in any one of the above characteristics as between two saws of the same class and length would make them different saws. They might, of course, differ in all those characteristics.

Saws of classes 2, 5, and 7 are permitted to be made in two types of teeth, and saws of class 6, in three types of teeth. If a manufacturer elects to make them in only one type of teeth, he shall not make more than two different saws in each length in these classes. Thus, no saw shall be made in more than two different grades.

Saws of the same class and length and type of tooth, but of different grade or gage, may vary slightly in width, provided the total different saws of a given class and length does not exceed the figure given in column 6.

[MPR 137,[1] Amendment 13]

PETROLEUM PRODUCTS SOLD AT RETAIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In § 1340.91, a new paragraph (g) is added as set forth below:

(g) Puerto Rico. In addition to the maximum price as determined by § 1340.91 (a) (1) and (2), sellers of gasoline at retail establishments in the Territory of Puerto Rico may charge from and after December 1, 1942, 3 cents per gallon so long as the additional excise tax of 3 cents per gallon, which became effective on December 1, 1942, is not collectible, in addition to the maximum price, pursuant to § 1340.82 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137. This additional charge may not be collected from the United States Government, its agencies or instrumentalities when sold to them for their exclusive use.

§ 1340.93a Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(n) Amendment No. 13 (§ 1340.91 (g)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 shall become effective December 1, 1942.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

Issued this 18th day of December 1942.

PART 1341—CANNED AND PRESERVED FOODS

[MPR 185,[1] Amendment 3]

CANNED FRUITS AND CANNED BERRIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register*

A new § 1341.101a has been added and paragraph (c) has been added to § 1341.114, as set forth below.

§ 1341.101a Processor's maximum prices for prune concentrate and other prune products. (a) "Processor", as used in this section, means a person who manufactures, packs, cans or bottles prune concentrate, dried prunes in juice or syrup, prune juice (made from dried prunes or from prune concentrate), or other prune products, whether or not hermetically sealed in containers.

(b) "Prune products", as used in this section, means any products made from materials which consist of dried prunes or prune concentrate to the extent of ninety per cent or more, not including in such materials any water or syrup. The term "prune products" shall not include products made from dried prunes which have only been further processed by such operations as pitting, slicing, or crushing. The term shall apply to dried prunes which have been substantially changed in form.

(c) "Prune concentrate" means concentrated juice of dried prunes.

(d) The processor's maximum price per gallon, or other customary unit, f. o. b. factory, for prune concentrate shall be:

(1) The weighted average price per unit, f. o. b. factory, charged by the processor during the month of March 1942; plus

(2) Six per cent of such weighted average price; plus

(3) The actual increase per gallon or other customary unit between the delivered cost in March 1942 of the quantity of dried prunes used in producing such unit and the present delivered cost of such dried prunes.

(e) The processor's maximum price per dozen, or other customary unit, f. o. b. factory, for each kind, grade, container size and container type of prune juice (made either from dried prunes or prune concentrate), canned or bottled dried prunes, and other prune products, shall be:

(1) The weighted average price per dozen, or other customary unit, charged by the processor for such kind, grade, container size and container type during the month of March 1942; plus

(2) Eight per cent of such weighted average price; plus

(3) The actual increase per dozen containers, or other customary unit, between the delivered cost in March 1942, of the quantity of dried prunes or prune concentrate, as the case may be, used in producing such unit and the present delivered cost of the dried prunes or prune concentrate used to produce the same unit.

(f) The "weighted average price" shall be the total gross sales dollars charged for the item during the month of March 1942, divided by the number of dozens or other customary unit of the same item sold in March 1942. All sales of the item in March 1942, made in the usual course of business, shall be included, except sales made to any governmental purchasing agency. Sales made prior to March 1942, but delivered in March 1942, shall not be included.

(g) In computing the actual increase in the cost of dried prunes or prune concentrate:

(1) The delivered cost of the dried prunes or prune concentrate in March 1942, shall be the highest delivered price paid by the processor in March 1942, or, if he did not make any purchase of dried prunes or prune concentrate in March 1942, the highest market price in March 1942, delivered at his factory, for the prunes or prune concentrate used by the processor.

(2) The present cost of dried prunes or prune concentrate shall be the maximum price for dried prunes or prune concentrate, delivered at the processor's factory.

(h) All provisions relating to canned fruits and canned berries and all methods of computing maximum prices for canned fruits and canned berries, contained in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 185 shall apply to prune concentrate and prune products for which maximum prices are established herein, to the extent that they are not contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of this section.

§ 1341.114 Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(c) Amendment No. 3 (§ 1341.101a and paragraph (c) of § 1341.114) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 185 shall become effective December 24, 1942.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

PART 1341—CANNED AND PRESERVED FOODS

[Revised MPR 233]

DRIED AND CANNED APPLES AND APPLE PRODUCTS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233 are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233 has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The preamble is amended and §§ 1341.401 to 1341.425, inclusive, in Maximum Price Regulation No. 233[1] are amended and renumbered as set forth below.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1341.401 to 1341.428, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1341.401 Classes of persons included as sellers. (a) The term "seller" shall include only the canner, packer or processor, as the case may be, and as defined by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233.

§ 1341.402 Prohibition against dealing in certain apple products above maximum prices. (a) On and after December 24, 1942, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no seller shall sell or deliver any of the apple products for which maximum prices are established by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233 at a price higher than the maximum price established herein for such apple product.

(b) No person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any such apple product from any seller at a price higher than the maximum price established herein for such product; and

(c) No seller or other person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

§ 1341.403 Base periods for apple products. (a) The base period for each kind, grade and container size of canned apples, canned applesauce, canned or bottled apple juice or sweet apple cider, made from whole apples, and vinegar stock, shall be the first sixty days after the beginning of the 1941 pack of such item.

(b) The base period for each kind, grade and container size of dried apples shall be the month of October, 1941.

§ 1341.404 Computation of base prices. (a) The base price for each kind, grade and container size of any apple product for which a maximum price is established by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233 shall be the total gross dollars charged by the seller for each item during the base period for such item, divided by the number of units sold during the base period.

§ 1341.405 The seller's maximum prices for canned apples, canned applesauce and vinegar stock. (a) The seller's maximum price per unit, f. o. b. factory, for each kind, grade and container size of canned apples, canned applesauce and vinegar stock packed after the 1941 pack shall be:

(1) The seller's base price for such kind, grade and container size; plus

(2) Eighteen and one-fourth per cent of such base price.

§ 1341.406 The seller's maximum prices for canned or bottled apple juice or sweet apple cider, made from whole apples. (a) The seller's maximum price per unit, f. o. b. factory, for each grade of canned or bottled apple juice or sweet apple cider, made from whole apples, in container sizes of less than one gallon, shall be:

(1) The base price per unit for the same grade and container size; plus

(2) Ten per cent of such base price per unit; plus

(3) The amount of six cents per gallon, apportioned to each unit in the same proportion which the contents of such unit bears to one gallon.

(b) The seller's maximum price per unit, f. o. b. factory, for each grade of canned or bottled apple juice or sweet apple cider, made from whole apples, in container sizes of one gallon or more, shall be:

(1) The base price per unit for the same grade and container size; plus

(2) Eight per cent of such base price; plus

(3) The amount of six cents per gallon, apportioned to each unit in the same proportion which the contents of such unit bears to one gallon.

§ 1341.407 Maximum prices established by proportionate relationships. (a) In the event, and only in the event, that the maximum price for any item, except No. 10 container size, of any canned apples, canned applesauce, and canned or bottled apple juice or sweet apple cider, made from whole apples, cannot be determined under the foregoing sections, but the seller has been able to determine his maximum price under the foregoing sections for the dominant item of such product, the maximum prices of the remaining items of such product, except No. 10 container size, shall be those prices which bear the same proportionate relationship to the maximum price for the dominant item of that product as the price for each such item bore to the price of the dominant item of such product in the seller's first price list applying to the 1941 pack.

(b) In computing maximum prices under paragraph (a) of this section, the dominant item of any product shall be the one of which the seller packed the largest quantity in 1941.

(c) In the event, and only in the event, that the maximum price of one or more grades of such items in a No. 10 container size cannot be determined under the foregoing sections, but the seller has been able to determine the maximum price for one or more other grades of the same product in a No. 10 container size, the maximum prices for the grades not so determined shall be established in the manner provided in paragraph (a) of this section, using as the dominant grade the grade for which the price has been determined, or, if the price of more than one grade has been so determined, using as the dominant grade the one of those for which a maximum price has been so determined, of which the seller packed the largest quantity in 1941.

§ 1341.408 The seller's maximum price for dried apples. (a) The seller's maximum price for dried apples, packed in wood boxes containing 25 to 50 pounds, for all states except California, Oregon, Idaho and Washington, shall be as follows:

Grade	Kind	Maximum price in cents per pound
U. S. Grade A	Rings, quarters or slices	21
U. S. Grade B	Rings, quarters or slices	21
U. S. Grade C	Rings, quarters or slices	19½
Cored and peeled, lower than U. S. Grade C.	Rings, quarters or slices	16¼
Chops		7½

(b) The seller's maximum price for dried apples, packed in wood boxes containing 25 to 50 pounds, for the states of California, Oregon, Idaho and Washington, shall be as follows:

Grade	Kind	Maximum price in cents per pound
U. S. Grade A	Rings, quarters or slices.	19
U. S. Grade B	Rings, quarters or slices.	19
U. S. Grade C	Rings, quarters or slices.	17½

(c) Maximum prices for other kinds or grades of dried apples, such as chops and screenings, when no price has been established therefor by the foregoing provisions of this section, and maximum prices for other container sizes, shall be computed as follows:

(1) Compute the base price for U. S. Grade C dried apples and the base price for each other item for which a maximum price is to be computed.

(2) Compute the percentage relationship of the maximum price for U. S. Grade C dried apples, as established by paragraph (a) or (b) or this section, to the base price for U. S. Grade C dried apples.

(3) For each item for which a maximum price is being computed, multiply the base price of that item by the same percentage as computed for U. S. Grade C dried apples pursuant to paragraph (c) (2) of this section.

§ 1341.409 The seller's maximum prices for boiled cider, concentrated cider, filtered concentrated apple juice, depectinized concentrated apple juice and bland apple syrup. (a) The seller's maximum prices, f. o. b. plant, for boiled cider, concentrated cider, filtered concentrated apple juice, depectinized concentrated apple juice and bland apple syrup, all as defined in this section, shall be as follows:

Product	Baumé test	Maximum price
Boiled cider	32 degrees	90 cents per gallon.
Concentrated cider	32 degrees	$1.00 per gallon.
Filfered concentrated apple juice	32 degrees	$1.07 per gallon.
Depectinized concentrated apple juice	32 degrees	$1.17 per gallon.
Bland apple syrup	40 degrees or better	16¢ per pound.

(b) To compute maximum prices, f. o. b. plant, for boiled cider, concentrated cider, filtered concentrated apple juice or depectinized concentrated apple juice for Baumé test other than 32 degrees, the seller shall add to the maximum price set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, the sum of five cents per gallon for each degree over 32 degrees and the seller must deduct from the maximum price set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, the sum of five cents per gallon for each degree under 32 degrees. For fractions of degrees over or under 32 degrees, the seller shall add or subtract, as the case may be, the similar fraction of five cents.

(c) When used in this section the term:

(1) "Boiled cider" means the product obtained by boiling pure cider in an open receptacle to the extent that at least six gallons of pure cider are used to obtain one gallon of boiled cider.

(2) "Concentrated cider" means the product obtained by concentrating pure cider by heating under vacuum pressure.

(3) "Filtered concentrated apple juice" means the product obtained by filtering pure apple juice and concentrating the same by heating under vacuum pressure.

(4) "Depectinized concentrated apple juice" means the product obtained by filtering pure apple juice, concentrating it by heating under vacuum pressure and depectinizing it to a sufficient extent to result in a liquid concentrate.

(5) "Bland apple syrup" means the product obtained by removing or neutralizing the malic acid from pure apple juice, and concentrating, after slightly reacidifying, by heating under vacuum pressure to the extent that the product meets a minimum test of 40 degrees Baumé.

§ 1341.410 Separate maximum prices for apple products in tin and glass containers. Any seller who packed the same item in both glass and tin during the 1941 pack shall compute base prices and maximum prices separately for such item packed in tin and the same item packed in glass.

§ 1341.411 Maximum prices for apple products in new container types and sizes. The maximum price for any of the apple products for which maximum prices are established by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233, in container types, or sizes, or both, which the seller did not pack during the 1941 pack shall be computed as follows:

(a) The seller shall first select a base container from his 1941 pack. The base container shall be the most similar in type and the nearest in size which is one-half or less larger, or if there is no such size, one-half or less smaller, than the new container, even though he no longer packs or sells the item in the base container.

(b) The seller shall then

(1) Deduct the current net cost per dozen of the base container from the maximum price per dozen of the item in the base container as computed hereunder.

(2) Divide the figure so obtained by the number of ounces or other units in the base container.

(3) Multiply the figure so obtained by the number of the same units in the new container; and

(4) Add the current cost per dozen of the new container.

(c) The "current net cost" per dozen containers means the delivered price to the seller of one dozen of such containers, labels and caps and that proportion of the delivered price of the outgoing shipping carton that one dozen containers bears to the total number of containers to be shipped in such carton, but shall not include cost of filling, closing, labeling or packing.

The delivered price means the delivered price at the time of computing the maximum price, less discounts allowed. The "current net cost" of a container manufactured or assembled by the seller or no longer being purchased by him shall be the delivered price the canner would have to pay for such containers.

§ 1341.412 Maximum prices of competitor. If the maximum price of the seller for any item for which maximum prices are established by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233 cannot be computed under the foregoing sections of this regulation, the seller's maximum price for such item shall be the maximum price of the most closely competitive seller for the same item.

§ 1341.413 Authorization of maximum prices. If the seller's maximum price cannot be determined under any of the foregoing sections of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233, the maximum price shall be a price determined by the seller after specific authorization from the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on application setting forth (a) a description in detail of the item for which a maximum price is sought; and (b) a statement of the facts which differentiate such item from the most similar item for which he has determined a maximum price, stating such most similar item and the maximum price determined therefor. When such authorization is given, it will be accompanied by instructions as to the method for determining the maximum price. Within ten days after such price has been determined, the seller shall report such maximum price to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., under oath or affirmation. The price so reported shall be subject to adjustment at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1341.414 Maximum prices for a seller who has more than one factory. The maximum price for each item for a seller who owns more than one factory shall be determined separately for each factory, except that if any group of two or more factories had the same f. o. b. factory prices in 1941, the maximum prices shall be determined uniformly for the entire group by using the combined figures for all of the factories in the group in computing the base price and maximum price hereunder, or, if that cannot be determined, by using the maximum price of the most closely competitive seller as the maximum price of the entire group. In applying for the specific authorization of a price, the application may be made for a uniform price for all of the factories in such group.

§ 1341.415 Maximum delivered prices. Any seller who sold and delivered a particular brand of canned apples, canned applesauce, or canned or bottled apple juice or sweet apple cider packed by him during the calendar year 1941 on an established uniform delivered price basis by zone or area, shall add to the maximum price per dozen f. o. b. factory computed under the foregoing sections for each grade and container size of such brand, the freight charge he added to his f. o. b. factory price during the calendar year 1941, for such grade and container size of such brand in the same zone or area. The resulting price is the seller's maximum delivered price for such grade and container size of such brand for the zone or area in which the same freight charge was used in 1941.

§ 1341.416 Maintenance of customary discounts and allowances. Each seller shall maintain his customary cash discounts and his quantity discounts to different classes of purchasers.

§ 1341.418 Transfer of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of a seller are sold or otherwise transferred on or after the effective date of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233 and the transferee carries on the business, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall preserve and make available, or turn over to the transferee, all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions contained in this regulation.

§ 1341.419 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to any of the items covered by this regulation, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of any commission, service, transportation or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1341.420 Records and reports. (a) Every packer who makes sales of dried apples after the effective date of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233 shall preserve, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect, all his existing records which were the basis of computing maximum prices by relationship to other kinds, grades and sizes of dried apples and make and preserve for the same period, all records of the same kind as he has customarily kept, relating to the prices which he charged for dried apples sold after the effective date of this regulation.

(b) Every seller who makes sales of canned apples, canned applesauce, or canned or bottled apple juice or sweet apple cider, made from whole apples, and vinegar stock, packed after the 1941 pack, shall (1) preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect, all his existing records which were the basis for the computation of maximum prices under this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233 and (2) preserve for the same period all records of the same kind as he has customarily kept, relating to the prices which he charged for such products sold on and after the effective date of this regulation and (3) file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within ten days after determining his maximum price for each item, a statement certified under oath or affirmation showing his base price and his maximum price for each item, together with his customary cash discounts and customary quantity discounts to different classes of purchasers and (4) in those cases in which the maximum price of any item was determined by the maximum price of the most closely competitive seller, showing the maximum price of such item and the name and address of the seller whose maximum price was so adopted and (5) in those cases in which a seller made sales and deliveries of a particular brand of any of such products packed by him in 1941 on an established uniform delivered price basis by zone or area, showing his maximum price per dozen f. o. b. factory for each such item, the freight charge which he added to his f. o. b. factory price during the calendar year 1941 for each zone or area and the maximum delivered price for each such item packed after the 1941 pack, delivered in each zone or area, and (6) preserve for the same period a true copy of each such statement for examination by any person during ordinary business hours. Any seller who claims that substantial injury would result to him from making such statement available to any other person, may file such copy of such statement with the appropriate field office of the Office of Price Administration. The information contained in such statement will not be published or disclosed unless it is determined that the withholding of such information is contrary to the purposes of this regulation.

(c) Every seller who makes sales of boiled cider, concentrated cider, filtered concentrated apple juice, depectinized concentrated apple juice or bland apple syrup after the effective date of this regulation, shall make and preserve for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, all records of the same kind as he has customarily kept, relating to the prices charged by him for such products.

§ 1341.421 Information to purchasers from canners. (a) Except as hereinafter provided, any canner selling any canned apples, canned applesauce, or canned or bottled apple juice or sweet apple cider made from whole apples, packed after the 1941 pack, to any wholesaler, retailer, or any other purchaser for resale, shall, before making such sale or on his invoice disclose in writing to such purchaser, for each item, his base price, his maximum price, and the amount of the difference between the base price and the maximum price, which amount shall be designated as the "permitted increase."

(b) Any such canner may disclose such information by stating it on his invoice on the first occasion that he sells any item to such purchaser; or he may prepare and supply to the purchaser one or more lists or statements containing such information, at or before the first sale to such purchaser. Any such statement may contain the required information for any number of items.

(c) When a maximum price has been established pursuant to § 1341.411 for any item for which the container type or size has been changed, the canner shall not report any base price or permitted increase.

(d) For the purposes of this section:

(1) When a maximum price has been established for any item by the use of proportionate relationship, the base price for such item shall bear the same ratio to the maximum price as the base price of the item from which such maximum price was determined bears to the maximum price of such item.

(2) When a canner has established a maximum price by using the maximum price of his competitor for the same item, his base price and permitted increase for that item shall be the same as the base price and permitted increase of his competitor for the same item.

(3) When any canner makes application to determine a maximum price after specific authorization by the Office of Price Administration, such authorization, when given, will be accompanied by instructions as to the method for determining the price to be deemed the base price.

§ 1341.422 Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233, are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

§ 1341.423 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.[2]

§ 1341.424 Sales for export. The maximum price at which a person may export any of the products covered by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233 shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1341.425 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation.[4] This Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233 supersedes the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales or deliveries by sellers subject to this regulation of all products for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

§ 1341.426 Applicability. The provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233 shall be applicable only in the United States and the District of Columbia.

§ 1341.427 Definitions. (a) When used in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233 the term:

(1) "Persons" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, any other organized group of persons, legal successors or representatives of any of the foregoing and includes the United States, any agency thereof, any other government, or any of its political subdivisions and any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Canner" means a person who processes and packs apples, applesauce, apple juice or sweet apple cider, made from whole apples, in containers of metal or glass, or who packs apple juice or sweet apple cider, made from whole apples, in wooden containers.

(3) "Packer" means a person who removes the major portion of moisture from apples by natural or artificial means or prepares them for shipping in dried form, but does not include a grower when he delivers dried apples to a packer.

(4) "Processor" means a person who produces vinegar stock, boiled cider, concentrated cider, filtered concentrated apple juice, depectinized concentrated apple juice or bland apple syrup.

(5) "Canned" means sealed or enclosed in containers of metal or glass, whether or not hermetically sealed, and also refers to apple juice or sweet apple cider in wood containers.

(6) "1941 pack" of any item affected by this regulation shall be that pack the major portion of which was processed from apples grown in the calendar year 1941.

(7) "Vinegar stock" means fermented apple juice or fermented apple cider.

(8) The "most closely competitive canner or packer" means the canner or packer who:

(i) Sells to the same class of buyers, (ii) produces the same or a similar quality range of the product in question, (iii) has in the past sold the same item at approximately the same prices as the canner or packer seeking to establish a maximum price, (iv) is located in the same or the nearest canning or packing area.

(9) "Item", when referring to any of the products affected by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 233, unless the context otherwise requires, also refers to the kind, grade and container size of such product; it designates not only the product, but also the kind, grade and container size. For example, "any item" means any kind, grade and container size of any of such products.

(10) "Kind" refers to the style of pack as well as to the product.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

Issued this 18th day of December 1942.

LAMB AND MUTTON CARCASSES AND CUTS AT WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

The title and preamble are amended, and §§ 1364.151 to 1364.165, inclusive, are amended to read as set forth below: Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239—Lamb and Mutton Carcasses and Cuts at Wholesale and Retail. In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 issued by the President on October 3, 1942, to establish prices for mutton and to maintain as the maximum prices for lamb carcasses and cuts the general level of prices prevailing with respect thereto during the period July 27, 1942, to July 31, 1942, inclusive. Prices determined for lamb as provided for in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation reflect the prices prevailing during such period. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of lamb and mutton prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this revised regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this revised regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act and Executive Order. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this revised regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The maximum prices established herein are not below prices which will reflect to producers of the agricultural commodities from which lamb and mutton carcasses and cuts are produced a price for their products equal to the highest of the prices required by the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and by the Executive Order of October 3, 1942.

SUBPART A—PROVISIONS RELATING TO ALL SALES AT WHOLESALE AND RETAIL OF MUTTON AND LAMB

§ 1364.151 Prohibition against dealing in lamb or mutton at prices above the maximum. (a) On and after December 23, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any lamb or mutton carcass or cut, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any lamb or mutton carcass or cut at prices higher than the maximum prices established pursuant to this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239, and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

§ 1364.152 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

§ 1364.153 Exempt sales. The provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 shall not apply to the following sales or deliveries:

(a) By a farmer of lamb or mutton from livestock bred or raised on his farm. However, this Revised Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to a sale or delivery by a farmers' cooperative and to a sale or delivery directly by a farmer of lamb or mutton if during the preceding calendar month the farmer's sales of all food products produced on his farm exceeded $75.

(b) By hotels, restaurants, cafes, or other similar establishments of lamb and mutton prepared and sold for consumption on the premises.

(c) Deliveries made to any political subdivision or agency of any state or of the United States under contracts entered into prior to December 23, 1942: Provided, That this exemption shall not be construed to permit the upward revision of any prices fixed in such contracts.

(d) Sales in which delivery is made outside of the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

§ 1364.154 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export any lamb or mutton carcass or cut shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Export Price Regulation[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1364.156 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, proceedings for suspension of licenses, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, or any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration, or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1364.157 Licensing. (a) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 14 (Licensing Sellers of Meat and Meat Products)[3] are applicable to every seller making sales, other than at retail, of lamb and mutton for which maximum prices are established by this revised regulation. The term "seller" for the purposes of this paragraph shall have the meaning given it by Supplementary Order No. 14.

(b) The registration and licensing provisions of §§ 1499.15 and 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are applicable to every person making a sale at retail of lamb and mutton for which maximum prices are established by this revised regulation. The term "sale at retail" for the purposes of this paragraph shall have the meaning given it by § 1499.20 (o) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

§ 1364.158 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1364.159 Records and reports. (a) Every person subject to this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 shall keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required in §§ 1364.165 and 1364.173 of this revised regulation and shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as that Office may from time to time require or permit.

(1) "Person" includes any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency therof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing: Provided, That no punishment provided by this revised regulation shall apply to the United States or to any such government, political subdivision, or agency.

(2) "Seller" means any person who sells, supplies, disposes, barters, exchanges, transfers, or delivers, or contracts or offers to do any of the foregoing, including but not limited to a car route or packer's branch house. Where a person makes sales from more than one place of business, each separate place of business of such person shall be deemed to be a separate seller. Each distribution point from which a car route or car routes originate shall be deemed a separate seller.

(3) "Sales at retail" means sales to the ultimate consumer: Provided, That no wholesaler, processor, packer, slaughterer, branch house, hotel supply house, purchaser for resale, car route, commercial user, purveyor of meals, or government agency shall be deemed to be an ultimate consumer, except that a sale to a purveyor of meals on usual retail terms by a retailer at least 80% of whose sales of meat during the preceding calendar month were made to ultimate consumers shall be deemed a sale at retail.

(4) "Retailer" means a seller regularly and generally engaged in making sales at retail.

(5) "Hotel supply house" means a seller of lamb or mutton who, as an established practice, handles lamb and mutton for the purpose of boning, trimming, and cutting or otherwise fabricating such lamb and mutton for resale to hotels, restaurants, and other purveyors of meals.

(6) "Kosher dealer" means a person who maintains a kosher selling establishment at or through which he regularly sells kosher meat as such.

(7) "Lamb" means the whole or any portion of the carcass of the young animal of the genus Ovis, approximately a year old or less, as ascertained by the objective tests commonly recognized in the meat packing industry and specifically by the "break joint" and by bone and flesh coloration. For the purposes of this revised regulation, the term "lamb" includes, except as otherwise provided, the whole or any portion of a yearling carcass which is a carcass from an animal of the ovine species that has passed the lamb age and lost to an appreciable extent the flesh characteristics which are peculiar to lamb, but has not reached, at time of slaughter, that state of maturity which characterizes mutton and which is in no event older than 24 months.

(8) "Mutton" means the whole or any portion of the carcass from a mature animal of the genus Ovis, approximately 20 to 24 months old or more, which has passed the lamb stage as ascertained by the objective tests commonly recognized in the meat packing industry and specifically by the "break joint" and by bone and flesh coloration.

(9) "Cut" means, and is limited to, the following cuts derived from lamb or mutton, excluding the offal and other items covered by the General Maximum Price Regulation:

(i) Legs, loins, ribs, breasts, shanks, shoulders, necks, racks, hotel racks, fore saddles, hind saddles, kosher fores, steaks, rib chops, loin chops, shoulder chops, crown roasts, rolled roasts, including all combinations of such cuts and all cuts or trimimngs derived from such cuts or from the lamb or mutton carcass.

(ii) Rough or trimmed, bone in or boneless, whole, sliced, or ground.

(iii) Fresh or frozen, cooked, dried, or canned.

(iv) Loose, wrapped, or packed.

Fresh and frozen cuts shall not be considered separate cuts. Quick frozen cuts, if customarily priced separately from other frozen cuts, shall be considered separate cuts.

(10) "Kosher cuts" mean cuts derived from lamb or sheep slaughtered, approved and stamped under rabbinical supervision and sold under rabbinical supervision.

SUBPART B—PROVISIONS RELATING TO SALES AT RETAIL

§ 1364.161 Maximum prices for lamb sold at retail. (a) The retailer's maximum price for the sale at retail of lamb carcasses and cuts shall be the highest price charged by him for each grade of carcass or cut during the period July 27, 1942, to July 31, 1942, inclusive. If the retailer did not deal in lamb carcasses or cuts during that period, his maximum price shall be the highest price charged during that period by his most closely competitive seller.

(b) The "highest price charged" means the highest price charged for lamb carcasses or cuts delivered during the period July 27, 1942, to July 31, 1942, inclusive, or if no delivery was made during that period, the highest offering price for delivery during that period.

(c) In determining differences in price based upon differences in grade, the retailer shall follow the same grading practices he followed during the period July 27, 1942, to July 31, 1942, inclusive.

(d) No retailer shall change his customary allowances, discounts, or other price differentials unless such change results in a lower price.

§ 1364.162 Maximum prices for mutton sold at retail. (a) The retailer's maximum price for the sale at retail of mutton carcasses and cuts shall be three cents above the highest price charged by him for each grade of carcass or cut during the period September 28, 1942, to October 2, 1942, inclusive. If the retailer did not deal in mutton carcasses or cuts during that period, his maximum price shall be three cents above the highest price charged during that period by his most closely competitive retail seller.

(b) The "highest price charged" means the highest price charged for mutton carcasses or cuts delivered during the period September 28, 1942, to October 2, 1942, inclusive, or if no delivery was made during that period, the highest offering price for delivery during that period.

(c) In determining differences in price based upon differences in grade, the retailer shall follow the same grading practices he followed during the period September 28, 1942 to October 2, 1942 inclusive.

(d) No retailer shall change his customary allowances, discounts, or other price differentials unless such change results in a power price.

§ 1364.164 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of, or relating to lamb or mutton alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or services or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement, combination sale, or other trade understanding. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no person shall require as a condition of selling one or more commodities included within this Revised Maximum Price Regulation that any purchaser or prospective purchaser purchase or agree to purchase any other commodity or commodities whether or not such other commodity or commodities are included within this or any maximum price regulation.

§ 1364.165 Records to be kept by retailers. (a) Every retailer subject to this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 making sales or deliveries of lamb or mutton shall preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration all his existing records relating to the prices which he charged for lamb delivered or supplied during the period July 27, 1942, to July 31, 1942, inclusive, and all his existing records relating to the prices which he charged for mutton delivered or supplied during the period September 28, 1942, to October 2, 1942, inclusive, and his offering prices for delivery or supply of lamb and mutton during such periods, and shall keep for examination by any person during ordinary business hours, a statement showing (1) the highest prices charged for lamb carcasses and cuts delivered or supplied during the period July 27, 1942, to July 31, 1942, inclusive, and the highest prices charged for mutton carcasses and cuts delivered or supplied during the period September 28, 1942, to October 2, 1942, inclusive, and his offering prices for delivery or supply of lamb carcasses and cuts or mutton carcasses and cuts during such periods, together with an appropriate identification of each such cut of lamb or mutton; and

(2) all his customary allowances, discounts, and other price differentials.

(b) Records of purchases made by sellers at retail. Every seller at retail shall preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration all invoices, sales slips, bills or receipts covering purchases of lamb or mutton made by him after December 23, 1942.

SUBPART C—PROVISIONS RELATING TO SALES AND PURCHASES OTHER THAN AT RETAIL

§ 1364.166 Maximum prices for lamb and mutton for all sales other than sales at retail. (a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this section which covers sales of canned lamb and mutton, the seller's maximum prices for lamb or mutton carcasses and cuts for all sales other than sales at retail shall be the maximum prices established for the applicable zone, as set forth in Appendices A through H hereof, inclusive, incorporated herein as §§ 1364.176 to 1364.183, plus the permitted additions, if any, specified in § 1364.170, minus the required deductions, if any, specified in § 1364.171. These prices are subject to the maximum price instructions contained in § 1364.169. The applicable zone is to be determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1364.169.

(b) The provisions of §§ 1364.167 to 1364.185 shall not apply to sales of canned lamb and mutton. The maximum price for sales of canned lamb or mutton shall be determined according to the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation except that the period July 27, 1942, to July 31, 1942, inclusive, shall be substituted for the period of the month of March 1942 in determining the highest price which may be charged for canned lamb and the period September 28 to October 2, 1942, inclusive, shall be substituted, in determining the highest price which may be charged for canned mutton, in accordance with §§ 1499.2 and 1499.3.

§ 1364.167 Duty to maintain and identify grades and to determine maximum prices and to invoice accordingly. No person shall sell, offer for sale, deliver, or break, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any lamb or mutton carcass or wholesale or hotel supply cut after December 23, 1942, unless such carcass or cut has been identified by grade and marked in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, each lamb carcass prior to being sold, offered for sale, delivered, or broken shall be graded into one of the four grades set forth below and marked accordingly, and each mutton carcass into one of the three grades set forth below and marked accordingly. Each wholesale cut other than the chuck, breast, and shank, boneless shoulder roll, kidney, boneless lean meat, or boneless meat prior to being sold, offered for sale, delivered, or broken shall be graded when derived from a lamb carcass into one of the four grades set forth below, the grade to depend upon the quality of the carcass, and marked accordingly, and when derived from a mutton carcass into one of the three grades set forth below and marked accordingly. Each hotel supply cut shall be graded when derived from a lamb carcass into one of the four grades set forth below, the grade to depend upon the quality of the carcass, and when derived from a mutton carcass, into one of the two grades set forth below.

Lambs which meet or exceed the specifications for choice lamb shall constitute one grade identified by the grade letters "AA". Lambs which meet the specifications for good lamb, together with such yearlings as satisfy the specifications for choice yearling mutton, shall form a second grade identified by the grade letter "A". Lambs which meet the specifications for commercial lamb, together with such yearlings as satisfy the specifications for good yearling mutton, shall form a third grade identified by the letter "B". All other lambs which include lambs grading utility or below and yearling mutton grading commercial or below shall make up a fourth grade identified by the letter "C".

Mutton carcasses which meet or exceed the specifications for good mutton shall be put in one grade identified by the letter "S". Mutton carcasses which meet or exceed the specifications for commercial mutton shall be put in a second grade identified by the letter "M". All other mutton carcasses which includes all mutton grading utililty or below shall be placed in a third grade identified by the letter "R".

The terms "choice, good, commercial, and utility" used herein refer to "Specifications for official United States standards for grades of lamb carcasses, yearling mutton, and mutton carcasses" set forth in Appendix J hereof and incorporated herein as § 1364.185.

(b) Each lamb or mutton carcass shall be marked with its appropriate grade by having stamped on it the grade letter on both legs, loins, racks, and shoulders, so that in total the grade letter will appear eight times upon the carcass. Each wholesale cut except the chuck, breast and shank, boneless shoulder roll, kidney, boneless lean meat, or boneless meat shall be marked with the appropriate grade by having stamped on it the grade letter. The grade letter shall be at least ½ inch in height and width. The stamp shall be placed on the carcass with harmless marking fluid conforming to the formula for violet branding fluid approved by the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Animal Industry, set forth in Appendix I hereof, and incorporated herein as § 1364.184.

(c) Where lamb or mutton is reserved for sale to a war procurement agency, and is not offered for sale to any other buyer, the carcass need not be marked in the manner required by this section provided that the carcass is stamped by such agency in a manner which clearly indicates the grade of the carcass in terms of an established grading system having a uniform relationship to the grades prescribed by this section. In the event that such lamb or mutton carcass or any cut derived therefrom is subsequently offered for sale or sold to any other buyer, it shall be grade-marked in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(d) Where any or all of the lamb or mutton carcass is to be boned before being sold or offered for sale, no grade letter need be put on the part of the carcass to be boned prior to such boning. In the event that such lamb or mutton is subsequently not boned and is offered for sale or sold, it shall be grade-marked in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(e) Use of other grading and branding systems. Any seller may use a private grading and branding system in addition to that required by the foregoing paragraphs of this section: Provided, That he shall identify his private grading and branding stamp in such manner as to distinguish it from the official grade stamp required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(f) Each invoice, sales slip or other memorandum of sale covering sales of lamb or mutton carcasses, wholesale cuts or hotel supply cuts, shall show the grade of lamb or mutton carcass or cut sold.

(g) The grade letter is not required on lamb or mutton on which the official United States grade mark has been placed by an official grader.

§ 1364.168 Notification to retailers of maximum prices. On and after December 23, 1942 any seller of lamb or mutton to any purchaser engaged in selling lamb or mutton at retail shall supply such purchaser, before, or at the time of his first delivery of lamb or mutton, a written notification to read as follows:

NOTIFICATION TO RETAILERS OF MAXIMUM PRICES

FOR LAMB AND MUTTON

The OPA has established specific dollar ceiling prices at wholesale for lamb and mutton.

You are authorized to establish ceiling prices on mutton by adding three cents per pound to the highest price you charged during the period September 28 to October 2, 1942, inclusive.

You are required to maintain your present retail ceiling prices on lamb.

You may charge hotels, restaurants, and other purveyors of meals your retail ceiling prices only if at least 80% of your total sales of meat during the preceding calendar month are made to persons buying for their own family consumption. If such sales were less than 80% you are required to charge purveyors of meals according to the wholesale prices established in Revised Maximum Price Regulation 239.

The OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

§ 1364.169 Maximum price instructions. The following maximum price instructions are applicable to the maximum prices set forth in §§ 1364.176 to 1364.183, inclusive, (Appendices A to H inclusive).

(a) Determination of prices for sales involving fractions of a hundredweight. All prices, charges, additions and deductions are stated, except where otherwise indicated, on a per hundredweight basis. If a quantity smaller than a hundred pounds or not a multiple of one hundred pounds is sold, the charge must be adjusted accordingly. (For example, the seller is allowed to charge cost up to $.50 per hundredweight for freezing. If only ten pounds is sold the maximum charge which may be made for freezing is $.05; if 110 pounds, $.55.)

(b) Determination of applicable zone prices. The applicable maximum prices for all sales other than sales at retail shall be determined as follows:

(1) Except on sales to a war procurement agency, the applicable zone price shall be the price specified in §§ 1364.176 to 1364.183 (Appendices A to H) for the zone in which is located the seller's distribution point. The schedule for each price zone contains a statement setting forth the states or counties in each state which are included within the price zone covered by that schedule. The distribution point is the packing or slaughtering plant, hotel-restaurant supply establishment, branch house, warehouse, or car route unloading point:

(i) At which the buyer takes actual physical possession of the meat; or

(ii) From which delivery by the seller, otherwise than by rail, to the buyer's place of business begins; or

(iii) From which the meat, consigned to the buyer, (a) is delivered to a common carrier, other than a railroad, for shipment to the buyer, who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier, or (b) is delivered to a railroad for shipment at the carload rate to the buyer who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier.

(iv) In the case of a less than carload rail shipment, other than an express shipment to a purveyor of meals, the applicable zone price shall be the price for the zone in which is located the rail terminal point nearest to the buyer's place of business.

(v) On sales to purveyors of meals the distribution point may be, in addition to those listed, the point at which lamb or mutton consigned to the buyer is delivered to a railway express company for shipment by express to the buyer who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier.

(2) On sales to a war procurement agency the applicable zone price shall be at the option of the buyer the prices specified in §§ 1364.176 to 1364.183 (Appendices A to H) for, either

(i) The zone in which is located the seller's distribution point, plus all transportation charges to the point of delivery, or

(ii) The zone in which is located the point at which the buyer takes delivery.

(c) Applicable zone price of miscuts. (1) For any lamb or mutton wholesale cut which has been miscut or for any piece or portion of lamb or mutton which has been cut in a manner not authorized by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239, the maximum price, except for sale at retail by a retailer, or sales to a purveyor of meals by a hotel supply house, shall be the applicable zone price of the lowest priced wholesale cut. The maximum price for a bracelet or chuck as defined in § 1364.174, except for a kosher bracelet or chuck when sold or offered for sale to a kosher dealer or purveyor of kosher meals, shall be the applicable zone price of the lowest priced wholesale cut.

(2) For any lamb or mutton sold to a purveyor of meals by a hotel supply house, other than a wholesale cut or a hotel supply cut as defined in § 1364.174, the maximum price shall be the applicable zone price of the lowest price hotel supply cut.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prevent the canning of lamb or mutton and the sale of such canned lamb or mutton.

(d) Sales of kosher meat limited to kosher dealers and purveyors of meals. (1) Lamb or mutton carcasses or cuts shall not be sold, offered for sale, or delivered as kosher and shall not be purchased or received in the course of trade or business as kosher by any purchaser other than a kosher dealer or a purveyor of kosher meals.

(2) If meat derived from lamb or sheep slaughtered and stamped under rabbinical supervision is sold or delivered to a purchaser other than a kosher dealer or a purveyor of kosher meals, no more can be charged or received for it than if such meat had not been derived from animals so slaughtered and stamped, and the stamp showing the meat to have been so derived must be removed from the meat prior to delivery, and such meat may not be received, offered for resale, or resold until such stamp has been removed.

§ 1364.170 Amounts which may be added to zone lamb and mutton prices listed in Appendices A to H—(a) Sales by independent wholesalers and independent hotel supply houses. Any independent wholesaler or independent hotel supply house may add to the applicable maximum prices on wholesale cuts $0.25 per cwt.

(b) Wrapping and dressing. (1) For wrapping lamb or mutton carcasses in one stockinette there may be added $0.10 per cwt.

(2) For dressing or wrapping lamb or mutton carcasses in two stockinettes, or in kraft paper or in other special wrapping involving an additional cost in excess of ten cents on sales to the war procurement agencies or to persons operating ocean going vessels engaged in the transportation of cargo and passengers as ship stores for consumption aboard such vessel there may be added actual cost for direct material and labor not to exceed $0.25 per cwt.

(c) Packaging and boxing. (1) For boxing boneless lamb and boneless mutton for domestic shipment in hundred pound wood, fiber or corrugated boxes or barrel, $0.25 per cwt.

(2) For boxing for export shipment in kraft-paper-lined, weather-proof, telescoped style, solid fiber 50-pound boxes bound with wire or iron bands in accordance with the specifications of the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation, $0.50 per cwt.

(3) For packing cuts in wood, fiber or corrugated boxes or barrels on sales to hotels, restaurants, and other purveyors of meals, $0.25 per cwt.

(d) Freezing. (1) For freezing by the seller, cost for direct material and labor not to exceed, $0.50 per cwt.

(2) For freezing by commercial freezer, cost for direct material and labor for such freezing plus transportation charges calculated at the lowest common carrier rate for a similar haul—both not to exceed $0.50 per cwt.

(e) Telescoped lambs. For all operations, other than freezing performed in trimming, preparing, and wrapping telescoped style lamb and mutton, the following additions based upon the finished weight may be added to the applicable maximum prices for round-dressed carcasses, plucks out:

Grade:	Addition, per cwt.
AA lamb	$1.00
A	.95
B	.90
C	.85
S mutton	.80
M mutton	.80

(f) Lamb or mutton kidneys. (1) For removing the outer protective membrane and cleaning of all particles and preparing lamb and mutton kidneys, $6.25 per cwt.

(2) For packing lamb and mutton kidneys in one pound cartons and in shipping containers, $3.25 per cwt.

(g) Pickled mutton. For preparing pickled mutton and packing in hard wood barrels the following addition based upon the finished weight may be added to the applicable maximum prices for round-dressed carcasses, plucks out, $3.50 per cwt.

(h) Transportation and delivery. Subject to the limitations in paragraph (h) (4) of this section the following may be added to the applicable zone prices for transporting lamb or mutton from the point of slaughter to the distribution point and for delivering from the distribution point to the buyer's place of business.

(1) For transportation from the point at which the meat was slaughtered to the seller's distribution point. (i) If the distribution point from which the sale is made is not the slaughter plant where the meat was slaughtered or a slaughter or packing plant controlled by the slaughterer, and if both it and the point of slaughter are located in price zones 2, 3, or 4, the seller may make a charge equal to the cost of transporting the meat from the point of slaughter to the distribution point but not to exceed, $.50 per cwt.

(ii) If the distribution point from which the sale is made is not the slaughter plant where the meat was slaughtered or a slaughter or packing plant controlled by the slaughterer, and if the distribution point is located in price zones 1 or 5 to 10, inclusive, and the point of slaughter is located in the same price zone as the distribution point, the seller may make a charge equal to the cost of transporting the meat from the point of slaughter to the distribution point but not to exceed, $.25 per cwt.

(2) For delivery from the distribution point to the buyer's place of business. (i) If meat is delivered by the seller to the place of business of a retailer, independent wholesaler, independent hotel supply house or commercial user, or to the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency or other government agency, located within a radius of 25 miles from the distribution point the seller may charge, $.25 per cwt.

(ii) If meat is delivered by the seller to the place of business of a retailer, independent wholesaler, independent hotel supply house or commercial user, or to the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency or other government agency located more than 25 miles from the point of distribution, the seller may add the actual cost of transportation but not to exceed $.50 per cwt. from a distribution point in price zones 1, 5 to 10, inclusive, and $.75 from a distribution point in price zones 2, 3, or 4.

(iii) Where the distribution point and the buyer's place of business coincide as in the case of truck routes the seller may, at his option, treat the point of origin of the truck route as the distribution point.

(3) For delivery by an independent wholesaler, independent hotel supply house or other intermediate distributor. If the seller is an independent wholesaler or independent hotel supply house who has paid a charge under paragraph (h) of this section for delivery and/or transportation, he may upon the resale of the meat upon which the charge has been made add the amount of such charge up to $.25 upon sales made from a distribution point located in price zones 1 and 5 to 10, inclusive, and up to $.50, in price zones 2, 3 and 4.

(4) Limitation on total charge for transportation and delivery. Notwithstanding any of the provisions of paragraphs (h) (1) to (h) (3), inclusive, of this section, nothing therein contained shall be construed to permit a total charge for transportation and for delivery from the point at which the meat was slaughtered to the place of business or receiving point of a retail seller, purveyor of meals, war procurement agency, other government agency or commercial user of more than $.50 per cwt., in price zones 1, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10, or $.75 per cwt. in price zones 2, 3 or 4. The additions specified in this paragraph (h) for transportation and for local delivery may be charged: Provided, That the seller shall itemize separately on an invoice to the buyer the amount charged the buyer for transportation and for delivery.

(5) How to compute cost. The cost of transportation or delivery is to be computed on the basis of the lowest common carrier rate for the method of transportation employed.

(6) Railway express shipments. Where lamb or mutton is shipped by express to a purveyor of meals by a hotel supply house no charge may be made by the seller for transportation or delivery. The buyer pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier.

§ 1364.171 Amounts which must be deducted from the zone lamb and mutton prices listed in Appendices A to H. The following shall be deducted from the applicable zone prices:

(a) Sales to wholesalers. For all lamb or mutton carcasses or cuts sold or delivered to wholesalers or jobbers in less than carload quantities, the seller shall deduct, $0.50 per cwt.

(b) Carload sales. For all lamb or mutton carcasses or cuts sold or delivered in carload lots, the seller shall deduct, $0.75 per cwt.

§ 1364.172 Evasion. (a) The price limitations set forth in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to lamb or mutton or in conjunction with any other commodity or services, or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying agreement, combination sale or other trade understanding.

(b) Specifically, but not exclusively, the following practices are prohibited:

(1) Unnecessarily routing lamb or mutton through any distribution point in order to obtain a higher zone price or for the purpose of making a higher delivery charge.

(2) Making or receiving a charge for delivery on the basis of a route different from that actually followed and in excess of that permitted for the route by which the lamb or mutton is actually delivered.

(3) Falsely or wrongly grading or invoicing lamb or mutton.

(4) Selling or invoicing lamb or mutton at kosher prices to other than kosher dealers or kosher purveyors of meals.

(5) Selling or invoicing lamb or mutton by hotel supply houses to persons other than purveyors of meals at the prices allowed on sales to purveyors of meals.

(6) Requiring as a condition of selling one or more commodities included within this Maximum Price Regulation that any purchaser or prospective purchaser purchase or agree to purchase any other commodity or commodities whether or not such other commodity or commodities are included within this or any maximum price regulation.

§ 1364.173 Records and reports. Every seller subject to this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 making sales or deliveries of lamb or mutton carcasses or cuts other than at retail after December 22, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, is in effect;

(a) A complete and accurate record of each such sale or delivery showing the date of sale, the name and address of the buyer, the quantities, weights and grades sold and the prices charged therefor. Kosher sales and sales to purveyors of meals are to be shown as such; and

(b) If such seller sells to purveyors of meals, a complete and accurate record for each calendar month commencing with January showing: (1) The total inventory at the beginning of each month, total additions to inventory during the month and total inventory at the end of each month of carcasses, wholesale cuts, hotel supply cuts, for each type of cut by grades and weights, and of by products; (2) total sales during the month of carcasses, wholesale cuts and hotel supply cuts, showing for each type of cut the amount sold to purveyors of meals and the amount sold to all other purchasers, the total realization, and the average selling price, shown separately for purveyors of meals and all other purchasers; (3) gross margin over cost of meat on sales to purveyors of meals; (4) total sales of by products by weight and dollar amount for each kind of by product; (5) percentage of dollar volume which sales of hotel supply cuts are to total sales made to purveyors of meals.

(1) "Price Zone Numbers 1 to 10, inclusive" means the geographical districts defined in §§ 1364.176 to 1364.183 (Appendices A to H).

(2) A "wholesaler" means a person other than a hotel supply house who buys lamb or mutton for resale other than at retail.

(3) An "independent wholesaler" means a wholesaler who does not own or control, in whole or in substantial part, any slaughtering plant or facilities, and who is not owned or controlled, in whole or in substantial part, by another person who owns or controls in substantial part any slaughtering plant or facilities.

(4) An "independent hotel supply house" means a hotel supply house which does not own or control, in whole or in substantial part, any slaughtering plant or facilities, and who is not owned or controlled, in whole or in substantial part, by another person who owns or controls in substantial part any slaughtering plant or facilities.

(5) "Lower price zone" means a price zone having a lower zone price. "Higher price zone" means a zone having a higher zone price.

(6) "War procurement agency" includes the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, the Lend-Lease Section of the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the War Shipping Administration, or any agency of the foregoing.

(7) "Carload" means:

(i) A shipment by rail of fresh or frozen meat to a single delivery point, of at least the minimum weight upon which the railroad carload rate from the point of shipment to the delivery point, as evidenced by the tariffs of carriers, is based: Provided, That where the transportation charge for shipment of a lesser weight at the railroad carload rate will be lower than the transportation charge for such a shipment at the railroad less-than-carload rate, such lesser weight shall be considered a carload.

(ii) A shipment by motor truck or trucks, to a single delivery point of 15,000 pounds or more of fresh and/or frozen meat, as a single transaction; and

(iii) Any single transaction wherein the buyer takes delivery at the seller's place of business of 15,000 pounds or more of fresh and/or frozen meat.

(8) "Pluck" means the lungs, liver and heart.

(9) "Round dressing" means the type of dressing in which the pelt, head, front and hind trotters, and all internal organs except kidneys and melts are removed. The pluck may be left in or out.

(10) "Wholesale cut" means, and is limited, to the following cuts meeting the following minimum specifications, derived from the carcass of the lamb or mutton, excluding the offal and other items covered by the General Maximum Price Regulation:

(i) "Hindsaddle" and "hindquarter" means the double and single hindquarters, respectively, including the 13th rib. The hindsaddle is made by cutting between the 12th and 13th ribs following the curvature of the ribs close to the 12th rib to the point where the 12th rib turns. The cut is completed by following a line through the flank at a right angle to the chine bone. This cut is split in half through the center of the chine bone to make the hindquarter.

(ii) "Foresaddle" and "forequarter" means the double and single forequarters, respectively, and includes 12 ribs. It is the anterior portion of the carcass remaining after the removal of the hindsaddle. The foresaddle is made by cutting between the 12th and 13th ribs following the curvature of the ribs close to the 12th rib to the point where the 12th rib turns. The cut is completed by following a line through the flank at a right angle to the chine bone. This cut is split in half through the center of the chine bone to make the forequarter.

(iii) "Legs" and "leg" mean a pair of legs and one leg, respectively. The legs are separated from the loin by cutting squarely in a line at a right angle to the chine bone, just exposing the end or point of the hip bone and leaving all of the hip bone in the leg. The cut shall be made in a straight line which is perpendicular to the contour of the outside or skin surface of the hindsaddle. The pair of legs may then be split through the center to make the single leg.

(iv) "Loin" and "half loin" means the double and single loin, respectively, and is the part of the hindsaddle which remains after the legs have been removed. The loin is separated from the hindsaddle by cutting squarely in a line at a right angle to the chine bone, just exposing the end or point of the hip bone, leaving none of the hip bone in the loin. The cut shall be made in a straight line which is perpendicular to the outside or skin surface of the hindsaddle. The loin includes the 13th rib and is not trimmed, i. e., it includes the flank, kidney and fat. The half loin is made by splitting the loin in half through the center of the chine bone.

(v) "Hotel rack" may be either the double or single rib sections from the 5th to the 12th ribs, inclusive, minus the breast. It is made by cutting the foresaddle or forequarter, starting at a point on the 12th rib not more than four inches down from the point of the eye, cutting in a straight line to a point on the 5th rib which is not more than four inches from the hollow of the chine bone on the inside, in the lamb carcass, and not more than four and one-half inches from the hollow of the chine bone on the inside in the mutton carcass. It is then separated from the yoke by cutting betweeen the 4th and 5th ribs following the curvature of the ribs close to the 4th rib. It may be split through the center of the chine bone to make two single rib sections.

(vi) "Yoke" means the foresaddle minus the hotel rack. It consists of the neck, brisket, breast, shanks, and shoulders. The half yoke is made by splitting the yoke in half through the chine bone and neck bone.

(vii) "Bracelet" means a subdivision of the foresaddle consisting of the ribs and breast from the 5th to the 12th ribs, inclusive. The bracelet is made by cutting the foresaddle or forequarter between the 4th and 5th ribs following the curvature of the ribs close to the 4th rib until this rib turns to join the breast bone at which point the cut is completed by following a line through the breast at a right angle to the chine bone. It may be split through the center of the chine bone.

(viii) "Chuck" means the subdivision of the foresaddle left after cutting a bracelet and consists of the neck, shoulders, shank, brisket, and breast. It includes the 1st to the 4th ribs. It is separated from the foresaddle or forequarter by cutting between the 4th and 5th ribs following the curvature of the ribs close to the 4th rib until this rib turns to join the breast bone at which point the cut is completed by following a line through the breast at a right angle to the chine bone. It may be split through the center of the chine bone.

(ix) "4-rib shoulder" means a cut made from the yoke or chuck by cutting in a straight line starting at a point on the 4th rib not more than four inches from the hollow of the chine bone on the inside in the mutton carcass passing through a point at the forward end of the first segment of the sternum or breast bone. This cut will separate the shoulder from the brisket, breast, and shank. When the shoulder has been separated from the breast and shank the only bone to show on the side of the shoulder other than the ribs is the arm bone. It may be split through the center of the chine bone. This cut may be made as a wholesale cut only for the purpose of preparing a boneless lamb roll.

(x) "Breast and shank" means the part of the yoke which remains after the 4-rib shoulder has been removed.

(xi) "Boneless lamb roll" means the boneless meat derived from a 4-rib shoulder with the neck on. This meat is entirely boned, rolled into a cylindrical shape, trimmed of loose or irregular portions at the ends, and tied, and may be wrapped in lamb or beef caul fat. This caul fat shall not exceed ½ inch in thickness at any point and shall not exceed 12 percent in weight of the finished roll.

(xii) "Lean boneless lamb or mutton" means boneless lamb or mutton meat respectively from any part of the carcass. In preparing this meat, the pluck and all cords, sinews, neck straps, kidneys, and melts are to be removed. No trimmable fat in excess of 8 percent in weight is to be left on the meat.

(xiii) "Regular boneless mutton" means boneless mutton meat from all, or any part of the carcass. In preparing this meat, the pluck and all cords, sinews, neck straps, kidneys, and melts are to be removed. No trimmable fat in excess of 30 percent in weight is to be left on the meat.

(xiv) "Kidneys, bulk" means lamb or sheep kidneys with the kidney fat removed.

(xv) "Telescoped style lamb" or "telescoped style mutton" means a lamb or mutton carcass prepared in accordance with the specifications set forth in Amendment 19, Revision No. 1 to Schedule FSCC-10, Meat Products Purchase Specifications, of the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation of the United States Department of Agriculture.

(xvi) "Pickled mutton" is mutton prepared in the following manner: The kidney, melts and excessive internal fat is removed; the meat is then cut into pieces weighing two to four pounds each, from which all surface fat in excess of ¾ inch in thickness is removed, and which are free of blood clots; these pieces of meat are cured from 20 to 25 days in 100 degree pickle containing approximately one ounce of nitrate of soda per gallon, and are overhauled at five and ten days of age. After curing, the mutton is packed in hardwood barrels, 200 pound cured net weight to the barrel. The meat is topped off with 60 pounds of fine salt per barrel and sufficient new pickle of the same kind and strength as used in curing is added to fill the barrel.

(10) "Hotel supply cuts" means the following cuts derived from the permitted wholesale cuts:

(i) "Leg, oven-prepared" means the leg cut as described in paragraph (9) (iii) of this section with all bones except the leg bone (femur) removed. The leg bone means the bone between the stifle joint and the rump bone.

(ii) "Leg, boned, rolled, and tied" means the leg cut as described in paragraph (9) (iii) of this section prepared in the following manner: All bones are removed, the fell is pulled off the shank meat up to the stifle joint, the shank meat is either cut off and placed lengthwise in the pocket left by the aitch and leg bones, or folded back, and the meat is then rolled into a cylindrical shape and tied with at least four loops.

(iii) "Loin, flank on, kidney and suet out" means the loin cut as described in paragraph (9) (iv) of this section with the kidney and all surrounding suet removed. The fat in the loin shall be trimmed smooth and trimming by a knife shall be apparent.

(iv) "Loin, flank off, kidney and suet out" means the loin prepared as described in the preceding paragraph with the flank removed. The flank shall be removed by starting at a point on the 13th rib not more than four inches down from the point of the eye and then cutting in a straight line to a point at the other end not more than four-and-a-half inches from the chine bone.

(v) "Loin chops" mean chops cut from the loin, prepared as described in the preceding paragraph with the flank off and the kidney and suet out, from which the 13th rib has been removed. To make chops, the fell is removed and the loin is then split into two parts along the center of the chine bone. Each half is further separated by making cuts straight down on lines at right angles to the chine bone. Each half loin must be cut in this manner into at least four individual chops which may be of any desired size or weight.

(vi) "Loin, boned, rolled, and tied" means the loin prepared flank on, kidney and suet out, as described in paragraph (10) (iii) of this section, from which is removed one inch of the flank containing the gristle and sinews. The 13th rib and the entire chine bone are also removed. The loin meat is then rolled into a cylindrical shape and tied with at least four loops.

(vii) "Rib chops, regular" mean chops cut from the hotel rack in the following manner: The fell is removed together with all excess fat and the rack is then divided in the center of the chine bone. The single hotel rack is then divided into rib chops by splitting between the ribs into at least four rib sections which may be of any desired size or weight.

(viii) "Rib chops, 5th to 7th rib" mean chops made from the forward end of the hotel rack as described in the preceding paragraph, which include the 5th, 6th, and 7th ribs and which contain segments of shoulder-blade bone or cartilage.

(ix) "Rib chops, 8th to 12th" mean chops made from the back end of the hotel rack as described in paragraph (10) (vi) of this section which include the 8th to 12th ribs and which do not contain any segments of shoulder-blade bone or cartilage.

(x) "Yoke, boned, rolled and tied" means the yoke cut as described in paragraph (9) (vi) of this section with all bones removed, rolled into a cylindrical shape and tied with at least four loops.

(xi) "Yoke, boneless stew" means small cubes of boneless meat derived from the yoke, none of which is more than two cubic inches in size or contains more than one-fourth inch of fat or consists of more than 25 percent fat.

(xii) "Shoulder, boneless stew" means small cubes of boneless meat derived from the shoulder, none of which is more than two cubic inches in size or contains more than one-fourth inch of fat or consists of more than 25 percent fat.

(xiii) "Shoulder, boned, rolled, and tied" means the 4-rib shoulder cut as described in paragraph (9) (ix) of this section with all bones removed, rolled into a cylindrical shape and tied with at least four loops.

(xiv) "Shoulder, regular stew, bone in" means small cubes of meat derived from the 4-rib shoulder none of which is larger than two cubic inches in size.

(xv) "Breast and shank, regular stew, bone in" means small cubes of meat derived from the breast and shank cut as described in paragraph (9) (x) none of which is larger than two cubic inches in size.

(xvi) "Shank, braising" means a shank separated from the breast and shank cut as described in paragraph (9) (x) in the following manner: The shank is separated from the breast at the shank knuckle bones. The cut should start at the same point as that which separates the breast and shank from the shoulder. The lower fore shank bone is cut off at the knee joint.

(xvii) "Shank, regular stew, bone in" means small cubes of meat derived from the shanks cut as described in the preceding paragraph none of which is larger than two cubic inches in size.

(xviii) "Breast, regular stew, bone in" means small cubes of meat derived from the breast none of which is larger than two cubic inches in size. The breast is the part of the breast and shank which is left after the shank is severed as described in paragraph (10) (xvi) of this section. It includes the brisket.

§ 1364.175 Effective date. This revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 (§§ 1364.151 to 1364.185, inclusive) shall become effective December 23, 1942.

§ 1364.184 Appendix I: Formula for meat marking fluid. The following formula has been approved by the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Animal Industry, Meat Inspection Laboratory, to be used for marking meats under the provisions of meat inspection law:

Water	gallons	45
Pure grain alcohol, 95 per cent	gallons	38
Granulated cane sugar	pounds	100
Methyl violet	pounds	10

The methyl violet is dissolved in the alcohol and a portion of the water; the sugar is dissolved in the remaining portion of the water and added to the methyl violet solution. Thorough stirring facilitates solution of the methyl violet.

It is not necessary that the abovementioned formula be adhered to in every detail, but the proportions indicated should not be subjected to any considerable variation; otherwise the marking qualities of the fluid may be impaired. Instead of the pure grain alcohol specified in the formula, there may be employed pure grain alcohol, denatured according to formula 33 of the United States Bureau of Internal Revenue. When such denatured alcohol is used, it should be employed in the proportion indicated above. No additional methyl violet should be added. Instead of granulated cane sugar, pure granulated glucose may be added in the same proportion, or heavy corn sirup, if of suitable purity, may be used, provided due allowance is made for the water introduced in that way. All the ingredients used in preparing the marking fluid must be free from poisonous and harmful substances.

§ 1364.185 Appendix J: Specifications for Official United States Standards for Grades of Lamb Carcasses, Yearling Mutton, and Mutton Carcasses—(a) Lamb carcasses. (1) Choice or No. 1 grade lamb carcasses have excellent conformation, finish, and quality, but are usually slightly deficient in one or more respects as compared with Prime grade carcasses.

Choice grade carcasses are relatively short and compact, have short plump legs, broad thick backs, thick full loins, ribs, and chucks, short plump necks, and well-proportioned flanks and breasts. The general outlines resemble closely those of Prime grade carcasses. All fats are of good quality, white or slightly creamy. The outer covering of fat is smooth and usually well distributed, but may be deficient in this respect as compared with that on Prime grade carcasses. Loins and ribs are well covered with fat, which recedes to a moderately thin covering over hind legs and shoulders. The fat covering is interspersed with thin strips of pink flesh over the sides and a more even distribution over the lower limits of the breast and flanks. Interior fats are plentiful in the crotch and over the kidneys but not excessive. The flesh is fine-grained, firm, and has a light pink color. Bones are relatively small, soft, and tinged with blood. The break joint of the forelegs shows four smooth, moist, well-defined red ridges.

(2) Good or No. 2. Good or No. 2 grade lamb carcasses have good conformation, finish, and quality, but are deficient in one or more respects as compared with Choice grade carcasses.

Carcasses of this grade are well proportioned and reasonably plump but may be slightly deficient in breadth or depth across the hips, backs, or shoulders. Legs, although short and moderately plump, are more tapering than in carcasses of the higher grades. Loins, ribs, and chucks are thick and full, and necks are short and plump. There may be slight indications of paunchiness or a slight tendency toward the rangy type which is indicated by long tapering shanks and somewhat longer body. Bones are soft and tinged with red, both indicating a young animal. The break joints of the forelegs show four well-defined relatively soft red ridges.

The outer covering of fat is smooth and even over the back and hips, diminishing sharply toward the shanks and flanks. The fat covering is interspersed with thin strips of lean flesh under the fell, but these are not usually so pronounced as in Choice and Prime grade carcasses. Interior fats are plentiful, but they are unevenly distributed, being in greatest quantity in the regions of kidneys and crotch. All fats are of good quality and white or slightly creamy in color. The flesh is moderately firm, fine-grained, and light pink in color.

(3) Commercial or No. 3. Commercial or No. 3 lamb carcasses have fair conformation, finish, and quality.

Carcasses of this grade are usually somewhat angular or rangy in conformation, with moderately long, thin necks and shanks and relatively narrow hips, back, and shoulders. They have moderately long, tapering legs, and they lack the plumpness of the better grades. Ribs and loins are lacking somewhat in depth of flesh. The break joints of the forelegs show four well-defined soft ridges, but these lack redness to a marked degree.

Carcasses of this grade usually have a moderately thin outer covering of fat, but it is not evenly distributed. There are also some carcasses in this grade that have excessive quantities of fat which disqualify them for a higher grade. Interior fats are relatively scarce, the kidneys being only partially covered. Small quantities are also found in the crotch. The thin strips of lean under the fell are not nearly so prominent as in the better grades. Heavier carcasses of this grade or those approaching the yearling mutton stage have proportionately greater quantities of fat than have lighter carcasses. The flesh is usually inclined to be soft, spongy, and moderately fine-grained, or may be firm in carcasses from heavier and older animals. Its color varies from light to dark pink.

(4) Utility or No. 4. Utility or No. 4 grade lamb carcasses are angular and have poor conformation, finish, and quality.

All bones are prominent. Such carcasses are disproportionately long and narrow. The contour of the backbone is plainly visible from neck to tail. Sides are thin, and flanks are thin and flabby. There is little or no exterior or interior fat, slight traces being sometimes found around the kidneys and in the crotch. The heavier and older carcasses frequently have small patches of fat in the regions of the kidneys. This fat usually has a bluish tinge. Bones are usually soft, but they lack the redness of those in better grade carcasses. The break joints of the forelegs have knuckle ends removed and show four well-defined relatively soft ridges. Because of lack of finish the flesh is soft, spongy, and inclined to be watery. It appears coarse and fibrous. Its color may be dark pink or it may have a brownish tinge.

(5) Cull or No. 5. Cull or No. 5 grade lamb carcasses are not offered regularly for retail trade and are found in the markets only occasionally. Such carcasses are almost entirely devoid of visible fat and are of the most inferior conformation and quality. Proportion of bone to meat is very high. The flesh is dark, soft, coarse-grained, and owing to lack of nourishment or other causes, appears fibrous to a marked degree.

(b) Yearling mutton carcasses—(1) Choice or No. 1. Choice or No. 1 grade yearling mutton carcasses have excellent conformation, finish, and quality. They have relatively short and plump legs, thick loins and ribs, full-fleshed shoulders, thick breasts, and a length of body commensurate with depth and breadth of carcass. Choice grade carcasses have good breadth in proportion to length, but are relatively heavier in the fore quarters than lamb carcasses of the same grade. They resemble Choice grade lamb carcasses in many respects, but have proportionately longer bodies, legs, and necks, larger abdominal cavities, and more distended ribs. Compared with lamb, the bones are harder and whiter. Where the foot is removed from the foreleg the end of the bone shows a rough, dry, and comparatively hard surface.

The outer covering of fat is smooth and well distributed over loins, ribs, and shoulders. The fat covering is interspersed with thin strips of dark-pink flesh under the fell extending over the sides and has a more even distribution over the lower limits of the breasts and flanks. Interior fats are plentiful in the crotch, and the kidneys are well and evenly covered. All fats are of good quality, white or creamy, and inclined to be brittle. The flesh is moderately fine-grained, firm, and medium to dark pink in color.

(2) Good or No. 2. Good or No. 2 grade yearling mutton carcasses have good conformation, finish, and quality. Such carcasses, although reasonably plump, may be slightly deficient in breadth across the hips, back, and shoulders. Yearling mutton carcasses of this grade resemble Good grade lamb carcasses in many respects, but have proportionately longer bodies and legs, larger abdominal cavities, more distended ribs, and harder bones. The break joints of the forelegs are rough and dry and show little redness.

The outer covering of fat may be fairly even over the back, loin, and rumps, or it may be slightly rough. Interior fats are plentiful in the crotch, and the kidneys are usually well covered. The flesh is firm, moderately fine-grained, and has a deep pink to light red color.

(3) Commercial or No. 3. Commercial or No. 3 grade yearling mutton carcasses have fair conformation, finish, and quality. To some extent they lack the fullness or plumpness in legs, loins, and ribs found in Good grade carcasses. Shoulders are usually thinly fleshed and inclined to be rough, necks are long, and legs long and tapering. There is usually a thin covering of fat over the shoulders, a moderate quantity on the loins, ribs, and breasts, and practically none elsewhere on the exterior surface. Except for small quantities around the kidneys and in the crotch, interior fats are scant. Although the flesh is moderately fine-grained, it usually has a relatively high percentage of moisture and varies in color from deep pink to light red.

(c) Mutton carcasses—(1) Good or No. 2. Good or No. 2 grade mutton carcasses have good conformation, finish, and quality. Good grade carcasses, although well-proportioned and moderately plump, may be slightly deficient in breadth or depth across the hips, backs, and shoulders as compared with Choice carcasses. Legs are relatively short and thickly fleshed. Good grade carcasses generally have wider barrels and more distended ribs than Choice carcasses. The grade admits a higher percentage of ewes, and the bones may be slightly harder and more flinty.

The outer covering of fat, although fairly even, varies to some extent and may be slightly excessive on the rumps or deficient on the shoulders, breasts, and flanks. Interior fats are plentiful, but may be slightly deficient or excessive as compared with Choice grade carcasses, although not to a marked degree. The strips of lean under the fell on the sides are less prominent than on Choice grade carcasses, but these are well defined. The flesh is firm, slightly coarse-grained, and light to medium red in color.

(2) Commercial or No. 3. Commercial or No. 3 grade mutton carcasses have fair conformation, finish, and quality.

Carcasses of this grade lack the fullness or plumpness in legs, loins, and ribs found in carcasses of the better grades. Shoulders are only moderately well fleshed. Carcasses of this grade are relatively narrow through the hips and across the back, and the bones of the spinal column are prominent. Because of these deficiencies such carcasses appear somewhat longer and angular. The abdominal cavity is relatively wide, and the curvature of the ribs is very marked, especially in ewe mutton carcasses.

The thin strips of flesh under the fell, which are so prominent on well-finished carcasses, are only slightly in evidence on Commercial grade carcasses. There is usually a thin covering of fat over the back, loins, and rumps, but practically none on the legs. The flanks are inclined to be thin. There are moderate quantities of interior fats around the kidneys but not sufficient to cover them, and there are only traces elsewhere. The flesh is moderately firm, but somewhat coarse-grained and medium to dark red in color.

(3) Common or No. 4. Common or No. 4 grade mutton carcasses are the lowest grade offered regularly for retail purposes. They are angular in conformation, thinly fleshed, and lacking in finish. Such carcasses are narrow across the hips, loins, back, and shoulders. The contour of the backbone is plainly visible from end to end, and other bones are prominent. The grade consists principally of carcasses from old, thin-fleshed ewes. The bones are therefore usually hard, white, and flinty. Small and uneven patches of exterior fat are occasionally found on loins, back, or shoulders. There are usually traces of fat around the kidneys, but practically no other interior fats. That which is found is of poor quality. The flesh is coarse-grained, inclined to be soft and flabby, and dark red in color.

Part 1407—Rationing of Food and Food Products

[Restriction Order 1,[1] Amendment 9]

MEAT RESTRICTION

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1407.902 (b) is amended; § 1407.903 (a) is amended; a new § 1407.904a is added; § 1407.905 (a) is amended; a new paragraph (i) is added to § 1407.925, to read as set forth below:

§ 1407.902 Deliveries of slaughterers restricted. * * *

(b) Any slaughterer may, during Quota Period 2, deliver controlled meat against any unused portion of his quota for such type of controlled meat for Quota Period 1 in an amount not exceeding 10% of such quota and any slaughterer may, during Quota Period 1, deliver controlled meat against his quota for such type of controlled meat (other than beef) for Quota Period 2 in an amount not exceeding 10% of his quota for Quota Period 1.

* * * * *

§ 1407.903 Quotas established. (a) The quota of a slaughterer for each type of controlled meat for Quota Period 1 shall be the conversion weight obtained by multiplying the quota base for such type of controlled meat by the percentage set forth below:

Type of controlled meat:	Percentage
Beef	70
Veal	100
Lamb and mutton	95
Pork	75

The quota of a slaughterer for each type of controlled meat for Quota Period 2 shall be the conversion weight obtained by multiplying the quota base for such type of controlled meat by the percentage set forth below:

Type of controlled meat:	Percentage
Beef	70
Veal	70
Lamb and mutton	75

* * * * *

Date:	Percentage
January 1, 1943	[1] 10
February 1, 1943	40
March 1, 1943	70
April 1, 1943	100

[1] This 10% is applicable only to a slaughterer or non-quota slaughterer who elects to begin Quota Period 2 at 12:01 A. M., on December 20, 1942, pursuant to § 1407.905.

(b) The percentages in paragraph (a) of this section shall be computed on the basis of the quota of a slaughterer remaining after deducting therefrom all charges, if any, required by paragraphs (b) or (c) of § 1407.902, or by any adjustment, exception or authorization granted by the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

(c) During Quota Period 2, no non-quota slaughterer shall deliver, prior to any date set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, more controlled meat of any type resulting from his own slaughter than the percentage shown opposite that date, of his deliveries of controlled meat of that type resulting from his own slaughter during Base Period 2.

(d) For the purposes of this section, the transfer or shipment of controlled meat to any branch or branch house of a slaughterer or non-quota slaughterer shall constitute a delivery.

(e) Deliveries made by a slaughterer, without charge against quota, in accordance with the procedure prescribed by § 1407.912a, and deliveries by a non-quota slaughterer which are not subject to the restrictions of § 1407.904, shall not be subject to the restrictions of this section.

§ 1407.905 Base and quota periods established. (a) There are hereby established the following quota periods:

(1) Quota Period 1: October 1, 1942 to December 31, 1942, inclusive.

(2) Quota Period 2: January 1, 1943, to March 31, 1943, inclusive.

(3) Quota Period 3: April 1, 1943, to June 30, 1943, inclusive.

(4) Quota Period 4: July 1, 1943, to September 30, 1943, inclusive.

However, any slaughterer or non-quota slaughterer may elect to have Quota Period 1 end and Quota Period 2 begin, with respect to his operations, at 12:01 A. M., December 20, 1942. Such election shall be effective only if made in writing, addressed to the Office of Price Administration, attention Food Rationing Division, Washington, D. C., and delivered or post marked on or before December 24, 1942.

A slaughterer who makes such an election shall take an inventory of his stocks of controlled meat as of 12:01 A. M. December 20, 1942. Furthermore, a slaughterer or non-quota slaughterer who makes such election, shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. a statement in writing signed by him, by a partner (if a partnership), an officer (if a corporation) or by a manager of the slaughterer or non-quota slaughterer, setting forth the amount of each type of controlled meat delivered by him during the period from October 1, 1942 to December 19, 1942, inclusive.

In the case of a slaughterer, such deliveries shall be computed in the manner prescribed by paragraph (a) of § 1407.907 and his statement shall set forth, separately, figures covering each of the subparagraphs of that paragraph.

In the case of a non-quota slaughterer, the statement shall show, separately, the conversion weight of:

(i) Controlled meat of each type resulting from his own slaughter delivered by him to persons referred to in and in accordance with the procedure prescribed by § 1407.912a (a), (b), (c) or (d) and

(ii) All other controlled meat resulting from his own slaughter delivered by him.

Statements required by this section shall be filed on or before December 31, 1942, unless an extension is granted by the Director of the Food Rationing Division.

§ 1407.925 Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(i) Amendment 9 (§§ 1407.902 (b), 1407.903 (a), 1407.904a, (b), (c), (d), and (e), 1407.905 (a) and 1407.925 (i)) to Restriction Order No. 1 shall become effective as of December 18, 1942.

(49) Roasted bulk chicory. (i) The maximum prices for the best grade and quality roasted chicory in bulk, grown and harvested subsequent to 1941, shall be as follows:

(a) For sellers whose total bulk sales during the fiscal year 1941–42 did not exceed 4,000,000 pounds.

	Per roasted pound
F. o. b. seller's factory shipping point, Port Huron, Mich	$0.0885
F. o. b. seller's factory shipping point, New Orleans, La	$0.0950

The maximum price at any other point of delivery shall be the maximum price at the factory shipping points listed above plus transportation charges incurred from factory points to the point of delivery.

(b) For sellers whose total bulk sales during the fiscal year 1941–42 exceeded 4,000,000 pounds.

	Per roasted pound
F. o. b. seller's factory shipping point	$0.0835

The maximum price at any other point of delivery shall be the maximum price at the factory shipping point listed above plus transportation charges incurred from factory points to the point of delivery.

(c) Sellers who cannot determine their maximum prices under (a) or (b) hereof shall make application for a maximum price to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. giving: (1) An itemized statement of the applicant's costs of manufacturing and selling roasted bulk chicory, (2) a statement of the applicant's maximum price before the issuance of this amendment.

(ii) The maximum prices determined under the provisions of this amendment shall be the maximum prices for any quantity sold to any class of purchaser. But these prices must be reduced by the seller's customary discounts or allowances for cash or prompt payment. However any discount, allowance or other price differentials may also be given when it results in a price less than the maximum price.

(iii) Chicory in bulk means all roasted chicory, ground to any degree of fineness, except chicory packaged in containers of one pound or less.

(iv) All sellers shall accompany their first delivery of roasted chicory to each customer at prices established herein with a statement of their maximum prices as established by this amendment.

(b) Effective dates. * * *

(81) Amendment No. 80 (§ 1499.73 (a) (49)) to Supplementary Regulation No. 14 shall become effective December 24, 1942.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 139 Under §1499.18 (b) of GMPR]

OSWEGO CANDY WORKS

Order No. 139 under § 1499.18 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation—Docket GF 3–2001.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1040 Adjustment of maximum prices for 10,000 five pound boxes of "Season's Greetings" Candy manufactured by Oswego Candy Works, Oswego, New York. (a) Oswego Candy Works is hereby authoribed to sell and deliver one lot of five pound boxes of "Season's Greetings" Candy, amounting approximately to 10,000 boxes which already have been manufactured and are in stock, at 80¢ per box, delivered.

(b) Sellers of "Season's Greetings" Candy at wholesale and retail shall determine their maximum prices under Maximum Price Regulations No. 249 and No. 250—Sales of Certain Seasonal Food Products at Wholesale and Retail.

(c) All sellers are required to continue the same discounts, allowances and price differentials as were offered in March 1942: Provided, however, That sellers may change discounts, allowances and price differentials in a manner which will not effect an increase in the maximum prices fixed herein.

(d) Oswego Candy Works shall mail or cause to be mailed to all persons who purchase said candy from it for resale a notice reading as follows:

> The Office of Price Administration has authorized us to establish a maximum price for sale to you of five pound boxes of "Season's Greetings" Candy of 80¢ per box. This price will be in effect only until we dispcse of 10,000 boxes of "Season's Greetings" Candy which we now have on hand. You are permitted by OPA to price this candy under Maximum Price Regulation No. 249, if you are a wholesaler, or Maximum Price Regulation No. 250, if you are a retailer, which Maximum Price Regulations were issued by the Office of Price Administration on October 26, 1942.

(e) All prayers of the petition not granted herein are denied.

(f) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This Order No. 139 (§ 1499.1040) is hereby incorporated as a section of Supplementary Regulation No. 14 which contains modifications of maximum prices established by § 1499.2.

(h) This Order No. 139 (§ 1499.1040) shall become effective December 18, 1942.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 11,[1] Amendment 17]

FUEL OIL RATIONING REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Every reference in Ration Order No. 11 to "Office of the Petroleum Co-ordinator for War" is amended to read "Petroleum Administration for War"; in inferior subdivision (a) of § 1394.5151 (a) (1) (iv), the parenthetical phrase "(but not later than the end of the valid period for coupons numbered '2', specified in paragraph (b) of § 1394.5201)" is deleted and in subparagraph (3) of paragraph (a) of such section, the parenthetical words "(but not later than the end of the valid period for coupons numbered '2', indicated in paragraph (b) of § 1394.5201)" are deleted; a new § 1394.5463 is added; and a new paragraph (q) is added to § 1394.5902; as set forth below:

General Provisions With Respect to Issuance of Rations

§ 1394.5463. Same: Special cases. (a) Any person who applies to a Board for review of the computation or issuance of a ration may exchange coupons of the series which will next become valid for definite value coupons, on the basis of the gallonage value of the unit value coupons which are currently valid for the transfer of fuel oil to a consumer.

(b) The Board shall issue a Class 3 coupon sheet containing coupons to the extent required by the applicant until it completes such review, but not to exceed in gallonage value one-half of the total gallonage value of such coupons of the series which will next become valid.

(c) The Board shall make the entries required by § 1394.5452 on the new coupon sheet and shall affix a validating stamp thereto. The Board shall enter, as the expiration date of such coupon sheet, the last date, specified in § 1394.5201, on which the unit value coupons exchanged would be valid for the transfer of fuel oil to a consumer.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 10,[1] Amendment 4]

FOOD RATIONING REGULATIONS FOR THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1407.661 (a) and § 1407.687 are amended; paragraph (b) is added to § 1407.669 as set forth below.

§ 1407.661 Restriction on transfer for use. (a) On and after August 26, 1942, or the effective date of any amendment, with respect to any commodity made subject to Ration Order No. 10 by such amendment, notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement, or commitment, regardless of when made, except as otherwise provided in Ration Order No. 10, no person other than a person who has registered as a distributor pursuant to Ration Order 10 shall transfer or offer to transfer a rationed commodity to any person for any purpose whatever; Provided, That this section shall not apply to transfers by a farmer or producer of rationed commodities grown or produced by him if the total value of all products sold by him is less than $75 per month, nor by any person as a part of a service of a meal.

§ 1407.669 Emergencies. * * *

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of Ration Order No. 10, the Director may, whenever in his opinion the supply of a commodity subject to Ration Order No. 10 becomes or threatens to become so limited that coupon rationing may not be effective to insure fair and equitable distribution of such commodity, or when time is needed to institute such rationing, take the following action:

(1) He may issue an Emergency Order limiting or prohibiting all transfers of such commodity in the Virgin Islands. Such order may provide that the commodity may be transferred only to persons presenting an Emergency Authorization signed by the Director or his duly authorized representative. Such order shall require all dealers, distributors and agencies to file with the Director a sworn statement of the quantity of any commodity subject to the emergency order which the dealer, distributor, or agency has on hand at the effective time of the order.

(2) Such emergency authorization shall specify the date on which it is issued, the name of the person to whom it is issued, and the quantity of the rationed commodity for which it shall be valid. It shall also state the purpose for which the commodity shall be used and that the commodity so obtained shall be used for no other purpose.

(3) All emergency authorizations shall be numbered serially, copies thereof shall be maintained at all times in the Office of the Director and shall be used in lieu of the coupons provided for in Ration Order No. 10.

(4) During the period in which such emergency order shall be in effect emergency authorizations shall be issued only for the exclusive use of essential public services such as hospitals, public canteens or "soup kitchens" maintained by the Red Cross or other Government agencies, and the like. The quantities

PART 1410—WOOL

[MPR 123,[1] Amendment 4]

RAW AND PROCESSED WOOL WASTE MATERIALS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1410.79a (c) is amended to read as set forth below:

§ 1410.79a Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(c) Amendment No. 3 (§§ 1410.71 (a) (2), (b) and (c), 1410.71a, 1410.78 (a) (2), (3) and (4), 1410.80 and 1410.81) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 123 shall become effective November 17, 1942: Provided, That a seller making deliveries of raw or processed wool waste materials within 60 days of November 17, 1942, pursuant to contracts entered into prior to such date in compliance with the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 123, as then effective, may charge the contract prices therefor.

(d) Amendment No. 4 (§ 1410.79a (c)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 123 shall be effective as of December 17, 1942.

PART 1429—POULTRY AND EGGS

[Revised MPR 269]

POULTRY

The title and §§ 1429.1 to 1429.22 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 are amended to read as set forth below:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper, in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 issued by the President on October 3, 1942, that maximum prices be established for the sale of the poultry items named in this regulation.

The maximum prices established by this regulation are, in the judgment of the Price Administrator, generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the amended Act and Executive Order. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industries affected by this regulation. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* The following regulation supersedes Maximum Price Regulation No. 269, as amended,[1] and Maximum Price Regulation No. 280[2] with respect to the commodities specified in this regulation.

The maximum prices established herein for poultry items are not below prices which will reflect to the growers and producers of such poultry items prices for their products equal to the highest of the prices required by the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and by Executive Order No. 9250. The Price Administrator has consulted with the Secretary of Agriculture and has obtained his approval for the agricultural commodities covered herein.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 369 is hereby issued.

Sec.
1429.1 Prohibition against selling poultry items at prices above the maximum.
1429.2 Exempt sales.
1429.3 Less than maximum prices.
1429.4 Records and reports.

1429.10 Geographical applicability.
1429.11 Transfers of business or stock in trade.
1429.12 Petitions for amendment.
1429.13 Adjustable pricing.
1429.14 Adjustment of maximum prices for live and dressed poultry.
1429.15 Federal and state taxes.
1429.16 Discounts and allowances.
1429.17 Definitions.
1429.18 Effective date.
1429.19 Maximum base prices for poultry items.
1429.20 Application of maximum base prices.
1429.21 Permitted increases to maximum base prices.
1429.22 Maximum prices for poultry items when sold by producers or processors at retail.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1429.1 to 1429.22, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong., E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1429.2 Exempt sales. The following sales are exempt from the provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269, in addition to those exempted by the application of certain provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended,[4] as incorporated in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269.

(a) All sales at retail except those specified in § 1429.22 herein. Sales at retail shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 269, entitled "Certain Perishable Food Products at Retail".

(b) All sales and purchases of breeding poultry when sold or purchased for breeding purposes only.

(c) All sales and purchases of "baby" or "started" chicks, ducklings, goslings, and poults when sold for purposes other than present human consumption.

(d) All sales and purchases of female poultry when sold or purchased for egg production purposes.

§ 1429.3 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1429.4 Records and reports. (a) Every seller and purchaser subject to this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 making sales or deliveries or purchases of poultry and eggs to the value of $200.00 or more in any one month, after December 21, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect a complete and accurate record of each sale or delivery of poultry items, showing the date of purchase or sale, the name and address of the buyer and seller, the quantities, varieties, grades, weight classes, bought and sold, the dressed or live condition of the poultry bought and sold, the type of sale made (delivered or non-delivered), and the price paid or received.

(b) Such persons shall keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required in paragraph (a) of this section and shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as that Office may from time to time require or permit.

§ 1429.5 Evasion. Price limitations set forth in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with any offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to, the commodities prices of which are herein regulated, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege or other trade understanding or otherwise.

§ 1429.6 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 or any price schedule, regulation, or order, issued by the Office of Price Administration, or any acts or practices which constitute such a violation, are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state, field or regional offices of the Office of Price Administration, or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1429.7 Sales for export. The maximum prices at which a person may export any commodity covered by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Regulation[5] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1429.8 Applicability. The provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 supersede the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 269, as amended,[6] and the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280[7] with respect to sales and deliveries of the poultry items for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

§ 1429.9 Applicability of certain provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended. (a) The following sections of General Maximum Price Regulation, and amendments thereto, and Revised Supplementary Regulation Number 4 thereof, shall be applicable to every person making sales and deliveries covered by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269.

(1) § 1499.4b (Special deals.)
(2) § 1499.14 (Sales slips and receipts.)
(3) § 1499.15 (Registration.)
(4) § 1499.16 (Licensing.)
(5) § 1499.29 (a) (5) (Developmental contracts.)
(6) § 1499.29 (a) (6) (Secret contracts.)
(7) § 1499.29 (a) (7) (Emergency purchases.)
(8) § 1499.29 (a) (15) (Sales or deliveries of the War Department or the Department of the Navy through such Departments' sales stores.)

§ 1429.10 Geographical applicability. The provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 shall be applicable only to the 48 states of the United States and to the District of Columbia.

§ 1429.11 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets, or stock in trade of any seller are sold or otherwise transferred on or after the effective date of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269, and the transferee carries on the business, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify those prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over to the transferee, all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions contained in this regulation.

§ 1429.12 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking an amendment of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 may file a petition therefor in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[8] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1429.14 Adjustment of maximum prices for live and dressed poultry. (a) The Office of Price Administration, or any duly authorized representative thereof, may adjust any maximum price established under this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 for live and dressed poultry items, in the case of any seller or group of sellers where it appears:

(1) That there exists or threatens to exist in a particular locality a shortage in the supply of such live and dressed poultry item; and

(2) That such local shortage will be substantially reduced or eliminated by adjusting the maximum prices of such seller and of like sellers for such live and dressed poultry items; and

(3) That such adjustment will not create or tend to create a shortage, or need for increase in prices, in another locality, and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Applications for adjustment under this § 1429.14 shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

§ 1429.15 Federal and state taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale or delivery of poultry items imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price for such commodity and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto:

(a) As to a tax in effect prior to the effective date of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 for any poultry item. (1) If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price prior to the effective date for such item the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such a case shall include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269.

(2) In all other cases, if, at the time the seller determines his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269.

(b) As to a tax or an increase in a tax which becomes effective after the effective date of this regulation for any poultry item. If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

§ 1429.16 Discounts and allowances. The maximum prices established for poultry items in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 shall apply to all sales, whether cash or credit. However, any seller may always give discounts or allowances which result in prices lower than the maximum.

§ 1429.17 Definitions. (a) "Poultry items" means the live and dressed poultry items defined in § 1429.19 herein.

(b) "Customary" or "customarily" means the usual practice during the period, December 1, 1941, to December 1, 1942, of the person to whom the word "customary" or "customarily" applies. When the person was not in business during this period, "customary" or "customarily" means his usual practice for the time he was in business.

(c) Unless the context requires otherwise, the definitions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended, and of section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to the terms used in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269.

§ 1429.18 Effective date. This Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 (Sections 1429.1 to 1429.22, inclusive) shall become effective December 18, 1942.

§ 1429.19 Maximum base prices for poultry items. (a) Every place in the United States shall have its own maximum base price for poultry items listed in Table A of this section.

(1) The word "place" means any city, town, village, or hamlet in the United States.

(b) The maximum base price for any poultry item shall be calculated as follows:

(1) In any place located east of the line running south from the Canadian border along the eastern shore of Lake Michigan, the Illinois-Indiana State Line, the Illinois-Kentucky State Line, and then south along the eastern bank of the Mississippi River to the Gulf of Mexico, the maximum base price for each poultry item purchased or sold at such place shall be determined as follows:

(i) First, the "freight rate" from Chicago to New York shall be subtracted from the maximum price for such poultry item in New York as set forth below in Table A of this section.

"Freight rate" means the lowest carlot railroad freight rate for dressed poultry multiplied by 1.22.

(ii) Second, the "freight rate" from Chicago to such particular place shall be added to the difference obtained in subdivision (i) immediately above. The total thus reached shall be the maximum base price for such poultry item at such particular place.

(2) In any place located west of the line running south from the Canadian border along the eastern shore of Lake Michigan, the Illinois-Indiana State Line, the Illinois-Kentucky State Line, and then south along the western bank of the Mississippi River to the Gulf of Mexico, the maximum base price for each poultry item purchased or sold at such place shall be determined as follows:

(i) First, the basing point city for such particular place must be selected. Five basing point cities are listed in Table A of this section. That one of the five cities which is closest freightwise to the particular place will be selected as its basing point city, except as provided for in subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph.

A basing point city is closest freightwise to any place when the "freight rate" from such place to that basing point city is lower than that to any of the other basing point cities.

Example: City X is 100 miles nearer to New York than it is to Los Angeles. However, the freight rate to Los Angeles is ¼¢ per pound lower than it is to New York. Los Angeles is the basing point city because it is closer freightwise.

(ii) Second, the "freight rate" from such place to its basing point city shall be subtracted from the basing point city's maximum price for the poultry item, and the difference so obtained shall be the maximum base price for such poultry item at such place; except that

(a) The maximum base prices for each poultry item at San Diego, California, shall be the same as those listed below in Table A of this section for Los Angeles.

(b) The maximum base prices for each poultry item at all places in the State of Oregon west of Portland shall be the same as those listed below in Table A of this section for Portland.

(c) The maximum base prices for each poultry item at all places in the State of Washington west of Seattle shall be the same as those listed below in Table A of this section for Seattle.

(iii) The following exception is provided to subparagraph (2) (i) of this section: In all cases, the basing point city for any place in the United States with respect to any poultry item shall be that one of the five cities listed below in Table A of this section which will reflect the highest price to such place for the particular poultry item.

Example: Denver, Colorado, is located between San Francisco and New York. San Francisco is closer freightwise to Denver than is New York. San Francisco thus would be the basing point city for Denver. However, the maximum base price for Grade A dressed young turkeys is 40 cents per pound in New York and 39 cents per pound in San Francisco. The "freight rate" from Denver to New York is 2.26 cents per pound. The "freight rate" from Denver to San Francisco is 1.72 cents per pound. If San Francisco is used as the basing point city for Denver, the maximum base price for Grade A young dressed turkeys in Denver will be 39 cents less 1.72 cents or 37.28 cents per pound. But if New York is used as the basing point city for Denver, the maximum base price for the same grade of turkeys in Denver will be 40 cents less 2.26 cents or 37.74 cents per pound. New York therefore reflects the highest price for Grade A young dressed turkeys in Denver and shall be used as the basing point city for Denver with respect to the sales and purchases of all such turkeys.

(ii) Grade "B" dressed poultry items. All Grade "B" dressed, kosher-killed, drawn, and quick-frozen eviscerated poultry items shall be 1½¢ per lb. less in price than the corresponding Grade "A" dressed, kosher-killed, drawn, and quick-frozen eviscerated poultry items listed above.

(iii) Grade "C" dressed poultry items. All Grade "C" dressed, kosher-killed, drawn, and quick-frozen eviscerated poultry items shall be 4¢ per lb. less in price than the corresponding Grade "A" dressed, kosher-killed, drawn, and quick-frozen eviscerated poultry items listed above.

(iv) Live poultry items other than Grade "A". Live poultry items which do not meet the specifications of Grade "A" live poultry shall be sold at the seller's customary differentials below the prices for Grade "A" live poultry items.

(v) Monthly adjustments in base prices for dressed turkey items. The above prices for dressed turkeys shall be in force for the months of November, December, and January. For the remaining months of the year the following additions shall be made to each of the above prices for dressed turkeys:

	Cents per pound
February	½
March	1
April	1½
May	2
June	2½
July	3
August	3½
September	2
October	1

(2) Prices for drawn poultry when sold in split or cut-up form. The aggregate price received through the sale of all the cut-up parts of any drawn bird shall not exceed the amount which could be received by the sale of the whole drawn bird of the same grade and weight, as specified in Table A of this section.

(3) Prices for hard scalded poultry. Poultry other than ducks and geese subjected to water for dressing at a temperature higher than 135 degrees Fahrenheit shall be eligible for Grade "B" and Grade "C" classification only, and shall be sold at prices no higher than those established for Grade "B" and Grade "C" dressed poultry items in Table A of this section.

(e) Application of prices for "kosher-killed poultry." The prices established for "kosher-killed" poultry items in Table A of this section shall apply only when such "kosher-killed" poultry items are sold to a "bona fide buyer" of "kosher-killed" poultry located within a radius of 50 miles from the point of slaughter. In all other cases, purchases and sales of "kosher-killed" poultry items shall be made at prices not exceeding those established for dressed poultry items in Table A of this section.

(f) Definitions of terms used in this section. (1) "Poultry" means all broilers, fryers, roasters, stags, capons, old roosters, turkeys, ducks, geese, guineas, pigeons, and squabs, including live, dressed, drawn, eviscerated, and all other forms of the foregoing when sold for human consumption: Provided, however, That this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 shall not apply to poultry when in the canned form, and poultry exempted in § 1429.2 above. Poultry in the canned form is covered in the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended.

(2) "Dressed poultry" means poultry which has been killed, bled, and plucked, without regard to the method of plucking or finishing.

(3) "Drawn poultry" means dressed poultry from which the entrails, head, and feet have been removed.

(4) "Quick-frozen eviscerated poultry" means dressed poultry from which the entrails, viscera, head and feet have been wholly removed under state or federal supervision and inspection, the giblets of which have been cleaned and replaced, and the whole carcass of which has been subjected to a cleansing process which makes it ready to cook, the whole then being packaged in carcass, split, or dismembered form, and frozen at low temperatures.

(5) "Kosher-killed poultry" means poultry which:

(i) Has been killed, bled, and plucked in accordance with the requirements of the Hebraic dietary laws; and

(ii) Is identified as kosher-killed by a stamp or tag on each bird.

(6) "Bona fide buyer of kosher-killed poultry" means a person who maintains a selling establishment at or through which he regularly and generally sells kosher poultry as such, or a person who is a purveyor of kosher meals.

(7) "Split poultry" means drawn poultry which has been cut into halves, each half containing approximately equal and, as far as possible, equivalent parts of the bird.

(8) "Cut-up poultry" means drawn poultry, the carcass of which has been dismembered or cut into portions.

(g) Species, age, and sex qualifications for items listed in Table A. Species, age, and sex specifications promulgated by the United States Department of Agriculture in the publications listed immediately below shall be used as the species, age, and sex specifications for all poultry items listed in Table A of this section.

"Tentative U. S. Standards for Classes and Grades for Dressed Turkeys."

"Classification and Tentative Specifications for U. S. Standards and Grades for Dressed Chickens."

"Tentative Specifications for U. S. Standards and Grades for Dressed Ducks, Geese, Guineas, and Squabs."

"Tentative U. S. Standards for Grades for Live Poultry."

(h) Application of grade specifications for items listed in Table A—(1) Dressed turkeys. The Tentative U. S. Standards for Classes and Grades for Dressed Turkeys now in effect shall apply to all sales of dressed turkeys covered herein. Revisions promulgated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture shall become concurrently effective for the purposes of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 for stock packed after the issuance of such revisions.

(2) Dressed poultry other than turkeys. (i) Until June 30, 1943, commercial standards now commonly accepted by the trade for classes and grades of dressed poultry, other than turkeys, shall apply to all sales of dressed, drawn, and eviscerated poultry, other than turkeys, processed and packed before February 28, 1943, as follows:

(a) All dressed, drawn, and eviscerated poultry, whether dry or ice-packed, commonly accepted by the trade as top and premium packs shall be sold at prices not to exceed those specified for Grade "A" poultry in Table A of this section.

(b) All dressed, drawn, and eviscerated poultry, whether dry or ice-packed, commonly accepted by the trade as second grade or choice poultry shall be sold at prices not to exceed those specified for Grade "B" poultry in Table A of this section.

(c) All dressed, drawn, and eviscerated poultry, whether dry or ice-packed, commonly accepted by the trade as bottom or third grade poultry, shall be sold at prices not to exceed those specified for Grade "C" poultry in Table A of this section.

(ii) The Tentative Grade Specifications For Dressed Poultry as promulgated or revised by the United States Department of Agriculture shall apply to all sales of all dressed, drawn, and eviscerated poultry, other than turkeys, processed and packed after February 28, 1943.

(iii) After June 30, 1943, the Tentative Grade Specifications For Dressed Poultry as promulgated or revised by the United States Department of Agriculture shall apply to all sales of all dressed, drawn, and eviscerated poultry, other than turkeys, regardless of the date when such poultry was processed and packed: Provided, That:

(a) Poultry, other than ducks and geese, subjected to water for dressing at a temperature higher than 135 degrees Fahrenheit shall be eligible for Grade "B" and Grade "C" classification only, and shall be sold at prices no higher than those established for Grade "B" and Grade "C" dressed poultry items in Table A of this section.

§ 1429.20 Application of maximum base prices. The maximum base prices for poultry items established in § 1429.19 of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 apply to all persons purchasing, or selling or delivering such poultry items, as follows:

(a) First, except as provided for below in §§ 1429.21 and 1429.22, these maximum base prices are maximum selling prices for poultry items delivered to the buyer's customary receiving point at any place. They do not apply at the seller's shipping point.

(1) Where any person purchases any poultry item at one place for shipment or reshipment to another place, his customary receiving point shall be the place where shipment ends and not the place where shipment begins.

(2) All f. o. b. prices are to be calculated in relationship to maximum selling prices at the buyer's customary receiving point. (i) Where any person purchases or sells any poultry item at one place for shipment to another place at a price f. o. b. the seller's shipping point, he shall calculate his maximum f. o. b. price as follows:

(a) He shall first determine the maximum base price for such poultry item at the place to which it will be shipped; and

(b) He shall then subtract from such base price his "freight rate" from the place where shipment begins to the place where shipment ends, and the difference so obtained shall be his maximum selling f. o. b. price for such poultry item.

(3) Sales of poultry items shall be made on an open price basis where the purchaser does not know location of receiving point. (i) Where any person purchases any poultry item at one place for shipment or reshipment to another place, and at the time of purchase does not know the exact location of the place to which shipment shall be made, he shall purchase on an open price basis until such time as he ascertains the location of the place to which shipment shall be made, and thereafter shall calculate his maximum purchase price as follows:

(a) He shall first determine the maximum base price for such poultry item at the place to which it will be shipped; and

(b) He shall then subtract from such base price his "freight rate" from the place where shipment begins to the place where shipment ends, and the difference so obtained shall be his maximum purchase price for such poultry item.

Provided, That nothing in this subparagraph (3) shall prevent any purchaser from making part payment for such poultry item in an amount not to exceed 85% of the maximum base price for such poultry item at the seller's shipping point, at any time before such purchaser ascertains the location of the place to which shipment shall be made.

(b) Second, as provided for below in §§ 1429.21 and 1429.22, these maximum base prices are the bases to which certain permitted increases may be added: Provided, That the above provisions of paragraph (a) of this section shall apply to all sales specified in § 1429.21 below where a permitted increase is added to the maximum base price at the buyer's customary receiving point.

§ 1429.21 Permitted increases to maximum base prices. (a) Any person who makes the following described sales of poultry items may add the increases as indicated below to determine his maximum selling price:

TABLE B.—MAXIMUM PERMITTED INCREASES FOR SALES OF POULTRY ITEMS

Seller and type of sale made	Buyer	Quantity and form of sale	Item sold	Base price to which increase is added	Maximum increase in cents per lb. for "wholesaler" only
					Non-delivered sales	Delivered within 25 miles	Delivered beyond 25 miles
(1) All "wholesalers"	Any type of buyer	Less than 10,000 lbs	Any poultry item	Maximum base price at seller's shipping point.	1½¢	1¾¢	2¢
(2) All "wholesalers"	Any type of buyer	Less than 10,000 lbs	Quick-frozen eviscerated poultry.	Maximum base price at seller's shipping point.	3¢	3¼¢	3½¢
(3) "Wholesale purveyors" making "special service sales."	Hotels, restaurants, clubs, dining cars, steamship lines, or institutional users.	Less than 10,000 lbs	Any dressed poultry item	Maximum base price at seller's shipping point.	2¼¢	2½¢	2¾¢
					Maximum increase in cents per lb. for any type of seller for items delivered at buyer's customary receiving point
(4) Any type of seller	Retailers or commercial, industrial, institutional, or governmental users.	More than 16,000 lbs. in "special assortments."	Any dressed poultry item	Maximum base price at buyer's customary receiving point.	¼¢
(5) Any type of seller	United States Government or any agency thereof.	Any quantity	Any poultry item	Maximum base price at seller's shipping point.	¼¢ plus Lowest "freight rate" from seller's shipping point to buyer's customary receiving point in cents per pound
(6) Any type of seller	United States Government or any agency thereof.	More than 16,000 lbs. in "special assortments."	Any dressed poultry item	Maximum base price at seller's shipping point.	¾¢ plus Lowest "freight rate" from seller's shipping point to buyer's customary receiving point in cents per pound
(7) Producers or processors only who customarily sell in less than wholesale quantities.	Individual retail stores or commercial, industrial, institutional, or governmental users.	Less than wholesale quantities	Any poultry item	Maximum base price at buyer's customary receiving point.	1½¢

(b) Definitions of terms used in Table B. (1) All definitions listed in § 1429.19 (f) above for the terms used in Table A shall apply to the same terms when used in Table B.

(2) "Producer" means any person who grows or raises live poultry on a farm or farms operated by or for him.

(3) "Processor" means any person who converts live poultry into dressed or eviscerated poultry, or who converts dressed poultry into eviscerated poultry.

(4) "Wholesale quantities" means lots of 3,000 pounds or more of live or dressed turkeys, or lots of 1,000 pounds or more of other live or dressed poultry.

(5) "Wholesaler" means any person who possesses all of the following characteristics:

(i) He must customarily receive, or purchase and receive poultry items in wholesale quantities.

(ii) He must maintain at the particular place where he is located a business establishment where he receives and stocks poultry items and from which he sells or distributes such poultry items.

(iii) He must customarily sell or distribute poultry items in quantity lots which are smaller than his purchases or receipts, to:

Intermediate wholesalers, or Retailers, or
Institutional, industrial, commercial, or governmental users.

(iv) He must customarily sell or distribute at least 75 percent of his dollar volume of poultry items for ultimate consumption within a radius of 75 miles of his place of business.

Example: The following are considered wholesalers if they possess all the characteristics listed above. (a) Independent wholesalers or jobbers.

(b) Distributive branches of processors, including branches of cooperative processors.

Example: The following are not considered wholesalers. (c) Persons who engage primarily in directing the sale and distribution of poultry items from the producer, processor, or shipper without engaging in any physical handling of poultry items, such as:

(i) Agents and brokers, or auctioneers acting for a producer, processor, or shipper.

(ii) Salaried representatives, sales offices, and all supervisory or administrative offices of a producer, processor, or shipper whose personnel does not engage in any physical handling or distribution of poultry items.

(d) Central plants, or reshipping centers which receive shipments of poultry items from associated processing plants for reshipment, and which render such services as accumulating stocks, furnishing storage, consolidating carlots or trucklots, and reorganizing the makeup of shipments to meet the requirements specified by any wholesaler or other receiver located at the receiving point for which shipment is intended.

(6) "Wholesale purveyor" making "special service sales".

(i) "Wholesale purveyor" means any person who is engaged in the business of selling and distributing poultry items primarily to hotels, restaurants, clubs, dining cars, steamship companies, and institutional users.

(ii) A "wholesale purveyor" makes a "special service sale" when he sells poultry items to any of the buyers listed in subdivision (i) immediately above, and in the course of such sale performs the additional service of removing poultry from the wholesale packages, regrading poultry to more uniform grades and sizes than those required by wholesale grades, and selling in less than wholesale package lots.

(7) "Special assortments" means a 16,000 pound or larger assortment of dressed poultry, 95 percent of which consists of no more than three dressed "poultry classes", and all of which is packed into one truck or into one freight car.

"Poultry class" means poultry of one type, one grade, and one uniform weight. Poultry shall be deemed to be of one uniform weight when the range in weight from the lightest to the heaviest bird in the class does not exceed:

(i) Three pounds in the case of turkeys.

(ii) One pound in the case of capons.

(iii) One-half pound in the case of fowl, broilers, fryers, roasters, and stags.

(iv) Any number of pounds in the case of other types of poultry.

(8) "Shipping point" means that place in the seller's business establishment from which shipments or deliveries of poultry items are made. In the case of non-delivered sales, "shipping point" means that place in the seller's business establishment where the buyer calls for and receives his purchases of poultry items.

§ 1429.22 Maximum prices for poultry items when sold by producers or processors at retail. (a) The maximum prices for the sales and deliveries of poultry items when sold by producers or processors at retail, that is, to an ultimate consumer other than a commercial, institutional, industrial, or governmental user, shall be calculated as follows:

(1) The seller shall add 1½¢ per pound to the maximum base price at his shipping point for any poultry item, and shall multiply the sum so obtained by 1.20, and the product of such multiplication shall be his maximum selling price for such poultry item: Provided, That in cases of mail order sales the seller may add to such maximum selling price his actual express or mailing expense to the buyer's receiving point.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 238,[2] Amendment 5]

ADJUSTED AND FIXED MARKUP REGULATION FOR SALES OF CERTAIN FOOD PRODUCTS AT RETAIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of Amendment No. 5 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 238 has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1351.604a has been added to read as set forth below:

§ 1351.604a Addition allowed retailers in special cases—(a) Addition allowed for transportation of food products to a chain retail outlet from a warehouse which is its customary receiving point. A chain retail outlet which is located at a distance of 200 miles or more from a warehouse which is its customary receiving point for an item of a food product listed in Appendix A or B may, in calculating a new maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 238 for any such item which is delivered from such warehouse to the outlet, add to the applicable figure in Appendix A or B whichever of the following amounts is applicable:

(1) Chain retail outlets located at a distance of from 200 up to but not including 300 miles from such warehouse may add .01 to the applicable figure in Appendix A or B;

(2) Chain retail outlets located at a distance of from 300 miles up to but not including 400 miles from such warehouse may add .02 to the applicable figure in Appendix A or B;

(3) Chain retail outlets located at a distance of 400 miles or more from such warehouse may add .03 to the applicable figure in Appendix A or B.

(b) Addition allowed for packaging certain food products purchased in bulk. A retailer who purchases any item of rice, dried fruit or dry edible beans in bulk and then packages and sells such food product in sealed transparent bags or sealed packages may add to his maximum price calculated under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 238 for such packaged item whichever of the following amounts is applicable:

(1) One cent for each such package or bag with a net weight of up to and including 1 pound and 15 ounces.

(2) Two cents for each such package or bag with a net weight of 2 pounds or more.

(3) The resulting amount shall be the retailer's new maximum price for such item and must be calculated and filed in accordance with the provisions of § 1351.606 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 238.

§ 1351.617a Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(e) Amendment No. 5 (§ 1351.604a) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 238 shall become effective on December 19, 1942.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 237,[1] Amendment 6]

ADJUSTED AND FIXED MARKUP REGULATION FOR SALES OF CERTAIN FOOD PRODUCTS AT WHOLESALE

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of Amendment No. 6 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 237 has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Sections 1351.504a and 1351.507a are added to read as set forth below:

§ 1351.504a Addition allowed wholesalers in special cases—(a) Addition allowed for packaging certain food products purchased in bulk. A wholesaler who purchases any item of rice, dried fruit or dry edible beans in bulk and then packages and sells such food product in sealed transparent bags or sealed packages may add to his maximum price calculated under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 237 for his customary unit of sale of such packaged item the following amounts:

(1) One cent for each of such packages or bags with a net weight of up to and including 1 pound and 15 ounces contained in his customary unit of sale.

(2) Two cents for each of such packages or bags with a net weight of 2 pounds or over contained in his customary unit of sale.

(3) The resulting amount shall be the wholesaler's new maximum price for such packaged item and must be calculated and filed in accordance with the provisions of § 1351.506 of this Maximum Price Regulation except that for the purpose of calculating a new maximum price under this § 1351.504a for any item of rice packaged by the wholesaler the final date for such calculation shall be December 31, 1942, and the final date for the filing of such price shall be January 10, 1943.

§ 1351.507a How a retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler calculates maximum prices for sales to non-members. (a) A retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler (Class 1) which has customarily sold to non-members (those customers who have no share or interest in its ownership) may be considered either a Class 2 or Class 3 wholesaler in calculating maximum prices for such sales. Such retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler shall determine into which of these two classes it falls on the basis of its operations in connection with its total sales to non-members.

(b) If the final date listed in Appendix A or B for the calculation of a maximum price for a food product is November 30, 1942, the retailer-owner cooperative wholesaler may calculate a new maximum price for such food product under paragraph (a) of this § 1351.507a on or before December 31, 1942 and shall file such new maximum price on or before January 10, 1943; Provided however, That in all such cases the retailer-owned cooperative wholesaler must use the same "net cost" which he used in his last calculation of a maximum price for such food product under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 237 prior to November 30, 1942.

§ 1351.517a Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(f) This amendment No. 6 (§§ 1351.504a and 1351.507a) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 237 shall become effective on December 19, 1942.

(Pub. Laws 421, 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

Issued this 19th day of December 1942.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 271, Amendment 1]

CERTAIN PERISHABLE FOOD COMMODITIES, SALES EXCEPT AT RETAIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1351.1001 (a) (1) is amended; in § 1351.1002, paragraphs (b) (1) and (b) (2) are amended; subparagraphs (3), (4) and (5) in § 1351.1002 (b) are added; in § 1351.1002, four new paragraphs, (d), (e), (f) and (g), are added; § 1351.1014 (a) (2) is amended; a new § 1351.1016a is added; in the table in § 1351.1017, seven items are amended as set forth below:

§ 1351.1001 Applicability of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 271—(a) Commodities to be priced under this regulation. This regulation applies to the following perishable food commodities:

(1) All white potatoes used for human consumption, not including seed potatoes. "Seed potatoes" means white potatoes which shall be labeled as seed potatoes at the country shipping point. Such white potatoes sold and delivered to any purchaser as seed shall be exempt from the provisions of this regulation only when sold in 100-pound bags.

* * * * *

§ 1351.1002 How a country shipper establishes his maximum price for a perishable food commodity, as set forth in Appendix A * * *

(b) The following differentials for certain grades, sizes, packages and types of pack shall be applicable to country shippers of white potatoes:

(1) Grade differentials:

(i) For white potatoes, U. S. Extra No. 1 grade or better, packed in bags, the country shipper may add 10¢ per cwt. to the maximum prices for U. S. No. 1 grade listed in Appendix A.

(ii) For white potatoes which grade below U. S. No. 1 grade, but which are 85% U. S. No. 1, U. S. Commercial, or better, packed in bags, the country shipper shall subtract 10¢ from the maximum prices for U. S. No. 1 grade listed in Appendix A.

(iii) For white potatoes of grades lower than 85% U. S. No. 1, U. S. Commercial or better, including ungraded and unclassified white potatoes packed in bags, the country shipper shall subtract 30¢ per cwt. from the maximum prices for U. S. No. 1 grade listed in Appendix A.

(2) Size differentials applicable to all grades:

(i) For white potatoes, 6 ounce minimum size, packed in bags, the country shipper may add 15¢ per cwt. to the maximum price for each grade.

(ii) For white potatoes of 2-inch minimum size or U. S. Size A, packed in bags, the country shipper may add 10¢ to the maximum price for each grade.

(3) Packaging differentials applicable to all grades and sizes:

(i) For white potatoes, in paper bags containing 25 pounds or less the country shipper may add 10¢ per cwt. to the maximum prices for each grade and size.

(ii) For white potatoes, packed in cotton or mesh bags of 25 pounds, the country shipper may add 20¢ per cwt. to the maximum price for each grade and size.

(iii) For white potatoes, packed in 15-pound bags of cotton or mesh, the country shipper may add 30¢ per cwt. to the maximum price for each grade and size.

(iv) For white potatoes, packed in 10-pound bags of cotton or mesh, the country shipper may add 40¢ per cwt. to the maximum price for each grade and size.

(v) For white potatoes sold either in bulk or in containers furnished by the purchaser, the country shipper shall subtract 15¢ from the maximum prices for each grade and size.

(4) Baking-type pack differentials applicable to maximum prices listed for U. S. No 1 grade:

(i) For white potatoes, U. S. No. 1 grade or better, 6 ounce minimum to 14 ounce maximum, or 2½ inch minimum to 4 inch maximum, packed in bags, the country shipper may add 35¢ to the maximum prices for U. S. No. 1 grade listed in Appendix A.

(ii) For white potatoes, 6 ounce minimum to 14 ounce maximum, or 2½ inch minimum to 4 inch maximum, hand selected and graded, washed and brushed and specially packed in wooden boxes or cardboard cartons of approximately 60 pounds, the country shipper may add $1.25 per cwt. to the maximum prices for U. S. No. 1 grade listed in Appendix A.

(iii) For white potatoes, 6 ounce minimum to 14 ounce maximum, or 2½ inch minimum to 4 inch maximum hand selected and graded, washed and brushed and specially packed in 10-pound mesh bags, or in kraft bags containing 10 mesh bags (each such mesh bag containing approximately 5 pounds), the country shipper may add $1.25 per cwt. to the maximum prices for U. S. No. 1 grade listed in Appendix A.

(iv) For white potatoes, 6 ounce minimum to 14 ounce maximum, or 2½ inch minimum to 4 inch maximum, hand selected and graded, washed and brushed and specially packed in 50-pound kraft bags, the country shipper may add 60¢ per cwt. to the maximum price for U. S. No. 1 grade listed in Appendix A.

(5) Dry onions: * * *

(viii) For dry onions, graded and packed in mesh bags of 10 pounds or less, the country shipper may add 25¢ per 50 pounds to the maximum prices listed in Appendix A.

(ix) For dry onions, graded and packed in mesh bags of 25 pounds, the country shipper may add 10¢ per 50 pounds to the maximum prices listed in Appendix A.

(d) If a country shipper, or the agent of a country shipper, sells and delivers white potatoes in the terminal market, and performs the wholesale functions of unloading cars, warehousing and selling from his warehouse in less than carlots, such country shipper's or agent's maximum price shall be:

The maximum price per cwt. for that grade and variety of white potatoes f. o. b. country shipping point, plus the actual cost of transportation, at lowest available common carrier rates, from the country shipping point to the terminal market multiplied by 1.095. When such a sale and delivery is made it shall be considered the first intermediate transaction for the purposes of this regulation.

(e) If any person covered by this regulation sells and delivers white potatoes or dry onions in carlot or trucklot quantities at the terminal market, the maximum price shall be the maximum price listed in Appendix A, plus the actual cost of transportation at lowest available common carrier rates, from the country shipping point to the terminal market plus 10¢ per cwt. for white potatoes and 7¢ per 50 pounds for dry onions. For the purposes of this regulation a person making such sale shall not be deemed to be an intermediate seller as defined in this regulation, and a sale and delivery made under the provisions of this paragraph shall not be considered the first intermediate transaction.

(f) If a farmer makes sales and deliveries to ultimate consumers, his maximum price for such sales and deliveries shall be the maximum price listed in Appendix A, plus the actual cost of transportation, at lowest available common carrier rates, from his country shipping point to the place where such sales are being made, plus $1.00 per cwt. for white potatoes and $1.00 per 50 pounds for dry onions.

(g) If a farmer makes sales and deliveries to retailers, in less than carlots, his maximum price for such sales and deliveries shall be the maximum price listed in Appendix A, plus the actual cost of transportation, at lowest available common carrier rates, from his country shipping point to the place where such sales are being made, plus 25¢ per cwt. for white potatoes and 20¢ per 50 pounds for dry onions.

§ 1351.1014 Definitions. (a) * * *

(2) "Country shipper" means any person who signs the first bill of lading at the country shipping point, and who makes sales and deliveries directly to any intermediate seller or retailer, whether for his own account, the account of a farmer, or for the joint account of himself and a farmer. This term includes farmers' cooperatives and associations.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 138 Under § 1499.18 (b) of GMPR]

CUDAHY PACKING CO.

Order No. 138 under § 1499.18 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation—Docket No. GF3-2142.

For the reasons set forth in the opinion under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and in accordance with the Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration, It is hereby ordered:

§ 1499.1039 Adjustment of maximum prices for Regular Alpine Sheep Casings 20/22mm sold by The Cudahy Packing Company. (a) The Cudahy Packing Company, a Maine corporation, and its subsidiary, the Cudahy Packing Company of Alabama, an Alabama corporation, may sell and deliver and agree, offer, solicit and attempt to sell and deliver regular Alpine Sheep Casings 20/22mm and any person may buy and receive from the Cudahy Packing Company such regular Alpine Sheep Casings at a price not in excess of $1.90 per hank.

(b) The Cudahy Packing Company, a Maine corporation, and its subsidiary, the Cudahy Packing Company of Alabama, an Alabama corporation, shall mail or cause to be mailed to all persons who purchase such regular Alpine Sheep Casings from it for resale reading as follows:

> The Office of Price Administration by Order No. 138 effective December 21, 1942 pursuant to Section 1499.18 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended, has permitted us to raise our maximum prices for sales to you of regular Alpine Sheep Casings from $1.60, per hank to $1.90 per hank. This amount represents only that part of cost increase which we were unable to absorb and it was granted with the understanding that prices for products making use of regular Alpine Sheep Casings would not be raised. The Office of Price Administration has not permitted you, or any other seller, to raise your maximum price for the sale of any product making use of regular Alpine Sheep Casings. In order that we may continue to provide you with such regular Alpine Sheep Casings, it will be necessary for you to accept this reduction in your margin.

(c) All prayers of the petition not granted herein are denied.

(d) This Order No. 138 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) This Order No. 138 (§ 1499.1039) shall become effective December 21, 1942.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

Issued this 19th day of December 1942.

§ 1499.1200 Authorization of maximum prices for sales of "Birds Eye" Brand Quick-Frozen Oven-Baked Beans by Frosted Foods Sales Corporation, by authorized wholesale distributors and by retailers. (a) On and after December 21, 1942, the maximum prices for sales by Frosted Foods Sales Corporation, having its principal place of business at 250 Park Avenue, New York City, of "Birds Eye" Brand Quick-Frozen Oven-Baked Beans shall be:

$1.55 per dozen of 16 ounce packages,
$2.40 per dozen of 28 ounce packages

delivered to purchaser's stations.

(b) Authorized wholesale distributors shall determine their maximum delivered selling prices of "Birds Eye" Brand Quick-Frozen Oven-Baked Beans by adding to their net cost of this item a maximum profit margin of 33 percent of their net cost. The maximum delivered price so determined shall not exceed $2.06 per dozen of 16 ounce packages and $3.19 per dozen of 28 ounce packages. Where a maximum price per dozen determined by the provisions of this paragraph is a fractional cent price and the fraction of a cent is less than one-half cent, the price per dozen shall be lowered to the next lower cent. If the fraction is one-half cent or larger, the distributor is permitted to increase his maximum price per dozen to the next higher cent.

Net cost for an authorized wholesale distributor as mentioned in this paragraph shall be his invoice price of "Birds Eye" Brand Quick-Frozen Oven-Baked Beans delivered in a customary quantity of this type of item by the customary mode of transportation to his customary receiving point, less all discounts allowed him except discount for prompt payment. No charge or cost for unloading or local trucking shall be included in net cost.

(c) Sellers at retail shall determine their maximum selling prices of "Birds Eye" Brand Quick-Frozen Oven-Baked Beans by adding to their net cost of this item a maximum profit margin of 36 percent of their net cost. The maximum prices so determined shall not exceed 23¢ per 16 ounce package or 36¢ per 28 ounce package. Where a maximum price per package determined by the provisions of this paragraph is a fractional cent price and the fraction of a cent is less than one-half cent, the price per package shall be lowered to the next lower cent. If the fraction is one-half cent or larger, the retailer is permitted to increase his maximum price per package to the next higher cent.

Net cost for a retailer as mentioned in this paragraph shall be his invoice price for "Birds Eye" Brand Quick-Frozen Oven-Baked Beans delivered to his customary receiving point in a customary quantity of this type of item by a customary mode of transportation and from a customary source of supply, less all discounts allowed him except the discount for prompt payment. No charge or cost for unloading or local trucking shall be included in net cost.

(d) No seller shall change his customary discounts, cold storage allowances or other allowances applying to sales of other quick-frozen food items in making sales of "Birds Eye" Brand Quick-Frozen Oven-Baked Beans unless such change in these customary discounts, cold storage allowances and other allowances results in lower selling prices.

(e) On and after December 21, 1942, Frosted Foods Sales Corporation shall supply a written notification to each authorized wholesale distributor before or at the time of the first delivery of "Birds Eye" Brand Quick-Frozen Oven-Baked Beans to a distributor, and for a period of three months thereafter shall include with each shipping unit of "Birds Eye" Brand Quick-Frozen Oven-Baked Beans, a written notification to retailers. If such retailer notification is enclosed in a shipping unit, a legend shall be affixed outside of such unit to read "Retailer's Notice Enclosed". The written notifications, for each type of purchaser, shall include the following appropriate statements:

> Notification from Frosted Foods Sales Corporation to authorized wholesale distributors: The Office of Price Administration has authorized us to charge wholesalers the following prices for "Birds Eye" Brand Quick-Frozen Oven-Baked Beans:
> $1.55 per dozen of 16 ounce packages.
> $2.40 per dozen of 28 ounce packages.
> subject to all customary discounts, cold storage allowances and other allowances. Wholesalers are authorized to establish a ceiling price by adding to the net cost of these items 33 percent of such net cost, provided that the ceiling prices so determined shall not exceed $2.06 per dozen of 16 ounce packages and $3.19 per dozen of 28 ounce packages. Net cost is invoice cost at the customary receiving point, less all discounts, other than for prompt payment, and excluding charges for local hauling. Retailers shall establish ceiling prices by adding to their net cost 36 percent of their net cost. Each individual ceiling price determined by any seller shall be figured to the nearest cent (raise one-half cent fractions to the next even cent). A copy of a notification to retailers is included in every shipping unit of these items. If the initial sale of these items to any retailer is a split case sale, wholesalers are required to provide such retailer with a copy of the retail notification so enclosed. Office of Price Administration requires that you keep this notice for examination.

PART 1432—RATIONING OF CONSUMERS' DURABLE GOODS

[Ration Order 9]

HEATING STOVES

Introduction. To assist in relieving the shortage of fuel oil in the thirty eastern and midwestern states, the War Production Board has taken steps to increase the production of coal heating stoves. In order that the maximum fuel oil saving may result from these allocations of critical materials it is imperative that the distribution of these stoves be selective and controlled. This ration order is designed to accomplish this purpose. Since we are close to the seasonal peak of fuel oil demand and since heating stoves are expected to move rapidly on to the market it was necessary to develop quickly an interim plan for rationing them.

In the face of the fuel oil shortage, sales of oil-burning heating stoves which add to the demand for fuel oil must be reduced to the minimum. A further purpose of this ration order is, therefore, to see to it that these stoves are sold only to the highly essential users who cannot use coal-burning stoves.

Under the powers given to me by the War Production Board in Directive No. 1, issued on January 24, 1942, and in Supplementary Directive No. 1–5, issued on December 18, 1942, I hereby order, That heating stoves be rationed as follows:

SUBPART A—GENERAL PLAN

Sec.
1432.1 Heating stoves rationed only in certain states.
1432.2 Transfers of heating stoves prohibited except in certain cases.

SUBPART B—PROVISIONS AFFECTING CONSUMERS AND BOARDS

1432.11 May acquire stove on certificate.
1432.12 Local boards issue certificates.
1432.13 Persons eligible to obtain certificates for new coal heating stoves.
1432.14 Persons eligible to obtain certificates for new oil heating stoves.
1432.15 Application for a certificate: Persons substituting new coal heating stove for oil burning equipment.
1432.16 Application for a certificate: Persons who need to heat unheated space.
1432.17 Application for a certificate: Persons replacing worn out or damaged coal heating equipment.
1432.18 Application for a certificate: Person replacing worn out or damaged oil heating equipment.
1432.19 Issuance of certificate.
1432.20 Preparation and correction of certificate.
1432.21 Applicants may appeal from decision of Board.

SUBPART C—PROVISIONS AFFECTING EXPORTERS AND CERTAIN GOVERNMENT AGENCIES

1432.31 Transfer of new heating stoves to certain Government agencies.
1432.32 Transfer of new heating stoves for export.
1432.33 Transfer of new coal heating stoves under W.P.B. preference rating orders.

1432.47 Reports.

SUBPART E—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1432.51 Transfer for shipment.
1432.52 Transfer for storage.
1432.53 Transfer by judicial process, operation of law, security.

SUBPART F—ADDITIONAL PROHIBITED ACTS AND PROVISIONS FOR ENFORCEMENT

Sec.
1432.61 Prohibited acts relating to certificates.
1432.62 Prohibited acts relating to new heating stoves.
1432.63 False statements and attempts at violation prohibited.
1432.64 Violators may lose right to rationed products.

SUBPART G—GLOSSARY OF TERMS: EFFECTIVE DATE OF ORDER

1432.65 Technical terms explained.
1432.66 Effective date of order.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1432.1 to 1432.66, inclusive, issued pursuant to Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89, 507, and 421, 77th Cong., WPB Directive No. 1, Supp. Dir. No. 1–5, 7 F.R. 562, supra.

SUBPART A—GENERAL PLAN

NOTE: This subpart applies to everyone.

§ 1432.1 Heating stoves rationed only in certain states. In view of the acute shortage of coal and oil heating stoves in those areas suffering from a shortage of fuel oil, this order is issued and the transfer of range burners is forbidden and new coal heating stoves and new oil heating stoves are rationed in the following parts of the United States: The States of Connecticut, Delaware, Florida (east of the Apalachicola River), Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin and the District of Columbia. The regions where this rationing order is to apply will be called in this Ration Order No. 9 the "limitation area." Outside of this limitation area new coal and new oil heating stoves will not be rationed by this order, but the transfer of such equipment will continue to be governed by the orders of War Production Board (such as General Limitation Order L–79 and Preference Rating Order P–84). This Ration Order No. 9 does not apply to stoves designed to burn wood alone, or to used stoves of any kind. (A fuller explanation of the types of stoves and range burners covered by this rationing order appears in § 1432.65.)

§ 1432.2 Transfers of heating stoves prohibited except in certain cases. Transfers of new coal or new oil heating stoves to consumers within the limitation area are permitted in exchange for certificates or memoranda receipts. Transfers may also be made without certificates or memoranda receipts in certain special cases. No other transfers to consumers within the limitation area are allowed.

SUBPART B—PROVISIONS AFFECTING CONSUMERS AND BOARDS

NOTE: This subpart contains all one must known to obtain a new coal or new oil heating stove.

§ 1432.11 May acquire stove on certificate. (a) A person who wishes to acquire a new coal or a new oil heating stove for use must first obtain a certificate. Certificates may be obtained only by limited groups of people. A list of the persons eligible for a certificate for a new coal heating stove appears in § 1432.13; a list of the persons eligible for a certificate for a new oil heating stove appears in § 1432.14. The certificate will state the type of equipment which may be acquired.

(b) The consumer must give the certificate to the seller before or at the time of the delivery of the stove. However, where the seller is not engaged in the business of selling stoves, (for example, another consumer) the buyer must not surrender the certificate to the seller. In such a case, the seller must sign his name and address on the certificate and the buyer must return the certificate to the issuing Board.

(c) Persons acquiring equipment for export and certain government agencies may acquire new heating stoves for use without certificates. Sections 1432.31, 1432.32 and 1432.33 describe the procedure that must be followed in such cases.

§ 1432.12 Local Boards issue certificates. A certificate may be obtained at the local War Price and Rationing Board which serves the area where the stove will be used.

§ 1432.13 Persons eligible to obtain certificates for new coal heating stoves. The following persons may obtain certificates for new coal heating stoves:

(a) Anyone who wishes to substitute a coal heating stove for oil heating equipment, including anyone who received an interim fuel oil ration under Ration Order No. 11, for use in oil burning equipment bought after July 31, 1942.

(b) Anyone who needs a heating stove to heat essential living or working space which is not heated by any equipment, and who has not disposed of any usable heating equipment suitable for heating this space in the sixty (60) days before application.

(c) Anyone who needs to replace coal burning equipment which heated essential living or working space and which is worn out or damaged beyond all possible repair. No one is eligible for a certificate if his old stove can be repaired, but if the necessary parts are unavailable, a certificate may be issued.

(d) Anyone who is eligible for an auxiliary fuel oil ration (under Ration Order No. 11) of 350 gallons or more.

§ 1432.14 Persons eligible to obtain certificates for new oil heating stoves. Because of the scarcity of fuel oil in the limitation area, the transfer of oil heating stoves must be greatly restricted; therefore, the only persons who may obtain new oil heating stoves are those who:

Wish to replace oil burning equipment which heated essential living or working space and which is worn out or damaged beyond all possible repair and are unable to use coal burning equipment because:

(a) The space to be heated is a house-trailer; or

(b) Either coal or coal-burning equipment is unavailable; or

(c) No member of the household is physically able to operate coal burning equipment; or

(d) There is no flue or chimney or other provision for venting.

§ 1432.15 Application for a certificate: Persons substituting new coal heating stove for oil burning equipment. A person who wishes to substitute a coal heating stove for oil burning equipment (see paragraph (a) of § 1432.13) must surrender all of his unused and unexpired fuel oil coupon sheets or coupons to his Board together with a statement signed by him that he is surrendering to the Board all of his unused and unexpired fuel oil coupon sheets or coupons.

§ 1432.16 Application for a certificate: Persons who need to heat unheated space. A person who needs a heating stove to heat unheated essential space (see paragraph (b) of § 1432.13) must present to the Board the following statement signed by him:

I, ------------------, hereby certify that
(Print name)
I am the owner (or tenant) of premises located at ------------------ which are not (Print address)
heated by any equipment; that these premises constitute essential living or working space; that I have not disposed of any usable heating equipment suitable for heating this space within the sixty (60) days before this application; and that I need a stove to heat the premises.

(Sign your name)

§ 1432.17 Application for a certificate: Person replacing worn out or damaged coal heating equipment. (a) A person who needs a stove to replace worn out or damaged coal heating equipment (See paragraph (c) of § 1432.13) must present to the Board the following statement signed by him.

I, ------------------, hereby certify that
(Print name)
I am the owner (or tenant) of premises located at ------------------; and that the (Print address)
coal fired equipment which was heating essential living or working space at these premises is worn out or damaged beyond all possible repair, for the following reasons:

(Sign your name)

(b) The Board may require that the applicant's statement be signed by the dealer or a heating contractor if it feels that this signature is necessary to make a decision.

§ 1432.18 Application for a certificate: Person replacing worn out or damaged oil heating equipment. (a) A person who needs an oil heating stove to replace worn out or damaged oil heating equipment (See § 1432.14) must present to the Board a statement signed by him explaining why he is unable to use coal heating equipment to heat the premises and the following statement signed by him.

I, ------------------, hereby certify that
(Print name)
I am the owner (or tenant) of premises located at ------------------; and that (Print address)
the oil fired equipment which was heating essential living or working space at these premises is worn out or damaged beyond all possible repair, for the following reasons:

(Sign your name)

(b) The Board may require that the applicant's statement be signed by the dealer or a heating contractor if it feels that this signature is necessary to make a decision.

§ 1432.19 Issuance of certificate. (a) If the Board finds that the applicant is eligible for a new coal or new oil heating stove, it shall issue to the applicant a certificate authorizing him to buy the type of equipment for which he is eligible.

(b) The Board may with the consent of an applicant for an auxiliary fuel oil ration (if he is eligible for an auxiliary ration of 350 gallons or more) issue to him a certificate for a new coal heating stove instead of the auxiliary fuel oil ration.

(c) The certificate will not be transferable and will be valid for thirty (30) days from the date of issuance. Thereafter it will be null and void and must be returned to the Board.

(d) The certificate must be issued in triplicate on OPA Form 403 (certificate for purchase of typewriters) properly prepared and corrected. Part B of the certificate should be given to the applicant as his authority to buy the stove; Part A should be mailed or sent to the appropriate State Office of the Office of Price Administration; and Part C should be kept by the Board and filed as its record.

§ 1432.20 Preparation and correction of certificate. Since the form to be issued was formerly used as a typewriter certificate, the Board will have to cross out certain portions which do not apply. Following is a detailed explanation of how the certificate should be prepared and corrected for issuance as a heating stove certificate:

(a) Cross out the word "typewriter" and write in the word "stove" in second line of heading.

(b) In the line which begins "At least two members of the Board," cross out the words "and the purchaser."

(c) Write the date of issue in Item (1), the number and address of the Board in item (2) and (3), and the name and address of the applicant in items (4) and (5).

(d) Cross out item (6) (parts (a), (b) and (c))

(e) Under bold type subheading "Certification of Board" cross out everything after the words "to purchase" and insert the words "one (1) coal-fired heating stove or the words "one (1) oil-fired heating stove."

(f) Cross out blanks under "size" and "quantity".

(g) Cross out item (7).

(h) The issuing officer of the Board must sign at item (8).

(i) Cross out items (9) and (10).

(j) Cross out everything below item (10).

§ 1432.21 Applicants may appeal from decision of Board. Any applicant who has been denied a Certificate by a Board may appeal. The appeal procedure is set forth in Procedural Regulation No. 9[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SUBPART C PROVISIONS AFFECTING EXPORTERS AND CERTAIN GOVERNMENT AGENCIES

(Transfers in exchange for memoranda receipts)

§ 1432.31 Transfer of new heating stoves to certain Government agencies. The Army, Navy, Marine Corps, War Shipping Administration or the Maritime Commission, of the United States, may acquire range burners, new coal or new oil heating stoves without obtaining certificates from Boards but they must, at or before the time of delivery, give to the dealer a memorandum receipt on an official letterhead of the agency setting forth the date of delivery, the name and address of dealer and the number of units delivered. This statement must be signed by an authorized representative of the agency.

§ 1432.32 Transfer of new heating stoves for export. Any government agency or other person acquiring new coal or new oil heating stoves for export to and consumption or use in any foreign country may acquire such equipment without obtaining certificates from Boards, but they must, at or before time of delivery, give to the dealer a memorandum receipt on the official letterhead of the agency or person setting forth the date of delivery, the name and address of the dealer and the number of units delivered. This statement must be signed by an authorized representative of the agency or of the person exporting the equipment.

§ 1432.33 Transfers of new coal heating stoves under W.P.B. preference rating orders. The Federal Public Housing Authority acquiring new coal heating stoves under any preference rating order of the War Production Board or any contractor acquiring new coal heating stoves under W.P.B. Preference Orders Nos. P–55, P–110 or any preference rating order of the P–19 series, may acquire these stoves without obtaining certificates from Boards but they must, at or before the time of delivery, give to the dealer a memorandum receipt on an official letterhead of the agency or contractor setting forth the date of delivery, the name and address of the dealer and the number of units delivered. This statement must be signed by an authorized representative of the agency or contractor.

SUBPART D—PROVISIONS WHICH APPLY TO THE TRADE

NOTE: This subpart should be read by everyone who sells new heating stoves.

§ 1432.41 Dealer not required to surrender certificate or memorandum receipt in purchasing new heating stoves. A dealer, wholesaler, or manufacturer in the limitation area may acquire new coal or new oil heating stoves for retransfer from anyone anywhere in the United States without the surrender of certificates or memorandum receipts. If he wishes to acquire a new heating stove for use, he must surrender a certificate issued to him by his Board.

§ 1432.42 Dealer may not use new heating stove without certificate. If a dealer or anyone engaged in the business of selling new heating stoves wishes to use a new heating stove which he has in stock, he must apply to his Board for a certificate.

§ 1432.43 Seller must obtain certificate or memorandum receipt in transferring new heating stoves. When a dealer or anyone engaged in the business of selling new heating stoves transfers a new coal or new oil heating stove to a customer, he must obtain a certificate from the consumer. If the consumer is an exporter, or a government agency specified in §§ 1432.31, 1432.32 and 1432.33, the dealer must obtain a memorandum receipt.

§ 1432.44 New coal heating stove may not be shipped outside limitation area. No person may ship new coal heating stoves from inside the limitation area to any point outside the limitation area, except to the states of Washington and Oregon, or upon special permission from the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

§ 1432.45 Transfer of business. A person acquiring the business of a dealer or of a person engaged in the business of selling stoves, may acquire the new coal or new oil heating stoves which are a part of the assets of that business. The person acquiring the business need not surrender any certificates. However, in taking over the business, he must obtain and keep the records which the person transferring the business was required to keep.

§ 1432.46 Records which must be kept. On and after December 20, 1942, all dealers, wholesalers and manufacturers must keep for two years (a) a permanent record containing the following information:

(1) The number of complete new coal or new oil heating stoves in their inventory at 12:01 a. m. on December 18, 1942;

(2) The date of each delivery of new coal or new oil heating stoves received by them on or after 12:01 a. m. of December 18, 1942, the name and address of the person or firm from whom such equipment was received and the number of stoves of each type received;

(3) The date of each sale of new coal or new oil heating stoves made by them on or after 12:01 a. m. of December 18, 1942, the name and address of the person to whom such stove was sold, the type of stove sold, and the serial number of the Certificate received for each stove if sold to a consumer.

(b) All certificates and memoranda receipts received by them for stoves transferred.

§ 1432.47 Reports. No reports need be filed under this Ration Order No. 9 unless the Office of Price Administration specifically requests them.

SUBPART E—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

NOTE: This subpart should be referred to when special problems arise.

§ 1432.51 Transfer for shipment. A new heating stove may be acquired by a carrier for shipment and transferred by it to: (1) the person from whom the stove was received; (2) the consignee; (3) a person to whom the right to the stove has been duly transferred, or (4) to connecting carriers for the same purpose. A certificate need not be surrendered in these cases.

§ 1432.52 Transfer for storage. Any person may store a new heating stove in a public warehouse, without giving up a certificate. Also, a public warehouse may transfer a new heating stove, without getting a certificate, to the person from whom it received the stove or to a person to whom the right to receive the stove has been duly transferred.

§ 1432.52 Transfer by judicial process, operation of law, security. (a) A new heating stove may be acquired by, or a lien created thereon in favor of, the following persons and in the following cases without the surrender of a certificate:

(1) Any person, pursuant to judicial process or an order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction or by operation of law;

(2) A Government or political subdivision or agency thereof, in the enforcement or exercise against such stove of statutory rights or powers.

(b) A security interest in a stove, other than a pledge, may be created in favor of the following persons and in the following cases without the surrender of a certificate:

(1) A Government or political subdivision or agency thereof;

(2) Any person duly licensed to engage in the business of making loans upon collateral and regulated in conducting such business by a State or the United States or by the Government of a Territory or Possession of the United States;

(3) Any person, where the security interest arises or is transferred with respect to all or substantially all the assets of a business enterprise.

(c) A stove or any interest therein or lien thereon acquired pursuant to paragraph (c) or (b) of this section may be returned to the person from whom it was acquired, or may be released, without the surrender of a certificate.

(d) Any person who has acquired a new heating stove for security purposes or in whose favor a lien thereon has been created, as permitted of this section, or who holds a lien on or security interest in a stove, created on or before December 20, 1942 may enforce the security, lien, or other interest in the manner provided by applicable law. A storage so acquired by a person, unless by inheritance, may not be used by him and may be transferred only to a person expressly authorized by Ration Order No. 9 to acquire a new heating stove.

SUBPART F—ADDITIONAL PROHIBITED ACTS AND PROVISIONS FOR ENFORCEMENT

§ 1432.61 Prohibited acts relating to certificates. No person shall use, possess, or transfer any certificate, or record except as permitted in this Ration Order No. 9, nor shall any person forge or counterfeit any of these documents. No person shall alter, or wilfully damage or destroy any of these documents unless duly authorized to do so.

§ 1432.62 Prohibited acts relating to new heating stoves. No person shall possess or use (or permit the use of) any new heating stove acquired in violation of this Ration Order No. 9, or of any other order of the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1432.63 False statements and attempts at violation prohibited. (a) No person shall make any false statement of fact in any document under this Ration Order No. 9, or omit to state a fact which should be stated to prevent the statement already made from being misleading.

(b) No person shall solicit, offer, attempt or agree to do any act in violation of this Ration Order No. 9, either directly or indirectly.

§ 1432.64 Violators may lose right to rationed products. Any person who violates this Ration Order No. 9 may be prohibited from receiving or using a new heating stove or any other rationed products or facilities or from selling or otherwise disposing of them. The prohibition will be in the form of an administrative suspension order which may be issued for such period of time as in the judgment of the Administrator (or of someone designated by him) is necessary or proper to promote the public welfare and the national security.

SUBPART G—GLOSSARY OF TERMS; EFFECTIVE DATE OF ORDER

§ 1432.65 Technical terms explained. (a) The words used in this Ration Order No. 9 shall have their common or accepted meanings in the context in which they are used. For purposes of greater clarity, a glossary or set of definitions of the terms whose meanings may be open to doubt is included in this order. The meanings given in the glossary shall be regarded as controlling.

(1) "Board" means a War Price and Rationing Board established by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) "Certificate" means a certificate issued by a Board on OPA Form R–403 corrected to authorize the acquisition of a new coal or new oil heating stove.

(3) "Coal heating stove" means any coal fired heating stove.

(4) "Consumer" means any person who acquires a new coal or new oil heating stove other than a person who acquires such equipment for resale without using it for the purpose for which it was designed.

(5) "Dealer" means any person who is engaged in the business of selling new heating stoves to consumers.

(6) "Heating stove" means above-the-floor equipment (including portable heaters) designed to heat the space adjacent to such equipment without the use of pipes or ducts for conveying heat to such space.

(7) "House-trailer" means any vehicle (whether or not self-propelled) used primarily for residential purposes. The term also includes any railroad car used for residential purposes and not for transporting persons or property.

(8) "New" as applied to heating stoves includes:

(i) Heating stoves which have not been sold to consumers; and

(ii) Heating stoves which have been sold to consumers but which have not been used for more than sixty (60) days.

(9) "Oil heating stove" means any oil fired heating stove.

(10) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, government or government agency, or any other organized group or enterprise.

(11) "Range burner" means any range burner conversion unit designed for the conversion of heating or cooking stoves from the use of coal as a fuel to oil or gas.

(12) "State" includes the District of Columbia.

(13) "Transfer" means to sell, give, exchange, lease, lend, deliver, receive, supply or furnish, and includes the acquisition of title by legal process or operatiton of law, such as, but not limited to, the acquisition of title by will, inheritance or foreclosure.

(14) "Working space" means space used for carrying on a business, gainful work or work which contributes to the war effort or to the public welfare.

§ 1432.66 Effective date of order. Ration Order No. 9 (§§ 1432.1 to 1432.66, inclusive) shall become effective December 19, 1942.

Issued this 19th day of December 1942.

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

Chapter I—Coast Guard, Department of the Navy

PART 6—REGULATIONS FOR SECURITY OF PORTS AND THE CONTROL OF VESSELS IN THE NAVIGABLE WATERS OF THE UNITED STATES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the authority contained in section 1, Title II of the Espionage Act approved June 15, 1917, 40 Stat. 220, as amended by the Act of November 15, 1941, 55 Stat. 763 (U.S.C. Title 50, Sec. 191, 191a), and by virtue of the Proclamation and Executive Order issued June 27, 1940 (5 F.R. 2419), and November 1, 1941 (6 F.R. 5581), respectively, the Regulations relating to the control of vessels in the navigable waters of the United States, approved September 29, 1942 (7 F.R. 8026) are hereby amended as follows:

By amending § 6.1–5 (a) (4) to read as follows:

§ 6.1–5 (a) * * *

(4) Anchorage D. Located southerly on a line extending 35° from Lighthouse Channel Buoy No. 1 to White Anchorage Buoy E, thence 145° to the easterly tangent of the Marine Railway of the Maine Shipyard.

By amending § 6.3–10 (a) to read as follows:

§ 6.3–10 Raritan Bay anchorages—(a) Quarantine anchorage. (1) A quarantine anchorage for vessels is established off Perth Amboy westerly of the Raritan Bay Channel leading into Arthur Kill, northerly of a line extending westerly from Raritan Bay Channel Buoy 42 to the center of the draw of the New York and Long Branch railroad bridge across Raritan River (227°10′ true); northeasterly of a line parallel to and 150 yards southwesterly of a line extending from Great Beds Light to Saint Peter's Church spire at Perth Amboy (331°31′ true) and southeasterly of the cutoff channel between Raritan River and Arthur Kill.

(2) Whenever the captain of the port shall find that emergency conditions related to the war effort so require, he may allot for the exclusive or nonexclusive use of such vessels or classes of vessels (whether or not awaiting pratique) as he may designate, such portion of the foregoing anchorage as lies southerly of a line extending westerly from Raritan Bay Channel Buoy 42 to White Can Buoy "A".

By adding the following sections to Subpart C:

§ 6.6–7 Waters of the Cape Fear River, North Carolina—(a) The restricted area. All waters of the Cape Fear River from its entrance inside of a line extending 146° true from Oak Island Coast Guard Station to a point tangent on the outer coast line of Bald Head Island, thence 1,775 yards, 208° true to Radio Beacon Tower; and from points 500 yards north of the Atlantic Coastline Railroad Bridge on the Cape Fear River, and 500 yards north of the Atlantic Coastline Railroad Bridge on the northeast Cape Fear River.

(b) Regulations. No vessel under 100 feet in overall length, except public vessels, shall operate, navigate, anchor or moor within the restricted area, without first obtaining permission to do so from the Captain of the Port, Wilmington, North Carolina: Provided, That such vessels may transit the waters between points of entrance on the Intracoastal Waterway at Southport, North Carolina and Snow's Cut, on continuous passage during the hours between sunrise and sunset.

§ 6.8–33 Waters of the Gulf of Mexico; Ellington Field Gunnery Range southwest end of Galveston Island, Texas—(a) The danger zone. Waters of the Gulf of Mexico at the southwest end of Galveston Island within the area bounded as follows:

	Latitude	Longitude.
North corner	29°06′52″ N.	95°06′02″ W.
East corner	29°05′19″ N.	95°04′28″ W.
South corner	29°04′37″ N.	95°05′22″ W.
West corner	29°05′51″ N.	95°06′42″ W.

(b) The regulations. (1) Target practice over the area will consist of low altitude attack by airplanes on ground targets placed along the gulf beach. Firing over the area will take place from 7:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m., daily including Sundays, weather permitting.

(2) When firing is in progress, no vessel or other craft shall enter or remain in the restricted area. No marking of the water area is proposed and all craft shall be presumed to know their whereabouts by distances and directions from landmarks or topographical features along the shore.

(3) These regulations will be enforced by the Commanding Officer of Ellington Field, Ellington Field, Texas, and by the Captain of the Port of Galveston, Texas.

Frank Knox,
Secretary of the Navy.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Bituminous Coal Division.

[Docket No. A–1790]

Luis Yellico

MEMORANDUM, OPINION AND ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF

In the matter of the petition of Luis Yellico, code member in District No. 17, for a reduction in the effective minimum price for 3000 tons of substandard coal, for sale to the Colorado State Hospital at Pueblo, Colorado.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was filed with the Division by the above-named party, requesting the temporary establishment of a minimum price of $2.10 per ton for 3000 tons of Size Group 10 coal (1¼'' x ¾'') for shipment by truck to the Colorado State Hospital at Pueblo, Colorado.

Petitioner alleges that during the period from October 1, 1940 to March 1, 1942, there were produced from the Canon Black Diamond Mine, Mine Index No. 419, in District No. 17, three sizes of coal 1¼'' and smaller in size; namely, 1¼'' x ¾'', 1¼'' x 0 and ¾'' x 0. Petitioner further alleges that due to the lack of a market for his 1¼'' x 0 slack coals, a very small amount thereof was made during said time, but that in order to dispose of his coals 1¼'' x 0 and smaller in size, it was necessary for petitioner to separate such coals into two sizes, 1¼'' x ¾'' pea coal and ¾'' x 0 slack. The preparation of the two above-mentioned sizes enabled petitioner to dispose of all of his ¾'' x 0 slack coal but also resulted in the accumulation of approximately 3000 tons of 1¼'' x ¾'' pea coal which petitioner was forced to store on the ground adjacent to his mine.

Petitioner avers that the 3,000 tons of pea coal stored on the ground has been subject to the elements for a period of from nine to twenty-six months and as a consequence, has slacked and deteriorated to the extent that it is now comparable to 1¼'' x 0 slack and cannot be sold at the effective minimum price for pea coal. Petitioner requests that he be permitted to sell the 3,000 tons of deteriorated pea coal to the Colorado State Hospital at Pueblo, Colorado, at a minimum price of $2.10 per ton f. o. b. mine, which is the effective minimum price for 1¼'' x 0 slack coal produced from petitioner's mine.

The Division is in receipt of communications from District Boards Nos. 16 and 17 in support of the request for relief contained in the original petition in this matter. Further it appears that the granting of the relief requested by petitioner will not prejudice competing code members in District No. 17 since petitioner requests permission to sell his stored coal only to the Colorado State Hospital at Pueblo, Colorado, alleging that due to the inordinate demand for coals 1¼'' x 0 in size at the present time, State institutions are encountering difficulty in obtaining an adequate supply of coal.

In view of the foregoing facts and circumstances it appears that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of the temporary relief requested in the original petition in this matter. However, it appears that such relief should be limited to the sale by petitioner of 3,000 tons of the substandard coal to the Colorado State Hospital at Pueblo, Colorado.

It is ordered, That temporary relief be, and the same hereby is, granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the 3000 tons of Size Group 10 coal (1¼'' x ¾'') produced from the Canon Black Diamond Mine, Mine Index No. 419, of code member Luis Yellico, in District No. 17, and stored upon the ground during the period October 1, 1940 to March 1, 1942, inclusive, shall be subject to a minimum price of $2.10[1] per net ton f. o. b. mine for shipment by truck to the Colorado State Hospital at Pueblo, Colorado: Provided, however, That the temporary minimum price of $2.10[1] per net ton shall be effective only upon 3000 tons of the said storage coal for sale to the Colorado State Hospital at Pueblo, Colorado, and; Provided further, That code member Luis Yellico shall, by formal document appropriately designated as pertaining to Docket No. A–1790, notify the Division when the sale of such coal has been completed.

It is further ordered, That the proceeding in Docket No. A–1790 shall be terminated, and the docket closed, upon receipt of the aforesaid notification from code member Luis Yellico that the sale of 3000 tons of substandard Size Group 10 coal produced from the Canon Black Diamond Mine has been completed.

Notice is hereby given that applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed pursuant to Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Dated: December 19, 1942.

[Docket No. B–253]

Pierce and Huntsman

CEASE AND DESIST ORDER

In the matter of Francis M. Pierce and Arthur Huntsman, individually and as copartners, doing business under the name and style of Pierce & Huntsman, Code Member.

District Board 4, by complaint duly filed April 29, 1942, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Act against Francis M. Pierce and Arthur Huntsman, copartners, trading and doing business as Pierce & Huntsman, code member producer, operating the Peacock Mine, Mine Index No. 544, located in Belmont County, Ohio, in District 4, alleged that code member wilfully violated the provision of the Bituminous Coal Code and rules and regulations thereunder, and prayed that the Division revoke and cancel code membership, or in its discretion, direct code member to cease and desist from further violations of the Code and regulations thereunder.

Complainant alleged that code member violated the Code by selling, between June 12, 1941 and December 16, 1941, approximately 694.78 tons of run of mine coal (Size Group 6) to the Board of Trustees of Public Affairs of the Village of Barnesville, Ohio, at $2.25 per net ton, delivered at the Village Water Works, approximately ten miles from the mine, when the effective minimum price established for such coal is $2.20 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, and that such sale constituted a violation of the effective minimum price in that code member failed to add the actual transportation cost of the coal to the f. o. b. mine price.

Pursuant to an Order of the Acting Director, dated May 21, 1942, after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on June 23, 1942, before W. A. Cuff, a duly designated Examiner of the Division at a hearing room thereof, in Zanesville, Ohio;

All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise participate fully in the hearing; District Board 4, Francis M. Pierce and Arthur Huntsman appeared at the hearing and all interested parties waived the preparation and filing of a Report by the Examiner. The record of the proceeding was submitted to me for consideration. I have accordingly made Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and rendered an Opinion, which are filed herewith.

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That code member, the partners thereof, individually and as partners, their agents, servants, employees, successors or assigns, and all persons acting or claiming to act for or on behalf of them or either of them, cease and desist from violating sections 4 II (e) and (g) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and Price Instruction 6 of the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District 4 for Truck Shipments or from otherwise violating the Bituminous Coal Act or rules and regulations promulgated thereunder;

Notice is hereby given to code member that if it, or the partners thereof, fail or refuse to comply with this Order, the Division will apply to a Circuit Court of Appeals for the enforcement thereof, or otherwise proceed as authorized by the Act.

Dated: December 19, 1942.

[Docket No. B–350]

Earl M. Read

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of Earl M. Read, Code Member.

A complaint dated December 1, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of section 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act"), having been duly filed on December 4, 1942, by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 1, complainant, with the Bituminous Coal Division (the "Division"), alleging wilful violation by Earl M. Read (the "Code Member"), of the Bituminous Coal Code (the "Code"), or rules and regulations thereunder:

---

[1] 7 F.R. 9345, 9978.

[1] 7 F.R. 5889.

[1] 7 F.R. 5678, 7694, 9623.

[1] This minimum price is, of course, subject to the provisions of Price Instructions and Exception No. 13 as contained in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 17 For All Shipments.

It is ordered, That a hearing in respect to the subject matter of such complaint be held on January 27, 1943, at 2 p. m. at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at the Clearfield County Court House, Clearfield, Pennsylvania.

It is further ordered, That Charles O. Fowler or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, to take evidence, and to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said Code Member and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in this proceeding. Any person or entity eligible under § 301.123 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Act, may file a petition for intervention not later than five (5) days before the date herein set for hearing on the complaint.

Notice is hereby given that answer to the complaint must be filed with the Division at its Washington Office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the Code Member; and that failure to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to be an admission of the allegations of the complaint herein and a consent to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

Notice is also hereby given that if it shall be determined that the Code Member has wilfully committed any one or more of the violations alleged in the complaint, an order may be entered either revoking the membership of the Code Member in the Code and the Code Member's right to an exemption from the taxes imposed by section 3520 (b) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code, or directing the Code Member to cease and desist from violating the Code and regulations made thereunder.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

Notice is also hereby given that any application, pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Division for the disposition of this proceeding without formal hearing, must be filed not later than fifteen (15) days after receipt by the Code Member of the complaint herein.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant alleging that said Earl M. Read, a code member, 315 Maple Avenue, Clearfield, Pennsylvania, whose code membership became effective as of July 25, 1938, and who operates the Read Brothers' Mine, Mine Index 1929, located in Subdistrict No. 7 of District No. 1, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, has wilfully violated the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the Bituminous Coal Code, and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder by selling and delivering by truck, subsequent to September 30, 1940, coal produced at the aforesaid mine at prices below the effective minimum therefor, plus the transportation charges, handling charges, or incidental charges from the transportation facilities at the mine to the point at which such charges were assumed and directly paid by the purchasers, including the following transactions:

The sales and deliveries during the period from April 1, 1941 to August 23, 1941, both dates inclusive, of approximately 620 net tons of run of mine coal, Size Group 3, to the Franklin Tanning Company, Curwensville, Pennsylvania, a distance of approximately three miles from said mine, at a delivered price of $2.20 per net ton, whereas the effective minimum f. o. b. mine price of said coal, as set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 For Truck Shipment was $2.20 per net ton, plus an amount at least equal, as nearly as practicable to the transportation charges, handling charges, or incidental charges from the transportation facilities at the mine to said Franklin Tanning Company plant pursuant to Price Instruction No. 6 of said Schedule as amended and contained in Supplement No. 1 to said Schedule. Each of said sales and deliveries of coal resulted in a wilful violation of said section 4 Part II (e) and (g) of the Act and Part II (e) and (g) of the Code.

Dated: December 19, 1942.

LEARNER EMPLOYMENT CERTIFICATES

ISSUANCE TO VARIOUS INDUSTRIES

Notice of issuance of special certificates for the employment of learners under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938.

Notice is hereby given that Special Certificates authorizing the employment of learners at hourly wages lower than the minimum rate applicable under section 6 of the Act are issued under section 14 thereof and § 522.5 (b) of the Regulations issued thereunder (August 16, 1940, 5 F.R. 2862) to the employers listed below effective December 21, 1942.

The employment of learners under these Certificates is limited to the terms and conditions as designated opposite the employer's name. These Certificates are issued upon the employers' representations that experienced workers for the learner occupations are not available for employment and that they are actually in need of learners at subminimum rates in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment. The Certificates may be cancelled in the manner provided for in the Regulations and as indicated on the Certificate. Any person aggrieved by the issuance of these Certificates may seek a review or reconsideration thereof.

[Docket FDC-33]

Alimentary Pastes

DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

In the matter of fixing and establishing a definition and standard of identity for each of the following foods: Macaroni; spaghetti; vermicelli; macaroni product; noodles, egg noodles; noodle product, egg noodle product, egg macaroni product; and related foods.

PROPOSED ORDER

It is proposed that, by virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 401, 701 (e); 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U.S.C. 341, 371 (e), 1940 ed.); the Reorganization Act of 1939 (53 Stat. 561 ff.; 5 U.S.C. 133–133v (Supp. V, 1939)); and Reorganization Plans No. I (53 Stat. 1423) and No. IV (54 Stat. 1234); and upon the basis of evidence of record at the above-entitled hearing duly held pursuant to the notices issued on August 29, 1941 (6 F.R. 4481) and October 3, 1941 (6 F.R. 5050), the following order be made:

FINDINGS OF FACT [1]

1. "Macaroni products" is a collective name commonly used in the trade and to a considerable extent on the labels of such products to designate a class of foods each of which is prepared from semolina, durum flour, farina, flour, or any combination of two or more of these, made into a dough with water. Occasionally salt is added as seasoning. Other optional ingredients hereinafter noted are sometimes added. The dough is formed into units of a wide variety of shapes and sizes, and is then dried. (R. pp. 18–21, 25–7, 32–3, 110)

2. The water content of the finished macaroni products varies somewhat but is usually between 11.5 percent and 12.5 percent. If they are insufficiently dried they do not have the texture and brittleness expected in such products and are liable to spoilage through molding or souring. Since 1927 the advisory standards under the Food and Drugs Act of 1906 have prescribed a maximum moisture limit of 13 percent. This limit has been generally observed by the industry. In the manufacture of these products it is entirely practicable to bring the water content below 13 percent. This corresponds to a total solids content of not less than 87 percent. (R. pp. 19, 21, 26, 28–9, 31, 87–9, 254)

3. The method prescribed on page 235 of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Fifth Edition, 1940, under "Vacuum Oven Method—Official," is the method generally used to determine the total solids content of macaroni products and is recognized among food chemists as the most accurate method known at the present time for this purpose. (R. pp. 28, 29)

4. As noted in finding 1, macaroni products are formed into units of a wide variety of shapes and sizes. Some are tubular, straight or curved, in varying diameters and lengths. Others are cord-shaped, straight or curved or twisted into "nests," and of varying diameters and lengths. There are many other shapes and sizes, such as "shell," "bow ties," "stars," "alphabet." One hundred thirty or more different shapes and sizes are marketed. (R. pp. 32–3, 90, 143 OP Ex. B, C, D)

5. Many manufacturers who put out a large variety of shapes and sizes label all their packages with the generic designation "macaroni product" and supplement this with a specific designation or with pictorial illustrations indicative of the size and shape. The designation "macaroni product" has been used infrequently to include noodle products also, but the term generally used to include both types of products (as well as the other related products hereinafter referred to) is "alimentary paste." The unqualified word "macaroni" is widely used as the name of a product of a particular size range and shape (see findings 8 and 10), and is also used at times as a generic designation in lieu of the term "macaroni product." The labeling of a substantial proportion of the production bears no generic designation but bears the names "macaroni," "spaghetti," etc. used in a specific sense. (R. pp. 17–20, 33, 92–3, 142, 157–62, 226–7, 255–7, 299, 300, 318–20, 802–3)

6. The specific designations used for most of the various sizes and shapes are Italian words. In most cases the record does not indicate with any certainty the particular sizes and shapes to which these designations are applied. Use of these terms is not entirely uniform; the same designation may be used by difrent manufacturers for different sizes or shapes. These designations are usually understood by consumers of Italian origin or descent, but most of the designations, such as "zitoni," "capellini," "maruzze," "farfalle," are meaningless to American consumers generally. The sale of articles under these names is not restricted to the so-called Italian trade. (R. pp. 32–3, 245, 247, 804, 841, OPEx. B, C, D)

7. Specific designations which appear to be understood by the public generally are "macaroni" and "spaghetti." (These names are frequently qualified by such descriptive words as "elbow" in the case of macaroni and "thin" in the case of spaghetti.) Some persons of non-Italian origin understand the designation "vermicelli." These three names have been included in advisory standards under the Food and Drugs Act of 1906 since 1917 and appear in current dictionaries of the English language. The greatly predominating proportion of macaroni products, perhaps over 90 percent of the total production, is purchased under these three names. (R. pp. 17–21, 34–5, 300, 322)

8. The name "macaroni" is regarded by consumers generally as a specific name indicative of size and shape, rather than as a generic name. The names "spaghetti" and "vermicelli" are regarded only as specific names, both in the trade and by consumers. (R. pp. 31, 122, 135, 175, 178, 206, 259, 732, 803–5)

9. Consumers distinguish the various kinds of macaroni products on the basis of sizes and shapes. It would be misleading to sell one size and shape under the name of another. (R. pp. 31, 122–3, 135, 175, 178, 732, 803–5, 831)

10. The food commonly and usually known as "macaroni" is prepared as described in finding 1 and is formed into tubular units, the diameter of which is more than 0.11 inch but not more than 0.27 inch. (R. pp. 25, 31, 99–100, 110, 142, 283, 322, 828–9)

11. The food commonly and usually known as "spaghetti" is prepared as described in finding 1 and is formed into cord-shaped or tubular units, the diameter of which is more than 0.06 inch but not more than 0.11 inch. (R. pp. 25, 32, 94, 99, 110, 165, 283, 302, 322, 828–9, OP Ex. A)

12. The food commonly and usually known as "vermicelli" is prepared as described in finding 1 and is formed into cord-shaped units, the diameter of which is not more than 0.06 inch. (R. pp. 25, 32, 110, 283)

13. Thin-walled macaroni products cook more quickly than those with thick walls. Frozen or dried egg white has been used to some extent as an ingredient of thin-walled macaroni products to prevent the collapse of the units during and after cooking, and is suitable for such use. Freshly separated egg white is also suitable. The quantity needed for this purpose is such that the finished product contains not more than 2 percent and not less than 0.5 percent by weight of egg white solids. (R. pp. 250–3, 268–75)

14. Egg white is not used in macaroni products to enhance nutritive value, but is used solely for the purpose stated in finding 13. There was no proposal for the use of egg white and no evidence that it would be suitable for use for such purpose in any alimentary paste except macaroni products. (R. pp. 253, 273)

15. Products designated as "milk macaroni" or as macaroni or spaghetti "enriched with milk" have been on the market for a number of years. These products are of the same composition as ordinary macaroni and spaghetti except that they contain varying quantities of the solids of milk or skim milk. One firm prepares both macaroni and spaghetti with 2 percent of dried milk; the labeling and advertising of these products stress the use of milk, and tend to give consumers an exaggerated impression of the quantity of milk present. Another firm puts out as "milk macaroni" a product in which milk of 4 percent fat content is used as the sole moistening ingredient in making the dough. Two other firms use dried skim milk in articles marketed as "milk macaroni." (R. pp. 334–57, 806–9, OPEx. E)

16. The use of liquid whole milk of average composition as the sole moistening ingredient in preparing the dough (corresponding to the common practice in making milk bread) results in a finished product having characteristics differing substantially from those of macaroni products. Accurate and informative names for products so prepared are the same as the names of the corresponding sizes and shapes of macaroni products, preceded by the word "milk." (R. pp. 765–7, 809–10, 894)

17. In lieu of fluid whole milk, milk ingredients which are suitable for use in making milk macaroni products are dried milk, reconstituted milk, concentrated milk, and evaporated milk, with such quantity of added water as is necessary to make the dough. If milk of average composition is used as the sole moistening ingredient in making the dough the finished milk macaroni product contains not less than 3.8 percent by weight of milk solids, and a reasonable requirement when the milk ingredients specified above are used in lieu of milk is that they contribute at least as much milk solids as fluid milk of average composition contributes when it is used as the sole moistening ingredient. Because of variation in the total solids content of liquid whole milk and because of the limited absorption of the moistening ingredient used in making the dough it would not be reasonable to prescribe a minimum based on the average composition of milk for the milk solids content of milk macaroni products when liquid whole milk is used as the sole moistening ingredient. (R. pp. 334, 766–7, 806–10, 869–70, 879, 892–6)

18. Reconstituted milk is usually made from dried skim milk, butter, and water. Skim milk, concentrated skim milk, and evaporated skim milk, with water added as necessary, are also suitable for use in lieu of dried skim milk. When milk is reconstituted, it is reasonable to require that the weight of non-fat milk solids be not more than 2.275 times the weight of milk fat, which is the ratio of non-fat solids to fat in milk of average composition. (R. pp. 879, 892–3)

19. Findings 2 and 3 are applicable to milk macaroni products. The specifications of shapes and sizes in findings 10, 11, and 12 are applicable to milk macaroni, milk spaghetti and milk vermicelli, respectively. (R. p. 883)

20. The evidence does not establish that the presence of milk solids in any quantity less than that which results from the use of liquid whole milk as the sole moistening ingredient in making the dough results in any consumer preference over products made without milk, or otherwise serves any purpose useful to the consumer. The record does not contain sufficient evidence upon which to base definitions and standards of identity providing for the use of any form of skim milk, except as provided in finding 18, in any alimentary paste. The record indicates that dried skim milk has been used as a pretext for representations that such products contain milk. (R. pp. 341–2, 807)

21. Products sold as "whole wheat macaroni," "whole wheat spaghetti," and "whole wheat linguine" are on the market. They differ from ordinary macaroni products only in that whole wheat flour is used as the sole wheat ingredient. Whole durum wheat flour, alone or in combination with whole wheat flour, is also suitable for this purpose. Accurate and informative names for these products are the same as the names of the corresponding sizes and shapes of macaroni products, preceded by the words "whole wheat." Findings 2 and 3 are also applicable to whole wheat macaroni products. The specifications of shapes and sizes in findings 10, 11, and 12 apply to whole wheat macaroni, whole wheat spaghetti, and whole wheat vermicelli, respectively. (R. pp. 743–4, OPEx. B)

22. "Noodle products" and "egg noodle products" are collective names commonly used to designate a class of foods each of which is usually prepared as described in finding 1 except that liquid, frozen, or dried eggs or egg yolks are added in making the dough. (R. pp. 37–8, 42, 108–9, 166, 203–4, 210, 277, 288–9)

23. The minimum quantity of egg solids or egg yolk solids that should be present in commercially prepared egg noodle products has long been recognized in the trade as 5 percent, or 5.5 percent on a moisture-free basis. As early as 1916 the advisory standard under the Food and Drugs Act of 1906 prescribed a minimum of 5 percent egg solids. In 1927 the standard was revised to require not less than 5.5 percent on a moisture-free basis, which is an approximately equivalent amount. The use by some manufacturers of less than 5.5 percent egg solids or egg yolk solids (calculated to a moisture-free basis) tends to deceive consumers and is regarded by the industry generally as unfair competition. (R. pp. 18–21, 37–8, 40, 44, 69, 87, 105, 107, 152, 254)

24. Findings 2 to 4, inclusive, are applicable to noodle products, except that the record does not show the approximate number of different shapes and sizes that are marketed. In many cases the record does not indicate with any certainty the particular shapes, or shapes an sizes, to which the specific names of the various noodle products are applied. (R. pp. 19, 21, 38–9, 41, OPEx. B, C, D)

25. Noodle products are usually formed into ribbonshaped units. The terms "noodles" and "egg noodles" are common and usual names which are ordinarily used to designate noodle products in such units. Sometimes noodle products are made in the same shapes and sizes as macaroni, spaghetti, and vermicelli. "Egg Macaroni," "egg spaghetti," and "egg vermicelli" are common and usual names for noodle products the units of which are of the respective shapes and sizes specified in findings 10, 11 and 12. (R. pp. 42, 66, 68, 109–10, 196, 204, 210–11, 288–9)

26. The advisory standards under the Food and Drugs Act of 1906 recognized under the names "plain noodles" and "water noodles" a dried alimentary paste made from wheat flour without egg or with less than 5 percent egg solids. This led to confusion because the word "noodle" is so generally understood to be an egg product and the qualifying words do not definitely show the absence of egg. The names "plain noodles" and "water noodles" have no legitimate place in the nomenclature of alimentary pastes. (R. pp. 18–9, 22, 41–2, 196)

27. The use in macaroni products or egg noodle products of artificial coloring or other colored ingredients which impart a color simulating that of an egg product is a deceptive and unfair practice that has been followed to some extent. (R. pp. 69, 70, 86, 741–2, 755, 769, 886)

28. During recent years there has appeared on the market a class of foods which differ from ordinary macaroni products and egg noodle products in that the wheat ingredient is partly replaced by a kind of flour made from soy beans. Such flour is made from dehulled soy beans that have been heat processed to remove the bitter principle. Part or all of the soy bean fat may be removed in the production of such flour. A kind of flour is also made from dehulled raw soy beans, but the record contains no evidence that this is suitable for use in such foods. (R. pp. 492, 544, 577, 590–1, 816, 887, OPEx. G)

29. The quantity of soybean flour used in such foods varies widely, ranging from about 5 to 30 percent. With one-third soy flour and two-thirds wheat flour made in the form of long spaghetti the product breaks down while drying. With equal parts of soy and wheat flours the product does not hold together in lengths greater than six or eight inches. (R. pp. 535–7, 541–3, 578, 590–1, 817, 888)

30. When used in relatively small quantities soy flour imparts to the finished product a color which resembles the color of noodles, but does not impart other recognizable soy flour characteristics. Its use in such quantities may be deceptive (see finding 27). (R. pp. 534, 536–9, 541–2, 547)

31. When soy flour is used in a quantity of 12.5 percent the color of the finished product is within the color range of noodles and the product is hardly distinguishable from noodle products. When 15 percent of soy flour is used the finished product is distinguishable from noodle products and macaroni products. A requirement that the soy flour used be not less than 15 percent of the weight of the combined soy and wheat ingredients is a reasonable limitation. (R. pp. 535–40, 551, 784, 817–21, 899, 900)

32. Such foods have usually been labeled with such names as "soy macaroni," "soy spaghetti," "soy noodles." Because soy flour is well known to be a flour-like product such names are likely to mislead consumers into the belief that these foods are made entirely of soy flour instead of a mixture of soy flour with a wheat ingredient in which the latter predominates. Names which are accurate and informative are, for example, "wheat and soy macaroni," "wheat and soy bean noodles," or such names in which the word "wheat" is replaced by the common name of the wheat ingredient used. (R. pp. 578, 822–5, 853, 901)

33. Findings 2 and 3 are applicable to wheat and soy macaroni products and to wheat and soy noodle products. The specifications of shapes and sizes in findings 10, 11, and 12 apply to wheat and soy macaroni, wheat and soy spaghetti, and wheat and soy vermicelli, respectively. The final sentence of finding 23 is applicable to wheat and soy noodle products. The specifications as to shapes and sizes in finding 25 are applicable to the corresponding wheat and soy noodle products. (R. p. 890)

34. Macaroni products and noodle products with added vegetables are on the market. The vegetables in use for this purpose or proposed for such use are spinach, tomatoes of red varieties, carrots, artichokes, parsley, beets. Such vegetables may be fresh, canned, dried, or in the form of puree or paste. The record does not show that yellow tomatoes are used or whether, if they were used, they would impart a color resembling egg. (R. pp. 736, 738–40, 753, 757–8, 764, 881, 884–5)

35. The quantity of such vegetables generally used, and necessary to impart distinctive characteristics of color, flavor, and taste, is such that the finished product contains not less than 3 percent by weight of the solids of the vegetable used. When used in such quantity none of these vegetables imparts a color resembling egg. (R. pp. 737–9, 881–2, 885)

36. The common and usual names of such products are the same as the names of the corresponding shapes and sizes of macaroni products and noodle products except that such names are preceded by the common name of the vegetable used, as for example, "tomato macaroni," "spinach noodles." (R. pp. 737–40)

37. Findings 2 and 3 are applicable to vegetable macaroni products and vegetable noodle products. The specifications of shapes and sizes in findings 10, 11, and 12 apply to vegetable macaroni, vegetable spaghetti, and vegetable vermicelli, respectively. The final sentence of finding 23 is applicable to vegetable noodle products. The specifications as to shapes and sizes in finding 25 are applicable to the corresponding vegetable noodle products. (R. pp. 738, 755, 881–3)

38. Ingredients sometimes used to season macaroni products and noodle products are onions, celery, garlic, and bayleaf. Such ingredients are also suitable for use in related products (e. g. wheat and soy macaroni, spinach noodles). These are unusual ingredients of alimentary paste which are not normally found in such products, and it is in the interest of consumers that the labels of such products reveal the presence of any such ingredients. A label statement which is accurate and informative is "seasoned with ------," the blank being filled in with the common name of the substance used as seasoning, or in the case of bay leaves the statement "spiced," "spice added," or "spiced with bay leaves." (R. pp. 741–2, 897)

39. The length of time required to cook macaroni products is a matter that has assumed importance in the industry and to consumers. By adding from one-half to one percent of disodium phosphate in the preparation of macaroni products cooking time is reduced. Disodium phosphate is not now used in macaroni products but a proposal that its use be authorized was advanced at the hearing, and in such quantity it is suitable for such use. The proposal was limited to macaroni products and did not extend to other alimentary pastes. It is a matter of consumer interest that the labels of macaroni products containing disodium phosphate reveal that fact and the purpose for which it is used. A label statement which is accurate and informative is "disodium phosphate added for quick cooking." (R. pp. 744–8, 750–2)

40. A proposal was advanced at the hearing that the use of one percent of soy bean lecithin be authorized in macaroni products and noodle products. It was claimed that lecithin improves the texture, prevents disintegration and the leaching out of solids during cooking, and prevents leakage of moisture from the cooked and drained product. It was also claimed that by the use of lecithin an alimentary paste made from soft wheat (low protein) flour can be made to appear better than one made from equal parts of soft wheat flour and hard winter wheat (high protein) flour. (R. pp. 602–19, 654, OPEx. H, I, J, K)

41. The record does not establish the claimed results of the use of lecithin in macaroni products or noodle products. It does show that the use of lecithin in articles sold as noodle products vitiates the chemical criteria whereby the quantity of egg solids is usually determined thus making it possible to use less than the recognized minimum of eggs or egg yolks and escape detection. (R. pp. 692, 698–9, 770, 773, 812–5, 871)

42. Proposals were advanced at the hearing for definitions and standards of identity for "glutenous macaroni" and "glutenous spaghetti." It was suggested that these articles should conform in composition to the requirements for macaroni products except that gluten or gluten flour should be added in such quantity as to raise the protein content of the finished product to not less than 18 percent. This minimum limit was suggested because the original Russian durum wheat had a protein content of about that amount, although through the years of its cultivation in this country the protein content has fallen to around 12 to 14 percent. (R. pp. 703–7, 724)

43. Several domestic manufacturers are marketing as "Pastine Glutinata" (glutenous paste) products which are ordinary macaroni products made from semiolina. This practice is deceptive and contrary to consumer interests (see findings 45). (R. pp. 706–7, 712–3, 826, OPEx. C)

44. One manufacturer formerly made a product containing about 20 percent protein from a mixture of the usual wheat ingredients and gluten or gluten flour, but discontinued it during the first world war. One Italian firm with factories in Italy and France intends to manufacture such products in this country. One manufacturer makes a product called gluten macaroni from gluten flour complying with the advisory standard under the Food and Drugs Act of 1906, which provided that gluten flour should contain not more than 10 percent moisture and, on a moisture-free basis, not less than 7.1 percent nitrogen (40.47 percent protein) and not more than 44 percent of starch. (R. pp. 310–1, 719, 724, 825–6)

45. Consumers purchase macaroni products labeled as "glutenous" or with similar expressions because they expect a high protein content in such products and a substantial reduction in starch. The addition of only enough gluten or gluten flour to raise the normal protein content of 12 or 14 percent to 18 percent, with the corresponding small reduction in starch content, is not calculated to fulfill such expectations. The record points to the possibility that gluten flour alone should be used in making products so labeled. The record contains insufficient evidence to determine what the composition of such products should be, particularly as to protein content. (R. pp. 706, 711, 826)

46. Considerable testimony was offered concerning the enrichment of macaroni products and noodle products with various vitamins and minerals, particularly those used in enriched flour (6 F.R. 2579–80) and proposed for use in enriched bread (6 F.R. 2772), namely, vitamins B_1, nicotinic acid, riboflavin, iron, vitamin D, and calcium. One manufacturer has used vitamin D in macaroni and spaghetti for over two years. Although not now in use in macaroni and noodle products processed wheat germ is proposed as an ingredient because of its content of vitamin B_1, nicotinic acid, and riboflavin, the minerals iron, phosphorus, and copper, and other constituents. One manufacturer adds 3 percent dried brewers' yeast and makes claims for vitamins B_1, D, and G (riboflavin) in his product. The use of carotene or provitamin A, is also proposed. (R. pp. 213–4, 373–81, 446–7; 459–69, 794–5, 811, 827, OPEx. L)

47. Most alimentary pastes are usually cooked by boiling them in relatively large quantities of water, which is drained off and discarded. Vitamin B_1, nicotinic acid, and riboflavin are water soluble. When such pastes are enriched with these vitamins in quantities similar to those required in enriched flour, cooking losses of vitamin B_1 and nicotinic acid are generally somewhat more than half, and of riboflavin nearly half. When nutritive minerals are added the extent of their loss depends on their solubility. Some alimentary pastes, particularly noodles, are used in making soups and when these foods are so cooked water-soluble vitamins and other water-soluble constituents are not discarded. But the quantity of alimentary pastes so used is not consequential when compared to the diet as a whole. (R. pp. 375–6, 379, 388, 391–2, 416, 443, 480, 728–30, OPEx. F)

48. Alimentary pastes are not effective vehicles for the distribution of water-soluble nutrients to any segment of the population. The addition of water-soluble nutrients to alimentary paste is likely to mislead consumers either as to the quantity of nutrients they would obtain in the cooked product or as to the uneconomic waste inherent in the addition of such nutrients to alimentary paste. The addition of processed wheat germ or of yeast to alimentary paste would be calculated to mislead consumers, since such germ and yeast are both sources of such water-soluble vitamins. (R. pp. 373–5, 448–52, 480, 795, OPEx.F)

49. There is no evidence of a widespread deficiency of vitamin D among adults. Such deficiency as exists is almost, if not entirely, confined to children not over twelve years of age. The evidence does not establish that alimentary paste forms a larger proportion of the diet of such children than of adults. (R. p. 380)

50. The addition of carotene to alimentary paste is calculated to deceive consumers because it imparts to the finished product a color resembling that of egg (see finding 28). (R. pp. 769, 886)

51. Unless the enrichment of foods is restricted by regulations, food manufacturers generally are likely to add one or more vitamins or minerals to most if not all of their products and to label and advertise the products as having enhanced nutritional value. The selection of vitamins and minerals for this purpose and the quantities used are likely to be dictated by commercial considerations, such as a desire to capitalize on the fact that the public generally is not informed as to the specific functions of the various vitamins and minerals. Advertising and labeling claims for a food which stress the presence of any one of these nutritional elements, even though such claims are literally true, may readily cause the public to attach an exaggerated importance to that element. If enrichment is not restricted the public cannot discriminate between enriched foods which are meritorious and those which are not. Claims of enhanced nutritional value for a multiplicity of indiscriminately enriched foods would tend to envelop the minds of consumers in fog with respect to their nutritional needs and would create misunderstandings difficult to dispel. (R. pp. 377–8, 381, 399–400, 448, 451)

52. The annual per capita consumption of alimentary pastes is about 5 pounds. Among persons of Italian extraction, and perhaps some other groups, consumption usually exceeds this average but so far as the evidence shows is quite variable. There is no evidence that these groups are peculiarly susceptible to dietary deficiencies. (R. pp. 374, 383, 403, 405, 441)

53. Water-soluble nutrients are not suitable for addition to elimentary paste (see finding 48). The evidence does not establish that the addition of the other vitamins and minerals proposed would constitute any material contribution toward the correction of dietary deficiencies in any significant segment of the population; and labeling and advertising claims based on such additions would be likely to confuse and mislead consumers (see finding 51). (R. pp. 214–24, 380–1, 446–7, 452, 466–7, 767–8)

On the basis of the foregoing findings of fact it is concluded that:

(a) It is impracticable, and the evidence does not establish a basis for a determination that it would promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers, to prescribe definitions and standards of identity for the various macaroni products, other than macaroni, spaghetti, and vermicelli, under the specific names by which they are sometimes known (as distinguished from the generic name macaroni products). This conclusion applies also to the corresponding shapes and sizes of milk macaroni products, whole wheat macaroni products, wheat and soy macaroni products, and vegetable macaroni products.

(b) It is impracticable, and the evidence does not establish a basis for a determination that it would promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers, to prescribe definitions and standards of identity for the various noodle products other than noodles, egg macaroni, egg spaghetti, and egg vermicelli, under the specific names by which they are sometimes known (as distinguished from the generic name noodle products). This conclusion applies also to the corresponding shapes and sizes of wheat and soy noodle products and vegetable noodle products.

(c) It would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe definitions and standards of identity for wheat and soy macaroni products and wheat and soy noodle products under names which fail to indicate the presence of the wheat ingredient; nor would it promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe a definition and standard of identity for any alimentary paste providing for the use of soy flour in a quantity less than 15 percent by weight of the combined wheat and soy ingredients.

(d) It would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe definitions and standards of identity for "gluten" or "glutenous" macaroni products providing for a minimum protein content as low as 18 percent. The evidence does not establish a basis for a determination as to what provisions should be included in definitions and standards of identity for such products, which would promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers.

(e) It would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe a definition and standard of identity for any alimentary paste providing for the use of any added vitamin or mineral or any combination of two or more of these.

(f) It would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe a definition and standard of identity for any alimentary paste providing for the use of processed wheat germ, carotene, or yeast, or for any noodle product providing for the use of lecithin. The evidence does not establish a basis for a determination that it would promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe a definition and standard of identity for any macaroni product providing for the use of lecithin.

(g) It would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe definitions and standards of identity for milk macaroni products providing for the use of milk or milk products (other than liquid whole milk) in such quantity that the finished milk macaroni product contains less than 3.8 percent by weight of milk solids; nor would it promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to provide for the use of milk or of any milk product as an ingredient of any macaroni product.

(h) It would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe definitions and standards of identity for any alimentary paste providing for the use of egg solids or egg yolk solids in a quantity less than 5½ percent by weight, on a moisture-free basis, of the finished alimentary paste.

(i) Promulgation of each of the regulations hereinafter set forth, fixing and establishing definitions and standards of identity for various alimentary pastes, will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers.

Wherefore the following regulations are hereby promulgated:

§ 16.1 Macaroni products — Identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Macaroni products are the class of food each of which is prepared by drying formed units of dough made from comolina, durum flour, farina, flour, or any combination of two or more of these, with water and with or without one or more of the optional ingredients specified in the following subparagraphs (1) to (4), inclusive:

(1) Egg white, frozen egg white, dried egg white, or any two or all of these, in such quantity that the solids thereof is not less than one-half of one percent and not more than two percent of the weight of the finished food.

(2) Disodium phosphate, in a quantity not less than one-half of one percent and not more than one percent of the weight of the finished food.

(3) Onions, celery, garlic, bay leaf, or any two or more of these, in a quantity which seasons the food.

(4) Salt, in a quantity which seasons the food.

The finished macaroni product contains not less than 87 percent of total solids as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fifth Edition, 1940, page 235, under "Vacuum Oven Method—Official."

(b) Macaroni is the macaroni product the units of which are tube-shaped and more than 0.11 inch but not more than 0.27 inch in diameter.

(c) Spaghetti is the macaroni product the units of which are tube-shaped or cord-shaped (not tubular) and more than 0.06 inch but not more than 0.11 inch in diameter.

(d) Vermicelli is the macaroni product the units of which are cord-shaped (not tubular) and not more than 0.06 inch in diameter.

(e) The name of each food for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is "Macaroni Product"; or alternately, the name is "Macaroni", "Spaghetti", or "Vermicelli", as the case may be, when the units of the food are of the shapes and sizes specified in paragraph (b), (c), or (d), respectively.

(f) (1) When disodium phosphate is used the label shall bear the statement "Disodium phosphate added for quick cooking."

(2) When any ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (3) is used such label shall bear the statement "Seasoned with ------", the blank being filled in with the common name of the ingredient; or in the case of bay leaves the statement "Spiced", "Spice added", or "Spiced with bay leaves."

(3) Wherever the name of the food appears on such label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the words and statements herein prescribed showing the optional ingredients used shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow, or in part precede and in part follow, such name without intervening written, printed, or other graphic matter.

§ 16.2 Milk macaroni products—Identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Milk macaroni products are the class of food each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for macaroni products by § 16.1 (a) and (f) (2) and (3), except that:

(1) Milk is used as the sole moistening ingredient in preparing the dough; or in lieu of milk one or more of the milk ingredients specified in paragraph (f) is used, with or without water, in such quantity that the weight of milk solids therein is not less than 3.8 percent of the weight of the finished milk macaroni product; and

(2) None of the optional ingredients permitted by § 16.1 (a) (1) and (2) is used.

(b) Milk macaroni is the milk macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for macaroni by § 16.1 (b).

(c) Milk spaghetti is the milk macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for spaghetti by § 16.1 (c).

(d) Milk vermicelli is the milk macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for vermicelli by § 16.1 (d).

(e) The name of each food for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is "Milk Macaroni Product"; or alternately, the name is "Milk Macaroni", "Milk Spaghetti", or "Milk Vermicelli", as the case may be, when the units of the food comply with the requirements of paragraphs (b), (c), or (d), respectively.

(f) The milk ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) (1) are concentrated milk, evaporated milk, dried milk, and a mixture of butter with skim milk, concentrated skim milk, evaporated skim milk, or any two or more of these, in such proportion that the weight of nonfat milk solids in such mixture is not more than 2.275 times the weight of milk fat therein.

§ 16.3 Whole wheat macaroni products—Indentity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Whole wheat macaroni products are the class of food each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for macaroni products by § 16.1 (a) and (f) (2) and (3), except that:

(1) Whole wheat flour or whole durum wheat flour or both are used as the sole wheat ingredient; and

(2) None of the optional ingredients permitted by § 16.1 (a) (1) and (2) is used.

(b) Whole wheat macaroni is the whole wheat macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for macaroni by § 16.1 (b).

(c) Whole wheat spaghetti is the whole wheat macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for spaghetti by § 16.1 (c).

(d) Whole wheat vermicelli is the whole wheat macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for vermicelli by § 16.1 (d).

(e) The name of each food for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is "Whole Wheat Macaroni Product"; or alternately, the name is "Whole Wheat Macaroni", "Whole Wheat Spaghetti", or "Whole Wheat Vermicelli", as the case may be, when the units of the food comply with the requirements of paragraph (b), (c); or (d), respectively.

§ 16.4 Wheat and soy macaroni products—Identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Wheat and soy macaroni products are the class of food each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for macaroni products by § 16.1 (a) and (f) (2) and (3), except that:

(1) Soy flour is added in a quantity not less than 15 percent of the combined weight of the wheat and soy ingredients used (the soy flour used is made from heat-processed, de-hulled soybeans, with or without the removal of fat therefrom); and

(2) None of the optional ingredients permitted by § 16.1 (a) (1) and (2) is used.

(b) Wheat and soy macaroni is the wheat and soy macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for macaroni by § 16.1 (b).

(c) Wheat and soy spaghetti is the wheat and soy macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for spaghetti by § 16.1 (c).

(d) Wheat and soy vermicelli is the wheat and soy macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for vermicelli by § 16.1 (d).

[Vesting Order 285]

50% OF THE CAPITAL STOCK OF THE ICHTHYOL COMPANY, AND CERTAIN INDEBTEDNESS OWING BY IT

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that The Ichthyol Company, a New Jersey corporation, Rahway, New Jersey, is a business enterprise within the United States;

2. Finding that Ichthyol Gesellschaft Cordes-Hermanni & Company, a limited partnership, whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Hamburg, Lockstedt, Germany, is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

3. Finding that said Ichthyol Gesellschaft Cordes-Hermanni & Company is the beneficial owner of (a) 1,000 shares (which constitute a substantial part, namely, 50%, of all outstanding shares) of no par value common capital stock, and (b) 50 shares (which constitute a substantial part, namely, 50%, of all outstanding shares) of $100 par value 7% cumulative preferred capital stock, of said The Ichthyol Company, which 1,050 shares are registered on the books of said corporation in the following names, respectively:

Name	Number of shares—
	Common stock	7 percent cumulative preferred stock
Herbert Schroeter, Trustee	998	48
Meinhardt Hermanni	1	1
G. H. Semler	1	1
Total	1,000	50

4. Finding, therefore, that the aforesaid business enterprise is also a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

5. Finding that the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and claim of any name or nature whatsoever of the aforesaid Ichthyol Gesellschaft Cordes-Hermanni & Company in and to all indebtedness, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, owing to it by said The Ichthyol Company, including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral for any or all of such indebtedness and the right to sue for and collect such indebtedness.

is an interest in the aforesaid business enterprise held by a national of an enemy country (Germany), and also is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

6. Determining that to the extent that either or both of such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that each of such persons be treated as a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

7. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraphs 3 and 5, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

8. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on November 2, 1942.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, or to vary the extent of such direction, management, supervision or control or to terminate the same, if and when it should be determined that any of such actions should be taken.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

[Vesting Order 404]

ASSETS OF METROPOLITAN AUTO REPAIRS (A SOLE PROPRIETORSHIP) AND JOHANNES OTTO ZENGEL, ALSO KNOWN AS HANS ZENGEL

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding:

(a) That the property described as follows:

All property of any nature whatsoever situated in the United States and owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, or held on behalf of or on account of or owing to Metropolitan Auto Repairs, Long Island New York, a sole proprietorship, which is a business enterprise within the United States owned by Johannes Otto Zengel, also known as Hans Zengel (alien detention camp), a German citizen, is property of a business enterprise which is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany), and

(b) That the property described as follows:

All property of any nature whatsoever situated in the United States and owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, or held on behalf of or on account of or owing to said Johannes Otto Zengel, also known as Hans Zengel, is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of a designated enemy country (Germany), and determining that the property described in this subparagraph (b) is necessary for the maintenance or safeguarding of other property (namely, that hereinbefore described in subparagraph (a)) belonging to the same national of the same designated enemy country and subject to vesting (and in fact vested by this order) pursuant to section 2 of said Executive Order; and determining that to the extent that either or both of such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany), and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

[Vesting Order 522]

ESTATE OF LOUISA HERLE

In re: Estate of Louisa Herle, deceased—File D-28-1394; E. T. Sec. 297.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act as amended, Executive Order 9095 as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests described in subparagraph (a) are property which is in the process of administration by the Lafayette National Bank of Brooklyn in New York and Herbert Flickinger, as administrators acting under the judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court of Kings County, State of New York;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals:	Last known address
Karoline Katharina Schmelzer	Germany
Daniel Hohm	Germany
Wilhelm Hohm	Germany
Susanna Hohm	Germany
Franz Hohm	Germany
Katharina Moerz Weinmann	Germany
Emil Wilhelm Weinmann	Germany
Louise Jorg nee Weinmann	Germany
Friederick Wilhelm Gasteyer	Germany
Carl Wilhelm Gasteyer	Germany
Paul Ferdinand Gasteyer	Germany
Philippine Flickinger Schiefer	Germany
Ludwig Flickinger	Germany

(3) The property and interests described in subparagraph (b) are property within the United States owned or controlled by the aforesaid nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Determining that—

(4) If such nationals are persons not within any designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

(a) All right, title, interest, and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Karoline Katharina Schmelzer, Daniel Hohm, Wilhelm Hohm, Susanna Hohm, Franz Hohm, Katharina Moers Weinmann, Emil Wilhelm Weinmann, Louise Jorg nee Weinmann, Friederick Wilhelm Gasteyer, Carl Wilhelm Gasteyer, Paul Ferdinand Gasteyer, Philippine Flickinger Schiefer and Ludwig Flickinger and each of them in and to the Estate of Louisa Herle, deceased; and to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

(b) All right, title, interest, and estate, both legal and equitable of Karoline Katharina Schmelzer, Daniel Hohm, Wilhelm Hohm, Susanna Hohm, Franz Hohm, Katharina Moerz Weinmann, Emil Wilhelm Weinmann, Louise Jorg nee Weinmann, Friederick Wilhelm Gaseyer, Carl Wilhelm Gasteyer, Paul Ferdinand Gasteyer, Philippine Flickinger Schiefer, Ludwig Flickinger and each of them in and to all real property within the United States of which the said Louisa Herle was seized and possessed at the time of her death,

Such property and interests and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property and interests or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Dated: December 17, 1942.

1. American Freight Lines shall:

(a) Discontinue the transportation of all shipments originating at or moving through its terminal at Chicago and destined to Kewanee, Galva, Galesburg, Monmouth and Abington, Illinois, and divert such shipments to Burlington Transportation Company;

(b) Accept from Burlington Transportation Company shipments diverted to it for transportation from Chicago to Peoria, Illinois, and transport such shipments in its own vehicles to destination;

(c) Accept from Burlington Transportation Company shipments diverted to it for transportation from St. Louis, Missouri, to Peoria, Illinois, and transport such shipments in its own vehicles to destination.

2. Burlington Transportation Company shall:

(a) Discontinue the transportation of all shipments originating at or moving through its terminal at Chicago and destined to Peoria, Illinois, and divert such shipments to American Freight Lines;

(b) Discontinue the transportation of all shipments originating at St. Louis, Missouri, and destined to Peoria, Illinois, and divert such shipments to American Freight Lines;

(c) Accept from American Freight Lines shipments diverted to it for transportation from Chicago to Kewanee, Galva, Galesburg, Monmouth and Abington, Illinois, and transport such shipments in its own vehicles to destination.

3. Burlington Transportation Company shall perform the pick-up and delivery of all shipments diverted by it or to it pursuant hereto.

4. The carrier to which any such shipment shall have been diverted shall forward such shipment on the billing and pursuant to the tariff rate and the rules and regulations of the carrier issuing the bill of lading.

5. The division of revenues derived from transportation performed pursuant hereto shall be as agreed on by the carriers, or, in the event the carriers are unable to agree thereon, shall be as determined by the Office of Defense Transportation.

6. The carriers forthwith shall file with the Interstate Commerce Commission, in respect of transportation in interstate or foreign commerce, and with each appropriate State regulatory body, in respect of transportation in intrastate commerce, and publish, in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or appropriate supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in the rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations and practices of each carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order; and forthwith shall apply to said Commission and to each such regulatory body for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on one day's notice.

7. A copy of this order shall be filed forthwith with the Interstate Commerce Commission and with the appropriate State regulatory authorities.

8. Nothing contained herein shall be so construed as to permit or require the motor carriers herein named to perform any transportation service which is not authorized or sanctioned by law.

9. Communications concerning this order should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C., and should refer to "Supplementary Order ODT 3, Revised—5".

10. This Supplementary Order ODT 3, Revised—5 shall become effective December 26th, 1942, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transporation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 19th day of December 1942.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File Nos. 70-634, 70-635]

THE MAUCH CHUNK HEAT, POWER & ELECTRIC LIGHT COMPANY AND NATIONAL POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING AND CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 16th day of December, A. D. 1942.

Notice is hereby given that separate applications or declarations, (or both), have been filed with this Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by The Mauch Chunk Heat, Power & Electric Light Company, ("Mauch Chunk"), a subsidiary of Republic Service Corporation, ("Republic"), a registered holding company, (File No. 70-634) and by National Power & Light Company, ("National"), likewise a registered holding company, (File No. 70-635). The applicants and declarants have designated sections 9, 10, and 12 of the Act and Rules U-42, U-43, and U-44 of the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder as applicable to the transactions proposed. All interested persons are referred to said documents, which are on file in the office of this Commission, for a complete statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

National proposes to sell its entire interest in Mauch Chunk to the latter for a cash consideration of $30,000. National's interest in Mauch Chunk is represented by 61 shares of 6% cumulative preferred stock ($25 par value) and 597 shares of common stock ($25 par value) of Mauch Chunk. It is stated that the transaction is a step in furtherance of the liquidation and dissolution of National required by the order of this Commission dated August 23, 1941 (Holding Company Act Release No. 2962). Upon the acquisition of said securities, Mauch Chunk proposes to retain the same as treasury stock.

It appearing to the Commission that the said applications and declarations of Mauch Chunk and National involve interrelated matters and that they can most adequately be treated by consolidating the same;

It is ordered, That the above entitled proceedings be and the same hereby are consolidated.

It further appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said declarations and applications, and that said declarations shall not become effective or said applications be granted except pursuant to further order of the Commission, and that at said hearing there be considered, among other things, the various matters hereafter set forth;

It is further ordered, That a hearing on such consolidated applications and declarations under the applicable provisions of the Act and the rules of the Commission thereunder be held on January 5, 1943 at 10 a. m., E. W. T. in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at such hearing. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under Section 18 (c) of said Act and to a Trial Examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said declarations or applications, particular attention will be directed to the following matters:

(1) Whether the consideration to be paid by Mauch Chunk and to be received by National for said shares of preferred common stock is unfair or unreasonable;

(2) The advisability of entering any order or orders pursuant to sections 12 (c), 12 (d) and 12 (g) of the Act with respect to any of the proposed transactions by Mauch Chunk and National;

(3) What terms and conditions, if any, are necessary to be imposed to insure compliance with the requirements of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or any rules, regulations or orders promulgated thereunder;

It is further ordered, That any other person desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings or proposing to intervene herein shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before January 2, 1943, his request or application therefor as provided by Rule XVII of the Rules of Practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the hearing aforesaid by mailing a copy of this order to The Mauch Chunk Heat, Power & Electric Light Company, National Power & Light Company, and the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission by registered mail; and that notice of said hearing be given to all persons by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

GENERAL GAS & ELECTRIC CORPORATION

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 16th day of December, A. D. 1942.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, has been filed by General Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company; and

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than December 26, 1942, at 1:00 p. m., E. W. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter, such declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted, as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and 100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration, which is on file in the office of the said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

General Gas & Electric Corporation has outstanding $999,360.79 principal amount of interest bearing scrip, due December 30, 1942, with interest accumulated thereon from date of issuance, December 30, 1937, at 4%. On December 30, 1942, the total accumulated interest will amount to $199,872.15.

Of the total amount of scrip outstanding, Denis J. Driscoll and Willard L. Thorp, Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, parent of General Gas & Electric Corporation, hold $959,324.28 principal amount, and the public holds $40,035.97 principal amount. General Gas & Electric Corporation proposes to make payment, in cash, to the public holders of the scrip. The amount of this payment, including accrued interest to December 30, 1942, is $48,043.16.

The proposal to pay the public holders is contingent upon receipt by General Gas & Electric Corporation from the Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation of an agreement on their part not to present any scrip held by them for payment in cash on December 30, 1942, or until further order of the Commission.

The declaration has designated section 12 (c) of the Act, and Rule U-46 promulgated thereunder, as being applicable to the proposed transaction.

By the Commission.

DENIS J. DRISCOLL AND WILLARD L. THORP, TRUSTEES, ET AL.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 15th day of December, 1942.

In the matter of Denis J. Driscoll and Willard L. Thorp, Trustees, Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, The General Utilities Company, The Western Reserve Power and Light Company, The New London Power Company.

A joint declaration has been filed with this Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, by Denis J. Driscoll and Willard L. Thorp, Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, and by The General Utilities Company, The Western Reserve Power and Light Company, and The New London Power Company, each of which is a subsidiary of the said registered holding company; and notice has been given of the filing thereof by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and otherwise, as provided by Rule U-23 under said Act; and

The said joint declaration concerns the sale of the properties of the three named subsidiaries for an aggregate base price of $1,100,000, and the transfer of the then remaining assets (subject to existing liabilities) of The New London Power Company to The Western Reserve Power and Light Company in consideration for the surrender by the latter of all of the outstanding stock of said New London Power Company, and the further transfer of all of the then remaining assets (mainly the considerations to be received) of The Western Reserve Power and Light Company and The General Utilities Company (subject to existing liabilities) to the said holding company, upon the surrender to them respectively of all the outstanding stock and claims against them, and further concerns the proposed dissolution of said three subsidiary companies; and

The said declaration contains a request that the Commission enter an order reciting in substance that the said transfers are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Act; and

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matter;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter under the applicable provisions of the said Act and the rules of the Commission thereunder be held on December 19, 1942, at 10 a. m. at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said declaration, particular attention will be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the action proposed to be taken is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act;

(2) Whether it is necessary or appropriate to impose terms or conditions in the public interest or for the protection of investors;

(3) Whether the action proposed to be taken complies with all the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder and is not detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers.

By the Commission.

GENERAL GAS & ELECTRIC CORP., ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR CONSOLIDATION AND HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 15th day of December 1942.

In the matter of General Gas & Electric Corporation, Southern Electric Utilities Company, File No. 70-649; and General Gas & Electric Corporation, File Nos. 59-19, 54-34.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application-declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by General Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Southern Electric Utilities Company; and

All interested persons are referred to said application-declaration, which is on file in the office of the said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

Southern Electric Utilities Company proposes to merge into General Gas & Electric Corporation, which is the owner of all its outstanding capital stock and is also its sole creditor; General Gas & Electric Corporation proposes to assume all the assets and liabilities of Southern Electric Utilities Company, consisting almost entirely of preferred and preference stocks of Associated Gas and Electric Company, in return transferring to Southern Electric Utilities Company all the outstanding securities issued by the latter for retirement and cancellation, and Southern Electric Utilities Company will then be dissolved; and

The Commission having heretofore instituted proceedings under section 11 (b) (2) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 against the General Gas & Electric Corporation; and said Respondent having filed a plan pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Act concerned with a proposed recapitalization of Respondent; the said two proceedings having by a previous order of the Commission been consolidated for public hearings; and public hearings having been held on the said consolidated matter from time to time; and

The said joint application-declaration further stating that the proposed transactions are in connection with the proceedings which have been instituted before the Commission under section 11 (b) (2) of the Act, for the corporate simplification of the holding company system of General Gas & Electric Corporation, and for the equitable distribution of voting power among its security holders; and

It appearing that sections 9 (a) (1), 10, 11 (b) (2), and 12 (f) of the Act and Rules U-43 and U-49 (b) promulgated thereunder are applicable to the proposed transactions; and

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate and in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matter, that said application-declaration shall not be granted or become effective except pursuant to further order of this Commission; and

It further appearing that the foregoing matters filed under File Nos. 59-19 and 54-34 are related to, and that the evidence offered in respect to each of such matters may have a bearing upon the matters consolidated by the order of the Commission dated September 16, 1942, and that substantial savings of time and expense will result if the matters are further consolidated;

It is hereby ordered, That such proceedings in File Nos. 59-19 and 54-34 be, and hereby are, consolidated with the joint application-declaration filed in File No. 70-649; and

It is further ordered, That a hearing on such matters, under the applicable provisions of the said Act and the rules of the Commission thereunder be held on December 23, 1942, at 10:00 a. m. at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held.

At such hearing cause shall be shown why such joint application-declaration shall be granted or become effective. Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the above-named applicants-declarants and to all interested persons.

It is further ordered, That any person desiring to be heard in connection with the proceeding or proposing to intervene herein shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before December 21, 1942, his request or application therefor, as provided by Rule XVII of the Rules of Practice of this Commission.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said declaration, particular attention will be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the proposed transactions are appropriate and in the public interest and the interest of investors;

(2) Whether the proposed transactions are necessary and appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Act;

(3) The propriety of the proposed accounting treatment of the transactions on the books of the applicants-declarants;

(4) Whether it is necessary or appropriate to impose terms or conditions in the public interest or for the protection of investors;

(5) Whether the proposed transactions comply with the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and all Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder, and is not detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers.

By the Commission.

NATIONAL POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 16th day of December A. D. 1942.

National Power & Light Company, a registered holding company, having filed an application or declaration (or both) under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for permission to liquidate South Texas Utilities Company, a wholly-owned non-utility subsidiary of National Power & Light Company, by causing all assets of South Texas Utilities Company remaining after expenses of liquidation, consisting of approximately $1,700 in cash, to be applied against the note indebtedness of South Texas Utilities Company to National Power & Light Company, and thereupon to dissolve South Texas Utilities Company; and

Said application or declaration having been filed on October 28, 1942, and an amendment thereto having been filed on November 27, 1942, and notice of said filing having been given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23, promulgated pursuant to said Act, and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said application within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission having found that the proposed transaction is a step in compliance with the Order of the Commission dated August 23, 1941, directing the dissolution of National Power & Light Company, and is not in contravention of the provisions of the Act, or any rules or regulations thereunder, and the Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to grant said application and to permit said declaration to become effective:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said Act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that said application, as amended, be and hereby is granted and said declaration, as amended, be and hereby is permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission, (Commissioner Healy dissenting for the reasons set forth in his memorandum of April 1, 1940).

COLUMBIA GAS & ELECTRIC CORPORATION

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 17th day of December 1942.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration or application (or both) has been filed with the Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, by Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation. All interested persons are referred to said documents, which are on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company and a subsidiary of The United Corporation, also a registered holding company, requests an extension to December 31, 1943, of the date, December 31, 1942 fixed by the Commission's Findings and Opinion and Order of January 25, 1939 (4 SEC 406), on which the balance remaining in its accounts designated "Special Capital Surplus" and "Surplus Prior to January 1, 1938" must be restored to the common capital stock account of the corporation.

The above-mentioned Findings and Opinion and Order permitting a declaration by Columbia Gas to become effective regarding a reduction of the capital represented by the shares of its common stock from $194,349,005.62 to $12,304,282, and the manner of treating the surplus created thereby and of the "Surplus Prior to January 1, 1938" contained, among other things, a condition that "unless the time be extended by application to this Commission and Order thereon, balances remaining in 'Special Capital Surplus' and 'Surplus Prior to January 1, 1938' on December 31, 1942 shall be restored to common capital stock account as of the date last mentioned".

Applicant represents that (a) As of October 31, 1942, the balance remaining in the "Special Capital Surplus" account amounts to $104,482,575.71, and the balance remaining in its "Surplus Prior to January 1, 1938" account amounts to $944,096.08; and (b) it has endeavored, with due diligence, to complete the various adjustments contemplated in the declaration which were the subject of the Findings and Opinion and Order, but "unexpected delays, due in part to war conditions, in completion by its subsidiaries of their original cost studies and in obtaining final determinations as to original cost from regulatory authorities, have rendered it impossible for final adjustments to be made". Accordingly, Columbia Gas requests the one-year extension mentioned above.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate and in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matters, that said declaration shall not become effective nor said application be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission:

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matters under the applicable provisions of said Act and Rules of the Commission thereunder be held on December 28, 1942 at 2:00 p. m. E. W. T. in such room in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, as the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will at that time advise. At such hearing, cause shall be shown why such declaration or application (or both) shall become effective or shall be granted. Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the above-named declarant and applicant and to all interested persons, said Notice to be given to declarant and applicant by registered mail and to all other persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobingier, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of issues presented by said declaration or application (or both) otherwise to be considered in this proceeding, particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) The steps taken thus far by Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation toward completion of the adjustments contemplated in its declaration heretofore filed and considered by the Commission; and whether due diligence has been exercised;

(2) The present status of the original cost studies and the reasons for their incompletion;

(3) Whether it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to grant the requested extension.

By the Commission.

GENERAL GAS & ELECTRIC CORP., ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 17th day of December, A. D. 1942.

In the matter of General Gas & Electric Corporation, Florida Power Corporation, Florida Public Service Company, Sanford Gas Company, Santa Fe Land Company, and Georgia Power and Light Company.

Notice is hereby given that an application-declaration has been filed pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, by General Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, which is a subsidiary of Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, in reorganization pursuant to Chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act, and certain subsidiaries of General Gas & Electric Corporation, namely, Florida Power Corporation, Florida Public Service Company, Sanford Gas Company, Santa Fe Land Company, and Georgia Power and Light Company;

All interested persons are referred to said application-declaration which is on file in the offices of the Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

It is proposed that Florida Public Service Company, Sanford Gas Company, and the Santa Fe Land Company be merged into Florida Power Corporation. In connection with these mergers, the fixed assets of Florida Power Corporation and the merged companies are to be restated, and the depreciation reserves increased.

Upon the consummation of the mergers, Florida Power Corporation proposes to issue 3,000,000 shares of new common stock, no par value. Of this new common stock, 1,747,376 shares are to be issued to General Gas & Electric Corporation in exchange for General Gas & Electric Corporation's present holdings of common stock of Florida Power Corporation. Of the balance of 1,252,624 shares, 1,151,941 are to be acquired by General Gas & Electric Corporation, in exchange for the common stock of Florida Public Service Company and the remaining 100,683 shares are to be acquired for the common stock of Sanford Gas Company.

Florida Power Corporation proposes to issue a new series of preferred stock, designated as 6% preferred $50 par value. These new preferred shares of Florida Power Corporation are to be issued only in exchange for publicly held $6 no-par preferred Georgia Power and Light Company and are to be issued in exchange for such preferred stock of Georgia Power and Light Company only in the event that "95% (or such smaller percentage as may be determined by Florida Power Corporation from time to time but not less than 75%) of all shares of Georgia Power and Light Company's stock outstanding shall accept the offer within a reasonable time." The offer to be made to the public is an exchange share for share of the new Florida Power Corporation preferred stock for the presently outstanding preferred stock of Georgia Power and Light Company.

Upon the consummation of the exchanges of Florida Power Corporation's newly created preferred stock for publicly held preferred stock of Georgia Power and Light Company, if such proposed exchanges are effectuated, Florida Power Corporation is to acquire from General Gas & Electric Corporation for $1, all of the no-par value common stock of Georgia Power and Light Company (consisting of 21,650 shares) and 4,200 shares of $6 no-par value preferred stock of Georgia Power and Light Company.

Simultaneously with, or immediately subsequent to, the purchase by Florida Power Corporation from General Gas & Electric Corporation of the securities of Georgia Power and Light Company, General Gas & Electric Corporation proposes to contribute to Florida Power Corporation, and Florida Power Corporation proposes, in turn, to contribute to Georgia Power and Light Company, $300,000, in cash. Georgia Power and Light Company will, thereupon, apply this cash, plus an additional $50,000 or more of its own funds, to the retirement of its First Mortgage Bonds.

At the time of the purchase by Florida Power Corporation from General Gas & Electric Corporation of the securities of Georgia Power and Light Company, Georgia Power and Light Company will record on its books the original cost of its electric fixed capital as determined by the company, and the difference between this amount and the amount by which its electric fixed capital is stated upon its books, will be charged off to capital surplus. Certain other accounting adjustments will also be made.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to such matters, that the declaration shall not become effective, nor the application be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matters under the applicable provisions of said Act and Rules of the Commission thereunder be held on the 11th day of January, 1943, at 10 o'clock a. m. at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such day, the hearing room clerk in room 318 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing cause shall be shown why such declaration should be permitted to become effective and why such application should be granted. Any person desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings, or proposing to intervene herein, shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before the 6th day of January, 1943, his request or application thereof as provided by Rule XVII of the Rules of Practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act, and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by the said application-declaration otherwise considered in this proceeding, particular attention will be directed at the hearing on the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the proposed transactions are necessary and appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Act and are fair and equitable to all persons affected by such transactions;

2. Whether it is in the public interest or in the interest of investors and consumers, and in conformity with the applicable provisions of the Act to grant the application and allow the declaration to become effective so that Florida Power Corporation may merge into itself Florida Public Service Company, Sante Fe Land Company and Sanford Gas Company;

3. Specifically, whether the proposed merger of the gas, water and ice facilities of Florida Public Service Company into Florida Power Corporation meets the standards of the Act;

4. Specifically, whether it is in conformity with the terms of the order of the Commission, issued August 13, 1942 (Holding Company Act Release No. 3729) pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the Act wherein the Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation were directed to dispose of their interest in Santa Fe Land Company and Sanford Gas Company to permit a merger of these interests into a public utility company;

5. Whether the proposed issuance of securities by Florida Power Corporation, in the event that the proposed mergers are effectuated, meets the standards of the Act and is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers;

6. Whether the proposed exchange offer to be made to the preferred stockholders of Georgia Power and Light Company by Florida Power Corporation is fair and equitable and in conformity with the standards of the Act and Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder;

7. Whether the proposed donation by General Gas & Electric Corporation of $300,000 is appropriate and in the interest of investors and consumers generally, and, specifically, whether it is fair and equitable to the public security holders of General Gas & Electric Corporation;

8. Whether the restated fixed capital of Florida Power Corporation upon the consummation of the transactions proposed, if such transactions are consummated on the terms set forth in the filings, will contain any inflationary items; whether the fixed capital of Georgia Power and Light Company, after the proposed restatement, will contain inflationary items; and whether the increased provisions for depreciation for these two companies, as provided in the filings, will be adequate;

9. Whether, and to what extent, it is appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consumers to impose terms and conditions with respect to the proposed transactions; and

10. Generally, whether the proposed transactions meet the requirements of the appropriate provisions of the Act and Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder.

It is further ordered, That the secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the hearing above described by mailing a copy of this order by registered mail to General Gas & Electric Corporation, Florida Power Corporation, Florida Public Service Company, Sanford Gas Company, Santa Fe Land Company, Georgia Power and Light Company, and that notice of the entry of this order for said hearing is hereby given to all holders of securities of General Gas & Electric Corporation, Florida Power Corporation, Florida Public Service Company, Sanford Gas Company, Santa Fe Land Company and Georgia Power and Light Company, to the Public Service Commission of the State of Georgia and to all other Federal and State commissions or other agencies, authorities, or instrumentalities or other political subdivisions having jurisdiction over General Gas & Electric Corporation, Florida Power Corporation, Florida Public Service Company, Sanford Gas Company, Santa Fe Land Company, Georgia Power and Light Company, or any one of them, and to all other persons such notice to be given by a general release of the Commission, distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

The Pueblo Gas and Fuel Company and Cities Service Power & Light Company

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATIONS AND PERMITTING DECLARATIONS TO BECOME EFFECTIVE SUBJECT TO CONDITIONS

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 16th day of December, A. D. 1942.

The Pueblo Gas and Fuel Company ("Pueblo"), and Cities Service Power & Light Company ("Power & Light"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary of Cities Service Company, also a registered holding company, having filed applications and declarations, and amendments thereto, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly sections 7, 10 and 12 thereof and the Rules promulgated thereunder, with respect to a recapitalization of Pueblo and related transactions, as follows:

1. Power & Light proposes to purchase all of the outstanding stock of Pueblo from the present record owner thereof for a consideration of $1,000; and Pueblo proposes to issue to Power & Light 3,155.2 shares of common stock in full satisfaction and discharge of $315,520 principal amount of Pueblo's mortgage bonds now owned by Power & Light.

2. Power & Light proposes to donate to Pueblo (a) 2,655.2 shares of Pueblo's common stock in the aggregate par value of $265,520; (b) 4,023 shares of Pueblo's preferred stock in the aggregate par value of $402,300; and (c) $1,227,408.15 principal amount of indebtedness of Pueblo reflected on its books, Pueblo to retire and cancel all of such securities and credit the aggregate amount thereof to capital surplus.

3. Pueblo proposes, through solicitation of the holders thereof, to extend the maturity date of the balance of its outstanding first mortgage bonds in the principal amount of $322,080 for 10 years, from September 1, 1942, such bonds to be further secured by the terms of a supplemental indenture.

4. Pueblo proposes (a) to provide additional property reserves and to write off certain intangible property and to charge the aggregate amount thereof, together with the existing surplus-deficit, to capital surplus so created; and (b) to charge retirement reserve with the estimated cost of its gas manufacturing facilities no longer used or useful in the approximate amount of $200,000.

The foregoing transactions are to become effective when and if the holders of at least 90% of the first mortgage bonds of Pueblo, other than Power & Light, shall have consented to the proposal to extend the maturity date of such bonds.

Cities Service Company, owner of $32,000 principal amount of Pueblo bonds, has joined in the applications and declarations to the extent and for the purpose of requesting approval of its acquisition of a like principal amount of extended Pueblo bonds.

A public hearing having been held after due notice, and the Commission being advised in the premises:

It is ordered, That the said applications and declarations, as amended, be and they are hereby respectively granted and permitted to become effected subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated under said Act, and to the following further conditions:

1. Approval of the acquisition by Power & Light of the preferred and common stocks of Pueblo from the record owner thereof shall be without prejudice to any right of the Commission, in any appropriate proceeding hereafter under the Act, to direct the divestment by Power & Light of securities of Pueblo to the extent authorized by section 11 of the Act.

2. Approval of the acquisition by Cities Service Company of $32,000 principal amount of Pueblo bonds (through the extension of the maturity thereof) shall be without prejudice to any right of the Commission, in any appropriate proceeding hereafter under the Act, to inquire into and issue any appropriate order respecting the validity and ranking of such extended bonds or the amount to be realized thereon in such proceeding.

3. Accounting entries made by Power & Light as a result of the proposed transactions shall be without prejudice to any right of the Commission, in any appropriate proceeding hereafter under the Act, to inquire into and issue any appropriate order or orders in such proceeding requiring Power & Light to effect changes in such accounting entries.

4. No charge to the capital surplus of Pueblo to be created by the proposed transactions shall be made, except for proper adjustments inherent in its plant account at June 30, 1942, or for transfer to depreciation reserve, without further order of this Commission.

5. A copy of the "Findings and Opinion" entered by the Commission in this proceeding shall be furnished each bondholder solicited, as part of the initial solicitation literature, and Pueblo shall submit to the Commission not less than three days prior to use thereof, copies in final form of all supplemental or follow-up solicitation literature.

By the Commission.

Northern New England Company and New England Public Service Company

ORDER GRANTING EXTENSION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 18th day of December 1942.

The Commission having by its order of May 2, 1941 entered pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 directed that New England Public Service Company, a registered holding company, should within one year change its present capitalization to one class of stock, namely, common stock, or, in the alternative, at its election, liquidate its affairs and distribute its assets to its security holders; and said order having provided that said New England Public Service Company should make application to the Commission for the entry of such further orders as are necessary or appropriate for that purpose, and the Commission having reserved jurisdiction to enter such further orders as might be necessary or appropriate; and

Said New England Public Service Company having filed an application pursuant to section 11 (c) of said Act for an extension of time within which to comply with said order of May 2, 1941; and

The Commission having found that said New England Public Service Company has been unable in the exercise of due diligence to comply with said order within the initial statutory period of one year from the date of its entry, and that an extension of time is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors:

It is ordered, That said New England Public Service Company be and it is hereby granted an additional period of one year from May 2, 1942, within which to comply with said order of May 2, 1941.

By the Commission.

Carolina Power & Light Company and National Power & Light Company

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 15th day of December, A. D. 1942.

Carolina Power & Light Company and its parent, National Power & Light Company, a registered holding company subsidiary of Electric Bond and Share Company, likewise a registered holding company, having filed a joint declaration and an amendment thereto under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly sections 9 (a), (10), 12 (c), 12 (d), and 12 (f) thereof and Rules U-42 and U-45 thereunder regarding the surrender for cancellation by National Power & Light Company of 1,442,609 shares of common stock, without par value, of Carolina Power & Light Company as a capital contribution to the latter, the write-down of the utility plant account of Carolina Power & Light Company in the amount of $18,648,438. and the reduction of its common capital to $10,000,000 to eliminate an earned surplus deficit resulting from such write-down, and certain other adjustments in its accounts.

A public hearing on said declaration, as amended, having been duly held, the Commission having considered the record in this matter and having made and filed its Findings and Opinion herein;

It is ordered, That said declaration, as amended, be and the same hereby is permitted to become effective subject, however, to the following conditions:

1. Carolina Power & Light Company shall not declare or pay any dividends on its common stock except after fifteen (15) days' advance notice to the Commission.

2. Jurisdiction is reserved to determine in appropriate proceedings under applicable provisions of the Act:

(a) Whether it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers to require Carolina Power & Light Company to make further adjustments in its accounts;

(b) Whether it is necessary or appropriate to prohibit the declaration or payment by Carolina Power & Light Company of dividends on its common stock in order to protect the financial integrity, or safeguard the working capital of Carolina Power & Light Company, to prevent the payment of dividends out of capital or unearned surplus, or to prevent the circumvention of the provisions of the Act or any rules, regulations or orders thereunder; and

(c) Whether it is necessary or appropriate to require Carolina Power & Light Company to revise its capital structure for the purpose of fairly and equitably distributing voting power among its security holders, and whether in such revision of the capital structure of Carolina Power & Light Company, the 16,806 shares of $7 preferred stock of Carolina Power & Light Company held by National Power & Light Company should be converted into common stock of Carolina Power & Light Company, or be otherwise subordinated to its publicly held securities.

3. The transactions set forth in said declaration, as amended, shall be carried out in conformity with the representations made and for the purposes stated therein and in compliance with Rule U-24 of the rules of the Commission.

By the Commission.

Whereas, the Secretary of War, by Public Proclamation No. W.D. 1, dated August 13, 1942 (7 F.R. 6593), established the territory within the Heart Mountain Relocation Area, approximately 12 miles northeast of Cody, Wyoming, as a Military Area and designated the Area as a War Relocation Project Area; and,

Whereas, all persons of Japanese ancestry and all members of their families, both alien and non-alien, who reside within the bounds of the Area are required to remain within such bounds at all times, unless specifically authorized to leave as provided by the aforementioned Public Proclamation;

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the President of the United States by Executive Order No. 9102, dated March 18, 1942 (7 F.R. 2165), I hereby establish the exterior boundaries of the Heart Mountain Relocation Area as follows:

Beginning at the northeast corner of Lot 89, T. 55 N., R. 100 W., 6th P. M., Wyoming; thence southerly along the east boundary of Lot 89, to an intersection with Lateral "A"; thence in a general southwesterly direction along Lateral "A", through Lots 89, 88, 98 and 100, T. 55 N., R. 100 W., to the south boundary of Lot 100; thence westerly along the line between Lots 100 and 44, to the northwest corner of Lot 44, T. 55 N., R. 100 W.; thence southerly along the west boundary of Lot 44, to an intersection with the north one-sixteenth line of Fractional Section 27, T. 55 N., R. 100 W.; TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

[ACP–1942–18]

PART 701—AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM

SUBPART D—1942

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program, as amended,[1] is further amended as follows:

1. Section 701.301 (i) (4) is amended to read as follows:

§ 701.301 Allotments, yields, grazing capacities, payments and deductions.

(i) Minimum soil-conservation and soil-building requirements. * * *

(4) Minimum soil-building performance. The payment made with respect to special crop allotments shall not exceed a percentage of the net payment earned with respect to such allotments equal to the percentage of that part of the soil-building allowance computed under subparagraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, of paragraph (d), § 701.302, which is earned for the farm, except that such limitation will not be applicable if (i) the amount of the soil-building payment earned equals or exceeds the maximum payment computed in connection with special crop allotments, or (ii) the farm is retired from agricultural production during the 1942 program year: Provided, That in areas designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency only that acreage of cropland in excess of the sum of the acreage of cropland on the farm which the county committee determines is subject to annual overflow and the acreage in the 1942 allotments determined for the farm will be used in computing the part of the soil-building allowance used for the purpose of this subparagraph: Provided further, That when all or a part of a farm has been acquired for the purpose of the national war effort and it would be impracticable or inequitable to require compliance with the soil-building performance requirements, the county committee with the approval of the State committee, in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, may waive all or any part of such requirement. In determining performance under this subparagraph, in areas designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency as areas where the allowance on noncrop open pasture is the major portion of the soil-building allowance on a substantial number of farms, the allowance on noncrop open pasture shall not be included.

2. Section 701.314 (c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 701.314 Authority, availability of funds, and applicability. * * *

(c) Applicability. The provisions of the 1942 program contained herein, except § 701.305, are not applicable to (1) Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and Alaska; (2) counties for which special agricultural conservation programs are approved for 1942 by the Secretary; (3) any department or bureau of the United States Government and any corporation wholly owned by the United States; and (4) grazing lands owned by the United States which were acquired or reserved for conservation purposes or which are to be retained permanently under Government ownership. Such lands include, but are not limited to, lands owned by the United States which are administered under the Taylor Grazing Act or by the Forest Service or the Soil Conservation Service of the United States Department of Agriculture or by the Bureau of Biological Survey of the United States Department of the Interior.

The program is applicable to lands owned by corporations which are only partly owned by the United States, such as Federal Land Banks and Production Credit Associations.

The 1942 program is also applicable to any land which, although owned by the United States or a corporation wholly owned by it, is to be temporarily under such Government or corporation ownership and was not acquired or reserved for conservation purposes. Such land shall include that administered by the Farm Security Administration, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, or the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, or by any other Government agency which the Agricultural Adjustment Agency finds complies with all the provisions of the preceding sentences. The 1942 program will also be applicable to any cropland farmed by private persons which is owned by the United States or a corporation wholly owned by it.

Indian lands are within the scope of the program except that where grazing operations are carried out on Indian lands administered by the Department of the Interior, such lands are within the scope of the program only if covered by a written agreement approved by the Department of the Interior as giving the operator an interest in the grazing and forage growing on the land and a right to occupy the land in order to carry out the grazing operations.

AUTHORITY: Sections 727.511 to 727.523, inclusive, are issued under authority contained in 52 Stat. 38, 47, 54 Stat. 392, 53 Stat. 1261, 56 Stat. 51, 7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 1301 (b) 1313; 52 Stat. 66, 7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 1375.

GENERAL

§ 727.511 Definitions. As used in this procedure and in all instructions, forms, and documents in connection therewith, the words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meanings herein assigned to them, unless the context or subject-matter otherwise requires.

(a) "Flue-cured Allotment Procedure for 1943" means this Tobacco 703 (Flue-cured).

(b) "County committee" means the group of persons elected within any county to assist in the administration of the Agricultural Conservation Programs in such county.

(c) "New farm" means a farm on which tobacco was not produced in any of the five years 1938 to 1942 but on which tobacco will be produced in 1943.

(d) "Old farm" means a farm on which tobacco was produced in one or more of the five years 1938 to 1942 and on which tobacco will be produced in 1943.

(e) "Operator" means the person who is in charge of the supervision and conduct of the farming operations on the entire farm.

(f) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate or trust or other business enterprise or other legal entity and wherever applicable, a State, a political subdivision of a State or any agency thereof.

(g) "State committee" means the group of persons designated within any state to assist in the administration of the Agricultural Conservation Programs in such State.

(h) "Tobacco" means flue-cured tobacco as classified in Service and Regulatory Announcement No. 118 of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture, as types 11, 12, 13 and 14.

§ 727.512 Extent of calculations and rule of fractions. (a) All percentages shall be calculated to the nearest whole percent. Fractions of more than fifty-hundredths of one percent shall be rounded upward, and fractions of fifty-hundredths of one percent or less shall be dropped. For example, 87.51 percent would become 88 percent and 87.50 percent would become 87 percent.

(b) All acreage shall be calculated to the nearest one-tenth of an acre. Fractions of more than fifty-thousandths of an acre shall be rounded upward, and fifty-thousandths of an acre or less shall be dropped. For example, 1.051 would become 1.1 and 1.050 would become 1.0.

§ 727.513 Instructions and forms. The Administrator of the Agricultural Conservation and Adjustment Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture shall cause to be prepared and issued such instructions and such forms as may be deemed necessary or expedient for carrying out this procedure.

§ 727.514 Applicability of procedure. This allotment procedure for 1943 shall govern the establishment of farm acreage allotments and normal yields for flue-cured tobacco for use in connection with the 1943 Agricultural Conservation Program and in connection with farm marketing quotas for tobacco for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1943.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR OLD FARMS

§ 727.515 Determination of acreage allotments for old farms. The tobacco acreage allotment for an old farm shall be the 1942 acreage allotment (corrected if found to be in error) for the farm plus any acreage by which such allotment was reduced for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1942 because of violation of the 1941-42 Marketing Quota Regulations except as adjusted in accordance with the provisions of §§ 727.516, 727.517 and 727.518 below. Provided, however, No acreage allotted to the farm in 1942 from the State pools, except the acreage allotted to a farm, the owner of which was dispossessed of another farm by the acquisition thereof by a Federal agency for national defense purposes, shall be used in determining the 1943 allotment. This provision shall not be construed to prohibit determining any allotment for 1943 under the provisions of § 727.518 (a) below.

§ 727.516 Reduction of acreage allotment for violations of the 1942-43 Marketing Quota Regulations. If tobacco was sold or was permitted to be sold on a marketing card for any farm which was produced on a different farm the acreage allotment established for each such farm for 1943 shall be reduced by the amount of tobacco so marketed: Provided, That such reduction shall not be made if the Secretary, through the county committee, determines that no person connected with such farm during the 1942-43 marketing year caused, aided, or acquiesced in such marketing. If proof of the disposition of any amount of tobacco produced on a farm is not furnished, as required by the Secretary, the acreage allotment shall be reduced by such amount of tobacco.

The amount of tobacco involved will be converted to an acreage basis by dividing such amount of tobacco by the actual yield for the farm during the year in which such tobacco was produced.

§ 727.517 Allotments by county committees. An amount not in excess of one-half of one percent of the 1942 acreage allotment for each State will be apportioned to the counties in the State on the basis of the percentage the county acreage allotment is of the State acreage allotment, unless otherwise recommended by the State committee and approved by the Regional Director. The acreage so apportioned to the county will be available for allotment by the county committee. A farm shall be eligible for allotment as provided hereunder (1) if the committee finds that the 1942 allotment for the farm is relatively smaller in relation to the land, labor and equipment available for the production of tobacco on the farm than the average of the allotments in relation to such factors on other farms in the county, or (2) if tobacco was harvested on the farm in 1942 and the acreage allotment for the farm was zero. In making the adjustment in the farm acreage allotment the county committee shall consider the past acreage of tobacco (harvested and diverted), the land, labor and equipment available for the production of tobacco, and crop rotation practices. In no event shall the amount of the adjustment of the acreage allotment for any farm under this provision be more than the larger of ten percent of the 1942 allotment or five-tenths of an acre: Provided, That in the case of any farm on which tobacco was harvested in 1942 for which no acreage allotment was established, the committee may establish an allotment not exceeding ten percent of the acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1942.

Any adjustment as provided above shall be subject to the approval of the State committee.

§ 727.518 Reallocation of allotments released from farms removed from agricultural production. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the tobacco allotment determined or which would have been determined for any land which is removed from agricultural production because of acquisition by a State or Federal agency for any purpose or by a person for use in connection with the national defense program shall be available to the State committee for use in providing equitable allotments for farms on which tobacco was grown in one or more of the three years, 1940 through 1942, and which are operated in 1943 by persons who were producers of tobacco on land so removed from agricultural production. In so far as possible the allotments for farms operated by such persons shall be comparable to the allotments for other old farms in the same community which are similar with respect to land, labor and equipment available for the production of tobacco, crop-rotation practices, soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco, taking into consideration the allotment for the land removed from agricultural production. The allotment so determined shall be subject to the approval of the State committee and shall not exceed the larger of (1) the 1943 allotment previously determined for such land, or (2) the allotment which was or would have been determined for the land removed from agricultural production; Provided, That in no event shall the allotment so determined exceed the larger of 50 percent of the acreage of cropland in the farm, or three acres.

(b) The allotment determined or which would have been determined for any land acquired on or since January 1, 1940 by any Federal agency for national defense purposes shall be placed in a State pool and shall be used in determining equitable allotments for farms owned or purchased by owners displaced because of acquisition of their farm by a Federal agency for national defense purposes. Upon application to the county committee, any owner so displaced shall be entitled to have an allotment for any one of the other farms owned or purchased by him equal to an allotment which would have been determined for such other farm plus the allotment which would have been determined for the farm acquired by the Federal agency; Provided, That such allotment shall not exceed 50 percent of the acreage of cropland in the farm. The provisions of this subsection shall not be applicable if (1) there is any marketing quota penalty due with respect to the marketing of tobacco from the farm or by the owner of the farm at the time of its acquisition by the Federal agency; (2) any tobacco produced on such farm has not been accounted for as required by the Secretary; or (3) if the allotment next to be established for the farm acquired by the Federal agency would have been reduced because of false or improper identification of tobacco produced on or marketed from such farm.

§ 727.519 Farm subdivided or combined by reconstitution. (a) If land operated as a single farm in 1942 or any previous year has subsequently been subdivided and will be operated in 1943 as two or more farms, the 1943 tobacco acreage allotment determined or which otherwise would have been determined for the entire farm shall be apportioned among the tracts in the same proportion as the acreage of cropland suitable for the production of tobacco on each such tract in such year bore to the total number of acres of cropland suitable for the production of tobacco on the entire farm in such year unless otherwise recommended by the county committee and approved by the State committee.

(b) If two or more farms operated separately in 1942, or any previous year, have subsequently been combined and will be operated in 1943 as a single farm, the 1943 allotment shall be the sum of the 1943 allotments determined or which otherwise would have been determined for each of the farms composing the combination.

§ 727.520 Determination of normal yields. The normal yield for any farm shall be that yield which the county committee determines is normal for the farm taking into consideration (1) the yields obtained on the farm during the years 1937–41; (2) the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco on the farm, and (3) the yields obtained on other farms in the locality which are similar with respect to such factors. The weighted average of the normal yields for all farms in each county shall not exceed the normal yield established for the county in 1942, unless an adjustment for abnormal conditions is made by the Secretary upon recommendations of the State committee.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND YIELDS FOR NEW FARMS

§ 727.521 Determination of acreage allotments for new farms. The acreage allotment, other than an allotment made under § 727.518 (b), for a new farm shall be that acreage which the county committee determines is fair and reasonable for the farm taking into consideration each of the following factors:

(1) The past tobacco experience of the farm operator;

(2) The acreage of cropland in the farm suitable for tobacco production;

(3) The number of families on the farm available for tobacco production;

(4) The acreage capacity of barns which are located on the farm and which are in usable condition and available for the curing of tobacco;

(5) The customary crop rotation practices; and

(6) The adaptability of the soil to the growing of tobacco: Provided, That the acreage allotment so determined shall be subject to approval by the State committee and shall not exceed the smallest of (a) one-fifth of the total acreage of tobacco grown by the farm operator during the five years 1938 through 1942; (b) one-half of the acreage capacity of the curing barns which are located on the farm and which are in usable condition and available for the curing of tobacco for the farm, or (c) one acre.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section a tobacco acreage allotment shall not be established for any new farm unless the following conditions have been met:

(1) The farm operator shall have had two years or more experience in growing tobacco as a sharecropper, tenant, or as a farm operator during the past five years;

(2) The farm operator shall be living on the farm and largely dependent on this farm for his livelihood;

(3) The farm covered by the application shall be the only farm owned or operated by the farm operator on which any tobacco is produced; and

(4) No kind of tobacco other than flue-cured will be grown on such farm in 1943.

The acreage allotments established as provided in this section shall be subject to such downward adjustment as is necessary to bring such allotments in line with the total acreage available for allotment to all new farms. The acreage available for establishing allotments for new farms shall be one-tenth of one percent of the national allotment.

§ 727.522 Time for filing application. In order to obtain an allotment for a new tobacco farm in 1943, the operator of the farm shall file an application for such allotment with the county committee prior to February 1, 1943.

§ 727.523 Determination of normal yields. The normal yield for a new farm shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines is reasonable for the farm as compared with yields for other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 21st day of December 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

TITLE 10—ARMY: WAR DEPARTMENT

Chapter VII—Personnel

PART 73—APPOINTMENT OF COMMISSIONED OFFICERS, WARRANT OFFICERS, AND CHAPLAINS

AMENDMENT OF PROCEDURE

Section 73.303 is amended as follows:

§ 73.303 Appointments. Successful applicants will be reported by commanding generals of service commands to the War Department. From a consolidated report arranged by classification of all such reports, the War Department will arrange lists by classifications in order of military grade, length of service, and age. Appointments will be tendered to successful applicants in such numbers as may be required to fill existing vacancies. An additional number of successful applicants necessary to cover possible vacancies will be carried on eligible lists for appointment until the next succeeding examination for appointment is held. All original permanent appointments as warrant officer, junior grade, will be probationary for a period of 3 years. See §§ 73.314 and 73.316. (55 Stat. 651; 10 U.S.C. Sup. 591–599) [Par. 6, AR 610–10, September 13, 1941, as amended by C5, December 9, 1942]

PART 77—MEDICAL AND DENTAL ATTENDANCE

RATIONS IN CIVILIAN AND MILITARY HOSPITALS

Section 77.19 (e) is amended as follows:

§ 77.19 Civilian hospital employees.

(e) Rations. Whenever it is found necessary or deemed desirable, civilian employees, irrespective of their rate of pay, may be either furnished meals at the hospital, or, by special authority of The Surgeon General in exceptional circumstances, furnished with a ration in kind: Provided, That deductions are taken from their pay for such subsistence or ration, or that reimbursement in cash is received. Civilian employees permitted or required to take meals regularly at the hospital will have appropriate deductions made from their gross compention. Civilian employees permitted to take an occasional meal at the hospital will make reimbursement to the hospital fund in cash. The deductions for subsistence will be made according to the evaluation set forth in AR 35–3840.[1] The cash value of subsistence furnished will be determined by The Surgeon General. The cash value of subsistence furnished technicians and other female employes who are invited by the chief nurse to participate in that portion of the hospital mess established for Army nurses, and assigned thereto by the commanding officer of the hospital, will be computed at the same rate as for Army nurses, except at Army and Navy General Hospital to which § 77.24 (e) (3) is applicable. (R.S. 161; 5 U.S.C. 22) [Par. 13*e*, AR 40–590, February 2, 1942, as amended by C4, December 7, 1942]

* * * * *

Section 77.24 (e) (3) is added as follows:

§ 77.24 Army and Navy General Hospital. * * *

(e) Charges. * * *

(3) Commutation of rations. The rations of enlisted men on the active list of the Army, whether on a patient or on a duty status, and civilian employees on duty in the Medical Department at large are commuted at the rate of 60 cents a day, payment thereof to be made by the local disbursing officer. PART 79—PRESCRIBED SERVICE UNIFORM

ADOPTED STANDARDS OF CLOTHS

Section 79.2 (a) is amended as follows:

§ 79.2 Adopted standards of cloths. The standards of cloths are as follows:

(a) For officers, warrant officers, and contract surgeons—(1) For winter uniform—(i) Coats; caps, service; caps, garrison—(a) Fabrics. Wool, elastique, barathea, or whipcord, 14½–26 ounce.

(b) Color. Olive-drab shade No. 51 (dark shade).

(ii) Breeches and trousers—(a) Fabrics. Wool, elastique, barathea or whipcord, 14½–26 ounce.

(b) Color. Olive-drab shade No. 51 (dark shade); drab shade No. 54 (light shade).

(iii) Shirts—(a) Fabrics. Wool: Plain or twill weave worsted shirting, 10½-ounce.

Cotton: Broadcloth; poplin.

All authorized summer uniform fabrics listed in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(b) Color. Wool fabrics: Olive-drab shade No. 51 (dark shade); drab shade No. 54 (light shade); khaki shade No. 1.

Cotton fabrics: Khaki shade No. 1.

(iv) Overcoats—(a) Fabrics. Beaver, 26–32-ounce; doeskin, 26–32-ounce; kersey, 26–32-ounce; melton, 26–32-ounce.

(b) Colors. Olive-drab No. 2.

(v) Jacket, field—(a) Fabric. Cotton cloth, wind resistant and water repellent.

(2) For summer uniform. Coats; breeches; trousers; shirts; caps, service; caps, garrison.

(i) Fabrics. (a) Cotton, 6- or 8.2-ounce (6-ounce to be used only for shirts). (b) Rayon, plain or twill weave. (c) Cotton warp-mohair filling. (d) Worsted, tropical. (e) Gabardine.

(ii) Color. Khaki shade No. 1.

(3) Neckties—(i) Fabric. Cotton warp-mohair filling.

(ii) Color. Khaki shade No. 5 (R.S. 1296; 10 U.S.C. 1391) [Par. 2*a*, AR 600–35, November 10, 1941, as amended by C7, December 8, 1942]

PART 91—GENERAL TRANSPORT REGULATIONS

SHIPMENT OF INTOXICATING LIQUORS

Section 91.1 is amended as follows:

§ 91.1 Shipment of intoxicating liquors—(a) Laws covering. The transportation or importation into any State, Territory, or possession of the United States for delivery or use therein of intoxicating liquors, in violation of the laws thereof, is hereby prohibited. (Const., 21st amendment, sec. 2.) The laws of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States relative to intoxicating liquors are not applicable to the transportation of intoxicating liquors that are the property of the United States and intended as medical supplies for the treatment of the troops or of the animals pertaining to the Army.

(b) If carrier hesitates to accept or deliver. If a carrier should hesitate to accept at point of origin and/or deliver at destination a shipment containing intoxicating liquors that are the property of the United States and intended as medical supplies for the treatment of the troops or of the animals pertaining to the Army, the transportation officer at the point of origin and/or at destination, as the case may be, will obtain an appropriate certificate from the proper medical officer setting forth such ownership and intended use of the liquors. The transportation officer will deliver the certificate to the carrier and make record thereof. (R.S. 161; 5 U.S.C. 22) [Par. 29, AR 55–155, November 27, 1942]

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration

[Docket Nos. 12 and 29]

PART 19—CREAM CHEESE, NEUFCHATEL CHEESE, COTTAGE CHEESE, AND CREAMED COTTAGE CHEESE; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

ORDER

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 401, 701(e); 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371 (e), 1940 ed.); the Reorganization Act of 1939 [53 Stat. 561 ff.; 5 U.S.C. 133–133v (Supp. V, 1939)]; and Reorganization Plans No. I (53 Stat. 1423) and No. IV (54 Stat. 1234); and based on the evidence of record herein, the following order is hereby promulgated:

Findings of Fact

1. There are produced and marketed various cheeses of the class of soft uncured cheeses which have similar characteristics but which are separate and distinct identities.

2. The organoleptic characteristics, that is, the appearance, smell, feel, and taste, serve in general to distinguish each of such soft uncured cheeses from the others.

3. The basic constituents of each such cheese are the same, namely, the coagulated proteins of milk, a portion of the soluble nonfat milk solids, and widely varying proportions of water and milk fat.

4. The proportions in which the basic constitutents are present in a soft uncured cheese are determined by the composition of the starting mix used and the method of manufacture employed.

5. The proportions in which these basic constituents are present in a soft uncured cheese determine, to a large extent, the organoleptic characteristics on the basis of which it is distinguished from other kinds of cheeses.

6. The percentage of milk fat present in the dairy product from which such soft uncured cheese is made is one of the important factors which determine the composition of the finished cheese.

7. The desired percentage of fat in the dairy product from which a soft uncured cheese is made may be obtained by "adjustment", that is, by adding skim milk, milk, or cream as may be required to raise or lower the fat content of the starting material to the desired percentage. The starting material, after adjustment when necessary, is generally referred to as the "starting mix" or "mix".

8. The growth of certain bacteria usually present in raw milk may, and frequently does, contribute objectionable odors and flavors to a soft uncured cheese, that is, flavors and odors not normally associated with that type of cheese. The development of such flavors and odors is avoided and the desired flavor and odor characteristic of such soft uncured cheese is obtained by pasteurizing the starting mix from which such cheese is made and then inoculating it with a culture of harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, usually called "starter", selected on the basis of their ability to produce the desired characteristic flavor and odor.

9. Basically, the process by which soft uncured cheeses are made consists of pasteurizing the starting mix, adding starter, holding the mix at a suitable temperature for developing acidity and coagulating the curd and drawing the whey from the curd. A small quantity of rennet is sometimes added to produce a firmer curd. The curd is usually seasoned with salt.

10. The food commonly or usually known as cream cheese is one of the several soft uncured cheeses.

11. Cream cheese, made basically as stated in finding 9, is made from cream, with or without added milk or skim milk or both. The fat content of the starting mix varies from about 10 to about 20 percent by weight, depending on the proportions of fat and moisture desired in the finished cream cheese. The starting mix is usually homogenized. The separation of the curd and the whey is sometimes facilitated by warming. Pressure is sometimes applied to facilitate drainage of whey, and the curd is sometimes chilled.

12. All finished cream cheese leaks moisture to some extent.

13. Any noticeable leakage of moisture from cream cheese is undesirable as it renders the cheese unattractive and creates merchandising problems.

14. About 1927 it was discovered that the addition of small quantities of harmless vegetable gum in the preparation of cream cheese would prevent noticeable leakage of moisture, and such gum was first used, and is today used by some manufacturers, solely for this purpose.

15. The vegetable gums most commonly used in the preparation of cream cheese for the purpose of preventing excessive leakage of water are carob or locust bean gum, karaya gum, and tragacanth gum.

16. Gelatin and algin (sodium alginate) will also prevent such leakage, and they are sometimes used for such purpose in the preparation of cream cheese.

17. The amount of gum, gelatin, or algin, or any mixture of two or more of these, as the case may be, necessary for such purpose, does not exceed 0.5 percent by weight of the finished cream cheese.

18. Although gum, gelatin, and algin possess moisture-retaining properties, their use as ingredients in cream cheese in the quantities specified for the purpose of preventing leakage of moisture normally and properly present in cream cheese, cannot be abused when the maximum percentage of moisture which may be present in cream cheese is fixed.

19. Vegetable gum, gelatin, and algin are nondairy substances. Their use affects the appearance (see finding 13) and texture of soft uncured cheeses. It is in the interest of consumers that such ingredients be named on the label when they are used.

20. Traditionally, cream cheese has been a relatively high-fat, low-moisture soft uncured cheese and most of the product marketed today as cream cheese contains from 35 to 40 percent or more of fat and from 55 to 50 percent or less of moisture.

21. In good commercial practice the percentages of fat and moisture in the finished cream cheese vary as much as 2 percent above or below the percentages which the manufacturer desires to obtain in the finished product.

22. The appearance, smell, feel, and taste of cream cheese become less characteristic of that product as the fat content is lowered and the moisture content is correspondingly raised. The line of demarcation is not clearly fixed, but when the fat is less than about 33 percent and the moisture is more than about 55 percent, the finished product (unless subjected to the hot-pack process hereinafter described) commences to acquire characteristics of appearance, smell, feel, and taste closely related to but different from those of cream cheese.

23. With all due allowances made for the variations in the fat and moisture content referred to in finding 21, a reasonable minimum limit for the fat content of the finished cream cheese is 33 percent, and a reasonable maximum limit for the moisture content is 55 percent.

24. Following the discovery that the use of gum in cream cheese would prevent excessive leakage of moisture, it became the practice of some manufacturers to heat the gum together with the curd, and to disperse it in the curd usually by homogenization. This modification became known as the "hot-pack" process and, to distinguish the process followed prior to such modification, the earlier process became known as the "cold-pack" process.

25 By subjecting the gum-containing curd to the hot-pack process, it was possible to produce a finished product of the general appearance and texture of cream cheese containing a substantially higher percentage of moisture and a correspondingly lower percentage of fat than the product which had been manufactured and marketed as cream cheese prior to discovery of the hot-pack process.

26. Most of the soft uncured cheese made by the hot-pack process which is marketed today contains from about 23 percent to about 30 percent of fat and from about 60 percent to about 65 percent of moisture.

27. The desired percentage of fat and moisture in soft uncured cheese made by the hot-pack process may be obtained by adjustment through adding to the curd appropriate quantities of cream, milk, skim milk, or any mixture of two or all of these, before the curd is heated and homogenized. Water has sometimes been added to such curd for the purpose of adjusting it, but the addition of skim milk, which is ordinarily used for this purpose, permits any adjustment for moisture that can be accomplished by the addition of water.

28. The finished soft curd cheese which is made by subjecting the gum-containing curd to the hot-pack process and which contains a substantially higher percentage of moisture and a correspondingly lower percentage of fat than cream cheese, possesses a texture which simulates the texture of cream cheese, whereas soft uncured cheese of the same composition which has not been subjected to the hot-pack process is of a softer texture than cream cheese.

29. A low-fat, high-moisture soft uncured cheese made by the hot-pack process cannot be readily distinguished from cream cheese by the ordinary purchaser.

30. Such cheese has from the beginning and is today distinguished by manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers by such qualifying words as "low test", "cheap", "second grade", "No. 2", "hot-pack", and often by some arbitrary brand name.

31. Such cheese was produced by some manufacturers to enable them to compete profitably with other manufacturers of cream cheese. The competitive situation thus created led to the production, in some quantity at least, of the low-fat, high-moisture product by all or substantially all manufacturers of cream cheese.

32. The manufacturing cost of soft uncured cheese is determined primarily by the fat content in the finished cheese. Low-fat, high-moisture cheese is therefore less expensive than cream cheese, and manufacturers usually sell it to distributors and retailers at a price lower than that of cream cheese.

33. Retailers sometimes sell the low-fat, high-moisture soft uncured cheese to consumers at the price of cream cheese. There is no uniform differentiation between the two cheeses on the basis of retail prices.

34. The low-fat, high-moisture soft uncured cheese is not known to consumers by any of the designations whereby manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers distinguish it from cream cheese because it has been sold to them under the name "cream cheese"; consumers generally do not know that kind of cheese by any other name.

35. In the administration of the Federal Food and Drugs Act of June 30, 1906, the Secretary of Agriculture issued the following standard of identity for cream cheese in 1921:

> Cream cheese is the unripened cheese made by the Neufchatel process from whole milk enriched with cream. It contains, in the water-free substance, not less than sixty-five percent (65%) of milk fat.

This standard was advisory in character and did not have the force and effect of law.

36. When such advisory standard was issued, neither the use of gum nor the hot-pack process as a means to retain moisture in cream cheese were contemplated, as these methods were not known in 1921. The product then known as cream cheese was made by the cold-pack process without the addition of gum.

37. During the existence of such advisory standard the composition of cream cheese made by the method contemplated by such advisory standard has become fixed with a reasonable degree of uniformity by trade practices, and the standard of composition so established is a minimum of about 35 percent of fat and a maximum of about 55 percent of moisture (see finding 20).

38. In the absence of any moisture-retaining ingredient in cream cheese, a prescribed minimum percentage of fat on a dry basis also limits to some extent the quantity of moisture because the ratio of fat to nonfat solids bears some relation to the quantity of moisture present. However, when a moisture-retaining ingredient is permitted, such ratio bears little or no relation to the percentage of moisture in the finished product and therefore a provision fixing a minimum percentage of fat on a dry basis, with no moisture limitation, would not constitute a definitive standard for cream cheese to which a moisture-retaining ingredient is added.

39. The nonfat solids in cream cheese remain practically constant, generally falling within the range of 8 percent to 12 percent (an average of 10 percent) by weight of the finished product. Therefore, if the maximum moisture is fixed at 55 percent by weight of the finished cream cheese, the minimum percentage of fat must be approximately 35 percent by weight of the finished product (see findings 20 to 23, inclusive). In cream cheese of such composition the percentage of fat on a moisture-free basis is approximately 78 percent, instead of 65 percent as provided by the advisory standard.

40. Although such low-fat, high-moisture soft uncured cheese made by the hot-pack process simulates cream cheese in appearance and texture, its quantitative composition with respect to milk constituents is more nearly like the composition of neufchatel cheese.

41. The soft uncured cheese made from whole milk, or from a mixture of milk and cream in which the percentage of fat is below the percentage of fat of the starting mix for cream cheese (see finding 11), by the process described generally in finding 9 is commonly or usually known as neufchatel cheese. Neufchatel cheese is made by the cold-pack process, but there are no technical difficulties in applying the hot-pack process to the curd so produced.

42. Neufchatel cheese has traditionally contained a percentage of fat within the range next lower than that of cream cheese and a percentage of moisture within the range next higher than that of cream cheese. Prior to the development of the hot-pack process, it was the only soft uncured cheese with fat and moisture contents falling within such ranges and the name "neufchatel" is generally associated with a soft uncured cheese falling within such ranges.

43. When the usual method of manufacture is employed, neufchatel cheese contains a minimum of about 20 percent of fat and a maximum of about 65 percent of moisture.

44. Prior to about 1920, a very substantial volume of neufchatel cheese was marketed. However, the volume of sales of this product gradually declined and since about 1925 practically no neufchatel cheese has been marketed, and today only one manufacturer is known to market a soft uncured cheese under that name.

45. Commencing about 1916 it became the practice of manufacturers, for competitive reasons, to lower the fat content progressively and increase the moisture content of the product, so that by about 1920 most of it was made from partly skimmed milk but continued to be sold as neufchatel cheese. The result of this practice was a progressively inferior or "cheaper" product. Consumer demand for it declined until its manufacture was virtually discontinued.

46. The food commonly or usually known as cottage cheese is one of the several soft uncured cheeses.

47. Cottage cheese is made from skimmed milk, the process being, basically, that described in finding 9. The percentage of milk fat contained in the starting mix varies from traces to something less than 1½ percent. The separation of the curd and whey is facilitated by warming or cutting or both; the curd is drained and is sometimes washed with water during or after draining, followed by further draining; after draining, the curd is sometimes chilled, or pressed, or both.

48. The extent of the warming and draining, and also whether rennet is used or not, and whether the curd is washed or unwashed, chilled or unchilled, cut or uncut, pressed or not, during the process of manufacture, are all factors which affect the physical form of the finished cottage cheese, so that such cheese is sometimes of a relatively granular or crumbly form, or of a relatively smooth texture, or in the form of flakes; and in some forms it may be dryer than in others. But all such differences are merely minor differences in the same kind of cheese.

49. The choice of a particular texture in cottage cheese is determined by the intended use of the cheese. In some localities it is customary to distinguish between textures of cottage cheese by such descriptive words as "bakers", "pot", "cup", "hoop", "block", "dry", "pressed", "popcorn", "flake", but the meaning of such words is not uniform. Such a descriptive word which identifies cottage cheese of a particular texture in one locality may identify cottage cheese of a different texture in another locality.

50. Most cottage cheese marketed contains less than 80 percent of moisture, and a limitation of moisture in cottage cheese to not more than 80 percent is a reasonable limit.

51. The calcium content of milk varies, the amount present depending on such factors as seasons, geographical locations, the kind of feed fed to cows, and perhaps others.

52. When cottage cheese is made from skim milk deficient in calcium, the curd is too soft and "mushy" to give the finished cheese the desired characteristic texture.

53. Calcium deficiency in skim milk from which cottage cheese is made is corrected by adding calcium chloride to the starting mix.

54. The maximum calcium chloride required to correct any likely calcium deficiency in skim milk is never in excess of 0.02 percent by weight of the starting mix.

55. The food commonly or usually known as creamed cottage cheese is one of the several soft uncured cheeses.

56. Creamed cottage cheese is cottage cheese which has been creamed by adding thereto and admixing therewith sweet cream, or a mixture of sweet cream and sweet milk or sweet skim milk or both. Such addition of sweet cream and sweet milk or sweet skim milk or both contributes the recognized characteristics of appearance, texture, and taste which distinguish creamed cottage cheese from cottage cheese.

57. The cottage cheese ordinarily used for making creamed cottage cheese contains from fractions up to about 1 percent of milk fat. Creamed cottage cheese contains in excess of 4 percent of milk fat. The cream or the mixture of cream and milk or skim milk or both which is added to cottage cheese is the principal source of milk fat in creamed cottage cheese. It is reasonable to require that such cream or such mixture, as the case may be, be added in such quantity that the fat derived from this source is not less than 4 percent by weight of the finished creamed cottage cheese.

58. Some manufacturers have added gelatin to cottage cheese and to creamed cottage cheese. The addition of gelatin to such products does not affect the preparation of the curd, but it eliminates the "watery" appearance of the curd and gives it a glossy appearance, and gives the impression that the finished product is richer or higher in butterfat than it actually is.

59. Most of the soft uncured cheese marketed as creamed cottage cheese contains not more than 80 percent of moisture, which is a reasonable limit for moisture in creamed cottage cheese.

60. The amount of moisture and the amount of milk fat contained in each of the cheeses heretofore described can be accurately determined by the methods of analysis for cheese described in the publication entitled "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fifth Edition, 1940: the moisture content under the heading "Moisture—Official", on page 301, and the milk fat content under the heading: "Fat—Official", on page 302. Such methods are well-known to, and recognized by, food chemists and the publication referred to is a publication well-known and readily available to food chemists.

61. The milk used in the manufacture of any soft uncured cheese is sweet milk of cows, and the skim milk so used is such cows' milk from which the fat has been separated.

62. There is a kind of soft uncured cheese which, according to some testimony, appears to be made by a process slightly different from the process employed in making cottage cheese. Its minimum fat content is somewhere within the range of 10 to 12 percent, but this kind of cheese contains less fat than neufchatel cheese. This kind of cheese differs in identity from cottage cheese, from creamed cottage cheese, and from neufchatel cheese. Most soft uncured cheese of this composition has been sold under the designation "farmer cheese". There is evidence of record that a designation of this product by the term "farmer cheese" would be misleading to consumers.

63. In comparison with other commonly used foods, soft uncured cheeses, like most other dairy products, are highly perishable and will spoil in a comparatively short time.

64. Soft uncured cheeses are regarded as being spoiled when microorganisms have developed in such cheeses to such extent that the product is no longer acceptable to consumers for consumption. The principal causes of spoilage are bacteria, yeasts, and molds.

65. When the starting mix from which a soft uncured cheese is made is of a reasonably good quality, the process of pasteurization to which such mixes are always subjected is lethal to those microorganisms which normally cause such cheeses to spoil.

66. The principal bacteria present in soft uncured cheeses are the lactic-acid-producing bacteria which are added to the pasteurized starting mix for the purpose of producing lactic acid.

67. These bacteria remain in the finished cheese and their growth, with resultant acid formation, continues until the cheese becomes so sour that it is unfit for consumption. Such souring occurs as a result of the normal development of these bacteria independent of other microorganisms that may be present in such products. The period from the time of the manufacturing of a soft uncured cheese to the time of spoilage resulting from such souring is regarded as the normal life of such products.

68. Spoilage of soft uncured cheeses may be hastened by the growth of organisms other than the lactic-acid-producing bacteria. Whether spoilage by reason of such growth occurs before souring depends on the degree of contamination with such other organisms.

69. The most common organisms, other than lactic-acid-producing bacteria, which cause spoilage of soft uncured cheeses are yeasts and molds.

70. Such yeast and mold spores as may be present in a good quality starting mix are killed by the pasteurization of such starting mix.

71. However, contamination of soft uncured cheeses with yeast and mold spores sometimes occurs during the process of manufacture, packaging, and distribution, and while such product is being used by consumers.

72. A few manufacturers have added one or the other of the chemicals sodium propionate and calcium propionate to soft uncured cheeses in quantities not in excess of 0.15 percent by weight (the maximum quantity practicable) for the purpose of preserving such cheeses temporarily against the development of yeasts and mold spores. Such preservatives have been used primarily in cream cheese and neufchatel cheese; however, they have also been used in some cottage cheese and creamed cottage cheese. The spoilage problem is similar in each of the soft uncured cheeses.

73. When such preservatives are added to soft uncured cheeses in the quantity specified, they will retard the development of some of the yeasts and mold spores present to the extent that evidence of their presence and development becomes apparent to consumers from one to about five days later than would otherwise be the case.

74. Whether a soft uncured cheese is rendered unfit for use prior to souring, by reason of the development of objectionable flavors due to yeast growth or by reason of the development of visible mold, depends principally on the degree of contamination of such product with yeast and mold spores.

75. When good manufacturing practices are observed, the degree of contamination of the finished product with mold spores and yeast is slight and of little, if any, significance.

76. Retailers know that soft uncured cheeses are highly perishable products and therefore do not store them over a long period. Excessive contamination with mold and yeast spores, that is, contamination to an extent that will cause spoilage prior to souring, is avoided while they are held for sale to consumers by proper covering and refrigeration of the products. Unless they are careless, merchandisers keep such products properly covered and refrigerated so as not to expose them to such contamination.

77. Consumers know that soft uncured cheeses are highly perishable and they do not store such foods for more than a few days. They usually purchase such products in small quantities and usually consume them within a day or two after purchase although sometimes they may keep them a few days longer. But such contamination as may normally occur while such products are kept in the home does not cause such products to spoil prior to their consumption.

78. Most manufacturers of soft uncured cheeses do not use propionates in their products and some regard them as improper ingredients. During the two years and nine months immediately preceding the date of this hearing, the period during which propionates had been offered to manufacturers, only about ten manufacturers had used them commercially, and during that period only a very small percentage of the soft uncured cheese marketed as cream cheese contained propionates.

79. Provision for the use of propionates in soft uncured cheeses would not serve the interest of consumers since there appears to be no need for a preservative to retard the development of yeasts and mold spores if good manufacturing and distribution practices are followed.

80. One manufacturer has occasionally added vitamin D to cream cheese, but the record fails to establish that cream cheese is a suitable carrier for vitamin D or that there is a need for the addition of this ingredient to cream cheese.

81. A manufacturer of a substance described by him as a "commercial coagulant" sold under the trade name "Illini Formula A" testified that some manufacturers had used such substance as a substitute for rennet in making cottage cheese and that the noticeable results from its use were a more "uniform coagulation in setting" of the curd and a "cleaner flavor" of the finished cheese than when rennet is used as the coagulant. The witness declined to disclose the composition of this product further than that it contained pepsin, rennet, "harmless organic and inorganic enzymes or catalyst used in the coagulation of milk", and vanilla added solely for the purpose of concealing such undisclosed ingredients. Although some of the parent companies of the subsidiary companies stated to have used this preparation were represented at this hearing and some of their experts testified, none of them, nor any other of the manufacturers present at the hearing, testified to the use of coagulants other than those specified in this order. Such a record does not furnish an adequate basis for determining the suitability of such preparation as an ingredient in cottage cheese.

On the basis of the foregoing findings of fact, it is found and concluded that:

(1) It would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to establish a definition and standard of identity for low-fat, high-moisture soft uncured cheese made by the hot-pack process, under the name "cream cheese" or a name which includes the words "cream cheese".

(2) It will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to establish a definition and standard of identity for such low-fat, high-moisture cheese under the name "neufchatel cheese".

(3) The evidence does not provide an adequate basis for determination that it would promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to establish a definition and standard of identity under the name "farmer cheese" for the soft uncured cheese sometimes sold under that name.

(4) It will not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe definitions and standards of identity for soft uncured cheeses providing for the use of the chemical preservatives sodium and calcium propionates as ingredients of any such cheeses.

(5) It will not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe definitions and standards of identity for cottage cheese and creamed cottage cheese providing for the use of gelatin as an ingredient of either of such cheeses.

(6) The evidence does not provide an adequate basis for a determination that it would promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to prescribe a definition and standard of identity for cream cheese providing for the use of vitamin D as an ingredient of such cheese, or to prescribe a definition and standard of identity for cottage cheese providing for the use as optional ingredients of coagulants other than those specified in the definition and standard of identity herein prescribed for cottage cheese.

(7) Promulgation of the regulations hereinafter prescribed, fixing and establishing definitions and standards of identity for cream cheese, neufchatel cheese, cottage cheese, and creamed cottage cheese, will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers.

Wherefore each of the following regulations is hereby promulgated:

REGULATIONS

Sec.
19.515 Cream cheese, identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
19.520 Neufchatel cheese, identity, label statement of optional ingredients.
19.525 Cottage cheese, identity.
19.530 Creamed cottage cheese, identity.

AUTHORITY: §§ 19.515 to 19.530, inclusive, issued under secs. 401, 701 (e); 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U.S.C. 341, 371 (e), 1940 ed.; the Reorganization Act of 1939, 53 Stat. 561 ff.; and Reorganization Plans Nos. I, 53 Stat. 1423, and IV, 54 Stat. 1234.

§ 19.515 Cream cheese, identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Cream cheese is the soft uncured cheese prepared by the procedure set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. The finished cream cheese contains not less than 33 percent of milk fat and not more than 55 percent of moisture, as determined, respectively, by the methods prescribed under "Fat—Official" on page 302 and under "Moisture—Official" on page 301 of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fifth Edition, 1940.

(b) (1) Cream or a mixture of cream with milk or skim milk or both is pasteurized and may be homogenized. To such cream or mixture harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, with or without rennet, are added and it is held until it becomes coagulated. The coagulated mass may be warmed; it may be stirred; it is then drained. The curd may be pressed, chilled, worked, seasoned with salt; it may be heated, with or without added cream or milk or skim milk or any mixture of two or all of these, until it becomes fluid and it may then be homogenized or otherwise mixed.

(2) In the preparation of cream cheese one or any mixture of two or more of the optional ingredients gum karaya, gum tragacanth, carob bean gum, gelatin, or algin may be used; but the quantity of any such ingredient or mixture is such that the total weight of the solids contained therein is not more than 0.5 percent of the weight of the finished cream cheese.

(3) For the purposes of this section milk means sweet milk of cows and skim milk means milk from which the milk fat has been separated.

(c) When an optional ingredient listed in paragraph (b) (2) is present in cream cheese, the label shall bear the statement "-------------- Added" or "With Added --------------", the blank being filled in with the word or words "Vegetable Gum" or "Gelatin" or "Algin" or any combination of two or all of these, as the case may be. Wherever the name "Cream Cheese" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statement herein specified showing the optional ingredients present shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

§ 19.520 Neufchatel cheese, identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Neufchatel cheese is the soft uncured cheese prepared by the procedure set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. The finished neufchatel cheese contains not less than 20 percent but less than 33 percent of milk fat and not more than 65 percent of moisture, as determined, respectively, by the methods prescribed under "Fat—Official" on page 302 and under "Moisture—Official" on page 301 of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fifth Edition, 1940.

(b) (1) Milk or a mixture of cream with milk or skim milk or both is pasteurized and may be homogenized. To such milk or mixture harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, with or without rennet, are added and it is held until it becomes coagulated. The coagulated mass may be warmed; it may be stirred; it is then drained. The curd may be pressed, chilled, worked, seasoned with salt; it may be heated, with or without added cream or milk or skim milk or any mixture of two or all of these, until it becomes fluid and it may then be homogenized or otherwise mixed.

(2) In the preparation of neufchatel cheese one or any mixture of two or more of the optional ingredients gum karaya, gum tragacanth, carob bean gum, gelatin, or algin may be used; but the quantity of any such ingredient or mixture is such that the total weight of the solids contained therein is not more than 0.5 percent of the weight of the finished neufchatel cheese.

(3) For the purposes of this section milk means sweet milk of cows and skim milk means milk from which the milk fat has been separated.

(c) When an optional ingredient listed in paragraph (b) (2) of this section is present in neufchatel cheese, the label shall bear the statement "------------------ Added" or "With Added ------------", the blank being filled in with the word or words "Vegetable Gum" or "Gelatin" or "Algin" or any combination of two or all of these, as the case may be. Wherever the name "Neufchatel Cheese" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statement herein specified showing the optional ingredients present shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

§ 19.525 Cottage cheese, identity. (a) Cottage cheese is the soft uncured cheese prepared by the procedure set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. The finished cottage cheese contains not more than 80 percent of moisture, as determined by the method prescribed under "Moisture—Official" on page 301 of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fifth Edition, 1940.

(b) (1) Sweet skim milk is pasteurized; calcium chloride may be added in a quantity not more than 0.02 percent (calculated as anhydrous calcium chloride) of the weight of such skim milk; harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, with or without rennet, are added and it is held until it becomes coagulated. The coagulated mass may be cut; it may be warmed; it may be stirred; it is then drained. The curd may be washed with water and further drained; it may be pressed, chilled, worked, seasoned with salt.

(2) For the purposes of this section skim milk means the milk of cows from which the milk fat has been separated.

§ 19.530 Creamed cottage cheese, identity. (a) Creamed cottage cheese is the soft uncured cheese prepared by mixing cottage cheese with pasteurized cream or a pasteurized mixture of cream with milk or skim milk or both. Such cream or mixture is used in such quantity that the milk fat added thereby is not less than 4 percent by weight of the finished creamed cottage cheese. The finished creamed cottage cheese contains not more than 80 percent of moisture as determined by the method prescribed under "Moisture—Official" on page 301 of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fifth Edition, 1940.

(b) For the purposes of this section milk means sweet milk of cows and skim milk means milk from which the milk fat has been separated.*

The regulations hereby promulgated shall become effective on the ninetieth day following the date of publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[Docket No. FDC-38]

PART 135—COAL TAR COLOR REGULATIONS

ORDER AMENDING REGULATIONS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (Secs. 504, 604, 701 (a) and (e), 52 Stat. 1052, 1055, 21 U.S.C. 354, 364, 371 (a) and (e)); and on the basis of the evidence received at the hearing duly held pursuant to notice thereof signed by the Acting Federal Security Administrator on August 13, 1942 and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, dated August 15, 1942 (7 F.R. 6449-6450), the following order is hereby promulgated:

Findings of Fact

1. Chemical methods were utilized in analyzing the color proposed for listing as EXT D&C Yellow No. 6, which were the conventional methods, customarily adopted in analyzing coal-tar colors. (R. 9, 10; Govt. Ex. No. 2)

2. The chemical identity of the pure dye in the proposed color was ascertained and found to be disodium salt of 5-(para-sulfo-phenyl azo)-salicylic acid. (R. 19; Govt. Ex. No. 2; Other Parties Ex. No. 1, p. 20)

3. The coal-tar color proposed for listing as EXT D&C Yellow No. 6 can only be made by a combination of two intermediates, namely, sulfanilic acid and salicylic acid. (R. 10, 20)

4. Coal-tar colors cannot under good manufacturing practice be made of 100 percent purity, but contain, besides the pure dy component, some impurities. (R. 11; Other Parties Ex. No. 1, p. 1)

5. A chemical analysis of a sample of the coal-tar color proposed for listing as EXT D&C Yellow No. 6 showed the presence of the following impurities with their respective percentages:

	Percent
Water insoluble matter	0.3
Volatile matter (at 135° C.)	0.8
Sodium chloride	11.6
Sodium sulfate	0.1
Ether extracts, total	0.4
Sulfanilic acid	0.2
Salicylic acid	0.2
Mixed oxides, less than	1.0
Heavy metals, less than	0.003
Lead, less than	0.002
Arsenic, less than	0.0002

(R. 19, 20; Govt. Ex. No. 2, p. 1)

6. Analysis of another sample of the coal-tar color referred to in finding 5 showed the presence of similar impurities in substantially the same respective percentages. (Other Parties Ex. No. 1, p. 1)

7. Variations in percentages found in the analyses referred to in findings 5 and 6 are within the range of experimental error of methods. (R. 21)

8. A coal-tar color conforming to the following specifications, proposed for EXT D&C Yellow No. 6 in Government Exhibit No. 1, namely:

EXT D&C YELLOW NO. 6

SPECIFICATIONS

Disodium salt of 5-(para-sulfo-phenyl azo)-salicylic acid.
Volatile matter (at 135° C.), not more than 3.0 percent.
Water insoluble matter, not more than 1.0 percent.
Ether extracts, not more than 0.5 percent.
Sulfanilic acid, not more than 0.2 percent.
Salicylic acid, not more than 0.2 percent.
Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 15.0 percent.
Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent.
Pure dyes (as determined by titration with titanium trichloride), not less than 82.0 percent.

and in addition conforming to the provisions of the coal tar color regulations would be suitable for use in externally applied drugs and cosmetics. (R. 14, 20)

9. Methods of analysis have been reported for the quantitative determination of the pure dye, all intermediates, and other impurities contained in said color. These methods were put into practice and accurate results obtained by their use. (R. 14, 19, 20; Govt. Ex. No. 2, p. 1; Other Parties Ex. No. 1, pp. 1–17, inc.)

10. A method for the identification of the coal-tar color designated as EXT D&C Yellow No. 6 was reported. This method was put into practice and accurate results obtained by its use. (R. 20, 21; Other Parties Ex. No. 1, p. 18)

11. Pharmacological tests upon laboratory animals exist for determining whether a coal-tar color is harmless when used in drugs and cosmetics. (R. 27, 39)

12. Tests conducted to determine the toxicity of EXT D&C Yellow No. 6 were adequate conventional pharmacological tests ordinarily employed in determining the toxicity of coal-tar colors. (R. 25–27, 39, 41)

13. Acute toxicity tests were made on various species of test animals, by oral administration and intravenous and intraperitoneal injections of solutions of this color. Observations of these test animals showed that this color has a very low toxicity as compared with the toxicity of other coal-tar colors listed for use in externally applied drugs and cosmetics. (R. 26, 37; Govt. Ex. No. 3, p. 1; Other Parties Ex. No. 2, pp. 1–2, and "1"; Other Parties Ex. No. 3, pp. 1, 2)

14. Chronic toxicity tests were made by feeding the color to rats for periods of time ranging up to and beyond 429 days. At various intervals, animals subject to these tests, were sacrificed and microscopic examination made of the internal organs. Such examinations disclosed no damage to the internal organs from the ingestion of the color. During these feeding periods a record of the weights of the test animals was kept, which disclosed that the normal rate of growth of the animals was not affected by the ingestion of the color. (R. 28–34, 38–41; Govt. Ex. No. 3, p. 2; Other Parties Ex. No. 2, pp. 3, 4, "Further Studies" p. 2; Other Parties Ex. No. 3, p. 2)

15. Irritation and sensitization tests were made by applying solutions of the color in dermal contact and by intradermal and intramuscular injections. Guinea pigs were used as the test animals. Observations of these animals showed that this color did not cause irritation or sensitization. (R. 26–28, 37, 38; Govt. Ex. No. 3, pp. 1, 2; Other Parties Ex. No. 2, pp. 5–7, "1"; Other Parties Ex. No. 3, pp. 2, 3)

16. The amount of color fed the animals referred to in finding 14 was far in excess of the amount that any human might absorb through the skin as a result of the use of externally applied drugs or cosmetics colored with EXT D&C Yellow No. 6. (R. 42)

Conclusion

Upon the basis of the foregoing findings of fact, it is concluded: (1) that a coal-tar color conforming to the coal tar color regulations and the specifications set forth in finding 8, is harmless and suitable for use in externally applied drugs and cosmetics; (2) practical and accurate methods of analysis exist for the quantitative determination of the pure dye and all intermediates and other impurities contained in such color; and (3) practical and accurate methods exist for the identification of such dye in drugs and cosmetics colored therewith.

Therefore, the coal tar color regulations under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act originally promulgated by order of May 4, 1939, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for May 9, 1939 (Vol. 4, No. 89, pp. 1922–1947); as amended by order of September 14, 1939, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for September 16, 1939 (Vol. 4, No. 179, pp. 3931–3940); as further amended by order of March 22, 1940, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for March 23, 1940 (Vol. 5, No. 58, pp. 1138–1141); and as further amended by order of May 9, 1940, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for May 10, 1940 (Vol. 5, No. 92, pp. 1669–1672), should be and are hereby further amended, by adding to the colors listed in § 135.5 of said regulations the following:

§ 135.5 List of straight colors and specifications for their certification for use in externally applied drugs and cosmetics. * * *

EXT D&C YELLOW NO. 6

SPECIFICATIONS

Finding of Absence of Controversy

No controversy with respect to the subject of the hearing or any of the issues raised therein exists between the persons who appeared. Issuance of a final order without prior issuance of a proposed order will promote the purposes of the Act.

This order shall become effective on the ninetieth day after the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. [Secs. 504, 604, 701 (a) and (e), 52 Stat. 1052, 1055, 21 U.S.C. 354, 364, 371 (a) and (e)].

TITLE 22—FOREIGN RELATIONS

Chapter II—Proclaimed List of Certain Blocked Nationals

CUMULATIVE SUPPLEMENT 2 TO REVISION IV

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of State, acting in conjunction with the Secretary of the Treasury, the Attorney General, the Secretary of Commerce, the Board of Economic Warfare, and the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, by Proclamation 2497 of the President of July 17, 1941 (6 F.R. 3555), the following Supplement 2 containing certain additions to, amendments to, and deletions from The Proclaimed List of Certain Blocked Nationals, Revision IV of November 12, 1942 (7 F.R. 9510), is hereby promulgated.

By direction of the President:

CORDELL HULL,
Secretary of State.

RANDOLPH PAUL,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

FRANCIS BIDDLE,
Attorney General.

JESSE H. JONES,
Secretary of Commerce.

MILO PERKINS,
Executive Director, Board of Economic Warfare.

NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER,
Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs.

DECEMBER 18, 1942.

GENERAL NOTES

(REVISED AS OF CUMULATIVE SUPPLEMENT NO. 1 TO REVISION IV)[1]

(1) The Proclaimed List is divided into two parts: part I relates to listings in the American republics; part II relates to listings outside the American republics.

(2) In part I titles are listed in their letter-address form, word for word as written in that form, with the following exceptions:

If the title includes a full personal name, that is, a given name or initial and surname, the title is listed under the surname.

Personal-name prefixes such as de, la, von, etc., are considered as part of the surname and are the basis for listing.

The listing is made under the next word of the title when the initial word or phrase, or abbreviation thereof, is one of the following Spanish forms or similar equivalent forms in any other language:

Compañía; Cía.; Comp.
Compañía Anónima; C. A.; Comp. Anón.
Sociedad; Soc.
Sociedad Anónima; S. A.; Soc. Anón.

(3) Addresses appearing after names on the List are not intended to exclude other addresses of the same firms or individuals. A listed name refers to all branches of the business in the country.

(4) Revision IV of the Proclaimed List, of which this is a supplement, supersedes all previous lists published prior to November 12, 1942. The present series of supplements is cumulative, and each succeeding supplement supersedes all previous supplements to the List. Accordingly, the current Cumulative Supplement and Revision IV together constitute the effective List.

(5) For the convenience of users, symbols are placed after each name on the List to indicate, by reference to the table below, the dates of the supplements or revisions in which the name first appeared, or was amended or deleted. It has not been found practicable, however, to indicate here the dates of listings made between July 17, 1941, the date of the original list, and Revision I, dated February 7, 1942. Accordingly, names appearing prior to Revision I and retained in that revision are followed only by the symbol "I". Roman numerals refer to revisions, arabic numerals to supplements. For example, a name followed by the symbols II–1, III, IV–1 signifies that the listing first appeared in Revision II, Supplement 1; was amended in Revision III; and was amended or deleted in Revision IV, Supplement 1. Since in the Cumulative Supplements deletions as well as amendments are carried in each succeeding supplement, the last of two or more symbols may reflect either an amendment or a deletion, depending on the action heading under which the listing currently appears.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue

[T.D. 33]

PART 151—REGULATIONS UNDER THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE RELATING TO NARCOTICS

OPIUM, COCA LEAVES, AND DERIVATIVES, ETC.

Regulations No. 5—Importation, manufacture, production, compounding, sale, dealing in, dispensing and giving away of opium or coca leaves or any compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, or preparation thereof. Amendment to Joint Narcotic Regulations made by the Commissioner of Narcotics and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Section 151.54 of Part 151—The second paragraph of § 151.54 (Regulations Under Chapters 23 and 27 of the Internal Revenue Code) Article 54 of Bureau of Narcotics Regulation No. 5, dated June 1, 1938, is hereby amended to read as follows:

> When ampoules or other hermetically sealed units each containing only a single dose, are put up in packages holding not more than 100 such units, tax may be paid on the joint contents of the entire number of units by affixing a stamp or stamps to the outer package or container.

Section 151.95 of Part 151—(Regulations Under Chapters 23 and 27 of the Internal Revenue Code) Article 95 of Bureau of Narcotics Regulations No. 5, dated June 1, 1938, is hereby amended by adding thereto the following:

> Officers of the medical corps of the Army and Navy, in the course of official medical treatment of Army and Navy personnel and members of their families entitled to receive such treatment, are required to issue prescriptions for these patients which may call for narcotic drugs or preparations. Under circumstances where the drug or preparation required by the patient for medical use cannot be furnished from official stocks, it is necessary that it be obtained, pursuant to the official prescription, from a drug store duly qualified by registration under the Federal narcotic law to fill narcotic prescriptions.
> Such prescriptions, issued in the course of official professional practice only, and prepared on official blanks or stationery (such as printed forms of an army or navy hospital or dispensary) and otherwise meeting the requirements of Narcotics Regulations No. 5 (Part 151, Chapter I, this Title) relating to narcotic prescriptions, may be filled by a duly registered druggist although they do not bear a registry number of the issuing practitioner; provided they bear the signature, title, corps, and serial or jacket number of the issuing medical officer. Such prescriptions, when filled, shall be filed with, and retained for the same period as narcotic prescriptions issued by regularly registered practitioners and filled by the druggist.
> This procedure shall not apply in the case of prescriptions written by an army or navy medical officer in the treatment of a private patient, i. e., a patient not entitled to receive medical treatment from the physician in the latter's capacity as a service medical officer. In prescribing and dispensing narcotic drugs to such private persons, the officer is subject to all the requirements of the Federal narcotic law, including registration and payment of tax, as are imposed upon other physicians conducting private medical practice.

[SEAL] H. J. ANSLINGER,
Commissioner of Narcotics.

GUY T. HELVERING,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: December 21, 1942.

HERBERT E. GASTON,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

TITLE 29—LABOR

Chapter VI—National War Labor Board

PART 803—GENERAL ORDERS

BUILDING CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY

General Order No. 13[1] (Wage Stabilization in Building) of November 14, 1942, is hereby revoked. In its place the following order is adopted:

§ 803.13a General Order No. 13a. (a) Title III, section 3 of Executive Order No. 9250 of October 3, 1942, provides: "The National War Labor Board shall permit * * * the Wage Adjustment Board for the Building Construction Industry * * * to continue to perform its functions * * * except insofar as any of them is inconsistent with the terms of this order." Pursuant thereto, the Wage Adjustment Board shall continue to perform the duty ascribed to it by Administrative Order No. 101 of the Secretary of Labor as amended by Supplement No. 1 and by the Wage Stabilization Agreement of May 22, 1942, between the Building and Construction Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor and several Government Agencies, all in accordance with the further provisions of this order.

(b) Applications for approval of revision of rates subject to the Wage Stabilization Agreement of May 22, 1942, which revision would otherwise require the approval of the National War Labor Board, shall be submitted for approval to the Wage Adjustment Board for the Building Construction Industry.

(c) In applying the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of the said agreement of May 22, 1942, the Wage Adjustment Board, in ruling upon such applications for approval shall, as directed by Title III, sections 3, of Executive Order No. 9250, take no action inconsistent with the terms of said Executive Order, or with the National War Labor Board's Wage Stabilization Policy of November 6, 1942, or any other general order or policy of the National War Labor Board heretofore or hereafter announced thereunder.

(d) (1) Any unanimous ruling by the Wage Adjustment Board hereunder shall be deemed to be a final ruling of the National War Labor Board, subject to the provisions of paragraph 3 below.

(2) Any ruling with respect to which a member of the Wage Adjustment Board has cast a dissenting vote shall (subject to the provisions of paragraph 3 below) become a final ruling of the National War Labor Board, unless within seven (7) days after such ruling the member casting the dissenting vote refers the ruling to the National War Labor Board for review. Such a reference shall be accompanied by a full statement of the reasons for the dissent. The National War Labor Board shall thereupon determine whether the ruling should be stayed for the purpose of review or should be put into operation subject to review.

(3) All rulings by the Wage Adjustment Board hereunder shall be subject to the National War Labor Board's ultimate power of review on its own initiative. Any reversal or modification of such a ruling shall not be retroactive and shall allow the parties a period of two (2) weeks after the date of the National War Labor Board's order within which to comply with such order.

[1] 7 F.R. 9385, 9450.

(e) The Wage Adjustment Board shall transmit monthly to the Division of Review, Analysis and Research of the National War Labor Board, copies of its rulings made hereunder and such additional data and reports as said Division or the National War Labor Board may from time to time deem necessary.

(f) Each application submitted hereunder for a ruling to the Wage Adjustment Board shall state whether it is intended to make the proposed increase, if approved, the basis of an application to the Office of Price Administration for an adjustment of maximum prices or of a petition for an amendment of the regulations establishing those prices.

(1) If the application does not state that price relief will be sought the Wage Adjustment Board shall rule finally upon the application subject only to the War Labor Board's ultimate power of review above set forth.

(2) If the application states that price relief will be sought, there shall be submitted with the application a statement describing the relationship between the proposed increase and the price situation and what the effect would be if wages were increased without price relief. A copy thereof shall be sent with the application to the Office of Price Administration together with such additional forms as the Office of Price Administration may require to be filled out and which have been supplied for that purpose by said Office to the Wage Adjustment Board.

(i) Copies of rulings in such cases, approving or disapproving the application shall be transmitted by the Wage Adjustment Board to the Office of Price Administration as well as to the applicants.

(ii) If the application in such case is approved, the ruling of the Wage Adjustment Board shall state that it will become effective only on final approval by the National War Labor Board, and when so required by Executive Order No. 9250, by the Economic Stabilization Director.

(g) In the case of contracts executed after October 30th, 1942, if the application states that a price adjustment (of either a lump sum or cost plus contract) will be sought, a copy of such application, shall be transmitted by the Wage Adjustment Board to the government agency at whose instance the project is being constructed, if such government agency has been excluded from the coverage of the Office of Price Administration's MPR No. 251.

Adopted December 14, 1942.

(E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

PART 803—GENERAL ORDERS

ALASKA; DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

§ 803.23 General Order No. 23. (a) The National War Labor Board hereby delegates to the Territorial Representative of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions of the United States Department of Labor power to rule upon all questions and disputes concerning, and all applications for approval of, wage and salary adjustments (insofar as salary adjustments are within the jurisdiction of the National War Labor Board) within the Territory of Alaska, except as otherwise provided in General Orders of the National War Labor Board.

(b) In the performance of his duties, the Territorial Representative shall comply with the terms of Executive Order No. 9250, dated October 3, 1942, the National War Labor Board's wage stabilization policy, and all applicable General Orders and regulations of the National War Labor Board.

(c) An appeal may be taken from any ruling of the Territorial Representative to the National War Labor Board Advisory Board for Alaska, hereinafter called the Alaska Advisory Board. The Alaska Advisory Board shall consist of nine (9) members, to be appointed by the National War Labor Board. Three of its members shall be representatives of the public, three of employers, and three of employees. Six members, two of whom shall be from each group, shall constitute a quorum.

(d) It shall be the duty of the Territorial Representative to transmit copies of all rulings to the Alaska Advisory Board which shall have the power to review on its own initiative all rulings of the Territorial Representative.

(e) Any ruling of the Alaska Advisory Board shall be final, subject to the National War Labor Board's ultimate power to review rulings on its own initiative or on the request of any member of the Alaska Advisory Board. No action of the National War Labor Board with respect to rulings of the Alaska Advisory Board will be retroactive.

Adopted December 18, 1942.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A–1727]

PART 321—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 1

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 1 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1 and for a change in shipping points for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1; for a change in the shipping points for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1, and for additional shipping points for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act:

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 321.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–I and R–II, and § 321.24 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof; commencing forthwith, the shipping point and railroad appearing in the aforesaid Supplement R–II for the coal produced at the mine designated Mine Index No. 3509 shall be as therein shown instead of the shipping point and railroad heretofore applicable for this mine; commencing forthwith, the shipping points appearing in the aforesaid Supplement R–II for the coal produced at the mines designated as Mine Index Nos. 134, 223, 36, and 2114 shall be as therein shown instead of the shipping points heretofore applicable for these mines; and commencing forthwith, the shipping points appearing in the aforesaid Supplement R–I for the coals produced at the mines designated as Mine Index Nos. 3420, 3452, 878 and 3825, shall be effective as additional shipping points for these mines.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: December 7, 1942.

[SEAL] DAN H. WHEELER,
Director.

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

PART 1052—KITCHEN, HOUSEHOLD AND OTHER MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES

[Supplementary Limitation Order L-30-d as Amended Dec. 17, 1942[1]]

MISCELLANEOUS COOKING UTENSILS AND OTHER ARTICLES

§ 1052.5 Supplementary Limitation Order L-30-d—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Preferred order" means a purchase order, contract or subcontract for delivery to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration.

(2) "Miscellaneous cooking utensil" means any utensil containing more than 7½%, by weight, of metal, which is designed primarily for use in the preparation or cooking of food, whether for household, institutional, commercial, governmental or any other purpose, including but not limited to, glass and ceramic flameware, but excluding any utensil the production of which is governed by Supplementary Limitation Orders L-30-b or L-30-c, or expressly exempted from the provisions of those orders when produced pursuant to preferred orders.

(3) "Kitchen tools" means articles containing more than 5%, by weight, of metal, commonly known as kitchen tools, including, but not limited to, can openers, jar openers, bottle openers, strainers, flour sifters, food whips, food mills, dippers, scoops, choppers, slicers, corers, mashers, shapers, beaters, graters, grinders, cutters, sieves, cake turners, basting spoons, cork screws and skewers, but excluding cutlery (which is governed by Limitation Order L-140), electrical appliances (which are governed by Limitation Order L-65), gas appliances and power-driven equipment.

(4) "Household storage articles" means articles containing more than 5%, by weight, of metal, designed for the storage of food or household supplies, including but not limited to, canisters, spice sets, cake covers or safes, holders for salt, soap or cleanser cartons, step-on cans, lunch boxes, vacuum jugs and bottles, and window boxes for the storage of food, but excluding

(i) Pails, buckets and tubs;

(ii) Containers designed for the packing, shipment or delivery of materials or products of any kind, including but not limited to, cans as defined in Conservation Orders M-81 or M-136, glass containers or closures as defined in Limitation Order L-103, and drums as defined in Limitation Order L-197; and

(iii) Articles the production of which is governed by Supplementary Limitation Orders L-30-a, L-30-b or L-30-c, or expressly exempted from the provisions of those orders when produced pursuant to preferred orders.

(5) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of producing or assembling any miscellaneous cooking utensils, kitchen tools, household storage articles or any other products covered by this order, or any parts (including repair parts) for such utensils, kitchen tools, storage articles or products.

(6) "Put into process" means the first change by a manufacturer in the form of material from that form in which it is received by him.

(7) "Base period" means the twelve months ending June 30, 1941.

(8) "Black steel" means uncoated, polished or lacquered carbon steel. It does not include any steel which has a metal or vitreous-enameled coating.

(9) "Joining hardware" means nuts, screws, nails, bolts, clasps, rivets and other similar items of small hardware used for joining or other similar purposes.

(10) "Repair part" means any part for an article or product which is not produced for or used in a new article or product.

(b) Prohibition on production of miscellaneous articles. (1) No manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any iron, steel or other metal for use in the following kitchen, household and other miscellaneous articles (whether manufactured for household or for any other purpose): all closet accessories, including but not limited to, coat and garment hangers and hooks, tie racks, and boot and shoe-trees; all articles of fireplace equipment; towel bars and racks, tooth brush holders, soap dishes, soap savers, toilet and other paper holders, pot chains, fly swatters, sink drainers, dish drainers, cuspidors, spittoons, vegetable bins, curtain rods and fixtures, drapery attachments, clothes pins, candlesticks, carpet beaters, carpet sweepers, pot cover holders, picnic stoves, camp grids, cup frames and cake coolers, except for the minimum amount of iron and steel (not to exceed 5% of the weight of the article) contained in necessary joining hardware.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (g), on and after November 23, 1942, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any iron, steel or other metal for use in the production of any of the following articles or parts (including repair parts) for such articles:

(i) Dish pans (except black steel dish pans produced pursuant to preferred orders), rinsing pans, pot scourers and other sink accessories (not included in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (b)), funnels, dust pans, silent butlers, crumb sets, wash boards and clothes wringers, except for the minimum amount of iron and steel (not exceeding 5% of the weight of the article) contained in necessary joining hardware, and except for any such articles the production of which is governed by Supplementary Limitation Orders L-30-a or L-30-b, or expressly exempted from the provisions of those orders when produced pursuant to preferred orders; or

(ii) Concrete garbage receptacles containing more than 5%, by weight, of metal, exclusive of the weight of separate bases or blocks.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1), a manufacturer may produce during the period from December 21, 1942, to January 6, 1943, inclusive, fire place grates from scrap iron and steel provided that no such grate exceeds 30 pounds in weight.

(c) Restrictions on miscellaneous cooking utensils. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (g), on and after November 23, 1942, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any iron, steel or other metal for use in the production of any miscellaneous cooking utensils containing 20% or more of metal, by weight, or parts for such utensils, except

(i) Black steel frying pans having a bottom diameter of from 8 to 12 inches, inclusive;

(ii) Black steel heavy-duty roast pans without covers, having a capacity of from 675 cubic inches to 2600 cubic inches, inclusive, and having two or three reinforcing straps and wired edges; and

(iii) Black steel or tinned utensils, including liquid and dry measures, (other than black steel frying pans or heavy-duty roast pans), or stamped bakery equipment, when such utensils or equipment are produced pursuant to preferred orders.

(2) No manufacturer shall put into process more iron and steel, by weight, in the production of

(i) Black steel frying pans

(a) During the period from November 10, 1942 to December 31, 1942, inclusive, than two times 50% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of black steel frying pans; or

(b) During the period of three months beginning January 1, 1943, and during each succeeding period of three months, than three times 50% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of black steel frying pans;

(ii) Black steel heavy-duty roast pans

(a) During the period from November 10, 1942 to December 31, 1942, inclusive, than two times 35% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of black steel heavy-duty roast pans; or

(b) During the period of three months beginning January 1, 1943, and during each succeeding period of three months, than three times 35% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of black steel heavy-duty roast pans; or

(iii) Miscellaneous cooking utensils containing more than 7½%, but less than 20%, of metal, by weight, and parts for such utensils (other than repair parts)

(a) During the period from November 10, 1942 to December 31, 1942, inclusive, than two times 100% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of such cooking utensils and parts (including repair parts); or

(b) During the period of three months beginning January 1, 1943, and during each succeeding period of three months, than three times 100% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of such cooking utensils and parts (including repair parts); or

(iv) Repair parts for miscellaneous cooking utensils containing more than 7½%, but less than 20%, of metal, by weight.

(a) During the period from November 10, 1942 to December 31, 1942, inclusive, than two times 5% of the monthly average amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of such cooking utensils and parts for such utensils (including repair parts); or

(b) During the period of three months beginning January 1, 1943, and during each succeeding period of three months, than three times 5% of the monthly average amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of such cooking utensils and parts for such utensils (including repair parts).

(d) Restrictions on kitchen tools. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (g), on and after November 23, 1942, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any iron, steel or other metal for use in the production of any kitchen tools, except

(i) The following kitchen tools:

Basting spoons, 14 to 21 inches, inclusive, in overall length.
Cake turners, 13 to 21 inches, inclusive, in overall length.
Can openers.
Egg beaters, rotary type, 10 inches or longer, including handle.
Food choppers and grinders.
Food mills.
Wire strainers.
Wire whips, commercial type, 12 inches or longer.

(ii) The following kitchen tools in fulfillment of preferred orders only:

Butter cutters.
Dippers.
French fry cutters.
Nutmeg graters.
Skimmers.
Sugar and flour scoops.
Vegetable graters.

(iii) Any other kitchen tool in fulfillment of preferred orders for use on board ship only.

(2) Except in fulfillment of preferred orders for use on board ship, no manufacturer shall put into process more iron and steel, by weight, in the production of

(i) Any kitchen tool listed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (d), and parts for such tool (other than repair parts)

(a) During the period from November 10, 1942 to December 31, 1942, inclusive, than two times 35% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of such kitchen tool and parts for such tool (including repair parts); or

(b) During the period of three months beginning January 1, 1943 and during each succeeding period of three months, than three times 35% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of such kitchen tool and parts for such tool (including repair parts); or

(ii) Repair parts for any kitchen tool

(a) During the period from November 10, 1942 to December 31, 1942, inclusive, than two times 5% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of such kitchen tool and parts for such tool (including repair parts); or

(b) During the period of three months beginning January 1, 1943, and during each succeeding period of three months, than three times 5% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of such kitchen tool or parts for such tool (including repair parts).

(e) Restrictions on household storage articles. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (g), on and after November 23, 1942, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any iron, steel or other metal for use in the production of any household storage articles, except vacuum bottles with a capacity of one quart or less and, pursuant to preferred orders, vacuum bottles and jugs with a capacity of more than one quart.

(2) No manufacturer shall put into process more iron and steel, by weight, in the production of vacuum bottles with a capacity of one quart or less

(i) During the period from November 10, 1942 to December 31, 1942, inclusive, than two times 50% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of such vacuum bottles; or

(ii) During the period of three months beginning January 1, 1943, and during each succeeding period of three months, than three times 50% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of such vacuum bottles.

(f) Restrictions on pails, buckets and tubs. Except as provided in paragraph (g), on and after November 23, 1942, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any iron or steel for use in the production of any pails, buckets or tubs, except

(1) Pails or tubs designed expressly for use as packing or shipping containers;

(2) Pails or tubs which contain iron or steel only in hoops, bails, ears, handles and joining hardware, provided that the total weight of such iron and steel does not exceed 15% of the total weight of the pail or tub, and further provided that any such pail, or any such tub with a capacity of less than 15 gallons, does not have more than two hoops containing iron or steel;

(3) Dairy pails;

(4) Pails, buckets or tubs when made of black steel and produced pursuant to preferred orders; and

(5) Pails, buckets or tubs the production of which is governed by Supplementary Limitation Orders L-30-a or L-30-b, or expressly exempted from the provisions of those orders when produced pursuant to preferred orders.

(g) Exceptions. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (b) (2), (c) (1), (d) (1), (e) (1) and (f), a manufacturer may complete the fabrication and assembly of any article included in such paragraphs from iron or steel which, on November 17, 1942, had been cut, blanked or otherwise formed to size for such article by him or by any other person, provided that such article is completed on or before December 31, 1942, except for the application of a coating or finish or the attaching of handles, bails or ears, which may be done thereafter.

(h) Applicability of other orders. The provisions of this order shall supersede the provisions of Limitation Order L-30 in respect to all articles the production of which is governed by this order. In so far as any other order restricts the use of any material in the production of any articles to a greater extent than the limits imposed by this order, the restrictions of such other order shall govern unless otherwise specified therein.

[1] This document is a restatement of Amendment 1 of Supplementary Limitation Order L-30-d which appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER of December 19, 1942, page 10617, and reflects the order in its completed form as of December 17, 1942.

(i) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(j) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order should be made on Form PD–500, directed to the War Production Board, Consumers' Durable Good Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–30–d.

(k) Avoidance of excessive inventories. No manufacturer shall accumulate for use in the manufacture of articles the production of which is governed by this order, inventories of raw materials, semiprocessed materials, or finished parts in quantities in excess of the minimum amount necessary to maintain production permitted by this order.

(l) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve, for not less than two years, accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(m) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(n) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time require.

(o) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(p) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers' Durable Goods Division, Washington, D. C. Ref: L–30–d.

PART 937—ZINC

[General Preference Order M–11–a as Amended Dec. 22, 1942]

Section 937.2 Supplementary Order M–11–a is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 937.2 General Preference Order M–11–a—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Zinc oxide" means all grades of zinc oxide, including lead free and leaded, produced from ores, concentrates, metallic zinc, or other primary material and from scrap, dross, ashes, skimmings or other secondary material.

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(3) "Producer" means any person producing zinc oxide and any person who has zinc oxide produced for him under toll agreement.

(c) Restrictions—(1) Allocated production. Each producer of zinc oxide shall set aside from his production each month quantities of zinc oxide, to be determined from time to time by the Director General for Operations, to be delivered only upon express direction of the Director General for Operations.

(2) Other production. Each producer of zinc oxide shall ship all his production not set aside pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) so that each customer will receive an equal percentage of the producer's commitments to him.

(d) Exception. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c), a producer may satisfy his commitments to any one customer in full up to but not exceeding 2,000 pounds of zinc oxide during any one month.

(e) Applications for allocations. Any person who in any month cannot otherwise obtain zinc oxide in quantities required to fill his preference rated orders may apply for an allocation of zinc oxide for that month by filing with the War Production Board, Ref: M–11–a not later than the 15th of the month preceding the month in which the allocation is desired, an application on Form PD–62.

(f) Interdepartmental shipments. The restrictions, limitations and prohibitions in paragraph (c) of this order shall apply to any shipments of zinc oxide from any producing branch, division or department of any business enterprise to another branch, division or department in the same or any other business enterprise owned or controlled by the same person.

(g) Limitation of inventories. No producer shall ship zinc oxide to any person unless he has received from that person a written statement that such shipment will not result in an inventory of zinc oxide in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory.

(h) Addressing of communications. All applications, statements or other communications filed pursuant to this order or concerning the subject matter hereof, should be addressed to: War Production Board, Zinc Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M–11–a.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Effective date. This amended order shall take effect January 1, 1943.

Issued this 22d day of December 1942.

PART 937—ZINC

[General Preference Order M–11–l]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of zinc dust for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 937.13 General Preference Order M–11–l—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Zinc dust" means all grades of zinc dust, produced from ores, concentrates, metallic zinc or other primary material and from scrap, dross or other primary material and from scrap, dross or other secondary material.

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(3) "Producer" means any person producing zinc dust and any person who has zinc dust produced for him under a toll agreement.

(4) "Toll agreement" means any agreement by which title to material remains vested in a person other than the one processing the material.

(c) Restrictions—(1) Deliveries by producers. No producer shall ship or deliver zinc dust to any person except on presentation by that person of an allocation certificate issued by the Director General for Operations. Upon accepting an allocation certificate, the producer shall endorse thereon the amounts of zinc dust which he agrees to ship under such certificate in the calendar month covered by the certificate. No producer shall endorse an allocation certificate for zinc dust or make any shipment thereunder if, by so doing, the total endorsements, or shipments, under the certificate will exceed the amounts authorized by such certificate.

(2) Acceptance of deliveries. No person shall accept any delivery of zinc dust from a producer otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this order.

(3) Toll agreements. Unless specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, no person shall produce any zinc dust under any existing or future toll agreement.

(d) Allocation certificates. The Director General for Operations will issue allocation certificates for zinc dust on or about the first of each month. An allocation certificate will authorize shipment of specified amounts of zinc dust during the calendar month for which it is issued by a producer to the holder of the certificate. This certificate must be presented to the producer for endorsement as provided in paragraph (c) (1) of this order.. A producer need not accept a new order although supported by an allocation certificate if his entire production for the month is committed under contract and he has reason to believe that other allocation certificates will be presented during the month by the person or persons to whom his production is committed in amounts at least equal to his production.

(e) Applications for allocation certificates. Any person wishing to apply for an allocation of zinc dust from a producer for any month beginning with January, 1943, shall file an application with the War Production Board, Zinc Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M–11–l, not later than the fifteenth of the month preceding the month in which the allocation of zinc dust is desired: Provided, however, That if application is for an allocation of zinc dust for January, 1943, it may be filed not later than December 30, 1942. Persons shall make application on Form PD–755.

(f) Exceptions. Exceptions from the provisions of paragraphs (c) and (d) shall be as follows:

(1) Small order exceptions. Any producer may ship and deliver zinc dust to any other person without an allocation certificate for zinc dust: Provided, That such other person shall certify to the producer in writing at the time of delivery;

(i) That the total amount of zinc dust delivered to such other person from all sources (inclusive of the amount then being delivered) has not exceeded 75 pounds in the month in which delivery is being made,

(ii) That no allocation certificate for zinc dust for that month has been issued to such other person by the Director General for Operations, and

(iii) The end use to which the zinc dust is to be put.

No person shall accept from a producer delivery of more than 75 pounds of zinc dust in any month without an allocation certificate, or of any zinc dust not endorsed on the allocation certificate if he has one.

(2) Deliveries to the Metals Reserve Company. Any producer may ship and deliver zinc dust without an allocation certificate to the Metals Reserve Company or to any other corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended (15 U.S.C. section 606 (b)) or to any duly authorized agent of any such corporation.

(3) Special directions. The Director General for Operations may, from time to time, issue special directions to any person as to the source, destination or amounts of zinc dust to be shipped and delivered by any producer or received by any person, and the Director may also specifically direct the manner and quantities in which such zinc dust may be processed.

(4) Zinc dust for export. Zinc dust may be shipped or delivered for export by any producer without an allocation certificate if shipment or delivery is to be made pursuant to an export license duly issued by the Office of Export Control of the Board of Economic Warfare.

(g) Interdepartmental shipments. The restrictions, limitations and prohibitions in paragraph (c) of this order shall apply not only to all shipments from one person to another person but also to all shipments and deliveries of zinc dust from any producing branch, division or department of any business enterprise to another branch, division or department in the same or any other business enterprise owned or controlled by the same person.

(h) Each producer of zinc dust shall file monthly, on Form PD–758, a report of his production, shipments and inventory of zinc dust. All producers and users of zinc dust shall file such other reports with the War Production Board at such times and in such manner and form as it may prescribe, showing such information as the War Production Board may from time to time require.

(i) Addressing of communications. All applications, statements or other communications filed pursuant to this order or concerning the subject matter hereof, should be addressed to: War Production Board, Zinc Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M–11–l.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(k) Effective date. The provisions of this order other than those of paragraph (e) shall not be effective until January 1, 1943. Paragraph (e) shall be effective at once.

(l) Expiration date. This order shall expire on March 31, 1943.

Issued this 22d day of December, 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Amendment 2 to Suspension Order S–121]

COFFEE CORPORATION OF AMERICA

Paragraph (a) of § 1010.121, Suspension Order S–121, issued October 22, 1942 [7 F.R. 8584], and amended November 23, 1942 [7 F.R. 9773] is hereby amended to read as follows:

(a) During each of the calendar months of January 1943, February 1943, and March 1943, deliveries of coffee by Coffee Corporation of America, its successors and assigns, shall not exceed 151,833 pounds, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

Issued this 21st day of December 1942.

PART 1075—CONSTRUCTION

[Supplementary Conservation Order L–41–c]

In accordance with the provisions of of § 1075.1 Conservation Order L–41 which the following order supplements:

§ 1075.4 Supplementary Conservation Order L–41–c—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this supplementary order:

(1) "Logger" shall mean any person actually engaged in the production of logs of any species within the limits of the United States, its territories or possessions.

(2) "Operational construction" shall mean construction directly related to changing the site of logging operations or tapping new stumpage, such as but not limited to moving or combining camps, moving or extending railroad track, building main truck, branch and stub roads and the like.

(b) Excluded construction. Conservation Order L–41 as amended shall not apply to the use by any logger of lumber, round or squared, timbers, nails, gravel or clay products in operational construction, and the cost of such materials and the cost of labor and the rental or depreciation value of equipment involved in their use shall not be included in the cost of construction as defined in General Conservation Order L–41.

Issued this 22d day of December 1942.

PART 1276—PLYWOOD

[Limitation Order L–150–b]

HUTMENT GRADE PLYWOOD

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply for war, for private account and for export, of Douglas fir plywood; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the war effort:

§ 1276.11 Limitation Order L–150–b—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Hutment grade plywood" shall mean a built-up board, suitable for temporary military housing, of laminated veneers of Douglas fir, united with a bonding agent, meeting the following specifications:

(i) The bonding agent shall be a moisture-resistant adhesive, but shall not contain any phenolic resin.

(ii) Bonding shall be by either cold or hot press except where synthetic resin is used in which case it shall be by hot press.

(iii) Panels must be capable of passing the test for moisture-resistant type plywood, as set forth in Commercial Standard CS 45–42, effective November 16, 1942, issued by the National Bureau of Standards, except that samples shall be subjected to ten (10) cycles consisting of seven (7) hours of soaking and seventeen (17) hours of drying.

(iv) The veneers used shall be equivalent to Sound one side grade of exterior type, as specified in Commercial Standard CS 45–42, effective November 16, 1942, issued by the National Bureau of Standards.

(v) Each panel shall have all surfaces and edges thoroughly treated with a resin sealer.

(vi) If rough or unsanded, paper tape used for jointing veneer may appear on faces. No tape shall be used in the glue line.

(vii) Workmanship and tolerances not otherwise provided for shall conform to industry practices as set forth in Commercial Standard CS 45–42, effective November 16, 1942, issued by the National Bureau of Standards.

(2) "Procuring Agency" means the Procuring Agency of the Construction Division of the Corps of Engineers of the United States Army.

(b) General restrictions. (1) No person shall manufacture, sell, ship or deliver hutment grade plywood unless it is of one of the following sizes:

Width in inches	Length in inches	Thickness in inches after sanding
48	96, 108, 120, 132 or 144	¼, ⅜, ½, ⅝ or ¾

(2) No person shall sell, ship or deliver, or cause to be sold, shipped or delivered, any hutment grade plywood, except that:

(i) Any person may sell, ship or deliver any hutment grade plywood to or for the account of the Procuring Agency or to or for the account of any contractor or other person designated by such agency.

(ii) Any person may sell, ship or deliver any hutment grade plywood upon the specific authorization of the Director General for Operations on Form PD–423, or upon the direction of the Director General for Operations pursuant to paragraph (c) of this order.

(c) Allocations. The Director General for Operations may, from time to time, allocate specific quantities of hutment grade plywood to specific persons. He may also direct the specific manner and quantities in which delivery shall be made to particular persons, and direct or prohibit particular uses of hutment grade plywood, or the production by any person of particular items of hutment grade plywood. Such allocations and directions will be made to insure the satisfaction of war requirements of the United States, both direct and indirect, and they may be made, in the discretion of the Director General for Operations, without regard to any preference ratings assigned to particular purchase orders or contracts. The Director General for Operations may also take into consideration the possible dislocation of labor and the necessity of keeping a plant in operation so that it may be able to fulfill war and essential civilian requirements.

(d) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(e) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(f) Communications. All communications concerning this order should be addressed to: War Production Board, Lumber and Lumber Products Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L–150–b.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

PART 1305—ADMINISTRATION

[Supplementary Order 34]

PACKING EXPENSES ON SALES TO PROCUREMENT AGENCIES

A statement to accompany this Supplementary Order No. 34 has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

For the reasons set forth in that statement and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1305.40 Special packing expenses permitted to be added to maximum prices on sales to procurement agencies. (a) On sales or deliveries of any commodity to a procurement agency of the United States there may be added to the maximum domestic price for such commodity

(1) If the packing specified by the buyer differs from standard packing, the difference between the cost of the direct labor and materials used or to be used in packing to the specifications of the buyer and the cost of the direct labor and materials used in standard packing, or

(2) If the commodity has already been packed in standard packing and repacking to the specifications of the buyer is required, the cost of the direct labor and materials used or to be used in the unpacking and repacking, or

(3) If the commodity has initially been packed to the specifications of the buyer in accordance with subparagraph (1), and repacking to new specifications of the buyer is required, the amount permitted by subparagraph (1) plus the cost of the direct labor and materials used or to be used in the unpacking and repacking.

(b) The authority granted by paragraph (a) is subject to the following conditions:

(1) The buyer must require that the commodity be packed to its specifications or must specifically request that the seller unpack and repack the commodity to the buyer's specifications.

(2) The seller must show separately in his contract of sale or on the invoice furnished to the buyer the charge being made for the packing and/or unpacking and repacking specified by the buyer.

(3) In addition to the records required by any price regulation, the seller must prepare and keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, is in effect, true and accurate records showing the cost of the direct labor and materials used in standard packing and the cost of the direct labor and materials used in the packing and/or unpacking and repacking specified by the buyer.

(c) This Supplementary Order No. 34 shall not apply to any price regulation issued after the effective date of this Supplementary Order No. 34 which specifically provides that this Supplementary Order No. 34 shall not apply.

(d) As used in this Supplementary Order No. 34:

(1) "Price regulation" means a price schedule effective in accordance with the provisions of section 206 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, a maximum price regulation, a temporary maximum price regulation, or any amendment or supplement thereto or order thereunder.

(2) "Packing" shall include the providing of wrappings, inner and/or outer containers and the placing of the commodity in such wrappings or containers.

(3) "Standard packing" means any domestic packing contemplated by the applicable price regulation when the sale is a domestic sale and any packing for export contemplated by the applicable price regulation when the sale is a sale for export.

(e) This Supplementary Order No. 34 (§1305.40) shall become effective December 21, 1942.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 11,[2] Amendment 16]

FUEL OIL RATIONING REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In paragraph (a) of § 1394.5151, subparagraphs (7) and (8) are amended; a new paragraph (d) is added to § 1394.5305; § 1394.5308 is amended; § 1394.5603 is renumbered § 1394.5603 (a) and amended, and a new paragraph (b) is added thereto; a new § 1394.5665 is added; and a new paragraph (p) is added to § 1394.5902; as set forth below:

Restrictions on Issuance of Rations

§ 1394.5151 Restrictions on issuance of rations. (a) * * *

(7) For the operation of a private passenger automobile, as defined in General Order No. 21 of the Office of Defense Transportation;

(8) For the operation of coal spraying equipment, except that a ration for such purpose may be issued when required to expedite the unloading of railroad cars during the months of December, January, February and March. Such ration shall be used only in accordance with the following provisions:

(i) The coal to be sprayed shall have been screened through not larger than a one and one-quarter (1¼) inch round hole or equivalent screen;

(ii) The quantity of fuel oil used in spraying such coal shall not be in excess of one quart to each ton of coal sprayed;

(iii) Such coal shall be sprayed at the mine only; and

(iv) Such coal shall be destined for and shipped only to points outside of the states of South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and California.

* * * * *

Auxiliary Rations

§ 1394.5305 Same: Issuance of auxiliary heat ration. * * *

(d) The board shall inscribe the word "Auxiliary" immediately below the serial number on each coupon sheet issued.

§ 1394.5308 Same: Issuance of auxiliary hot water ration. After determining the allowable auxiliary ration for hot water, the board shall issue class 3 coupon sheets containing coupons equal in gallonage value to the allowable ration. The board shall inscribe the word "Auxiliary" immediately below the serial number on each coupon sheet so issued.

Restrictions on Use of Rations and Fuel Oil

§ 1394.5603 Restrictions on consumption of fuel oil. (a) On or after December 10, 1942, except as provided in §§ 1394.5602, 1394.5658, 1394.5665, paragraph (b) of § 1394.5505, and paragraph (b) of this section, no person shall consume fuel oil unless such fuel oil was acquired by him or on his behalf in exchange for valid coupons or other evidences, or delivery receipts: Provided, That fuel oil included in a consumer's inventory pursuant to § 1394.5451, with respect to which a deduction has been made, or with respect to which coupons or other evidences, or delivery receipts, have been surrendered to a board pursuant to subparagraph (2) of paragraph (b) of § 1394.5659, shall be deemed to have been acquired in exchange therefor. If, at the time he makes application therefor, the consumer's inventory of fuel oil for the use for which a ration is required is greater than the ration issued to him pursuant to such application, he may not consume fuel oil in excess of such ration during the period for which such ration is issued.

(b) Nothing in paragraph (a) of this section shall be deemed to forbid the consumption of fuel oil brought into the limitation area in the fuel supply tank of a boat, locomotive, tractor or other self-propelled vehicle and used for, or in connection with, the operation thereof.

Restrictions on Transfers to and by Consumers

§ 1394.5665 Exchange of fuel oil. Nothing in Ration Order No. 11 shall be deemed to forbid a consumer from transferring fuel oil to a dealer or supplier in exchange for an equal quantity of fuel oil of the same grade, and from consuming the fuel oil so acquired: Provided, That the transfers by and to such consumer are made within twenty-four (24) hours of each other.

PART 1421—IRON AND STEEL FOUNDRY PRODUCTS

[MPR 244, Amendment 2]

GRAY IRON CASTINGS

A statement of the consideration involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

New paragraphs (d) and (e) are added to § 1421.151, a new paragraph (e) is added to § 1421.166, a new paragraph (b) is added to § 1421.165a, paragraph (b) of § 1421.160 is amended, and paragraph (b) of § 1421.161 is amended, all as set forth below:

§ 1421.151 Maximum prices for gray iron castings. * * *

(d) Nothing in this Maximum Price Regulation 244 or in the General Maximum Price Regulation shall be applicable to any seller of gray iron castings, in his capacity as such seller, whose net sales of such castings totalled the sum of $40,000 or less for the calendar year of 1942: Provided, That each such seller (1) shall comply with the provisions of § 1421.160 (a) of this Maximum Price Regulation 244, (2) shall file with the appropriate regional office of the Office of Price Administration on or before January 15, 1942, a signed statement in duplicate of his total net sales of gray iron castings for the calendar year of 1942, and (3) shall file with such regional office on or before the 15th day of the month following each quarter-year beginning with the first calendar quarter of 1943, a signed statement in duplicate of his total net sales of gray iron castings for the previous quarter, and if such sales in any quarter exceed the sum of $12,500, such seller shall be subject to all the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 244 from the 15th day of the month following such quarter until so long a time as Maximum Price Regulation 244 remains in effect, except as provided in the following paragraph (e). The term "net sales" as used in this paragraph (d) and the following paragraph (e) means total sales of gray iron castings, less returns and allowances, billed or invoiced to purchasers.

(e) Any seller of gray iron castings whose net sales thereof totalled the sum of $40,000 or less in any calendar year subsequent to the calendar year of 1942, may petition within 30 days following the close of such calendar year to the Regional Administrator of the appropriate Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration for, and the Regional Administrator may grant, an order excluding such seller, in his capacity as such seller, from the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 244 and the General Maximum Price Regulation. Until such petition is granted, the seller shall be subject to all the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 244. Such petition shall state the seller's total net sales of gray iron castings for the preceding calendar year and an estimate of his total net sales of such castings for the year in which an order of exclusion is sought. If an order of exclusion is granted to the seller, he shall be required to submit on or before the 15th day of the month following each quarter-year beginning with the quarter in which the order of exclusion falls, a signed statement in duplicate of his net sales of gray iron castings for the previous quarter, and if such sales in any quarter exceed the sum of $12,500, such seller shall be subject to all the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 244 from the 15th day of the month following such quarter until so long a time as Maximum Price Regulation 244 remains in effect, except that he may again petition for an order of exclusion as provided in this paragraph (e) if his total net sales of gray iron castings do not exceed the sum of $40,000 in a calendar year.

§ 1421.160 Records and reports. * * *

(b) Each person making a sale of gray iron castings on or after October 26, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long a period as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each such sale, showing (1) the date thereof, (2) the name and address of the buyer and seller, (3) the list price or prices, if any, on the date of sale, (4) net price or prices after adjustment for discounts or other allowances, and (5) where the sale is made pursuant to a contract or agreement entered into on or after October 26, 1942, and the total selling price exceeds fifty dollars, records substantiating the maximum prices if the castings are priced under paragraph (a) or (e) of Appendix A (§ 1421.166) or summary of the calculations made in computing the maximum prices if the castings are priced under paragraph (b) of Appendix A. The date specified in (1), (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph (b) shall be kept for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for the same period by each person making a purchase of gray iron castings in the course of trade or business.

§ 1421.161 Filing of prices and pricing methods. * * *

(b) Each person selling gray iron castings shall file with the appropriate Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration on or before January 15, 1943, three copies of Form 344:2 to be supplied by or obtained at any Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, showing in the detail required by such form information as to wage rates, overhead rates, cost of materials, profit margins and pricing methods in effect for such seller at each of his foundries on February 1, 1942. If any seller who is excluded from the requirement of filing Form 344:2 by reason of the provisions of § 1421.151 (d) later is required to file said form, he shall file said form in accordance with this paragraph (b) within thirty days after he becomes subject to this Maximum Price Regulation as provided in § 1421.151 (d).

§1421.166 Appendix A: Maximum prices for gray iron castings. * * *

(e) Maximum prices in lieu of those set forth in paragraph (b) for castings which are not substantially the same as those which the seller sold or offered for sale at any time during the period from August 1, 1941 to February 1, 1942. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) of this § 1421.166, where the seller contracted to sell[1] a casting at any time before August 1, 1941 which is the same or substantially the same as the casting for which a maximum price is sought, and if such casting cannot be priced under paragraph (a) of this § 1421.166, he may, if he so chooses, in lieu of determining the maximum price of such casting under paragraph (b) of this section, use as his maximum price for such casting the price at which he last contracted to sell the same or substantially the same casting before August 1, 1941, after adjusting such price in accordance with the applicable customary charges, discounts, quantity differentials and allowances in effect for him between August 1, 1941 and February 1, 1942 in sales to a purchaser of the same class.

§ 1421.165a * * *

(b) Amendment No. 2 (§§ 1421.151 (d), (e), 1421.160 (b), 1421.161 (b), 1421.166

PART 1426—WOOD PRESERVATION AND PRIMARY FOREST PRODUCTS

[Revised MPR 216 [1]]

EASTERN RAILROAD TIES

The title and preamble to Maximum Price Regulation 216 are amended and §§ 1426.1 to 1426.14, inclusive, are renumbered and amended to read as set forth herein.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales of railroad cross ties and switch ties, herein designated as Eastern railroad ties, produced within a defined area of the United States, which differ, in certain respects, from those established by Maximum Price Regulation 216, Railroad Ties. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of Eastern railroad ties prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for each relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been prepared, issued simultaneously herewith, and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Revised Maximum Price Regulation 216 is hereby issued.

Sec.
1426.1 Sales of Eastern railroad ties at higher than maximum prices prohibited.

1426.14 Appendix A: Maximum prices for Eastern railroad cross ties and switch ties.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1426.1 to 1426.14, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1426.1 Sales of Eastern railroad ties at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after December 26, 1942, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business, any Eastern railroad ties at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation 216, and no person shall agree, offer, or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices may be charged and paid.

§ 1426.2 Products, persons, and transactions covered by this regulation—(a) Products covered by this regulation. (1) The term "Eastern railroad ties" is used to describe all species of railroad cross ties and railroad switch ties produced at any point east of the Mississippi River and in the following area west of the Mississippi River: all points in the States of Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, and Louisiana; all points in Oklahoma except Cimarron, Texas, and Beaver Counties; and those in that part of Texas east of the western boundaries of Hardeman, Foard, Knox, Haskell, Jones, Taylor, Runnels, Concho, Menard, Kimble, Kerr, Real, Uvalde, Zavala, Dimmit, and Webb Counties. Appendix A, § 1426.14 sets forth the maximum prices applicable within each of the several zones within this Eastern production area.

(2) "Cross tie" means a hewn or sawn forest product of specified dimension suitable for use in supporting the rails of railroad tracks and "switch tie" means a hewn or sawn forest product of specified dimension suitable for use in supporting a switch in a railroad track.

(3) Bridge ties and crossing timbers are not included within the term "Eastern railroad ties" and remain subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation or any other maximum price regulation applicable to each products.

(4) "Size", sometimes referred to as "grade", of any Eastern railroad tie, means the dimensions of a cross tie or switch tie as established by the American Railway Engineering Association.

(5) "SR" means a serviceable reject cross tie or switch tie, hewn or sawn, which does not meet the tie specifications of the American Railway Engineering Association, and which, because of defects which are not such as to impair the strength of the tie for limited use, is not a first quality tie.

(6) "Cull" means a cross tie or switch tie which, because of defects, is not suitable for use under a railroad track.

(7) "Class T" cross ties and switch ties embrace the following species:

(i) Group Ta: Ash, hickory, "sap" black locust, honey locust, oak, and "sap" black walnut.

(ii) Group Tb: "Sap" cedar, "sap" cypress, hemlock, "sap" larch, "sap" pine, and spruce.

(iii) Group Tc: Beech, birch, cherry, gum, and hard maple.

(iv) Group Td: "Sap" catalpa, "sap" chestnut, elm, hackberry, magnolia, soft maple, "sap" mulberry, poplar, "sap" sassafras, sycamore, and white walnut.

(b) Persons covered by this regulation. (1) Any person who makes the kind of sale or purchase covered by this regulation is subject to its provisions. The term "person" includes: an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group; their legal successors or representatives; the United States, or any government, or any of its political subdivisions; or any agency of the foregoing.

(2) The term "tie contractor" is used in the regulation to describe a person who, prior to October 1, 1942, was engaged in the business of supplying Eastern railroad cross ties or switch ties to ultimate users of such ties, such as railroads, streets railways, industrial plants maintaining track facilities, switching and terminal companies, or to contractors engaged in building or maintaining track for war projects, and who can meet the following specific requirements:

(i) He must have maintained a concentration yard with necessary supervisory employees at which ties were bought for resale, or he must have operated producing units on timber owned or controlled by him which were primarily engaged in the production of Eastern railroad ties;

(ii) During one calendar month of any of the 12 months preceding October 1, 1942, he must have either purchased or produced on direct orders from users not less than 400,000 board feet of Eastern railroad ties; and

(iii) During the entire 12 months preceding October 1, 1942, he must have successfully fulfilled a contract for the supply of at least 2,000,000 board feet of Eastern railroad ties to a single user.

The Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., may by letter or telegram authorize any person not meeting these qualifications to act as a tie contractor upon presentation of proof that the granting of such authorization will supply a service needed by tie users by increasing production and availability of railroad cross ties and switch ties in the area covered by this regulation.

(c) Transactions covered by this regulation. All sales and purchases and all offers to sell and purchase railroad cross ties and switch ties produced in the "Eastern" area are covered by this regulation. The maximum prices set forth in Appendix A, or provided for in other portions of the regulation, apply to mills, tie hackers, tie concentrators, wholesalers, commission salesmen, contractors, railroads, industrial plants, street railways, switching and terminal companies, and any other person who sells or buys the products covered by this regulation.

§ 1426.3 How to figure maximum prices for specific items. The maximum prices specified in Appendix A, § 1426.14, are f. o. b. cars at the railroad loading-out point within the area of production. Additions to these maximum prices may be made as set forth below:

(a) Transportation addition. (1) An amount equal to the weight of the material multiplied by the applicable carload freight rate from the nearest railroad loading-out point in the direction of shipment to destination may be added to the maximum prices established. This addition shall apply whether movement is by railroad, private trucking, or common or contract carrier. However, when one order, for which a flat delivered price was quoted and accepted is shipped from two or more railroad loading-out points to a single destination on varying freight rates, the seller may average out the transportation charges applying from the railroad loading-out points to the destination.

In such cases, invoices shall indicate that the particular shipment is part of a larger order. Then, when shipment has been completed, a final invoice must be rendered which shows the individual prices, each loading-out point, the amount shipped from each loading-out point, the freight charge for each shipment, and a reconciliation of the total amount so computed with the agreed delivered sale price and also with the maximum price permitted by this regulation. In the event of overcharge to the purchaser, either on the ties or freight or both, an adjustment with the purchaser must be made immediately upon determination of the actual amounts involved.

(b) Treatment addition. An addition for preservative treatment may be made at prices not higher than those permitted by the General Maximum Price Regulation or any other applicable maximum price regulation of the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Tie contractors. An addition of $0.20 per tie for Eastern railroad cross ties and $5.00 per 1,000 ft. board measure for Eastern railroad switch ties may be made to the maximum prices specified in Appendix A, by a tie contractor, as that class of seller is defined in this regulation provided that this addition may be made only once.

§ 1426.4 Maximum prices for items not specifically priced. Eastern railroad cross ties and switch ties not specifically priced in Appendix A are nevertheless subject to this Revised Maximum Price Regulation 216. Maximum prices for such other items shall be established by first arriving at a tentative price as follows:

(a) Class U ties. The seller of Class U cross ties or switch ties, as defined by the American Railway Engineering Association, shall determine a tentative maximum price by:

(1) Checking his records to determine the highest prices at which he sold both the species to be priced and a Class T cross tie or switch tie of the same species and size during the first month prior to April 1, 1942, both sales having been made f. o. b. cars in the same production area. The zones described in Table II, Appendix A, should be used to define the production area for this purpose.

(2) The difference between the two prices described in subparagraph (1) should be added to the maximum price set forth in Table I, Appendix A, for the same species and size of unseasoned Class T cross tie or switch tie. The sum resulting from this computation will be the tentative maximum price per tie for that item.

(b) Seasoned ties. The seller of seasoned or dry cross ties or switch ties shall determine a tentative maximum price by:

(1) Checking his records to determine the highest price at which he sold both the item to be priced and an unseasoned or green cross tie or switch tie of the same species and size during the first month prior to April 1, 1942, both purchases having been made f. o. b. cars in the same production area. The zones described in Table II, Appendix A, should be used to define the production area for this purpose.

(2) The difference between the two prices described in subparagraph (1) should be added to the maximum price set forth in Table I, Appendix A, for the same species and size of unseasoned cross tie or switch tie. The sum resulting from this computation will be the tentative maximum price per tie for that item.

(c) Switch ties in sets. The seller of switch ties in sets shall determine a tentative maximum price by:

(1) Checking his records to determine the highest price at which he sold both switch ties in sets, and the same species and size of switch ties not sold in sets, during the first month prior to April 1, 1942, both sales having been made f. o. b. cars in the same production area. The zones described in Table II, Appendix A, should be used to define the production area for this purpose.

(2) The difference between the two prices described in subparagraph (1) should be added to the maximum price set forth in Table I, Appendix A, for the same species and size of unseasoned switch tie. The difference resulting from this computation will be the tentative maximum price per thousand feet board measure.

(d) Narrow gauge ties. The seller of narrow gauge cross ties or switch ties shall determine a tentative maximum price by:

(1) Checking his records to determine the highest price at which he sold both narrow gauge ties and the same species and No. 3 size of standard gauge ties during the first month prior to April 1, 1942, both sales having been made f. o. b. cars in the same production area. The zones described in Table II, Appendix A, should be used to define the production area for this purpose.

(2) The difference between the two prices described in subparagraph (1) should be subtracted from the maximum price set forth in Table I, Appendix A, for the same species and size of unseasoned cross tie or switch tie. The difference resulting from this computation will be the tentative maximum price per tie for that item.

(e) In selecting the highest prices for sales made prior to April 1, 1942, for purposes of paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) above, sales to the most nearly similar purchasers must be used. For example, in making comparisons of sales between railroads, contracts with railroads of nearly the same size must be used; comparison of prices for Government contracts must be on the basis of sales to Government contractors; and comparison of prices for industrial plants must be on the basis of sales to nearly similar types of industrial plants. In cases where such comparisons cannot be made, the maximum price shall be established as provided in paragraph (g) below.

(f) The tentative price obtained through the application of the method outlined above shall be submitted to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within 10 days of the use of such price, together with certified copies of the invoices of the sales which were used to determine the maximum price. If, within 15 days after receipt of the request for approval, the Office of Price Administration does not adjust or require further justification of such maximum price, the price shall be considered approved and shall thereafter be the maximum price for that seller for that item. Pending such approval or action by the Office of Price Administration, the seller may deliver the item and receive payment therefor, subject to the condition that a refund will be made if the price is in excess of that approved by the Office of Price Administration. Adjustment or approval of such prices may be made by letter or telegram by the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration.

(g) For any species or size of Eastern railroad cross tie or switch tie for which a maximum price is not provided in this regulation, the maximum price shall be the price established by the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., after full and sufficient facts have been submitted in support of any request for the establishment of such a maximum price. This maximum price may be established by a letter or telegram.

§ 1426.5 Prohibited practices—(a) General. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the dollar-and-cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying agreements, trade understandings, and the like.

(b) Specific practices. The following are among the specific practices prohibited:

(1) Refusing to sell on a loading-out point basis and insisting on selling on a delivered basis.

(2) Quoting a gross price above the maximum price, even if accompanied by a discount the effect of which is to bring the net price below the maximum.

(3) Making the buyer take something he does not want in order to get what he does want.

(c) Purchasing commissions. No purchasing commission or bonus may be paid or received if the purchase price plus the commission or bonus totals more than the price permitted by this regulation.

(d) Adjustable pricing. A price may not be made adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect at some time after delivery of the ties has been completed, but the price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

§ 1426.6 Application for adjustment or petition for amendment—(a) Government contracts. (1) Any person who has made or intends to make a Government contract and who thinks that a maximum price in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation 216 is impeding or threatens to impede production of any Eastern railroad ties which are essential to the war program and which are or will be the subject of the contract, may file an application for adjustment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

As soon as the application is filed, contracts, deliveries, and payments may be made at the requested price subject to refund if the requested price is disapproved or lowered. The seller must tell the buyer that the delivery is made subject to this refund.

(2) The term "Government contracts" is used here to include any contract with the United States or any of its agencies or with the government or any governmental agency of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to promote the defense of the United States". It also includes any subcontract under this kind of contract.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1426.7 Records and reports—(a) Records. All sellers of Eastern railroad cross ties and switch ties must keep records which will show a complete description of the item sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of the sale, and the price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the name and address of the seller. These records must be kept for any month in which the seller or buyer sold or bought 200,000 feet board measure or more of Eastern railroad ties. These records must be kept for two years for inspection by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Reports. Every tie contractor shall submit to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a copy of the largest cross tie or switch tie contract for Eastern railroad ties, as that term is defined in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation 216, on which shipments were completed during the 12 months preceding September 1942; also, a list of not more than 10 of the principal concentration yards owned or controlled by him and in operation on September 1, 1942. This list of yards should show the location, the name of the railroad serving each yard, and the total production for each yard during the largest producing month in the year prior to September 1, 1942. These reports must be filed within 30 days after the effective date of this regulation.

§ 1426.8 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation 216 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for revocation of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this regulation or of any regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration are urged to communicate with the nearest field, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

(c) War procurement agencies and their contracting or paying finance officers are not subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this regulation.

"War procurement agencies" include the War Department, the Navy Department, the United States Maritime Commission, and the Lend-Lease section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, or any of their agencies.

§ 1426.9 Licensing—(a) License required. Every person except hewers and mills, subject to this Revised Maximum Price Regulation 216 now or hereafter making or contracting to make any sale of Eastern railroad ties, is required to have a license as a condition of selling any such Eastern railroad ties. No person whose license is suspended by proceedings under § 205 (f) (2) of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall, during the period of suspension, sell any commodity or service as to which his license to sell is suspended.

(b) License granted. Every person subject to this Revised Maximum Price Regulation 216 now or hereafter making or contracting to make any sale of Eastern railroad ties, and every person subject to this Revised Maximum Price Regulation 216 now or hereafter selling any Eastern railroad ties, for which a maximum price is established by this maximum price regulation, is hereby granted a license as a condition of selling any such Eastern railroad ties. The provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 216 shall be deemed to be incorporated in the license hereby granted, and any violation of any provision so incorporated shall be a violation of the provisions of said license. Such license shall be effective on the effective date of this regulation, or when any person becomes subject to the maximum price provisions of this maximum price regulation, and shall, unless suspended as provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, continue in force so long as and to the extent that Revised Maximum Price Regulation 216 or any amendment or supplement thereto remains in force.

§ 1426.10 Registration of licensee. Every person hereby licensed may be required to register with the Office of Price Administration at such time and in such manner as the Administrator may hereafter by regulation prescribe.

§ 1426.11 Relation to other regulations—(a) The General Maximum Price Regulation. Any sale or delivery covered by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation 216 is not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.[4]

(b) Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation. The maximum price for export sales of Eastern railroad ties is covered by the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[5]

§ 1426.12 Geographic applicability. The provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation 216 shall be applicable to Eastern railroad ties produced within the territory specified in § 1426.2 (a) and sold in the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

§ 1426.13 Effective date. This Revised Maximum Price Regulation 216 (§§ 1426.1 to 1426.14, inclusive) shall become effective December 26, 1942.

§ 1426.14 Appendix A: Maximum prices for Eastern railroad cross ties and switch ties. The maximum prices set forth below are f. o. b. cars at the railroad loading-out point within the area of production. The maximum prices are for untreated and unseasoned cross ties and switch ties. See § 1426.3 (b) for treatment additions, § 1426.4 (b) for maximum prices for seasoned cross ties and switch ties, and § 1426.3 (a) for transportation additions.

[1] These maximum prices are for cross ties and switch ties manufactured in accordance with the specifications of the American Railway Engineering Association. It is expected that cross ties and switch ties not meeting these specifications in every detail will be priced correspondingly lower.

A. Additions. The following additions may be made to maximum prices set forth above:

(1) For 9′ cross ties: add $0.05 per tie to the maximum price listed in the proper zone for the required size and species of 8′6″ cross ties.

(2) For switch ties longer than 16′: add $3.00 per 1,000 ft. board measure to the maximum price listed in the proper zone for switch ties.

B. Deductions. Where ties are not loaded on railroad cars by the seller, the following deductions from the prices set forth in the above tables must be made:

(1) For 7″ ties (Sizes 3A, 4 and 5): deduct 4 cents per tie.

(2) For other sizes (Culls, SR, 1, 2, and 3): deduct 3 cents per tie.

TABLE II—TERRITORY

Zone 1 shall include the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Rhode Island.

Zone 2 shall include the States of New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania, points in that part of the State of Michigan, lying between Lake Huron and Lake Michigan, south of the Straits of Mackinac (known as lower Michigan); points in that part of the States of Indiana and Ohio located on and north of the main line of Pennsylvania Railroad between Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and St. Louis, Missouri.

Part 1351—Food and Food Products

[MPR 280,[1] Amendment 3]

MAXIMUM PRICES FOR SPECIFIC FOOD PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Paragraph (a) of § 1351.801 is amended, § 1351.805 is amended, and subparagraph (4) is added to § 1351.816 (a), as set forth below.

§ 1351.801 Purpose of this regulation. It is the purpose of this regulation to establish maximum prices for sales of the following specific food products:

(a) Fluid milk and milk products. Fluid milk and fluid cream sold at wholesale other than in glass or paper containers, to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions; butter, cheese, condensed and evaporated milk, powdered milk, casein, malted milk powder and any other food commodity which is processed or manufactured from cow's milk and composed of milk ingredients constituting more than fifty percent by weight or volume, excluding ice cream (which is covered under the General Maximum Price Regulation).

* * * * *

§ 1351.805 Addition allowed sellers of fluid milk or fluid cream because of price increases resulting from Federal milk marketing agreements, orders or licenses. Any seller of fluid milk or fluid cream at wholesale other than in glass or paper containers, to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions may add to his maximum price established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 280, the amount in dollars and cents of any price increase which he actually pays to his supplier, after taking into account and making appropriate deductions for all governmental subsidies, because of any increase in minimum producers prices since October 2, 1942 as the result of any marketing agreement, order or license heretofore or hereafter issued by the Secretary of Agriculture pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended: Provided, however, That no increase allowed under this § 1351.805 shall be greater than the increase allowed the producer under such marketing agreement, order or license, after taking into account and making appropriate deductions for all governmental subsidies.

§ 1351.816 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 280, the term:

* * * * *

(4) "Fluid milk and fluid cream" refers to raw or pasteurized fluid milk and fluid cream.

* * * * *

§ 1351.821 Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(c) Amendment No. 3 (§ 1351.801 (a); § 1351.805; and § 1351.816 (a) (4)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 280 shall become effective December 21, 1942.

Part 1394—Rationing of Fuel and Fuel Products

[Amendment 6 to Ration Order 5C[1]]

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Paragraph (b) of § 1394.8152 is revoked and paragraph (a) of § 1394.8152 is renumbered § 1394.8152; § 1394.8214 is renumbered § 1394.8214 (a), § 1394.8207 is renumbered § 1394.8207 (a); paragraph (d) of § 1394.7701, paragraphs (b) and (d) of § 1394.7704, subparagraphs (2) and (3) of paragraph (a) of § 1394.7705, paragraph (b) of § 1394.7754, paragraph (a) of § 1394.7755, paragraph (c) of § 1394.7758, paragraph (a) and (c) of § 1394.8052, subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b) of § 1394.8053 and § 1394.8162, are amended; a new subparagraph (44) is added to paragraph (a) of § 1394.7751; a new paragraph (e) to § 1394.7602, a new paragraph (d) to § 1394.7701, a new paragraph (e) to § 1394.8051, a new paragraph (c) to § 1394.8169, new paragraphs (b) and (c) to § 1394.8207, a new paragraph (b) to § 1394.8214, a new paragraph (f) to § 1394.8352 are added, as set forth below:

Definitions

§ 1394.7551 Definitions. (a) * * *

(44) "Gasoline shortage area" means the States of Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, and the District of Columbia, and the county of Sullivan in the State of Tennessee.

* * * * *

Administration, Personnel and Jurisdiction

§ 1394.7602 Jurisdiction of Boards over issuance of rations. * * *

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, no Board in the gasoline shortage area may issue a supplemental, fleet or official ration, cr a ration pursuant to the provisions of § 1394.7757 or § 1394.7758, for any vehicle normally garaged or stationed outside of the gasoline shortage area, and no Board outside of the gasoline shortage area may issue such a ration for any vehicle normally garaged or stationed within the gasoline shortage area.

* * * * *

Supplemental Rations

§ 1394.7701 Supplemental rations. * * *

(d) Applicants for supplemental rations in the gasoline shortage area are deemed to have available ninety (90) miles per month of occupational driving by using the basic ration to which they are entitled; and supplemental rations may be issued in such area to provide only occupational mileage allowed by a Board in excess of ninety (90) miles per month. However, no deduction for such 90 miles shall be made by the applicant in stating his required occupational mileage or by the Board in allowing occupational mileage, since a deduction of 90 miles from the total mileage allowed by the Board is automatically made when the Board applies the tables set forth in § 1394.7705 pursuant to which supplemental rations are to be issued.

* * * * *

§ 1394.7704 Allowance of mileage. * * *

(b) Upon the basis of the application and such other facts as the Board may require, the Board shall allow mileage for driving within the continental United States for any of the purposes listed in paragraph (b) of § 1394.7703 for which applicant has applied, with respect to which the applicant has established the facts required by paragraph (a) hereof. The Board shall allow only that portion of the claimed mileage (in the absence of a ride-sharing arrangement) with respect to which the applicant has established the inadequacy of alternative means of transportation (in accordance with paragraph (a) (2) (ii) of this section). The Board shall then determine the total occupational mileage per month required by the applicant and allowed by it for the three-months' period specified in paragraph (b) of § 1394.7703 and shall issue a supplemental ration, in accordance with the provisions of § 1394.7705, to provide such mileage: Provided, That no Board outside of the gasoline shortage area may allow an average of more than 470 miles per month, and no Board within the gasoline shortage area may allow an average of more than 378 miles per month, for any occupational mileage other than preferred mileage as defined in § 1394.7706. The Board may allow an average mileage in excess of such maximum only if the excess consists of such preferred mileage.

* * * * *

(d) The Board shall deduct from the mileage it allows for a passenger automobile, in accordance with paragraph (b) above, 150 miles per month, (or in the gasoline shortage area, ninety (90) miles per month) for each additional passenger automobile (other than a fleet passenger automobile) owned by the applicant or by any person living in his household and related to him by blood, marriage or adoption, if the Board finds that such automobile is available to and adequate for the use of the applicant for the purpose for which the supplemental ration is sought. No such automobile shall be deemed available to the applicant if it is used, to a substantial extent, for an occupational purpose of another person; nor shall such automobile be deemed available to the applicant during the effective period of a supplemental ration issued to another person whose mileage allowance was reduced on account of such automobile.

§ 1394.7705 Issuance of supplemental rations. (a) * * *

(2) In the case of a passenger automobile for which application for a supplemental ration is made in the gasoline shortage area, the Board shall issue:

(i) In the event that the mileage allowed by the Board is 378 miles per month or less: one class B book having the valid period specified in Table 1A for the mileage allowed;

(ii) In the event that the mileage allowed by the Board pursuant to paragraph (b) of § 1394.7704 exceeds 378 miles per month: one or more Class C books bearing expiration dates three months from the date of issuance or December 1, 1942, whichever is later, and containing the number of coupons specified in Table IIA for the mileage allowed.

(3) In the case of a motorcycle: one or more Class D books (to be marked "supplemental") bearing expiration dates three months from the date of issuance or December 1, 1942, whichever is later, and containing the number of coupons specified in Table I or in Table II to provide the mileage allowed by the Board.

Official and Fleet Rations (for Official and Fleet Passenger Automobiles and Motorcycles)

* * * * *

§ 1394.7754 Allowance of mileage. * * *

(b) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, the Board shall allow the total average occupational mileage per month determined by it to be required for driving within the continental United States, during the three-month period specified in § 1394.7753, and shall issue a ration in accordance with the provisions of § 1394.7755 to provide such mileage: Provided, That no Board outside of the gasoline shortage area may allow an average of more than 470 miles per month for any vehicle nor an average of more than 470 miles per month per vehicle for any group of vehicles, and no Board within the gasoline shortage area may allow an average of more than 378 miles per month for any vehicle nor an average of more than 378 miles per month per vehicle for any group of vehicles for any occupational mileage other than preferred mileage as defined in § 1394.7706.

§ 1394.7755 Issuance of official and fleet rations. (a) Official and fleet rations shall be issued to provide the total mileage allowed by the Board in accordance with § 1394.7754.

(1) In the case of passenger automobiles for which application for official or fleet rations is made outside of the gasoline shortage area, the Board shall issue:

(i) In the event that the mileage allowed by the Board is 470 miles per month or less: Class B books having the valid period specified in Table III for the mileage allowed;

(ii) In the event that the mileage allowed by the Board pursuant to paragraph (b) of § 1394.7754 exceeds 470 miles per month: Class C books bearing expiration dates three months from the date of issuance or December 1, 1942, whichever is later, and containing the number of coupons specified in Table IV for the mileage allowed;

(2) In the case of passenger automobiles for which application for official and fleet rations is made within the gasoline shortage area, the Board shall issue:

(i) In the event that the mileage allowed by the Board is 378 miles per month or less: Class B books having the valid period specified in Table IIIA for the mileage allowed.

(ii) In the event that the mileage allowed by the Board pursuant to paragraph (b) of § 1394.7754 exceeds 378 miles per month: Class C books bearing expiration dates three months from the date of issuance or November 22, 1942, whichever is later, and containing the number of coupons specified in Table IVA for the mileage allowed:

§ 1394.7758 Issuance of rations to lessees of passenger automobiles or motorcycles available for public rental. * * *

(c) If the Board finds the facts stated on the application to be true, it shall determine the allowed mileage for such vehicle in the manner provided in § 1394.7754 and shall issue a ration in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of § 1394.7755 except as otherwise provided herein. The Board issuing the ration shall, at the time of issuance, note on the cover of the book the name and address of the person to whom the ration is issued, and shall note on the book and on the application the date on which it expires. If the term of the lease remaining from the date of issuance of the ration is less than the valid period of the ration as determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of § 1394.7755, the Board shall issue a ration containing coupons sufficient to allow the allowed mileage for only the remaining term of the lease, and shall remove from the ration book or books issued all coupons in excess of such number, and in such case the expiration date of the ration shall be the date on which the lease terminates.

* * * * *

Renewal of Rations and Issuance of Further Rations

§ 1394.8051 Renewal of rations. * * *

(e) In the gasoline shortage area the Board, when renewing a supplemental, fleet or official ration, or a ration pursuant to the provisions of § 1394.7757 or § 1394.7758, may not issue coupons in excess of the number which were issued for the vehicle or vehicles in the current ration.

§ 1394.8052 Issuance of further ration for use prior to expiration date of current ration. (a) Any person who finds that, due to a change in occupation or in the location of place of business or residence, or other change in circumstances, or due to seasonal variation in the amount of occupational mileage needed, miscalculation of needs, or reduction in the unit value of a basic ration held by him, a ration of any class (other than a basic ration) issued to him fails to meet his requirements, or any person who finds that, by reason of a reduction in the unit value of Class B or Class C coupons, he cannot perform the driving essential to carry on his occupation, or, in the case of a special ration, he cannot perform the purpose for which it was issued, may apply for a further ration of such class for use prior to the expiration date of his current ration. Such application shall be made in the same manner as the application for the current ration.

* * * * *

(c) If the Board determines that, for one or more of the reasons specified in paragraph (a) of this section, more mileage is needed, or in the case of a non-highway ration, more gasoline is required than that stated in the application on the basis of which the current ration was issued, it may grant a further ration in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1394.8054. In any case in which application hereunder is made because of a reduction in the unit value of Class A, B or C coupons held by the applicant, the Board shall grant a further ration for use prior to the original expiration date of the current ration only if it finds that the applicant still requires the mileage lost by reason of such reduction.

* * * * *

§ 1394.8053 Special cases. * * *

(b) * * *

(1) A supplemental ration based on an allowed mileage in excess of 470 miles per month (or in the gasoline shortage area, 378 miles per month);

Restrictions on Transfers

* * * * *

§ 1394.8152 Transfers to consumers. On and after November 22, 1942, and notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement, or commitment, regardless of when made, a dealer or distributor may transfer gasoline to a consumer, and a consumer may accept such transfer of gasoline, only in exchange for valid coupons, except as provided in §§ 1394.8154, 1394.8155, and 1394.8156.

Prohibited Acts

§ 1394.8162 Change of occupation of ration holder. The holder of a ration, outside the gasoline shortage area, which was based on allowed mileage in excess of 470 miles per month and the holder of a ration, within the gasoline shortage area and which was based on allowed mileage in excess of 378 miles per month, shall report to the issuing Board any change in the principal occupation for the pursuit of which such ration was issued. Such report shall be transmitted to the Board within five (5) days after such change and shall describe fully the nature of the new occupation, the exact type of work performed, the business or industry in which such work is performed, and the purpose, if any, for which the motor vehicle will be used in such new occupation. If, on the basis of such report, the Board finds reason to believe that such motor vehicle will no longer be used for a preferred purpose listed in § 1394.7706, it shall notify such holder, in writing, that his right to such ration is to be reexamined. Such notice shall be mailed to such holder at the address shown on his application (or at the address shown on his report), and shall require him to file a new application for a ration within ten (10) days after the mailing date shown on such notice. If no new application is filed within such time, the Board shall revoke such ration and shall recall all Class C books or coupons (or Class D books or coupons based on an allowed mileage in excess of 470 miles per month outside the gasoline shortage area, or 378 miles per month within the gasoline shortage area) issued in connection therewith. If a new application is filed, and if the Board determines that the motor vehicle will be used for a preferred purpose listed in § 1394.7706, it shall take no further action. If the Board finds that the vehicle will no longer be used for a preferred purpose listed in § 1394.7706, it shall revoke the ration and recall the coupons or coupon book originally issued and shall issue, in lieu thereof, such ration (if any) as it determines that the holder is entitled to receive on the basis of his new application and in accordance with the provisions of §§ 1394.7705 or 1394.7755, as the case may be.

* * * * *

§ 1394.8169 Discrimination by dealers and distributors. * * *

(c) Nothing herein shall be construed to require a transfer of gasoline in violation of any authorization or direction issued for, or any condition imposed upon the withdrawal or delivery of gasoline by the Petroleum Administrator for War.

* * * * *

Restrictions on Transfers Between Dealers and Distributors

§ 1394.8207 Restriction on transfers. (a) * * *

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, a dealer in the gasoline shortage area who has on hand Class B or C coupons as of 12:01 A. M. December 21, 1942, or a dealer in West Virginia or in the County of Sullivan in the State of Tennessee who has on hand Class A, B, or C coupons as of such time may receive, and a dealer or distributor may transfer gasoline in exchange for such coupons in gallonage equal to four (4) gallons for each coupon: Provided, That such coupons are remitted to the transferer on or before December 22, 1942.

(c) No dealer or distributor in the County of Sullivan in the State of Tennessee may use Class A, B or C coupons to obtain a transfer of gasoline from a dealer or distributor outside of such county, and no transfer of gasoline may be made from outside of such county to a dealer or distributor within such County in exchange for Class A, B or C coupons. A dealer in such County may deliver such coupons to a Board and the Board shall issue inventory coupons to the dealer, equal in gallonage value to the coupons so surrendered; except that for any such coupons which a dealer has on hand as of 12:01 A. M., December 21, 1942, and which are delivered to a Board on or before December 22, 1942, the inventory coupons issued shall be equal in gallonage value to four (4) gallons for each coupon.

* * * * *

§ 1394.8214 Exchange of coupons for certificates. (a) * * *

(b) On or before December 28, 1942, a distributor in the gasoline shortage area who has on hand Class B or C coupons, or a distributor in West Virginia or in the County of Sullivan in the State of Tennessee who has on hand Class A, B or C coupons may deliver such coupons to a Board and obtain an exchange certificate equal in value to four (4) gallons for each coupon remitted: Provided, That such coupons were received by such distributor in exchange for a transfer of gasoline equal in gallonage to four (4) gallons for each coupon, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) or (c) of § 1394.8207.

Effective Dates

§ 1394.8352 Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(f) Amendment No. 6 (§§ 1394.7551 (a) (44), 1394.7602 (e), 1394.7701 (d), 1394.7704 (b) and (d), 1394.7705 (a) (2) and (3), 1394.7754 (b), 1394.7755 (a), 1394.7758 (c), 1394.8051 (e), 1394.8052 (a) and (c), 1394.8053 (b) (1), 1394.8152, 1394.8162, 1394.8169 (c), 1394.8207 (b) and (c), 1394.8214 (b), and 1394.8352 (f)) to Ration Order No. 5C shall become effective 12:01 A. PART 1418—TERRITORIES AND POSSESSIONS

[MPR 201,[1] Amendment 4]

VIRGIN ISLANDS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1418.105 and § 1418.106 (c) (5) are amended as set forth below:

§ 1418.105 Prohibited practices—(a) General. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying agreements, trade understandings, and the like.

(b) Specific practices. The following are among the specific practices prohibited:

(1) Getting the effect of higher prices by changing the credit practices or cash discounts which prevailed during the period from November 7 to December 6, 1941, inclusive. The cash and credit practices recognized by the seller during the period from November 7 to December 6, 1941 inclusive, shall not be reduced;

(2) Making the buyer take another commodity in addition to the one he wants;

(3) Wholesalers selling to other wholesalers and adding to direct cost a markup greater than the amount added on such sales during the period November 7 to December 6, 1941, inclusive. If during this period a wholesaler sold only to retailers the wholesaler must apply to OPA for a markup on sales to other wholesalers, and cannot use the markup he took on his sales to retailers.

§ 1418.106 Records and reports. * * *

(c) Lists to be filed. * * *

(5) The statements required under this § 1418.106 shall be kept up-to-date by the seller. The information required under paragraph (c) of this § 1418.106 shall be mailed within three days after offering any imported commodity for sale whenever the price of any such commodity has been changed.

§ 1418.116 Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(d) Amendment No. 4 (§§ 1418.105 and 1418.106 (c) (5)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 201 shall become effective December 21, 1942.

In § 1338.115 appearing on page 10378 of the issue for Saturday, December 12, 1942, the reference to § 1338.102 (a) should read "§ 1338.102 (e)".

Chapter XIII—Petroleum Administration for War

PART 1545—PETROLEUM SUPPLY

[Petroleum Administrative Order 1]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created in certain areas a shortage in the supply of motor fuel and fuel oil for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest, to promote the national defense, and to provide adequate supplies of motor fuel and fuel oil for military and other essential uses.

§ 1545.1 Petroleum Administrative Order 1—(a) Definitions. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Motor fuel" means liquid fuel, including Diesel fuel, used for the propulsion of motor vehicles or motor boats and shall include any liquid fuel to which Federal gasoline taxes apply except liquid fuel used for the propulsion of aircraft.

(3) "Fuel oil" means any liquid petroleum product commonly known as fuel oil, including grades No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6, Bunker C, Diesel oil, kerosene, range oil, gas oil, or any other liquid petroleum product used for the same purposes as the above designated grades.

(4) "Refinery" means any manufacturing establishment within District One which processes, refines, or compounds crude petroleum or finished or unfinished petroleum products, including, but not limited to, the terminal, storage, and distribution facilities at such establishment.

(5) "Bulk terminal" means any terminal or storage facility within District One to which motor fuel or fuel oil from any point outside of the District is delivered for redelivery.

(6) "Supplier" means any person designated as such on Schedule A.

(7) "District One" means the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida (east of the Apalachicola River), and the District of Columbia.

(8) "Zone" means any of the six territorial divisions of District One, as follows:

Zone 1: The States of Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Rhode Island.

Zone 2: The entire eastern part of the State of New York up to and including the Counties of Cayuga, Tompkins, and Chemung; the entire eastern part of the State of Pennsylvania up to and including the Counties of Bradford, Sullivan, Columbia, Monitour, Northumberland, Dauphin, and York; and the States of New Jersey and Delaware.

Zone 3: The States of Maryland and Virginia and the District of Columbia.

Zone 4: The States of North Carolina and South Carolina.

Zone 5: The State of Georgia and that part of the State of Florida east of the Apalachicola River.

Zone 6: That part of the States of New York and Pennsylvania not included in Zone 2, and the State of West Virginia.

(9) "Quota" means the specific quantities of motor fuel and fuel oils specified on Schedule A to be available to any supplier for delivery or withdrawal in each zone of District One from bulk terminals and refineries located in such zone during each quota period specified on Schedule A, excluding withdrawals or deliveries for export.

(10) "Quota period" means the period of time specified on Schedule A for the withdrawal or delivery by any supplier of any quota assigned on such schedule to such supplier.

(b) Restrictions on delivery of motor fuel and fuel oil. (1) No supplier shall withdraw or deliver, or cause to be withdrawn or delivered, any motor fuel or fuel oil from any bulk terminal or refinery in District One in any quota period except:

(i) Withdrawals or deliveries of any motor fuel or fuel oil from any refinery or bulk terminal for delivery to any bulk terminal in District One; or

(ii) As specifically directed by the Petroleum Administrator for War pursuant to a directive issued under paragraph (c) of this order; or

(iii) As specifically authorized upon application filed under paragraph (f) of this order; or

(iv) As permitted under the terms of paragraph (d) of this order.

(c) Directed deliveries. The Petroleum Administrator for War may at any time issue specific directions to any supplier with respect to the withdrawal or delivery by such supplier of any motor fuel or fuel oil from any bulk terminal or refinery.

(d) Permitted deliveries. (1) Nothing contained in this order shall restrict the withdrawal or delivery by any supplier from any bulk terminal or refinery of the quantities of motor fuel and fuel oil listed on Schedule A as the quota of such supplier: Provided, That all of the following conditions are met:

(i) Any such withdrawal or delivery is made within the quota period specified on Schedule A, for the withdrawal or delivery of such quota;

(ii) The quantity of any such withdrawal or delivery by any supplier does not, when added to all preceding deliveries and withdrawals by such supplier during the quota period exceed any quota specified on Schedule A for such supplier;

(iii) Such withdrawal or delivery is made, so far as practicable, so that the quota against which it is charged will be withdrawn or delivered ratably during the quota period;

(iv) Such withdrawal or delivery is made for ultimate use within the zone in which is located the bulk terminal or refinery from which the withdrawal or delivery is made;

(v) The quantity of motor fuel or fuel oil withdrawn or delivered is:

(a) To be used solely to meet the minimum necessary requirements of any consumer coming within any category listed in Schedule B, attached hereto; or

(b) Is determined by the supplier to be a part of such supplier's quota which is not needed to meet the minimum necessary requirements of all consumers coming within the categories listed in Schedule B who are receiving, directly or indirectly, motor fuel or fuel oil from such supplier, and with respect to these deliveries there shall be no discrimination as between any persons receiving such deliveries: Provided, That uniform differentiation in deliveries based upon the relative inventories expressed in days' supply on hand in customer's storage shall not be deemed to be discrimination.

(e) Preferential deliveries. Each supplier shall, in making any withdrawal or delivery of motor fuel or fuel oil, give preference to the requirements of the Army and the Navy of the United States, the Coast Guard, the War Shipping Administration, the United States Maritime Commission, and the Office of Lend-Lease Administration; and any supplier shall, upon demand by any one of the said agencies withdraw and deliver to such agency, any part or all of such supplier's undelivered quota.

(f) Application for authorization. Each supplier seeking authorization to withdraw or deliver motor fuel or fuel oil pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) (iii) hereof, shall apply in writing to the Petroleum Administrator for War, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers such withdrawal or delivery to be necessary in the public interest.

(g) Records. All suppliers affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning withdrawals and deliveries by such suppliers from bulk terminals and refineries.

(h) Reports. Each supplier to whom this order applies shall file with the Petroleum Administrator for War by noon of each Wednesday a report for each zone in which such supplier has a quota, stating the quantity of motor fuel and fuel oil, broken down by grades, withdrawn or delivered by him from any bulk terminal or refinery in each zone during the week ending at 7:00 a. m. on the preceding Saturday.

(i) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: The District Director in Charge, Petroleum Administration for War, 122 East 42d Street, New York, New York, Ref.: PAO 1.

(j) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter, in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, by any act or omission, falsifies records kept or information furnished in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment.

Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order may be prohibited from delivering or receiving any material under priority control, or such other action may be taken as is deemed appropriate.

(l) Effective date. This order shall be effective on and after the date of issuance.

(E.O. 9276, 7 F.R. 10091; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 21st day of December 1942.

R. K. DAVIES,
Deputy Petroleum Administrator for War.

Chapter XV—Board of War Communications

[Order 25–C;[1] 2d Rev. of Order 25]

PART 1720—TELEGRAPH SERVICE

Whereas the Board of War Communications on July 3, 1942, requested the Federal Communications Commission to investigate the service being rendered in the telegraph field; and

Whereas the Commission by its Order No. 103[2] dated July 7, 1942, undertook such an investigation into telegraph service and has forwarded its report together with its recommendations; and

Whereas the Board of War Communications has determined that the national defense and security and the successful conduct of the war demand that immediate steps be taken to the end that the domestic telegraph industry shall be more closely geared to the war effort;

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in the Board by Executive Order No. 9089[3] of March 6, 1942, prescribing regulations governing the use, control, supervision and closing of stations and facilities for wire communications;

It is hereby ordered as follows:

AUTHORITY: §§ 1720.1 to 1720.9 inclusive issued under E.O. 9089, 7 F.R. 1777.

§ 1720.1 Speed of service; office drag; routing time. The domestic telegraph carriers should strive to attain the following service objectives in the handling of full-rate messages: (a) In each office the office drag (the interval between the time a message first reaches the office [filing time or digit time as the case may be] and the completion of transmission at that office) shall average no more than seven minutes for at least 95 percent of the messages received in such office each hour and such office drag shall not exceed 15 minutes for any message in such 95 percent. (b) Present routing times for business messages to be delivered by messenger shall be reduced 33⅓ percent.

§ 1720.2 Priorities for the handling of traffic. The Federal Communications Commission is requested and authorized to develop a plan for revising the present system of priorities for the handling of urgent essential traffic, both governmental and non-governmental, and to report its specific recommendations to the Board.

§ 1720.3 Standards for minimum use to control installation of teleprinter equipment. The Federal Communications Commission is requested and authorized to prepare standards of minimum use to control present and future installations of teleprinter equipment for telegraph users including exemptions for equipment which serves a military necessity or a vital public need which cannot otherwise be met, and to report such standards to the Board together with its specific recommendations for regulation of such installations.

§ 1720.4 Leasing of telegraph circuits. The Federal Communications Commission is requested and authorized to formulate basic principles for regulating the present and future leasing of telegraph circuits to the end that no needed facilities shall be used for non-essential purposes, and to report such principles to the Board together with its specific recommendations for regulation of such leasing.

§ 1720.5 Elimination of unnecessary circuits, facilities, and offices. The Federal Communications Commission is requested to study the possibilities for the elimination of unnecessary circuits, facilities and offices and to report to the Board its recommendations for closure of any such specific circuits, facilities or offices.

§ 1720.6 Discontinuance of non-telegraphic services. Effective December 22, 1942, domestic telegraph carriers shall discontinue all non-telegraphic services including but not limited to, errand, distribution, remittance, installment payments, shopping, and messenger service (except messenger service to telephone companies to call non-subscribers to the telephone), sale of traveler's checks, sale of mail money orders, and acceptance of express packages.

§ 1720.7 Discontinuance of holiday greeting and congratulatory messages. Effective December 22, 1942, no domestic telegraph carrier shall accept for transmission any message both originating at and addressed to points within the continental United States of felicitation or congratulation, including but not limited to, greetings for Christmas, New Year, Easter, Father's Day, Jewish New Year, Mother's Day, Thanksgiving, Valentine's Day, congratulations on the birth of a child, graduations, weddings, anniversaries and birthdays.

§ 1720.8 Franks, deadhead and free service messages. The Federal Communications Commission is requested and authorized to develop a plan for the curtailment of the use of franks and deadhead messages and the elimination of "free service" messages and to report its specific recommendations to the Board.

§ 1720.9 Periodic reports of current state of telegraph service. Three months after the date of this Order and periodically each three months thereafter the Commission is requested to report to the Board the current state of service being rendered by the telegraph industry together with any recommendations for improvement of such service in the interest of the war effort.

Subject to such further order as the Board may deem appropriate.

BOARD OF WAR COMMUNICATIONS,
JAMES LAWRENCE FLY, Chairman.

Attest: December 17, 1942.

HERBERT E. GASTON,
Secretary.

TITLE 41—PUBLIC CONTRACTS

Chapter II—Division of Public Contracts

CERTAIN CANNED AND DEHYDRATED FRUITS

EXTENSION OF EXCEPTION ORDERS

In the matter of an exception from the provisions of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act of Contracts for certain canned and dehydrated fruits and vegetables.

Whereas the Secretary of War on December 16, 1942, made written findings that the inclusion of the representations and stipulations of section 1 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. 35) in contracts awarded during the calendar year ending December 31, 1943, for canned and dehydrated fruits and vegetables of the varieties hereinafter named will seriously impair the conduct of Government business; and

Whereas the Secretary of War has requested that an exception be granted under section 6 of the Act to permit the award of contracts during that period for canned and dehydrated fruits and vegetables of the varieties hereinafter named without the inclusion of the representations and stipulations of section 1 of the Act; and

Whereas exceptions have been granted heretofore to permit the award of contracts for the commodities named until December 31, 1942 without including the representations and stipulations of the Public Contracts Act; and

Whereas it appears that justice and public interest will be served by extending the exception orders until December 31, 1943 on the basis of the findings of the Secretary of War,

Now, therefore, I do hereby extend the exception orders, dated May 14, 1942 (7 F.R. 3672) and July 9, 1942 (7 F.R. 5317) as amended by the order dated July 28, 1942 (7 F.R. 5914) and the order of July 2, 1942, pursuant to the powers vested in me by section 6 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. 35), permitting the award of contracts up to and including December 31, 1943, without the inclusion of the representations and stipulations of section 1 of the Act, for the following varieties of canned and dehydrated fruits and vegetables:

[P. & S. Docket No. 1527]

OKLAHOMA LIVESTOCK GROWERS' ASSOCIATION

NOTICE OF HEARING, ETC.

Notice of hearing with respect to application for an authorization to collect fees for the inspection of brands, marks, or other identifying characteristics on livestock originating within the State of Oklahoma.

On or about July 8, 1942, the Oklahoma Livestock Growers' Association filed an application, pursuant to the provisions of an amendment to the Packers and Stockyards Act (Pub. Law 615, 77th Cong., June 19, 1942), for an authorization to charge and collect a reasonable fee for the inspection of brands, marks, or other identifying characteristics of livestock originating within the State of Oklahoma, at posted stockyards within that State, located at Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Enid, Muskogee, Beaver, Woodward, and West Fort Smith, for the purpose of determining the ownership of such livestock.

The applicant alleges, in substance, that:

1. The branding and marking of cattle as a means of establishing ownership prevails by custom and by statute in Oklahoma.

2. Inspection is necessary to recover strays or stolen livestock.

3. The real producers of cattle in Oklahoma who would be protected by inspection service desire the service and are willing to pay the cost thereof.

4. The Oklahoma Livestock Growers' Association was organized under the laws of Oklahoma, in 1938, as a non-profit association. It now has a number of inspectors and it intends to increase the size of its inspection force. At present the association relies upon voluntary fees from its membership and it always has, and now is, paying its obligations promptly.

5. The organization has accumulated records which would be helpful, in connection with the inspection of brands, in the event its application is granted.

6. The association desires to conduct inspection and collect fees therefor at stockyards posted under the Packers and Stockyards Act, located at Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Enid, Muskogee, Beaver, Woodward, and West Fort Smith, Oklahoma.

7. The applicant, if authorized, proposes to file a tariff under which it would assess and collect for inspection service 5 cents for each animal of the bovine species originating within the State of Oklahoma and shipped to the aforesaid markets.

All interested persons are referred to said application, which is on file in the offices of the Agricultural Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture.

It appears to the Secretary that it is appropriate, in the public interest, to give notice and afford all interested persons an opportunity to be heard for the purpose of:

(1) Receiving information relative to the necessity of inspecting livestock for brands, marks, and other identifying characteristics;

(2) Ascertaining whether there are other applicants who intend to request authorization to charge and collect fees for the inspection of brands;

(3) Receiving information to assist in determining whether any applicant is qualified to perform the service in the event that brand inspection is deemed necessary; and

---

(4) Receiving any other information which may be relevant or material, or which may be of assistance to the Secretary in determining whether an authorization to inspect livestock for brands, marks, and other identifying characteristics should issue.

It is, therefore, ordered, That public notice shall be, and is hereby, given that a hearing on such matter will be held on January 15, 1943, at Room 200, Livestock Exchange Building, Oklahoma National Stockyards, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

It is further ordered, That at such hearing applicants and all other interested persons, including any protestants, will have the privilege of appearing and presenting such information with respect to this matter as may be relevant and material.

It is further ordered, That a copy hereof shall be served upon the Oklahoma Livestock Growers' Association and upon all protestants who have heretofore filed notice of their protest to the issuance of an authorization with the Department.

It is further ordered, That this notice shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That the Agricultural Marketing Administration shall give such further notice by any means which, in the opinion of the Administrator, may be necessary or desirable to inform all persons who may be interested of the time, date, place, and purpose of the hearing.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 21st day of December 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Assistant to the Secretary of Agriculture.[1]

BOARD OF ECONOMIC WARFARE.

WILL THOMAS COMPANY

ORDER DENYING LICENSING PRIVILEGES

Pursuant to part 807 of the regulations adopted under section 6 of the Act of July 2, 1940, as amended, the Chief of the Trade Intelligence Division of the Export Control Branch, Office of Exports, has charged the Will Thomas Company, Will Thomas, partner, and Israel Torrico, partner, with violations of §§ 801.2 and 802.10 (a), of the regulations issued in part under the authority of said section, in matters relating to export control and within the jurisdiction of the Board of Economic Warfare. The respondents have filed a written answer to the charges above set out.

The Compliance Commissioner, duly designated under §§ 807.1 of the aforesaid regulations, has reviewed the record and filed his findings of fact and recommendations in the matter. The following facts have been found:

That the Will Thomas Company is a partnership, composed of Will Thomas and Israel Torrico; it was formed in November, 1941, for the purpose of carrying on a general import and export business. Their business consists of exporting wood, canned fish, and kindred products of the Northwest. The principal place of business of the partnership is Colman Building, Seattle, Washington.

That the Will Thomas Company filed applications for licenses to export ladies silk and nylon hose for the account of Carlos Lozada, of La Paz, Bolivia, as follows:

(a) Application No. 462480, dated March 31, 1942, for the exportation of 100 dozen ladies nylon hose, valued at $1,573.00, and 100 dozen ladies silk hose, valued at $1,265.00. This application was rejected on April 8, 1942.

(b) Application No. 560500, dated April 15, 1942, for the exportation of 100 dozen ladies nylon hose, sizes 8, 8½, 9, 9½, valued at $1,573.00, and 100 dozen ladies silk hose, sizes, 8. 8½, 9, 9½, and valued at $1,265.00. This application was rejected on May 19, 1942.

(c) Application No. 747886, dated June 25, 1942, for the exportation of 50 dozen pairs of ladies nylon hose, valued at $726.00, and 50 dozen pairs of ladies silk hose (sizes 8–9½), valued at $660.00. This application was rejected on July 6, 1942.

June 6, 1942, C. Lozada, Casilla 217, La Paz, Bolivia, wrote respondents inter alia as follows:

> Nylon stockings. What happened to this order is truly an iniquity, and the pity is that our government does not do anything, and we continue delivering tin and wolfram at ridiculous prices. Well, there is nothing to do but to make good note of the help that the great city of the North gives us. But, insist until you secure something, request permit for 1,000 dozen and, if it is possible to secure (them), I will energetically send you the money immediately by cable for the full amount. Do not be frightened by the order, but I tell you seriously that the funds are going ahead if this is accepted, and I beg you to press them with this matter until you secure something. At any rate, wire me if there is anything suitable.
> Since you tell me that it is possible to send small amounts by parcel post I beg that you do so in the following manner:

> If it is possible, send (the order) to me in that manner. At any rate, I expect your reply in this regard. * * *

Under date of June 13, 1942, the respondents wrote Senor Don Carlos Lozada as follows:

> The BEW rejected my request for an export license to ship you the nylon hose. But if you will send me a Certificate of Necessity for 50 or 100 pairs, approved by the American Consul there, I will try again. If still I meet with no success, there is but one alternative. The complex rules and restrictions laid down daily lead me to suppose that it will be in order for me to ship you, each week, one small package containing 18 pairs of hose, whose value will be only $22.95. Adding $2.00 for the consular invoice fee, the total will still be just below the $25.00 limit for a General License. You will have to send me an order for 18 pairs of hose each week, or each time you write; for example, if you send me one letter only, during a period of two weeks, you may include an order dated as of the week you are writing, and another order dated the previous week. A second method would be to send me several orders, each one running something like this: Order No. --, for So-and-So, at an address not necessarily your own. But do not use the name of any person or firm on the Proclaimed List.

Under date of July 15, 1942, the respondents wrote Sr. Carlos Lozada as follows:

> We hope that you have received our airmail letter of June 25. Yours of June 17 and the first instance reached us without difficulty although somewhat delayed. We will now inform you of the shipments made in the early part of July, in accordance with your previous orders.
>
> Parcel Post Packages
> As shown on the 12 duly certified commercial invoices attached you will be informed of the registered mail shipments sent to you in accordance with the instructions in your letter of June 6 last. In connection with this matter and in order that you may see how difficult it is to obtain an export license for stockings, either of nylon or silk, we are attaching hereto the original of our export application for only 50 dozen nylon stockings and 50 dozen silk ones which was recently rejected by the Board of Economic Warfare in Washington as not being in the national interest. In view of the impossibility of obtaining licenses for this merchandise we are obliged to advise you that until the situation improves we must decline to make quotations withdrawing at the same time those which we made in our letter of June 26. If things change we will advise you and will endeavor to keep you informed. We also have 3 or 4 additional packages to send you which will complete all that we can offer you at this time. Do not forget to advise us promptly whether or not you received the packages in accordance with invoices numbers 121 to 132 inclusive and the subsequent ones. * * *

The Compliance Commissioner has found that the Will Thomas Company, Will Thomas, partner, and Israel Torrico, partner, respondents in the above entitled case, violated section 6 of the Act of July 2, 1940, and the Export Control Regulations of the Board of Economic Warfare issued pursuant thereto, in particular §§ 801.2 and 802.10 (a) of the Federal Regulations of July 2, 1942, by filling orders for ladies nylon hose in excess of $1.00, and shipping the same in nine parcels, each of the approximate value of $25.00, without the required individual license, between the dates of July 6, 1942, and July 14, 1942, to Jorge Chinchilla, La Paz, Bolivia, Elena Arce, c/o Casilla 217, La Paz, Bolivia, Roberto Comboni T., La Paz, Bolivia, C. Lozada, Casilla 217, La Paz, Bolivia, Luis Aranibar U., c/o Botica Boliviana, La Paz, Bolivia, and Sr. Albert Siles L., La Paz, Bolivia, for the account of Carlos Lozada, Casilla 217, La Paz, Bolivia.

Upon consideration of the record, Findings of Fact and Recommendations, in this matter, It is hereby ordered, That:

Will Thomas Company, Will Thomas, partner, and Israel Torrico, partner, and any person, association, or organization acting on behalf of, or for the account of them, are denied the privilege of obtaining individual export license and the use of any general or unlimited license for any exportation whatsoever from the United States until the 18th day of March, 1943.

The respondents may appeal in writing to the Assistant Director in charge of the Office of Exports provided the appeal is taken within ten (10) days after receipt of this order.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Administration

PART 903—MILK IN THE ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI, MARKETING AREA

HANDLING OF MILK

Order terminating certain provisions of § 903.3 (b) and (e) (2) of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area.

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act", and the provisions of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area, it is hereby determined that the provisions of such order which provide that flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, and buttermilk shall be classified as Class I milk are provisions which obstruct and do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to the producers of milk defined in the said order; and such has been the case since November 17, 1942, when the St. Louis, Missouri, health authorities, as an emergency measure made necessary through the shortage of "Grade A" milk, permitted such products to be made from other than "Grade A" milk.

It is, therefore, ordered, That the following provisions of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area shall be, and hereby are, terminated effective as of 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., November 17, 1942:

1. In § 903.3 (b),[1] the words "the skim milk and butterfat of" and "flavored milk and milk drinks (of any butterfat test), and buttermilk"; and

2. In § 903.3 (e) (2), the words "flavored milk and milk drinks (of any butterfat test), and buttermilk."

Done at Washington, D. C., this 22d day of December 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Amendment 60-4, Civil Air Regulations]

PART 60—AIR TRAFFIC RULES

PILOT CERTIFICATES

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Board held at its office in Washington, D. C. on the 16th day of December, 1942.

Acting pursuant to sections 205 (a) and 601 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, the Civil Aeronautics Board amends the Civil Air Regulations as follows:

Effective December 16, 1942, Part 60 of the Civil Air Regulations is amended as follows:

By amending § 60.30[1] to read as follows:

§ 60.30 Pilot certificates. No person shall pilot a civil aircraft in the United States unless such person holds a valid pilot certificate issued by the Administrator or an effective foreign pilot certificate validated by the Administrator. Any person may operate the controls of an aircraft if the aircraft is equipped with fully functioning dual controls and one of the control seats is occupied by a person holding an appropriate pilot certificate.

TITLE 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

Chapter II—Securities and Exchange Commission

PART 210—REGULATION S-X UNDER SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934, AND INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940

FORM AND CONTENT OF CERTAIN FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Act of 1933, particularly sections 7 and 19 (a) thereof, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 12, 13, 15 (d) and 23 (a) thereof, and the Investment Company Act of 1940, particularly sections 8, 30 and 38 (a) thereof, and deeming such action necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and necessary for the execution of the functions vested in it by the said Acts, hereby amends Part 210 [Regulation S-X] as follows:

I. Section 210.3-01 [Rule 3-01] is amended as follows:

The letter (a) is inserted preceding the text of the existing rule and the following paragraph is added thereto:

§ 210.3-01 Form, order, and terminology. (a) * * *

(b) All money amounts required to be shown in financial statements and schedules may be expressed in thousands of dollars, provided that an indication to that effect is inserted immediately beneath the caption of the statement or schedule, or at the top of each money column. Zeros need not be inserted for the omitted figures. The individual amounts shown need not be adjusted to the nearest thousand if in a footnote it is stated that the failure of the items to add to the totals shown is due to the dropping of amounts less than one thousand dollars.

II. Section 210.3-02 [Rule 3-02] is amended by deleting the third sentence thereof.

III. Caption 6 of § 210.5-02 [Rule 5-02] is amended by adding a new paragraph (c) as follows:

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this rule, no classification of inventories shall be required which is in contravention of the Code of Wartime Practices.

IV. Section 210.5-04 [Rule 5-4] is amended:

A. By deleting the period at the end of the first sentence of paragraph (a) (1) thereof and inserting the following:

* * *, Provided, That any such schedule (other than Schedule I) may be omitted if all the following conditions exist:

(i) The financial statements are being filed as part of an annual or other periodic report;

(ii) The information that would be shown in the respective columns of such schedule would reflect no changes as to any issue of securities of the registrant or any significant subsidiary in excess of 5% of the outstanding securities of such issue as shown in the most recently filed annual report containing such schedule; and

(iii) Any information required by columns G and H of Schedule XIII—Capital shares, is shown in the related balance sheet or in a footnote thereto.

B. By adding the following new paragraph (d):

§ 210.5-04 What schedules are to be filed. * * *

(d) If the information required by any schedule (including the footnotes thereto) may be shown in the related balance sheet without making such statement unclear or confusing, that procedure may be followed and the schedule omitted.

V. Paragraph (a) (2) of § 210.5-04 [Rule 5-04] is amended by deleting the third sentence thereof.

VI. The text of § 210.5-04 [Rule 5-04] following the caption, Schedule III—Investments in securities of affiliates, is amended by deleting the period at the end thereof and adding the following:

* * *, Provided, That this schedule may be omitted if (1) neither the sum of captions 9 and 10 in the related balance sheet nor the amount of caption 29 in such balance sheet exceeds 5% of total assets (exclusive of intangible assets) as shown by the related balance sheet at either the beginning or end of the period or (2) there have been no changes in the information required to be filed from that last previously reported.

VII. The text of § 210.5-04 [Rule 5-04] following the caption, Schedule IV—Indebtedness of affiliates—Not current, is amended by adding the following sentence at the end thereof:

This schedule may be omitted if (1) neither the sum of captions 9 and 10 in the related balance sheet nor the amount of caption 29 in such balance sheet exceeds 5% of total assets (exclusive of intangible assets) as shown by the related balance sheet at either the beginning or end of the period, or (2) there have been no changes in the information required to be filed from that last previously reported.

VIII. The text of § 210.5-04 [Rule 5-04] following the caption, Schedule V—Property, plant, and equipment, is amended by deleting the period at the end thereof and adding the following:

* * *, Provided, That this schedule may be omitted if the total shown by caption 13 is less than 10% of total assets exclusive of intangible assets as shown by the related balance sheet at both the beginning and end of the period and if neither the additions nor deductions during the period exceeded 10% of total assets (exclusive of intangible assets) as shown by the related balance sheet.

IX The text of § 210.5-04 [Rule 5-04] following the caption, Schedule VI—Reserves for depreciation, depletion, and amortization of property, plant, and equipment, is amended by adding the following sentence at the end thereof:

This schedule may be omitted if Schedule V is omitted.

X. The text of § 210.5-04 [Rule 5-04] following the caption, Schedule X—Indebtedness to affiliates—Not current, is amended by inserting the following at the end thereof:

This schedule may be omitted if (1) neither the sum of captions 9 and 10 in the related balance sheet nor the amount of caption 29 in such balance sheet exceeds 5% of total assets (exclusive of intangible assets) as shown by the related balance sheet at either the beginning or end of the period, or (2) there have been no changes in the information required to be filed from that last previously reported.

XI. The text of § 210.5-04 [Rule 5-04] following the caption, Schedule XVI—Supplementary profit and loss information, is amended by adding the following sentence:

This schedule may also be omitted if the information required by columns B and C and footnotes 4 and 5 thereof is furnished in the profit and loss or income statement or in a footnote thereto.

---

[1] 7 F.R. 499.

[2] Form filed as part of the original document.

XII. The text of § 210.5–04 [Rule 5-04] following the caption Schedule XVII—Income from dividends—Equity in net profit and loss of affiliates, is amended by adding the following statement:

This schedule may be omitted if neither the sum of captions 9 and 10 in the related balance sheet nor the amount of caption 29 in such balance sheet exceeds 5% of total assets (exclusive of intangible assets) as shown by the related balance sheet at either the beginning or end of the period.

XIII. Section 210.12–06 [Rule 12-06]—Property, plant, and equipment, is amended by adding the following sentence to note 3:

If neither the total additions nor the total reductions during the period amount to more than 10% of the closing balance and a statement to that effect is made, Columns B, C, D, and E may be omitted. In such case any information required by notes 4, 5, and 6 shall, however, be given and may be in summarized form.

XIV. Section 210.12–08 [Rule 12-08], Intangible assets, is amended by adding the following sentence to note 3:

If neither the total additions nor the total reductions during the period amount to more than 10% of the closing balance and a statement to that effect is made, Columns B, C, D and E may be omitted by any company other than a public utility company. Any information required by note 4 or 5 shall, however, be given and may be in summarized form.

XV. Section 210.12–14 [Rule 12–14], Capital shares, is amended by deleting the period at the end of the first sentence of footnote 2 thereof, and inserting the following:

* * *, Provided, That when this schedule is filed in support of a consolidated statement, the information required by Columns A to H inclusive need not be given as to any consolidated subsidiary if all of the outstanding shares of each issue of capital shares (other than directors' qualifying shares) of such subsidiary are held by one or more of the persons included in such consolidated statement; if the answer to Columns G and H would be none; and if a footnote indicating such omission is given.

Effective December 22, 1942.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

PART 933—COPPER

[Supplementary Order M–9–b as Amended Dec. 23, 1942]

Section 933.3 Supplementary Order M–9–b as amended is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

§ 933.3 Supplementary Order M–9–b—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this supplementary order:

(1) "Scrap" means all copper or copper-base alloy materials or objects which are the waste or by-product of industrial fabrication, or which have been discarded on account of obsolescence, failure or other reason.

(2) "Copper clad steel scrap" means all copper or copper-base alloy clad or coated steel materials or objects in which the cladding or coating amounts to 3% or more by weight and which are the waste or by-product of industrial fabrication, or which have been discarded on account of obsolescence, failure or other reason.

(3) "Copper" means copper metal which has been refined by any process of electrolysis or fire refining to a grade and in a form suitable for fabrication such as cathodes, wire bars, ingot bars, ingots, cakes, billets, wedge bars or other refined shapes, or copper shot or other forms produced by a refiner.

(4) "Copper-base alloy" means any alloy in the composition of which the percentage of copper metal by weight equals or exceeds 40% of the total weight of the alloy.

(5) "Alloy ingot" means an alloy ingot or other shape for remelting which has been cast primarily from copper-base alloy or scrap.

(6) "Brass mill scrap" means that scrap which is a waste or by-product of industrial fabrication of products of brass mills.

---

[1] 6 F.R. 6825.

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

(7) "Brass mill" means any person who rolls, draws or extrudes castings of copper or copper-base alloys; it does not include a mill which rerolls, redraws or reextrudes products produced from refinery shapes or castings of copper or copper-base alloys.

(8) "Foundry" means any person casting copper or copper-base alloy shapes or forms suitable for ultimate use without rolling, drawing, extruding, or forging. The process of casting includes the removal of gates, risers and sprues, and sand blasting, tumbling or dipping, but does not include any further machining or processing.

(9) "Scrap dealer" means any person regularly engaged in the business of buying and selling scrap.

(10) "Public utilities" means any person furnishing telephone, telegraph or electric light and power services to the public or city, suburban or inter-city electrically operated public carrier transportation.

(b) Delivery or acceptance of scrap, copper clad steel scrap or alloy ingots. Notwithstanding any preference rating, no person shall deliver or accept the delivery of any scrap, copper clad steel scrap or alloy ingots except in accordance with the following directions:

(1) Brass mill scrap shall be delivered only to a scrap dealer or to a brass mill; a scrap dealer who accepts delivery of brass mill scrap shall in turn deliver such scrap only to a brass mill or another scrap dealer.

(2) No. 1 or No. 2 copper scrap shall be delivered only to a scrap dealer, or to a person specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations to receive deliveries of such quantities of No. 1 or No. 2 copper scrap.

(3) After January 1, 1943, copper clad steel scrap and unreloadable fired artillery cases, cartridge cases or bullet jackets, which have been manufactured from copper, copper-base alloys or copper clad steel, in excess of ten pounds shall be delivered only to persons specifically authorized or directed by the Director General for Operations to receive such deliveries.

(4) Scrap other than that specified in paragraphs (b) (1) through (3) above shall be delivered only to a scrap dealer, or to a person specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations to receive deliveries of such quantities of scrap.

(5) Alloy ingots shall be delivered only to a person specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations to receive deliveries of such quantities of alloy ingots.

(6) No person shall accept delivery of alloy ingots, copper clad steel scrap or unreloadable fired artillery cases, cartridge cases or bullet jackets, which have been manufactured from copper, copper-base alloys or copper clad steel, in excess of ten (10) pounds, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(7) A person other than a brass mill or dealer shall accept a delivery of scrap, other than that specified in paragraph (b) (6) above, only pursuant to a specific authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(8) A brass mill shall accept no delivery of scrap other than brass mill scrap without the specific authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(9) A scrap dealer shall accept delivery of scrap only if:

(i) Such scrap is not of a kind or grade specified in paragraph (b) (6) above, and

(ii) Such scrap dealer shall during the preceding 60 days, have sold or otherwise disposed of scrap to an amount at least equal in weight to the scrap inventory of such scrap dealer on the date of acceptance of delivery of scrap (which inventory shall exclude such delivery), and

(iii) Such scrap dealer shall have filed with the Bureau of Mines, College Park, Maryland, by the 10th of each month, Form PD–249, and

(iv) Such scrap dealer shall have supplied such other information as the Director General for Operations may from time to time require.

(c) Melting or processing of scrap, copper clad steel scrap or alloy ingots. (1) No person other than a brass mill shall melt or process scrap, copper clad steel scrap or alloy ingots, without the specific authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(2) No brass mill shall melt or process any scrap other than brass mill scrap, without the specific authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(3) Any person accepting a delivery of scrap, copper clad steel scrap or alloy ingots shall use such scrap, copper clad steel scrap or alloy ingots only for the purposes for which acceptance of such delivery is authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(d) Delivery to or acceptance of copper by foundries and makers of alloy ingots. Notwithstanding any preference rating, no person shall deliver any copper to a foundry or to a maker of alloy ingots, and no foundry or maker of alloy ingots shall accept any such delivery, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(e) Authorization—(1) Basis of authorization. Authorization to receive deliveries of, melt or process copper, scrap, copper clad steel scrap, or alloy ingots will be given by the Director General for Operations to assure the satisfaction of the most essential war requirements.

(2) Application for authorization. (i) Any person desiring to obtain an authorization, pursuant to this order, to accept the delivery of, melt or process copper, alloy ingot, scrap or more than ten (10) pounds of unreloadable fired artillery cases, cartridge cases or bullet jackets which have been manufactured from copper or copper base alloys, should make application on Form PD–59, Copper Division, War Production Board, by the 5th of each month.

(ii) Any person applying for an authorization to accept delivery of copper clad steel scrap or more than ten (10) pounds of unreloadable fired artillery cases, cartridge cases or bullet jackets which have been manufactured from copper clad steel must furnish the Director General for Operations with a letter setting forth the kind and grade of material, the tonnage, the period during which deliveries must be received, and the end use into which products produced out of such material will go.

(3) Proof of authorization—(i) Refined copper. Any foundry or ingot maker authorized to purchase specified amounts of refined copper under the terms of an allocation certificate must submit the allocation certificate issued to him to his supplier at the time of placing his order. If the order is placed with a dealer, the allocation certificate must be surrendered to the dealer. If the order is placed with a refiner, the allocation certificate must be endorsed by the refiner, specifying the quantity of refined copper which the refiner will deliver.

(ii) Alloy ingot, scrap or copper clad steel scrap. Any person authorized to purchase specified amounts of alloy ingot, scrap or copper clad steel scrap may notify his supplier of his right to make a purchase by endorsing on, or attaching to, each contract or purchase order placed by him under the terms of the authorization, a certification in the following form signed by an official duly authorized for such purpose:

Certification: The undersigned purchaser hereby represents to the seller and to the War Production Board that he is entitled to purchase the items shown on this purchase order pursuant to Allocation Certificate, Serial No. ——— for the month of ——— ——— and that receipt of these items, together with all other orders placed by him, will not result in his receiving more alloy ingot, scrap or copper clad steel scrap, than he has been authorized to receive for the month indicated by such purchase order pursuant to said Allocation Certificate.

Name of purchaser	Address
Signature and title of duly authorized official	Date

The person receiving the certification shall be entitled to rely on such certification unless he knows or has reason to believe it to be false. Each person supporting a purchase order by such a certification must maintain at his regular place of business all documents, including purchase orders and preference rating orders and certificates, upon which he relies as entitling him to make such purchases, segregated and available for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board, or filed in such manner that they can be readily segregated and made available for such inspection.

(f) Disposal of scrap or copper clad steel scrap, generated through fabrication or accumulated through obsolescence. No person shall use, melt, or dispose of any scrap or copper clad steel scrap generated in his plant through fabrication or accumulated in his operations through obsolescence, in any way other than by sale or delivery to a person authorized to accept such delivery, without the specific authorization of the Director General for Operations. In no event shall any person keep on hand more than thirty days' accumulation of scrap or copper clad steel scrap unless such accumulation aggregates less than one ton. All persons generating scrap or copper clad steel scrap through fabrication or accumulating scrap or copper clad steel scrap through obsolescence, in excess of five hundred pounds in any calendar month, shall report on Form PD–226 on or before the 5th day of the following month, to the War Production Board, Ref: M–9–b, setting forth inventory of scrap and copper clad steel scrap at the beginning of the previous calendar month, accumulations and sales during such month, inventory at the end of such month and such other information as the Director General for Operations may request from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall prohibit any public utility from using in its own operations wire or cable which has become scrap by obsolescence provided the lengths of such wire or cable are in excess of five feet and the quantity of such material so used by such public utility in any calendar month does not exceed five tons or such other amount as the Director General for Operations may specifically authorize.

(g) Toll agreement. No person shall deliver scrap, copper clad steel scrap or alloy ingots and no person shall accept same for converting, remelting or other processing under any existing or future toll agreement, conversion agreement or other form of agreement by which title remains vested in the person delivering the scrap, copper clad steel scrap or alloy ingots or causing the scrap, copper clad steel scrap or alloy ingots to be delivered, or which agreement is contingent upon return of processed material in any quantities, equivalent or otherwise, to the person delivering or causing the scrap, copper clad steel scrap or alloy ingots to be delivered, unless and until such an agreement shall have been approved by the Director General for Operations. Any person desiring to have such an agreement approved must furnish the War Production Board a letter setting forth the names of the parties to such agreement, the material involved as to kind and grade, the form of same, the estimated tonnage involved, the estimated rate of delivery, the length of time such agreement or other similar agreement has been in force, the duration of the agreement, the purpose for which the processed material is to be used, and any other pertinent data that would justify such approval.

(h) Restriction on acceptance of copper-base alloys or castings, including alloy ingots, made therefrom. No person shall knowingly accept delivery of copper-base alloys or castings, including alloy ingots, made therefrom, which have been obtained by melting and processing scrap or copper clad steel scrap delivered to a melter or processor contrary to the provisions of this order.

(i) Specific directions. The Director General for Operations may from time to time issue specific directions to any person as to the source, destination, amount, or grade of scrap, copper clad steel scrap or alloy ingots to be delivered, acquired or used by such person.

(j) Reports. In addition to the reports specified in this order, each ingot maker shall file by the 5th of each month, Form PD–751, Ingot Makers Report of Copper Base Alloy Ingot and each foundry shall file by the 5th of each month, Form PD–59–B, Copper Foundries: Monthly Report of Copper Base Alloy Ingot Inventory.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who wilfully furnishes false information to the Director General for Operations in connection with this order is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(l) Addressing of communications. All applications, statements, or other communications filed pursuant to this order or concerning the subject matter hereof, should be addressed Copper Division, War Production Board, Ref: M–9–b, Washington, D. C.

USED COTTON BALE TIES

§ 965.5 Supplementary Order M–24–d. Pursuant to the provisions of General Preference Order M–24, It is hereby ordered:

(a) Additional definition. "Used cotton bale ties" means strip steel ties which have been used to bale cotton.

(b) Restrictions on deliveries. No cotton spinner, cotton ginner, cotton linter processor, or cotton compressor shall deliver any used cotton bale ties over two feet in length, and in suitable condition for re-use or reworking for re-use as cotton bale ties, from any plant located in any of the states listed in Schedule A, except for re-use in baling cotton, cotton waste, cotton textiles, or cotton linters, or to or for the account of a person engaged in reworking such bale ties for such re-use.

(c) Effective date. This order shall become effective on January 1, 1943.

Part 1114—Tire Retreading, Recapping and Repair Equipment

[General Limitation Order L–61, as Amended December 23, 1942]

Whereas the shortage of crude rubber for military requirements and essential civilian uses has created an abnormal demand for retreading and recapping equipment for rubber tires; and

Whereas the supply of existing retreading and recapping equipment, if supplemented by careful selection of locations for small quantities of additional equipment, is adequate to satisfy the demand for retreading and recapping of rubber tires; and

Whereas the production for delivery of retreading and recapping equipment, if unregulated, will duplicate existing facilities and thus utilize quantities of scarce and critical materials as to which defense requirements have created a shortage for defense, private account and export, and it is necessary, in the public interest and to promote defense of the United States, to take the measures hereinafter set forth, and to regulate the production and delivery of retreading and recapping equipment.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1114.1 General Limitation Order L–61—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Retreading, recapping and repair equipment" means any mechanical device used in connection with applying uncured rubber (in the form of camelback, patching rubber or otherwise) to rubber casings or inner tubes for the purpose of renewing or repairing a rubber casing or inner tube. The term includes, but is not limited to, full circle molds, full circle matrices, holders, tables, steam chambers, kettle curing devices, curing rings, curing bands, pressure plates, spacer rings, curing rims, sectional molds, sectional matrices, tire and tube repair and spot equipment, tire spreaders, tire buffers, mechanical stitchers, mechanical rollers, and regroovers. It does not include, however, small tools, such as knives, hand rollers, hand stitchers, jacks, shears, and other miscellaneous shop tools and supplies.

(b) Restrictions on manufacture and distribution. No person shall produce any new retreading, recapping and repair equipment, or parts therefor, and no person shall sell, lease, rent, deliver or otherwise transfer, or purchase, accept or otherwise acquire, any new or used retreading, recapping or repair equipment, or parts therefor; except (i) under purchase orders rated A–9 or higher on a preference rating certificate PD–1A, PD–1X or PD–200, or forms of the PD–408 series, issued by the Director General for Operations, or (ii) pursuant to written or telegraphic authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(c) Criteria for issuing preference rating certificates. In issuing ratings on preference rating certificates, the Director General for Operations will consider the following factors, to the extent feasible, among others:

(1) The number and capacity of retreading, recapping and repair equipment facilities at present available in the particular locality.

(2) The anticipated need for retreading, recapping and repair equipment in the particular locality.

(3) The amount of uncured rubber (in the form of camelback, patching rubber or otherwise) expected to be made available in the particular locality.

(d) Exceptions with respect to small equipment and repair or maintenance of existing equipment. The prohibitions of paragraph (b) hereof shall not apply to the manufacture, sale, lease, loan, renting, delivery, transfer, purchase, acceptance or acquisition of:

(i) Any item of tube repair or spot equipment having a retail value of $100 or less, or any tire spreader having a retail value of $25 or less; provided that no person shall, for the purpose of qualifying under this exception, divide a single order, or place separate orders when in the usual course of business he would have placed a single order.

(ii) Parts to be used to repair or maintain existing retreading, recapping or repair equipment or to repair or maintain equipment delivered in accordance with the provisions of this General Limitation Order No. L–61.

(e) Production requirements plan. Pursuant to paragraph (c) of Priorities Regulation No. 11, any person manufacturing retreading, recapping, or repair equipment, who desires priorities assistance in procuring materials to be used in such manufacture, is hereby required, unless exempted by the Director General for Operations, to file a PRP application, to qualify as a PRP unit, and to operate under the Production Requirements Plan after January 1, 1943.

(f) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time, except that notwithstanding the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 3, any person applying or extending a preference rating for retreading, recapping, or repair equipment shall certify on his purchase order or contract whether the preference rating is one assigned by a preference rating certificate PD–1A or PD–1X, or by a form of the PD–408 series, issued by the Director General for Operations.

(g) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref: L–61.

(h) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the Director General for Operations, Washington, D. C., Ref: L–61, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Records. Each manufacturer or distributor of new retreading, recapping and repair equipment affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventory, production and sales of such equipment.

(k) Reports. Each person affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board, such reports and answers to questionnaires as the Board shall from time to time request.

Issued this 23d day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,

Part 3031—Wall Paper

[General Limitation Order L–177 as Amended Dec. 23, 1942]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply for defense, for private account and for export, of paper, inks, chemicals and other material and facilities used in the manufacture and distribution of wall paper and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3031.1 General Limitation Order L–177—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order (and any schedule pursuant thereto) and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person who manufactures or processes wall paper.

(3) "Wall paper" shall include all paper designed for use as a covering for the ceiling or walls of rooms, which is manufactured or produced by printing on paper or fabric with oil, water, or other coloring materials, and/or by the embossing or pressing of designs on paper.

(4) "Distributor" shall include any person who sells wall paper to any person for resale; and shall further include any person who offers wall paper for sale by means of the distribution of sample books to the ultimate consumer by mail, or otherwise.

(c) Schedule for the simplification and standardization of wall paper. (1) No person shall sell, deliver, purchase or otherwise acquire any base paper stock for the manufacture of wall paper unless the same shall conform to the specifications set forth in Schedule 1 which is made a part of this order.

(2) No person shall process or manufacture any base paper stock into wall paper except in conformity with the specifications set forth in said Schedule 1.

(d) Amendments to schedule. The Director General for Operations from time to time may issue such amendment or amendments to Schedule 1 of this order as he deems necessary.

(e) Reports. Each manufacturer and distributor shall file such reports as may be required from time to time by the Director General for Operations.

(f) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning their manufacture, processing and/or distribution of wall paper.

(g) Appeals. Any person affected by this order or any schedule issued pursuant thereto who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared to the amount of materials conserved or that compliance with this order or such schedule would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may apply for relief by addressing a letter to the War Production Board setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(h) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Printing and Publishing Branch, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–177.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries, or from process or use, of material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 23d day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

SCHEDULE 1 TO GENERAL LIMITATION ORDER L–177[1]

SPECIFICATIONS AND PRACTICES FOR MANUFACTURE OF WALL PAPER

(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) All trade words, phrases and terms used herein shall be construed as commonly understood in the wall paper trade.

(b) General limitations on wall paper manufacture—(1) Patterns. New wall paper patterns (those not previously used in production by any manufacturer) shall be limited to 60% of the total number of patterns employed in the 1941–1942 lines of each manufacturer

(2) Paper limitations. In the manufacture of wall paper for the 1942–43 season (July 1, 1942 to June 30, 1943), no manufacturer shall:

(i) Purchase or otherwise acquire, process, or manufacture base paper stock into wall paper (excepting the period July 1, 1942 to November 13, 1942) during the period November 13, 1942 to January 15, 1943, at any rate of production which will result in a consumption of base paper stock in excess of 64% of the total tonnage of such stock consumed by him in the production of wall paper during the period November 13, 1941 to January 15, 1942; from January 15, 1943 to June 30, 1943 at any rate of production which will result in a consumption of base paper stock in excess of 50% of the total tonnage of such stock consumed by him in the production of wall paper during the period January 15, 1942 to June 30, 1942.

(ii) Exceed the 1941–42 percentage ratio of the usage of ground-wood free paper stock in relation to his total tonnage consumption of paper stock.

(iii) Use paper stock which will exceed 19¼″ in width to trim to 18″.

(iv) Use paper stock in excess of base weight of paper stock theretofore employed by him in the manufacture of his line.

(3) Exception. All paper stock acquired prior to the date of this order, and in the possession of the manufacturer on said date, is specifically excepted from the provisions of subdivisions (ii), (iii) and (iv) of paragraph (b) (2).

(c) Styles sampled. All manufacturers and distributors of wall paper shall reduce the number of styles in their 1942–1943 line or lines of sidewall and ceiling wall paper (including specials) in accordance with the following schedule of percentage reductions:

Number of styles of sidewall and ceiling wall paper samples in the 1941–1942 line or lines (including all specials)		Required percentage reduction of styles to be sampled in the 1942–1943 line or lines (including all specials)
By manufacturers	By distributors
First 400	First 200	10%
Next 200	Next 100	15%
Next 200	Next 100	20%
Next 200	Next 100	25%
All additional	All additional	30%

Provided however, That any manufacturer or distributor who reduced the number of styles of sidewall and ceiling wall paper sampled in his 1941–1942 line or lines (including specials) 25% or more from the number of such styles sampled in his 1940–1941 line or lines, may employ the average number of such styles sampled in his 1940–1941 and 1941–1942 line or lines as the base for computing the permissible number of styles to be sampled in his 1942–1943 line or lines, in accordance with the foregoing schedule of percentage reductions.

(d) Sample books. In his 1942–1943 line or lines, each manufacturer and/or distributor of wall paper may cut up only such total number of rolls of wall paper for the making of sample books, as results from a reduction of the total cut up for his 1941–1942 line or lines by the same percentage of overall reduction of the number of styles required by paragraph (c) hereof. Provided however, That such reduction in the number of rolls of wall paper shall not apply to books of selection, but no more than five (5) copies of any book of selection may be prepared.

Wall paper ground color class	Munsell hue designation	Minimum value permissible	Maximum chroma permissible
Rose red	7.5P-10RP	6	8
Orange red	2.5R-10R	6	8
Yellow	2.5YR-10Y	8	6
Green	2.5G-10BG	7	4
Blue	2.5B-5.0P	5	5

(2) In his 1942–1943 line or lines, each manufacturer may produce only such total number of styles in each classification of colored grounds (set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (e)) as results from a reduction of the total produced in his 1941–1942 line or lines by the same percentage of overall reduction of the number of styles required by paragraph (c) hereof.

(3) Metallic inks. No manufacturer may use any aluminum or bronze powder, paste, ink or leaf in the manufacture of wall paper for his 1942–1943 line or lines, Provided, however, That this provision shall not operate to prevent any person from disposing of inventories of such processed wall paper from his 1941–1942 line or lines.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1398—OFFICE AND STORE MACHINES

[Ration Order 4A]

TYPEWRITERS

Preamble. New and used typewriters have been rationed by the Office of Price Administration since March 12, 1942, under the provisions of Rationing Order No. 4 or Revised Rationing Order No. 4. Under those Orders, persons showing need for typewriters for certain eligible work were authorized to buy typewriters in exchange for Certificates issued by War Price and Rationing Boards. Rentals of used typewriters were freely permitted, until August 29, 1942, when Amendment No. 4 limited the rental of non-portable typewriters made since 1934 to persons eligible to buy them.

However, sales and rentals of non-portable typewriters made since 1934 were frozen by Amendment No. 7 to Revised Rationing Order No. 4, to save these machines for the Army, Navy, and other war agencies. The same amendment froze the sale of non-portables made between 1915 and 1934, inclusive, and of some portables, so as to save these machines for rental by the public.

Members of the trade have in stock about 235,000 non-portable typewriters made between 1915 and 1934, inclusive, fully a third of them made prior to 1928. The needs of the public must be met principally from this stock. As against this supply, there has been a normal rental demand for about 150,000 machines. This demand is expected to increase substantially.

To assure a supply of the more recent models of typewriters for work essential to the prosecution of the war it is necessary to ration the rental of these machines. To do so, Ration Order No. 4A is issued to replace Revised Rationing Order No. 4.

Under the new program, typewriters are classified into four classes: A, B, C, and D. These classes are set up by make, model, and serial number. Some Class A, B, and C typewriters are also classed as "Special" typewriters. In general, the classes are as follows:

Class A. Standard makes and models of non-portable typewriters made after 1934 (both new and used), and of new portable typewriters made after June 1941.

Class B. Standard makes and models of non-portable typewriters made between 1928 and 1934, inclusive; also, certain special machines of later manufacture not included in Class A.

Class C. Standard makes and models of non-portable typewriters made between 1915 and 1927, inclusive; also, all portable typewriters, not included in Class A, having two or more of the following features: (1) tilting or folding paper table; (2) self-starter or paragraph key; (3) operator touch adjustment.

Class D. All typewriters not included in Classes A, B, or C.

Special. Class A typewriters which have been rejected for purchase by the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, and other typewriters of Classes A, B, or C which, because of some special type or feature, are usable primarily for special purposes.

In general, Class A, B, and C typewriters may not be sold, and Class A typewriters may not be rented, except to dealers or the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department or for authorized export. Class B typewriters may be rented for a limited period of time on Certificates issued by War Price and Rationing Boards to persons who have need for typewriters for work essential to the prosecution of the war. Class C typewriters may be rented for a limited period of time without certificates. Class D typewriters may be rented or sold without restriction. Special typewriters may be sold or rented in exchange for certificates issued by the Washington Office of the Office of Price Administration.

Eligible persons who, before December 1, 1942, were given written authority to buy or rent typewriters are permitted to acquire them at any time before January 1, 1943. Also, until February 1, 1943 rentals of Class B typewriters may be made without certificates for the balance of such period. Valid rentals in force on the date of this order may be continued until the end of the contract rental period. All rentals of typewriters, except of Class D typewriters, must be subject to recovery upon further order of the Office of Price Administration.

In order that dealers, wholesalers, and manufacturers may get a stock of typewriters, used typewriters and new typewriters released by the War Production Board are permitted to be acquired by them without the surrender of certificates if they keep records and file reports required of them.

Since certificates are not used by dealers for replacement purposes, dealers who receive certificates from customers are required to retain one copy and forward a duplicate, containing a report of the transaction, to the Office of Price Administration as directed on the certificate.

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority vested in the Office of Price Administration and the Price Administrator by Executive Order Nos. 9125 and 9250 issued by the President on April 7, 1942, and October 3, 1942, respectively; by Directive No. 1, Supplementary Directive No. 1D, and Conversion Order No. L–54–a of the War Production Board, issued January 24, 1942, March 5, 1942, and March 17, 1942, respectively, It is hereby ordered that:

SUBPART A—HOW TO GET A TYPEWRITER

(This part contains all one must know to get a typewriter)

ACQUIRING TYPEWRITERS WITH CERTIFICATES

§ 1398.101 Certificate is needed to get a typewriter. A person who wishes to rent a Class B typewriter or acquire a special typewriter must first get a certificate and give it to the person from whom he is to get the typewriter. He may then acquire a typewriter of the class, and by the kind of transaction (rental or purchase), named on the certificate. As explained later, Class C typewriters may be rented and Class D typewriters may be acquired, without certificates. There also are a few other cases where certificates are not required. These cases are explained later. (Some words are used in this order with a special meaning. Examples are "typewriter", "transfer", "acquire", "certificate", and "person". These terms are fully explained in § 1398.149.)

§ 1398.102 Boards issue certificates to rent Class B typewriters. War Price and Rationing Boards may issue certificates to permit persons to rent Class B typewriters. Boards are not concerned with other classes of typewriters. Neither may they issue certificates to permit a person to buy a typewriter. (Class B typewriters are listed in § 1398.150 (b).)

§ 1398.103 National office issues certificates for special typewriters. The Office of Price Administration will issue certificates at its national office in Washington, D. C., to permit a person to acquire a special typewriter. (Special typewriters are described in § 1398.150 (e).)

§ 1398.104 Certificates will not be issued for other typewriters. Certificates will not be issued to permit a person to acquire a typewriter except as stated above.

§ 1398.105 Person who needs typewriter for essential work may get a certificate. (a) A person who has need for a typewriter for work essential to the prosecution of the war may get a certificate. (However, this requirement may be waived by the national office as to special typewriters which are usable only by a small class of persons.)

(b) "Need" must be shown. It does not exist if, after getting a typewriter applied for, the applicant will own, possess, or control any serviceable typewriter, reasonably available for the purpose stated in his application, which is not used for business purposes an average of 24 hours or more per week. A typewriter is "serviceable" if it can be made so by reasonable repair.

§ 1398.106 Application made to Board where typewriter will be used. A person desiring to get a certificate to rent a Class B typewriter should apply to the Board serving the area where the typewriter will be used. The Office of Price Administration will announce when forms are available at Boards. Application may be made after that date. (Application by a government may be made to any Board within the area served by the government.)

§ 1398.107 Application made on form R–401 (Revised). (a) Application to a Board should be made on OPA Form R–401 (Revised). The form must be filled out in full, giving all the information required, and signed as directed on the form.

(b) Application for a special typewriter may be made to the national office of the Office of Price Administration by letter, signed by the applicant or his agent. The application should describe the particular typewriter desired and should give full information as to the applicant's need for it.

§ 1398.108 Appearance by applicant not usually required. An applicant may present his application in person, by mail, or by an agent. However, he may be required to furnish more information or proof in person, by witnesses, or in some other way.

§ 1398.109 Contents of certificate. (a) A certificate issued by a Board will contain the name of the applicant, the number of Class B typewriters which may be rented, the length of the period for which they may be rented, and other matters required in the certificate form. (b) Certificates to purchase or rent special typewriters, issued by the National Office, will contain other information about the kind of typewriter and the terms of purchase or rental.

§ 1398.110 Rental period may not exceed six months. A certificate will be issued to permit the rental of a typewriter only for the shortest period for which the applicant will need it. The period may not be longer than six months.

§ 1398.111 Invalid certificates. (a) A certificate is not valid if it has erasures or changes in any part required to be completed by the issuing office or which for any reason fails to show any essential provision.

(b) A certificate may be used only within 30 days from the date it was issued.

§ 1398.112 Purchase permitted on certificate issued under former order. (a) A person may keep a typewriter on rental, or before January 1, 1943 may acquire a typewriter, for the purchase or rental of which a certificate or authorization had been issued to him under Revised Rationing Order No. 4 prior to December 1, 1942 if he was then eligible for the typewriter. A rental agreement permitted by this paragraph may be renewed from time to time, without further approval, but is subject to the recovery provision of § 1398.127 (a).

(b) Any person to whom the National Office of the Office of Price Administration issued an authorization to buy a special typewriter, under the terms of Revised Rationing Order No. 4, may buy the typewriter within 30 days from the date of the authorization.

ACQUIRING TYPEWRITERS WITHOUT CERTIFICATE

§ 1398.114 Certificate-free rental of Class B typewriters permitted until February 1, 1943. During the period to February 1, 1943, a Class B typewriter may be rented by, and to, any person for the balance of that period, without the surrender of a certificate. (The terms of the rental agreement are governed by § 1398.127.)

§ 1398.115 Class C typewriters may be rented without certificate. A Class C typewriter may be rented by, and to, any person, without the surrender of a certificate. (The length of the rental period, and the terms of the rental are governed by §§ 1398.126 and 1398.127.)

§ 1398.116 Class D typewriters not restricted. Any Class D typewriter may be transferred or acquired by any person, without restriction.

§ 1398.117 Typewriters may be used by employees and others. Any person who owns a typewriter for use may permit his employees or other persons to use it when there is no change of title or interest in the typewriter if no charge is made or received. A certificate need not be given up in such a case.

§ 1398.118 Typewriter may be acquired from person owning only one typewriter. Any person may acquire a Class B or C typewriter for business purposes from a person owning only one typewriter. A certificate need not be given up in such case. However, a person who regularly deals in or repairs typewriters is not permitted to transfer typewriters under this section.

§ 1398.119 Typewriter may be acquired as part of assets of business. Any person who buys or otherwise acquires all or substantially all of the assets of any store, business, plant, or other enterprise, including the good will, may acquire any typewriters included among the assets, without giving up a certificate.

§ 1398.120 Rental of Class B typewriters for Civil Service examinations permitted. A Class B typewriter may be rented by, and to, any person for a period not to exceed three days for use in taking a Civil Service examination involving typing ability. A certificate need not be given up in this case.

§ 1398.121 Used typewriters may be acquired for export. Any person may acquire a used typewriter for export to a foreign country upon approval of the Board of Economic Warfare, within a quota assigned to it. No other approval is required. (The export of new typewriters is not subject to this order, as explained later.)

§ 1398.122 Typewriters may be imported. Any person may import into the United States or its Territories or Possessions a typewriter owned by him. For this purpose he may transfer it to, or acquire it from, the United States Collector of Customs, or his deputy, without the surrender of a certificate.

SUBPART B—HOW THIS ORDER AFFECTS THE TRADE

(This part should be read by anyone who sells, rents, or deals in typewriters)

§ 1398.124 Members of trade may acquire typewriters. Any person may transfer a typewriter to a dealer, wholesaler, or manufacturer, who may acquire it for a permissible transfer or for repair, without giving up a certificate.

§ 1398.125 Transfer on invalid certificates not permitted. No person may transfer a typewriter for a certificate which is invalid or which he knows, or has reason to believe, was acquired in violation of this order.

§ 1398.126 Rental period is limited. (a) A rental of a typewriter for which a certificate is given up may be made for the period stated on the certificate, but not longer.

(b) A rental of a Class A, B, or C typewriter made without the surrender of a certificate, when permitted by this order, may not be made for a period longer than six months and may be renewed or re-renewed only at the end of a rental period for an additional period of not to exceed six months.

§ 1398.127 Rental must be subject to certain conditions—(a) Recovery. Regardless of any agreement, whenever made, the rental or loan of a Class A, B, or C typewriter shall be revoked if the Office of Price Administration issues an order requiring its return.

(b) Advance payment of rentals. No person may charge or receive any rental fee in advance for a period longer than the rental period permitted by this order.

(c) Deposits. No person may charge or receive a deposit to secure the return of a typewriter in an amount which, plus any advance rental paid, is more than the maximum price for a sale of the typewriter at wholesale permitted by maximum price regulations of the Office of Price Administration.

(d) Rental credit provisions. No agreement for the rental of a Class A, B, or C typewriter may contain an option to buy the same or another typewriter, or to credit rentals, deposits, or other sums paid toward its purchase price. However, if a person should be permitted to buy a typewriter under this order, the seller may give him credit for rent paid by him for that or any other typewriter.

§ 1398.128 Discrimination not permitted. No dealer, wholesaler, or manufacturer shall discriminate, in renting Class B typewriters, among persons who have been issued certificates to permit them to rent typewriters.[1]

§ 1398.129 Rented typewriter may be returned. A person who has rented a typewriter to another may get it back without giving up a certificate.

§ 1398.130 Transfer for repair and repair loans permitted. Any person regularly engaged in the business of repairing typewriters may acquire a typewriter for repair and may return it without the surrender of a certificate. Also, without getting a certificate, he may loan a Class B typewriter for not more than 30 days to a person whose Class A or B typewriter he is repairing.

§ 1398.131 Transfer of new typewriters by manufacturers. This order does not apply to the transfer of a new typewriter by a manufacturer unless it has been released to the Office of Price Administration by the War Production Board for rationing.

§ 1398.132 Records must be kept. For the information of the Office of Price Administration, every dealer, wholesaler, and manufacturer shall keep, for not less than two years, accurate and complete records of his supply, sales, rentals, and purchases of typewriters. He shall also keep all copies of forms which are or have been required to be kept by him by this order or by Revised Rationing Order No. 4. All records shall be made available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1398.133 Reports must be made. Persons affected by this order shall make such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require.

§ 1398.134 Report must be filed for new business. After the effective date of this order, every person desiring to become a dealer or wholesaler or to acquire the assets of a typewriter dealer or wholesaler as permitted by § 1398.119, shall first file a statement with the Board which will have jurisdiction over his place of business. A separate statement shall be filed for each place of business, stating: (1) the name under which the business will be conducted; (2) the name of the owner and, if a corporation or association, the names of the principal officers; (3) a list of all typewriters on hand; and (4) the time when and the person from whom each typewriter was acquired.

§ 1398.135 Information about transfer must be entered on certificate. Every person transferring a typewriter for a certificate must enter on the certificate the date of the transfer, the typewriter's make, model, and serial number and in the case of a rental the expiration date, together with any other information the certificate form requires. He shall send one part of the certificate to the Office of Price Administration as directed on the certificate and shall keep the other.

SUBPART C—GENERAL PROVISIONS

(This part should be referred to when special problems arise)

OTHER TRANSFERS PERMITTED

§ 1398.137 Transfers between government agencies permitted. Any agency or department of a government may acquire a used typewriter from any other department or agency of such government, without giving up a certificate. As to departments and agencies of the United States, however, this provision is subject to orders of the Bureau of the Budget.

§ 1398.138 Procurement Division of Treasury Department may acquire used typewriters. The Procurement Division of the Treasury Department and any authorized agent may acquire used typewriters without giving up a certificate.

§ 1398.139 Transfer of new typewriters for export or to Government agency exempt. (a) This order does not apply to the acquisition of new typewriters by any agency of the United States or by any person for export to a foreign country. These cases are governed by the War Production Board.

(b) The term "agency of the United States" does not include: (1) privately operated plants or facilities financed or controlled by the Army, Navy, Defense Plant Corporation, or by any other agency of the United States; (2) plants or facilities operated on a cost-plus-fixed-fee basis.

§ 1398.140 Transfers to carriers and warehouses permitted. A typewriter may be transferred to or from a carrier in the course of its shipment and to or from a public warehouse in connection with its storage, without the surrender of a certificate.

§ 1398.141 Transfer by operation of law, or for security permitted. (a) A typewriter may be acquired by, or a lien created thereon in favor of, the following persons and in the following cases without the surrender of a certificate: (1) Any person pursuant to judicial process or an order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction or by operation of law; (2) A Government or political subdivision or agency thereof in the enforcement or exercise against such typewriter of statutory rights or powers.

(b) A security interest in a typewriter, other than a pledge, may be created in favor of the following persons and in the following cases without the surrender of a certificate: (1) a Government or political subdivision or agency thereof; (2) any person duly licensed to engage in the business of making loans upon collateral and regulated in conducting such business by a State or the United States or by the government of a Territory or Possession of the United States; (3) any person where the security interest arises or is transferred with respect to all or substantially all the assets of a business enterprise.

(c) A typewriter or any interest therein or lien thereon acquired pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of this section may be returned to the person from whom it was acquired, or may be released, without the surrender of a certificate.

(d) Any person who has acquired a typewriter for security purposes or in whose favor a lien thereon has been created, under the authority of this section, or who holds a lien on or security interest in a typewriter created on or before March 6, 1942 may enforce the security, lien, or other interest in the manner provided by applicable laws. A typewriter so acquired by a person, unless by inheritance, may not be used by him and may be transferred only to a person expressly authorized by this order to buy the typewriter without giving up a certificate.

§ 1398.142 Transfer of damaged, lost, or stolen typewriters permitted—(a) Damaged or stolen typewriters. Damaged or stolen typewriters and undamaged typewriters mingled therewith, and typewriters in imminent danger of being damaged or stolen, may be acquired by the following persons, without the giving up of certificates, for permissible transfer only: (1) Persons lawfully engaging in the insurance business, and common or contract carriers in connection with the right of subrogation, or by virtue of the payment by them of any claim for damage to the typewriters; (2) persons performing public fire or safety functions, warehousemen, or persons engaged principally and primarily in the business of adjusting losses and selling, or reconditioning and selling, damaged commodities, who take possession of or receive them on the occurrence or imminence of casualties.

[1] Evidence of Discrimination. The refusal of a dealer, wholesaler, or manufacturer to rent a Class B typewriter to a person who offers to surrender a valid certificate permitting him to rent a typewriter of that Class, to pay in cash the maximum rental fee and deposit which may be charged, and to transport the typewriter will be prima facie evidence of discrimination if the dealer, wholesaler, or manufacturer then owns and has in his possession a Class B typewriter which is not the subject of a valid agreement to sell or rent.

(b) Subsequent transfer. Transfer of the typewriters by any person included in paragraph (a) of this section may be made only to: (1) another person so included; (2) the person from whose custody the typewriter was taken; or (3) a dealer, wholesaler, or manufacturer.

(c) Return of lost or stolen typewriter. A lost or stolen typewriter may be returned, without the surrender of a certificate, to the owner or the person rightfully in possession of it at the time of the loss or theft.

PROHIBITED ACTS RELATING TO TYPEWRITERS AND CERTIFICATES

§ 1398.144 Transfer of typewriters prohibited. (a) No person shall transfer or acquire a typewriter (or offer to do so) except in accordance with this order.

(b) No person who rents (or has rented) a typewriter may keep it after the end of the rental period except as authorized by this order.

(c) No person may keep a typewriter acquired by him in violation of this order or of Revised Rationing Order No. 4. He must return the typewriter to the person entitled to it or sell it to someone permitted to buy it under this Order, other than by § 1398.118

§ 1398.145 Certificates generally not transferable. No person shall use, possess, or transfer any Certificate except as permitted in this order.

JURISDICTION OF BOARDS

§ 1398.146 Jurisdiction of Boards with respect to trade. For the purposes of this order, each War Price and Rationing Board shall have jurisdiction over: (a) each place of business of a dealer or wholesaler located in the area served by the Board; and (b) each manufacturer (including all branches, outlets, and sales agencies of the manufacturer) whose principal business office is located within the area served by the Board.

APPEALS AND SUSPENSION ORDERS

§ 1398.147 Persons may appeal. Any person directly affected by the action of a Board, State Director, or Regional Administrator taken with respect to any matter before him under this Order may appeal from such action pursuant to Procedural Regulation No. 9.[2]

§ 1398.148 Violators may lose right to rationed products. Any person who violates this order may, by administrative suspension order, be prohibited from acquiring or transferring any typewriters or other rationed product for such period as in the judgment of the Administrator is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and to promote national security.

DEFINITIONS AND CLASSES OF TYPEWRITERS

§ 1398.149 Terms explained. (a) When used in this order the term—

(1) "Acquire" means to accept a transfer.

(2) "Board" means a War Price and Rationing Board. If the context so indicates, the term refers to the specific War Price and Rationing Board having jurisdiction.

(3) "Certificate" means an evidence of authority to acquire a typewriter, issued under the authority of this order on OPA Form No. R–403 (Revised) or other form provided by the Office of Price Administration. When described as being issued under Revised Rationing Order No. 4, it refers to such an evidence issued on OPA Form No. R–403.

(4) "Convert to use" means to use a typewriter previously held for some purpose other than use, whether or not there is a change of ownership or possession.

(5) "Dealer" means any person, other than a manufacturer, regularly engaged in the business of selling or renting typewriters to ultimate users.

(6) "Manufacturer" means a person who, at any time on or after March 6, 1942, has operated a plant to build or assemble new typewriters.

(7) "New," as applied to a typewriter, means any typewriter which has never been delivered to any person who has acquired it for use. The term does not include repaired, rebuilt, or reconditioned typewriters

(8) "Non-portable typewriter" means any typewriter other than a portable typewriter.

(9) "Person" includes an individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, and any other government or any political subdivision or agency thereof.

(10) "Portable typewriter" means any typewriter weighing less than 25 pounds.

(11) "Rental" includes lease, license, loan, or other hiring, with or without consideration.

(12) "Transfer" means convert to use, sell, lease, lend, trade, exchange, give, ship, deliver, physically transfer to another in any manner, or make any transaction involving a change in possession, right, title, or interest; when used as a noun the term means a conversion to use, sale, lease, loan, trade, gift, exchange, shipment, delivery, physical transfer to another in any manner, and any transaction involving a change in right, title, interest or possession.

(13) "Typewriter", unless expressly otherwise stated, includes non-portable typewriters (including noiseless and electric types) and portable typewriters. The terms does not include: continuous forms handling machines having carbon paper handling devices constructed as an integral part of the machine; shorthand writing machines; metal stencil or addressograph-plate cutting machines; telegraphically controlled typewriters; Braille typewriters; toy typewriters; linotype machines; or monotype machines.

(14) "Used", as applied to a typewriter, means any typewriter which at any time has been delivered to a person acquiring it for use.

(15) "Wholesaler" means any person, other than a manufacturer, regularly engaged in the business of selling typewriters to manufacturers, to other wholesalers, or to dealers.

(b) Words of the masculine gender shall also denote the feminine and neuter genders; words of the singular shall also denote the plural; and vice versa.

§ 1398.150 Typewriters are classed as A, B, C, D, and Special. For the purposes of this order, typewriters are classified as follows:

(a) Class A. All the following typewriters, except such typewriters as are equipped with type other than 10 or 12 pitch (letters to the inch), pica, or elite, or with special inbuilt features or attachments (other than 5, 6, or 10 key decimal tabulator mechanism) if such type or special feature or attachment was installed prior to March 6, 1942: (1) New or used nonportable typewriters of the following makes, models, and serial numbers: (In general, the typewriters of the serial numbers listed were manufactured on or after January 1, 1935.)

KRAFT WRAPPING PAPERS AND CERTAIN BAG PAPERS AND CERTAIN BAGS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* § 1347.306 is amended to read as set forth below:

§ 1347.306 Export Sales; sales for export. (a) As used in this section, the term:

(1) "Export sale" means any "export" or "export sale" as defined in § 1375.8, paragraph (a) (1) of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[2]

(2) "Sale for export" means any domestic sale prior to an "export sale", where the product is marked so as to indicate that it is to be exported and is intended for the export trade, or where the sale is made to a merchant or exporter who intends to export the product.

(3) "Normal port of export" means that port of exit in the continental United States from which a product manufactured by a particular mill would have customarily been shipped in export to a particular destination during the period July 1 to December 31, 1941, or a port to which a manufacturer customarily made deliveries for export during such period.

(4) "Emergency port" means the port of exit from which the product is actually shipped in export when the "normal port of export" is not available.

(b) The maximum price at which any person may make an export sale of the products covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 182 shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration on July 2, 1942, and any amendments thereto.

(c) The maximum at which any person may make a sale for export of the products covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 182 shall be not in excess of the sum of the following items:

(1) The manufacturer's maximum domestic price at the normal port of export of the mill at which the products were made; plus

(2) If and only if the products are to be exported from an emergency port, the amount of the extra freight involved in shipping to the emergency port, over and above the freight to the normal port.

[Order 140 Under § 1499.18 (b) of GMPR]

PANT-EASE INFANT WEAR CO.

Order No. 140 under § 1499.18 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation—Docket No. GF3-1548.

For the reasons set forth in the opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1041 Adjustment of maximum prices for knitted diapers manufactured by William G. McNair and Louise R. McNair, doing business under the assumed name of "Pant-ease Infant Wear Company". (a) William G. McNair and Louise R. McNair, doing business as "Pant-ease Infant Wear Company" of Arcade, New York, may sell and deliver and any person may buy and receive from the "Pant-ease Infant Wear Company" the following commodities at prices not higher than those set forth below:

Description:	Price per dozen
Small-medium knitted diaper	$1.40
Large knitted diaper	1.60

(b) The maximum prices set forth in paragraph (a) are subject to the following conditions:

(1) All discounts, trade practices and all practices relating to shipping and shipping charges in effect in March 1942, shall be applicable to such maximum prices.

(2) The garments shall be manufactured to the same standards of quality as were in effect in March, 1942.

(3) The "Pant-ease Infant Wear Company" shall mail to all wholesalers and retailers to whom said company shall sell these diapers, a notice reading as follows:

> The Office of Price Administration has permitted us to raise our maximum price for [illegible] $1.40 for the small-medium sizes and from $1.55 to $1.60 for the large sizes. This amount or contract carriers in connection with the right of subrogation, or by virtue of the payment by them of any claim for damage to the typewriters; (2) persons performing public fire or safety functions, warehousemen, or persons engaged principally and primarily in the business of adjusting losses and selling, or reconditioning and selling, damaged commodities, who take possession of or receive them on the occurrence or imminence of casualties.

(b) Subsequent transfer. Transfer of the typewriters by any person included in paragraph (a) of this section may be made only to: (1) another person so included; (2) the person from whose custody the typewriter was taken; or (3) a dealer, wholesaler, or manufacturer.

(c) Return of lost or stolen typewriter. A lost or stolen typewriter may be returned, without the surrender of a certificate, to the owner or the person rightfully in possession of it at the time of the loss or theft.

PROHIBITED ACTS RELATING TO TYPEWRITERS AND CERTIFICATES

§ 1398.144 Transfer of typewriters prohibited. (a) No person shall transfer or acquire a typewriter (or offer to do so) except in accordance with this order.

(b) No person who rents (or has rented) a typewriter may keep it after the end of the rental period except as authorized by this order.

(c) No person may keep a typewriter acquired by him in violation of this order or of Revised Rationing Order No. 4. He must return the typewriter to the person entitled to it or sell it to someone permitted to buy it under this Order, other than by § 1398.118

§ 1398.145 Certificates generally not transferable. No person shall use, possess, or transfer any Certificate except as permitted in this order.

JURISDICTION OF BOARDS

§ 1398.146 Jurisdiction of Boards with respect to trade. For the purposes of this order, each War Price and Rationing Board shall have jurisdiction over: (a) each place of business of a dealer or wholesaler located in the area served by the Board; and (b) each manufacturer (including all branches, outlets, and sales agencies of the manufacturer) whose principal business office is located within the area served by the Board.

APPEALS AND SUSPENSION ORDERS

§ 1398.147 Persons may appeal. Any person directly affected by the action of a Board, State Director, or Regional Administrator taken with respect to any matter before him under this Order may appeal from such action pursuant to Procedural Regulation No. 9.[2]

§ 1398.148 Violators may lose right to rationed products. Any person who violates this order may, by administrative suspension order, be prohibited from acquiring or transferring any typewriters or other rationed product for such period as in the judgment of the Administrator is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and to promote national security.

DEFINITIONS AND CLASSES OF TYPEWRITERS

§ 1398.149 Terms explained. (a) When used in this order the term—

(1) "Acquire" means to accept a transfer.

(2) "Board" means a War Price and Rationing Board. If the context so indicates, the term refers to the specific War Price and Rationing Board having jurisdiction.

(3) "Certificate" means an evidence of authority to acquire a typewriter, issued under the authority of this order on OPA Form No. R–403 (Revised) or other form provided by the Office of Price Administration. When described as being issued under Revised Rationing Order No. 4, it refers to such an evidence issued on OPA Form No. R–403.

(4) "Convert to use" means to use a typewriter previously held for some purpose other than use, whether or not there is a change of ownership or possession.

(5) "Dealer" means any person, other than a manufacturer, regularly engaged in the business of selling or renting typewriters to ultimate users.

(6) "Manufacturer" means a person who, at any time on or after March 6, 1942, has operated a plant to build or assemble new typewriters.

(7) "New," as applied to a typewriter, means any typewriter which has never been delivered to any person who has acquired it for use. The term does not include repaired, rebuilt, or reconditioned typewriters

(8) "Non-portable typewriter" means any typewriter other than a portable typewriter.

(9) "Person" includes an individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, and any other government or any political subdivision or agency thereof.

(10) "Portable typewriter" means any typewriter weighing less than 25 pounds.

(11) "Rental" includes lease, license, loan, or other hiring, with or without consideration.

(12) "Transfer" means convert to use, sell, lease, lend, trade, exchange, give, ship, deliver, physically transfer to another in any manner, or make any transaction involving a change in possession, right, title, or interest; when used as a noun the term means a conversion to use, sale, lease, loan, trade, gift, exchange, shipment, delivery, physical transfer to another in any manner, and any transaction involving a change in right, title, interest or possession.

(13) "Typewriter", unless expressly otherwise stated, includes non-portable typewriters (including noiseless and electric types) and portable typewriters. The terms does not include: continuous forms handling machines having carbon paper handling devices constructed as an integral part of the machine; shorthand writing machines; metal stencil or addressograph-plate cutting machines; telegraphically controlled typewriters; Braille typewriters; toy typewriters; linotype machines; or monotype machines.

(14) "Used", as applied to a typewriter, means any typewriter which at any time has been delivered to a person acquiring it for use.

(15) "Wholesaler" means any person, other than a manufacturer, regularly engaged in the business of selling typewriters to manufacturers, to other wholesalers, or to dealers.

(b) Words of the masculine gender shall also denote the feminine and neuter genders; words of the singular shall also denote the plural; and vice versa.

[Order 188 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

MOLINE PAINT MFG. CO.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1424 Approval of maximum prices for sales of Renew Sandpaper Cleaner by the Renew Division, Moline Paint Manufacturing Company. (a) The Renew Division, Moline Paint Manufacturing Company, a partnership having its principal place of business in Moline, Illinois, may sell and deliver Renew Sandpaper Cleaner and any person may buy Renew Sandpaper Cleaner at prices no higher than those set forth below, f. o. b. Moline, Illinois:

Size of container:	Per gallon
55 gallons or more	$1.75
30 up to 55 gallons	2.25
10 up to 30 gallons	2.40
5 up to 10 gallons	2.50
Less than 5 gallons	2.75

(b) The maximum prices established in paragraph (a) shall include all charges for containers.

(c) The maximum prices established in paragraph (a) shall be reduced by one per cent for payment by the purchaser by the 10th day of the month following the month of delivery.

(d) This Order No. 188 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) This Order No. 188 (§ 1499.1424) shall become effective December 23, 1942.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

Issued this 22d day of December 1942.

[Order 1 Under § 1499.18 (c), as Amended, of GMPR]

SANTEE HEADING CORP.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith: Is is ordered:

§ 1499.1501 Adjustment of maximum prices for basket bottoms for perishable food containers manufactured and sold by the Santee Heading Corporation. (a) The Santee Heading Corporation, Allendale, South Carolina, may sell and deliver, and any person may buy from that company, basket bottoms for perishable food containers at prices not higher than the following prices per 1,000 bottoms, f. o. b. cars, Allendale, South Carolina:

Diameter of heading:	Maximum price
9/16 x 5½″	$12.60
9/16 x 6½″	13.25
9/16 x 8″	15.25
9/16 x 8½″	15.90
9/16 x 9″	16.55
⅝ x 9″	16.85
9/16 x 10″	20.70

(b) All prayers of the applicant not granted herein are denied.

(c) This Order No. 1 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(d) This Order No. 1 (§ 1499.1501) is hereby incorporated as a section of Supplementary Regulation No. 14, which contains modifications of maximum prices established by § 1499.2.

(e) This Order No. 1 (§ 1499.1501) shall become effective December 23, 1942.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 140 Under § 1499.18 (b) of GMPR]

PANT-EASE INFANT WEAR CO.

Order No. 140 under § 1499.18 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation—Docket No. GF3-1548.

For the reasons set forth in the opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1041 Adjustment of maximum prices for knitted diapers manufactured by William G. McNair and Louise R. McNair, doing business under the assumed name of "Pant-ease Infant Wear Company". (a) William G. McNair and Louise R. McNair, doing business as "Pant-ease Infant Wear Company" of Arcade, New York, may sell and deliver and any person may buy and receive from the "Pant-ease Infant Wear Company" the following commodities at prices not higher than those set forth below:

Description:	Price per dozen
Small-medium knitted diaper	$1.40
Large knitted diaper	1.60

(b) The maximum prices set forth in paragraph (a) are subject to the following conditions:

(1) All discounts, trade practices and all practices relating to shipping and shipping charges in effect in March 1942, shall be applicable to such maximum prices.

(2) The garments shall be manufactured to the same standards of quality as were in effect in March, 1942.

(3) The "Pant-ease Infant Wear Company" shall mail to all wholesalers and retailers to whom said company shall sell these diapers, a notice reading as follows:

> The Office of Price Administration has permitted us to raise our maximum price for sales to you of knitted diapers from $1.35 to $1.40 for the small-medium sizes and from $1.55 to $1.60 for the large sizes. This amount represents only that part of cost increases which we were unable to absorb and it was granted with the understanding that wholesale and retail prices would not be raised. The Office of Price Administration has not permitted you or any other seller to raise maximum prices for sales of these knitted diapers.

(c) All prayers of the application not granted herein are denied.

(d) This Order No. 140 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) This Order No. 140 (§ 1499.1041) is hereby incorporated as a section of Supplementary Regulation No. 14 which contains modifications for maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(f) This Order No. 140 shall become effective December 23, 1942.

245.25 Revocation of permit.
245.26 Abandonment of project.
245.27 Action on application.
245.28 Action on approved permit.
245.29 Regulations superseded.

AUTHORITY: §§ 245.1 to 245.29, inclusive, issued under 31 Stat. 790 and 36 Stat. 1253; 43 U.S.C. 959, 961; and R.S. 441, 5 U.S.C. 485.

§ 245.1 Statutory authority. The act of February 15, 1901 (31 Stat. 790; 43 U.S.C. 959), authorizes the Secretary of the Interior, under general regulations to be fixed by him, to permit the use of rights-of-way over and upon public lands and certain reservations of the United States for electrical plants, poles, and lines for the generation and distribution of electrical power, to the extent of the ground occupied by such electrical plants, and not to exceed fifty feet on each side of the marginal limits thereof, or not to exceed fifty feet on each side of the center line of such electrical lines and poles, by any citizen, association, or corporation of the United States, where it is intended by such to exercise the use permitted under said act.

The act of March 4, 1911 (36 Stat. 1253; 43 U.S.C. 961), authorizes the head of the department having jurisdiction over the lands, under such regulations as may be fixed by him to grant an easement for rights-of-way for a period not exceeding fifty years, over and across public lands and reservations of the United States, for electrical poles and lines for the transmission and distribution of electrical power, to the extent of twenty feet on each side of the center line of such electrical lines and poles, to any citizen, association, or corporation of the United States, where it is intended by such to exercise the use permitted under said act.

§ 245.2 Effect of Federal Power Act. The acts of February 15, 1901, and March 4, 1911, with respect to rights-of-way for power purposes over public lands, were repealed and superseded by the Federal Power Act of June 10, 1920 (41 Stat. 1063), as amended by sections 201 to 213 inclusive of the act of August 26, 1935 (49 Stat. 847; 16 U.S.C. 791–825r and Sup.), as to power projects for the generation and transmission of hydro-electric power, defined in section 3 (11) of the act, excepting distribution lines and rights-of-way over allotted Indian lands. All applications for rights-of-way for power plants or transmission lines, other than hydro-electric plants and main or primary hydro-electric power transmission lines should be made under the act of February 15, 1901, or the act of March 4, 1911, and §§ 245.1–245.29 of these regulations. Applications for hydro-electric power plant sites or rights-of-way for main or primary hydro-electric power transmission lines, excepting where the lands affected are allotted Indian lands, must be made to the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D. C., under the act of June 10, 1920, as amended.

§ 245.3 National parks and monuments; effect of Act of March 3, 1921 (41 Stat. 1353). The act of March 3, 1921, provides, inter alia:

> That hereafter no permit, license, lease or authorization for dams, conduits, reservoirs, power houses, transmission lines, or other works for storage or carriage of water, or for the development, transmission or utilization of power within the limits as now constituted of any national park or national monument, shall be granted or made without specific authority of Congress, etc.

§ 245.4 Jurisdiction over land. Section 1 of the act of February 1, 1905 (33 Stat. 628; 16 U.S.C. 472), vested jurisdiction in the Department of Agriculture to pass upon all applications under the act of February 15, 1901, for permission to occupy and use lands in national forests. For the purpose of the act of March 4, 1911, national parks, Indian reservations, grazing districts, wildlife refuges, and reservations for water power sites, irrigation, classification of lands, or other purposes, created under the withdrawal act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 847), are considered to be under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior; military reservations under the jurisdiction of the War Department; and reservations created for the special occupancy, use, or control of other departments under the jurisdiction of such departments, respectively. Therefore, when it is desired to obtain permission to use rights-of-way over lands under the jurisdiction or control of Federal Agencies other than the Interior Department, an application should be prepared in accordance with the regulations issued by such Agency or Department and the same submitted to the proper officer thereof.

§ 245.5 Nature of rights-of-way authorized by statutes. The Act of February 15, 1901, does not make a grant in the nature of an easement, but authorizes permission to use and occupy the land for the purpose permitted only, revocable at any time. The act of March , 1911, authorizes the granting of easements for transmission lines for periods not to exceed 50 years, and follows closely in the accomplishment of its purpose the act of February 15, 1901. Neither of the acts gives any rights whatever to take from the public lands or reservations any material, earth, or stone for construction or other purposes.

§ 245.6 Unsurveyed lands. Permission may be given under the act of February 15, 1901, and the act of March 4, 1911, for rights-of-way over unsurveyed lands as well as surveyed lands.

§ 245.7 Effect of permit. Power permits issued by this Department allow the occupancy and use of Interior Department lands for the construction, maintenance, and operation of works that involve the use of valuable power resources or that involve the development, transmission, or use of power.

§ 245.8 Construction in advance of permit; trespass. Where construction of transmission lines or other project works is desired over and upon Interior Department lands in advance of the approval of a power permit, authority for such construction may in the discretion of the Secretary be granted by him upon a satisfactory showing of the necessity therefor, if found not incompatible with the public or Government interest, provided the applicant agrees to make full and prompt compliance with all requirements of the Department as conditions precedent to the approval of the power permit, and such construction is done at the applicant's own risk. Application for such authority should be filed with the officer of the Interior Department, having supervision of the lands affected, who will transmit the record with appropriate report and recommendation to the Secretary through the Division of Power.

Any occupancy or use of public lands, including reservations, national parks or monuments, without proper authority is trespass.

§ 245.9 Filing of application. All applications for occupancy or use of Interior Department lands for power purposes should be submitted in duplicate on form 1, which is made a part hereof,[1] and filed at the local land office of the land district in which the lands are situated. If the lands are situated in more than one district, the lands in both districts shall be embraced in one set of application papers, which shall be submitted in any one of such districts at the option of the applicant, who shall submit to the local land office in each other districts a print copy of the maps submitted to the local land office of the first district. If there is no local land office, the application should be filed with the Commissioner of the General Land Office, Washington, D. C. (See also, § 245.27.)

An application shall not be completed until every map or paper required by §§ 245.15–245.21 has been filed in the form prescribed.

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

§ 245.10 Priority rights. Priority of consideration of applications for power permits shall be initiated in the order of filing complete applications as prescribed in § 245.9. Priority shall be maintained, however, only in so far as the power projects are within the limits of the project works as shown in the application.

§ 245.11 When permit may be granted. Power permits will be issued or granted only in case it appears that the proposed development will be in general accord with the most beneficial utilization of the resources involved and consistent with the public interest. No power permit will be granted if the works to be constructed thereunder would in any way be incompatible with works operated or constructed or to be constructed by and under authority of the United States.

§ 245.12 Termination of permit. Unless otherwise specified in the permit, and unless sooner revoked by the Department, a power permit shall terminate at the expiration of 50 years from the date thereof. If, however, at any time not less than 2 nor more than 12 years prior to the termination of the permit, the permittee shall formally notify the Commissioner of the General Land Office, that he desires a new permit to occupy and use such lands as are occupied and used under the existing permit, and will comply with all then existing laws and regulations governing the occupancy and use of lands of the United States for power purposes, the existing permit will be considered as an application for such new permit.

§ 245.13 Words and phrases. The following terms, wherever used in §§ 245.1–245.28 of these regulations, shall have the meaning hereby in this section assigned to them, respectively, viz:

"Interior Department lands" means and includes any and all public lands, reservations and patented lands acquired by purchase, donation or otherwise by the United States, under the jurisdiction and control of the Department of the Interior.

"Permit" or "power permit" means any written authorization given by the Secretary for the use of Interior Department lands.

"Municipal purposes" means and includes all purposes within municipal powers as defined by the charter of the municipal corporation itself with the primary object of promoting the security, health, good government, or general convenience of its inhabitants.

"Power business" means the entire business of the applicant or permittee in the generation, distribution, and delivery of power by means of any one power system, together with all works and tangible property involved therein, including freeholds and leaseholds in real property.

"Power system" means all interconnected plants and works for the generation, distribution, and delivery of power.

"Power project" means a complete unit of power development, consisting of a power house, conduit, or conduits conducting water thereto, all storage or diverting or forebay reservoirs used in connection therewith, the transmission line delivering power therefrom, any other miscellaneous structures used in connection with said unit or any part thereof, and all lands the occupancy and use of which are necessary or appropriate in the development of power in said unit.

"Project works" mean the physical structures of a power project.

"Construction of the project works" means the actual construction of dams, water conduits, power houses, transmission lines, or some permanent structure necessary to the operation of the complete power project, and does not include surveys or the building of roads and trails, or the clearing of reservoir sites or other lands to be occupied, or the performance of any work preliminary to the actual construction of the permanent project works.

"Operation period" means the period covered by permit subsequent to the actual beginning of operation.

"Survey-construction period" means the period covered by permit prior to the operation period.

"Nominal stream flow" means the sum of (a) the natural flow available for 90 percent of the time, and (b) the increase in such natural flow for 90 percent of the time due to artificial means other than the project works.

"Project storage flow" means the estimated increase in nominal stream flow made practicable by the project works.

"Available stream flow" means the sum of nominal stream flow and project storage flow.

"Load factor" means the ratio of average power output to maximum power output.

"Total capacity of the power site" means the power estimated to be available for transmission, and is determined as the continued product of (1) the factor 0.08;[2] (2) the average gross head, in feet; (3) the available stream flow at the intake (in second-feet and in amount not to exceed the maximum hydraulic capacity of the project works); and (4) a factor, not less than the average load factor of the power system, representing the degree of practicable utilization of the available stream flow, and based on the extent of practicable fore-bay storage and the load factor of the power system.

"Net capacity of the power site" means the capacity on which the calculation of the compensation hereinafter required to be paid is based, and is determined by making a deduction from the total capacity of the power site which, in percent, shall be the product of the square of the distance of primary transmission in miles and the factor 0.001, but in no case shall such deduction exceed 10 percent.

§ 245.14 Rental charges. Unless otherwise ordered by the Secretary the occupancy and use of Interior Department lands under a power permit for power sites of more than 100 horsepower total capacity will be conditioned on the payment in advance for each calendar year of compensation calculated from the "net capacity of the power site", as defined in § 245.13, at not less than the following rates per horsepower per year:

For the unexpired portion of the calendar year and for the first full calendar year of the survey-construction period, and similarly for the operation period	$0.01
For the second full calendar year of each of said periods	.02
For the third year	.03
For the fourth year	.04
For the fifth year	.05
For the sixth year	.06
For the seventh year	.07
For the eighth year	.08
For the ninth year	.09
For the tenth and each succeeding year	.10

The rates per horsepower per year will be ten times such minimum rates, however, unless good cause for fixing other rates appears. The compensation on account of a power permit will be calculated from the net capacity of the power site as estimated by the Secretary at the time of granting said permit: Provided, That said estimated net capacity may be adjusted by the Secretary annually to provide for changes in length of primary transmission, for increase or decrease, by storage or otherwise, of available stream flow to an amount of 10 percent or more, or for increase or decrease of 10 percent or more in average gross head, or in degree of practicable utilization.

(a) The charge for occupancy and use of Interior Department lands under a power permit for transmission lines shall be at the rate of five dollars ($5) per mile or fraction thereof per annum, the minimum charge to be five dollars ($5), and the charge for the use of such lands under a power permit for plants generating power by means of coal, oil, gas or other fuel shall be five dollars ($5) per acre or fraction thereof per annum, the minimum charge to be five dollars ($5).

(b) Except as to Indian lands, no rental charge will be required for the occupancy and use of Interior Department lands under a power permit authorizing such occupancy and use exclusively for municipal purposes, for irrigation, or Rural Electrification Administration cooperative projects. As to Indian lands, the imposition of the rental charge specified in this section shall be optional and not mandatory.

(c) Except as to Indian lands, the first rental payment shall be remitted with the application and shall be the compensation for a full year computed under the rates specified in this section, but any excess of said payment over the pro rata compensation for the unexpired portion of the calendar year in which the permit is issued will be credited to the permittee as part of his payment for the first full calendar year. The permittee shall annually, on or before the first day of February next following the close of each calendar year of the period for which right-of-way is authorized, deposit with the Register of the District Land Office, in cash, post office money order, bank draft, or check payable to the Treasurer of the United States, the rental charges specified in the permit. If the permittee shall fail to pay the rental charges required, and such default shall continue for sixty days after the first day of February, the permit may be terminated. After default has occurred, no structures, buildings, or other equipment may be removed from the right-of-way except upon written permission first obtained from the Department of the Interior.

[2] The factor 0.08 represents the horsepower at 70 percent efficiency of a second-foot of water falling through a head of 1 foot.

(d) At any time not less than 5 years after the issuance of a permit, or after the last revision of rates per year thereunder, the Secretary may review such rates and impose such new rates per year as he may decide to be reasonable and proper.

(e) All payments made under a power permit shall be deposited to the credit of the tribe or individual Indian entitled thereto in so far as Indian lands are affected and, except as otherwise provided by law, to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States in so far as any other Interior Department lands are affected.

§ 245.15 Showing required of corporations. Application by a private corporation must be accompanied with a copy of its charter or articles of incorporation, duly certified by the proper officers of the company under its corporate seal or by the secretary of the State where organized.

When a company is operating in a State other than that in which it is incorporated, it must submit the certificate of the proper officer of the State that it has complied with the laws of that State governing foreign corporations to the extent required to entitle the company to operate in such State.

A corporaion other than a private corporation should file a copy of the law under which it was formed and due proof of organization under the same.

If the company shall have filed with the Department of the Interior the papers required by this section, the requirements shall be held to be met if, in making subsequent applications, specific reference is made by date and case number of such previous filing.

§ 245.16 Showing required of individuals or associations of individuals. Application by an individual must be accompanied with affidavit of citizenship if the applicant is native-born. If he is not a native-born citizen he must submit the usual proofs of naturalization. If the applicant is an association of citizens, each member must make affidavit of citizenship, and a complete list of the members must be given in an affidavit by one of them. Associations must, in addition, submit their articles of association; if there be none, the fact must be stated over the signature of each member of the association.

§ 245.17 Evidence which must accompany application. Each application for power permit must be accompanied with the following data:

(a) A map prepared on tracing linen, in duplicate, with two print copies showing the survey of the right-of-way or site properly located with respect to the public-land surveys so that said right-of-way or site may be accurately located on the ground by any competent engineer or land surveyor. The map should comply with the following requirements:

The scale should be 2,000 feet to the inch for canals, ditches, pipe lines, and transmission lines, and 1,000 feet to the inch for reservoirs, except where a larger scale is required properly to represent the details of the proposed project, in which case the scales should be 1,000 feet to the inch and 500 feet to the inch, respectively.

Courses and distances of the center line of the right-of-way or traverse line of the reservoir should be given; the courses referred to the true meridian either by deflection from a line of known bearing or by independent observation, and the distance in feet and decimals thereof. Station numbers with plus distances at deflection points on the traverse line should be shown.

The initial and terminal points of the survey should be accurately connected by course and distance to the nearest corner of the public-land surveys, unless that corner is more than six miles distant, in which case the connection will be made to some prominent natural object or permanent monument, which can be readily recognized and recovered. The station number and plus distance to the point of intersection with a line of the public land surveys should be ascertained and noted, together with the course and distance along the section line to the nearest existing corner, at a sufficient number of points throughout the township to permit accurate platting of the relative position of the right-of-way to the public-land survey.

All subdivisions of the public-land surveys within the limits of the survey should be shown in their entirety, based upon the official subsisting plats with the subdivision, section, township, and range clearly marked.

The width of the canal or ditch, at highwater line should be given and if not of uniform width, the location and amount of the change must be definitely shown. In the case of a pipe line, the diameter should be given. For reservoirs, the capacity in acre-feet, the area within the highwater line, the source of the water supply, and the location and height of the dam must be shown.

Each copy of the map should bear upon its face an affidavit of the engineer who makes the survey and the certificate of the applicant (Form 2, which is made a part hereof).[3]

(b) A general map of the entire power project or transmission line on tracing linen, in duplicate, with two print copies, prepared on such a scale and in such a manner that each quarter section of land affected is clearly shown. If this information is shown on the map filed under § 245.17 (a), supra, the general map may be omitted.

(c) Evidence of water right, if the project involves the storage, diversion, or conveyance of water. Control and jurisdiction over the appropriation of water is vested in the State authorities. The applicant, therefore, must file evidence, obtained from the proper State official, that he has the right to appropriate the water to be stored, diverted, or conveyed.

(d) When the application is for a permit for a power plant it must be accompanied with a statement giving a description of the proposed power plant including the number and capacity of prime movers and generators proposed to be installed, initially and ultimately, together with similar pertinent information about any substations included in the project and whether the power plant is to be interconnected with other generating facilities owned by the applicant or others. A statement as to whether the power generated is to be sold to others at wholesale or retail or used by the applicant for its own domestic, agricultural, or industrial purposes must also be furnished.

§ 245.18 Power plants to be platted on map in main drawing and in separate drawing. When application is made for a permit for power plants, the location and extent of ground proposed to be occupied by buildings, pipe lines, or other structures necessary to be used in connection therewith must be clearly designated on the map and described by reference to course and distance from a corner of the public survey. In addition to being shown in connection with the main drawing, the buildings or other structures must be platted on the map in a separate drawing on a scale sufficiently large to show clearly their dimensions and relative positions.

§ 245.19 Transmission lines. Application for a permit for transmission lines must be accompanied with:

(a) A description of the plant or plants which generate or will generate the power to be transmitted over such lines (hereinafter called "the connected generating plant", which term shall include all hydraulic, hydroelectric, and electric generating works), such description to be in sufficient detail to show, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior, the character, capacity, and location of such plant.

(b) A statement in detail to the Secretary of the Interior showing whether the connected generating plant is located, in whole or in part, on land owned or controlled by the United States, or on land not so owned and controlled, and whether any part of the connected generating plant or of the system of transmission and distribution in connection with such plant affects lands in reservations other than those under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Interior.

(c) A description of the transmission line of which the line for which a permit is requested forms a part, giving in reasonable detail the points between which it will extend, its characteristics and purpose, including the voltage for which it is designed and at which it is intended to be operated initially, and whether the line forms a part of the general transmission system of the applicant, and a statement as to whether it is to serve a single customer, or a number of customers, or is intended to transmit power solely for the applicant's own use. If the line is to serve a single customer or for applicant's own use, the nature of such use must be given (such as airway beacon, coal mine, irrigation pump, etc.).

[3] Filed as part of the original document.

(d) A statement as to the distance from the nearest transmission or distribution lines of any other person, corporation, association, municipality, or other agency engaged in the sale of power, or a statement that there are no such lines existing or contemplated within 10 miles of any part of the transmission line of which the line for which a permit is requested forms a part.

§ 245.20 Use of transmission lines. Rights-of-way granted under §§ 245.1–245.29, for transmission lines shall not be used for the transmission of any power generated otherwise than by and at "the connected generating plant" as defined in § 245.19, until the Secretary of the Interior shall have given written authority for such use and then only on the terms and conditions expressed in such written authority.

§ 245.21 Stipulation required as a condition precedent to the approval of permit. The applicant shall file with the application required under § 245.9 of these regulations, a duly executed stipulation expressly agreeing to accept the power permit subject to the following terms and conditions, to wit:

(a) To construct the project works on the location shown upon and in accordance with the maps and plans submitted with the application for permit, and to make no material deviation from said location unless and until maps and plans showing such deviation shall have been submitted and approved.

(b) To begin the construction of the project works, or the several parts thereof, within a specified period or periods from the date of execution of the permit, and thereafter diligently and continuously to prosecute such construction unless temporarily interrupted by climatic conditions or by some special or peculiar cause beyond the control of the permittee.

(c) To complete the construction and begin the operation of the project works, or the several parts thereof, within a specified period or periods from the date of execution of the permit. To furnish the Secretary with a statement, under oath, of the actual cost of construction of the project when completed.

(d) To operate the project works continuously for the development, transmission, and use of power, unless upon a full and satisfactory showing that such operation is prevented by unavoidable accidents or contingencies this requirement is temporarily waived by the written consent of the Secretary.

(e) To pay annually, in advance, such amounts as may be fixed and required by the Secretary under § 245.14.

(f) On demand of the Secretary to install at such places and maintain in good operating condition in such manner as shall be approved by the Secretary accurate meters, measuring weirs, gauges, or other devices approved by the Secretary and adequate for the determination of the amount of electric energy generated by the project works and of the flow of the stream or streams from which the water is to be diverted for the operation of the project works and of the amount of water used in the operation of the project works and of the amounts of water held in and drawn from storage; to keep accurate and sufficient records of the foregoing determinations to the satisfaction of the Secretary; and to make a return during January of each year, under oath, of such of the records of measurements for the year ended on December 31, preceding, made by or in the possession of the permittee, as may be required by the Secretary.

(g) That the books and records of the permittee shall be open at all times to the inspection and examination of the Secretary, or other officer or agent of the United States duly authorized to make such inspection and examination.

(h) On demand of the Secretary to install a system of accounting for the entire power business in such form as the Secretary may prescribe, which system as far as is practicable will be uniform for all permittees, and to render annually such reports of the power business as the Secretary may direct.

(i) To protect in a workmanlike manner, at crossings of and at places in proximity to its transmission lines on the right-of-way authorized, in accordance with the rules prescribed in the National Electric Safety Code, all Government and other telephone, telegraph, and power-transmission lines from contact, and all highways and railroads from obstruction, and to maintain its transmission lines in such manner as not to menace life or property; and shall within a reasonable time following receipt of due notice from the Secretary of the Interior, modify the construction of or relocate the line covered by the permit without liability or expense to the United States, as may be necessary to allow use of the right-of-way by the United States for transmission line or other power purposes.

(j) To clear and keep clear the Interior Department lands along the transmission line for such width and in such manner as the officer of the United States having supervision of such lands may direct.

(k) To dispose of all brush, refuse, or unused timber on Interior Department lands resulting from the construction and maintenance of the project works to the satisfaction of the officer last aforesaid.

(l) To build and repair such roads and trails as may be destroyed or injured by construction work or flooding under the permit, and to build and maintain necessary and suitable crossings for all roads and trails that intersect the water conduit constructed, maintained, or operated under the permit.

(m) To do everything reasonably within the power of the permittee both independently and on request of the Secretary or other duly authorized officer or agent of the United States to prevent and suppress fires on or near the lands to be occupied under the permit.

(n) To notify promptly the officer of the United States (Regional Field Examiner, Chief Forester Oregon and California Revested Lands Administration, or other proper officer), having supervision of such lands, of the amount of merchantable timber, if any, which will be cut, removed or destroyed in the construction and operation of the project works, and to deposit with such officer in advance of construction such sum of money as he may determine to be the full stumpage value of the timber to be so cut, removed or destroyed.

(o) To pay the United States full value for all damage to the lands or other property of the United States resulting from the breaking of or the overflowing, leaking, or seeping of water from the project works, and for all other damage to the lands or other property of the United States caused by the neglect of the permittee or of the employees, contractors, or employees of the contractors of the permittee.

(p) To indemnify the United States against any liability for damages to life or property arising from the occupancy or use of Interior Department lands by the permittee.

(q) To abide by such reasonable regulation of the service rendered and to be rendered by the permittee to consumers of power furnished or transmitted by the permittee, and of the prices to be paid therefor as may from time to time be prescribed by the State or any designated agency of the State in which the service is rendered: Provided, That for the purposes of this paragraph any such regulation shall be deemed to be suspended pending proceedings in the courts of such State, or in the Supreme Court of the United States on appeal from said State courts where such proceedings are in the nature of an appeal taken direct from the officer, commission, or board prescribing such regulation to said State courts.

(r) Upon demand in writing by the Secretary to surrender the permit to the United States or to transfer the same to such State or municipal corporation as he may designate, and to give, grant, bargain, sell, and transfer with the permit all works, equipment, structures, and property then owned or held by the permittee on lands of the United States occupied or used under the permit, and then valuable or serviceable in the generation, transmission, and distribution of power: Provided, (1) That such surrender or transfer shall be demanded only in case the United States or the transferee shall have first acquired such other works, equipment, structures, property and rights of the permittee as are dependent in whole or in essential part for their usefulness upon the continuance of the permit; (2) that such surrender or transfer shall be on condition precedent that the United States shall pay or the transferee shall first pay to the permittee the reasonable value of all such works, equipment, structures, and property to be surrendered or transferred; (3) that such reasonable value shall not include any sum for any permit, right, franchise, or property granted by any public authority in excess of the sum paid to such public authority as a purchase price therefor; and (4) that such reasonable value shall be determined by mutual agreement of the parties in interest, and in case they cannot agree, by the Secretary under a rule, which, except as modified by the requirements of this paragraph, shall be the then existing rule of valuation for power properties in condemnation proceedings in the State in which the properties to be surrendered or transferred are located. But nothing herein shall prevent the United States or any State or municipal corporation from acquiring by any other lawful means the permit or the works, equipment, structures, or property than owned or held by the permittee on lands of the United States occupied or used under the permit.

(s) That in respect to the regulation by any competent public authority of the service to be rendered by the permittee or the price to be charged therefor, and in respect to any purchase or taking over of the properties or business of the permittee or any part thereof by the United States, or by any State within which the works are situated or business carried on in whole or in part, or by any municipal corporation in such State, no value whatsoever shall at any time be assigned to or claimed for the permit or for the occupancy or use of Interior Department lands thereunder, nor shall such permit or such occupancy and use ever be estimated or considered as property upon which the permittee shall be entitled to earn or receive any return, income, price, or compensation whatsoever.

(t) That any approval of any alteration or amendment, or of any map of plan, or of any extension of time shall affect only the portions specifically covered by such approval; and that no approval of any such alteration, amendment, or extension shall operate to alter or amend, or in any way whatsoever be a waiver of any other part, condition, or provision of the permit.

(u) To perform such other specified conditions with respect to the occupancy and use of lands within any military, Indian, or other reservation as may be found by the chief officer of the department under whose supervision such reservation falls to be necessary as conditions precedent to the issuance of the permit in order to render the same compatible with the public interest.

§ 245.22 Change in location or plans of construction. During the progress of construction, amendments to maps of location or plans of structures will be required from the permittee if there is a material deviation from the maps or plans as originally filed, but no amendment will be allowed that is incompatible with the occupancy and use of lands under existing permits or pending applications. Any approval of an amendment of a map or plan or of any extension of time shall be in the form of a supplemental agreement and permit so drawn as to become a part of the original agreement and permit and a substitute for the clauses amended. Any approval of any amendment of any map or plan shall apply only to the portions specifically covered by such approval, and no approval of any such amendment shall operate to amend or be in any way a waiver of any other part, condition, or provision of the permit.

If, after the completion of the project works, there are any deviations in location from those shown upon the original map or approved amendments thereof, additional maps prepared in the manner prescribed for original maps of location will be required to be filed within six months after the completion of the project works, showing the extent of such deviations and the final locations of such project works. Also upon the completion of the project works detailed working plans will be required of the works as constructed, except such parts as have been constructed in compliance with plans originally filed or approved amendments thereof. Such new or additional plans may be originals on tracing linen or Van Dyke negatives of the permittee's own working plans. The plans of conduits, dams, and appurtenant structures must be complete; of power houses, only general layout plans are required.

§ 245.23 Extension of time for beginning or completing construction. An extension of time for beginning or completing construction and for beginning operation will be granted only by written approval after submission of a satisfactory showing by the permittee to the effect that the beginning or completion of the construction and beginning of operation has been prevented by engineering difficulties that could not reasonably have been foreseen, or by other special and peculiar causes beyond the control of the permittee.

§ 245.24 Transfer of permit. A permit may be transferred to a new permittee only (1) by a court of competent jurisdiction under a decree of foreclosure to enforce a mortgage or deed of trust that shall have been given in good faith to secure capital for the power business as defined in § 245.13, embracing the works constructed or to be constructed under such permit, and without any intent to evade the restrictions upon transfers in this section hereafter set forth; or (2) upon the following conditions: The proposed transferee shall file with the Commissioner of the General Land Office, Washington, D. C., the decree, execution of judgment, will, proposed contract of sale, or other written instrument upon which the proposed transfer is based, or a properly certified copy thereof, also an application by the proposed transferee in the form of an agreement binding the proposed transferee to the performance of such new and additional conditions expressed therein as the Secretary may deem necessary; and thereupon the Secretary may, in his discretion, approve in writing the proposed transfer, and after such approval the transferee shall succeed to all the rights and obligations of the permittee, subject, however, to such new and additional conditions as shall have been embodied in such agreement and so approved.

§ 245.25 Revocation of permit. Violation by a permittee of any of the provisions of §§ 245.1–245.28, or of any of the conditions of a permit issued to him thereunder, shall be sufficient ground for revocation of such permit.

No permit will be deemed to be revoked except on the issuance by the Secretary of a specific order of revocation. Change of jurisdiction over lands from one executive department to another will not revoke but will change the administrative jurisdiction over a permit for the occupancy and use of such lands. The final disposal by the United States of any tract traversed by a right-of-way permitted shall not be construed to be a revocation of such permission in whole or in part, but such final disposition shall be deemed and taken to be subject to such right-of-way until such permission shall have been specifically revoked.

§ 245.26 Abandonment of project. Any power project under permit, or any part thereof, whether constructed or unconstructed, may be abandoned by the permittee upon the written approval of the Secretary after a finding by the Secretary that such abandonment will not tend to prevent the subsequent development of such project or part thereof so abandoned, and after the fulfillment by the permittee of all the obligations under the permit, in respect to payment or otherwise, existing at the time of such approval. Upon such abandonment, after such approval thereof and fulfillment of existing obligations, so much of the agreement and permit as relates to the abandoned project or part of a project will be formally revoked by the Secretary.

§ 245.27 Action on application. When an application is filed, the register will place on the papers and accompanying maps, the serial number, the name of the office, and the date of filing. Notations will be made on the local office records opposite each unpatented tract and such patented tracts as have been acquired by the United States, affected by the right-of-way or site, giving serial number, date of filing and the name of the applicant. The register will certify on each map over his written signature, that unpatented land is affected. The application will then be transmitted promptly to the General Land Office. If no unpatented land or patented land acquired by the United States is affected, the register will return the map and duplicate to the applicant with notice of that fact.

(a) Upon receipt of the application in the General Land Office, it will be noted on the records of that office and examined as to its legal and factual sufficiency and requirements. The General Land Office will then transmit the duplicate application and two print copies of all maps to the Geological Survey for examination and report as to its relationship to plans for comprehensive development of the natural resources involved, as to the incompatibility of proposed construction and use of lands with existing or other proposed works or with other land-use projects, as to the propriety and feasibility from an engineering standpoint of construction proposed, and as to other matters of an engineering or technical nature. Requests by the General Land Office shall be made to the Bureau of Reclamation and all other interested bureaus for reports relating to payments, rentals and stipulations, if any, deemed necessary for the protection of their interests.

(b) Applications which do not conform to the law and regulations or the approval of which would be incompatible with the public or Government interests will be rejected with the right of appeal. When an application is completed and in conformity with the law and regulations and all required reports have been obtained, the General Land Office will prepare and submit to the Secretary with recommendation for approval, a draft of a permit in triplicate, through the Division of Power.

§ 245.28 Action on approved permit. Upon approval of the permit, the General Land Office, will note the fact of such approval on its records and on the maps of location and will transmit one original permit and one copy thereof together with one tracing of all maps of location to the district land office, whereupon the register will note the approval of the permit on the records of his office and will transmit the original permit to the permittee, retaining the copy of the permit and the tracing maps for the files of his office. The General Land Office will retain one original permit and one tracing of all maps of location for its files and transmit one copy of the permit to the Geological Survey, two copies to the Office of Indian Affairs, where the right-of-way affects Indian lands, one copy to such other bureau of the Department having control and administration of the lands affected, and one original of the permit to the General Accounting Office, where payment of a rental charge for the use of public lands is required.

(a) After the issuance of the permit, the Geological Survey will make such investigations and reports to the Secretary of the Interior as may be necessary for the determination and revision of rates and capacities, the supervision of construction and operation, and of the records of the permittee as contemplated by §§ 245.1–245.29, and, in general, for all engineering matters pertaining to the power development and the power resources involved.

(b) The permittee shall at all times keep the Secretary informed of his address, and in case of corporations, with the address of its principal place of business and of the names and addresses of its principal officers

§ 245.29 Regulations superseded. Sections 245.1 to 245.29, inclusive, supersede §§ 245.1 to 245.29, inclusive, of title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations. (Circ. No. 1461, October 30, 1939)

FRED W. JOHNSON,
Commissioner.

Approved: December 14, 1942.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service

PART 25—SOUTHERN REGION NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

SABINE NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, LOUISIANA

Under authority of section 10 of the Migratory Bird Conservation Act of February 18, 1929 (45 Stat. 1222; 16 U.S.C. 715i), as amended, and in extension of § 12.3 of the regulations for the Administration of National Wildlife Refuges under the Jurisdiction of the Fish and Wildlife Service, dated December 19, 1940,[1] the following is hereby ordered:

§ 25.796 Sabine National Wildlife Refuge, Louisiana; noncommercial fishing. Noncommercial fishing is permitted in the Sabine National Wildlife Refuge, Louisiana, from May 1 to October 15, inclusive, of each year, during the daylight hours, in waters specified herein, in accordance with the provisions of the regulations for the Administration of National Wildlife Refuges under the Jurisdiction of the Fish and Wildlife Service, dated December 19, 1940, and subject to the following conditions, restrictions, and requirements:

(a) Waters open to fishing. All the waters in the following-described areas of the refuge shall be open to fishing: All the waters of the refuge, including the bordering canals, in T. 13 S., Rs. 9, 10, and 11 W., and in secs. 1, 12, 13, 24, 25, and 36, T. 13 S., R. 12 W.; the north boundary canal; secs. 2, 3, and 4, T. 13 S., R 13 W., and all the East Cove area in T. 14 S., Rs. 8 and 9 W., Louisiana Meridian.

(b) State fishing laws. Any person who fishes within the refuge must comply with the applicable fishing laws and regulations of the State of Louisiana. Fishing under this regulation shall be by hook and line (including rod and reel) only, as defined by State law, and the use of trot and set lines and other similar contrivances is prohibited.

(c) Fishing licenses and permits. Any person who fishes within the refuge shall be in possession of a valid fishing license issued by the Louisiana Department of Conservation, if such license is required, and a permit issued by the officer in charge of the refuge. The permit shall specify the water or waters in which the permittee may fish and the period or periods during which such fishing may be performed. The license and permit must be carried on the person of the licensee while so fishing and must be exhibited upon the request of any representative of the Louisiana Department of Conservation or of the Fish and Wildlife Service.

(d) Routes of travel. Persons entering the refuge for the purpose of fishing shall follow such routes of travel as may be designated from time to time by suitable posting by the officer in charge of the refuge.

(e) Use of motorboats. Persons fishing in lakes or impoundments of the refuge are prohibited from using on or in boats motors of greater than six horsepower capacity, except for official purposes. No restriction is placed on motorboats in canals and rivers.

(f) Temporary restrictions. During periods of waterfowl concentrations on the refuge, fishing will not be permitted in such areas of the refuge as, in the judgment of the officer in charge, should be closed to fishing in order to provide adequate protection for such waterfowl concentrations and are posted suitably by such officer.

§ 25.796a Sabine National Wildlife Refuge, Louisiana; commercial fishing. Commercial fishing is permitted in all waters of the Sabine National Wildlife Refuge, Louisiana, except during the migratory-waterfowl hunting season, in accordance with the provisions of the regulations for the Administration of National Wildlife Refuges under the Jurisdiction of the Fish and Wildlife Service, dated December 19, 1940, and subject to the following conditions, restrictions, and requirements:

(a) State fishing laws. Any person who fishes commercially within the refuge must comply with the applicable fishing laws and regulations of the State of Louisiana.

(b) Fishing licenses and permits. Any person who fishes commercially within the refuge shall be in possession of a valid commercial fishing license issued by the Louisiana Department of Conservation, if such license is required, and a permit issued by the officer in charge of the refuge. The permit shall specify the water or waters in which the permittee may fish and the period or periods during which such fishing may be performed. The officer in charge may limit the number of permits issued for any particular waters during such periods as, in his discretion, such action is necessary for the protection of the fishery resources of the refuge or to prevent disturbance to concentrations of waterfowl using such waters or areas. The license and permit must be carried on the person of the licensee while so fishing and must be exhibited upon the request of any representative of the Louisiana Department of Conservation or of the Fish and Wildlife Service.

(c) Routes of travel. Persons entering the refuge for the purpose of fishing shall follow such routes of travel as may be designated from time to time by suitable posting by the officer in charge of the refuge.

(d) Use of motorboats. Persons fishing in lakes or impoundments of the refuge are prohibited from using in or on boats motors of greater than six horsepower capacity, except for official purposes. No restriction is placed on motorboats in canals and rivers.

[Docket No. A-1756]

DISTRICT BOARD NO. 1

MEMORANDUM OPINION, ETC.

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 1 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1.

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 1 for a change in seam designation and change of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Lansberry No. 3 Mine (Mine Index No. 573) of Lansberry & Son, Abbie E.

Memorandum opinion and order severing Docket No. A-1756, Part II from Docket No. A-1756, and notice of and order for hearing in Docket No. A-1756, Part II.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was duly filed with the Division by the above-named party, requesting a change in the seam designation from C' to B for the Lansberry No. 3 Mine, Mine Index No. 573, operated by Abbie E. Lansberry & Son, and the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of this mine as well as those for certain other mines in District No. 1.

In the original petition, it is alleged that the said Lansberry No. 3 Mine, Mine Index No. 573, is incorrectly listed in the Schedules of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for All Shipments Except Truck, and for Truck Shipments, as being operated in the C' seam, whereas in fact said mine is being operated in the B seam. Therefore, the above-named petitioner proposed that the seam designation of the mine be changed from C' to B, and that the price classification for rail shipment be changed from "F" to "E" in Size Groups 1 to 5 inclusive; and that the minimum prices for truck shipment be changed to reflect the change in seam designation as follows:

Size groups	1	2	3	4	5
From	$2.65	$2.40	$2.40	$2.30	$2.20
To	2.70	2.45	2.45	2.35	2.25

In view of the fact that the proposal for a change in seam designation involves a change in the price classification and minimum prices heretofore established for said coals, the Director is of the opinion that that portion of the original petition relating to the said Lansberry No. 3 Mine, Mine Index No. 573, should be severed therefrom and designated as Docket No. A-1756, Part II, and scheduled for hearing.

However, with respect to that portion of the original petition which is designated as Docket No. A-1756, in which the District Board proposed the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for other mines, the Director being of the opinion that such relief should be granted with respect to such other mines, an order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief has been issued in said Docket No. A-1756.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That that portion of Docket No. A-1756 relating to the coals of Mine Index No. 573 be and it hereby is severed from the remainder of Docket No. A-1756 and designated as Docket No. A-1756, Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Docket No. A-1756, Part II under the applicable provisions of said Act and rules of the Division be held on January 28, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Division in Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That D. C. McCurtain or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, continue said hearing from time to time, and submit to the undersigned proposed findings of fact, conclusions, and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before January 23, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corrolaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 1 for a change in the seam designation for the Lansberry No. 3 Mine, Mine Index No. 573, operated by Abbie E. Lansberry & Son, from C' to B, and for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for such coals in the Schedules of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 For All Shipments Except Truck and For Truck Shipments, which reflect such change in seam designation.

Dated: December 21, 1942.

[Docket No. 1867-FD]

SHERWOOD-TEMPLETON COAL CO., INC., AND LINTON-SUMMIT COAL CO., INC.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

In the matter of the application of Sherwood-Templeton Coal Company, Inc., and Linton-Summit Coal Company, Inc., for a determination of the status of waste slurry coal produced at Mine Index Nos. 63, 101, 108, and 112, in District No. 11, pursuant to the second paragraph of section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

On August 21, 1942, 7 F.R. 6690, an Order was issued in the above-entitled matter denying the application for exemption filed by Sherwood-Templeton Coal Company, Inc., and Linton-Summit Coal Company, Inc., applicants therein, and providing that such denial was to become effective at the end of sixty (60) days from the date of said Order.

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and an Opinion in this matter were filed simultaneously with said Order and explained that the sixty-day period was allowed as a reasonable time within which to file a petition pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act requesting the establishment of minimum prices for the coals involved in this proceeding.

On October 6, 1942, the applicants filed a motion requesting that the effective date of said Order dated August 21, 1942, be extended to one hundred and twenty (120) days from the date thereof on the ground that they had made formal application to District Board No. 11 to file a 4 II (d) petition.

By an Order dated October 12, 1942, 7 F.R. 8289, the Order of August 21, 1942, was modified to the extent that the effective date of said Order became one hundred and twenty (120) days from the date thereof.

On November 14, 1942, District Board No. 11 filed a petition, Docket No. A-1744, for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals involved in this proceeding. Because this petition is now receiving consideration, it is appropriate that the effective date of the Order denying exemption dated August 21, 1942, be extended until price classifications and minimum prices, either temporary or final, are established for the coals involved in this proceeding.

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That the Order dated August 21, 1942, 7 F.R. 6690, in the above-entitled matter be, and it hereby is, modified to the extent that such Order shall become effective at the time when price classifications and minimum prices, either temporary or final, are established for the coals involved in this proceeding.

Dated: December 21, 1942.

[Docket No. A-1768]

DISTRICT BOARD NO. 2

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 2 for a change in minimum prices and price classifications established for Size Groups 1 and 2 for rail shipments for the coals of the Midland Mine, Mine Index No. 148 in District No. 2.

A petition, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on January 20, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That ______[1] or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before January 15, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to a petition filed with this Division by District Board No. 2, requesting a change in price classifications established in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 2 For All Shipments Except Truck for Size Groups 1 and 2 for rail shipments into all Market Areas for the coals of The Midland Mine (Mine Index No. 148) of the Pittsburgh Coal Company as follows:

COLUMBIA BASIN PROJECT WAGE BOARD

RATES FOR NEW EMPLOYMENT

Pursuant to the Order of the Secretary of the Interior, dated February 26, 1942, and entitled Wage Fixing Procedures, Columbia Basin Project, The Columbia Basin Project Wage Board recommends the addition of the following classifications of labor and wage rates to cover new employment.

Sawmill workers have not heretofore been employed on the Columbia Basin Project. However, as such employment is now contemplated, the Columbia Basin Project Wage Board has authorized an investigation of hourly wage rates paid to workers engaged on work of a similar nature in the vicinity of the project. This investigation was conducted by officials of the Bureau of Reclamation and representatives of organized labor.

The Wage Board finds that the hourly wage rates listed below are prevailing for similar work in the vicinity of the project and recommends them for your adoption:

Labor classification	Prevailing hourly rate on private work	Recommended basic hourly rate for B/R employees
Sawyer	$1.50	$1.50
Millwright	1.45	1.45
Planerman	1.40	1.40
Edgerman	1.25	1.25
Trimmerman	1.15	1.15
Lumber grader	1.15	1.15
Ratchet setter	1.10	1.10
Pondman	.90	.90
Deckman	.90	.90
Cutoff man	.90	.90

The foregoing recommendations approved and adopted by the Columbia Basin Project Wage Board this first day of November 1942.

Chairman.

[ACP-1942- Southern Great Plains-4]

1942 SPECIAL AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM FOR THE SOUTHERN GREAT PLAINS AREA

The 1942 Special Agricultural Conservation Program for the Southern Great Plains Area, as amended [6 F.R. 6661; 7 F.R. 768, 2112, 2877], is further amended as follows:

1. Section 1, (a), (4) is amended to read:

(4) "Acreage planted to wheat" means (i) any acreage of land devoted to seeded wheat (except when such crop is seeded in a mixture designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency upon recommendation of the State Committee as a mixture which may reasonably be expected to produce a crop containing such proportions of plants other than wheat that the crop cannot be harvested as wheat for grain or seed); (ii) any acreage of volunteer wheat which reaches maturity: Provided, That, on any farm on which the acreage seeded to wheat does not exceed the farm wheat allotment, the acreage of volunteer wheat will not be regarded as acreage planted to wheat for any producer if (a) he places in farm storage and agrees to hold in storage until it may be marketed free of marketing quota penalty an amount of wheat equal to the smaller of his share of the wheat produced on the farm in excess of his share of the normal production of the acreage allotment, or his share of the normal production of the number of acres by which the sum of the acreage of seeded wheat and the acreage of volunteer wheat which reaches maturity exceeds the wheat acreage allotment; (b) he does not seed in excess of the 1943 wheat allotment on the farm; and (c) his aggregate share of the wheat seeded for 1943 on all farms in the county in which he has an interest in the wheat crop does not exceed his aggregate share of the farm wheat allotments or permitted acreages: Provided, That for any person who does not comply with the above provisions, the acreage of volunteer wheat which reaches maturity shall be regarded as acreage planted to wheat only for the purpose of determining the acreage on which a deduction should be computed; (iii) any acreage which is seeded to a mixture containing wheat designated under (i) above on which the crops other than wheat fail to reach maturity and the wheat reaches maturity: Provided, That all or any part of any acreage determined by the county committee to have been totally destroyed by any cause beyond the control of the operator may be considered as not having been planted to wheat if it cannot be reseeded and, with prior approval of the county committee, is later replaced by other acreage of seeded or volunteer wheat.

2. Section 1, (f), (1), the first paragraph thereof, is amended to read:

(1) The net payment for any farm shall be subject to a deduction of 2 percent of the maximum amount computed in connection with cropland (section 2, (c), item (1)) for each 1 percent of the cropland on the farm by which the acreage of cropland on the farm devoted exclusively to one or more of the following uses throughout the 1942 crop year is less than 20 percent of the cropland on the farm: Provided, however, That when all or a part of the cropland in the farm has been acquired for the purpose of the National War effort, and it would be impracticable or inequitable to require compliance with the soil-conserving requirement on the basis of the total cropland in the farm, the county committee with the approval of the State Committee, in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency may waive all or any part of such requirement.

3. Section 1, (f), (1), item (x) is amended to read:

(x) Rye for pasture. Volunteer wheat pastured to such an extent as to prevent it from reaching maturity.

4. Section 1, (f), (1), item (xi) is amended to read:

(xi) New seedings of perennial grasses or legumes, biennial legumes, or lespedeza seeded in accordance with good farming practice with flax, peas, or small grains as a nurse crop. The maximum acreage which may qualify under this item shall be limited to the 1942 acreage of flax plus 40 percent of the sum of the 1942 acreages of the following crops on the farm: soybeans for beans, peanuts for oil, hemp, castor beans, sugar beets, dry field peas, dry beans, canning peas, canning tomatoes and land used for school lunch gardens.

5. Section 1 is further amended by adding the following paragraphs (g) and (h):

(g) Reallocation of allotments due to displacement of producers. Except as otherwise provided herein, the crop allotment for any land which is removed from agricultural production because of acquisition by a State or Federal agency or for use in connection with the national defense program shall be available to the State Committee for use in providing equitable allotments for farms operated by persons who were producers of such crop on the land so acquired. Insofar as possible the allotments for farms operated by such persons shall be comparable to the allotments for other farms in the locality taking into consideration the allotment for the farm on which the operator was located in 1941.

In the case of cotton and wheat, the allotment established, or which would have been established, for any land acquired in 1940 or thereafter by any Federal agency for national defense purposes shall be placed in a State pool and shall be used only for making equitable allotments for farms owned or acquired by owners dispossessed by a Federal agency because of acquisition of the farm for national defense purposes. The allotment made for any such farm, including farms on which such crop was not planted during any of the three years 1939 to 1941, shall compare with the allotments for such crops established for other farms in the same area which are similar except for the past acreage of such crop, taking into consideration the character and adaptability of the soil and other physical facilities affecting the production of the crop.

(h) Errors in measurement. Where a farmer relied solely upon the measured acreage furnished to him in writing by the county committee in planning his 1942 farming operations or in adjusting his 1942 crop acreages, such measured acreage may be used in determining compliance with the provisions of the 1942 program even though it subsequently proves to be incorrect.

6. Section 5, (a), (1), (i) Wheat: 1 is amended to read: (i) Wheat: 1 (Wheat-allotment farms) $1.00 per bushel of the normal yield for the farm for each acre planted to wheat in excess of its wheat allotment, except that for any person who does not comply with the volunteer wheat provisions of section 1, (a), (4), (ii), the deduction shall be (a) $1.00 per bushel of the normal yield for the farm for each acre by which the sum of the acreage seeded to wheat and the acreage of volunteer wheat which reaches maturity is in excess of the allotment times his percentage share (applicable if the wheat allotment exceeds 15 acres or if the sum of the acreage seeded to wheat and the acreage of volunteer wheat which reaches maturity is less than 110 percent of the allotment) or (b) $1.00 per bushel of the normal yield for the farm for each acre of wheat harvested in excess of 15 acres times his percentage share (applicable if wheat allotment is 15 acres or less and the sum of acreage seeded to wheat and the acreage of volunteer wheat which reaches maturity equals or exceeds 110 percent of wheat allotment).

7. Section 5, (b), (4), (3) is amended to read:

(3) The effectiveness of any soil-building practice carried out under any previous program is destroyed during the 1942 program year contrary to good farming practice, there shall be deducted an amount equal to the payment that would be made under the 1942 program for a similar amount of such practice from the net payment due the person (after increase in small payments and deduction for association expense) on the same or any other farm in the county who was responsible for the failure to maintain such practices. In the event the amount of such deduction exceeds the amount of payment for the producer subject to deduction, the amount of such difference shall be paid by the producer to the Secretary.

8. Section 6 is amended by adding the following paragraph (c):

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions herein, any deduction computed under section 5, (a), (1), (i) Wheat: 1 for failure to comply with the volunteer wheat provisions shall be considered as a personal deduction for the person who failed to comply.

(Secs. 7 to 17, as amended, 49 Stat. 1148, 1915; 50 Stat., etc.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 21st day of December 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Assistant Secretary of Agriculture.

[Docket No. FDC-7-D-1]

SWEETENED CONDENSED MILK

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that the Administrator of the Federal Security Agency will hold a public hearing by virtue of provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 407 and 701, 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U.S.C. secs. 341 and 371) upon an application of a substantial portion of the interested industry proposing that the definition and standard of identity for sweetened condensed milk (§ 18.530, 5 F.R. 2445) be amended so as to provide for the use of corn sirup as an optional ingredient in sweetened condensed milk.

The Administrator, on his own initiative, proposes also to consider whether a food of a composition substantially the same as sweetened condensed milk, but in which corn sirup has been substituted in whole or in part for the saccharine ingredients specified in said definition and standard of identity for sweetened condensed milk, possesses characteristics that distinguish it from sweetened condensed milk to an extent that, in order to promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers, a separate and distinct definition and standard of identity should be prescribed for such food under a name other than the name "sweetened condensed milk"; and, if so, what the provisions of such a standard and the designation of such food should be.

The testimony which will be received at the hearing will be restricted to competent testimony which is relevant and material to the questions inherent in the proposals herein set forth. However, such proposals will be considered on the basis of the evidence of record at such hearing as well as the evidence of record on which the order promulgating a definition and standard of identity for sweetened condensed milk is based. (Docket No. FDC-7-D)

The hearing herein announced will be held on January 26, 1943, commencing at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, in Room 2862, South Building, Independence Avenue, between 12th and 14th Streets SW., Washington, D. C.

Affidavits submitted in lieu of oral testimony as provided in the Rules of Practice applicable to this hearing (21 CFR, § 2.701 et seq.) shall be submitted by delivering them to the presiding officer in care of the hearing clerk at Room 2242, South Building, Independence Avenue, between 12th and 14th Streets SW., Washington, D. C., on or before the commencement of the hearing. All affidavits submitted are required to be submitted in quintuplicate.

Edward B. Williams is hereby designated as presiding officer to conduct the hearing in place and stead of the Administrator, with full authority to administer oaths and affirmations and to do all other things appropriate to the conduct of the hearing.

HENRY J. GUILMETTE

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Henry J. Guilmette, Route 302, Woodsville, New Hampshire, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice a hearing upon the charges was held in Concord, New Hampshire, on October 21, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing; It is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a gasoline filling station in Woodsville, New Hampshire.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503) in that on numerous occasions between July 22, 1942, and September 13, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles in exchange for 41 Class A, No. 2 gasoline ration coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in New Hampshire, respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken; It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 179 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(2) Respondent shall not transfer or deliver or otherwise trade or deal in gasoline.

(3) No person shall in any manner, directly or indirectly, transfer or deliver any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(d) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 179, that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(e) This Suspension Order No. 179 shall become effective 12:01 A. M., December 26, 1942, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 A. M., January 10, 1943.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. and by Pub. Law 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. PATRICK W. PATERSON

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Patrick W. Paterson, 6 Mechanic Street, Lebanon, New Hampshire, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice a hearing upon the charges was held in Concord, New Hampshire, on October 22, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, It is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a gasoline filling station in Lebanon, New Hampshire.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503), in that on numerous occasions between July 22, 1942 and September 17, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles, in exchange for 36 Class A No. 2 gasoline ration coupons.

(c) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulation (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503) in that on numerous occasions between July 22, 1942 and September 17, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles without receiving gasoline ration coupons in exchange for such transfers. Such transfers were not within the classes of transfers permitted by Ration

Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, to be made without the exchange of coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in New Hampshire, respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken, It is therefore ordered:

(d) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 180 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(2) Respondent shall not transfer or deliver or otherwise trade or deal in gasoline.

(3) No person shall in any manner, directly or indirectly, transfer or deliver any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(e) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 180, that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(f) This Suspension Order No. 180 shall become effective 12:01 a. m., December 26, 1942, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 a. m., January 25, 1943.

[Suspension Order 181]

PASQUALE J. AJELLO

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Pasquale J. Ajello, doing business as Reliable Garage and P. J. Ajello, Incorporated, Ansonia, Connecticut, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Hartford, Connecticut, on October 27, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, It is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a gasoline filling station under the firm name of Reliable Garage, at 16 Maple Street, Ansonia, Connecticut.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§ 1394.1502) in that on September 1, 1942, and on various occasions between July 22 and September 1, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles without receiving in exchange therefor any gasoline ration coupons. Such transfers were not within the classes of transfers of gasoline permitted by the provisions of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, to be made without the exchange of gasoline ration coupons.

(c) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§ 1394.1503), in that on various occasions between July 22 and September 1, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles in exchange for gasoline ration coupons Class "S" from coupon books that were not issued for and did not bear the identification of the vehicles into which the transfers were made.

(d) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§ 1394.1503), in that on various occasions between July 22 and September 1, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles and accepted in exchange for such transfers fifty (50) Class A, No. 2 coupons, three (3) Class A, No. 3 coupons and one (1) Class A, No. 4 coupon, and one (1) Class A, No. 6 coupon.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Connecticut, respondents' violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken, It is therefore ordered:

(e) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 181 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(2) Respondent shall not transfer or deliver or otherwise trade or deal in gasoline: Provided, however, That respondent may make transfers of the gasoline in his possession at the time this Suspension Order No. 181 is served upon him with the prior approval and under the supervision of the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration for Region I.

(3) No person shall in any manner directly or indirectly transfer or deliver any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(f) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 181 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(g) This Suspension Order No. 181 shall become effective 12:01 a. m. December 26, 1942, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 a. m. March 26, 1943.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; Sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. and by Pub. Law 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. Issued this 22d day of December 1942.

Deputy Administrator
in Charge of Rationing.

[Suspension Order 186]

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS BY EDWARD BUDNY

Edward Budny, doing business as Premium Petroleum Company, 629 South Warren Street, Trenton, New Jersey, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Trenton, New Jersey, on October 9, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, it is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline operating five (5) filling stations, located at:

Penns Neck Circle, Princeton, New Jersey.
South Warren and Bridge Streets, Trenton, New Jersey.
South Broad and Harrison Streets, Trenton, New Jersey.
302 N. Olden Avenue, Trenton, New Jersey.
Hanover and Calhoun Streets, Trenton, New Jersey.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503) in that between July 22, 1942, and September 21, 1942, at the aforesaid stations, respondent transferred and delivered gasoline into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles and accepted in exchange therefor 242 Class A, No. 2 gasoline ration coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in New Jersey, respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken. It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 186 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not in any manner directly or indirectly sell, transfer or deliver, from any station, any gasoline to any person.

(2) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(3) No person, firm, or corporation shall deliver, or in any manner directly or indirectly transfer any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(d) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 186, that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(e) This Suspension Order No. 186 shall become effective 12:01 a. m. December 26, 1942 and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 a. m. January 10, 1943.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. and by Pub. Law 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. No. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); WPB Directive No. 1 and Supplementary Directive No. 1Q (7 F.R. 9121))

Issued this 22d day of December 1942.

Deputy Administrator,
in Charge of Rationing.

[Order 2 Under MPR 138]

TENNESSEE PRODUCTS CORP.

APPROVAL OF FEES, ETC.

Order 2 under Maximum Price Regulation 138—Standard Ferromanganese.

Approval of fees and other charges provided for in two contracts for the conversion of ores into standard ferromanganese by the Tennessee Products Corporation.

The Tennessee Products Corporation of Nashville, Tennessee, pursuant to § 1405.3 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 138, has submitted two contracts for the conversion of ores into standard ferromanganese and has made application for approval of the fees and other charges provided for by the aforesaid contracts.

Due consideration has been given to this application and, for the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to § 1405.3 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 138, It is hereby ordered:

(a) The fee of $45.00 per gross ton of standard ferromanganese produced, which is set by the contract of October 15, 1942 between Tennessee Products Corporation of Nashville, Tennessee, and Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, as the sum to be charged by the first party and paid by the second party for the conversion of ores into approximately 35,000 gross tons of standard ferromanganese containing 78% to 82% manganese, is hereby approved; and the provision that a charge of 75¢ per gross ton may be made for the handling of ores, which require special handling because of the delivery of quantities in excess of the converter's capacity to unload and stock in accordance with good operating practice, is hereby approved.

(b) The fee of $45.00 per gross ton of standard ferromanganese produced, which is set by the contract of October 24, 1942 between Tennessee Products Corporation of Nashville, Tennessee and Andrews Steel Company of Newport, Kentucky, as the sum to be charged by the first party and paid by the second party for the conversion of ores into approximately 4,000 gross tons of standard ferromanganese containing 78% to 82% manganese is hereby approved; and the provision that a charge of 75¢ per gross ton may be made for the handling of ores, which require special handling because of the delivery of quantities in excess of the converter's capacity to unload and stock in accordance with good operating practice, is hereby approved.

(c) This Order No. 2 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(d) This Order No. 2 shall become effective December 23, 1942.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

Issued this 22d day of December 1942.

UNITED LIGHT AND POWER COMPANY ET AL.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING OF RESPONDENTS' APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 21st day of December 1942.

In the matter of the United Light and Power Company et al., Respondents and Applicants.

Notice is hereby given that on December 17, 1942 an application designated as "Application No. 18" was filed with this Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, by Mason City Brick and Tile Company ("Brick and Tile"), Rolfe Products Company ("Rolfe") and Mason City Development Company ("Development"), subsidiaries of The United Light and Railways Company, a registered holding company;

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than December 26, 1942 at 1:00 p. m., E. W. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter such application as filed or as amended may become effective or may be granted, as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the office of said Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

Rolfe and Development, wholly-owned subsidiaries of Brick and Tile, and Brick and Tile, a wholly-owned subsidiary of The United Light and Railways Company which is a registered holding company, are non-utility companies engaged, respectively, in the manufacture and sale of metal products, the development of real estate and the manufacture and sale of clay products at Mason City, Iowa. Rolfe and Development propose to liquidate by transferring all their assets to Brick and Tile as a liquidating dividend. Prior to liquidation, Rolfe and Development will pay their liabilities in so far as possible, and any remaining liabilities, including the mortgages payable of Development, will be assumed by Brick and Tile. It is contemplated that, prior to its liquidation, Rolfe will pay a cash dividend to Brick and Tile in an amount not exceeding the earned surplus of Rolfe. Brick and Tile will surrender to Rolfe and Development for cancellation all their outstanding capital stocks and the two latter corporations will be dissolved. It is contemplated that the liquidation of Rolfe and Development will be effected on December 31, 1942, and that these companies will be dissolved as soon as practicable after liquidation.

The applicants have requested that an order be entered granting the application on or before December 29, 1942.

By the Commission.

John H. Rauscher et al.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE, ETC.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 19th day of December, A. D., 1942.

In the matter of John H. Rauscher, W. D. Courtright, Earl W. Huntley, Paul C. Harper, and Frederick T. Sutton, as Bondholders' Advisory Committee for Northwest Cities Gas Company.

Order permitting declaration to become effective and extending time to consummate certain transactions.

The Commission, having approved by Order dated June 1, 1942, a plan of reorganization of Northwest Cities Gas Company, a subsidiary of Lone Star Gas Corporation, a registered holding company, under section 11 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, submitted by John H. Rauscher, W. D. Courtright, Earl W. Huntley, Paul C. Harper, and Frederick T. Sutton, as a Bondholders' Advisory Committee for Northwest Cities Gas Company;

Jurisdiction having been reserved in said order to enter appropriate orders with respect to a declaration and amendments thereto, filed pursuant to sections 11 (g) and 12 (e) of said Act and the Rules thereunder, with respect to the solicitation by said Bondholders' Advisory Committee of acceptances to the said plan of reorganization, and said Order having provided that the transactions approved therein be carried out within 90 days after such approval;

Various further amendments having been filed by said Bondholders' Advisory Committee to the declaration with respect to the said solicitation of acceptances;

The Bondholders' Advisory Committee having requested that the time for carrying out of the transactions hereinbefore approved be extended to 90 days after the entry of an order by the United States District Court, approving the said plan and the documents for soliciting acceptances to the plan;

The Commission having considered the declaration, as amended, and finding that the requirements of Rule U-62 are complied with, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors to permit the declaration to become effective and to extend the time for carrying out the said transactions to 60 days after the entry of an order by the United States District Court approving the plan and the documents for soliciting acceptances to the plan;

It is hereby ordered, That the said declaration, as amended, filed pursuant to sections 11 (g) and 12 (e) of the Act with respect to the solicitation of acceptances to the Plan be permitted to become effective forthwith in the manner and on the terms set forth therein;

It is further ordered, That the time for carrying out the transactions heretofore approved by order of the Commission dated June 1, 1942, be extended to 60 days after the entry of an order by the United States District Court approving the said plan and the documents for soliciting acceptances to the said plan.

By the Commission.

Butler Suburban Water Company and Butler Water Company

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATIONS TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 19th day of December, A. D. 1942.

The Butler Suburban Water Company and its immediate parent company, The Butler Water Company which is a subsidiary of American Water Works and Electric Company, Incorporated, a registered holding company under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having filed declarations pursuant to sections 12 (c) and 12 (f) thereof and Rules U-42, U-43 and U-46 promulgated thereunder with regard to the sale by The Butler Suburban Water Company for a consideration of approximately $59,638.30 of all of its franchises and all of its property to The Butler Water Company which owns all of the former company's capital stock, such capital stock consisting of 500 shares of $100 par value common stock and constituting all of its outstanding securities and, in connection with its liquidation, the distribution of its net assets to The Butler Water Company, which net assets will consist solely of the cash consideration so to be received, less the necessary, reasonable expenses incurred in the liquidation.

Said declarations having been filed on October 29, 1942 and amended on December 4, 1942, and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said Act, and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said filing within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon;

The Commission finding that the declarations pursuant to sections 12 (c) and 12 (f) of the Act and Rules U-42, U-43, and U-46 thereunder meet the standards thereof and deeming that it is appropriate and in the interest of consumers, investors and the public interest to permit said declarations to become effective;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said Act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that the aforesaid declarations be and the same hereby are permitted to become effective forthwith.

TRI-CITY UTILITIES CO. AND KENTUCKY UTILITIES CO.

ORDER MODIFYING CONDITIONS AND GRANTING EXTENSION OF TIME

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 17th day of December 1942.

In the matter of Tri-City Utilities Company, Successor in interest herein to Kentucky–Tennessee Light and Power Company, and Kentucky Utilities Company.

Applications and declarations, and amendments thereto, having been filed with this Commission by Tri-City Utilities Company, a subsidiary of Associated Electric Company, a registered holding company, and Kentucky Utilities Company, a registered holding company and a subsidiary of The Middle West Corporation, a registered holding company, pursuant to sections 10 and 12 (d), and Rule U-44 thereunder, of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, regarding the sale and exchange of certain electric public utility properties; and

The Commission having by order dated August 17, 1942, granted the applications and permitted the declarations to become effective, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24; and having by further order entered herein on October 9, 1942, modified the said conditions to the extent necessary to extend the time within which such transactions may be consummated to December 17, 1942; and

Tri-City Utilities Company and Kentucky Utilities Company having requested that the said conditions be further modified to the extent necessary to extend the time within which the transactions as set forth in the applications and declarations may be made to February 17, 1943; and the Commission deeming it appropriate that such request be granted;

It is ordered, That the conditions contained in the order of August 17, 1942, be and hereby are modified to the extent necessary to extend the time within which such transactions may be made to February 17, 1943.

JOHN H. RAUSCHER ET AL.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE, ETC.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 19th day of December, A. D., 1942.

In the matter of John H. Rauscher, W. D. Courtright, Earl W. Huntley, Paul C. Harper, and Frederick T. Sutton, as Bondholders' Advisory Committee for Northwest Cities Gas Company.

Order permitting declaration to become effective and extending time to consummate certain transactions.

The Commission, having approved by Order dated June 1, 1942, a plan of reorganization of Northwest Cities Gas Company, a subsidiary of Lone Star Gas Corporation, a registered holding company, under section 11 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, submitted by John H. Rauscher, W. D. Courtright, Earl W. Huntley, Paul C. Harper, and Frederick T. Sutton, as a Bondholders' Advisory Committee for Northwest Cities Gas Company;

Jurisdiction having been reserved in said order to enter appropriate orders with respect to a declaration and amendments thereto, filed pursuant to sections 11 (g) and 12 (e) of said Act and the Rules thereunder, with respect to the solicitation by said Bondholders' Advisory Committee of acceptances to the said plan of reorganization, and said Order having provided that the transactions approved therein be carried out within 90 days after such approval;

Various further amendments having been filed by said Bondholders' Advisory Committee to the declaration with respect to the said solicitation of acceptances;

The Bondholders' Advisory Committee having requested that the time for carrying out of the transactions hereinbefore approved be extended to 90 days after the entry of an order by the United States District Court, approving the said plan and the documents for soliciting acceptances to the plan;

The Commission having considered the declaration, as amended, and finding that the requirements of Rule U-62 are complied with, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors to permit the declaration to become effective and to extend the time for carrying out the said transactions to 60 days after the entry of an order by the United States District Court approving the plan and the documents for soliciting acceptances to the plan;

It is hereby ordered, That the said declaration, as amended, filed pursuant to sections 11 (g) and 12 (e) of the Act with respect to the solicitation of acceptances to the Plan be permitted to become effective forthwith in the manner and on the terms set forth therein;

It is further ordered, That the time for carrying out the transactions heretofore approved by order of the Commission dated June 1, 1942, be extended to 60 days after the entry of an order by the United States District Court approving the said plan and the documents for soliciting acceptances to the said plan.

By the Commission.

BUTLER SUBURBAN WATER COMPANY AND BUTLER WATER COMPANY

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATIONS TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 19th day of December, A. D. 1942.

The Butler Suburban Water Company and its immediate parent company, The Butler Water Company which is a subsidiary of American Water Works and Electric Company, Incorporated, a registered holding company under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having filed declarations pursuant to sections 12 (c) and 12 (f) thereof and Rules U-42, U-43 and U-46 promulgated thereunder with regard to the sale by The Butler Suburban Water Company for a consideration of approximately $59,638.30 of all of its franchises and all of its property to The Butler Water Company which owns all of the former company's capital stock, such capital stock consisting of 500 shares of $100 par value common stock and constituting all of its outstanding securities and, in connection with its liquidation, the distribution of its net assets to The Butler Water Company, which net assets will consist solely of the cash consideration so to be received, less the necessary, reasonable expenses incurred in the liquidation.

Said declarations having been filed on October 29, 1942 and amended on December 4, 1942, and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said Act, and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said filing within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon;

The Commission finding that the declarations pursuant to sections 12 (c) and 12 (f) of the Act and Rules U-42, U-43, and U-46 thereunder meet the standards thereof and deeming that it is appropriate and in the interest of consumers, investors and the public interest to permit said declarations to become effective;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said Act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that the aforesaid declarations be and the same hereby are permitted to become effective forthwith.

Chapter VIII—Sugar Agency

PART 802—SUGAR DETERMINATIONS

FARMING PRACTICES IN PRODUCING SUGAR CANE IN PUERTO RICO, 1942–43

Determination of farming practices to be carried out in connection with production of sugarcane during the crop year 1942–43 in Puerto Rico, pursuant to the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, revised.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 301 (e) of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 802.43e Farming practices to be carried out in connection with the production of sugarcane during the crop year 1942–43.[1] The requirements of section 301 (e) of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, shall be deemed to have been met with respect to any farm in Puerto Rico if soil-conserving food crops for human consumption are grown during the period July 1, 1942, to January 31, 1943, on the type of land and in the manner set forth below:

(a) The land to be used for the production of the crops in question shall be land suitable for the production of sugarcane, and the acreage so used shall be equal to not less than 7% of the land on the farm on which sugarcane is growing at June 30, 1942 (but in no event less than one-tenth of an acre): Provided, however, That (1) not less than 80% of such acreage shall be planted to the types of leguminous food crops required under § 702.301 (e) (1) of the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program Bulletin for the Insular Region and the balance planted to any other food crops therein specified, (2) the plants or vines of such food crops shall not be removed from the land on which grown, and (3) where row crops are to be grown on land of more than 6% average slope, the planting and cultivating shall be carried out along lines deviating not more than 2% from contour lines.

(b) The land devoted to the crops in question shall be suitably prepared by plowing or disking, adequately seeded, and cultivated in a workmanlike manner to assure a good stand at the time of maturity.

This determination supersedes the "Determination of Farming Practices to be Carried Out in Connection with the Production of Sugarcane During the Crop Year 1942–43 in Puerto Rico, Pursuant to the Sugar Act of 1937, as Amended," issued June 26, 1942. (Sec. 301, 50 Stat. 910; 7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 1132)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 23d day of December 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

PART 957—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN CERTAIN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN IDAHO AND MALHEUR, OREGON

ORDER SUSPENDING PROVISIONS

Pursuant to the provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. § 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act", and the order, effective September 5, 1941, pursuant to the provisions of said act, regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in certain designated counties in Idaho and Malheur, Oregon, it is hereby found and determined that the suspension, as hereinafter provided, of the provisions in § 957.2 (a)[1] of said order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the aforesaid act.

It is, therefore, ordered, That the provisions in § 957.2 (a) of the aforesaid order be, and the same hereby are, suspended during the period of time beginning at 12:01 a. m., p. w. t., December --,* 1942, and ending on June 30, 1943, inclusive.

It is further ordered that the suspension of said provisions in § 957.2 (a) of the order shall not (a) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which has arisen or which, prior to the time that the suspension becomes effective, may arise under the aforesaid provisions of the order, or (b) release or extinguish any violation of said § 957.2 (a) of the order which has occurred or which, prior to the time that the suspension becomes effective, may occur, or (c) affect or impair any right or remedy of the United States, the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, or any other person with respect to any such violation which has occurred or which, prior to the time that such suspension becomes effective, may occur.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 23d day of December 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

§ 3.27 (f) Combining or conspiring—To limit distribution to regular or established channels: § 3.39 Dealing on exclusive and tying basis. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of nonpatented wire rope of any type or description, and on the part of respondent Association, and on the part of fifteen corporations, manufacturers of aforesaid product, and their respective officers, etc., entering into, continuing, cooperating in, or carrying out any common course of action, agreement, understanding, combination, or conspiracy between or among any two or more of said respondents, or between any one or more of said respondents and others not parties hereto, to (among other things, as in order set forth), (1) adopt, fix, determine, maintain, or adhere to uniform classifications of customers; (2) define what constitutes a distributor of wire rope, where the purpose or effect is or may be to prevent or restrict the selection of distributors; (3) file with any association, or with any other agency, the names of respondents' distributors of wire rope; (4) authorize the compilation, for circulation among the respondents, of lists showing the names of distributors of any of the respondents; (5) circulate or attempt to circulate among the respondents, by any means or method, lists showing the names of distributors of any of the respondents; (6) refuse by any method or in any manner to make a distributor's contract with any person, firm, or corporation who has been appointed a distributor of and is acting as such for another respondent, where such person, firm, or corporation possesses the qualifications and is able and willing to perform the functions required of the distributors of the respondent so refusing; (7) include in or make a part of any contract which respondents have or may enter into with their respective distributors, any provision which forbids or may forbid such a distributor from selling any wire rope other than that manufactured or sold by the particular respondent with whom such distributor has a distributor's contract; or (8) refuse to appoint distributors in any particular locality or localities; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, The Wire Rope & Strand Manufacturers Association, Inc., et al., Docket 4443, December 8, 1942]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of December, A. D. 1942.

In the Matter of The Wire Rope & Strand Manufacturers Association, Inc., a Membership Corporation; Harry J. Leschen, George S. Whyte, and George P. Lamb, as President, Chairman of the Board, and Executive Secretary, respectively, of The Wire Rope & Strand Manufacturers Association, Inc.; and American Chain and Cable Company, Inc., The American Steel and Wire Company of New Jersey (Referred to the in Complaint as The American Steel and Wire Company), Bethlehem Steel Company (Referred to in the Complaint as The Bethlehem Steel Company), Broderick & Bascom Rope Co., Columbia Steel Company, E. H. Edwards Company, A. Leschen & Sons Rope Company, MacWhyte Company, Pacific Wire Rope Co., Rochester Ropes, Inc., John A. Roebling's Sons Co., Union Wire Rope Corp., The Upson-Walton Company, Wickwire Spencer Steel Company, Wire Rope Corporation of America, Inc., and Wire Rope Manufacturing & Equipment Company, Members of The Wire Rope & Strand Manufacturers Association, Inc.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answers of the respondent, brief filed on behalf of respondent The Wire Rope & Strand Manufacturers Association, Inc., and a stipulation as to the facts entered into between all of the respondents (except Bethlehem Steel Company) and W. T. Kelley, Chief Counsel for the Commission, which provided, among other things, that without further evidence the Commission might issue and serve upon such respondents findings as to the facts and its conclusion based thereon and an order disposing of the proceeding; and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondents (except those named in the last paragraph hereof) have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That respondents The Wire Rope & Strand Manufacturers Association, Inc., American Chain and Cable Company, Inc., The American Steel and Wire Company of New Jersey, Broderick & Bascom Rope Co., Columbia Steel Company, E. H. Edwards Company, A. Leschen & Sons Rope Company, MacWhyte Company, Pacific Wire Rope Co., Rochester Ropes, Inc., John A. Roebling's Sons Co., Union Wire Rope Corp., The Upson - Walton Company, Wickwire Spencer Steel Company, Wire Rope Corporation of America, Inc., and Wire Rope Manufacturing & Equipment Company, corporations, and their respective officers, representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of non-patented wire rope of any type or description, do forthwith cease and desist from entering into, continuing, cooperating in, or carrying out any common course of action, agreement, understanding, combination, or conspiracy between or among any two or more of said respondents, or between any one or more of said respondents and others not parties hereto, to do or perform any of the following acts or things:

1. Fixing, determining, maintaining, or adhering to prices, terms, or conditions of sale of such wire rope to dealers, distributors, or users thereof, including any governmental agency.
2. Adopting, fixing, determining, maintaining, or adhering to any price-fixing formula or formulae for applying discounts of any nature or description, regardless of their designation, to list prices, or for the purpose or with the effect of retaining, eliminating, or interpreting any figures or digits after any decimal point, whereby prices (including net delivered prices) for the sale of such wire rope are or may be fixed, determined, maintained, or adhered to.
3. Establishing, maintaining, or adhering to territorial delivered price zones.
4. Making quotations or sales upon a delivered price basis under a zone system whereby the cost to all customers, or to customers of any particular class or designation, purchasing a particular grade and construction of such wire rope is made identical to all destinations within a particular zone.

5. Adopting, fixing, determining, maintaining, or adhering to the form, amount, or application of base or chain discounts to be allowed, or which may be allowed, by the respondents on purchases of such wire rope.

6. Adopting, fixing, determining, maintaining, or adhering to uniform classifications of customers.

7. Defining what constitutes a distributor of wire rope, where the purpose or effect is or may be to prevent or restrict the selection of distributors.

8. Filing with any association, or with any other agency, the names of respondents' distributors of wire rope.

9. Authorizing the compilation, for circulation among the respondents, of lists showing the names of distributors of any of the respondents.

10. Circulating or attempting to circulate among the respondents, by any means or method, lists showing the names of distributors of any of the respondents.

11. Refusing by any method or in any manner to make a distributor's contract with any person, firm, or corporation who has been appointed a distributor of and is acting as such for another respondent, where such person, firm, or corporation possesses the qualifications and is able and willing to perform the functions required of the distributors of the respondent so refusing.

12. Including in or making a part of any contract which respondents have or may enter into with their respective distributors, any provision which forbids or may forbid such a distributor from selling any wire rope other than that manufactured or sold by the particular respondent with whom such distributor has a distributor's contract.

13. Refusing to appoint distributors in any particular locality or localities.

It is further ordered, That said respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

It is further ordered, That the complaint herein be, and it hereby is, dismissed as to respondents Harry J. Leschen, George S. Whyte, George P. Lamb, and Bethlehem Steel Company.

By the Commission.

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of December, A. D. 1942.

In the Matter of Joseph Cohen, an Individual Trading as Press Radio Service and as Press Supplies

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondent, in which answer respondent admits all of the material allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and states that he waives all intervening procedure and further hearing as to the facts; and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Joseph Cohen, individually and trading as Press Radio Service and as Press Supplies, or trading under any other name, and his agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution of respondent's so-called press supplies in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using the name "Press Radio Service," or any other name of similar import, to designate or describe respondent's business; or otherwise representing, directly or by implication, that respondent operates or is affiliated or connected with any press or radio service.

2. Selling or distributing so-called press cards purporting to carry any authorization or credentials from respondent which will afford the holders of such cards passage through police or fire lines, or to any other place; or otherwise representing, directly or by implication, that respondent is able to grant such authorization or credentials.

3. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondent is affiliated or connected with the radio industry or with any press association, newspaper syndicate, or publisher; or that respondent is able to offer employment to or obtain employment for writers or reporters, either on a part or full time basis.

4. Representing that respondent's business is nationally or prominently established.

5. Representing that respondent's business is headquarters for the Nation's press supplies, or that respondent's stock of press supplies is unlimited.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with this order.

TITLE 18—CONSERVATION OF POWER

Chapter I—Federal Power Commission

[Order No. 103]

PART 35—FILING OF RATE SCHEDULES

FILING OF CERTAIN CONTRACTS, ETC.

DECEMBER 22, 1942.

Rescinding Order No. 97[1] and amending the "Rules of Practice and Regulations With Approved Forms, Effective June 1, 1938" (under the Federal Power Act).

The Commission, acting pursuant to the authority vested in it by the Federal Power Act, particularly section 309 thereof, and finding such action appropriate for effectuating the purposes of that Act and the President's directives of September 26 and October 22, 1942, concerning the purchase of electric power for war plants and establishments, hereby amends the "Rules of Practice and Regulations With Approved Forms, Effective June 1, 1938" (under the Federal Power Act), as heretofore prescribed and amended, by rescinding § 35.25 thereof, prescribed June 23, 1942, by Order No. 97 entitled "Order Prescribing the Filing of Certain Contracts and Material by Electric Utilities, Licensees, and Others."

The amendment adopted, promulgated, and prescribed by this order shall become effective January 1, 1943.

The Secretary of the Commission shall cause prompt publication of this order to be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue

Subchapter C—Miscellaneous Excise Taxes

[T. D. 5203]

PART 323—SPECIAL TAXES WITH RESPECT TO COIN-OPERATED AMUSEMENT AND GAMBLING DEVICES, BOWLING ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES AND POOL TABLES[1]

REGULATIONS 59 (1941 EDITION) AMENDED

In order to conform Regulations 59 (1941 edition) [Part 323, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1941 Sup.] to section 617 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, Seventy-seventh Congress, second session), such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Subpart C relating to coin-operated amusement and gaming devices is amended by inserting immediately after the quotation of section 3267 the following:

SEC. 617. COIN-OPERATED AMUSEMENT AND GAMING DEVICES. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

(a) Increase in rate on gambling devices. Section 3267 (a) (2) and (3) (relating to rate of tax on gambling devices) is amended by striking out "$50" and inserting in lieu thereof "$100".

(b) Definition. Section 3267 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Definition. As used in this Part, the term "coin-operated amusement and gaming devices" means (1) any amusement or music machine operated by means of the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object, and (2) so-called "slot" machines which operate by means of insertion of a coin, token, or similar object and which, by application of the element of chance, may deliver, or entitle the person playing or operating the machine to receive, cash, premium, merchandise, or tokens. The term does not include bona fide vending machines in which are not incorporated gaming or amusement features. For the purposes of this section, a vending machine operated by means of the insertion of a 1 cent coin, which, when it dispenses a prize, never dispenses a prize of a retail value of, or entitles a person to receive a prize of a retail value of, more than 5 cents, and if the only prize dispensed is merchandise and not cash or tokens shall be classified under clause (1) and not under clause (2).

(c) Effective date of amendments. The amendments made by this section shall be first applicable as follows:

(1) In the case of machines the rate of tax on which is increased, to the year beginning July 1, 1943.

(2) In the case of machines not subject to tax prior to such amendments, no tax shall be payable with respect to any period before the effective date of this title.

(3) In the case of machines if the limitation on the amount of the prize dispensed is 5 cents, to the year beginning July 1, 1942.

PAR. 2. Section 323.20 is amended to read as follows:

§ 323.20 Effective date of tax. The special taxes with respect to coin-operated amusement and gaming devices imposed by section 3267, added to the Internal Revenue Code by section 555 of the Revenue Act of 1941, became effective October 1, 1941. The effective dates of changes made in such section 3267 by the Revenue Act of 1942 are as follows:

(a) Effective July 1, 1943, except as indicated by (c) below, the rate of tax applicable with respect to gaming devices operated by means of the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object is increased from $50 to $100 per annum.

(b) Effective November 1, 1942, any amusement or music machine operated by means of the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object, not within the scope of section 3267 as originally enacted, is subject to tax.

(c) Effective July 1, 1942, the tax on a vending machine, operated by means of the insertion of a 1 cent coin, which dispenses, or entitles a person to receive, a prize of a value of not more than 5 cents consisting of merchandise only, and never of cash or tokens, is reduced from $50 to $10.

PAR. 3. The first paragraph of § 323.22, which includes both paragraphs (a) and (b), is amended to read as follows:

§ 23.22 Rates and computation of tax. Special taxes are imposed as follows:

(a) Effective October 1, 1941, and continuing through October 31, 1942, $10 per year in the case of each so-called "pin-ball" or other similar amusement machine operated by means of the insertion of a coin, token, or other similar object.

(b) Effective November 1, 1942, $10 per year in the case of any amusement or music machine operated by means of the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object, including machines within the scope of paragraph (a), except that where, prior to November 1, 1942, tax for any period has been paid with respect to a machine within the scope of such paragraph (a), no further tax with respect to such machine for the same period will be due.

(c) Effective July 1, 1942, $10 per year in the case of each vending machine operated by means of the insertion of a 1 cent coin, which dispenses a prize of a retail value of, or entitles a person to receive a prize of a retail value of, not more than 5 cents, consisting of merchandise only and never of cash or tokens.

(d) Effective October 1, 1941, and continuing through June 30, 1943, $50, and effective July 1, 1943, $100, per year in the case of each so-called "slot" machine which operates by means of the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object and which, by application of the element of chance, may deliver, or entitle the person playing or operating the machine to receive, cash, premiums, merchandise, or tokens; except that this subparagraph shall not be applicable for any period after June 30, 1942, with respect to any machine covered by paragraph (c) above.

PAR. 4. Section 323.22 is amended by adding after the last paragraph thereof the following:

Examples of machines which, when operated by means of the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object, are regarded as gaming devices for purposes of these regulations are:

(a) A "pin-ball" machine with respect to which unused "free plays" are redeemed in cash, tokens, or merchandise, or with respect to which prizes are offered to any person for the attainment of designated scores.

(b) A machine which, even though it does not dispense cash or tokens, has incorporated gaming features in the form of combinations of insignia on reels or drums.

An order granting temporary and conditionally final relief as prayed for having been issued herein on October 22, 1942, 7 F.R. 8987; and

A motion having been filed herein by the above-named party requesting that the relief heretofore granted be continued to March 22, 1943, and to become final at that time unless otherwise ordered during the intervening period; and

It appearing from said motion and the original petition herein that the temporary and conditionally final relief heretofore granted concerns the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for Size Groups 24 to 27, inclusive, special purpose coal, produced by two mines from the Douglas Seam in the Williamson subdistrict of District No. 8; that the actual performance of such special purpose coals is a relatively more important criterion than in the case of other coals in determining the relative market value of such coals, for the reason that the factors which are indicative of relative market value are relatively less strong in the case of special purpose coals; and that the petitioner herein has been unable to secure any data as to the actual performance of the said Douglas Seam coals for special purpose use and probably will be unable to secure and consider such data for minimum price purposes substantially prior to March 22, 1943; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of said motion; and

No petitions of intervention or motions in opposition having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the motion be and the same hereby is granted and the temporary and conditionally final relief heretofore granted by the order issued herein on October 22, 1942, 7 F.R. 8987, be, and the same hereby is, continued to March 22, 1943, at which time such relief shall become final, unless othewise ordered during the intervening period.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Dated: December 22, 1942.

Director.

TITLE 31—MONEY AND FINANCE: TREASURY

Chapter I—Monetary Offices

PART 101—PHYSICAL PROPERTIES OF COINS

ONE-CENT PIECE

Whereas the Act of December 18, 1942 (Public Law No. 815, 77th Congress) provides in part as follows:

> SEC. 1. (a) There shall be included among the coins of the United States one or more special series of coins: Provided, That the coinage, issuance, and circulation of the coins provided for by this section shall be subject in all respects to the conditions, terms, provisions, limitations, and exceptions specified in subsections (b) to (j) hereof.
>
> (b) No denomination or series of coins provided for by this section shall be coined unless and until the Secretary of the Treasury shall have issued an order that shall (1) prescribe the particular denomination or series, stating the pertinent physical properties, including content, weight, dimensions, shape, and design: Provided, That in determining such physical properties the Secretary shall take into consideration the use of such coins in coin-operated devises; and (2) state that he has determined, after consultation with the appropriate officials charged with the production of war material, that the coinage and circulation of the particular series will operate to conserve strategic metals in furtherance of the war effort.
> (c) There shall be no coinage pursuant to the provisions of this section after December 31, 1946.
>
> (d) The coinage provided for by this section shall not be of other denominations than 1-cent piece and 3-cent piece and the amount of coinage of each such denomination shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.
>
> (e) Each denomination of coins provided for by this section shall constitute a series: Provided, That if one denomination is coined in more than one physical form or composition, the pieces of each different physical form or composition shall constitute a separate series.
>
> (f) The coinage provided for by this section shall be in pieces of such metallic, or other or different content, weight, dimensions, shape, limits of tolerance, and design (including devices and legends), as the Secretary of the Treasury may by regulation prescribe for the particular denomination or series: Provided, That no silver shall be used for the coinage provided for by this section except as specified in subsection (g) hereof.
> (g) For the coinage of any series, the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to allocate to the Director of the Mint, at such times and in such amounts as the Secretary of the Treasury deems necessary, any silver bullion in the monetary stocks of the United States not then held for redemption of any outstanding silver certificates. Silver contained in any pieces coined under section 1 of this Act shall be accounted for by entries in the fund established for the purchase of metal for minor coinage: Provided, That the value of any silver bullion accounted for in said fund shall not be considered for the purpose of determining the statutory limit of said fund: Provided further, That the gain from the coinage of silver hereunder shall be accounted for by entries in the minor coinage profit fund. If any series is coined of silver or in part of silver, the pieces of said series shall nevertheless be deemed to be other than silver coins, subsidiary silver coins, silver coinage, or subsidiary silver coinage within the meaning of the monetary laws of the United States.
> (h) The coinage provided for by this section shall be minor coinage, and the provisions of amended section 3528 of the Revised Statutes (U.S.C., title 31, sec. 340) shall apply with respect to any necessary purchases of metal or other material for the coinage provided for by this section: Provided, however, That contracts for said purchases may be entered into in accordance with the provisions of title II of the First War Powers Act, 1941 (55 Stat. 839; U.S.C., Supp. 1, title 50, app., sec. 611).
>
> (i) For the purpose of amended section 3529 of the Revised Statutes (U.S.C., title 31, sec. 341), the coinage provided for in this section shall be in the same category as the minor coins referred to in said section 3529.
>
> (j) Except as provided in this Act, the coinage provided for by this section shall be subject in all respects to the monetary laws of the United States, including, but not by way of limitation, the laws pertaining to counterfeiting, to legal tender, and to the distribution, exchange, and redemption of coins and currency.
>
> SEC. 2. During the period when the coinage provided for by section 1 of this Act may be coined, the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized in his discretion to cause the coinage of any or all of the other minor coins to be suspended for the whole of said period or for any part or parts thereof.

and

Whereas I have determined, after consultation with the Chairman of the War Production Board, that the coinage and circulation of the 1-cent piece hereinafter described, will operate to conserve strategic metals in furtherance of the war effort, and

Whereas in determining the physical properties of the 1-cent piece hereinafter described, I have taken into consideration its use in coin-operated devices;

Now therefore, I, Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Secretary of the Treasury, do hereby order that:

§ 101.1 One-cent piece. (a) Until further notice, or until December 31, 1946, whichever shall first occur, the 1-cent piece coined by the United States mints, shall have the following physical properties:

(1) It shall be composed of steel with the obverse and reverse sides covered with a coating of .00025 inches of zinc.

(2) It shall weigh 41.5 grains.

(3) It shall have a diameter of .750 inches.

(4) It shall be in the shape of a disc.

(5) It shall not vary in weight by more than 3 grains; it shall not vary in diameter by more than .002 inches; and the zinc coating shall not exceed .001 inches.

(6) It shall contain the same design, devices and legends as those used since 1909, for the 1-cent piece coined pursuant to amended section 3515 of the Revised Statutes (U.S.C. title 31, sec. 317).

(b) After January 1, 1943 and during the period in which the above described 1-cent piece is coined, the coinage of 1-cent pieces pursuant to the provisions of amended section 3515 of the Revised Statutes (U.S.C. title 31, sec. 317) shall be suspended.

This order may be modified or revoked at any time.

[SEAL] HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

PART 1128—CLOSURES FOR GLASS CONTAINERS

[Conservation Order M-104 as Amended Dec. 23, 1942]

Section 1128.1 Conservation Order M-104 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1128.1 Conservation Order M-104—(a) Definitions. (1) "Closure" means any sealing or covering device affixed or to be affixed to a glass container for the purpose of retaining the contents within the container.

(2) "Glass container" means any bottle, jar, or tumbler which is made of glass and which is suitable for packing any product.

(3) "Tinplate" means sheet steel coated with tin, and includes "primes," "seconds," "waste-waste," and all other forms of tinplate except waste.

(4) "Terneplate" means sheet steel coated with a lead-tin alloy, and includes "primes," "seconds," "waste-waste," and all other forms of terneplate except waste.

(5) "Blackplate" means any sheet steel, other than tinplate or terneplate, suitable for manufacture into closures, and includes "rejects," "electrolytic waste-waste," and all other forms of blackplate except waste.

(6) "Waste" means used closures and used cans, made of tinplate, terneplate, or blackplate; and scrap tinplate, terneplate, and blackplate produced in the ordinary course of manufacturing closures.

(7) "Rubber," whether a separate sealing ring or incorporated into a closure, means any polyvinyl acetate, or any crude rubber, latex, scrap rubber, reclaimed rubber, or synthetic rubber, as defined by Supplementary Order M-15-b, as amended from time to time.

(8) "Pack," unless particularly specified, means the number of closures used for packing a product during the base period specified.

(b) Restrictions upon manufacture, sale, and delivery of closures. (1) No person shall sell or deliver any closure made in whole or in part of tinplate, terneplate, blackplate, wire, rubber, or waste, except under a purchase order or contract validated by delivery to such person of a purchaser's certificate, manually signed by the purchaser or an authorized official of the purchaser, in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. No person shall manufacture, sell, or deliver any such closure which he knows or has reason to believe will be used in violation of any provision of this order.

(2) No person shall use any tinplate, terneplate, blackplate, waste or rubber for the manufacture of the following types of closures:

(i) Cover caps which serve as a protective or decorative closure in addition to any original sealing medium such as another closure or paraffin.

(ii) Double shell or semi-double shell caps.

(iii) Two-piece closures when both pieces are made of metal, except as permitted in paragraph (b) (3).

(3) No person shall use any tinplate, terneplate, blackplate, wire, or rubber for the manufacture of any closure of the home canning type, except as, and to the extent permitted in Schedule V attached to this order. No closure manufactured pursuant to Schedule V shall knowingly be sold to any person for packing any product for sale.

(4) No person shall use any tinplate, terneplate, or blackplate, except "rejects" or "electrolytic waste-waste," heavier than 90 pounds per base box, for the manufacture of crown caps.

(5) No person shall use for the manufacture of closures any tinplate with a tin coating in excess of 1.25 pounds per base box.

(c) Restrictions upon purchase, acceptance of delivery, and use of closures. No person shall, during any calendar year (or seasonal year or other period, when specified) purchase, accept delivery of, or use for packing a product, any closure made in whole or in part of tinplate, terneplate, blackplate, or rubber, except as, and to the extent permitted in Schedules I, II, III, and IV, attached to this order; Provided, however, That a jobber or retailer may obtain and sell closures in conformity with the provisions of this order. Blackplate may be used wherever tinplate or terneplate is specified. Closures made of waste shall not be used for packing any product for which closures made of tinplate, terneplate, and blackplate are totally prohibited.

(d) Exceptions. (1) Nothing in this order shall prohibit any person who used less than 5,000 closures during the calendar year 1942 from purchasing, accepting delivery of, or using without restriction, an aggregate of 5,000 closures during any subsequent calendar year.

(2) The restrictions imposed by this order shall not apply to the purchase, acceptance of delivery, or use of closures for packing any product not listed in the schedules attached to this order, when such closures, on or before December 23, 1942, were completely manufactured or were in the form of tinplate, terneplate, or blackplate fully lithographed with a person's private design cut into strips.

(3) No certificate shall be required for the sale or delivery of closures to:

(i) Retailers;

(ii) Persons purchasing closures from retailers.

(4) Nothing in this order shall prohibit the purchase, acceptance of delivery, or use (such use to be in addition to any quota specified in the schedules attached to this order) of closures by any of the following persons or by any person for packing any product to be delivered to or for the account of any of the following persons:

(i) Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration of the United States (including persons operating vessels for such Administration or Commission for use thereon).

(ii) Any person for packing products for retail sale or distribution through post-exchanges, sales commissaries, officers' messes, servicemen's clubs, ship service stores, or outlets; provided same are located at Army or Navy camps, are not operated for private profit and are established primarily for the use of Army or Navy enlisted personnel within Army or Navy establishments or on Army or Navy vessels.

(iii) American Red Cross or United Service Organizations.

(iv) Any agency of the United States purchasing for a foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(v) Any person in the Territory of Hawaii; provided that the exception provided by this paragraph (d) (4) (v) shall be limited to closures used in connection with the packing of products to be consumed in the said Territory.

(e) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(3) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Containers Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref: M-104.

(4) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

SCHEDULE IV

BEVERAGE CLOSURES

A. From December 23, 1942, to December 31, 1942, any person shall have the option of using closures for the bottling of malt and non-alcoholic beverages in accordance with the provisions of Order M–104 as amended September 26, 1942, or in accordance with this schedule. On and after January 1, 1943, no person shall use closures for such purpose except in accordance with this schedule.

Product—Bottling quota	Closure material
Product: Malt beverages, including only beer, ale, porter, near-beer, and mixtures thereof. Quota: Any person who produced in 1941 less than 65,000 barrels may use in any calendar month, commencing with December 1, 1942, 100 percent, and any person who produced in 1941 over 65,000 barrels may use in any calendar month, commencing with December 1, 1942, 70 percent of the number of closures affixed by him to glass containers during the corresponding month of 1941. In the case of a person who packed all or part of his 1941 production in cans, each such can may be counted as a closure affixed to a glass container. In the case of a person who did not produce any malt beverages in 1941, such beverages bottled by him, shall be considered as having been produced by him, and his authorized usage of closures shall be calculated accordingly.	Tinplate and blackplate allocated for purposes of crown manufacture, only, and in inventory of crown manufacturer or bottler on or before December 11, 1942. Also rejects and electrolytic waste-waste.
Product: Non-alcoholic beverages, including only carbonated soft drinks; non-carbonated soft drinks; unflavored carbonated waters; unflavored naturally carbonated and still waters; drinks consisting of fruit juices, vegetable juices, and combinations thereof, where less than 85 percent by weight of such drinks is pure fruit juice, vegetable juice, or a mixture thereof; and sterilized milk drinks made with powdered milk. Quota: Any person who used in 1941 less than 5,000 gross of closures, may use during any calendar quarter, commencing with October 1, 1942, 100 percent of the number of closures affixed by him to glass containers during the corresponding quarter of 1941. Any person who used in 1941 more than 5,000 and less than 7,000 gross of closures, may use not to exceed 5,000 gross of closures in any twelve-month period, commencing with October 1, 1942; the number used during any calendar quarter to be at the same proportionate rate he affixed closures to glass containers during the corresponding quarter of 1941. Any person who used in 1941 more than 7,000 gross of closures, may use during any calendar quarter, commencing with October 1, 1942, 70 percent of the number of closures affixed by him to glass containers during the corresponding quarter of 1941.	Tinplate and blackplate allocated for purposes of crown manufacture only, and in inventory of crown manufacturer or bottler on or before December 11, 1942. Also rejects and electrolytic waste-waste.

(1) No person, other than a jobber purchasing for resale, shall accept delivery of malt beverage or non-alcoholic beverage closures which would increase his inventory beyond 20 percent of the number of such closures and cans which he used in 1941 for packing malt beverages and non-alcoholic beverages.

(2) Closures for waters. Except with regard to items listed in Schedule II, no closures made of tinplate, terneplate, or blackplate shall be affixed to glass containers smaller than 12 fluid ounces, for packing unflavored carbonated, natural or mineral waters, unless such glass containers were manufactured on or before June 1, 1942.

(3) All persons who bottle malt beverages or non-alcoholic beverages, shall report upon Form PD–519 to the Containers Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C.

PART 1084—CANNED FOODS

[Supplementary Order M–86–b, as Amended Dec. 24, 1942]

Section 1084.3 Supplementary Order M–86–b is amended to read as follows:

§ 1084.3 Supplementary Order M–86–b. (a) Notwithstanding any previous notice of release by any government agency, or notice given by any canner pursuant to paragraph (c) (3) of Order M–86, no canner after December 24, 1942, may sell or delivery any part of his pack of the following fish packed by him at any time from March 1, 1942 to February 28, 1943, except as permitted by this order:

Group 1 Salmon: Red, sockeye, or blueback (Oncorhynchus nerka); Pink (Oncorhynchus gorbuscha); Silver, silverside, medium red, or coho (Oncorhynchus kisutch); Chum or keta (Oncorhynchus keta); King, chinook or spring (Oncorhynchus tschawytscha); Steelhead, or steelhead trout (Salmo irideus and S. Clarki, sometimes called S. Gairdneri).

Group 2 Pilchard: (Sardinia caerulea), by whatever name known, including sardines.

Group 3 Sea herring: Atlantic (Clupea harengus), by whatever name known, including sardines.

Group 4 Mackerel: Atlantic (Scomber scombrus); Pacific (Pneumatophorus japonicus

(b) Each canner may deliver, to any agency or agencies of the United States Government specifically designated by the Director General for Operations, any part or all of the canned fish listed in paragraph (a) packed by him at any time.

(c) 80% by net weight is hereby established as each canner's quota percentage for such sale to Government agencies of his pack of each species of groups 2, 3, and 4, and 60% of his pack of each species of group 1 of canned fish listed in paragraph (a), packed during each quota period. The following quota periods are hereby established:

Period 1—March 1, 1942—December 31, 1942.

Period 2—January 1943.

Period 3—February 1943.

(d) Any canner who has delivered to Government agencies his quota of his pack of any species of any group of canned fish listed in paragraph (a), packed during any quota period, may deliver to persons other than Government agencies 20% of his pack of such species, packed during such quota period. Such 20% of his pack may be delivered by a canner in advance of delivery of his quota to Government agencies if so authorized by the Government agency to which such canner's pack is allocated, provided such agency finds that the canner is unable to deliver his quota for reasons beyond his control and provided, further, that he has obligated himself by contract to make delivery of his quota when able. Provided further that if, prior to December 24, 1942, and under specific authorization granted by the Agricultural Marketing Administration or the Food Distribution Administration a canner has delivered to persons other than Government agencies in excess of 20% of his pack of any species of any group, such deliveries are not in violation of this order.

(e) Directions as to styles, types of pack, can sizes, labeling, boxes, and strapping may be given to any canner packing any canned fish listed in paragraph (a), by the Director General for Operations, or the agency to which a canner's pack is allocated.

(f) The report prescribed by paragraph (c) (2) of Order M–86 shall be filed weekly within three days after the close of each calendar week on Form PD–495, "Canned Fish; Weekly Pack Report." A report on such form, shall be filed within fifteen days after the completion of each canner's seasonal pack, covering the entire amount of such pack.

(g) Until further notice, the Food Distribution Administration within the Department of Agriculture is hereby allocated the quotas prescribed by this order, and authorized to purchase, for governmental requirements, those quantities and such other and further quantities as may be allocated to it from time to time. Said Food Distribution Administration is also authorized to inspect and grade such canned fish pursuant to paragraph (e) of Order M–86.

PART 1206—HORSEHIDE

[Supplementary Order M–141–b]

Pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) of Order M–141 as amended to November 4, 1942, which this order supplements, the Director General for Operations hereby determines that:

§ 1206.3 Supplementary Order M–141–b. During January 1943 no tanner shall put in process and no converter shall cause to be put in process for his account:

(a) More than 100% of his basic monthly quota of wet salted horsehide fronts.

(b) More than 80% of his basic monthly quota of horsehide butts.

(c) More than 80% of his basic monthly quota of horsehide shanks.

PART 3032—FILM

[Limitation Order L–178 as Amended Dec. 19, 1942 [1]]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of film for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3032.1 General Limitation Order L–178—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "35 mm. film" means unexposed film 35 mm. wide with a nitrate or safety base, whether negative or positive, other than film packaged for use in 35 mm. still cameras.

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(3) "Transfer" means to sell, lease, trade, lend, deliver, ship or transfer 35 mm. film from one person to any other person. For the purposes of this order, the following shall not be regarded as transfers:

(i) To sell, lease, trade, lend, deliver, ship or transfer 35 mm. film from one branch, division or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control;

(ii) A transfer of title merely for security purposes to a person financing a conditional sale or a similar transaction made simultaneously with the transfer of 35 mm. film.

(b) Restrictions on transfers of film on and after 11:59 p. m., Eastern War Time, August 20, 1942. On and after 11:59 p. m., Eastern War Time, August 20, 1942, until 11:59 p. m., Eastern War Time, December 31, 1942, no person shall transfer any 35 mm. film, except pursuant to specific authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(c) Records and reports. (1) Every person, other than the Army or Navy of the United States, who has any 35 mm. film on August 20, 1942, shall keep and preserve, for not less than two years, accurate and complete records of all such 35 mm. film and of all sales and shipments made by him pursuant to this order. Such records shall be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(2) On or before the 15th day following August 20, 1942, every person, other than the Army or Navy of the United States, who has any 35 mm. film on August 20, 1942 shall file with the War Production Board a statement of the amount in linear feet and type of 35 mm. film in stock on August 20, 1942.

(d) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(e) Applications for specific authorization by the Director General for Operations. Any person desiring film may apply in writing to the Director General for Operations, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–178, fully setting forth the amount in linear feet by types of 35 mm. film desired, the reasons why such person deems it appropriate that he obtain such film and the use to which such film is to be put. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

PART 3148—INDUSTRIAL TYPE INSTRUMENTS

[General Limitation Order L–234]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the production of industrial type instruments for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3148.1 General Limitation Order L–234—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person to the extent that he is engaged in the production, fabrication or assembly of industrial type instruments, as defined below; and includes sales and distribution outlets controlled by such person.

(3) "Industrial type instrument" means any new mechanism of the kinds or types listed and defined on List A issued with this order as amended from time to time, whether or not to be used in an industrial process. The term shall not include (i) any combat measuring instruments as defined in Limitation Order L–203, or (ii) any instruments normally used on passenger automobiles and carriers, trucks, trailers, and off-the-highway motor vehicles, as defined in Limitation Order L–158.

(b) Filing of monthly reports; production and delivery schedules may be prescribed. (1) On or before the 10th day of January, 1943, and the 10th day of each succeeding calendar month, every manufacturer shall file with the Director General for Operations a report on Form PD–750 containing the information required thereby, and shall also file such supplementary information as the Director General for Operations may from time to time require.

(2) Regardless of the terms of any other order or rule or regulation of the War Production Board, or of any contractual commitment by any manufacturer, purchaser or other person, the Director General for Operations may from time to time (i) prescribe production and delivery schedules for any manufacturer, for any industrial type instruments, and for any periods of time, (ii) direct the cancellation of any order held by any manufacturer, (iii) allocate any undelivered order to any other manufacturer, or (iv) direct the delivery of any industrial type instrument, whether in production or completed, to any other person, in accordance with prices and terms regularly established for sales by the supplying manufacturer to such a purchaser; and each manufacturer shall schedule and effect his production and make deliveries of industrial type instruments in accordance with any such direction of the Director General for Operations. No manufacturer shall alter any such schedule except upon specific direction from the Director General for Operations, but the point of delivery may be changed by the same purchaser without such authorization.

(3) In case of unavoidable delay, any manufacturer unable to maintain production and delivery in accordance with any such prescribed schedule shall immediately notify the War Production Board, by letter or telegram stating the reasons for such delay and the extent of the interruption of such schedule which has resulted and is expected to result therefrom. Any manufacturer may maintain a rate of production greater than anticipated in such schedule but shall give like notice of that fact. In either case the manufacturer shall continue to produce and deliver industrial type instruments in accordance with the sequence established by such schedule, unless and until otherwise directed by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as issued and amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision of this order may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provision of this order shall govern.

(2) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, purchases, production, and sales of industrial type instruments.

All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(3) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(4) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment, In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(5) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order or any direction thereunder shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(6) Communications. All reports to be filed and other communications concerning this order should be addressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–234.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 24th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 3153—MAINTENANCE, REPAIR AND OPERATING SUPPLIES FOR LOGGERS AND PRODUCERS

[Preference Rating Order P–138]

For the purpose of facilitating the acquisition of material for operating supplies and for maintenance and repair of property and equipment used in the production of logs and lumber in the public interest and to promote the national defense, preference ratings are hereby assigned to deliveries of such material on the terms hereinafter set forth:

§ 3153.1 Preference Rating Order P–138—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Logger" means any person actually engaged in the production of logs of any species within the limits of the United States, its territories or possessions, or the Dominion of Canada.

(2) "Producer" means any plant within the limits of the United States, its territories or possessions, or the Dominion of Canada which processes, by sawing, edging, planing, cutting, slicing, peeling, laminating or other comparable method, 25% or more of the total volume of logs, cants, flitches, veneers, and lumber purchased or received by it, and which sells as lumber, plywood or veneer the product of such processing. "Volume" means board foot volume, or in the case of plywood or veneer, surface measure, processed or sold within the last six calendar months immediately prior to the transaction affected by this order.

(3) "Maintenance" means minimum upkeep necessary to continue the working condition of equipment used in connection with log, lumber, plywood or veneer production by a logger or producer at its maximum rate of actual production.

(4) "Repair" means the restoration of property or equipment used in connection with log, lumber, plywood or veneer production by a logger or producer in a sound working condition after wear and tear, damage, destruction or failure of parts or the like have made the property or equipment unfit or unsafe for service.

(5) "Operating supplies" means material which is essential to the operation of property and equipment used in connection with log, lumber, plywood or veneer production, or essential to the production or disposition of logs, lumber, plywood or veneer by a logger or producer and which is generally carried as stores and charged to operating expense account, but not including office supplies.

(6) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind.

(7) Material for maintenance, repair and operating supplies includes only material which is essential to minimum service standards, and does not include

(i) Material for the improvement of a logger's or producer's property or equipment through the replacement of material which is still usable with material of a better kind, quality or design.

(ii) Material controlled by Limitation Order L–158 or Limitation Order L–53–b.

(iii) Material for additions to, or expansions of, any logger's or producer's plant, or for new construction.

(b) Assignment of preference ratings. Subject to the restrictions of paragraph (d) hereof, a preference rating of AA–2X is hereby assigned to deliveries of material for maintenance, repair and operating supplies to a logger or producer.

(c) Application and extension of preference ratings. Preference ratings assigned by or pursuant to this order shall be applied in accordance with the terms of paragraph (d) (1) of Priorities Regulation No. 3, as amended from time to time.

(d) Restrictions on application of ratings. (1) A logger or producer shall not apply the rating assigned by paragraph (b) above to deliveries, nor shall he accept deliveries (whether or not rated pursuant to this order), of material to replace other material withdrawn from his inventory of maintenance, repair and operating supplies where receipt of such deliveries will increase such inventory to an amount greater than the minimum necessary for maintenance, repair and to sustain the maximum rate of production of the logger or producer.

(2) The cost of material for maintenance, repair and operating supplies to which the rating assigned by paragraph (b) above may be applied by a logger or producer in any calendar year shall not exceed 110% of the cost of such material actually used by the logger or producer applying the rating in the most recent preceding calendar year in which such logger or producer was logging, or producing lumber, plywood or veneer, and in any calendar quarter shall not exceed 40% of the cost of the material to which a rating may be applied in the same calendar year.

(3) A logger or producer shall not apply the ratings assigned by paragraph (b) to obtain deliveries of scarce material, the use of which could be eliminated without serious loss of efficiency by substitution of a less scarce material.

(4) The assignment of a preference rating by paragraph (b) above shall not constitute authorization to begin construction under Conservation Order No. L–41, and shall not authorize the use or delivery of any material, or the application or extension of any preference rating in violation of the provisions of any conservation, limitation or other order or regulation heretofore or hereafter issued by the Director of Priorities, the Office of Production Management, or by the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations of the War Production Board.

(e) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time; except that after the effective date of this order no logger or producer shall be entitled to extend preference ratings for repair, maintenance and operating supplies pursuant to paragraph (c) (3) of Priorities Regulation No. 3.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed as follows: Lumber and Lumber Products Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref.: P–138.

Issued this 24th day of December 1942.

PART 1306—IRON AND STEEL

[RPS 49,[1] Amendment 9]

RESALE OF IRON OR STEEL PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

New paragraphs (t), (u), (v), (w) and (x) are added to § 1306.157; a new paragraph (i) is added to § 1306.158a; and a new paragraph (r) is added to § 1306.159:

§ 1306.157 Definitions. * * *

(t) "Mill run long ties", or "longs", means cotton bale ties 11′ 6″ in length, removed from bales of cotton, cotton linters, and cotton waste.

(u) "Mill run short ties", or "shorts", means cotton bale ties shorter than 11′ 6″ in length, removed from bales of cotton, cotton linters and cotton waste.

(v) "Whole secondhand ties" means rebundled and straightened cotton bale ties, 7′ 3″ or longer, free of riveted or spliced joints, in standard bundles of 30 ties and 30 buckles.

(w) "Riveted or spliced secondhand ties" means rebundled and straightened cotton bale ties, 7′ 3″ or longer, riveted or spliced together from two or more pieces of mill run short ties in standard bundles of 30 ties and 30 buckles.

(x) "F. o. b. port" means any one of the following ports, the use of which results in the lowest delivered price to destination of the customer: Norfolk, Virginia; Wilmington, North Carolina; Charleston, South Carolina; Savannah, Georgia; Mobile, Alabama; New Orleans, Louisiana; Galveston, Texas; Houston, Texas; Texas City, Texas.

§ 1306.159 Appendix A: Domestic and export maximum prices for iron and steel products. * * *

(r) Cotton bale ties. (1) The maximum delivered price for any seller of new cotton bale ties shall be the price he charged or would have charged on August 1, 1941.

(2) The maximum price for any seller of mill run ties shall be:

(i) For shorts, $.60 per 100 pounds, f. o. b. location of material.

(ii) For longs, $1.25 per 100 pounds, f. o. b. location of material.

(3) The maximum delivered price for any seller of secondhand, reprocessed, or reconditioned cotton bale ties shall be as follows, plus less-than-carload freight from the applicable port on less-than-carload shipments and carload freight from the applicable port on carload shipments:

(i) On sales to cotton ginners,

(a) For whole ties, $1.45 per bundle, f. o. b. port.

(b) For riveted or spliced ties, $1.35 per bundle, f. o. b. port.

(ii) On sales to all other persons, including, but not limited to, jobbers, cotton compressors, and cottonseed oil mills.

(a) For whole ties, $1.40 per bundle, f. o. b. port.

(b) For riveted or spliced ties, $1.30 per bundle, f. o. b. port.

(4) Relationship to Maximum Price Regulation No. 211.[2] Sales of cotton bale ties by cotton ginners as part of their cotton ginning services are not subject to this Amendment No. 9 but continue to be governed by Maximum Price Regulation No. 211.

(5) Relationship to Amendment No. 32 to Supplementary Regulation No. 14 under General Maximum Price Regulation.[3] Sales by cotton mills of cotton bale ties when sold in combination with cotton bale bagging at a single price for the combination are not subject to this Amendment No. 9 but continue to be governed by Amendment No. 32 to Supplementary Regulation No. 14 under General Maximum Price Regulation.

(6) Relationship to Revised Price Schedule No. 4.[4] Sales of mill run ties as "iron and steel scrap" as defined in § 1304.11 (b) of Revised Price Schedule No. 4 are not subject to this Amendment No. 9 but continue to be governed by Revised Price Schedule No. 4.

* * * * *

(i) Amendment No. 9 (§§ 1306.157 (t), (u), (v), (w), (x), 1306.158a (i) and 1306.159 (r)) to Revised Price Schedule No. 49 shall become effective January 1, 1942.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 262,[1] Amendment 1]

SEASONAL AND MISCELLANEOUS FOOD COMMODITIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The text of paragraph (a) in § 1351.953 is amended; §§ 1351.951, 1351.952 and 1351.959 are amended; new subparagraphs (13) and (14) are added to § 1351.965 (a); a commodity is added to the list in § 1351.968 and three commodities are added to the list in § 1351.969; and § 1351.967a is added, all to read as set forth below:

§ 1351.951 Scope and purpose of this regulation. This regulation provides for and prescribes the maximum prices for the seasonal and miscellaneous food commodities listed in Appendix A and B hereof. It provides that each producer shall compute his maximum prices on these commodities on the basis of specified costs plus last season's markup in the case of seasonal commodities. These maximum prices must be calculated and reported to the Office of Price Administration on or before December 31, 1942. Unless this is done the producer cannot sell these commodities at all after December 31, 1942, until he does calculate and report his prices under this regulation. Once the producer has calculated and reported his maximum prices under this regulation he cannot sell these commodities at a higher price though he may sell them at a lower price and he must continue all customary allowances, discounts and other price differentials. Further, once a maximum price on a commodity covered by this regulation is calculated and reported as required by this regulation it cannot be changed except with the written permission of the Office of Price Administration in cases of excusable clerical error or other mistake.

§ 1351.952 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation. After a producer has calculated and reported his maximum prices under this regulation on any seasonal or miscellaneous food commodity covered hereby, the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall have no further application to sales or deliveries by him thereof; and after December 31, 1942, the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall not apply to sales or deliveries by producers of seasonal and miscellaneous food commodities hereinafter listed in Appendix A and B hereof.

§ 1351.953 Prohibition against dealing in listed seasonal and miscellaneous food commodities above maximum prices. (a) After December 31, 1942, regardless of any contract or any other obligation:

* * * * *

§ 1351.959 Reporting of maximum prices calculated and determined hereunder. On or before December 31, 1942, the producer shall calculate and report his maximum price or prices under this regulation to the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., setting forth by verified statement in writing, the detailed figures used in determining his maximum price or prices hereunder and any permitted package or unit net weight changes, itemizing each ingredient, packaging material and labor cost and selling price or prices used in the several calculations herein required.

Once reported, a maximum price calculated and determined under this regulation may not be changed except with the written permission of the Office of Price Administration in cases of excusable clerical error or other mistake.

Every maximum price or package or unit net weight change reported under this regulation shall be subject to adjustment (not to apply retroactively) at any time upon the written order of the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.965 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 262 the term:

* * * * *

(13) "Christmas packed dried fruits" means any assortment of one or more dried or glace fruits, with or without nuts, especially packed for sale during the Christmas season.

(14) "Canned chili con carne" means the chili con carne product purified by heat and packed in hermetically sealed containers according to the formula stated in War Production Board Conservation Order M-81, as amended.

§ 1351.968 Appendix A: Seasonal food commodities covered by this regulation. The following seasonal food commodities are covered and shall be governed by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 262.

Commodity:	Base period
* * *	* *
Christmas packed dried fruits	November-December 1941.

§ 1351.969 Appendix B: Miscellaneous food commodities covered by this regulation. The following miscellaneous food commodities are covered by and shall be governed by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 262.

* * * * *

Canned chili con carne
Julienne potatoes
Shoestring potatoes

§ 1351.967a Effective dates of amendments. (a) Amendment No. 1 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 262 (§§ 1351.951, 1351.952, 1351.953, 1351.959, 1351.965 (a) (13) and (14), 1351.967a, 1351.968 and 1351.969) shall become effective December 23, 1942.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.)

Issued this 23d day of December 1942.

PART 1381—SOFTWOOD LUMBER

[MPR 253,[1] Amendment 1]

REDWOOD LUMBER AND MILLWORK

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1381.412 (b) is amended by adding subparagraph (5) and § 1381.411a is added as set forth below:

§ 1381.412 Appendix A: Maximum prices for Redwood lumber and millwork where shipment originates at a mill and purchaser takes delivery in the Western area. * * *

(b) Delivered prices in the Western area, except as otherwise provided in tables 12 and 13, shall be determined as follows:

* * * * *

(5) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of subparagraphs (1), (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph, where shipment (by either truck or rail) originates at a mill located outside the boundaries of Humboldt, Mendocino, Del Norte and Sonoma Counties, California, the seller may compute transportation charges on the basis of the applicable rail freight rates from Eureka, California to point of destination.

§ 1381.411a Effective dates of amendments. (a) Amendment No. 1 (§§ 1381.412 and 1381.411a) to Maximum Price Regulation 253 shall become effective on the 29th day of December 1942.

PART 1381—SOFTWOOD LUMBER

[MPR 94]

WESTERN PINE AND ASSOCIATED SPECIES OF LUMBER

The title, the preamble and §§ 1312.251 to 1312.262, inclusive, are renumbered, redesignated and amended to read as set forth herein:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper to establish specific maximum prices for the sale of Western pine and certain associated secondary species of lumber. In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation is issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The Price Administrator has given due consideration to prices prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and to relevant factors of general applicability. So far as practicable the Price Administrator has consulted with representatives of trade and industry.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 94, Western Pine and Associated Species of Lumber, is hereby issued.

Sec.
1381.501 Sales of Western pine and associated species of lumber at higher than maximum prices prohibited.
1381.502 What products, persons and transactions are covered.
1381.503 Direct-mill retail sales.
1381.504 How to figure delivered prices including imports.
1381.505 What the invoice must contain.
1381.506 Prohibited practices.
1381.507 Grades, specifications and extras not specifically priced.
1381.508 Petitions for adjustment and amendment.
1381.509 Records and reports.
1381.510 Enforcement and licensing.
1381.511 Relation to other regulations.
1381.512 Effective date.
1381.513 Appendix A: Maximum prices for Ponderosa pine lumber.
1381.514 Appendix B: Maximum prices for Idaho white pine lumber.
1381.515 Appendix C: Maximum prices for sugar pine lumber.
1381.516 Appendix D: Maximum prices for inland larch, Douglas fir and hemlock.
1381.517 Appendix E: Maximum prices for white fir lumber.
1381.518 Appendix F: Maximum prices for Engelmann spruce lumber.
1381.519 Appendix G: Maximum prices for inland red cedar lumber.
1381.520 Appendix H: Maximum prices for incense cedar lumber.
1381.521 Appendix I: Permitted estimated weights.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1381.501 to 1381.521, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong., E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1381.501 Sales of Western pine and associated species of lumber at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after December 29, 1942, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business, any Western pine and associated species of lumber for direct-mill shipment at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer or attempt to do any of these things. Maximum f. o. b. mill prices are set forth in Appendices A to H.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices may, of course, be charged and paid.

§ 1381.502 What products, persons and transactions are covered—(a) What transactions are covered—(1) Direct-mill shipments. This ceiling applies to all shipments originating at a mill, no matter who the seller is, and no matter whether he usually is known as a mill, wholesaler, retailer or anything else. It does not apply to sales out of distribution yard stock. (The prices for yard sales may be found either in Maximum Price Regulation No. 215 or in the General Maximum Price Regulation, depending on the nature of the sale and the purchaser.) A shipment is regarded as originating at a mill if the lumber reaches the purchaser without ever becoming an integral part of the stock of a distribution yard. A sale is considered a sale out of distribution yard stock only if the lumber was a part of regular yard stock at the time the sale was made. For example, if a retail yard takes an order for a defense housing project, and then brings the lumber from a mill, puts it in his yard, and delivers it as needed, the sale is subject to this regulation.

(2) How to tell a mill from a distribution yard—(i) General tests. The term "mill", as used here, covers what are known in the trade as sawmills, planing mills and concentration yards. Three types of establishment are described below: the first, (a), a typical sawmill or planing mill; the second, (b), a typical concentration yard; and the third, (c), a typical distribution yard. An establishment which resembles (a) or (b) more than it does (c) is considered a mill; and one which resembles (c) more than it does (a) or (b) is considered a distribution yard:

(a) An establishment which is chiefly engaged in manufacturing lumber from logs or rough lumber by sawing or planing; which is located in or near a lumber producing area; which makes and sells chiefly Western pine and associated species of lumber;

(b) An establishment which concentrates and prepares lumber for commercial shipment, which keeps in stock mostly Western pine and associated species of lumber, which has its lumber brought in chiefly in rough green form by truck from small local sawmills and sells chiefly for rail shipment, and which has been located at its particular site to be near the lumber producing area;

(c) A wholesale or retail lumber yard which gets lumber from mills or other yards; unloads, sorts, stores, and resells or redistributes it; which regularly maintains a varied stock of lumber from different regions; which gets its lumber mostly by rail and sells mostly for truck shipment; which is equipped to make quick deliveries of many different items of lumber; and which has been located at its particular site in order to be near a lumber consuming area.

(3) No quantity limits. There are no quantity limits on the transactions covered by this regulation. All direct-mill sales, large or small, are covered.

(b) What products are covered—(1) General. This regulation covers all Western pine and associated species of lumber, whether the grades, sizes, and specifications are specifically named in the price tables or not. All grade terms have the meaning given in the "Standard Grading Rules" published by the Western Pine Association, and effective July 1, 1942; but any item not graded in accordance with these rules is nevertheless subject to this regulation.

(2) Species and areas. The following species from the following areas are covered by this regulation:

(i) Ponderosa pine (pinus ponderosa), Idaho white pine (pinus monticola), and sugar pine (pinus lambertiana) produced in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, California, Montana, Canada, and Mexico;

(ii) Douglas fir (pseudotsuga taxifolia), West Coast hemlock (tsuga heterophylla, tsuga mertensiana), and true fir (abies), produced in Idaho and Montana, in those portions of Washington and Oregon east of the crest of the Cascade Mountains, and in California, except the counties of Del Norte, Humboldt, Mendocino, and Sonoma. A mill which because of its location near the crest of the Cascade Mountains produces "coast type" Douglas fir, hemlock, or true fir, and which has customarily graded these species under the West Coast Lumbermen's Association Standard Grading and Dressing Rules, and sold them in competition with producers located in the area covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 26 may apply to the Portland, Oregon, office of the Office of Price Administration for special permission to use the maximum prices in Maximum Price Regulation No. 26 instead of the prices in Maximum Price Regulation No. 94. A mill which applies for this special permission must make a sworn statement that the conditions set out in this paragraph exist in its operations. The Portland, Oregon office may act upon the application by letter or telegram;

(iii) Inland larch (larix occidentalis), Engelmann spruce (picea), red cedar (tsuga plicata), and incense cedar (libocedrus decurrens) produced in Idaho and Montana, in those portions of Washington and Oregon east of the crest of the Cascade Mountains, in California except the counties of Del Norte, Humboldt, Mendocino, and Sonoma, and in Canada and Mexico.

(c) What persons are covered. Any person who makes the kind of sale or purchase, or who acts as broker in a sale covered by this regulation, is subject to it. The term "person" includes: an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized groups; their legal successors or representatives; the United States, or any government, or any of its political subdivisions; or any agency of any of the foregoing.

§ 1381.503 Direct-mill retail sales. In the case of "direct-mill retail sales," a mark-up of not more than $3.50 per 1,000 feet board measure may be added to the maximum prices set forth herein.

(a) A "direct-mill retail sale" means a sale of lumber direct from the mill to a consumer or contractor for use in building, construction, remodeling, repair, maintenance or fabrication. It does not mean a sale to a wholesaler or other person for resale in substantially the same form.

(b) It includes only sales of less than 20,000 feet board measure. The size of the sale is determined by the size of the entire order.

(c) The sale must be accompanied by the following services: delivery to the job site or other place specified by the purchaser and at such time and in such quantity as the purchaser specifies; the privilege of exchanging the goods and returning unused materials and the right to have the seller replace deficiencies and adjust complaints from stock kept on hand for such purposes.

§ 1381.504 How to figure delivery prices, including imports—(a) Transportation addition. The transportation charges set forth below may be added to the maximum f. o. b. mill prices.

(1) Common or contract carrier. (i) When the estimated dry weights in Appendix I are used, the rate times the estimated weight is the proper transportation charge even if the estimated dry weights are higher than actual weights. Estimated green weights may be used in calculating transportation charges only if the moisture content is greater than 19%. Higher estimated weights than those in Appendix I may not be used. The estimated weight must be the weight for the exact kind of lumber actually shipped. For example, green weights cannot be used if dry lumber is shipped. The transportation charge may be evened out to the nearest quarter dollar per M.

(ii) When estimated weights are not used, the amount added for transportation must not be more than the amount actually paid to the common or contract carrier, evened out to the nearest quarter-dollar per M.

(2) Private truck. When shipment is by truck owned or controlled by the seller, the amount added for transportation may not be more than the actual cost to the seller of delivery by truck; and, no matter what the actual cost is, the amount added may not be more than the railroad charge at the carload rate for the most similar haul. However, if this railroad charge is less than $1.50, and if the actual cost of delivery is more than $1.50, a transportation charge of $1.50 may be made. But in any event, if the actual cost is less than the railroad carload charge, or less than $1.50, only the actual cost may be added.

(3) Trucking to railhead. When a truck haul precedes rail shipment, as when a mill located away from a railhead hauls lumber by truck to the railroad, no addition may be made for the truck haul. However, in the following three cases a mill may apply for special permission to make an addition:

(i) Where the mill was located away from rail connections because it specialized in water-borne lumber, and where shortage of shipping has forced it to operate by rail;

(ii) Where the mill prior to the shortage of tires and gasoline, shipped lumber to the particular final destination, principally by all-truck haul, and now wishes to convert to truck-and-rail haul to save tires and gasoline;

(iii) Where a mill's rail connection has been abandoned since September 5, 1941.

The application should be made by letter to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and may be acted upon by letter. The addition may not be made on quotations or sales until permission has been received.

(4) Truck delivery after rail haul. When truck delivery follows a rail haul, the actual cost of truck delivery may be added.

(5) All-truck haul. When an all-truck haul ends in delivery to the job site, no special addition may be made above the charges provided in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, since in this case, delivery to the job site involves no extra expense.

(6) "Averaging-out." (i) When a single order for which a single flat delivered price was quoted and accepted, is shipped from two or more mills to a single destination on varying freight rates, the seller may average-out the transportation charges. For example, if a wholesaler bids $33.00 on a single order of a hundred thousand feet of lumber, the ceiling price being $30.00 and the estimated freight $3.00, he can ship half of it on a rate resulting in a $1.00 freight charge and half on a rate resulting in a $5.00 freight charge.

(ii) In order that no single invoice shall appear to be false or over the ceiling, the seller must write on each invoice that the particular shipment is part of a larger order. Then, when shipment has been completed, he must render a final invoice which shows the individual f. o. b. mill prices separately, the amount shipped from each mill, the freight charge for each shipment, and a reconciliation of the total amount so computed with the agreed delivered sale price and also with the maximum price permitted by this regulation.

(iii) In order that it may be determined within a reasonable length of time whether or not a seller has complied with the Regulation, this privilege of "averaging-out" shall extend only to shipments delivered to a common carrier within three months of the date of the contract.

(b) Imports. The transportation addition on shipments originating in Canada and Mexico is subject to the rules in this section, but with the following additional limitations:

(1) In the case of Canada, the addition may not be greater than if the shipment had originated at Spokane, Washington;

(2) In the case of Mexico, the addition may not be greater than if the shipment had originated at Susanville, California.

§ 1381.505 What the invoice must contain—(a) General. Because of the large number of possible additions to the basic f. o. b. mill prices, it is necessary that some of them be separately shown on the invoice. Otherwise the purchaser and the Office of Price Administration could not tell in many cases whether a price which appeared to be above the ceiling was legal or not.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 7 F.R. 8961.

Failure to invoice properly is just as much a violation of this Regulation as charging an excessive price.

(b) Basic price. All invoices must contain a sufficiently complete description of the lumber to show whether the price is proper or not. Any working, specification, or extra which affects the maximum price must be mentioned in the description. The amount added for these does not have to be separately shown, except in a few special cases which are specifically mentioned later.

(c) Transportation charges. In delivered sales, the invoice must contain:

(1) Point of origin of shipment,

(2) Destination,

(3) Rail or truck rate (or, if private truck, amount added for transportation),

(4) The words "direct-mill shipment."

(d) Delivery and related charges. Any separate charge which the seller is permitted to make for the following must be separately shown on the invoice:

(1) Trucking from mill to railhead,

(2) Truck delivery after rail haul.

(e) Mark-ups. If the price exceeds the basic mill price because of the direct-mill retail sale mark-up authorized by § 1381.503, the invoice should show the amount of the mark-up separately, labeled "direct-mill retail sale."

(f) Average price on different items. When specified amounts or percentages of different grades, classes, or sizes of lumber are sold at an average price, it is permissible to invoice at an average price, but only if all of the following conditions are observed:

(1) The footage of each item must be shown separately. For example, if an order of 20% No. 1, 60% No. 2, and 20% No. 3 has been sold at an average price, the exact footage tally of each grade must appear on the invoice.

(2) In addition, if the order is shipped in more than one carload or truck load, the invoice for each carload or truck load must show that it is part of a larger order, and identify the order. For example, the invoice might state: "Shipment No. 3 of our order No. 4444 for 3,000,000 ft."

(3) The average price for the lumber actually shipped must not be higher than the average, weighted by quantity, of the individual maximum prices of the items shipped. In other words, the final price must not be higher than it would have been if all the individual grades, classes, and sizes shipped had been sold separately at the individual ceiling prices.

(4) In order that it may be determined within a reasonable length of time whether a seller has complied with the regulation, this privilege of selling at an average price extends only to shipments delivered to a common carrier within three months of the date of the contract.

§ 1381.506 Prohibited practices — (a) General. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the dollars and cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-agreements, trade understandings and the like.

(b) Specific practices. The following are among the specific practices prohibited:

(1) Getting the effect of a higher price by changing credit practices from what they were in October 1941. This includes decreasing credit periods, or making greater charges for extension of credit. In any case, on sales made through the Office of the Chief of Engineers, War Department, terms of 30 days net may be used. In all cases, if the sale is on cash terms, the maximum price must be reduced by the same amount as the sale price would have been reduced for similar cash terms on October 1, 1941. For example, if the maximum price without cash discount is $10.00, and if in sales of this item on October 1, 1941 to purchasers of a certain class, the seller reduced sales prices 2 percent for cash within 10 days, the ceiling cash price in sales to purchasers of this class is $9.90.

(2) Refusing, without good reason, to ship except in specified or restricted random lengths or widths, or under other circumstances which bring the seller an extra return.

(3) Selling as specified lengths or widths a shipment of lumber which is substantially equivalent to random lengths or widths; or reselling as specified lengths or widths a shipment bought by the seller as random lengths or widths.

(4) Grading as a special grade lumber which can be graded as a standard grade; or wrongly grading or invoicing lumber in any other way.

(5) Refusing to sell on an f. o. b. mill basis, and insisting on selling on a delivered basis.

(6) Unnecessarily routing lumber through a distribution yard.

(7) Quoting a gross price above the maximum price, even if accompanied by a discount the effect of which is to bring the net price below the maximum.

(8) Making the buyer take something he does not want in order to get what he does want; for example, making a buyer who orders No. 2 common take all the upper grades that develop.

(c) Purchasing commissions. A purchasing commission based on the quantity or value of lumber purchased may not be charged or paid, if the commission plus the purchase price is higher than the maximum price permitted by this regulation.

(d) Combination grades. Lumber sold on combination grades may not be sold at above the maximum price for the lowest grade actually named in the combination. For example, the maximum price for No. 2 common and better is that set for No. 2 common. Of course, the amount of the different grades included can be quoted and shown separately on the invoice at the individual prices for those grades. Also, it is permissible to sell on the basis of a stated percentage of better grades, such as No. 2 with 15% No. 1. In this case the price of 15% of the footage may be the No. 1 price, if the invoice shows that the footage tally of the lumber actually shipped runs at least 15% No. 1. It is also permissible to quote a grade at that grade's price, with higher grades developing to be included at the grade differential. For example, when a seller quotes No. 2 at the No. 2 price, with No. 1 developing to be included at the No. 1 price, this is proper, since no actual dollars-and-cents quotation above the No. 2 price is made. Again, the final price must be based on actual tally. Note, however, that it is a violation to insist on the buyer's taking grades he does not want in order to get the grade he does want.

(e) Adjustable pricing. A price may not be made adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect at some time after delivery of the lumber has been completed. But the price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

§ 1381.507 Grades, specifications, and extras not specifically priced—(a) General. Grades and classes of Western pine and associated species of lumber not specifically priced in Appendices A to H, including export grades, are nevertheless subject to this regulation.

(b) Grades in 8000 E list. The maximum price for any item which is subject to this regulation but which is graded under rules other than those of the Western Pine Association "Standard Grading Rules" is the maximum price of the grade in this regulation to which it is equivalent under the United States Government Specifications 8000 E, "Lumber Specifications for Temporary Housing", as revised. For example, if No. 1 Douglas fir dimension subject to this regulation is sold at an Army Engineers' bid-letting on West Coast Lumbermen's Association grading rules, the maximum price is that set for No. 1 Douglas fir dimension in this regulation. The reason is that "Coast" Douglas fir and inland Douglas fir are listed as equivalent in the 8000 E list.

(c) All other cases. (1) In all other cases, the maximum price of a grade or class of lumber is a price which bears the October 1941 relation to the price of the appropriate "yardstick" grade. The "yardstick" for select and shop grades is 1 x 8 random length, C Select, S4S, dry; and for common and dimension grades is 1 x 8, random length, No. 3 Common, S4S, dry. The species for the yardstick should be either ponderosa pine or Idaho white pine, whichever represents the larger part of the seller's production. The seller should find the difference between the price received for the grade being priced and the yardstick grade in October 1941, or the first month before that in which he had sales of both grades. This difference is then added to or subtracted from the maximum price for the yardstick grade. The result is the seller's maximum price. This price, with a complete description of the grade and the way the price was computed, must be reported to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and may be ordered reduced, if it is found excessive. But if the price is not disapproved within 30 days of the receipt of the report, it is approved.

(2) If the seller cannot figure a maximum price under this paragraph, or if he wants to make an addition for a working, specification, service, or other extra which is not specifically provided for, he should write to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., giving a complete description of the thing to be priced, and his requested price, and any facts supporting the request. The Office of Price Administration will then by letter give him either a specific maximum price or instructions on how to compute it. If the Office of Price Administration has not acted upon the request within 30 days, the requested price is approved.

(3) A seller using this special pricing paragraph (c) can go ahead with delivery of the lumber and collection of the price he has computed or requested. But he must tell the buyer that the price is subject to revision within the thirty-day period, and, if the price is ordered reduced, must refund any excess over the final approved price.

§ 1381.508 Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment—(a) Government contracts. (1) The term "government contracts" is here used to include any contract with the United States or any of its agencies, or with the Government or any governmental agency of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to promote the defense of the United States". It also includes any subcontract under this kind of contract.

(2) Any person who has made or intends to make a "government contract" and who thinks that a maximum price in this regulation is impeding or threatens to impede production of lumber which is essential to the war program and which is or will be the subject of the contract, may file an application for adjustment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6.

(3) As soon as the application is filed, contracts, deliveries and payments may be made at the requested price, subject to refund if the requested price is disapproved or lowered. The seller must tell the buyer that the delivery is made subject to this refund.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1381.509 Records and reports—(a) Records. All sellers of Western pine and associated species of lumber must keep records which will show a complete description of the item of lumber sold, the name and address of the buyer, the point of origin and destination of the shipment, the date of the sale and the price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the name and address of the seller. These records must be kept for any month in which the seller or buyer sold or bought 20,000 ft. BM or more of Western pine and associated species of lumber. They must be kept for two years, for inspection by the Office of Price Administration. Any records which the Office of Price Administration later requires must also be kept.

(b) Reports. Any reports that the Office of Price Administration requires must be submitted.

§ 1381.510 Enforcement and licensing. (a) Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for revocation of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this regulation or of any other regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration are urged to communicate with the nearest field, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

(c) War procurement agencies and their contracting or paying finance officers are not subject to any liability civil or criminal, imposed by this regulation. "War procurement agencies" include the War Department, the Navy Department, the United States Maritime Commission and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, or any of their agencies.

(d) All sellers of Western pine and associated species of lumber under this regulation, except mills, are licensed by Supplementary Order 18.[2] This order, in brief, provides that a license is necessary, except for mills, to make sales under this regulation. A license is automatically granted to all sellers making these sales. It is not necessary to apply specially for the license, but a registration may later be required. The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Supplementary Order 18, tell the circumstances under which licenses may be suspended. The license cannot be transferred.

§ 1381.511 Relation to other regulations—(a) General Maximum Price Regulation. Any sale or delivery covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 94 is not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) Maximum Export Price Regulation.[3] The maximum price for export sales of Western pine and associated species of lumber is governed by the Maximum Export Price Regulation.

§ 1381.512 Effective date. (a) This Regulation (§§ 1381.501 to 1381.521, inclusive) shall become effective December 29, 1942.

(b) If lumber has been received before December 29, 1942, by a carrier, other than one owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to a buyer, that shipment is not subject to this regulation. It remains subject to the terms of any regulation, whether the General Maximum Price Regulation or an earlier version of this regulation, which covered it at the time the lumber was turned over to the carrier.

§ 1381.513 Appendix A: Maximum prices for Ponderosa pine lumber. For Ponderosa pine lumber, the maximum prices f. o. b. mill per one thousand feet board measure, surfaced, air dried or kiln dried (except where otherwise specified in price tables) in mixed or straight load shipments, shall be as follows:

Differentials and Rules Applicable to All Grades of Ponderosa Pine

1. Ordinary resawing, add $1.00.
2. Resawing and S2S, all grades, add $2.00.
3. Ripping, per rip, add $1.00.
4. Novelty-saw ripping, add $2.00.
5. Ripping and S4S, add $3.00.
6. Cross cutting, per cut, add $1.00.
7. Cleating (ordinary), add $1.50.
8. Bundling (ordinary), add $1.00.
9. Bundling (export), add $5.00.
10. 4/4 and thicker stock dressed thicker than standard, for each 1/32'', add $1.00.
11. For stock run S4S wider than standard width (may be hit or miss), add $1.00.
12. Standard casing and base, jambs, sill stock, pulley stiles, log cabin siding, bungalow siding, dolly varden siding and all similar patterns (not mouldings) 8'' or 10'' beveled siding, all grades, to price of grade desired, add $5.00.
13. Patterns not conforming to Association Standard patterns, to price of grade desired, add $7.50.
14. Standard patterns, other than S2S and S4S, which are not provided for in item 12, above, add $2.00: but no such addition shall apply to the following:
    - (1) S2S and CM.
    - (2) D and M.
    - (3) Shiplap.
    - (4) Corn cribbing.
    - (5) Beaded shelving.
    - (6) Casket stock.
15. Cutting to specified exact length, add $1.00.
16. All stock shipped in inter-divisional stop-over cars, add $1.00.
17. Random lengths are 6' and longer unless otherwise provided in list.
18. No extra charge for double end trimming.
19. All prices shown, except where otherwise specified (plank or timbers), are for dry lumber. For green lumber not specified green in tables, deduct 15% from the maximum price for the same item in dry condition. Lumber shall be considered green if, when shipped, the moisture content is greater than 19%.

§ 1381.514 Appendix B: Maximum prices for Idaho white pine lumber. For Idaho white pine lumber the maximum prices f. o. b. mill per one thousand feet board measure, surfaced, air dried or kiln dried (except where otherwise specified in price tables), in mixed or straight load shipments, shall be as follows:

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Supp. Reg. 14[1] of GMPR[2], Amendment 81]

SOYBEAN, COTTONSEED AND PEANUT OIL MEALS AND OIL CAKES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* A new subparagraph (50) is hereby added to paragraph (a) of § 1499.73 of the General Maximum Price Regulation as set forth below.

§ 1499.73 Modification of maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for certain commodities, services and transactions. (a) The maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for the commodities, services and transactions listed below are modified as hereinafter provided.

* * * * *

(50) Soybean, cottonseed and peanut oil meals and oil cakes—(i) Maximum prices for sales of soybean, cottonseed and peanut oil meals and oil cakes. The maximum prices for sales of soybean, cotton seed and peanut oil meals and oil cakes, shall be as follows:

(a) Sales by a processor—(1) Sales in carload lots. The maximum price that a processor may charge (and that a jobber, wholesaler and retailer may pay) for sales of soybean, cottonseed and peanut oil meals or oil cakes f. o. b. his plant in carload lots shall be the highest price which he is permitted to charge on such sales under and pursuant to contract heretofore executed between said processor and the Commodity Credit Corporation.

(2) Sales in less-than-carload lots. The maximum price that a processor may charge for sales of soybean, cottonseed and peanut oil meals or oil cakes f. o. b. his plant in less-than-carload lots shall be: (a) In the case of sales to jobbers, wholesalers and retailers $1.00 per ton (maximum differential or profit margin) over his above specified maximum price for sales in carload lots; and (b) in the case of sales to persons other than jobbers, wholesalers and retailers, $3.00 per ton (maximum differential or profit margin) over his above specified maximum price for sales in carload lots.

(b) Sales by a jobber. The maximum price that a jobber may charge for sales of soybean, cottonseed and peanut oil meals or oil cakes shall be 50¢ per ton (maximum profit margin) over the maximum price which he could lawfully have paid, together with all applicable transportation charges (excluding local hauling charges) at the lowest established rate never exceeding actual transportation charges.

(c) Sales by a wholesaler. The maximum price that a wholesaler may charge for sales of soybean, cottonseed and peanut oil meals or oil cakes shall be $2.50 per ton (maximum profit margin) over the maximum price which he could lawfully have paid, together with all applicable transportation charges (exclusive of local hauling charges) at the lowest established rate never exceeding actual transportation charges.

(d) Sales by a retailer. The maximum price that a retailer may charge for sales of soybean, cottonseed and peanut oil meals and oil cakes shall be $5.50 per ton (maximum profit margin) over the maximum price which he could lawfully have paid, together with all applicable transportation charges (excluding local hauling charges) at the lowest established rate never exceeding actual transportation charges.

(e) The maximum profit margins above specified may be charged only once, that is to say, on sales between processors, or on sales between jobbers, or on sales between wholesalers or on sales between retailers the applicable differential profit margin or markup may be added only once.

(ii) Maximum prices for sales in sacks. Where the jobber, wholesaler, or retailer buys soybean, cottonseed or peanut oil meal or oil cake unsacked and resells the same sacked, he may add to his maximum price as specified in subdivision (i) above, the replacement cost of sacks: Provided, That the total charge does not exceed $3.50 per ton.

(iii) Maximum prices for sales of imported soybean, cottonseed or peanut oil meal or oil cake. Where the jobber, wholesaler, or retailer buys or imports soybean, cottonseed or peanut oil meal or oil cake, he may add the actual duties paid plus an additional 50¢ per ton to his maximum price as specified in subdivision (i) and (ii) above.

(iv) Profit margin includes all charges. The maximum prices, differentials and profit margins above specified include, and no increase or charges shall in any manner be made for, brokerage, commissions, storage, insurance, extension of credit, carrying charges, handling charges, or any other charges of any nature whatsoever.

(v) Definitions. For the purposes of this subparagraph (50) the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Processor" means any person who by expeller, extraction or hydraulic process removes oil from soybeans, cottonseeds, or peanuts, and in that process produces soybean, cottonseed or peanut oil meal or oil cake.

(b) "Jobber" means a person who buys soybean, cottonseed or peanut oil meal or oil cake, whether in carlots, or less than carlots, and resells the same without unloading into a warehouse.

(c) "Wholesaler" means a person who buys soybean, cottonseed or peanut oil meal or oil cake and unloads his purchase into a warehouse and resells the same, except at retail.

(d) "Retailer" means a person who buys soybean, cottonseed or peanut oil meal or oil cake and resells the same to a feeder or ultimate user.

(e) "Soybean, cottonseed or peanut oil meal or oil cake" means the soybean, cottonseed or peanut oil meal or oil cake produced in the manner hereinbefore described under the definition of processor.

(f) "Local hauling charges" includes all charges for transportation by vehicle for a distance of not exceeding ten miles.

(g) All other terms used in this subparagraph (50) shall have the meanings ascribed to them in § 1499.20 of this General Maximum Price Regulation.

(vi) Records and reports. Every person making a sale or purchase of soybean, cottonseed or peanut oil meal or oil cake in the course of trade or business shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long a period as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each such sale or purchase showing: (a) the date thereof, (b) the name and address of the buyer and seller, (c) the product and the quantity bought or received, (d) the price charged and the method of computing it, listing separately all items of transportation charges and the mode of transportation. Such persons shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration, and keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records hereinbefore required, as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time direct.

(vii) The provisions of this subparagraph (50) shall be applicable to the forty-eight States of the United States and to the District of Columbia.

(viii) The provisions of subparagraph (44) of paragraph (a) of this section shall, after the effective date hereof, apply only to oil meals and oil cakes other than soybean, cottonseed and peanut oil meals and oil cakes.

(b) Effective dates. * * *

(82) Amendment No. 81 (§ 1499.73 (a) (50)) to Supplementary Regulation No. 14 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall become effective December 29, 1942.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Bituminous Coal Division.

[Docket No. B–269]

MIKE MARTORANO

ORDER APPROVING PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT, ETC.

Order approving and adopting the proposed findings of fact, proposed conclusions of law and recommendation of the examiner, and order to cease and desist.

This proceeding was instituted by the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j), 5 (b), and 6 (a) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, to determine whether or not Mike Martorano, a code member operating Martorano Mine, Mine Index No. 331, located in Las Animas County, Colorado, in Subdistrict 7 of District 17, has wilfully violated the Act, the Bituminous Coal Code, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 17 for All Shipments and Price Instruction 14 of the Supplement thereto, of the rules and regulations thereunder, and whether or not, in the event that code member is found to have violated the Act, the Code, or rules and regulations thereunder, an order should be entered, revoking code membership of said Martorano, or directing code member to cease and desist from violations of the Act, the Code, and rules and regulations as above set out.

Pursuant to appropriate orders and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held before Charles O. Fowler, a duly designated Examiner of the Division at a hearing room thereof in Trinidad, Colorado, on August 13, 1942, at which all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard and at which an appearance was entered for the General Counsel of the Division and for code member.

The Examiner made and entered his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law and Recommendation in this matter dated October 23, 1942. The Examiner found that code member had wilfully violated section 4 II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code during the period October 2, 1940 through October 24, 1940, by selling approximately 70 tons of coal produced at his mine at prices less than the established minimum prices; and had wilfully violated sections 4 Part II (e) and (g) of the Act and Part II (e) and (g) of the Code, during the period from November 2, 1940, through October 31, 1941, by selling approximately 690 tons of coal produced at said mine and delivering the same at prices less than the established minimum prices plus an amount at least equal, as nearly as practicable, to the actual cost of truck transportation from the mine to the points from which all such charges were assumed and directly paid by the purchasers. The Examiner recommended that an order be entered directing code member to cease and desist from violating section 4 II (e) and (g) of the Act, the Code, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District 17 for All Shipments and Price Instruction 14 of the Supplement thereto, of the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

An opportunity was afforded to all parties to file exceptions to the Examiner's Report and supporting briefs and no such exceptions or supporting briefs were filed.

The undersigned has determined after a consideration of the record that the Proposed Findings of Fact Proposed Conclusions of Law, and Recommendation of the Examiner should be approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner be, and the same are, hereby approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned;

It is further ordered, That code member, Mike Martorano, his representatives, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and all persons acting or claiming to act on his behalf or interest, cease and desist from selling or offering to sell coals produced by the code member at his mine at prices less than the established minimum prices, contrary to the provisions of section 4 Part II (e) and (g) of the Act and Part II (e) and (g) of the Code, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 17 for All Shipments and Price Instruction 14 of the Supplement thereto, or from otherwise violating the Act, the Code and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

Notice is hereby given to code member that if he fails or refuses to comply with this Order, the Division may apply to a Circuit Court of Appeals for the enforcement thereof or otherwise proceed as authorized by the Act.

Dated: December 23, 1942.

[Docket No. 1508–FD]

INDIANA COALS CORPORATION

ORDER OF THE DIRECTOR

In the matter of the application of Indiana Coals Corporation for provisional approval as a marketing agency.

By Order of May 27, 1941, the Director, pursuant to section 12 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having provisionally approved Indiana Coals Corporation, the applicant, as a "marketing agency," subject to specified conditions designed to insure that the operations of applicant would not circumvent the standards of section 12 and the over-all objectives of the Act; and Conditions 2 and 4, respectively, as contained in said order having been suspended and further suspended, respectively, by orders issued on December 24, 1941, March 17, 1942, and June 26, 1942, respectively; and

A supplemental motion requesting that Conditions 2 and 4 of the order issued in the above-entitled matter on May 27, 1941, be suspended for a period of one year from December 22, 1942, and that said order issued on May 27, 1941, be not withdrawn and shall continue in effect for a period of one year from December 22, 1942; and

In said motion applicant recites that it has not functioned for a sufficient length of time to permit the Director to determine the reasonableness of Conditions 2 and 4 with respect to applicant; and

It appearing to the Acting Director that no harm will result from a further suspension of the operations of said Conditions 2 and 4;

It is concluded that the prayer of applicant should be granted to the extent that the operation of Conditions 2 and 4 set forth in the Order granting provisional approval dated May 27, 1941, be suspended for a period of six months from December 22, 1942, unless such suspension is sooner withdrawn by subsequent order;

It is further concluded that jurisdiction should be reserved by the undersigned to order applicant thereafter to show cause why the operation of said Conditions 2 and 4 should be further suspended, if in the opinion of the undersigned such action should be deemed advisable, and to impose any further conditions that might be found necessary;

It is further concluded that the provisional approval of applicant as a marketing agency, heretofore granted by Order of the Director, dated May 27, 1941, not be withdrawn and that the revocation of said Order be extended for a period of six months from December 22, 1942, subject to all the applicable conditions set forth in the earlier orders issued in this proceeding.

It is further concluded that the Supplemental Motion of Applicant should be granted to the extent set forth above and in all other respects should be denied.

And it is so ordered.

Dated: December 22, 1942.

BOYD SLUSHER

[Docket No. B–298]

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO WITHDRAW COMPLAINT AND DISCONTINUING MATTER

In the matter of Boyd Slusher, Code Member.

A complaint in the above-entitled matter dated July 1, 1942, having been duly filed on July 3, 1942, with the Bituminous Coal Division by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 8, complainant, and the complainant having filed with the Division on December 4, 1942, a motion to withdraw said complaint without prejudice; and

The Director deeming it advisable to grant said motion;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the motion to withdraw complaint herein be and the same hereby is granted without prejudice to the filing of a new complaint against the above-named code member; and

It is further ordered, That the above-entitled matter be and the same hereby is discontinued.

OANA BROTHERS

Re: Interests of partners in Oana Brothers, and assets of Oana Brothers.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding that the property described as follows:

All right, title and interest of Kohei Oana, and Yoitsu Oana, and each of them, the last known address of both of whom was represented to the undersigned as being Japan, as copartners in and to the partnership known as Oana Brothers, under which name such copartners are doing business and maintaining an office at Hood River, Oregon, which is a business enterprise within the United States, and all property of any nature whatsoever owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, or held on behalf of or on account of or owing to, said partnership, including particularly, but not limited to, the real and personal property, described in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, is property of nationals, and represents ownership of said business enterprise which is a national, of a designated enemy country (Japan), and determining that to the extent that any or all of such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Japan), and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C. on October 28, 1942.

ASSETS OF BUSINESS ENTERPRISE OWNED BY JOSEPH FERIGO

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

(a) Finding that Joseph Ferigo, whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Naples, Italy, is a national of a designated enemy country (Italy);

(b) Finding that Joseph Ferigo is the sole owner of a real estate and investment business owning the properties more particularly described in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, which real estate and investment business is a business enterprise within the United States which is managed by Morrison and Lynn, attorneys, New York, New York, and therefore determining that such business enterprise is a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Italy);

(c) Finding, therefore, that all property of any nature whatsoever owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, or held on behalf of or on account of or owing to said business enterprise, including particularly, but not limited to the property described in the aforesaid Exhibit A, is property of a business enterprise which is a national of a designated enemy country (Italy);

(d) Determining that to the extent that such national is a person not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Italy)

(e) Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in paragraph (c) to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

(f) Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.
